Just Playing at the Trust Investigations

TOBACCO TRUST STILL A TRUST

The People Are Opening Their Eyes to the True Situation of Things—Republicans Attempting to Side-Track the Tariff and Play Shell Games.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Why is the Wickersham suit against the steel trust one in equity instead of a criminal prosecution?
The Sherman anti-trust law carries a provision by which guilty trust magnates may be sent to jail. If it is possible to dissolve the steel trust under the Sherman law—and President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham boast that it is easy to dissolve every illegal combine in the land under this statute—why are not the men who organized and direct these illegal monopolies equally liable to successful prosecution?

With the fact admitted that it was in J. P. Morgan's library that the steel trust conspiracy was developed, that it was he who sent Gary and Frick to "see" President Roosevelt about the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company merger, and that Morgan received $29,000,000 in clear profit for his part in the organization work, it would appear to the lay mind that Morgan is just as liable to prosecution for having organized an illegal monopoly as said monopoly is liable to dissolution for being in existence in violation of the law.

"Guilt Is Personal."
The American public is about convinced that trust magnates care little or nothing about "suits" as long as they are directed against corporations and not individuals, and especially if the government "trust buster" is to be a former trust attorney and a member of a political party whose campaign funds were supplied by the very trust he proposes to dissolve.

Rebating by railroads could not be stopped until the offense was made a penitentiary one. When that was done, rebating stopped.

A remote possibility of having to "dissolve" under a plan which they themselves can stipulate, (see Supreme court's acceptance of the tobacco trust's reorganization plans), or the threat of a fine against the trust instead of individuals, has time and again proven an insufficient deterrent to trust magnates who can see an opportunity to make millions of dollars annually by disregarding the law.

There is one thing that trust magnates are afraid of, and apparently one thing only, that is the penitentiary.

When an attorney general can be found who will enforce the only feature of the Sherman law that will cause trust magnates to really obey the law, and not until then, will the public be justified in expecting relief from trust oppression and the consequent high prices.

What The People Pay.

The people of the United States pay a subsidy, in artificially high prices, to the wool industry, of at least $104,000,000 a year, according to the calculations of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives.
"The Payne-Aldrich tax of 61 cents per yard, to say nothing of any increase in tax as it passes to the jobber, makes not less than $104,000,000 paid each year to subsidize the wool industry of America," says Mr. Underwood. "Now, the entire duties actually paid the United States on all imports of woolsens and worsteds in 1910, amounted to less than $15,000,000, which means that of the $104,000,000 extorted from the consumers of woolsens nearly $90,000,000 went to the wool interests.

"Is it fair or just or right to maintain these enormous taxes unduly to foster the business of less than one-fourth of one per cent of the people and to require ninety-nine and three-fourths per cent to stagger under this enormous burden? I for one do not believe the American people will justify the president in his veto of the wool schedule."

CONFERRING THE CARDINAL RED HAT

HIGH RANK AMONG CATHOLICS.

Three Americans are to be Created Cardinals.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 17.—In view of the fact that three prelates of the Roman Catholic church in America are to be created Cardinals at the special consistory to be held in Rome ten days hence, it may not be uninteresting to tell how a Cardinal is made and what his duties are.

In the first place, the College of Cardinals consists of seventy members, divided into three ranks—Cardinal Bishops, Cardinal Priests, and Cardinal Deacons. The latter holds no titles and may be laymen. Cardinal Antonelli was a layman and was created a Cardinal long before his ordination. Each of the Cardinal Bishops has charge of one of the suburban sees in Rome, while each of the Cardinal Priests holds a title or parish in Rome.

The Cardinals owe their appointment solely to the pope. The pontiff as a rule announces the names of those appointed at a secret consistory of the Cardinals. Usually at the consistory following the names are made public.

In the creation of the three new American Cardinals there appears to have been some slight departure in the customs of procedure, which is not surprising in view of the fact that the number of American prelates thus honored are without precedent. In the case of a new Cardinal living any distance from Rome, it has been customary to designate a member of the Pope's household, usually a Monsignore, as an Ablegate to convey to the new member of the Sacred College the zucchetto, or skull cap, the red beretta, and the documents authorizing the investiture of the new Prince of the Church with the beretta.

