RESOLUTIONS OF APPROVAL, THANKS

In Reference to Pitt County's New Court House and Jail

ADOPTED IN A PUBLIC MEETING

Several Speeches Made by Prominent Citizens and Visitors Commending The Work of the County Commissioners and Building Committee, And Congratulating the County.

Upon the reassembling of court after the midday recess Monday, Mayor F. M. Wooten addressed the court calling attention to the handsome new court house and jail the county now possesses, referring to the splendid work of the board of county commissioners and the building committee co-operating with them in securing these two creditable buildings, and suggested that for a short while it would be fitting for the regular business of the court to give way to a meeting in which any one desiring to do so might express approval or disapproval of the efforts of the county commissioners and the building committee.

The suggestion readily met the sanction of the court, and the meeting was opened by the election of Judge Whedbee as chairman.

A number of speeches were then made, all of them highly commending the splendid work of the county commissioners and building committee and congratulating the people of Pitt county upon having those handsome public buildings that are such a credit to the county. The speakers were Messrs. F. C. Harding, Harry Skinner, A. L. Blow, D. M. Clark, Albion Dunn, J. B. James, Donnell Gilliam, S. J. Everett, F. G. James, W. F. Evans, of Greenville; H. S. Ward, of Washington; D. E. Henderson, of New Bern, and C. L. Abernethy, of Beaufort.

After these splendid speeches of tribute Mayor Wooten offered the following resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote of the large audience, and it was ordered by Judge Whedbee that a page in the minute book of the court be set apart for recording the same:

Whereas, in the early part of the year 1910, fire destroyed the Pitt county court house and jail, making the building of others necessary and convenient for the transaction of the business of the county;

And, whereas, J. P. Quinerly, D. J. Holland, W. E. Proctor, John J. May and B. M. Lewis, composing the board of commissioners for Pitt county, and for the purpose of building a county court house and jail for the people of Pitt county, called to their assistance John L. Wooten, D. C. Moore and Joseph G. Moye, which gentlemen, together, proceeded to plan and build this dignified and magnificent county court house in which we today are gathered, and the county jail;

And, whereas, we, the people of Pitt county, do feel that it is meet and proper, and our duty to b. P. Quinerly, D. J. Holland, W. E. Proctor, J. J. May and B. M. Lewis, county commissioners, and to John L. Wooten, D. C. Moore and Joseph G. Moye, the building committee assisting said commissioners, and Col. F. G. James, their legal advisor in having the said buildings erected, that we may express our approval of all their official acts in planning, erecting and equipping these elegant buildings, which are in a sense an abiding monument to the thrift, prosperity and progressiveness to the citizens of Pitt county.

And further, we express to the above mentioned gentlemen our appreciation and grateful thanks for these buildings, and for the conservatively wise and economical manner of planning, erecting and equipping them for the use and pride of Pitt county and her future citizens for generations.

Went to a "Ragged" Sale.

We know a little 3-year-old boy who gets off some very bright things. Saturday he went out to drive with an aunt, and on his way back home passed where a rummage sale was in progress. Getting home he said with much enthusiasm, "Mamma, I've been to a ragged sale." When asked to explain what it was he said, "Oh, it's a place where they sell ragged dresses and ragged pants, and other ragged things."

DRAINAGE CONVENTION.

To be Held in Elizabeth City, November 15-16.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6, 1911.
Editor Reflector:
Attention should be called to the meeting of the North Carolina Drainage association, which convenes in Elizabeth City, on November 15th and 16th. This is the fourth annual convention. A fine start has been made in the drainage of our new wet lands, but as yet we are simply at the threshold. Our most fertile and productive lands are wet lands and require drainage. Every intelligent student of the soil and plant life realizes that drainage lies at the basis of successful crop production. Without drainage good crops cannot be produced, no matter if all the necessary methods and conditions have been applied. This association has a fine record. Through its efforts the present modern drainage law was drafted and passed by the legislature, and it has largely contributed to the creation of the present intelligent public sentiment upon the subject. Every eastern county particularly should be represented. Every intelligent citizen who has enlisted in the public service and is desirous of promoting the prosperity of Eastern North Carolina, should become a member of this association. No one can attend without being instructed and benefited.

