SOME GOOD ADVICE

TO CORN CONTEST BOYS

HOW THEY CAN MAKE MORE CORN

Importance of Proper Fertilization and Careful Cultivation.

Farmville, N. C., April 26, 1911.

Editor Reflector:

It is a source of pleasure to me to be able to truthfully say that Pitt county was ahead in the boys' corn contest last year, inasmuch as Pitt had nine successful ones and no other county above five. It is true that several boys reported having made more corn than our boys, but this was due to the corn having been planted upon land which had received previously an abundance of fertilizer for other crops. Nine out of forty is not a very large per cent., especially as we want eleven out of a total of forty-four this year. If you try and fail, do not be discouraged, but profit by your failure and try again.

There is one thing that I wish all to know right now, and that is that guano, as usually put up, will not make a profitable crop of corn, no matter how much you may use; and also you must remember that poor land without excessive quantities of animal manure cannot produce as much as sixty-five bushels of corn. With these two facts well established, let's see if we can, what is necessary for success in producing a large crop of corn. After the land has been well prepared and well planted to a good variety of corn, provided the seasons are normal, we should be able to forecast with tolerable accuracy how much corn we may expect.

I learn it from good authority that a crop of thirty-five bushels will remove from the land 58 pounds of nitrogen, 23 pounds of phosphoric acid and 36 pounds of potash. Now if you have planted land that without any fertilizer would produce thirty-five bushels of corn, in order to make thirty-five bushels more doesn't it seem reasonable that we should apply to the land in some form 58 lbs. of nitrogen, 23 pounds phosphoric acid and 36 pounds of potash?

A ton of first rate horse or cow manure will contain approximately 16 pounds of nitrogen and will be as valuable as 100 pounds of nitrate of soda. If you use stable manure to furnish the nitrogen, you should apply three and six-tenths tons. If you prefer nitrate of soda you will need 375 pounds, or if you prefer cotton seed meal it will take 750 pounds. If you have used two tons of stable manure then you might use only 175 pounds of nitrate of soda.

Two hundred pounds of acid phosphate and three hundred of kainit should supply the need, 28 pounds of phosphoric acid and 36 pounds of potash.

Now, boys, do not expect seventy bushels of corn with any less fertilizing, and do not be too sure of making the seventy bushels with even that much.

In this contest not over ten dollars of bought fertilizer should be used, so continue every week to put on all the hen house manure and all the ashes raised upon the place. Stir your land about two inches deep every week and keep all the weeds and grass out, and I believe you will make a fine crop of corn.

Of course if your land, unaided by fertilizer, will make only fifteen bushels of corn, then the amount suggested by me should be doubled.

You see it takes nearly one pound of nitrogen, one half pound of phosphoric acid and three-fourths pound of potash to make a bushel of corn.

If I am correct 8-2-2 or 8-4-4 goods are not properly balanced for corn, but we should have 4-8-6.

Furthermore, I believe one hundred bushels of shell marl applied to an acre would supply sufficient phosphoric acid, and one might cut out that much bought fertilizer.

My son has not planted his corn yet, but he has put out about three tons of manure and is mixing it and grazing it with sheep, hogs and calves.

TRYING TO HELP.

Greenville Needs Manufacturing Enterprises.

Editor Reflector:

Take this rose bud: I like your paper, you give the news and you are trying to help your town and community. No bad thing to do. I also like the spirit you show in many things; you seem to want to deal fair with all. We are looking for great things from you. I like the town of Greenville and the people. Wish we had several good enterprises here, more than we have. The town could easily stand them. We sorely need some manufacturing industries. Could we not also have a Y. M. C. A.? What say you? Greenville can do any thing if she will. Let's say we will.

THE SENSATION GROWS.

More Interest in Los Angeles Dynamite Case.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Indianapolis, April 26.—A new witness in the dynamite case, John R. Cook, formerly bookkeeper in National headquarters here of the Iron Workers Union, is reported to have told the authorities that the arrest of McMamara brothers and McManigill presented the dynamite outrage infinitely greater than any of those now attributed to the prisoners. Cook is reported to have declared that he knew why dynamite was hidden in the basement of the American Central life building and where it was to have been used. Interest centered here today in the appearance before the grand jury of William J. Burns, head of the detective agency which accomplished the arrests in the dynamite case.