But as regards Cardinals Falconio, Farley and O'Connell, they have been summoned before the Pope in person, which is the procedure usually followed only in the case of the trust question the tobacco trust is the victor. That is the real meaning they give the approval by the United States Circuit court of New York of the tobacco trust's reorganization plan. The tobacco trust is to remain.

Competition is not restored. The stock ownership is not divided. The actual activities of manufacture and distribution are not even placed under different supervisions. The circuit court politely declines the responsibility of making an order which shall make the business of the tobacco trust fulfill the Supreme court's interpretation of the Sherman law. Discussing the possibility of ordering a receivership and the sale of the tobacco trust properties, the lower court says it could not prevent the present owners from bidding in the property if they were so inclined. In other words, the tobacco trust is not "busted." Indeed, it is scarcely scratched.

Another Shell Game.

It is declared in Washington political circles that the Republicans are going to try to sidetrack the "tariff and increased cost of living" issue in the next campaign, and make the party's "big appeal" for support on the currency question. Republican leaders in both branches of congress are at work on speeches the import of which will be that "the business interests will suffer as long as the currency system remains as it now is." The modified Aldrich plan on which the Republicans intend to go before the country provides for a $300,000,000 "National Reserve association," which practically amounts to a central government bank.

This reserve association will have power to issue emergency currency, and to practically dictate the banking policy of the country, and to control the credit of the business world—a vast power.

Democrats in congress have frequently pointed out the danger of allowing the money to become any more centered than it already is, and many students of finance contend that the proposed reserve association would be little more than a money trust, whose controlling factors would very likely be the same group of men who now dominate Wall street and the Republican party.

Fifty Percent Increase Last Chance to Make Subs. worth more than regular schedule Allows

ABSOLUTELY NO MORE CHANGES AFTER NOV. 25th.

Do Your Best Whilst Your Best Will Count You the Most—Your Best Time is Right Now.

KEEP THE VOTE SCHEDULE WELL BEFORE YOU AND ACT ACCORDING TO WHAT IT DICTATES TO YOU.

Yesterday was a busy day in the Contest Department of the Daily Reflector. Most of the contestants began sending in subscriptions and by the time of going to press the majority had a good number of subscriptions towards the extra prize and their respective totals in the race for the piano or the rest of the prizes. They all seem to realize that the remaining days of the contest are to be marked by heavy voting and a thorough canvass of each district. There are still nine days left before the 50 per cent increase offer, which according to the schedule published the first two days of this week, will be the best before the end of the contest. And right here, we want to say that all those that are taking advantage of this, the last and best offer before the close of the contest, will have every reason to compliment themselves for their long-sightedness. After November 25 the vote schedule will decrease and that means that in every subscription a contestant fails to turn in before that date she will lose a considerable number of votes. Votes which might be the deciding force of the contest.

Those That Are Taking Advantage.

a new Cardinal who resides near Rome. This action on the part of the pontiff has led to the suspicion that all of the ceremonies in connection with the elevation of the three American prelates will take place in Rome.

In each of the three previous instances of the creation of an American Cardinal the ceremony of conferring the scarlet hat has been performed in the United States. In the case of Cardinal McCloskey, who was the first American prelate to be admitted to membership in the Sacred College, the ceremony took place in the cathedral in New York city. Cardinal Gibbons, the second American Cardinal, was also delegated by the Pope to receive the insignia of his office in the United States and on the silver jubilee of his priesthood, in the historic old cathedral in Baltimore, Cardinal Gibbons was installed primate of the Catholic church in America by his venerable friend, Archbishop Kendrick of St. Louis. Cardinal Satolli, who was the Papal ablegate in the United States at the time of his elevation to the cardinalate, received the insignia of his high office in Washington.

The raising to the cardinalate as a matter of fact means the investiture of three hats—the skull cap, or zucchetto; the beretta, which is the same shape as the ordinary beretta and differs only in color from a priest's or bishop's, and the red hat. This last is simply held over the Cardinal's head by the Pope and is never worn. At a Cardinal's death it is laid upon his breast until interment, when it is suspended over the sanctuary of his cathedral. The red hat is figurative of the intellect which it surmounts, which is to be used in the service of the church and the color is symbolical of the death which is to be preferred to betrayal of the trust. It is a round, flat, uncomfortable headgear, with a low crown and wide, stiff brim, from the inside of which hang double triangles formed

Now, that the votes count more, will have the best chance to be "in at the finish." An increase of fifty per cent on the regular schedule simply means that contestants will receive for each subscription turned in before Saturday, November 25th, at 9 p. m., half again as many votes than if they were to turn in those same subscriptions after the 25th. If you are ultimately going to turn in those subscriptions, it is clear that now is the very best time to do it.

