THE ALDERMEN NOMINATED

The Ward Meetings Were Held Friday Night

BOARD WILL HAVE THREE CHANGES

But All of Them Have Previously Served on the Board—First and Fifth Wards Re-nominate by Acclamation—One Ballot Each in Third and Fourth, and Two in Second.

Meetings were held in all of the wards of the town, on Friday night, to nominate one candidate for alderman in each ward. All of the meetings were well attended and much interest was shown in selecting the nominees. The board of aldermen is composed of eight members, the first and third wards each having one, and the second, third and fourth wards two each. Three of the men elected each time hold for two years, so that each year all five of the wards hold an election to choose one member in each. By this arrangement if no member should be re-elected the board would not make an entire change in any year, three of the old members always holding over. While three changes are made in the nominations this time, all of them have served as aldermen in previous years. The proceedings of the several primaries follow:

First Ward.

Met in county clerk's office and was called to order by Committeeman F. C. Harding.

Dr. J. E. Nobles, the present alderman, was re-nominated by acclamation.

F. C. Harding, was re-elected ward committeeman.

Second Ward.

Met in the mayor's office. In the absence of Committeeman J. G. Moya, A. L. Blow was made chairman, and J. R. Moya was made secretary.

C. S. Carr, present alderman, E. B. Ficklen, A. B. Ellington and D. S. Spain were placed in nomination for alderman. Mr. Carr stated that he could not serve longer, and asked that his name be withdrawn.

The result of the first ballot was Ficklen, 22; Ellington, 13; Spain, 11; Carr, 2. Second ballot, Ficklen, 38; Ellington, 13. E. B. Ficklen was declared the nominee.

J. G. Moya was re-elected ward committeeman.

Third Ward.

Met in the Centre Brick warehouse and was called to order by Committeeman J. B. James. B. B. Sugg was made secretary.

J. S. Tunstall and D. W. Hardee were placed in nomination, and on the ballot Tunstall received 31 and Hardee 18. J. S. Tunstall was declared the nominee.

J. B. James was re-elected ward committeeman.

Fourth Ward.

Met in Star warehouse and was called to order by Committeeman T. M. Hooker. W. F. Evans was made secretary.

B. F. Tyson and E. L. Daughtridge were placed in nomination, and on the ballot Tyson received 35 and Daughtridge 18. B. F. Tyson was declared the nominee.

T. M. Hooker was re-elected ward committeeman.

Fifth Ward.

Met in the city hall and was called to order by Committeeman D. C. Moore. D. J. Whichard was made secretary, and J. F. Stokes assistant.

H. C. Edwards, present alderman, was re-nominated by acclamation.

D. C. Moore was re-elected ward committeeman.

SHOULD BE KEPT MOVING.

The Sidewalks Are Too Frequently Blocked.

It is often the case, and especially on Saturdays, that so many people congregate and stand in bunches on the sidewalks, as to make it necessary for those who want to pass by to get out in the street. People have a right to be on the sidewalks, of course, but they should be kept moving and not stand together in such numbers as to block the passing of others.

The town ordinance covering this, Chapter 2, Section 20, reads: "All crowds or assemblages of persons, who shall congregate on the sidewalk of the town, thereby obstructing the same to the inconvenience of pedestrians, shall be dispersed by the police, and any person, who refuses to obey the warning of the officer, shall be deemed to violate this ordinance, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined five dollars for each and every offense."

A CARD OF THANKS.

To The School Children of The Town of Greenville.

My dear Children:

The Daughters of the Confederacy wish to thank you most sincerely for your generous gift to the monument fund. Your superintendent, Mr. Smith, has just deposited in the bank two shoe boxes full of pennies, which, when counted out, amounted to $32.36. Now, we think that is splendid; and shall I tell you how it makes some of the grown folks feel? We feel ashamed to think we have done so little, and you have done so well. We are sure when grown people see this, they will want to follow your noble example, and contribute also to this fund.

We thank you, one and all. Sincerely,
THE U. D. C.,
Per. Mrs. T. A. Person.

Fakirs Happy on The Way.

