INTEREST STILL ON THE INCREASE; YESTERDAY ANOTHER BIG VOTING DAY

Contestants Are Being Nominated From All Over the County of Pitt
--Have You Nominated Your Favorite?

AND THE NOMINATIONS ARE STILL COMING THICK AND FAST

First List When Published Promises To Be a Big One—Will Your Name Be There?

Three days have lapsed since the announcement in full of the Daily Reflector big contest of energy for the most energetic and popular young woman, either married or single, of Greenville and Pitt county. Although the contest has hardly commenced, much interest is being manifested throughout the territory covered by it, and the interest is growing daily, so that by the time another week has passed the contest should be up to fever heat. The opening day of the contest was Tuesday, October 17th, and it will close on Saturday, December 9th. Truly this is a very short time for a contest of this nature to run, when the value of the prizes is taken into consideration, so those who desire to enter should bring or send their nomination to the Contest Manager at once. If you have a friend whom you would like to win one of the handsome prizes send in her name now so that she may be able to start with the rest.

Many names have already been entered and from the present outlook it seems that there will be a representation in the first list of names from every part of the territory included in the contest. Don't let this fact bother you though for you have the same opportunity, whether rich or poor, to capture the prize of your choice. It is not a matter of finance, just some real energy is all that is needed to carry off the piano or any other of the prizes.

The Greatest Ever.

Seldom does a publication lose its purse-strings and pour forth liberal gold as has the Daily Reflector in this grand gift distribution, and the newspaper reading public of Greenville and Pitt county will take an interest in this great prize distribution has never before been displayed in any contest heretofore inaugurated in this section of the state.

The nomination blank is printed on another page of this issue, fill it out and bring or send it to the Contest Manager, care of the Daily Reflector, and it will receive his prompt attention. An early start may mean thousands of votes to you. After you have done this see all of your friends and acquaintances, tell them that you are in the contest and that you want the votes from their paper and also their renewal. Now don't put off any of this work until some other time, for if you do someone else is going to see them and get the votes that you might have had. You are going to need every vote that you possibly can secure, so do not let any of them slip by. Get out now and start the ball rolling, then come to the Contest Department office and get your receipt book and get out after the subscriptions of your friends. You can get them if you will try.

The Daily Reflector is without a doubt the best looking and most newsy paper published in this section of the state; your friends will want it after you show it to them, so get started now.

Bear in mind that no matter what your income may be, your chances to get that beautiful piano are just the same. All that you must do to reach the prize you want is to call upon a little of your energy and with it and your receipt book, you will find out that it is all plain sailing. Make up your mind that you are going to reach the highest mark at the close of the contest and you will be surprised to find out how easy the rest is. Energy and determination and a receipt book—that's the recipe that will win for you the prize you set out to reach.

Big Break and High Prices.

The tobacco sales were something immense again today. It looking like the farmers wanted to make up for missing a day. All the warehouses were pretty near full and it took until late in the day to get through the sale. The prices are all right and please the farmers. The Greenville market is always ahead of the procession.

THE FLEA CIRCUS.

The Most Interesting Thing at the Carnival.

It is remarkable to what extent human control can go in training animal kind. Various animals, fowls and reptiles have been subdued and educated to do the will of their masters. But who would have ever thought this training would extend to insects and that even fleas could be educated to do tricks. Yet this has been done, and there is a show of this kind with the Johnny J. Jones carnival, in Mr. Kuntz's original European flea circus. He has a number of fleas that dance, jump through rings, roll balls, pull tiny vehicles, and other stunts. Each flea has a wire around its neck to keep it from hopping away, and they are removed from the box in which they stay by picking up the wire with a pair of tweezers. They live in cotton and Mr. Kuntz feeds them by letting them suck blood from his arm. Each flea seems to know its name and responds to the command of the trainer when called by name. It is certainly a curiosity.