Very respectfully,
JNO. H. SMALL.

NEW DRUG FIRM.

Coward-Wooten Drug Company, Incorporated.

The secretary of state has issued a charter incorporating the Coward-Wooten Drug Company in Greenville who take over the drug store and business that was operated by the late Mr. R. C. White. The incorporators are Charles O'H. Horne, Mrs. Clara P. White and E. M. Wooten. The name Coward-Wooten Drug Co. was selected for the new firm because it was Coward & Wooten before the business was purchased by Mr. White and is better known by that name.

The management of the business will be in the hands of Mr. Horne, who is a registered pharmacist and one of our best young men. He will be assisted in the store by Mr. T. C. Hyman, formerly of Tarboro.

MEETING IN BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. C. M. Rock Preaches Excellent Sermon Monday Night.

Owing to the bad weather the congregation was not large at the service in the Baptist church, Monday night, but those present enjoyed a most excellent sermon by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Rock. It was the second sermon of the series on "The Needs and Means of Spiritual Healing," the subject of this sermon being "Is Jesus Able to Save?" In strongest and clearest terms he presented the ability of Christ to save all who will come to Him.

The subject for tonight's service, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, is "Is Jesus Willing to Save?" All are cordially invited to this and the other services that are to follow.

Evangelist H. R. Holcomb and the two singers, Prof. and Mrs. Blankenship, of the Home Mission Board, will arrive Thursday to continue the series of meetings for at least ten days from that time.

Big Sales and Big Prices at the Gum.

Yesterday we sold at the Gum warehouse nearly 50,000 pounds of tobacco at record pleasing high prices. We are making high sales every day for our customers, and naturally, by conducting business on a high plane and giving the highest market price, we are making friends with our sales. We say what we mean, and do what we say when we tell you that if you will bring your next load of tobacco to the Gum, you will be convinced that no better sales are made, than the Gum will give you. We invite you to patronize us. You can never know what we can do for you until you give us a trial.

J. J. GENTRY, Manager.
Gum Warehouse.

Lad to be Tried for Murder.

HILLSBORO, N. D., Nov. 7.—The case of McClain Cooper, the Trail county youth, who last summer shot Frank Ross with fatal results, was called today for trial. Ross was foreman of the farm owned by Cooper's father. The shooting resulted from a quarrel over who should direct affairs of the elder Cooper.

To Get Things Coming Your Way You Must Go After Them

How Long Will Your Friends Keep Voting For You if You Dont Boost Your Own Campaign?

THOSE WHO HOPE TO WIN ARE OUT SCOURING THE COUNTRY FOR VOTES AND GETTING THEM

FREE VOTE OFFER PROVES A BIG HELP TO HUSTLERS—MANY ARE OUT TRYING TO SECURE THEIR FIRST AND SECOND EXTRA BALLOTS.

It is a little more than three weeks ago that an admiring friend presented your name to the newspaper reading public of Greenville and Pitt county as a candidate in the Daily Reflector big contest of energy. Those friends believed that you possessed the energy required with which to win one of the seven valuable prizes offered and they immediately began to support you in the campaign and fully expected you to put your best efforts into the campaign yourself. Have you done so? If you have not as yet, there is still ample time in which to retrieve your last opportunity and prove to your friends that you are the sort of person they believed you to be, that you would win out over all difficulties.

The Free Votes.

You have still a week in which to regain the lost time. An offer that will, if you only try, put you up in the lead and help you to create a reserve force that will go a long way toward winning when the final count is made.

To make sure that every one understands this offer thoroughly we will outline it again for you.

On each set or club of five six months new subscriptions to The Daily Reflector turned in before nine o'clock Saturday night you will receive in addition to the regular number of votes allowed as per schedule, an extra vote ballot good for 25,000 votes. Remember now, this ballot is in addition to the regular number of votes that are allowed in these subscriptions.