Two for The Energy for One.

When it is considered that as you are making your way towards the magnificent Gordon & Son piano, the Victor Victrola, or one of the beautiful gold Waltham watches, you are also making great strides towards the ownership of a lovely diamond ring of great value, you will certainly realize the worth of whatever work you can accomplish right now. A beautiful ring will be awarded on Monday, November 27th, to the contestant turning in the greater number of subscriptions from the 15th to the 25th, of November, as per announcement published on the 15th. This will be a most fitting Thanksgiving present from the Contest Department to the young lady in the Daily Reflector race, who, through her effort and energy proves herself worthy of such a jewel of fifteen tassels.

On ordinary occasions when not engaged in ecclesiastical ceremonies a Cardinal uses the zucchetto, or skull cap, a tiny rounded covering shaped to the surface of the head and lined with chamois skin.

The death of a Cardinal is an occasion of the most impressive requiem services. His body lies in state in the cathedral robed in his official garments, with the scarlet hat resting on his breast. In preparation for burial he is first laid in a cypress wood coffin, a little case at the end containing a record of the chief events of his life. This is deposited in a casing of lead covered with precious woods and the three are sealed with the Cardinal's arms in the presence of a notary. The body is finally entombed under the high altar of the cathedral and the church is draped in mourning.

RARE HONOR.

Sir William White Receives John Fritz Medal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Sir William White came to New York today to receive the John Fritz medal, which the united societies of American Engineers presents annually to the person, irrespective of nationality, who has during the year benefited humanity to the greatest extent through the application of science.

Sir William White is one of the most celebrated engineers and naval architects of the world. After completing his studies at the Royal School of Naval Architecture he joined the constructive department of the British admiralty in 1867. As director of naval construction, which office he held from 1885 to 1902, he practically reconstructed the British navy. With the exception of the late Lord Kelvin, Sir William is the only Briton who has received the John Fritz medal.

RED MEN AT GRIMESLAND, N. C.

HOLD THEIR DISTRICT MEETING.

The Various Officers Elected for The Ensuing Term.

The Red Men of the fourth district, comprising the numerous tribes of Pitt and Greene counties, held their semi-annual meeting with Shawnee Tribe No. 62, at Grimesland, Wednesday.

There were about one hundred Red Men present. Nearly all of the tribes being well represented. At 11 o'clock the council fire was kindled in the Masonic hall and after the invocation by Prophet W. R. Nobles, the address of welcome on behalf of Shawnee tribe was delivered by Mr. J. C. Galloway. His speech was a gem of thought and his manner and words were such that all the visitors felt that they were truly among brothers and that they were indeed welcome to Grimesland. He concluded by saying that the police had been discharged and that the town was ours to do as we pleased. The response to the address of welcome was ably and appropriately made by James L. Evans, of Withlacooche Tribe, Greenville.

After this Great Junior Sagamore R. C. Flanagan, of Greenville, being called upon, spoke for about thirty minutes. His subject being "The Good of the Order." His talk was eloquent and impressive and no doubt will result in much good to the Red Men's cause. He was followed by Rev. D. A. Windham, who spoke on "The Exemplification of the Degrees." His remarks were very good and timely and all his hearers were pleased.

At this meeting much business of importance was transacted. Although there were not so many present as at former meetings, yet this was one of the best sessions ever held. Every Red Man who failed to attend this meeting missed something.

The election of officers for the ensuing term resulted as follows:

Sachem—James L. Evans, Greenville.

Señior Sagamore—W. C. Cook, Stantonburg.

Junior Sagamore—W. C. Owens, Stantonburg.

Prophet—W. S. Elks, Grimesland.

Chief of Records—D. A. Windham, Greenville.

After the quenching of the council fire the brothers were invited down stairs where barbecue was royally and plentifully served.

The visitors were certainly entertained in a most cordial and fraternal manner. Everything was done for their comfort and all left with a feeling that this was one of the best meetings ever held, and that the people of Grimesland are most hospitable and entertaining.

Perfection Blue Flame Oil Stove.

