TO DECIDE FATE OF RECIPROCITY

THE SITUATION AT A GLANCE.

The Hottest Campaign Canada Has Witnessed in a Long Time.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 20.—The hottest political campaign Canada has witnessed since the days of Sir John McDonald and the National Policy was brought to a whirlwind finish today with rallies and speechmaking in virtually every city, town and hamlet from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Tomorrow the electors throughout the country will express their political preferences and on their verdict depends the fate of the Liberal government, which, under the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, has been in office for fifteen years, and also the fate of the proposed reciprocity pact with the United States, from which Sir Wilfrid stands sponsor.

If Sir Wilfrid returns to power, the reciprocity bill will be passed soon after the re-assembling of parliament next month, and at an agreed date both Canada and the United States will put the necessary tariff changes into effect.

If the opposition wins a majority, Robert L. Borden, its leader, will become premier, reciprocity will be dropped and Canada will remain a high tariff country desirous of continuing the present tariff relations with the United States.

The polls will open at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and close at 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Unless the voting at large is unusually close it is expected that the outcome will be known by 10 p. m. (Atlantic time).

The campaign is the last in which Premier Laurier will participate, according to his declaration made at the beginning of the struggle. If he wins the contest, he will hold office continuously for a longer period than Sir John Macdonald.

The campaign has been hotly contested in all the provinces, and although conditions in certain sections of the Dominion are regarded as highly favorable to the Liberal party the result cannot be accurately forecasted. Upon the whole, disinterested observers seem inclined to the opinion that the government will carry the country by a reduced majority.

The claims of the two sides on the eve of the election are about as follows: The opposition declare they will gain seats from the government in the Maritime provinces—Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island—in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia, while Saskatchewan and Alberta will remain with the government as at present. The Liberals, on the contrary, maintain that they will increase their present large majority in the French-Canadian sections of Quebec and the Maritime provinces, and will make gains in Ontario and throughout the West.

Practically the reciprocity agreement with the United States has been the sole issue of the campaign. The Liberal press and Liberal speakers have argued its material advantages, while the opposition has denied its material advantages and the compact as inimical to the commercial unity and national independence of Canada, as a movement towards Continentalism, and as a far step towards separation from the mother country.

The Conservative campaigners have confined themselves largely to the sentimental side of the reciprocity question. The British flag, the maintenance of British connection unweakened, and protests against closer relations with the United States have formed the basis of Conservative speeches. The Liberals, on the other hand, have sought to keep the fiscal aspect of reciprocity to the front and have accounted as absurd the contention of the Conservatives that reciprocity will lead Canada away from England and to the United States.

It is conceded that if the Conservatives have succeeded in convincing a majority of the electors that reciprocity tends toward annexation the government will be defeated. It likewise seems certain that if the government speakers have satisfied the voters that annexation is impossible, the government will be returned by a substantial majority and the reciprocity agreement ratified.

The French-Canadian province of Quebec is regarded as the pivotal province in the election. Here Henri

IT WILL PAY YOU.

Tobacco Farmers, Handle Your Tobacco With Care.

Standing on the warehouse floor a few days ago, a buyer remarked to me that he had just bought some tobacco on the floor that was grown by a very good farmer, but that the way it was graded and put on the market damaged the sale of it from two or three cents a pound. Said this buyer: "You are frequently making suggestions to the tobacco farmers which I think are good, if they would observe them, but you could not do anything that would pay them so well for the amount of expense and trouble as to get them to handle their tobacco better." In this sentence, this particular farmer happened to be a man who has perfect control of his farm, and if he were to exercise himself, could have his tobacco delivered in just such condition as to demand the best market price, and when I reminded him of what the buyer had said about his tobacco, his immediate reply was: "I don't doubt it; for I could tell at a glance that my tobacco was not handled as well as the other tobacco on the floor, and called the attention of my tenants to it."

