GREATEST AMERICAN
NAVAL REVIEW

ONE HUNDRED AND TWO VESSELS
Keep up Roar of Salute—Manned by Bluejackets at Attention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—One hundred and two vessels of the American navy, the largest fleet ever assembled under the Stars and Stripes, in their gayest holiday dress, were reviewed by Secretary of the Navy Meyer today, while hundreds of thousands, ashore and afloat, saw the spectacle. The aggregate tonnage of the assembled war vessels was over one-half million as compared with less than one-third of this total present at the navy review by President Roosevelt in Hampton Roads five years ago. The aggregation of the American dreadnoughts and smaller sisters taking part in today's spectacle represented approximately the huge outlay of $300,000,000.

Dressed from stem to stern in a riot of bunting, the gray lines of the warships, with a background formed by the Palisades, beautiful in the autumn foliage, made a magnificent spectacle as viewed from Riverside park and other points of vantage on the Manhattan side of the river.

On the broad bosom of the Hudson the vessels floated at anchor in three columns, each 8 miles long, stretching from a point about opposite Fifty-seventh street up the river to the mouth of Spuyten Duvel creek. Proceeding from the lower extremity of the columns, Secretary Meyer, standing on the bridge of the naval yacht Mayflower and surrounded by his aides and a number of invited guests, went northward through the lines formed by the battleships, cruisers, torpedo boats and destroyers, submarines and naval auxiliaries.

All the while the ships kept up a roar of salutes. The ship's sides were manned by bluejackets at attention, the quarterdecks were thronged with officers and marine guards, red-coated bands played the national airs, while "bo'suns" whistles piped out the order of the day.

In addition to the giant battleships the long lines of fighting-machines included the two big armored cruisers, Washington and North Carolina, the fast-flying scout cruiser Salem, the unprotected cruisers Des Moines and San Francisco, a fleet of gunboats, five flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers and torpedo boats, eight of the newest and finest submarines in the world, and a fleet of splendid naval auxiliaries.

OPENING OF COURT HOUSE

Visitors to The Fair Urged To Come.

The invitation is again extended to all the citizens of the town, and their visitors, to be present at the opening of the new court house, Thursday night, where several public spirited men will make talks, being led by Mayor Wooten, in behalf of the town of Greenville. Too much stress cannot be laid on the progress and improvement of your town. So come out and bring your slips of paper bearing suggestions for the benefit of all, that each may hear what is most needed to help in the already enthusiastic move for better sanitation and a prettier town.

Forty-Eight Years on Throne.

ATHENS, Oct. 31.—The forty-eighth anniversary of the accession of King George to the throne was celebrated throughout the country today. With the exception of the emperor of Austria-Hungary King George has reigned longer than any other living sovereign of Europe.

Clean The Streets Well.

We believe the city fathers will see to it that the paved streets get a good sweeping Thursday night in readiness for the parade of the schools on Friday, educational day at the fair.

FREE, FREE, FREE!

Who Will Be The Lucky Patron?

Beginning last night and continuing every night in the future the management of the Gaiety will present each and every person who attends the performance with a numbered coupon. This coupon entitles the holder to a chance on $2.50 in gold, to be given free to the person holding the lucky number.

The prize will be given away promptly at 9:00 Thursday night. Now as we have before stated these coupons will be given every night, and the more coupons you hold, the more likely you are to win the prize.

The Gaiety is now under the management of Mr. Armstrong, the popular singer who has been here for the past week. His motive is to please every patron and showing special attention to the ladies and children. Mr. Armstrong will take pleasure in singing any song presented to him, providing the song is sent in one day previous.

Thursday night a benefit performance will be given for the Baptist church, and several local people will participate in this cause. If you are a lover of good music, elocution and charity, then don't fail to attend the show Thursday night. The performance begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Tonight we present a very fine program of pictures and songs. "The Diving Girl" is a Biography, and you know what the means. "The Venom of the Poppy," an Edison feature. "The Sheriff's Punishment," a western drama, acted by Pathe's best actors. A new song will also be heard. Get the habit and visit the Gaiety, Greenville's cozy theatre.

