

OUR WEEKLY LETTER FROM WASHINGTON CITY

WILL VETO TRAFFIC LEGISLATION

President Playing to The Trusts Who "Know What They Want"

(By Clyde H. Tavenner).
WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Today, on the eve of the momentous occasion when President Taft must sign or veto tariff legislation of vast importance to the people, he is still surrounded "by men who know exactly what they want," just as he was when induced to sign the iniquitous Payne-Aldrich bill.

The semi-official statement given out by the White House publicity bureau (Secretary Hilles, manager) that the president intends to veto all tariff revision which congress may send to him, indicates that the men "who know exactly what they want," (an expression coined by late senator Dooliver), also knew what they do not want.

The president's advisers are opposed, for instance, to legislation of any kind that would interfere with the Payne-Aldrich protection bill, which gives to the American tariff trusts immunity from competition by virtue of which they are free to charge consumers exorbitant prices without outside interference.

Why Taft Failed.

When the history of Mr. Taft's administration is written, his failure to win the sympathy of the people will no doubt be attributed to his selection as advisers of men who are not in sympathy with the needs of the country.

Let us see who the men are, surrounding President Taft, who know exactly what "they" want; and who, through having particularly a monopoly of the president's ear, have been able to deceive him into the belief that he is acting the part of a real statesman if he vetoes legislation of the very character that he promised the people before election in order to secure their votes.

"Know What They Want."

In his cabinet Mr. Taft has Secretary of State Knox, former steel trust attorney, Attorney General Wickensham, former sugar trust attorney, and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagle, former attorney for the Waters-Pierce (Standard) Oil company.

Then in his immediate family circle the president has Brother Charles Taft, who is so constituted temperamentally and financially that he can view legislation only from the viewpoint that "Big Business" views it; and also Brother Henry W. Taft, a member of the New York law firm of Strong & Cadwalader, which represents the sugar trust, Wall street and the great industrial corporations.

For substantiation of any advice the president may receive from these sources, he has but to call in Senator Lippitt, Aldrich's successor from Rhode Island. Mr. Lippitt is one of the millionaire beneficiaries of the struggling cotton trust, and knows exactly what he wants. Others who know what they want and upon whom the president relies are Penrose, Smoot, Guggenheimer, Du Pont and the balance of the ring of special privilege servers in the senate.

And here is a list of the men whose advice is not sought by Mr. Taft: LaFollette, Clapp, Cummins, Bristow and all genuine progressive Republicans.

These facts tell their own story. There's no chance for the president to do anything for the people as long as he has his present advisers around, and from present indications he has no intention of taking on a new set of advisers.

Wiley's Enemies Exposed.

"I want to say frankly to you that the reference board was organized and put into action for the very purpose of conserving the interests of the manufacturers, so you would have a safe hearing." Secretary of Agriculture Wilson sometime ago made this statement to a committee of manufacturers, according to testimony just presented to the committee on expenditures in the agricultural department.

It will be recalled that the organization to which Secretary Wilson was alluding—the Remsen board—reversed the findings of Dr. Wiley when he ruled against the use of benzoate of soda by embalmed beef manufacturers. The same board overruled Wiley many times, finding excuses for letting down the bars to

ALMOST A FIRE.

Box of Matches Ignites In Some Unaccountable Way.

Early Tuesday night there came near being a fire at the home of Mr. W. B. James, on Third street. He had bought a dozen boxes of matches that afternoon, and upon going home placed them in a medicine cabinet on a mantle in one of the rooms. After supper the family sat for a while on the front porch, and just before 9 o'clock Mr. James went to take a bath, and reaching the door of the room in which the matches had been placed he smelled something burning. Looking in the room he saw the medicine cabinet on the mantle in a blaze, and pulling this open he found that all of the matches had ignited.

How the matches became ignited cannot be explained. The medicine cabinet was tight so that it was impossible for mice to get in it, even if they could get on the mantle. It may be that medicine in the cabinet caused such chemical action on the sulphur of the matches as to ignite them.