Greenville, N. C., Nov. 13, 1911.

Mr. H. A. White, Agent, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

I am proud of the fact that the biscuits exhibited by me at the Pitt county fair held in Greenville, N. C., on November 2 and 3, were awarded first prize, and I want you to know that they were cooked on one of the "Perfection Blue Flame Oil stoves," sold by the Standard Oil Co. I feel that my efforts to win this prize were rewarded largely on account of the perfect satisfaction that this stove gives.

I have roasted meats, baked cake, pies, biscuits and bread, and it does excellent for all of these. It is also fine for boiling purposes. In fact, it is a boon to every busy housewife. The cooking can be done much quicker and the fuel is cheaper than with the ordinary wood stove besides the excellency of the food cooked on the "Perfection Blue Flame Oil stove."

We have been using one in our home for some time and would not be without it for anything.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS DISTRICT MEETING

Held With Tar River Lodge No. 93 at Greenville

THE DISTRICT LODGES REPRESENTED

Grand Chancellor McLane Presiding—Banquet Follows Meeting with Local Lodge as Host—Mr. R. C. Flanagan, Toastmaster, Dr. D. L. James Welcomes Visitors.

In many things does Greenville excel, but in nothing more than in any entertainment of a public nature. To visitors her doors are wide open, and when they come on any occasion they are made truly to feel that this is "Our Greenville, Yours if You Come." And there is no fraternal order among us that takes higher rank as entertainers, than the Knights of Pythias. When announcement is made that an entertainment will be held under the auspices of this order, people begin to expect something, and their expectations are always realized.

The district meeting of the Knights of Pythias for the second district was held with Tar River Lodge No. 93 on the 16th. The business session was called to order in the Pythian hall at 8 o'clock p. m., the roll call showing representatives from the lodges at Elizabeth City, New Bern, Kinston, Plymouth, Washington, Ayden, Farmville and Greenville.

Grand Chancellor C. C. McLane, of Greensboro, was in attendance and presided at the district meeting. The reports of the several lodges in the district showed that they had made splendid progress since the last meeting.

At the conclusion of the routine business, the degree team of Kinston lodge gave the third degree in amplified form to four candidates of Greenville lodge. The work of this team was so beautiful as to make a deep impression on all present.

At 10:30 o'clock the district meeting closed, and all repaired with invited guests to the rooms of Carolina club where Tar River lodge was host at an elaborate banquet elegantly prepared and served under the direction of the ladies of the Episcopal church. After the 150 participants were seated at the beautifully arranged and decorated tables, Mr. D. M. Clark, chairman of the committee on arrangements, in fitting words introduced Mr. R. C. Flanagan as toastmaster, the latter gracefully accepting the honor and filling the position with marked credit.

It being appropriate to ask Divine blessing upon all that we do, the toastmaster first called on Mr. H. D. Bateman to offer the invocation. He then introduced Dr. D. L. James, who delivered the address of welcome in that eloquent style and spirit for which he is noted. This was responded to most appropriately by Mr. Norwood L. Simmons, of Washington.

During the serving of the menu, interspersed with charming music rendered by the Forbes orchestra, of Washington, the following toasts were offered and responded to:

"Good of the Order," by Judge Harry W. Whedbee (in place of ex-Gov. Jarvis, who could not be present).

"National Pythianism," by Grand Chancellor C. C. McLane, of Greensboro.

"Why I am a Pythian," by Mr. Collin H. Harding, of Washington.

"Woman," by Mr. F. C. Harding, of Greenville.

"Man to Man," by Mr. Albion Dunn, of Greenville.

These were all of exceptional excellence. Impromptu toasts calling forth some of the wits were contemplated, but owing to the lateness of the hour and some of the visitors having to leave by special trains that were waiting for them, this part of the program was omitted.

The entire occasion was such as to bring highest credit to Tar River lodge and Greenville, and many expressions of pleasure were heard from the visitors.

What have you done for Greenville today?

Perhaps Beattie now has as poor opinion of the Supreme court and governor of Virginia, as of the jury that convicted him.

A druggist in Asheville and his clerk were both given a road sentence of eight months for selling liquor. Going after the big guns in the blind tiger business and putting them on the roads is the way to stop it.

The credit of being the first county to make settlement with the state treasurer of taxes due the state, goes to Franklin county this year. The sheriff of that county made full settlement on Wednesday.