INSURGENTS RUSHING SUPPLIES

Duncan Asks Authority to Stop Ammunition.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington, April 26.—General Duncan, commanding the United States troops at San Antonio, Texas, reported to President Taft today that under the terms of armistice between the warring factions in Mexico, ammunition can be taken across the line at Juarez. He asks for authority to stop this traffic. In the report to General Duncan from Colonel Steeves at El Paso, Colonel Steeves says that the insurgents have established under protection of the armistice a crossing at Rio Grande river below Juarez and are hauling supplies in large quantities into their camp.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Items of Interest Gathered For Our Readers.

Wilmington, April 25.—Major Hugh Waddell, aged 73 years, brave Confederate soldier and member of one of the state's most distinguished families, died this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of his brother, ex-Congressman Alfred Moore Waddell, after an illness extending over many months. For more than thirty years Major Waddell was connected with the money order division of the post office department at Washington, and only resigned last summer. He was a son of Hon. Hugh Waddell, of Hillsboro. Major Waddell is survived by his wife and two brothers, Col. A. M. Waddell, of this city, and Major D. C. Waddell, of Greensboro.

A hydrophobia cat became rampant in High Point the latter part of last week and bit at least two children and attempted to bite about half a dozen others. Harry English, aged 11 years, and little Miss Edith Paris, aged six years, were brought here yesterday to take the Pasteur treatment in the state laboratory of hygiene. Dr. C. A. Shore examined the cat's head Sunday and found evidences of rabies. Three children were brought here yesterday from High Point, but finding that the skin of one had not been pierced, Dr. Shore allowed that one to return home. The cat was a pet one, belonging to a neighboring family—Raleigh News and Observer.

Owing to the absence of the pastor there will be no prayer meeting in the Methodist church tonight. The other churches will have their usual Wednesday night services.

Dumas' Scheme.

Alexandre Dumas, Sr., was once visiting his son, who at that time lived in a villa near Paris. They sat in a tiny scrap of a garden behind the house under the one small tree it contained. It was a broiling hot day, and Dumas, who was very stout, said to his son:

"I am suffering with the intense heat."
"What shall I do, father?"
"Suppose you open your chamber window and let a little air into the garden," replied old Alexandre, with gravity.

AN EXTRA MONTH OF GRADED SCHOOL

WILL BE HELPFUL TO STUDENTS

Superintendent Smith Outlines Plan For This Work.

To the People Served by the Graded School of Greenville:

A session of eight months is too short a term to do the work required of the modern-day graded school. It has not seemed wise to make our term longer than eight months on the public fund, because it is not large enough. In order to overcome in some measure the defects arising from our shortened term, we wish to propose to the people the maintenance of an extra month of school, to begin May 17th, and close June 16. The tuition fee will be two dollars and twenty-five cents.

In schools with eight month terms, the children get further behind in arithmetic and English than in any other subjects. These are the chief subjects in which we offer instruction; and in these we propose to give some very careful and thorough drill. Our work in English will include instruction in composition, reading, writing and spelling.

A large number of the pupils in the graded school need some extra drill work in arithmetic and English. Few of them would fail to be helped from such instruction. Our intention is not to carry the pupils forward so much as it will be to broaden and deepen their knowledge of the subjects to be taught. And this is what is needed. All pupils who have been in Section B of the intermediate grades this year will profit very greatly by attending the school.

Section A pupils will be strengthened and improved by the course. A number of the pupils who fail of promotion in May can be advanced later if they will take the course.

The daily sessions will begin at 8:45 each day, and close at 1 o'clock. These hours are the best in the day for study. Plenty of time is also afforded for recreation.

We shall not let any of the grades become crowded. No teacher will have more than twenty-six pupils. As many of the present corps of teachers will be engaged for the term as the registration will justify. No new books will be purchased.

Persons who have not been attending the graded school this year may register. This is a good opportunity for a large number of young people in the community.

If enough pupils in the first and second grades are registered to justify her remaining, Miss Irvine will teach a class of pupils in these grades.

The proposed extra month of school will be taught if the registration by the fifteenth of May will justify it. I urge upon our people the importance of the term. For eight years we have been having thirty two weeks of school per year; the other twenty weeks the children have been doing but little save losing time. There seems to be no practical way for us to lengthen the term except to maintain a subscription school. Nearly all of the children in the intermediate grades need more drill in English and especially in arithmetic than we can possibly give them in eight months. Twenty weeks of a child's life every year is too long to spend in vacation. I sincerely hope we may have a large registration before May 15th, so that we may have an opportunity to do some specializing on English and arithmetic.