IN MEMORY OF SENATOR GEORGE

Observed by the Public Schools of Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 20.—"George day" was observed for the first time by the public schools throughout Mississippi today, when special exercises were held by the pupils in honor of the memory of the late General James Z. George, who was for many years one of the foremost figures in public life in this state. Following distinguished services in the Civil war, in which he was several times wounded and captured, General George served the state of Mississippi as chief justice and as United States senator, filling the last-named office until his death in 1897. To the public at large he is best remembered as the dominant figure in the constitutional convention of 1890 that devised a legal method of eliminating the negro from politics and maintaining white supremacy in Mississippi.

NEW HEAD OF UNIVERSITY

Boston University Installs Dr. Lemuel H. Murlin as President.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 20.—Boston University today installed Dr. Lemuel H. Murlin as president of that institution. The inauguration exercises were held in Trinity church this morning and were witnessed by a large number of the most prominent educators of the country. John L. Bates, former governor of Massachusetts and president of the university corporation, presented the seal and charter of Boston University, and Dr. Murlin made a brief response. This afternoon, in Old South Church, addresses of greeting were delivered by representatives of Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Princeton, Dartmouth and other leading colleges and universities of New England and the eastern states.

To Speak at Mining Congress.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 20.—The programme committee of the annual session of the American Mining Congress to be held here next week announces that in addition to President Taft the notable speakers will include Secretary of the Interior Walter L. Fisher, President B. F. Bush, of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, Dr. J. A. Holmes, director of the Bureau of Mines, and Governors Carey, of Wyoming, Hawley, of Idaho, Sloan, of Arizona and Spry, of Utah.

Alabama Educators Meet.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 20.—A large number of the leading educators of the state were here today for the opening of a joint annual session of the executive committee and the department of city and county superintendents of the Alabama Educational Association. The session will last two days and will be devoted to the discussion of a wide range of subjects relating to educational work.

THE GREAT SHOW MENAGERIE

ROBINSON'S CIRCUS WAS GOOD.

And The Performances Pleased The Great Crowds There.

John Robinson's circus has come and gone, and as the saying goes, it made good in passing. The Reflector being issued about midday Thursday only told of the preliminaries that took place before the performance. Everything was good that far, but what followed was even better.

The crowd did not remain down town long after the parade passed, and soon all the space before the big tents was surging with a sea of humanity. The doors opened at one o'clock to give an hour to take in the menagerie before the performance started. There were in this many fine specimens of various wild animals from tiny monkeys to big elephants.

When the grand entrance was announced there were thousands under the canvas, and as one act followed another there was great interest. The acrobats and wire performers gave some feats that were wonderful, and when one jumped from top of the tent on to a chute down which he slid on his hands and then somersaulted and caught on his feet, the great audience almost held its breath. The cowboys and cowgirls did some marvelous riding, and the lassoer was a wonder.

Three rings and a stage all having something going on at the same time kept the audience busy not to miss anything. A good concert followed the regular performance.

At night there was another performance with a large crowd, though of course not as numerous as in the afternoon. There is but one John Robinson's circus, and there is not a more interesting one on the road.

TRADE REPORT.

Trade Conditions Continue Irregular—Most Lines Are Dull.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 20.—Bradstreet's Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity: Conditions in trade continue irregular, most lines are dull while some are doing a satisfactory volume of business. The low price of cotton has had a deterrent effect on trade at the South, in some sections this is offset by the high prices being received for tobacco. Locally filling-in orders have been good, stimulated by buyers attracted to the city by the state fair. The fall trade in shoes and millinery has been good but these lines are apparently well filled. Dry goods are moving rather slowly. Lumber is in good demand for this season of the year and building operations are active; drugs and chemicals are active. Iron and metals are in poor demand. Tobacco has been practically all housed and wheat growing is in progress. The apple crop is up to the average. Retail trade is fair. Collections are slow.

Convention of Catholic Women.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Branches of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association throughout New York were represented here today at the opening of the annual state convention of the organization. An initiation of 500 candidates will be one of the principal features of the gathering. The sessions will continue over tomorrow, concluding tomorrow night with a banquet at the Hotel Seneca. Among the guests at the banquet will be several of the supreme officers of the association.