GIRDLING PECAN TREES.

How to Destroy The Insects And Prevent Damage.

Mr. R. M. Hearne recently discovered that something was damaging his pecan trees. He wrote to a nurseryman regarding it, and has given The Reflector the reply to his letter for publication, so that any others who are finding similar trouble in their pecan trees may know how to remedy it. The reply says:
"We note what you say about girdling of your pecan trees, and beg to advise ahis is done by a small bug or beetle known as the pecan girdler. If you will examine the fallen twigs of this season near where girdling has been done, you will find the bug has deposited its eggs in the bark girdled the limb just below the egg, causing the twig to decay and break off, falling to the ground. The egg hatches, goes in the ground and in the course of the time another bug appears to repeat the process. Keep all twigs raked up and burned as soon as they fall, or before they fall, as soon as leaves begin to die to show where the work has been done. Catch and destroy all bugs possible.

BIG FREE VOTE OFFER

Many Used Special Offer of Last Week to Increase Their Vote Total—Thousands of Free Votes, This Week.

THESE FREE VOTES WILL BE GIVEN AWAY---BE SURE TO GET YOUR SHARE

Do You Believe

That there is any woman on this earth whose trouble makes the combined troubles of every other woman look small in comparison? There is such a woman right in New York City. She never smiles. She is absolutely without hope. The only ray of comfort left to her is in trying to believe that other women, when they read the story of her tragedy in the Magazine of next Sunday's New York World, may realize that perhaps their troubles, compared with hers, are not so great after all.

The price of the Daily Reflector and the Carolina Home and Farm and Eastern Reflector and the votes allowed in all, paid-in-advance subscriptions and arrearsages is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Duration and Price. 3 months - $0.75 (3,000 votes); 6 months - $1.50 (7,000 votes); 1 year - $3.00 (20,000 votes); 2 years - $6.00 (50,000 votes); 5 years - $15.00 (150,000 votes). Weekly rates also listed.

Be sure to ask all of your friends to see that they get their subscription vote coupons when paying their subscriptions at the office.

Yesterday and Saturday were indeed big days in the Daily Reflector big contest of energy. Never since the contest opened, has there been such voting and such good natured rivalry. Nearly everyone on the entire list has changed their position, and many surprising records are noted. There are a few new candidates and many of these have entered with a good substantial vote behind them.

The Special Vote Offer.

There have been many expressions of approval of the big special vote offer which went into effect yesterday, and which will be in effect all this week and next. This vote offer gives every one the same opportunity to lay aside a big reserve vote for use at the finish, when things get exciting. With every set of five six months new subscriptions to the Daily Reflector goes a ballot of 25,000 extra votes. These votes are given in addition to the votes which the subscriptions regularly count. These extra vote ballots may be reserved just the same as regular subscription votes and count just the same towards the regular prizes at the end of the contest.

During this offer a year's subscription will count the same as two six months subscriptions and a two year subscription with another six months subscription will complete a set of five, entitling the person who send these subscriptions in to 25,000 extra votes. Be sure to secure just as many of these free vote ballots as you can possibly do during these two weeks, for this big offer will not positively be repeated during this contest. You are entitled to just as many of these free ballots as you can secure. Turn in the subscriptions as fast as you can secure them, a careful count will be kept by the Contest Manager and as soon as you have completed a set the extra vote ballot will be issued and mailed or handed to you. Don't waste any of these two valuable weeks, but get right into the fray. You will not find it half as hard as you had imagined it would be.

Pin Your Votes Together.

All the ten vote coupons clipped from the paper must be neatly trimmed and pinned together in order to be counted. From today all coupons not pinned together will be thrown out. Be sure to write your name and district number on the top one, for this point is essential. Then, too, do not roll the coupons or fold them up, for they are very hard to count and very often it is hard to distinguish the names thereon.

100 Vote Coupons.

In one issue of the Daily Reflector of this week there will be a coupon good for 100 votes instead of the regular 10 vote coupon. In order to have this coupon it will be necessary to poll it on one certain day (country contestants will be given an extra day) the date of which will also be announced later.