Very truly yours,

H. B. SMITH,

Superintendent of Schools, Greenville, N. C., April 25, 1911.

IT IS ABOUT THE KIDS.

International Congress on Child Welfare.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Washington, April 26.—Mothers, spinners and eminent men gathered here today to begin a week's study and discussion of child life. Children of all sorts, good, bad and indifferent, backward and forward, will be held up for analysis by students who are gathered in Washington to attend the international congress on child welfare. Today's session was presided over by Mrs. Frederick Schoff, president of the National Mothers Congress. Every state in the Union is represented by delegates.

SCOTLAND NECK HAPPENINGS.

Planning for Handsome Graded School Building.

Scotland Neck, N. C., April 25.—As I failed to do so in my last letter, will now say, notwithstanding the loss of the graded school building, they did not miss but one day of school. They took some of the grades in the residence of Prof. Alken and others in other residences, the citizens held a meeting a short time afterwards and decided to rebuild at an early day and they pledged seven thousand dollars at that meeting, making sixteen thousand with what they had on hand. They appointed a committee to get up subscriptions to the amount of four thousand dollars more. They want a twenty-five thousand dollar building.

I think I can safely say that among the many good sermons that I have heard since I came to Scotland Neck, that the two last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Powers, pastor of the Baptist church, were the best. At the morning service he announced his subject for the evening service which was "Home."

The old soldiers will have a re-union here the tenth of May, but I expect to try to be in Greenville on that day for I don't want to fail to be there to see my old comrades once a year. I don't see some of them only at our yearly re-union.

Last Sunday a week ago, Mrs. Robinson went to church and on her way home was stricken with paralysis and died before night.

Mr. Thos. Price, a citizen out in the country, died suddenly yesterday, heart failure being the cause.

We had another novel marriage in our city a short time ago. The bride-to-be came from her town and went to the house of the groom-to-be, and they were married there in the presence of a large crowd of spectators. We have heard that the bride was only about sixty and the groom sixty-five. They are living happily together and we hope for them a happy future and a long life. We think they are old enough to know how to keep house all right.

There came very near being a terrible accident yesterday on Main street. A horse some distance up the street run away and run over a child without hurting it, and run in the passage of the livery stables and came very near running over a man and some horses, and did damage a mule some and tore up a buggy considerably.

We are still having cold weather, though it is the 25th of April, the time of year for warm weather. We have had frost for several days.

GIVE US SOMETHING NEW.

Bitterly assailing the absentee landlords and "dog worshipping aristocracy," Rev. Madison C. Peters today declared that New York City is an unchristian, uncivilized community. He said: "This city is one of hoodlums and grafters, where many officials are more corrupt than law violators. Great estates are holding thousands of lots in the city's heart just for a raise in value."

Who does not know that this is true in New York and that no sensation is sprung by telling us this? Many small fish have said this for years. However, when a big fish jumps out of the water, people hollow. Dr. Peters told the truth. There are smaller New Yorks all over the country. Fellows who would rather make one dollar than see a town move forward; what care they for the masses, so they are well fed and clothed. Such, with all their money, are no good to any community. Help, or get out.

Poor old fellow. But this does not hurt much, compared to some of the jibes and kicks the fellow gets. He is expected to do all things single-handed while the people stand by and will not help, saying he is paid to do it. Say, you kickers and hatpin stickers, help him along with the keeping of the law and don't cuss him before he needs it. Then when you are compelled to do so, cuss him to his face, and not behind his blue back.

None of Our Fight.

The Star took occasion some time ago to observe that there was nothing in a Republican reciprocity proposition that would warrant a falling out of Democrats in North Carolina. We have said there was no use in holding any senator or representative responsible for whatever view they may take of it. It simply involves a matter of judgment on a Republican measure and there is no Democratic principle involved in it whatever—certainly not in President Taft's reciprocity treaty which congress is asked to enact into law.

A close scrutiny of the treaty will show that protected interests will get more benefit from free raw materials than consumers will get while putting some material on the free list will be injurious to the producers of raw material in some of our States. The McCall bill now pending in congress is the same which President Taft endorsed as a measure for carrying out his reciprocity treaty with Canada. However, the Democrats have come forward with a bill for the relief of the farmers, but it is no part or parcel of the reciprocity bill. Indeed, there is no probability that the "farmer's free list bill" will pass, even if the reciprocity bill itself becomes a law. In fact, it is understood in Washington that the Republicans will make a fight to amend the reciprocity bill with the Democratic "farmer's free list bill" so that it may kill reciprocity to which both the Republicans in the house and senate are bent upon defeating.