EAGLES TO SEE "POARING CAMP"

100,000 Delegates and Visitors Will Flock to San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 9.—Advice, being received daily by the local committee in charge of arrangements indicate that close to 100,000 delegates and visitors will flock to San Francisco during the last week of this month for the national convention of Eagles. The committee estimates that at least 75 per cent of the 2,000 local branches of the order scattered over the country will be represented. An entire floor of the St. Francis Hotel has been reserved for the use of the grand president, Senator Grady of New York, and the other national officers. The visitors will be handsomely entertained. The "Poaring Camp" show, which will be one of the most interesting and novel one of the most interesting and novel features of the entertainment programme, typifying San Francisco in the days of the gold rush, is now under preparation.

Albemarle Horse Show.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., Aug.—Because of the promise of many of the exhibitors and the large field of show and race horses entered, more than usual interest has been aroused in the annual exhibition of the Albemarle Horse Show Association, which opened here today and will continue over tomorrow. Among the participants are several of the cavalry officers who took part in the recent international horse show in London.

"Hack" Comes to Meet Gotch.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 9.—George Hackenschmidt, the well known wrestler, sailed today for New York en route to Chicago, where he is to engage in a contest with Frank Gotch early next month in an effort to regain his title of world's champion.

the food dopers in the merest pretense of reasons.

The weird rulings of the Remsen board caused friends of honest foods to suspect that it had been organized to thwart Dr. Wiley, and to "conserve" the interests of the manufacturers instead of to conserve the public health, and Secretary Wilson's frank statement to the manufacturers merely confirms the justice of that suspicion.

Playing Favorites.

Allowing 37 of the 83 men under criminal indictment in connection with the wire trust to go free with the payment of puny fines upon their withdrawal of "not guilty" plea, is an illustration of the Wickersham policy of trust breaking. This system would seem to make the violation of the anti-trust laws merely a business proposition. The men running the trusts may pile up millions by paying no attention to the anti-trust laws, and then escape punishment by paying a few thousands in fines.

Much Already Accomplished.

Considered together, the four bills already passed by the Democratic house—reciprocity, free list, wool and cotton—constitute a most comprehensive beginning at revision of the Payne-Aldrich law. The revision accomplished by the house means enormous relief to the public, partly through the reduction of duties and partly through the elimination of jokers and special privileges provisions.

NEWS THAT IS OF INTEREST TO TAR HEELS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Told For The Reflector's Busy Readers.

STATESVILLE. — Reuben Combs, the young wife murderer, against whom the jury last night rendered a verdict of second degree murder, was today sentenced by Judge Daniels to 30 years in the state prison. Patrick's farm in Greene, was struck by the passenger train and instantly killed. The man's body was knocked more than 30 feet from where he was sitting when hit by the pilot of the train—Kinston Free Press.

The function was attended by a brilliant assemblage of cardinals, bishops, diplomats and members of the nobility. The Pope was unable to take part in the celebration owing to the fact that he is still weak as a result of his recent illness.

Another Man Dead.

It is rumored that another colored man was found dead in a ditch near Chocowinity, Tuesday evening, supposed to have been one in the row that took place on the excursion train coming from New Bern to Greenville. The excursion train left here about 11 o'clock Tuesday night to return to New Bern, and it is said another row occurred on the way back in which a colored woman was badly cut.

Will Add County Census.

Mr. H. T. King is compiling a condensed report of the population of Pitt county, as shown by the last census, which will be added as a supplement page to his History of Pitt County, which he recently published in book form. This will make his book practically complete. As has been said before in these columns, every citizen ought to have a copy of this history.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., August 9.—This famous resort is donning her gayest holiday attire in preparation for the annual carnival, which will begin tomorrow and continue through the remainder of the week. GRIFTON LICKED AGAIN.

Greenville Does It In A Score Of 7 to 1.

The Greenville team went down to Grifton, Tuesday afternoon, and a pretty game was pulled off between the two teams, ending with a pronounced victory for Greenville. The game opened with Greenville at the bat. Smith was first up and went out pitcher to first. Utley flied out to second and Billings followed short to first, retiring the side with a blank. Grifton's success in the first was no better. Edwards was given first on being struck by pitcher. Langston also got to first on Utley's error, but was put out trying to steal second. Davis fanned and McKeathan went out second to first.