This coupon will only appear the one day, so be sure to ask your friends to watch for it and save it for you.

Resolutions of Respect.

In as much as our all-wise Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from earth to heaven our much-beloved sister, Frances M. Jones, whom we respected so much;

Be It Resolved, by the W. C. T. U. of Bethel, N. C.,

- 1. That though we shall miss her companionship and wise council and feel very keenly our loss, we bow in humble submission to God's will. We wish to bear testimony to her zealous Christian work and as a temperance worker, the union loses one of its best members, the husband a devoted and faithful wife.
- 2. That we extend to her beloved ones our sincere sympathy, and commend them in love to the God whom she trusted.
- 3. That these resolutions be spread on our records and a copy be sent her bereaved husband, and be published in the county paper and the White Ribbon.

FAIR OPENS AT SHREVEPORT.

Most Successful Exposition Ever Held In That Section.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 31.—The Louisiana State Fair opened this morning with bright prospects of the most successful exposition ever held here. Premiums valued at $15,000 have been offered and as a result the choicest products of the field, orchard, stock farm and poultry yard are on display. This year the management has added many free attractions, including band concerts, fireworks displays, aeroplane flights and horse races. The fair will continue until Saturday.

TO PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Invited to Attend the Hookworm Exhibit.

Are you going to visit the Pitt county fair this week? If so, we want to have a word with you. Where? At the state and county hookworm exhibit. Here you will see the hookworm, their eggs, and pictures of men, women and children who have been their victims; also charts which show how this disease is gotten and spread from one person to another. Literature on this and other diseases will be free to all.

This exhibit will be in charge of Dr. Jno. A. Ferrall, director of the state hookworm campaign, who will take pleasure in explaining this disease to you, or answering any questions pertaining to hygiene or sanitation.

If you should be so unfortunate as to miss this fair do not miss attending the dispensary at one of the following points:

- Bethel, Tuesday, October 31; November 7, 14, 21.
- Farmville, Wednesday, November 1, 8, 15, 22.
- Grimesland Thursday, November 2, 9, 16, 23.
- Grifton, Friday, November 3, 10, 17, 24.
- Greenville, Saturday, November 4, 11, 18, 25.

These dispensaries will be open between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.

Dr. C. F. Stronsider, hookworm specialist, will be in charge of the dispensaries, assisted by a trained microscopist.

CARD FROM MR. HATEM.

Correcting Article in Saturday's Reflector.

Williamston, N. C., Oct. 30, 1911.
Editor Reflector:

My attention was called to the issue of The Daily Reflector of October 28th, and to the article headed Mr. Joseph Shehdan, that "he was the ruler or chief of the Syrian colony in North Carolina, and that he had the oversight of them all, directing them in their business, etc." I beg to say that in that article every Syrian in North Carolina was mistreated and dishonored as the Syrians are like the Americans in every way independent in their business, independent in their belief, and do their business as their minds direct.

The Syrians have no rulers and no chiefs, except in their government.

In attending his funeral the Syrians paid their respect to "death" and they gathered as he is in a foreign country and as Americans do in Syria.

As a relative of the late Mr. Shehdan, I wish this corrected in your first issue.

Thanking you in advance, I am,
Very truly yours,
A. K. HATEM.

(The article in Saturday's paper was based on general rumor prevalent at the time, and had no intention of reflecting on the Syrians. While the paper has already in a subsequent issue corrected the statement, we take pleasure in publishing Mr. Hatem's card.—Ed.)

Women Golfers Choose Officers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The annual meeting of the Woman's Western Golf Association was held here today and resulted in the election of the following officers: President, Mrs. Harvey L. Pound, Skokie Country club; first vice president, Miss C. S. Rockwood, Elmhurst Golf club; second vice president, Mrs. H. R. Varney, Detroit Golf club; recording secretary, Mrs. C. E. Raymond, Hinsdale Golf club; corresponding secretary Miss Margaret Knapp, Glen View club; treasurer, Mrs. F. S. Colburn, Evansston Golf club.