Not Visible in America.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18.—American sky-gazers are not directly interested in the annular eclipse of the sun which takes place tomorrow, for in this section of the world the phenomena will not be visible. The path of the annulus will begin on the east coast of the Sea of Aral and moving in a southeast direction will pass over the islands of Hainan and New Guinea and terminate in the South Pacific ocean. As a partial eclipse it will be visible over nearly all Asia, Australia and the northern part of New Zealand.

New Weather Warning.

We heard a man remark Thursday that a big frost usually comes soon after a big circus. The circus has come and gone, so you can look out for the frost.

SOMETHING ELSE BESIDES TARIFF

Is Giving Frigidity to the Republican Leaders

THE CHARGES OF CORRUPTION

Puts Questions to Them That Will be Hard to Answer—What Democratic Investigating Committees Are Bringing to Light—Attorney General Wickersham Sees Only One Side.

(By Clyde H. Tavenner.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Tariff is not the only thing the Republicans are afraid of in the coming campaign. There is another item that is giving them real worry. They are wondering how they are to give an answer to the charges of corruption, incompetency and maladministration that have been brought out and proven by the various Democratic investigating committees.

Republican leaders realize that this problem is going to present exceptional difficulties by the fact that when the Democrats started investigating them, the Republicans, shouting in derision of such tactics, declaring there was nothing to investigate; that under the Republican rule the affairs of government had been conducted in the only perfect manner, and that the whole purpose of the Democrats was to make political thunder.

That there was really need of some investigating in and around Washington was amply proven before the probes of Republican rule had well begun and despite all of the revelations of extravagance and maladministration that have come to light, many of the investigating committees are just getting ready to go to work. So far they have but scratched the surface.

The Moss committee brought to light the shameful manner in which the plotters in the pure food bureau had stripped Dr. Wiley of all power and made a farce of the law designed to protect the public from the greed of unscrupulous food dopers.

The Stanley committee learned that the steel trust for years paid tremendous profits on a capitalization represented largely by water and blue air, and that the trust gobbled up the Tennessee Coal and Iron company, its principal rival, with the aid and convenience of a Republican administration, ostensibly to prevent a panic, but actually to stifle its main competitor. It was further brought out that men were acting as counsel for the steel trust while receiving money from the government as special "trust busters."

The probe of the state department revealed that money was expended for one thing, and charged to another, while the committee on expenditures in the navy department discovered that more than $3,000,000 worth of supplies had been taken from the Washington navy yard without an accounting, and that the bookkeeping system in use there is absolutely ridiculous.

These are but a few of the many illustrations that could be given to show the value of honest investigations. More than a dozen other committees have turned up equally important evidence.

Mr. Wickersham Again.

"I am surprised," says Attorney General Wickersham, "that the business men of this country have not taken more advantage of that section of the law which permits the collection of threefold damages when they have been injured by a trust. That section is a powerful lever, and would make those illegally organized have more respect for the law."

Likewise, the people are surprised that Mr. Wickersham as an attorney general does not take advantage of the law which makes it possible to send guilty trust magnates to jail. They believe it would be an even still more "powerful lever."

Protection Helps Foreigners.

The Stanley steel investigating committee has made public the export prices of steel trust products. This is a very important piece of differences in prices in favor of news, inasmuch as it shows great reduction, if not the removal, of all tariff duty on steel.

The figures given out show that

HEALTH LECTURE BY DR. RANKIN

GRADED SCHOOL FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Relation of Health to Education A Topic All Parents Should Hear.

Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, will lecture at the graded school next Friday evening, October 27th, at 7:45 o'clock. His subject will be "The Relation of Health to Education." The lecture will be free, and the public is invited to hear the address.

Dr. Rankin comes in response to invitations from the graded school and from the Civic League. He is a good, clear, forceful speaker, and his addresses are always entertaining and instructive.

The addresses will bear very directly on all phases of the health of school children. We urge upon the attention of parents of the children the importance of the lecture, and we earnestly hope to have all of them present. Dr. Rankin is a specialist in his line, and no parent should lose this opportunity of hearing him.