Tobacco should be graded and hung on sticks in proper order, and then when put in bulk, the proper way to make it look well when put on the warehouse floor is to have a wide, heavy board, and as each stick of tobacco is bulked, straighten out the leaves and press it down with this board at the end of each day's grading. The tobacco ought to have a reasonable amount of weight on it, so that the leaves are all straightened out, and if offered in this condition on the market, the leaves all stand out straight and show to the best possible advantage. Neatness in all things on the farm pays and pays well, but in no particular instance do I believe it would pay better than in the particular manner of handling tobacco.

Rector Celebrates 38th Anniversary.

WASHINGTON, N. C., Sept. 20.—On last Sunday Rev. Nathaniel Harding, the beloved rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, this city, celebrated his 38th anniversary as rector of this church. Large congregations were present at both the morning and evening services, and at the morning service the same hymns and entire service that was used 38 years ago was used at this service. Rev. I. W. Hughes, rector of Holy Innocents Episcopal church, Henderson, preached the anniversary sermon. At the night service Rev. M. A. Barber, of Christ's church, Raleigh, delivered a strong sermon. Both sermons and services were enjoyed and appreciated by large congregations. At the night service Mr. Barber, previous to beginning his sermon, made a number of graceful and appropriate remarks relative to Rev. Nathaniel Harding and his long and successful pastorate of the local Episcopal church. Mr. Harding is the oldest pastor in the city and is well beloved by hosts of friends not only in his own church, but throughout the entire city.

Train From Raleigh Late.

The 9:40 passenger train from Raleigh was more than an hour late this morning. The delay was the result of a break down of the engine and a little derailment. No other damage.

Douasse, the opposition nationalist leader, has vigorously denounced Premier Laurier as too imperialistic. Through his paper, Le Devoir, of Montreal, and in speeches, he has declared that Laurier betrayed Canadian independence to Great Britain by enacting a law for the creation of a navy, which eventually will lead to the conscription of the young men of Canada.

In addition to Bourassa the conspicuous opponents of the government's return are Clifford Sifton, former member of the Laurier cabinet; Robert Rogers, minister of public works in the Manitoba government and head of the conservative organization in the Prairie West; Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia, and Premier Hazen, of New Brunswick.

Liberal governments are in power in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Saskatchewan and Alberta. They have given the government and reciprocity all possible aid in the campaign.

ENROLLMENT WILL PASS THE FIVE HUNDRED MARK

GRADED SCHOOL LARGE OPENING

Strong Corps of Teachers for The Present Session.

The graded schools of Greenville opened this morning at nine o'clock. No lessons were attempted; the children were assigned to their rooms, the promotion cards collected, book lists distributed and then they were dismissed for the day. Tomorrow the registrations begin.

The rolls have not yet been completed, and the exact number in attendance cannot be given today. There were present this morning between four hundred and twenty-five and four hundred and fifty. The increase in number over this time last year is about seven per cent. It is now certain that the enrollment in the school will exceed five hundred this year.

All the teachers were present, except the teacher of the second division of the first grade. She will arrive at an early date.

The corps of teachers this year is as follows:

- First grade—Miss Mooring.
- Advanced first—Mrs. F. M. Wooten (Substitute).
- Second A—Miss Gregory.
- Second B—Miss Morrison.
- Third A—Miss Knight.
- Third-Fourth B—Miss Alexander.
- Fourth—Miss Olive.
- Fifth—Miss Tyson.
- Sixth—Miss Sheridan.
- Seventh—Miss Keeter.
- Drawing—Miss Tucker.
- High School—Miss Mears.
- Miss Cox.
- Music—Miss Saucerman.
- Miss Carr.

Mills-Rutherford Wedding.