The board of directors chosen to serve for the ensuing year includes representatives of clubs in Tacoma, Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Memphis, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, Chicago, Omaha and Oakland, Cal.

Weds Army Lieutenant.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 31.—Immanuel Church, in the suburb of Webster Groves, was the scene of an interesting military wedding today when Miss Kathryn Kauffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kauffman, became the bride of Lieut. Reuben Taylor, of the tenth infantry, now stationed at Jefferson barracks.

Court Next Week.

The first term of Superior court in the new court house will convene next Monday. Judge Harry W. Wheeler will preside at this term.

THE CHANGES IN CAROLINA CLUB

STARTS NEW ERA FOR PROGRESS

Now a Business Men's Organization to Promote the Welfare of Town.

Carolina club is falling in line for business sure enough. There was a large attendance Monday night to hear the report of the committee appointed a week ago to suggest plans and make recommendations for the future work of the club under its added business feature. The committee recommended several changes in the constitution, by-laws and rules, which were adopted by the club. One of these changes setting forth the purpose of the club, which should appeal to every business man of the town, is its purposes, which are as follows:

"The purposes of this organization are to further social intercourse among its members; to advance friendly relations of the various business and professional interests of the community, and to cultivate that spirit of co-operation which makes for social, business and civic improvement."

The time for the annual meeting of the club was changed from the first Thursday night in August to the first Monday night in December, and monthly meetings are to be held the first Monday night in each month.

While the membership fee and monthly dues remain the same as heretofore, in order to largely increase the membership before the annual meeting in December the admission fee was reduced one-half for thirty days, and each member was appointed a committee one to undertake to secure two other new members each within that period. Those who have been members of the club heretofore, and withdrew while in good standing, may be reinstated by the payment of a small fee, or by paying their dues for the lapsed time if less than the prescribed fee.

All resident ministers in the town are eligible to honorary membership with all the privileges of the club.

At each monthly meeting there is to be a program, prepared in advance by the committee of arrangements, for the discussion of some topic looking to the general interest and welfare of the community.

Under the new plan of the club, and the purposes it now has in view of being an organization for promoting the business interests of the town, it ought to have the co-operation and influence of every business man in the town. The changes in the club have already awakened much interest.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1911.

CAROLINA CLUB.

The Reflector has all along been a friend and advocate of Carolina club, and has time and again urged the business men of the town to maintain it. This was because it was seen that the club in its past career had done much for the town, and the opportunity was afforded for doing much more. And now that the club has changed its plans, so that it becomes a business, as well as social, organization, we feel that there is a greater field of usefulness before it than ever, and that it is going to be a greater factor in the advancement of the town. There is power in organization, and with the business men united for the good of the town, as is now proposed by and through this club there is no telling what can be accomplished. Every business man in the town who is not already a member, should become one at the first opportunity. He owes it to himself and also to the town to be identified with whatever is for the social, business and civic improvement of the community.

Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, owner of the New York World and of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, died Sunday while aboard his yacht in Charleston harbor. While he had for some time been in poor health, his death came as a surprise. He was 64 years of age, and one of the most prominent journalists in the country. He purchased the New York World in 1883 and made it the leading newspaper of America.

The twelfth series in the Home Building and Loan association will be opened next Saturday. This institution is a great factor in the upbuilding of Greenville and is entitled to the confidence and support of the people of the town. Aside from the help it gives people to own their home, it is a good and safe investment for all who take shares in it.

It pains his friends throughout the state to know that the condition of Mr. J. P. Caldwell, former editor of the Charlotte Observer, has grown so much worse that it is now regarded as critical. For several years he has been partially paralyzed.

What to do with the market house is giving Raleigh no little trouble.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles. Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did." Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times. Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

Here Is Where The Draft Enters

The most perfect draft ever discovered is the patent Hot Blast Down Draft of the Wilson Heater. The only draft that secures perfect combustion and prevents waste. This draft is found only in the

Wilson HOT BLAST Heater

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel. In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is so tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 24 hours. We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters for either wood or coal.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick Ups and Hand-me-Downs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moyer and Mesdames J. A. Lang, H. B. Harriss and D. W. Arnold went to Ayden Monday evening to attend the Christian convention.