There are numbers of children in school here, as everywhere, who are diseased and their parents don't know it. Frequently a slight course of treatment or operation would relieve the child and make of it a healthy adult, whereas, they grow up deformed, diseased, and are never worth much to themselves or to anyone else. Too often they are burdens on society. One of these days, and it won't be long, we shall have a school physician for every school, and no child will be permitted to grow up into manhood or womanhood afflicted and crippled.

The Civic League is making a study of tuberculosis and the means of preventing its spread. Dr. Rankin will devote a part of his lecture to this topic. So many young persons have tuberculosis in its incipient stage, and teaching the young people the importance of prevention measures, that it is unfortunate that two lectures cannot be given, one being devoted to tuberculosis. However, at this time we could not arrange for two addresses.

During the past two years we have advised numbers of parents regarding diseases from which their children were suffering. Many have had operations or treatment, and the results are very marked. A child who is sick cannot do school work. He cannot do anything but die, or grow up a diseased, crippled specimen, worth but little to himself and to society. Parents, and people generally, come out and hear Dr. Rankin next Friday night. That hour spent in hearing the lecture will be worth more than any other way you can spend it.

Superintendent of Schools.

Army Lieutenant Takes Bride.

TANNERSVILLE, N. Y., Oct. 20.—A wedding of interest in military circles took place here today, the bride being Miss Elizabeth Morse Colgate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Colgate, of New York city, and the bridegroom Lieut. Stanley M. Rumbough, of the fifteenth cavalry, U. S. A. The marriage was performed at the country home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to Europe Lieut. Rumbough and his bride will reside at Fort Myer.

the trust charges American consumers $32.97 per ton for steel plates, while supplying the identical article to foreigners at $29.04. The unprotected foreigner thus receives an advantage of $3.93 over the protected American consumer. The advantage given the foreigner in steel rails is $3.84 per ton; in tin plate, $12.54, and in structural steel, $4.50.

Query: If the steel trust sells its products cheaper to foreigners than to home consumers, who is the actual beneficiary of the American protective system. The foreigner or the home consumer?

Soft For Beef Trust.

Ed C. Lasater, president of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association, says that 300 per cent profit disappears somewhere between the producer and consumers of beef; that prices paid producers are decreasing, while prices extorted from consumers are going up. He proposes to find out who gets these fat profits. No confidence is violated in the statement that he suspects the beef trust.

IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD.

More Important and Difficult Games For The Big Teams.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—By far the most pretentious schedule thus far in the football season is due to be carried out on the college gridirons tomorrow. There are more important and more difficult games for the big teams and teams not so big.

On the eastern menu are such rich dishes as Yale vs. the army; Pennsylvania vs. Brown, Princeton vs. the navy; Syracuse vs. Lafayette; Carlisle Indians vs. University of Pittsburgh and Cornell vs. Washington and Jefferson. Harvard isn't so seriously involved, having Amherst as an opponent.

In the west the University of Chicago and University of Illinois line up for their annual contest at Chicago and Nebraska will be seen in action at Minneapolis. Michigan will play Ohio State and Wisconsin will have Ripon College as an opponent. Other games in the middle west that will attract attention will be those Indiana vs. Northwestern; Missouri vs. Iowa State College, and Washburn College vs. Haskell Indians.

In the South the University of Georgia will have in Sewanee a foe that is highly regarded. Vanderbilt will play the Central University of Kentucky, North Carolina will meet Davidson and South Carolina will play Florida. Other games in the South will include Virginia vs. Virginia Military School; Tennessee vs. Maryville College; West Virginia vs. Westminster College; Tulane vs. Louisiana State Normal; Washington and Lee vs. Wake Forest; Georgetown vs. Richmond College; Arkansas vs. Hendrix College, and Texas vs. Baylor University.

American Purity Congress.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 20.—The sixth International American Purity congress, which is to meet in this city Monday for a session of four days, promises to be one of the most representative gatherings of moral reformers, church workers, humanitarians and philanthropists that has ever assembled in this country. The progress of the international campaign to suppress the white slave traffic will form the leading topic of discussion. More than fifty persons will appear on the programme, representing leaders in moral and social movements throughout the United States and Canada.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1911.