The Pitt County Independent is the name of a weekly paper the publication of which has just begun here, with Mr. G. B. Ford as editor and manager. Mr. Ford has had much newspaper experience and takes for his motto the upbuilding of Pitt county.

Two Charlotte policemen left their beats and went out in the country for a 'possum hunt. They got lost and were a night and a day finding themselves. The mayor ordered both the policemen suspended. That is one time they had better been trailing "coons" than "possums."

The Supreme court of the state has handed down a decision that lending liquor is the same as selling it. The opinion of the court was that it made no difference whether a party lending liquor to another received money or other liquor for it, for he expected full value for it, and this constitutes a barter and is violation of the prohibition law.

A series of public addresses have been scheduled to take place at East Carolina Teachers Training school, to which the people of the community are invited. The first of these addresses will be on next Monday night, 20th, by Mr. Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children, of Thomasville. Mr. Johnson is a cultured speaker and a treat is in store for all who hear him.

The Reflector was in error, Thursday, in saying that a special meeting of Carolina club would be held Monday night to consider some important matters. The error was missing the date one day, as the meeting will be held on Tuesday night, 21st, instead of on Monday night. In all other respects the notice was correct, as it will be an important meeting and should be attended by all the members. In addition to what has already been outlined to take place at this meeting, Mr. B. E. Rice, land and industrial agent of the Norfolk Southern railroad, will be present to make an address. Keep the date of the meeting in mind—Tuesday night, 21st.

D. J. Whichard, Jr. Reporter

Mr. H. B. Phillips, of Fairmont, is in town.

Master Robert Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Greene, was taken to Kinston Thursday evening to be operated on for appendicitis.

Miss Pearl Barber left this morning to begin teaching near Ayden.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Latham and child, of Washington, are visiting Major and Mrs. H. Harding, parents of Mrs. Latham.

Mr. W. W. Croxton, general passenger agent of the Norfolk Southern railroad and Mr. E. C. Potter, soliciting agent, were here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Joyner and their son, Mr. A. B. Joyner, of Greensboro, are here for a few days.

Cutlery Demonstration.

Beginning Wednesday, 22nd, there will be a demonstration of the famous Wiss scissors, shears, razors, etc., at the store of Baker & Hart. Their advertisement in this paper will tell you about it and invites you to visit their store.

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.

Public Address at the Training School.

We have arranged to have a series of addresses delivered before the students of the Training School this year. These addresses are intended not only for the school, but for the people of the community. You and your friends are cordially invited to attend.

The first of this series will be delivered in our auditorium Monday, November 20th, at 7:30 p. m., by Mr. Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children. All who know this gifted editor, know there is a treat in store for all who attend.

I regret that this address will conflict with the revival now in progress at the Baptist church. At the time this address was scheduled we were informed that the revival would close next Sunday. Now, it is too late to change the date for this address.

ROBT. H. WRIGHT.

Opportunity.

When opportunity knocks at the door is the time to open and receive it. When the opportunity is passed and gone, it is too late. The opportunity is now for the buying counties of Pitt, and of adjoining counties, in the special sale going on at C. T. Munford's big store. Such an opportunity to get the best goods at nearly half the usual prices comes but seldom. It is worth coming many miles to take advantage of these low prices. A visit to this big store to examine the goods and prices, all marked in plain figures, will convince you that this is the opportunity for real bargain getting. Do not wait until it is too late, but come now.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle.

A man can lie to people without ever realizing they are doing it to him.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick Ups and Hand-me Downs.

Red Men meet tonight. The Reflector has subscription receipts waiting to be filled out for delinquents. Come in and get yours.

The weather changes have made numerous bad colds.

C. E. Savage has moved his market business to the city market house. See announcement.

Weather.

Rain tonight or Saturday; warmer tonight; colder in extreme west portion; Saturday moderate to brisk east to south winds.

Confederate Balls.

We do not think it is well to give public balls for the entertainment of Confederate veterans.

Three bishops in North Carolina, twenty-one presiding elders and nine editors of religious papers of the state have signed the above statement.

Let the dancers stay away from our meetings. Let us veterans talk, sing and pray and help each other toward God and Heaven.

A. D. BETTS, Chaplain, N. C. Division Confederate Veterans.

GAIETY THEATRE

Will Add New Feature Next Week—Large Audiences.