PARIS, Sept. 20.—In the private chapel of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt's chateau at Deauville, in one of the most picturesque spots to be found in all Normandy, Miss Margaret Rutherford, daughter of Mrs. Vanderbilt by a previous marriage, was wedded today to Mr. Ogden Livingston Mills, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, of New York. Although the wedding was considered more private than public, there assembled in the little chapel a most distinguished company. In the pews reserved for the relatives of the contracting parties were Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills, the Earl and Countess of Granard, Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry White. The bride entered the chapel on the arm of her stepfather. As maid of honor she was attended by her sister, Miss Barbara Rutherford. William O'D. Iselin, of New York, acted as best man.

True Brotherhood.

WILSON, Sept. 19.—God's people live in North Carolina, and a big bunch of them reside in and around the thriving town of Lucama. The good wife of Mr. Bill Watson has been in ill health all the summer, so much so that there has required the presence of her husband at her bedside constantly. Mr. Watson is a member of Lucama Camp Modern Woodmen of the World, and on last Friday forty-three members of this noble order, unbeknown to Mr. Watson, shucked their coats and went in his field and picked three thousand pounds of cotton. Not long since they saved his fodder. Such acts as these make life worth living and shows that the Lucama brotherhood is willing to "let brotherly love continue."

Conducts a Good Sale.

Although a comparative stranger in Greenville, Mr. J. J. Gentry has been conducting his sales in such a way at the Gum warehouse as to cause favorable comment by those who have witnessed his sales. Mr. Gentry is comparatively a young man, strong physically, and his manner of conducting his sales shows that he knows his business from start to finish. He is a hard worker, and never leaves a pile of tobacco as long as there is a prospect of getting a bid on it. A farmer who was on his sale a few days ago, was heard to remark: "That fellow Gentry is going to win his way in Greenville."

James, Not Jones.

The types made us say Jones instead of James yesterday in the account of the death of Mr. Reuben S. James. The writer of the item failed to see the proof, hence the error.

NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Stated for The Reflector's Busy Readers.

It is learned that the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of State against the Red "C" Oil Manufacturing Company, of Baltimore, tried at Greensboro, yesterday.

A charter has been issued for The Edgecombe News Co., Tarboro, capital $5,000 authorized and $500 subscribed by S. P. Bass, H. R. Congor, and W. H. Pittman.

WELDON.—By a safe majority in the election on the question of a bond issue of $40,000 for the establishment of water works, the town voted decidedly wef, only ten votes being cast against water works.

DURHAM.—Dr. Wm. A. Graham, perhaps most prominent young physician in Durham, committed suicide at 2 o'clock by shooting himself through the head. At this hour no possible cause for such can be assigned.

The International Re-Insurance Co. of Vienna, Austria, has filed with the state commissioner of insurance application to do business in North Carolina. This makes 145 fire insurance companies doing business in this state under state license. Ten years ago there were only about 50 companies.

Last night near 11:30 o'clock, while Miss Isla Causey, who resides at 318 East Washington street, was closing a blind on one of the downstairs windows, a man caught her about the waist and attempted to haul her out of the window. She screamed and the man released his hold and ran.—Greensboro News.

RALEIGH.—Falling backwards into a dish pan full of boiling water, little Hazel Egerton, the 19-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Egerton, of 317 East Hargett street, yesterday afternoon about 12:30 o'clock. The little one's entire back, from her head down, was severely scalded and she is in a very critical condition.

Mr. F. T. Meacham phones The Landmark that he has the champion lady cotton picker, Miss Enda Hefner, who makes her home at the state farm, and who is 17 years old, Thursday she cooked two meals, did other house work and picked 814 pounds of cotton. Miss Hefner has averaged over 200 pounds of cotton a day every day this season. She and her sister, Miss Carrie Hefner, both averaged over 200 a day.—Statesville Landmark.

HENDERSON.—A burglar broke into the home of Mr. P. T. Way, editor of the Henderson Good Leaf, Friday night taking his watch, his coat, railroad mileage, receipts, etc. Left, or did not search his pants, which contained about $21.00. He broke or cut the blinds on the front porch, right on Main street, went through the halls, etc., then entered his bed-room, where he and Mrs. Way were asleep. They were no doubt slightly chloroformed, as neither awoke until he was leaving the bed room. It was so dark (occurred just before day) that Mr. Way could not tell whether he was white or colored, or whether there was one or more.