Raleigh has had a gala week of it and a great fair.

Shows can find the money, even when the bill collectors fail.

The liking between Governor Harman and North Carolinians seems to be mutual.

Do not lose sight of the fact that a meeting of Carolina club is to be held Monday night, 23rd, to consider the suggestion of adding a commercial feature and making it a business men's organization with progress for its motto.

The Raleigh Times issues a headline saying a negro had been sentenced to hang, just like the electric chair had not succeeded hanging as a means of capital punishment in North Carolina. There will not be any more hangings in this state unless the law is changed.

We were glad to learn the other day from Prof. Wilson, a member of the faculty of the East Carolina Teachers Training school that that excellent institution is doing the work for which it was established, namely, the training of teachers, and not blooming out simply as a rival to our colleges for women as the Normal and Industrial has done. Others than teachers may attend the Greenville school, but they must take the teachers course because there is no other course provided. It is doing a good work in uplifting the teacher profession throughout eastern North Carolina and we hope it will always adhere to the great work that called it into being.—Charity and Children.

MANLY KNOWLEDGE DANGEROUS FOR WOMEN!

Not many years ago "mere man" laughed at the idea of women as a probable competitor in any of his professions. He considered these professions very much his and his masculine brothers' uncontested property. He had been taught or found out for himself that throughout the process of evolution, from the time eons ago, when he and his feminine companion were mere animated molecules dragging through the sands of time, up and through the simian and stony ages to the more modern times, it was he who protected and cared for her. This natural power of supremacy had been entrusted to him by a supreme being whose existence was attested to by the existence of the world itself. For otherwise how could he come to possess it? And in the knowledge of the source of his supremacy he rested at ease. He took it for granted that since it seemed to be the will of the Maker that he should lead her from creation to destruction, his place in the lead would be everlasting. No wonder that when modern times brought forth feminine apostles who tried to upset this primitive and primary rule, he should laugh derisively at her attempts to lead him. At first he reasoned with her and finding out that reasoning was futile, rather than exercise his supremacy and bar her from knowledge that up till then had been only accessible to him, he was willing to let her be her own proof of her inability. She stormed the schools and universities, sieged and took by storm places in business and finally made ready her artillery to assail even public offices. How far she succeeded is a matter of record in the last eight or ten years. She has attained, in most instances, the height of her ambition. She is allowed to poll her vote.

It would be dogmatic, narrow-minded, to say that this revolution which brought with it the overthrow of the primitive state of affairs, has not been the means of giving to the world feminine lights of a magnitude that bids fair to eclipse many masculine stars. And yet because of the advent of such feminine lights we must agree that if the world of science art and literature can claim many winners, the home-world, the world entrusted by the Maker with the sacred duty of reproduction, has been a sad loser. For it is a rule without exception, that, in order to have a winner there must be a loser; and the loser in this case cannot afford to lose. That the "highly intellectual" woman is a poor home-maker is proven beyond doubt by the continuous performance of marriages and divorces in the higher sets. That in developing her intellectual mind she sadly neglects her moral mind is being proved every day by the number of martial scandals aired in public. What this intellectual movement of women will do towards undoing the work of the Maker can only be surmised. As an instance of how far an intellectual woman has forgotten herself, a case now being tried in a New York court can be mentioned. Two persons accused of the blackest crime a human life can be charged with, namely, that of white slavery, have engaged the services of a woman lawyer, Jennie Seidler. It is said in the metropolitan papers that this woman lawyer is taking a very active part in the trial and is making every effort to have her clients absolved. Can it be possible knowledge which has made her an "intellectual woman" has taken away from her the finer sentiments of womanhood? This would undoubtedly appear to be the case. Her knowledge has made a modern Judas of her. In her knowledge she finds excuse for the sale of her sisters—and she is trying to sell that knowledge for money tainted with white slavery. The knowledge that she south to make of herself a higher woman, has made her a woman with a poorer moral mind. Perhaps she is married, and has daughters, perhaps not. The chances are that she is not. For could she work faithfully for her clients and then go home to her daughters and think they were safe? It is doubtful. If acquiring knowledge means in woman the loss of the higher sentiments that make her a worthy mother, such a knowledge is, indeed, a danger to herself and society.