The second inning likewise passed with neither team getting near the home plate. In the third for Greenville C. Lanier struck for a two-bagger. Smith came next with a hit to first, advancing Lanier. Utley also made a hit to first, scoring Lanier and Smith, and stole second. The next three up went out in quick succession. In Grifton's half of this inning Brooks flied out to centre. Bland got a single. Edwards struck out. Langston hit for two bases and scored Bland. Davis fanned, retiring the side with one run.

Nothing doing in the fourth, but in and out by both sides. In Greenville's fifth Smith dropped on a fly to second. Utley banged a home run. Billings singled and stole second. Lutterloh got a two-base hit and scored Billings. Forbes and Lanier retired the side. Grifton came up with three quick outs.

Both sides drew blanks in the sixth. In the seventh Greenville added three runs. With Smith and Utley on bases, Lutterloh knocked a home run, also scoring the other two.

That completed the runs, neither side reaching the plate from then to the end of the game.

Score by innings:

R. H. E.
Greenville 002 020 300—7 15 3
Grifton 001 000 000—1 6 5

The Greenville boys spent the night in Grifton and appreciated the courtesies shown them by the people there, a watermelon feast being one of the enjoyments.

Ayden Licks Kinston.

The Ayden and Kinston teams played Tuesday afternoon in Ayden, the score resulting in 1 to 0 in favor of the home team. It was a fine game. Roberston pitched great ball for Ayden, striking out nineteen and allowing the visitors only three hits. Barnes for Kinston also did some fine twirling as well as showed his dexterity with the bat, getting two two-baggers, but the support was not enough to get him home.

Score by innings:

R. H. E.
Ayden 100 000 000—1 6 1
Kinston 000 000 000—0 3 1

SNAKE FOND OF EGGS.

Swallowed China Knob That Was In The Nest.

Mr. S. I. Fleming, who lives near House, was in town Tuesday and dropped in to tell us about a big black snake he had killed that morning. The snake measured four-and-a-half feet in length and was large in proportion. For some time Mr. Fleming had been missing eggs from the nests of his hens. When he killed this snake he noticed a bulge in the reptile's body that looked like it had swallowed something. With his pocket knife he cut the snake open and found a china knob that had been used as a nest egg in one of the nests.

Mr. Fleming said that the snake had broken up the nests of several of his hens and had also been giving trouble among his tenants. He has lost fully a hundred eggs this season, and also many young chickens, and thinks it was all due to snakes.

After landing at New York the tourists are to travel in the Duke's yacht up the Hudson river and through the Erie Canal and the Great Lakes to Fort William, Ontario. From that point they are to go by rail to Winnipeg and thence to the properties of the Duke of Sutherland in Alberta. The party will go as far west as Vancouver and Victoria and will return to England about the end of October.

Convention of Apple Shippers.

DETROIT, Mich., August 9.—An exhibition of choice specimens of apples grown in Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Colorado, New York and other States attracted attention at the opening here today of the annual convention of the International Apple Shippers' Association. The marvelous growth of the apple industry within the past few years is evidenced by the convention attendance, which is much larger and of more representative character than ever before. The proposed reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada and its probable effect upon the apple growers is one of the subjects that will receive attention during the three days' sessions of the convention.

LARGE CROP MEANS LOW PRICE.

The outlook now is that the cotton crop harvested this fall is going to sell around 10 cents. Last year's crop sold around 15 cents. The crop then was small and the price was proportionately high. That high price led farmers to increase the acreage for a big crop this year, which will result in the price being proportionately low. If this big crop does sell as low as 10 cents it will not bring the farmers as much money as last year's small crop at 15 cents, hence the making of a large crop really means loss of money to the cotton growers. In this connection the Carolina Union Farmer says:

This loss would not have been possible if Southern farmers had not yielded to the temptation of 15-cent cotton. Fifteen-cent cotton was made possible only by limited production. If it is a fact that farmers of the South have brought to themselves disaster by simply increasing the total output of cotton by increased acreage and heavy application of commercial fertilizers (a greater portion of which was bought on time) they must now repent and mourn over a disaster which they have brought upon themselves, and by a gradual system of marketing they must avoid the still greater disaster that will come if markets are congested.

HOW A TOWN GETS FACTORIES.