"CORONATION OF KING GEORGE."

And "The Fall of Troy" to be Presented in Motion Pictures.

The Gaiety Theatre has slated for Thursday night, September 21, "The Coronation of King George and the Fall of Troy," combined to be exhibited here for only one night.

Judging from press comments, these feature pictures received elsewhere they are beyond any question of doubt, the most sensational that has ever been released.

One picture alone, "The Fall of Troy," cost over $150,000 to produce. Over three thousand people were engaged during the performance.

These pictures will be here for one night only, on the above mentioned date, and every one should avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing this extra class of pictures, which the management has gone to an enormous expense in order to secure. The admission price for that night only, will be 10 and 20 cents, and are double worth the price of this.

ANNIVERSARY OF H. B. HARRISS.

Large Number of Friends And Associates Gather With Him.

The 19th of September was the fifty-fifth birthday of our townsman, Mr. H. Bentley Harriss, and much to his surprise his good wife went about making preparations to have a number of his friends enjoy a few hours with them on this date. The dining room was most artistically arranged, the decorations being of golden rod and scarlet sage. There were fifty-five burning tapers, representing the fifty-five years of his life. A barbecued pig occupied the space between the burning candles, bearing the dates 1856-1911.

There was a guessing contest as to what the pig represented, in which all the guests participated. Mr. R. W. King being the successful winner in guessing "up-to-date," was presented with a box of cigars. Dr. Laughinghouse, being the winner of the booby prize, was presented with a box of cigarettes.

The table was presided over by the hostess, Mrs. H. B. Harriss, and her sister, Mrs. W. J. Turnage, and the good things served were too numerous to mention. Every one present enjoyed to the fullest the hospitality, and all wish Mr. Harriss many more years of prosperity and happiness.

Those present were Messrs. J. A. Lang, W. J. Turnage, W. M. Moore, J. C. Lanier, B. F. Tyson, E. H. Shelburn, R. C. Flanagan, Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, F. M. Wooten, O. L. Joyner, R. W. King, J. M. Reuss, H. T. King, J. L. Carper, Dr. T. G. Bannight, Ollen Warren, R. L. Humber, and Charles Cobb.

MAYOR HURT SAVING LIFE.

Suffolk Executive Shocked In Pulling Live Wire From Officer's Hands.

SUFFOLK, Va., Sept. 19.—Mayor Holladay saved the life of Policeman Pratt last night and imperiled himself in the act. The mayor and officer were looking after some telephone and electric light poles which were blown down during a storm. Pratt grabbed a live wire, yelled and crumpled to earth unconscious while fire flashed from his hands.

Fearing to touch man or wire directly, Mayor Holladay snatched at the latter with a wooden handle umbrella. The wire was removed from the policeman's grasp, touched the mayor's hand in passing, and knocked him across the street, into Attorney James H. Corbett's yard. Neither man was dangerously hurt.

TAFT COVERING MICHIGAN.

Will Arrive in Grand Rapids Early Thursday Morning.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 19.—Grand Rapids is preparing a cordial welcome for President Taft, who is due to arrive in this city about breakfast time tomorrow morning for a visit of six or seven hours. Grand Rapids' central location and the strong influence it wields in Michigan politics has led to the belief that the speech to be delivered here will be one of the most important of the presidential tour. At luncheon the president will meet some of the prominent men of the state and after a short drive about the city will depart at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for Kalamazoo, which will be the last stopping place in Michigan.

HELD FOR FORGERY.

Robert Smith Arrested for Attempting to Get Bad Check Cashed.