My back and head ached and I had dizzy spells and pains in my sides. My kidneys did not do their work properly and caused me much suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at the John L. #### Barley.

Up in the barley a wind began:
Over their levies of gold it ran,
Plunged into them,
And furrowed through them
Foamy channels the height of a man.

Deep in their dark it dipt and shined,
And spake like a vision to all the blind;
Eye not knowing
The law of the flowing,
Real as water flowed the wind.

I was a child, and it seemed to me
A hilltop river set rolling free;
As it was ever
The way of a river,
Somewhere a well-headed—somewhere a sea!

Through flexile banks the unbodied stream
Poured its life and mine in a dream
Currents nameless,
Measureless, tameless,
Clave me, too, with rustle and gleam.

If I come back to the fields today
With storm in a time-worn heart, I pray
The sun to sift it,
The wind to lift it,
The barley floods to wash it away.

For here would I lie on the long-loved ground,
Seeing one sight and hearing one sound,

No strife to wake me,
No doom o'take me,
In that sweet harvest happily drowned.

Pick Ups and Hand-me Downs.

That is a fine stalk of cotton in Speight & Co.'s window.

Things are going at the tobacco market again today.

Quite a difference in the looks of the town yesterday and today.

It certainly was an orderly big crowd Thursday.

"THIS IS MY 41st BIRTHDAY."

John Robert Chancellor.

Major John Robert Chancellor, who was recently appointed governor and commander-in-chief of Mauritius, was born in Edinburg, October 20, 1870. After completing the course at the Royal Military academy at Woolwich in 1890 he joined the Royal engineers and has since seen a good deal of active service. In 1896 he served with the Indian contingent in the Dongola expedition. In the Tirah expedition of 1897-98 he was in charge of the Sirmur Imperial Service Sappers, and was present at the capture of Dargal Heights, Sampagha Pass, and Arhanga Pass, and at the operation in the Bra valley, being mentioned in despatches and receiving the medal of the Distinguished Service Order. He passed the Staff College in 1902, and for seven years previous to his recent appointment to Mauritius he filled the important position of secretary to the Colonial Defence committee.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Nabisco Feast.

The Reflector people had a feast today that was sent up from the store of Mr. J. L. Starkey, where the National Biscuit Co. had an exhibit, in charge of its traveling representative, Mr. H. Archbell. Besides the variety of goods made by the company that are already familiar in every household, the exhibit has the Festino, an almond-shaped wafer filled with chocolate, Minaret wafers, fruit cake, and other delicacies. All their goods are perfect in purity and make.

Is The World Growing Better? Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50 cents at all druggists.

Christian Missionary Convention.

The North Carolina Christian Missionary convention will meet Monday of next week with the Christian church in Ayden. The program of the convention is a most complete one, and contains many prominent speakers from other states. The sessions of the convention will continue until Thursday night. The Christian Women's Board of Missions will have their session Thursday night.

It's Equal Don't Exist.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands or sprains its supreme. Unrivalled for piles. Try it. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

Pearce, superintendent of schools in this city. The affair is to be in recognition of the election of Superintendent Pearce as president of the National Educational Association.

To Distribute Arkansas Rice.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 20.—"Arkansas on Wheels," a special train of eleven cars carrying 150 representative business men of Arkansas, mayors of cities, a brass band and a company of singers and entertainers, left the capital today for a tour through six states to exploit the products and commercial advantages of the commonwealth. The train carries four cars of exhibits of the fifty-five counties and it is planned to give a bag of Arkansas rice free to every housewife who visits the train along the route.

Cumberland River Improvement.

SOMERSET, Ky., Oct. 20.—Citizens of half a dozen counties of southern Kentucky gathered today at the town of Burnside, this county, and joined in a celebration in honor of the completion and opening of Lock No. 21 on the Cumberland river. The construction of the lock is the most notable step yet taken for the improvement of the upper Cumberland and its navigable water the year round from Nashville as far up the river as Burnside.