Under all the circumstances, we can see no use of Democratic disagreement over a purely administration measure. There is no sense in dividing on any such proposition, and for that reason. The Star deprecates the disturbance in the North Carolina delegation precipitated by Representative Kitchen in his opening speech on reciprocity. It is doubtful, and at least problematic, whether we will get any benefit out of the Taft reciprocity, and certainly we could not allow it to become a bone of contention in the North Carolina Democracy. It's Taft's reciprocity. It's none of our fight.—Wilmington Star.

Facts About Tobacco.

The historical iconoclast is a busy man. He keeps men occupied in unlearning history they have learned. Now comes a French writer in a French paper who says that tobacco was used in Europe before the discovery of America, that the Medes and Persians smoked tobacco in narghiles ages before the sprouting of the trees from which the Nina, the Pinta and the Maria Teresa were constructed, that tobacco reek was familiar in the colonies of the Greeks and Romans, and that cigars and cigarettes were in common use by natives and aliens in the Indies before Columbus thought of getting there by sailing west. The word cigar is now said to come from an Arab word, "sakara" meaning smoke.—Virginia

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatic pains, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart beats, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

T. R. Moore, 913 Evans St., Greenville, N. C. says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used them with the greatest benefit. I was troubled by a lameness in my back and my kidneys did not do their work as they should. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. and I had not used them long before I received relief. I can say that this remedy acts just as represented."

Training Missionaries.

Plans are on foot to establish at Hartford, Conn., a special school of instruction for foreign missionaries, in which the course will be shaped for the purpose of acquainting the students with the conditions—political, social and religious—of the people in whose service their lives are to be spent. The foreign missionary movement, never quite absent from the Christian church, dates in its modern phase from the work of the Scotchman, William Carey, in the early nineteenth century. His successors have gradually come to the conclusion that piety, learning and the most devoted consecration are by themselves insufficient to insure a successful career among non-Christians. Christianity has made most rapid progress in those lands in which its emissaries have most thoroughly assimilated the fact that it is necessary to find common ground before the disciples of the inferior faiths may be converted. It has made approximately no progress at all where this common ground has not been diligently sought. The ideal preparation for seeking such a connection with the backward peoples of the earth is to be found in close study of their environment from every angle. Incidentally this study, if properly followed, cannot fail to increase the missionary's sympathy not so much for as with those among whom his life work is to lie. We believe that the foreign mission cause will be significantly advanced if the Hartford school is supported along the lines laid down.—Charlotte Ob-

POPULATION OF NORTH CAROLINA

Detailed Figured Announced by Census Director Durand.

1910 AND 1900 COMPARED

Gains and Losses Shown in a Decade by the Various Cities, Towns, Villages and Townships Throughout the State—Total Population Is 2,206,287, as Against 1,893,810 Ten Years Ago.

North Carolina's position in the front ranks of the southern states in regards to population has been greatly strengthened during the decade from 1900 to 1910.

Detailed population statistics of the state has just been issued by Census Director E. Dana Durand at Washington. They give the figures for every minor civil division and incorporated city.

The total population of the state is 2,206,287 for 1910, as against 1,893,810 in 1900, an increase of 302,477.

Unlike some of the northern and middle western states, the movement from the farming districts to the cities is not nearly as pronounced in this state.

The cities almost without exception show decided increases, in some instances as high as 100 per cent. Charlotte, with a population of 11,557 in 1890 and 18,091 in 1900, is returned with 34,014 in 1910, an increase in ten years of 5923. Wilmington had 20,979 in 1900 and now has 25,748, while Raleigh shows an increase of approximately 50 per cent, having 19,218 in 1910, as compared with 13,643 in 1900. Asheville is another city that prospered, having a population of 18,762, as against 14,694 ten years ago.

Durham, with 6679 people in 1900, is returned with 18,241 in 1910, an increase of nearly 200 per cent.

The census returns indicate that North Carolina is forging to the front as a manufacturing and mercantile state, while it is losing little as an agricultural state.

The detailed population by counties is as follows:

Midnight in The Ozarks.

And yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home, hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes, "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whoopingcough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, its the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Big ears are a sign of generosity. Anyway, nature was generous to the owner thereof.

Social and Personal.

As God Sees Us.