This morning Policeman G. A. Clark arrested one Robert Smith, of New Bern, for attempting to pass a forged check. Smith knew our candy man, Joseph Hatem, in New Bern, and was in his store right much yesterday. The statement furnished The Reflector is that going to the desk to write a letter he secured one of Mr. Hatem's checks with his name printed thereon, filled it out for $20.00, signed Mr. Hatem's name, and this morning attempted to get it cashed at the National Bank. Mr. James, suspicious of something wrong, as the signature was not Mr. Hatem's writing, started over to see about it. Smith left the bank and disappeared. Later Mr. Clark found him and arrested him. He will have a hearing tomorrow morning before Mayor Wooten, being out on bond until then.

No matter how many more cigars a man smokes a day, he can't be convinced.

Why Rome Celebrates.

ROME, Sept. 20.—This being the semi-centennial year of Italian independence, today's celebration of the anniversary of the fall of the temporal power of the papacy and the Italian occupation of Rome was conducted on an unusually elaborate scale. A crowd of more than 50,000 persons visited the historic Porta Pia and others made pilgrimages to the monuments of Victor Emmanuel, Garibaldi, Cavour, Mazzini and other leaders in the struggle for Italian unity.

Anniversary of Paoli.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 20.—On the monument grounds near Malvern the customary exercises were held today in commemoration of the 134 anniversary of the "Massacre of Paoli," in which the American troops under "Mad Anthony" Wayne, in their retreat from Brandywine, were attacked in the night by the British and routed with great slaughter.

Onions Did It.

Hettie Green, the richest woman in the world, was given up to die many years ago and a trustee was appointed for her estate. She began to eat onions and keeps it up to this day. She says this is what saved her. She has lived to bury three trustees. Meantime she has been adding to her wealth.—Exchange.

Detroit M. E. Conference.

FLINT, Mich., Sept. 20.—The annual session of the Detroit conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened here today with Bishop Henderson, of Chattanooga, presiding. Many changes in the ministerial assignments are expected this year, announcement of which will be made on the first of the week.

Too Many Chinquepins.

A mountain farmer sold his entire load of pountry produce to a local merchant but when the goods were delivered there were about 15 bushels of chinquepins and the merchant refused to pay for the load. The farmer secured judgment against the merchant, who was required to pay the bill, but hereafter, when buying produce, he will count the chinquepins.—Mount Aairy Leader.

Some of these days Greenville may have a country club or suburban park, or both. If anybody should get interested in this any time soon The Reflector would like to give them some pointers.

North Carolina might well afford to take lessons from Virginia in the selection of juries to try capital cases. North Carolina has been first in many things, but Virginia is far ahead of us in this one.

The latest figures of the Maine election indicate a majority in favor of renewing the prohibition clause from the state constitution. This does not

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has adopted a policy of giving out reliable statements concerning all accidents and other matters of news value in which the public are interested. These reports are given out promptly and can always be depended upon. Heretofore, frequently, when a newspaper calls up for information one of the heads of the corporation will reply "Nothing for publication," believing that such news would be covered up. The Baltimore & Ohio believe that certain information the public has a right to have and it will be given, and accurately. Other roads might well afford to adopt this policy. When a reporter goes after a news item he is apt to get something, and it is to the interest of the railroads to give the public correct information.

Swanson Sets Precedent.
Until former Governor Swanson was nominated for the United States senate by a big majority at the recent primary it had been the case in Virginia that after a man filled the gubernatorial chair he was never again honored by the people. In support of this a contemporary says: "Many times in recent years governors of Virginia have aspired to election to the United States senate after or during their terms or have cherished ambitions to wear the toga, even if they were not avowed aspirants."

"General Lee and Governor McKinney were both voted for as senatorial aspirants in 1893, but both were beaten. Governor O'Ferrell was known to have cherished senatorial aspirations when he was governor, but he guessed wrong on the currency question in 1896 and was hopelessly out of the running thereafter. Gov. Tyler was a candidate for the senate in 1899. In 1905 Governor Montague, who had been working during his entire term as governor to insure his election to the senate in 1905 and in whose supposed interest the primary agitation was begun and that plan of nominating devised, was beaten in a popular primary for the senate.