Quick Justice Meted Out to Negro.

RALEIGH, Oct. 20.—The electrocution of the negro Norval Marshall, which takes place at the state prison here today, established a record for speedy justice in North Carolina. Scarcely a month has elapsed since the commission of the crime for which the negro pays the death penalty, which was a criminal attack on a woman in Warren county. After attacking the woman the negro shot and seriously wounded her father and the sheriff of the county.

THE HAPPENINGS ALL AROUND AYDEN

PERSONAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Wants on Old-Time Fiddlers' Convention.

AYDEN, N. C., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Fred McGlohon is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Smith.

Mrs. Julia Barrett, of Kinston, is spending a few days visiting relatives here on her way from the Richmond fair.

Mrs. Harriet Hart, of Morehead, arrived Thursday to spend a few days with relatives here.

Mr. F. Clayton Turnage has rented the Biggs Harrington homestead, near the cross roads.

Mr. Aza Ellis has accepted a position with the Ellis Carriage Works. About 250 people left Thursday morning for the circus at Greenville. Guns, pistols, cartridges and shells, at J. R. Smith & Bro's.

Let us gin your cotton, grind your corn, repair your cart, buggy and wagon. L. L. Kittrell.

We hear that Mr. T. Jolly has purchased the dwelling house of Mr. L. H. Witherington on the corner of First and West Railroad streets.

We are expecting a large crowd here to attend the annual state convention of the Disciples, October 31. There will be visitors here from several states, and it is a settled fact that the first impression is a lasting one, and it is to be hoped that the visitors will form a favorable opinion of our community and people, and we hope to see some of the vacant lots cleaned up, some of the holes in the sidewalks filled up and that our good people will keep their gates closed so as not to swing out across the sidewalks, or swing them on the inside of the yard, as our little town has quite a reputation abroad and we are sure our people will come up to the standard in neatness and sanitation.

Should you or your neighbor have anything to send to the Pitt county fair and not convenient for you to send it, leave it at J. R. Smith & Bro's and they will see it properly entered.

Louisa Johnson, colored, was carelessly handling a pistol and didn't know it was loaded, when it went off, the ball passing through both of her knees and came out to the surface of her shin bone. She is totally dependent, on crutches, but not dangerously hurt. Dr. Mark Twain Frizzelle dressed the wound.

Mr. Jesse Wingate and wife returned Wednesday night from a visit to Mr. Wingate's parents in West Virginia.

Constable C. S. Smith returned yesterday from Fairmont, where he had been to bring back Quinn Cox, Jr., who was wanted here for stealing hogs in the vicinity of Hancock church.

Mr. Sam Smith has purchased the Nathan Hart homestead, near Rensston.

Mr. Benj. J. Cash has purchased the Nile Manning farm, near Bethany, for $3,400, sold for a division in the J. R. McGlohon estate.

Mr. W. E. Hooker and family are visiting at Mr. R. H. Garris'. Cook and heating stoves for either wood or coal. Lime, cement, windows and doors. J. R. Smith & Bro.

Guns, pistols, cartridges and loaded shells, tools mill supplies. J. R. Smith & Bro.

It looks like eggs will soon go to 25 cents per dozen and scarce at that. And cotton is most as high here as at Norfolk.

There are lots of cotton fields near here as white as snow banks. One man said he had all he could house, had no need of more; that is farming land.

Why can't we have an old time fiddlers' convention at Ayden? Frost is on the pumpkin, the fodder all in the shock, potatoes ready for digging, persimmon beer ready for sampling, and hog killing time is drawing nigh. Why can't we have a meeting and hear the boys draw their bows and for a time "it would change our nature." When we were a child we could listen motionless for hours at Curtis Williams play the Fisher Hornpipe, Arkansas Traveler, Georgia Camp Meeting, and Yankey-Doodle. There are a plenty of old-time fiddlers and lots of young ones around here to make such an occasion an eventful one.

We would be glad to see the gen-