Only a few weeks ago the announcement was made that the town of Hickory had raised a fund of $200,000 to guarantee the establishment of factories in that town. The thing spread all over the country, and Hickory has since been kept busy, answering questions and closing deals for factories. As the Charlotte Observer expresses it:

Already they are coming—a carriage and buggy factory, an overall factory, filing cabinet factory, a chair factory, a bridge and steel structural plant, and others of the same sort that will take the raw material and transform it into the finished product, giving employment to thousands of skilled workmen.

Wonder if you could get Greenville to take thirty cents worth of interest in a movement like that. The business people here apparently sit still and depend for trade on the farmers who bring produce here, but if there is to be much increase in business it must come through the establishment of manufacturing enterprises that provide employment for would-be wage earners. Greenville needs to be showing some activity along this line.

Negroes down in Louisiana are said to be opposed to being treated for hookworm on the ground that it might take away from them the desire to loaf. If it will stop loafing, there is a good size bunch around Greenville who ought to be treated quick.

Greenville has the best opportunities of any town in Eastern North Carolina, but is slow to take advantage of them. Something greatly needed here is concentration of effort. Get such enterprises as will help the town, and then support and encourage them instead of working against them. What helps the town helps everybody in it.

According to the Wilmington Dispatch's way of thinking Mayor Bland, of Charlotte, was very handy using the newspapers of that city during his candidacy, but turned against them after he got in office. That is not the first instance of the kind by many.

Democratic Leadership in Congress.

In equipment for debate, the Republicans of the house are now out-classed. They lack the clear-headed Tawney, the polished Boutell, the eloquent Landis, the convincing Overstreet, and the rough-and-tumble Grosvenor, greatest partisan champion of them all. Mann, well qualified, and the redoubtable Uncle Joe remain to fight the party's battles on the floor but they have found a dozen combatants equal to any fray.

The senate, still Republican by a feeble, uncertain majority, has not given the Democrats of that body equal opportunity for development. Their talents for legislation and ability for constructive work, if they possess any, are obscured by the coalition with the Republican Progressives, which has put LaFollette, Borah, and Cummins into the limelight. Of the new Democratic senators, Kern of Indiana, Bryon's running mate in the last national campaign, has given evidence of capacity and is counted at Washington.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the danger of dropsy, and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands. Here's Greenville proof:

James Long, Dickinson Ave., Greenville, N. C., says, "I am certain that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit and I do not hesitate to recommend them. When I was suffering from backache, pains in my kidneys and other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble, I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from the John L. Wooten Drug Company, it did not take them long to bring me relief."

In the matter of discipline, the Democratic majority of the house has challenged admiration. It has not been equalled in many years. Bailey and Williams failed as leaders of the minority; Clark had better success and was rewarded by election to the speakership. Underwood's leadership of the Democratic majority has been markedly successful and his colleagues in their recognition of the fact.

"Believing in government by parties," said a North Dakota representative, "I am heartily pleased to see the perfect organization and admirable discipline which speaker Clark and chairman Underwood have brought about and are today enforcing. They are setting an example to the Republicans who must profit by it, if they would ever regain control of the house. We have had no such organization since the passage of the tariff bill which rent the party asunder."

Who shall profit by this extraordinary session of the sixty-second congress? The Democratic party primarily. At least, such must be the fairminded conclusion at this time of the observer who has watched the situation in congress as it is evolving itself.—American Review of Reviews.

How a Juror Was Lost.

In Southern Missouri years ago, when the form of questioning was slightly different from what it is now, much trouble was experienced in getting a jury in a murder trial. Finally an old fellow answered every question satisfactorily; he had no prejudices, was not opposed to capital punishment, and was generally a valuable find. Then the prosecutor said solemnly:

"Juror, look upon the prisoner; prisoner, look upon the juror."

The old man adjusted his spectacles and peered at the prisoner for a full half minute. Then turning to the court, he said:

"Judge, darn if I don't believe he's guilty."—Ex.

Complimentary Moonlight Sail.

Tuesday night was a beautiful, moonlight night and the young social set of Greenville took advantage of the opportunity for a moonlight sail down the river about 8 miles, where lunch was served. The gentlemen secured the boat, selected the time and place, and the ladies furnished the lunch, the occasion being complimentary to the young ladies visiting Misses Skinner and Warren and Mesdames Hooker and Anthony.