Last week The Dispatch referred to certain men who had been at work in the county for a week or ten days selling a combination tire-setter, fence stretcher, drill, stump-puller, etc. The plan of these swindlers was to sell to every man a large number of the machines, taking in payment for them a note. Every purchaser was made an agent for the machine and was given certain territory to work, and the smooth article behind the skin game gave his victim to understand that he was to pay for the machines with just half of the profits that would come from the sale of them. After the bunco artist had fown, the buyer found that he had signed a simple promissory note and nothing more. These notes were later sold for 75 cents on the dollar, and, in the hands of an innocent purchaser, for value, will be collectable, no matter how much fraud was used in getting them.—Lexington Dispatch.

Tallest Of Women.

The tallest woman in the world has heart trouble. She came to Chicago for treatment.

More than one hundred inches—nine feet one and one-half inches, to be exact—in height and weighing 385 pounds. Her name is Ella K. Ewing, and she is famous as the "Missouri Giantess." Miss Ewing denied she expected to be married to a European giant.

This tallest of women lives at Gorin, Mo. She is 38 years old. With Miss Ewing is her cousin, Miss Maude Wilson. They had intended to stay at the Auditorium Hotel, but learned there was not a bed in the building large enough to accommodate a nine-foot sleeper.—Chicago Dispatch.

Good Roads Pay.

When you think about the lump sum in the building of good roads, the expenses seems enormous, but every thoughtful man knows that good roads pay the people over and again in the saving of time and the cost of hauling goods over them. It may be considered an extravagant expression, but it is nevertheless true that the time and labor spent each winter in hauling and traveling over our bad roads amounts to more than the best system of good roads would cost. The proposition can be easily proven to any doubting Thomas, yet there are those who do not believe in getting good roads by the only known method—a bond issue.—Asheboro Courier.

SEE LIFE IN FULL.

Farsightedness and nearsightedness are both defects in human eyesight. The same rule obtains in daily living. The man who looks forever into the far future does not see his nearest duty, and the man who sees only the daily routine close about him cannot advance toward larger things. To "see life steadily and see it whole" should be each man's endeavor.

THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

Archibald Johnson's Estimate of the Candidates.

There is every prospect for the most interesting political scrap we have had in many years when all four of our candidates for the senate get busy. Mr. Simmons is a very adroit man as well as a wise and far-seeing politician. He knows North Carolina from side to side. As an organizer he has few equals in the country. His record as a senator is his best asset. He has been diligent, faithful and honest. He exerts a tremendous influence in Washington and by his personal power has secured much important legislation for the state. Governor Kitchin has had large experience in public affairs. He is a fine campaigner, and is much more effective than Mr. Simmons from the people. He is a man of very attractive personality, and his record is entirely clean. Nobody doubts his honesty. Judge Clark can furnish as much brain power as any of them. He is also diligent and skillful. A large element of our people are a little afraid of the judge, however. They believe he lacks poise of judgment, and that he is too radical and rash. He will have a large following, but he would better not resign his present position. Charles B. Aycock is the ablest and the best loved man in the public life of the state. He has no money, but he has a warm and loving heart, and his devotion to his state amounts to a passion. We are free to say that we wish the people would rise up as one man and put him in the senate. He would at once take his place among the leaders of that great body. We have no other in his class, but this is not saying that he is going to receive the nomination. The people want him, but the people do not always get what they want. Whether Mr. Aycock wins or loses he will not spend a red cent to influence any man's vote, and he would not do this if he were worth a million dollars.—Charity and Children.

SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1911.

LET'S GET TOGETHER.

When we look over our business enterprises in Greenville, we find much to excite our pride. Our town has about every modern public service necessary for convenience. Her progress in this line during the past eight years has been gratifying, even wonderful. She has as good railroad facilities as any town in the state, she has school advantages which few cities in the state can boast of. She has a body of as conservative and substantial business men as can be found in any town much larger than ours. Her banks are strong and prosperous, and a back country surrounding her which can not be surpassed. Yet she is not making the material progress which we feel that she is capable of making. Can we not, as a community, get together and increase our material progress? We know we can do so. We can get together and cause the erection of a hotel that will meet the demands of the public. The means and the men are here. We can create a fertilizer factory that can supply the fertilizer for the county. We can pull together and have general supply or mercantile stores that can draw trade and supply it for several miles about the town that naturally should come to Greenville, and that is now going elsewhere. Men, let us get together and do these things, which tend to advance Greenville's material progress.

GET RID OF THE DOGS.