On this offer a subscription for a year will count the same as two six months subscriptions. That is two subscriptions for one year and a six months subscription will complete a set and will entitle you to the extra vote ballot. Then, too, a two year

TWENTY-TWO NEW MEMBERS.

Club Launches Out On a Campaign For Greenville's Progress.

The weather was so bad that there was not a large attendance of members at the meeting of Carolina club, Monday night, but those present filled the meeting full of enthusiasm.

That some work has been going on was shown when applications for membership were called for, twenty active and two honorary members being elected at this meeting. The honorary members were Revs. C. M. Rock and J. H. Short.

The question of deeper waterways and sending delegates to the coming inland waterways convention in Washington City was announced for discussion at the regular monthly meeting the first Monday night in December.

A committee was appointed to correspond with a view of having prospectors from the West, who are to have an excursion to Eastern North Carolina in December, visit Greenville on their trip.

The club voted unanimously to co-operate with the Civic League in the effort to make a better and more beautiful Greenville.

Thus it will be seen that Carolina club has started out on a campaign to do, things, and it wants all men of the town to enlist in the work. The canvass for new members under the half rate admission fee for thirty days will be pushed, and a special meeting of the club to act on applications will be held on Tuesday night, 21st.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

An Interesting Occasion At The Training School.

The initiation of the new members into the Edgar Allen Poe and Sidney Lanier Literary Societies on Saturday evening was an event of great interest to the Training school students.

At eight o'clock the societies met separately in business session.

At nine o'clock they met together for a Halloween party as the social feature of the initiation.

The old members, masked in costumes, marched from the first floor to the third, announced by two clowns dressed in society colors. Two witch ushers then led a procession of witches, bats, cats, ghosts, the three fates, a sibyl, Bo Peeps, pumpkin girls, a lettuce girl, Mother Goose, Uncle Sam and John Bull and a red and a black devil. After marching around the large hall these fell into groups. The president of each society, dressed as yellow and black witches, led their new members in a joyous march in and out among these groups, amidst the moaning ghosts, crying cats, shrieking of witches, flapping of bats and capering of clowns andimps.

Each old member took charge of a new member to lead her the round of the fortune-telling booths and to see that she did not hear a dull moment. The sibyl in a corner read from her big book the interpretation of the symbols on leaves plucked from an over hanging bough. The three silent fates, one holding the distaff, one measuring the thread and the third cutting it, gave interesting fates to inquiring mortals. Two pumpkin girls twirled the wheel of fortune. The old witch in the room swept down cob-web fortunes. A merry crowd gathered around the witch pinned to the wall and, blind folded, tried to stick her broom in her hand.

At the door of a corridor a witch demanded the pass word, thus:

"Ere you the witch's broth may drink Stop a moment, pause and think; Say in solemn syllables slow, Words which every guest must know"

Each one then had to give the password:

"Witches, which is the witch which hath the switch with which to twich the witch that girth the riches from the pot of the witches."

At the end of a spooky corridor bordered by pine boughs and lighted by Jack-o-Lanterns, witches served punch from a caldron. Souvenir bats were given to each Lanier member and cats to each Poe.

The evening closed with a merry march around the halls.

NEGRO WILD WITH GUN.

Shoots at a Man, Kills a Dog and Wounds Another Man.

Saturday night a negro named Abe Little, living on the Nobles farm about six miles from town, seemed to get mad with any and everybody in sight, and arming himself with a double-barrel shot gun went out on a rampage. He emptied one barrel of the gun at his father, but the shot missed the mark and killed his own dog. He then fired the other barrel at Charles Boyd, putting a load of shot in the latter's thigh, some of the stray shot also cutting through the coat tail of another colored man standing near.

Sheriff Dudley went out Sunday night and captured Abe and brought him to jail.

Gaiety Theatre.

Those who are not visiting the Gaiety now are certainly missing some excellent pictures.

The managers have made every effort to please their patrons here and according to the class of pictures they are exhibiting they should be well patronized.

Owing to the fact that Mr. Armstrong was called away suddenly, he did not arrive in time to sing last night, but will be here tonight and fill his position.