"The long array of precedents had given rise to a popular belief that the governorship was the door to political retirement in this state. It has remained for Mr. Swanson to break this hitherto unbroken line of precedents and win the coveted honor before the people over a man of unquestioned ability and one who already had a seat in the other branch of congress.—Norfolk Ledger Dispatch.

of Greensboro, N. C.
Consultation and Examination Confidential, Invited and FREE one day only

From a Late Snapshot

To see all of his regular Patients and such new Cases, as may wish to consult him. Dr. Packard enjoys a state wide reputation, among the profession and the Public of North Carolina, where for more than 25 years he has devoted his entire time to the Study, Treatment and Cure of Chronic Diseases. The Doctor has had wonderful success in his chosen work, that of curing chronic sufferers, Men, Women and Children. The Patients he has restored to Health after they had given up all hope of being Cured are numbered by the Thousands. He is a kind, generous, democratic gentleman to meet, of high scholarly attainments, and dignified personality. Coupled with a Brotherly interest, in all who seek his advice, He does not take a Patient for Treatment unless he can foresee a Cure of the Case. The most commendable feature of his work, and one that appeals to the ordinary sick person, is the fact of his charges being so reasonable and moderate as to make it within the reach of even the very poor. At no time do the charges amount to more than $7.00 a month or about $1.50 a week. He gives his own medicines, and there are no extra Charges. It takes him never more than from four to six Months to Cure a Case under Treatment. All Cases, even those who have been given up as incurable or Hopeless, have been Cured and restored to perfect health by this Brilliant Physician and the wonderful methods he employs.
If you want to meet him and have him examine you, go to see him, and talk the matter over with him. It will cost you nothing if he does not put you under treatment. If he takes your case, it will cost you a very small sum to get well.
Remember the date Saturday September 23rd, and come early

Early Tuesday night the electric lights in the new court house were tested and made a beautiful illumination. The building is wired throughout and the chandeliers and electric fittings are very handsome.

Rattlesnake Killed.

On Sunday morning a colored man who lives on the farm of Sheriff S. I. Dudley, about five miles from town, found a large rattlesnake in his yard and killed it. The snake had nine rattles.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick Ups and Hand-me-Downs.

Fires will soon be feeling good. Prayer meetings in the churches tonight.

Lively sales on the tobacco market every day.

The boys are hunting chinquepins. It is "books" with the youngsters now.

Weed-cutting seems to have been forgotten by the town this year.

This weather makes you think of pumpkins and Thanksgiving.

The force in the business office of The Reflector will not run away with fright if you come in for a subscription receipt.

It is the unusual thing to hear a farmer who sells tobacco on the Greenville market these days make any complaint about prices. They all come and go home pleased.

J. R. & J. G. Moye in their advertisement today have something to say about cotton fabrics that is of especial interest to the ladies. It will pay to always keep a watch on the advertisement of this store.

A steamer delayed on her way to New York with a cargo of Java sugar finds that it has risen $100,000 in value in consequence.

"THIS IS MY 60th BIRTHDAY."

Lloyd Bryce, who has been appointed United States minister to the Netherlands, was born in Flushing, L. I., September 20, 1851. His early life was passed in Georgetown, D. C., where he attended Georgetown University. Later he studied in New York and at Oxford, England, where he graduated from Christ Church College in 1869. He later studied law at Columbia University. He served as a member of congress from 1887 to 1889, directing his efforts there chiefly to harbor improvement and copyright matters. For nearly ten years after his retirement from congress Mr. Bryce was the editor and proprietor of the North American Review. He is the author of many books and essays.

Excursions.