Mrs. R. C. Lassiter, of Rocky Mount, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tunstall.

Mr. W. E. Hooker went to Tarboro today.

Mr. H. B. Harris went to Rocky Mount today.

Mr. A. Savage and son, Frank, went to Richmond today.

Mr. J. W. Austin, of Waxhaw, is visiting Mr. O. F. Clark.

Mr. Carlos Harriss has returned home from Washington, where he has been doing some painting.

Dr. I. M. Hardy, of Washington, was here today, having come to attend the Nobles-Hardy marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rouse, of Kingston, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Evans.

Round Dozen Club of Bethel.

BETHEL, N. C., Oct. 30.—The "Round Dozen club" held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, October 24th, with Mrs. H. V. Stator. Upon the arrival of the guests they were ushered into the cloak room, from thence to the reception hall, where delicious fruit punch was served by Miss Lill Bunting.

In the drawing room a very interesting program was rendered in which original papers were read causing much merriment. After this, they were invited to the dining room, where a dainty repast was served, consisting of salad, sandwiches, pickles, olives, etc., followed by Montauk cream.

At the usual hour the guests departed, declaring Mrs. Stator a most charming hostess.

Nobles-Hardy.

At the residence of Mrs. Nannie Bagwell, on Fifth street, at 4:15 o'clock, Dr. Joseph E. Nobles and Miss Argen Hardy were married by Rev. J. H. Shore. The marriage was very quiet, only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple being present.

Dr. Nobles is a prominent physician here, and his bride is a skilled trained nurse. Both are very popular and have a large number of friends.

They left on the 4:56 Norfolk Southern for a bridal tour of the South.

Opportunity Time Has Arrived in

The Daily Reflector

Voting Contest 25,000 Extra Votes

On Every Set of Five Six Months New Subscriptions to The Daily

HERE'S THE PLAN:

Between Monday, October 30th and Saturday, November 11, thousands of free votes will be given away absolutely free to the candidates in The Daily Reflector Big Voting Contest. Everyone who turns in a set of FIVE SIX MONTHS SUBSCRIPTIONS between these two dates will be given an extra ballot good for 25,000 EXTRA VOTES. During this offer a yearly subscription will count the same as two six months subscriptions, or a two-year subscription will count the same as four six-months subscriptions and so on. Three and four months subscriptions do not count on this offer and votes will not be issued on them.

Candidates can secure just as many sets as possible. These extra votes will be good at any time during the contest and can be reserved just the same as any subscription ballot. Turn your subscriptions in just as fast as you can secure them and a careful count will be kept at this office, and as soon as a set has been received the extra vote ballot will be issued. This applies to subscriptions turned in by subscribers for candidates, just the same. Secure just as many sets as possible, for this big offer will not be repeated during the contest.

Turn in Subscriptions as Fast as You Secure Them

Standing of Contestants in Daily Reflector's Big Contest of Energy

Until further notice no contestant will be permitted to poll more subscription votes on any one day than will place her 10,000 ahead of the leader of the day before; for example, if the leader today has 25,000 votes to her credit, no contestant may poll more votes for the list tomorrow than will make her total 35,000.

"That Good Old Coffee of Long Ago"

If It Wasn't Good Coffee It Wouldn't Have Lived So Long
Only a coffee of marvelous quality could hold the place of undisputed leader for nearly two hundred years. Yet French Market Coffee is increasing daily in popularity. And it is the same delicious French blend that so delighted Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay and the beauties and gallants who thronged the old French Market in New Orleans centuries ago. Then you could get only at the French Market in New Orleans. But NOW you all may serve it daily, at your own table. For the old French Market blend is perpetuated by The Same Unique Hygienic Roasting Process and we NOW deliver French Market Coffee everywhere in hermetically-sealed tins. It comes to you fresh from the mill with all its enticing aroma and delicious flavor. "There is only one real old French Market flavor"—only one coffee with a history.

French Market Coffee