The Gaiety program that appears elsewhere has all indications of being an excellent one. If you wish an evening of entertainment you will find it at the Gaiety.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

In accordance with the proclamation issued by our National Councilor, Jno. J. Weitzel, and in respect and obedience to the customs of our order, let us assemble at church or other place of worship on Sunday, November 26, 1911, and render thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed to us during the past year.

We have had no calamities and are peacefully enjoying the golden fruition of our efforts in upbuilding and strengthening our great order in the past. We are in a prosperous condition on account of the rich harvest of our soil. Let us therefore assemble upon this day, and I earnestly enjoin all Councils to meet and attend services in a body, prompted by a spirit of fervent thankfulness for the spreading and growth of the principles we promulgate.

Education is rapidly advancing, morality is increasing, and a feeling of patriotism permeates the membership of our order throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina, as well as the United States of America.

Let us invoke the aid of our Heavenly Father, that within the borders of the State of North Carolina the day is not far distant when we can have an orphanage of our own, where we can shelter, clothe, feed, educate and protect the orphan children of our deceased members in this state.

Now, therefore, I, U. M. Gillikin, State Councilor Junior Order United American Mechanics, do hereby appoint and set apart Sunday, November 26, 1911, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Him to whom we are indebted for all the successes, pleasures and happiness of this life.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the third day of November, 1911.

U. M. GILLIKIN.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1911.

The editorial page of the Charlotte Observer is the brightest gem in North Carolina journalism. In fact, it is not surpassed by any paper in the South.

All honor to the excellent board of commissioners of Pitt county. They are the men of the hour and entitled to our praise and commendation. Our handsome new court house will stand as a monument to them through coming generations.

It is time every business man and every interested citizen was catching the boosting spirit for Greenville. Carolina club offers the opportunity for every one who desires to push the town forward to come in and do something in that direction.

No, The Reflector is not in the least overdoing it in talking about Pitt county's good things. The things are here to talk about all right, and if the balance of the world does not find out that Pitt is the best county on the map, it shall not be our fault.

Every man in Pitt county of every avocation should give heed to the call of the Farmers Union of the county for a mass meeting in Greenville next Saturday to consider the cotton problem. This is the age of doing things, so let's join hands with the farmers and give them our co-operation. What concerns the farmer concerns us all. Come to the meeting next Saturday.

Take hold of the suggestion of Judge Harry Whedbee, and let's have a decent county home and such good public roads as will make Pitt county even more proud of herself. These things ought to be in keeping with our new court house and our splendid educational advantages. All to work, and put grand old Pitt county in the front rank for everything. We can do it if we just say we will.

Good people, The Reflector, in the last few days especially, has been recording some Pitt county history that is worth while and good enough to be preserved and handed down to future generations. The articles in reference to the Pitt county fair, to the opening of the new court house and the first term of court therein, the public meeting of the Civic League, and the spirit of progress taken by Carolina club, will make good reading for the generation fifty or a hundred years from now and show them what their forefathers did in making a greater Greenville and a grander Pitt county. These things mark an epoch in our history and we must take from them the impetus to go forward as never before.

In working for Greenville and Pitt county, The Reflector asks the encouragement and support of every citizen. This paper has labored among you for thirty years, always putting forth all the effort its ability would permit for the advancement of Greenville and Pitt county. With the editor it has been a labor of love, for no spot on earth is so dear to his heart. He has given the best years of his life to this work, his greatest ambition being to serve others and serve well, and he proposes to continue this effort to the end. Now, honestly, don't you think one good paper well supported can accomplish more for your town and county than several that can only eke out a hand-to-mouth existence? This is not mentioned in any spirit of selfishness or complaint, but only to call attention to what is for the best interest of the public. We have tried to equip our plant for good service, and only ask for such support as is merited. Do you think we are entitled to yours?

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Greenville Citizen Can Afford To Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the danger of dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands. Here's proof: James Long, Dickinson avenue, Greenville, N. C., says, "I am certain that Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit and I do not hesitate to recommend them. When I was suffering from backache, pains in my kidneys and other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble, I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. It did not take them long to bring me relief."

