SUNDAY A GREAT DAY IN BAPTIST REVIVAL

Large Congregations Were at All the Services

INSPIRING SERMONS AND SONGS

Many Profess Faith in Christ and Scores of Church Members Reconverted—Sunday Night's Service a Time of Praise and Rejoicing—Meeting Will Continue Few Days Longer.

Sunday was a memorable day religiously in Greenville. On that day, which was as beautiful as could be wished for, hundreds of hearts were made joyful by seeing their friends come to Jesus for salvation. Scores of church members who had been lukewarm and not satisfied with the way they were living, were revived and reconsecrated themselves to the Master for service. The Baptist church where the great revival is in progress, presented a scene that warmed the hearts of men and women, causing them to join in the songs of praise with rejoicing.

The day's services began with the largest Sunday school attendance in a great while. Even here it was felt that the Holy Spirit was present and moving upon hearts. Evangelist H. R. Holcomb preached three times during the day, and our people never heard three better sermons than these. At the 11 o'clock service, when an immense congregation filled the church, his subject was "The Second Coming of Christ." He pictured graphically and beautifully, sustaining every utterance from the Scriptures, how Christ should come again, in like manner as He ascended from earth to heaven, in majesty and glory and all the holy angels with Him. Satan will be bound in chains for a season, and the saints of God, the redeemed, will dwell with Christ through a period of conquest arising through their earthly pilgrimage. Then they are to be caught up in the air with Christ to dwell forever with the Lord; this being followed by the raising from the grave of the spiritually dead and lost, when the final judgment and separation will come, "these going away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal."

At 3:30 in the afternoon Mr. Holcomb preached to a large audience of men and boys, several hundred being present. His subject was "The Home," and the contrast he drew between the Christian home in which God dwells, and the home where there is no God, was superb. The solo sung by Mrs. Blankenship at this service "God Give Us Homes," was most impressive and beautiful.

At the Sunday night service there gathered the largest congregation the church has ever held. The building was filled to overflowing and many had to turn away for want of room. The subject of the sermon at this hour was "The Last Light is Out." Evangelist Holcomb declared that there is a dead line in the life of every person, and when that line is crossed the soul is lost. The person who dallies with God's mercy and spurns the wooing of the Holy Spirit to repent and turn to Him, may live on for years and even prosper in this world after crossing the dead line of salvation, but God's entreaties are withdrawn from that person and there is no more opportunity for him to be saved. Do not dally with the Spirit of God and drive Him from you, but accept salvation while there is opportunity.

This service was marked by the greatest interest of any since the meeting began. A number went forward to make profession, and when an invitation was given to lukewarm church members to reconsecrate themselves to Christ's service a great crowd went forward. It was an inspiring scene.

The singing at all the services, led by Prof. and Mrs. Blankenship, supported by a strong choir and congregation whose hearts were swelling with love to God, caused every one to wish to join in praise to Him. The solos by Mrs. Blankenship were real gospel messages from a consecrated heart that loves souls, and were most effective.

Including Sunday night's service there had been about thirty professions with many reclamations. So far there are twenty candidates for

SUNDAY AFTERNOON FIRE DESTROYS SEVERAL HOUSES

BELONGING TO MR. T. E. HOOKER

All in New Town Section Occupied by Colored People.

About 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon a fire occurred out on the southwest limit of the town, in the colored settlement known as New Town. The fire started in the second story of what was known as the hotel building or apartment house, that was on the west side of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad track. The fire had already made much headway when discovered, and as soon as the high wind blowing at the time got to it the flames were fanned into a fury. The long building was quickly a fire from one end to the other.

Though the occupants and neighbors did what they could, there was time to save but little of the contents of the building, so attention was given to nearby houses that were emptied of furnishings as rapidly as possible. The flames quickly spread to two of these and destroyed them, and others caught fire.

In the meantime an alarm had reached down town and a great crowd hurried out to the scene of the fire. The firemen responded with the hose wagon and two reels, but it required laying about a thousand feet of hose to reach the fire from the nearest hydrant. Even with this long line the firemen did some good work in putting out nearby buildings that had caught and deadening the fire so as to prevent further spread. For a time many buildings in that section, including the Pitt Lumber & Manufacturing and Co.'s plant were in danger. Besides the large apartment house in which the fire started, two other double houses were destroyed.

The buildings all belonged to Mr. T. E. Hooker, who recently purchased the property from Dr. E. A. Moyer for $2,500. There was $1,000 insurance on the buildings burned. The colored people who occupied the houses lost most of their household effects.

VAUDEVILLE.

The Gaiety Promises to be Pleasant Surprise to its Patrons Tonight.

I knew it would happen. We are sure going to have attractions here this winter. Other towns have good shows and Greenville is as good a town as North Carolina has, and we are not going to stay behind any longer.

Now, of course, we have got to keep this improvement, or else it will fall down. Now lets get together and visit the Gaiety. We go to Wilson to see shows that are not any better than those the Gaiety is going to give.

Tonight will be the opening of good shows in Greenville. Miss Vera Lovelace is known throughout the show world, as being one of the sweetest of all sweet singers. Those who miss hearing Miss Lovelace will miss a treat that is seldom afforded in our city.

Joe Howard is also here. If Joe Howard don't make you laugh, then you are in need of a physician.

We invite you to attend the performance tonight.

The admission will be 10 and 20 cents.

baptism and five received by experience or restoration. Three also united with the Methodist church at the service there Sunday morning.

After the service in the church Saturday afternoon, Evangelist Holcomb came down town and preached a short sermon to a large crowd on the street. He makes such a street sermon a feature for one day in every town where he conducts a campaign for the saving of souls.