Away with the dogs! The summer season has now come. Putrid meat and decaying food stuffs are dangerously abundant and in reach of the dogs. Either is a dangerous element, but together the dog is alarmingly more dangerous. Putrid meats are eaten by the dogs, they become sick and though they are ordinarily kind when sick, are irritable and more apt to bite persons. Then, too, hydrophobia is not infrequent at this season, all of which is irrefutable evidence against the dogs, being permitted among us and allowed to run at large at will. The town is full of dogs, and if there is one good reason for having them it is not apparent. Those who are inclined to humor their fancy by keeping a dog, should lay aside that fancy for the greater safety of human beings, especially the children of the community. Get rid of your dogs—give them away, kill them, or anything to get them out of the community. Your dog is a source of danger to you, to your family and your neighbors. Get rid of the dogs; they are dangerous and a needless expense.

DON'T GET RUN DOWN
Weak and miserable. If you have kidney or bladder trouble, dull head pains, dizziness, nervousness, pains in the back, and feel tired all over, get a package of Mother Gray's Australian Leaf, the pleasant herb cure. It never fails. We have many testimonials from grateful people who have used this wonderful remedy. As a regular it has no equal. Ask for Mother Gray's Australian Leaf at drug gists or sent by mail for 50 cents. Sample free. Address, The Mother Gray Co., LeRoy, N. Y.

In certain counties of the state some fellows are working the people on rights for a "combination fire-setter, fence-strether, drill, stump-puller, etc." The mode of operation is so similar to a "washing machine right" which once struck Pitt county, that we think it only needs mentioning to put people on their guard if the "combination" fellows mentioned above should come down this way.

The government report on the cotton crop must be based on information from sections having a much more favorable prospect than North Carolina.

Our neighbor town, Washington, is moving to get the school for feeble-minded that is to be established by the state.

Now the hustle is on for the offices that the aldermen will have at their disposal.

They say if you kill one fly two more comes in its place. Then be in a hurry to kill the other two.

Charlotte is going to have another sky-scraper office building twelve stories high.

Bryan keeps his finger on the button like he wants to "come back."

Potash From Sawdust.

The Robeson Advance tells of an interesting experiment being made by Mr. D. C. Lemon, superintendent of the Boyd farm, in Moore county, in the production of potash from sawdust. "The sawdust pile is not only an eyesore to be got rid of," says The Advance, "but Mr. Lemon is doing this and at the same time attempting to recover the ashes, which carry a large per cent. of potash, a very valuable and expensive form of commercial fertilizer. Burning a large pile of sawdust is no small task as it requires months and there is always danger of setting something else afire. Mr. Lemon has dug a large hole in the ground and feeds the sawdust on the fire as fast as he thinks safe. The only question about the experiment is the cost. If this can be done without too much cost, a way will have been found to save many hundreds of dollars now paid for potash. There are thousands of tons of potash in sawdust piles all over the state and if Mr. Lemon's experiment proves a success these worthless eyesores will prove a bonanza." Should this experiment prove profitable, North Carolina, at least, should be independent of Germany in the matter of a potash supply. There are mountains of sawdust in every county in the state and it would seem to be more profitable to turn this material into potash than into alcohol.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Homicide Records Compared.

In the June number of The World's Work a writer compares the homicide record of the United States with that of other countries, adducing, in a statistical form, facts whose general aspect is distressingly familiar. The United States has 115 homicides annually per million, even Italy doing better with 105, Great Britain and Ireland have 27, France 19 and Germany but 18. It is often asserted that our huge slaughter is primarily due to the fact that we are still a new country in many respects and for the most part thinly settled; but the World's Work writer shows that in a newer, much more thinly settled country, just across the Canadian line, the number of homicides per million is no more than three. In reality, we, like Canada, should make a better showing than any European country, for, generally speaking, we have not here those hard conditions of life which provoke to murderous robbery and similar crimes. Yet we stand at the very door of the list and for reasons which everybody knows.—Charlotte Observer.

A Joke That Failed.

Hoyster had reached home at 2:30 a. m. and found his wife very much awake.

"Now, dear," said the belated man rather thickly, "don't fly up in the air."
"And why, pray?" very deliberately inquired the lady, breathing hard.
"Because you might infringe the (hicy, Wright brothers' patent, my dear," chuckled Hoyster just before she averted.

Sensitive.

"Miss Passay is furious with that society reporter."

"Why so?"
"He published the announcement of her approaching wedding under the column headed 'Late News'."

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn."

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Theford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Theford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Theford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

Organizing Girls' Clubs.