Moonlight is always enchanting and it seemed more so Tuesday night to the merry, youthful party, whom the gods have blessed with every requisite for joy making. Singing was largely indulged in for entertainment while on the water, and the "put-put-put" of the boat engine even blended in with the magnificent voices on board and seemed to be trying to express joy. When a landing was made at the beach the party pairing off had lunch, after which they paid homage to the goddess of the night—the moon—which seemed to be arrayed in all her glory. Some over an hour was spent there, when all returned home more happy and joyous than ever.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs.

No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food.

But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system.

That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c at all druggists.

SOME STORE HINTS.

Notes That Will be Helpful To The Merchants.

The goods for a store to sell are the goods that move off in preference to those that go occasionally.

The farmer is a good customer, but he hates to buy from anyone who acts as if he felt a little above him.

Just the little matter of the way in which customers are greeted when they enter the store is important.

The best safeguard against a raised or "stuffed" order is a carbon copy of every order for goods.

Never let your supply of change get so low you cannot handle the largest bills that are likely to come your way.

Don't spend today any of the money you are going to have tomorrow. Tomorrow will have enough expenses of its own.

Wherever there is a dark corner there is likely to be dirt and dirt in a store means shop worn and unsalable goods some day.

Don't be so anxious to bore with a big auger that you forget that it is necessary that your store make a net profit on its business.

Is it convenient for people to cross the street in front of your store? If not, why not make it so? It will certainly help business.

The game is to turn your stock just as often as you possibly can and yet carry a stock large enough to handle all the business you can get.

Other merchants do not hesitate about taking on your line of goods to your disadvantage. Don't be too careful about treading on their toes.

See that every stranger entering the store is treated in such a way that he will want to become a regular customer when opportunity offers.

By the way, what share of the profits of your business does your wife get? Isn't she an equal partner on a share and share alike basis?

There are still a few merchants who do not believe in doing business on a "money-back" basis. They are not forging to the front very rapidly.

The way to find out whether you can add new lines profitably or not is not to guess at it but look through the advertising pages of this journal and write to the advertisers and ask them questions.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free at all druggists.

The Iron Cross.

The Iron Cross, an order of knighthood, was established by Frederick William III. of Prussia in March, 1813. The order was founded in order to honor patriotic bravery in the war against France. It was revived by Emperor William I. during the Franco-Prussian war and awarded by him to his son for his great victory at Wissembourg on Aug. 4, 1870. Later on the order was bestowed most generously, some 40,000 persons being decorated between 1870 and 1872.

TEN YEARS OF SOUTHERN AGRICULTURAL PROGRESS

HOW THE SOUTH GOES FORWARD

Remarkable Increase in Value of Farm Lands and Products.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 9.—In a detailed review of agricultural progress in the South in 10 years the Manufacturers' Record says this week:

In 10 years the value of the South's farm lands has largely more than doubled and the value of its farm buildings has increased 92 per cent.

These facts speak eloquently of the wonderful agricultural advance which in 10 years has caused the value of the South's farm lands to increase by more than $2,821,000,000 and the value of its farm buildings to grow from $651,188,000 to $1,314,429,000.

In 1910 the South had $262,090,000 invested in agricultural machinery, against $167,349,000 in 1900. In 1910 it used $74,703,000 worth of fertilizers, while at the same time greatly increasing its use of cowpeas, vetch and similar crops for the betterment of the soil, as compared with $29,006,000 spent in 1900 for fertilizers.

In 1910 the aggregate value of farm lands, farm buildings and farm implements and machinery in the South was $6,786,195,000, an increase of $3,545,065,000, or 109.4 per cent. over 1900. The aggregate value in the rest of the country of these elements of fixed farm capital in 1910 was $29,153,468,000, an increase of $15,037,173,000, or 106.5 per cent.

In the 10-year period the average value per acre of farm land alone increased from $15.64 to $32.48, or 108 per cent., in the whole country, and from $6.88 to $15.84, or a gain of 130 per cent., in the South.

In the very fact that as yet Southern farm lands average but one-half as much per acre in value as farm lands in the rest of the country, and that, too, despite the fact that the average value per acre of the leading crops of the South exceeds the average value per acre of leading crops in the rest of the country, is strikingly emphasized the vast wealth to be created in the South by the inevitable enhancement of its farm land values.