The Mighty Haag Railroad shows have arranged round trip excursion rates on all lines to Greenville where the Mighty Haag Railroad shows exhibit on Sept. 29. Don't fail to avail yourself of the opportunity of seeing the only first-class trained animal show in America. Remember that $50,000 have been expended by the Haag shows in parade features alone.

Child's Nose Cut in Two.

Late Tuesday afternoon a little son of Mr. D. L. Smith, one of the rural mail carriers out from Grimesland, was playing in the yard with a tin bucket. The little fellow fell over on the bucket, striking his nose across the chime, and cut his nose in two. He was taken to a physician in Ayden for the wound to be sewed up.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy For Dandruff, Falling, Faded Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking any first-class druggist for Wyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Moye's Pharmacy.

Foxhall and The Star.

I want to say to the tobacco farmers of Pitt and adjoining counties that no better sales have ever been made on the Greenville market than are now being made every day at the Star warehouse, and my patrons realize that they can receive the highest dollar for their tobacco when selling on the Star floor.

You will find every one connected with the Star knows and attends to his own business. You will also find no better lighted warehouse in the state, and that everyone associated with me, appreciates the patronage given us, and that nothing is left undone for the comfort and convenience of our patrons. These reasons, together with the fact that the Star has always led in high prices and is today leading, should convince every farmer who can possibly sell at Greenville, to bring his tobacco to the Star warehouse.

All this talk about the Star leading in high prices only because it sells the best tobacco raised, is made to deceive the farmers. While it is true that I do sell a large percentage of the best tobacco sold on the Greenville market, it is also true that the Star leads them all on all kinds of tobacco.

Bring me your next load, and I will show you that the best sales are made at the Star.

A Dreadful Sight.

to H. J. Barnum, of Freeville, N. Y., was the fever-sore that had plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and write: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Boils, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Corns and Piles like magic. Only 25c at all druggists.

Large Machinery Dealers.

We had no idea that Hart & Hadley, hardware dealers here, were handling such large quantities of farm machinery until we looked in their warehouse today. Besides the two large warehouses in the rear of their store down town, they have a large storage house out near the Norfolk Southern depot in and around which are eight car loads of different kinds of machinery. They handle anything in machinery and implements that is needed about the farm, and buying in car lots enables them to make the lowest prices.

The Witty Irishman.

An Irishman wanted an empty bottle in which to mix a solution, and went to a druggist to buy one. Selecting one that answered his purpose, he asked how much it was. "Well," said the clerk, "if you want the empty bottle it'll be one cent, but if you have anything put in it we don't charge anything for it." "Sure, that's fair enough," observed the Irishman; "put in a cork."—Exchange.

Your Grocer Invites You to Drink a Cup of Famous French Market Coffee at the Old French Market—at His Expense

When you arrive in New Orleans go down past the French Cathedral to the quaint old French Market. Listen to the soft patois of the people. Call to mind the beaux and belles of long ago who came there for their coffee—and then—and like them, ask for a cup of genuine old French Market Coffee. Pay no money—merely present the coupon, properly filled out, and you will be served with the famous French Market Coffee free of charge—we will pay for your cup of coffee.

Your home-grocer loves his cup of French Market Coffee and has arranged that you shall have a treat at his expense. He knows that once you have enjoyed its delicious flavor, its delicate aroma, and its soothing and refreshing qualities, no other coffee will ever equal it in your favor.

French Market Coffee

This old-time, wonderful coffee blend has been drunk for hundreds of years by beautiful women and famous men at the historic French Market. Andrew Jackson stopped here after his victory at Chalmette in 1815. Henry Clay was served with French Market Coffee at the magnificent banquet tendered him in 1843. No Mardi Gras ball was considered complete without a "nightcap" of French Market Coffee.

This famous coffee with a history is conquering the country. It is sold everywhere.

Until the building of the French Market Mills, genuine old French Market Coffee could be had ONLY at the French Market in New Orleans.