That the management of the Gaiety theatre is doing all in its power to deserve the patronage of the people of Greenville, was well attested to the big entertainment provided for last night's audience. By special arrangement Forbes' orchestra came over from Washington and delighted the very representative audience with the latest song hits and selections from the most successful New York musical comedies. The pictures shown nightly at the Gaiety are the very best that can be secured and Greenville can well indeed congratulate itself in having such excellent picture service. Mr. Armstrong's singing continues of the sterling quality that has won so many successes here. His songs are always new, and conscientiously rendered. To further show that the management wishes to get only the "best for the best," beginning on Monday, next, vaudeville acts of highly entertaining and "clean" qualities will delight the audiences and it is to be sincerely hoped that the people of Greenville will know how to appreciate the effort of the Gaiety management.

Mr. S. I. Fleming Dead.

Mr. S. I. Fleming, one of Pitt's good men and prominent farmers, died at 5 o'clock this morning at his home near Gum Swamp, four miles from Greenville. He had a yellow chill last week followed with pneumonia.

Mr. Fleming was in his 58th year, a member of the Universalist church and a man esteemed by a large circle of friends. He leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters. The sons are Messrs. V. C., E. I. and Rufus Fleming, and the daughters are Mrs. C. Washington and Miss Louise Fleming. He is also survived by two brothers, Messrs. R. R. and E. P. Fleming. The burial will take place at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the family grave yard.

After a girl gets along in years she knows any man will make a good husband.

Anyway, the knocker doesn't drop his hammer the minute the whistle blows.

Standing of Contestants

Until further notice no contestant will be permitted to poll more subscription votes on any one day than will place her 10,000 ahead of the leader of the day before; for example, if the leader today has 25,000 votes to her credit, no contestant may poll more votes for the list tomorrow than will make her total 35,000.

Consumption

Checked and in Early Stages, Cured by

MILAM

the great Reconstructive tonic and blood renovator

We do not set forth MILAM as a cure for consumption, but it has proven so beneficial to such patients that we believe, and are supported in our belief by a practicing physician, that MILAM will arrest incipient tuberculosis or consumption in its early stages. We know that it greatly benefits even those in the advanced stages.

Read the following

Scrofulitic Consumption

City of Danville, State of Virginia—To-wit: I, Edmund B. Meade, Notary Public in and for the City of Danville, State of Virginia, do hereby certify that Abram Word, of Danville, Va., to me well known, did appear before me, and being duly sworn, depose and says as follows:

"For ten years prior to August, 1909, I was under the care of a regular physician. Last spring this doctor told me he could do me no good, and I tried another for four months without receiving any benefit from him.

In August, 1909, I began taking Milam, and am now able to do my work without difficulty, my appetite is good, and I can eat and digest any food.

My trouble was said to be Scrofulitic Consumption, and I was wasted away to a shadow. I was so weak that I could hardly walk when I commenced on MILAM. I regard MILAM as a truly valuable remedy in all cases of blood trouble, whether eruptive, or proceeding from a lack of full, free circulation.

I have recommended MILAM to about twenty of my friends, and so far as I have seen or heard from them, they all speak in the highest terms of it, and are recommending it to their friends.

It was particularly beneficial to me in aiding digestion and building up an appetite." (Signed) ABRAM WORD

In witness to the above, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of my office, this 23rd day of March, A. D., 1910. EDMUND B. MEADE, (SEAL) Notary Public. My commission expires Jan. 14, 1914.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Greenville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Greenville are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. E. G. Worthington, Washington street, Greenville, N. C., says, "I have been so greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills that I am glad to recommend them. My back ached nearly all the time and I could not rest well. The kidney secretions caused me annoyance and it was plain that I was suffering with kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills which I got from the John L. Wooten Drug Co., relieved my aches and pains and improved my condition greatly. I cannot praise this remedy too strongly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Evangelist Holcomb was earnest and impressive, and while there were no professions at this service it could be seen that interest was deep.

The service tonight begins at 7:30.

Here
Is Where
The Draft
Enters

The most perfect draft ever discovered is the patent Hot
Blast Draft of the Wilson
Heater. The only draft that secures perfect combustion and prevents waste.

This draft is found only in the

Wilson

NOT BLAST
Heater

The air enters at the top, gives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel.

In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 36 hours.
We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters for either wood or coal.