While South Carolina girls in clubs are raising corn and tomatoes, as is so well told by Mr. Johnson in his interesting article on the future of Southern women in agriculture, it should not be overlooked that attention to organizing the interests of the girls is not entirely omitted in North Carolina. There are doubtless others, but at this moment two instances come to mind. In Gates county, Superintendent Costen has prizes offered to girls for the best tailored shirtwaists, and in Buncombe county Superintendent Reynolds, while getting the boys together in corn clubs, enrolled 155 girls into poultry clubs for raising chickens and eggs. Who else is organizing girls' clubs? A report from these girls' organizations should form an interesting article for a future number of North Carolina Education. —North Carolina Education.

New Century

No Levers. No Springs.

Always in Balance

Farmers actually want the "New Century" on account of its many distinctive features. Which are briefly: Operators weigh balances gangs. Perfectly balanced pole without even so much as a balance lever. Simplicity unequalled—not a lever, spring, ratchet or other nuisance on it. Light of draft, because it weighs less and has draft closer to shovels. Evenness of cultivation, that is, movement does not affect position of gangs. Six shovels, spring break Works perfectly in widest or narrowest rows cotton, corn, beans, peanuts, tobacco, potatoes, etc.

News, Personals, and Business Notes
In That Busy Town.

Winterville, N. C., June 3.—Rev. M. A. Adams returned Wednesday from Belhaven, where he has been holding a series of meetings.

Messrs. Harrington, Barber & Co. have a complete line of samples of wall paper, and mouldings to match. Margaret and Earl Johnson, of Rocky Mount, are visiting Dorothy and Hardy Johnson.

See Harrington, Barber & Company for your McCall patterns and magazines.

Mr. Eugene "Pistol" Cannon went balling to Grifton Wednesday and returned Thursday.

Mr. L. L. Kittrell, one of our clever townsmen, has moved his family to Ayden this week, and will make it his future home. We regret very much to lose Mr. Kittrell and family, but our loss is Ayden's gain in this case.

A car load of top dresser has just arrived at A. W. Ange & Co.'s.

Miss Bertha Johnson, of Ayden, is spending a few days with Miss Dorothy Johnson.

The Bank of Winterville has purchased from A. G. Cox the corner concrete building and is fitting it up for its future home, which will make a very nice and attractive bank.

Miss Pearl Hester returned Thursday from Ayden, where she has been spending a few days.

Messrs. Harrington, Barber & Company can supply your wants in flour and lime, just received a car load of each.

Mr. Gordon and Miss Esther Johnson returned this week from Fayetteville, where they went as delegates to the convocation.

Salt, lime and cement always on hand at A. W. Ange & Company.

Misses Mimie and Dora Cox returned last night from Raleigh and Wake Forest.

Misses Dorothy and Margaret Johnson spent Thursday in Ayden.

We have fresh corned herrings and new pickled herrings, we sell by the hundred or thousand. Harrington, Barber & Company.

Rev. M. A. Adams went to Grifton last night where he held services. It looks like the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company will soon be going ahead in their new quarters. Do more work and better work is their motto.

Mrs. Nan. Turnage and daughter returned to Ayden yesterday, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cox.

If your horse is losing flesh, why not try some of A. G. Cox's good peavine hay? He has about two car loads on hand yet.

See A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company about tobacco trucks and flues. Miss Sarah Barber left this morning to spend a week or two in Farmville.

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair is First Sign of Age.
Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggist to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, MOYE'S PHARMACY.

A Question of Identity.

A question in a recent examination on "The Merchant of Venice" was:

"Give three reasons why Shylock hated Antonio."

One little girl wrote as one of her reasons:

"Shylock hated Antonio because he was a Republican."

The teacher was puzzled. Where could the child have got that idea? Then she remembered that Shylock once said of Antonio, "How like a fawning publican he looks!"—National

The railroads have contended that in absence of instructions they should send the goods by the most convenient route. The matter has been in dispute many years, and the decision does justice to the shipper's interest. It makes the carrier the shipper's agent, to perform such service as may be necessary and to perform it to the best possible advantage of the shipper. This is equitable, because the shipper loses control entirely of his goods after delivery to the shipper unless he becomes expert in railway transportation and issues instructions governing the course the goods are to take. As the shipper must in most cases depend upon the railroad management, it is a wise provision that the management be required to look out for the interest of the shipper the same as the shipper would look out for himself were he in position to do so.—Mobile Register.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