But NOW you all may enjoy it daily—on your own table. For the rare French blend is perpetuated by the same unique hygienic roasting process, and French Market Coffee is NOW delivered everywhere in hermetically-sealed tins—with all its delicate aroma and natural strength. "There is only one real old French Market flavor."

Three Things for Men.
 There are more than three, of course, but C. T. Munford wants to impress the fact that his big store is especially strong on three things for men and boys.

When it comes to clothes, he has the Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes, that stand at the head of the class. They are of the right quality and shades for fall and winter, and they are made right. The man or boy in one of these suits will look right.
 Then he has the 5-ply linen collars and cuffs, the very best made, and they can be had nowhere else.
 Lion Brand shirts are known everywhere and are not surpassed by any. The man or boy does the right thing for himself in going to Munford's for these articles.

On The Eve of Reciprocity.

Canada is in the thick of the most spirited and far-reaching campaign of all her political history. The gage of battle is the reciprocity pact, already ratified by the United States and ardently championed by the Liberals of the Dominion. On next Thursday, the ballots of the people will determine whether or not this great policy, with its cementing influence upon friendship and trade, is to be carried into effect.

Interest in the outcome is scarcely less intense in this country than in Canada. Many months ago it became clear that the rank and file of American citizens are heartily in favor of this reciprocal agreement for freer trade. And in no corner of the United States is this feeling stronger than in the South. For reciprocity will not only stimulate important southern industries, but it is also one of the oldest principles for which our Democracy has contended.

Nor is there any considerable anxiety as to what the outcome will be. Under the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier, the Liberal party represents today, as it long has, the dominant force of Canada's thought and sentiment. Among the farmers, its strength is especially pronounced and there is every likelihood that the rural vote will go almost solidly for this agreement. It is believed also that the Maritime provinces will, for the most part, support reciprocity. Certain manufacturing centers will probably oppose it. But in order to defeat this policy, the Conservatives must change the political complexion of thirty-five seats in the parliament, and according to all careful estimates this is a virtual impossibility.

Sir Wilfrid has openly charged that certain industrial trusts of the United States, who have fattened upon the high tariff system, are pouring money into the Canadian campaign. Having failed to beat the measure in congress, they are now striving to buy its defeat in the Dominion. But no one believes that the people of Canada will sell their own and their country's welfare.

According to the present outlook, the pact will be overwhelmingly ratified at the polls next Thursday. In that event, it will receive the government's formal sanction within the next few months and before the year ends, Canada and the United States will have entered upon a new era of mutual friendship and prosperity.—Atlanta Journal.

Register of Deeds J. Hector Smith, of Hoke county, has resigned his office. Already there are several applications for the position.

Every one who looks at the new court house speaks in admiration of its beauty.

Marrying Might Help Him.
 Two applicants have been refused today. One young High Point gentleman was exceedingly anxious to get married. "Maybe you will be glad in a few years that you couldn't get license for this step," someone suggested to the love-sick boy, but he took no stock in that theory. "Maybe I would," he said, "but I ain't no good now, and I thought to get married might help me."—Greensboro record.

 Rev. D. P. Tate, Methodist Minister, Danville, Va.

"The Methodist" Endorses Milam

"The endorsement of "The Methodist" is not to be had by anything of doubtful merit, but this paper stands ready to lend its influence for that which it believes will tend to the betterment of humanity, spiritually, morally, materially or physically.

When such men as Revs. D. P. Tate, Horace D. Guarrant and others of like high character give their unqualified endorsement to the physical benefits derived from the remedy advertised on the last page of this paper, we feel safe in commending it to our readers.—E. G. Moseley, in "The Methodist" for September.

"The Baptist" Endorses Milam.

Milam is the name of a great medicine now being manufactured in Danville, and from the testimonials of some of our best citizens we can safely recommend it to our friends who are suffering with any of the diseases it proposes to cure. The men at the head of the company manufacturing this medicine can be relied on.—Rev. J. E. Hicks, in the Baptist Union.