The real fact about and situation or about a human soul is what lies within it for God, what it is worth to God. Where we see what appears to the eye, he sees all that may be. He sees what lies behind the appearance, what slumbers at the depths of the face. He sees the spring in the winter; he sees the bud already on the bare ranch; He hears the music which sleeps upon the strings. He sees his children heirs of God, joint-heirs with Christ, in such beings as you and me.—Rev. John A. Hutton.

Dr. H. F. Wilson, of Wilson, spent Tuesday night here en route to Stokes where he will locate to practice his profession. His family will follow him soon.

Mr. W. C. Miller, of Washington, came in this morning.

Rev. J. H. Shore left his morning for Elm City to attend the meeting of the Washington district conference.

THE MARCH OF AN IDEA.

It Should Repel All Over The Entire State.

About two years ago a small canning plant was established near Kings Mountain. Its first season was encouraging, its second still more so, and it is now being put in readiness to do a rushing business during the approaching summer. A little while ago a newcomer to Gaston county instituted a truck farm near Gastonia. Succeeding well in this venture, he has announced that he will within the next few months establish a canning factory, and the fruit and vegetable growers in his vicinity are evincing an interest in the proposition which offers a most gratifying guaranty of its success.

These two items of industrial news have much intrinsic importance for the section from which the fruit and vegetables to be canned will come, but their interest is not by any means local. The Lincolnton News quotes a detailed statement from The Gastonia Progress with reference to the matter and adds: "Right here in Lincolnton some one with a small amount of capital could make good money in this business. It will bear investigation." In the next county to the north The Newton News draws precisely the same inference. Noting the Gastonia proposal, the last-named contemporary comments: "We believe there is good money in the business and would like to see a factory established here. It creates a market for truck and furnishes a supply of pure food products. Individuals who operate on a small scale do very well indeed.

We are not informed as to how much influence the Kings Mountain venture had upon the inauguration of the Gastonia plans; it was doubtless considerable. We have the best evidence that the latter has aroused interest in two neighboring counties where conditions are so nearly similar as to give the same promise of success. Thus it goes. The people of North Carolina are becoming every year more familiar with what is being attempted around them and are borrowing ideas from each other right and left. There is scarcely any other single sign of the times which looms as big with promise. The eventual result will be that the state will have a prosperity which applies to every county and not merely to one here and there.—Charlotte Observer.

Saved His Mother's Life.

"Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, La., "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good. I will always praise them." Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

REMARIED AFTER 7 YEARS.
Happy Reconciliation of Pennsylvania Couple.

Living apart and unto themselves for seven years, there was culminated in a quiet but very pretty re-marriage at St. James Episcopal rectory in this city yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, a reconciliation of a popular Pennsylvania couple, Mrs. Alice E. Underhill and Mr. John T. Underhill, of Lansdown, Pa. Mr. Underhill for the past year or more has been residing at Evergreen, Columbus county, where he is associated with his brother in the operation of the Evergreen Lumber Co. Recently efforts towards reconciliation were set on foot and these culminated yesterday in the arrival of Mrs. Underhill and three pretty little children. They were met here by Mr. Underhill, the re-union was effected and Rev. Wm. H. Milton, D. D., of St. James, performed the second ceremony, which again united them in the holy bonds of matrimony for life. They will reside in future at Evergreen where Mr. Underhill is connected with the lumber enterprise spoken of.—Wilmington Star.

The Dying Pines.

The Spartanburg Herald reports that the pine trees in that section of South Carolina are dying so rapidly as to cause considerable apprehension on part of the owners of pine forests. "It was noticeable a year ago, but little attention was paid to the spreading brown patches in the forests until it became apparent that this blight of the pines was general and that it was spreading. So far there has been no explanation given for the trouble. It strikes us that the matter is one that might be called to the attention of the government department of forestry through congressman Johnson, with the result that some remedy be found for this destruction of the trees." When we "worked on the farm" one of our duties was to look out for a dying pine tree, cut it down and burn it. A dying pine tree may be said to be contagious. The tree is killed by a bug or worm of the boring species. When the sap has been extracted from the tree and it dies, these insects leave it and begin operating, in increasing numbers, on the neighboring trees. That accounts for the groups of dead trees so frequently seen in the pine woods. When a pine tree shows signs of infection, it should be cut down and burned. Land owners will find this quite an effective remedy for the dying pines. Care should be taken to rake up the needles and debris within a circle of ten or twelve feet of the tree and add them to the flames.—Charlotte Chronicle.