In the 10 years the value of farm lands alone increased from $2,288,593,000 to $5,209,676,000, a gain of $2,821,083,000, equal to 118.1 per cent., in the South, and from $10,662,440,000 to $23,174,145,000, or a gain of $12,511,705,000, equal to 117.3 per cent., in the rest of the country.

Florida led the South, too, in the rate of increase in the value of farm buildings, the gain in that State being 144 per cent., from $9,977,000 to $24,335,000, but Georgia was close second, from $44,855,000 to $108,483,000, or 142 per cent., South Carolina being third, from $26,956,000 to $63,902,000, or 137 per cent.; North Carolina fourth, from $52,700,000 to $113,170,000, or 115 per cent.; Mississippi fifth, from $37,150,000 to $79,580,000, or 114 per cent., and Texas sixth, from $110,223,000 to $209,200,000, or 109 per cent. Texas led in actual value in 1910, with Kentucky second, $150,655,000; Virginia third, $137,081,000; North Carolina fourth, $113,170,000; Tennessee fifth, $108,823,000, and Georgia sixth, $108,483,000.

The increase in the value of farm buildings in the whole South was from $685,188,000 to $1,314,429,000, a gain of $629,241,000, equal to 92 per cent., while in the rest of the country the gain was from $2,871,426,000 to $4,979,596,000, or by $2,108,170,000, equal to 70.4 per cent.

In 1900 the average value per acre of farm land alone in the South was $6.88, and it was $15.84 in the country as a whole. In the next 10 years the average value in the South advanced to $15.84, almost exactly the same as the average value for the whole country 10 years before. This Southern increase was at the rate of 130 per cent., with the average in the country increasing to $32.48, or by 108 per cent. Texas led in the rate of increase in this value in the 10 years, 214 per cent., with South Carolina second, 179 per cent.; Georgia third, 162 per cent.; Florida fourth, 153 per cent.; North Carolina fifth, 145 per cent., and Arkansas sixth, 123 per cent.

Expenditures for farm labor in the South increased from $81,781,000 to $149,463,000, and in the rest of the

Has a Copy of Mohammedan Koran.

Mr. J. R. Abe-younis showed us Tuesday afternoon a copy of the Mohammedan Koran, which he has at his store. It is the first copy of this great book the writer ever saw, and doubtless few, if any, of our readers have seen one. It is made by hand throughout, the paper being handmade rag product, and the plates from which it is printed are all made from hand copy, decorated. Its cover is of the lapped style beautifully embellished with gold.

Where The Money Goes.

James J. Hill, speaking of the industrial outlook, says: "There is plenty of money in the country and it is being offered at a low rate of interest for short-time loans; but little of it seems to be going into the creation of new business enterprises. On the contrary, much of our money is going to foreign lands for investment."

We have in this brief statement a presentation of one of the greatest of the indirect evils growing out of the monopoly of industries by great corporations. In former times the small factories of the country held in solution the annual earnings of each separate community. Money remained largely in the locality where it was earned and was used by local business men to develop local enterprises. Under the present system there is no large number of small interests to hold money diffused through the country. It passes to the banks and from them is sent to New York. Here it becomes available for big capitalists. But they use it only for big purposes. Little enterprises do not appeal to them. Therefore, our money, as Mr. Hill says, is going abroad.—New York World.

country from $275,612,000 to $502,399,000.

The South has learned well of the benefits to be derived from the liberal use of fertilizers. In 1910 its expenditures on that line were nearly double the expenditures in the rest of the country, and nearly 66 per cent. of the total. Ten years before the South's percentage was about 54 per cent. of the total. Between 1900 and 1910 the increase in such expenditures was from $29,006,000 to $74,703,000. In the South, and from $24,254,000 to $39,750,000 in the rest of the country. Three states—Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina—spent in 1910 nearly 60 per cent. of the total spent by the South for fertilizers.

Bearing directly upon this increase in the use of fertilizers in the increase between 1899 and 1910 in the value of 12 leading crops, corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, buckwheat, flaxseed, rice, potatoes, hay, tobacco and cotton in the Southern States, from $771,778,000 to $1,655,933,000, an increase of 157 per cent.