Two Entertainments In Honor of Bride-Elect.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week the Embroidery club gave a progressive Hallowe'en luncheon in honor of one of the members, Miss Alice Blow, who on Wednesday of this week is to become the bride of Mr. Lloyd Nash Whitted, of Elizabethtown. A novel feature of this luncheon was that it progressed to different houses of the members, the change from one to the other being made in automobiles and carriages. All of the homes were decorated appropriate to the Hallowe'en season.

The first course, oyster cocktail, was served by Misses Vernessa and Mary Smith at their home.

The second course, consommé, was served by Mesdames W. L. Best and S. T. White at the home of Mrs. Best.

The third, a salad course, was served by Misses Lizzinia and Ward Moore at their home.

The fourth, a meat course, was served by Misses Mattie Moyer King and Lillian Carr at the home of Miss King.

The fifth course, cream, was served by Mesdames W. E. Hooker and N. W. Outlaw, at the home of Mrs. Outlaw.

The sixth course, coffee and cheese, was served by Miss Hennie Ragsdale at her home. Here the bride-elect was presented a silver bread tray by the club.

On Monday afternoon of this week Miss Mattie Moyer King entertained at a card party in honor of Miss Blow, the bride-elect.

The hostess and guest of honor received at the door and they were ushered by Misses Lizzinia Moore and Elizabeth Higgs to the rear hall, where tea was served by Misses Susie Warren, Florence Blow and Lillian Carr.

Tally cards were distributed by Misses Nancy and Virginia King and at the conclusion of the game of hearts Mesdames J. B. James, W. E. Hooker and N. W. Outlaw cut for the prize, a dinner gong, which was won by Mrs. Outlaw.

A bouquet of white and yellow chrysanthemums was presented to the bride-elect.

The decorations were white and yellow, this color scheme also being carried out in the refreshments, the cakes being decorated in tiny brides gowned in yellow.

TIPPECANOE CENTENNIAL.

Celebrated With Pageant and Historic Exercises on the Battlefield.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 7.—On the banks of the Wabash river, about 7 miles up the stream from the site of the present city of LaFayette, there was fought one hundred years ago today the celebrated battle of Tippecanoe, which furnished one of the most thrilling chapters in American history. In the historic conflict Gen. William Henry Harrison and his little frontier army administered a crushing defeat to the hostile Indians led by their able and celebrated chief, Tecumseh. The consequence of the victory was put to a virtual end to the Indian wars in this section.

Today the centennial was celebrated with a pageant and historic exercises held on the battlefield, which is a state reservation and where an imposing monument commemorating the battle was erected several years ago. Official representatives of Indiana and the neighboring state, also the Daughters of the American Revolution and other patriotic societies, took part in the celebration.

THE PITT COUNTY FAIR.

What Congressman Small Thinks Of It.

Congressman John H. Small, who spent one day here at the recent Pitt county fair, paid the following tribute to it in his home paper, the Washington News:

I had the opportunity of spending last Thursday in Greenville in attendance on the Pitt county fair. The exhibits were fine as to quality and variety. The products of the farm, the poultry and the handwork of the good women of the county were especially interesting. The articles of household and domestic use, such as canned and preserved fruits and vegetables, were really a valuable object lesson. The fair continued for two days during Thursday and Friday. A large crowd was in attendance and not the least interesting and profitable feature of the occasion was the mingling and social intercourse among those in attendance. Men of all ages, wives, daughters and boys, made it a day of profitable social intercourse. The pride of the exhibitors and their products, and the admiration of their neighbors aroused in the minds of many an inspiration to do likewise.

The hair is generally the index of age. If you hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. The French Market Coffee
Drinkers Could Not Be Fooled

Only the wonderful mountain-side coffee from Jamaica, blended with choicest berries from Guatemala, Venezuela and the Pan-American countries, would satisfy them. Here Is Where The Draft Enters

The most perfect draft ever discovered is the patent Hot Blast Down Draft of the Wilson Heater. The only draft that secures perfect combustion and prevents waste.

This draft is found only in the

Wilson NOT BLAST Heater

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel.

In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 24 hours. We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters for either wood or coal.