Sunday night an opportunity was given for a free will offering for the general expenses of the meeting, and it met a generous response. Evangelist Holcomb and the singers with him are sent out by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the offerings taken during meeting held by him are sent to the board and credited to others wish to make an offering they can hand it to the pastor before the meeting closes.

The meeting will continue a few days longer, this week with services at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Miss Eva Vincent of District No. 1 Now in lead with 31,280 Votes

Many Changes are Recorded in Today's List--Country Contestants Crowding for the Lead.

5 DAYS TO DIAMOND RING; 19 DAYS TO PIANO and OTHER PRIZES

The time in the Contest has arrived when your Efforts will spell Success or Defeat-- what you do now will count the most in your Campaign.

THE TIME IS SHORT AND THE OPPORTUNITY GOLDEN. MAKE THE BEST OF TIME AND THE OPPORTUNITY WILL ANSWER.

Exactly three weeks from last Saturday, the Daily Reflector's big contest of energy will come to a close. On Saturday, December 9th, at 9 o'clock p. m. the greatest voting contest ever attempted by any publication in this part of the state will end and seven young ladies of Pitt county will be the proud possessors of seven handsome and valuable prizes. Prizes which they will be able to show their friends and tell them that it was their energy won them. This in itself is what makes a contest of this nature one of such interest. We are all proud of our achievements and still more proud when we have something to show for our efforts.

Heavy Polling. Last Saturday was marked by as heavy a polling of votes as has been done since this contest opened. In fact, we would not hesitate in saying that, if anything the polling was heavier than at any time heretofore.

It seems that every young lady in the contest realized to what good purpose their efforts of last week would serve them. A great many subscriptions were received at the office of the Contest Manager and the different mails brought their big share of the day. One more week of the fifty per cent increase in the voting schedule and then the drop we announced in detail at the beginning of last week.

In Just Five Days. From now some young lady in the contest will possess a prize of great value and much beauty. Next Saturday evening at 9 p. m., the diamond ring offered as an extra Thanksgiving prize by the contest department will go to some deserving contestant. Five days is not a great deal of time, still if crowded with activities and work of the worth-while-kind, will win for some of the contestants a gem which will be a most fitting ornament on her hand. The contest department wishes to thank the Daily Reflector's readers for their words of appreciation when the announcement of this extra prize was made.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CONTEST

Until further notice no contestant will be permitted to poll more subscription votes on any one day than will place her 10,000 ahead of the leader of the day before; for example, if the leader today has 25,000 votes to her credit, no contestant may poll more votes for the list tomorrow than will make her total 35,000.

NEW ORLEANS IN THE RICH COLUMN

BIG MEETING OF FIANCEERS.

Bankers From Every State in The Union.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 20.—Several thousand bankers, representing all classes of financial institutions and every State in the Union, assembled in New Orleans today for the thirty-seventh annual convention of the American Bankers' Association. There seems to be more than usual interest centering in the convention this year, this being evidenced by the fact that the attendance is the largest in the history of the association's annual gatherings.

Currency reform will be all-absorbing topic of discussion at the general sessions of the convention. It is expected the association will express its formal approval of the plans which, presumably, the National Monetary Commission will recommend to Congress at the expiration of the life of the commission next year. That every phrase of the Aldrich plan for monetary reform will be considered is evidenced by the list of subjects the various speakers, as follows: Trade depression and panics, trade expansion and crop movements, the organization and control of the national reserve association, the relation of the national reserve association to the Government, relation of the State banks, savings banks and trust companies to the national reserve association, rediscouunts and book credits, bank acceptances and the creation of a discount market, the mobilization and control of the reserves of the country, keeping the national reserve association apart from the partisan politics and special control, the needs of the farm and its benefits from the national reserve association, benefits from the national reserve association to the manufacturer and laborer, benefits of the national reserve association to the country as a whole, relation of the national reserve association to foreign trade and banks and the world's financial center.

The prominent speakers at the convention will include Congressman Arsene P. Pujot of Louisiana, Paul M. Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb and Co., New York; George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago; Benjamin String, Jr., vice-president of the Banker's Trust Company of New York; Joseph G. Brown, president of the Citizen's National Bank of Raleigh, N. C.; F. J. Wade, president of the Mercantile Trust Company of St. Louis; James B. Forgan, president of the First National Bank of Chicago; C. Straut Patterson, president of the Western Savings Fund Society of Philadelphia; Frank B. Anderson, president of the Bank of California, San Francisco, and L. P. Padgett of Columbia, Tenn.

Committee meetings and a session of the executive occupied this, the opening day of the convention. The meetings were held at the St. Charles Hotel. At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the general sessions will be called to order in the Athenaeum by President F. O. Watts of Nashville. The general sessions will be concluded Friday. The trust company and clearing house sections will hold their annual meetings Wednesday and the section devoted to savings banks will meet on Thursday.

Interspersing the business sessions of the convention there will be a number of features of elaborate entertainment arranged in honor of the visitors by the bankers and business men of New Orleans. A banquet at the St. Charles Hotel, a fete champetre at City Park, a polo game at Audubon Park, excursions to the sugar plantations and a reception and ball at the French Opera House are among the entertainments that have been arranged for the visiting bankers and their ladies.

The membership of the American Bankers' Association embraces practically the entire financial fraternity of the United States. It was formed at Saratoga, N. Y., in 1875 at a convention at which thirty-two States were represented. Its growth has been steady and at times very rapid, the total membership today being upwards of 10,000 national, State and savings banks and trust companies and private banking houses.

The present officers of the association are: President, F. O. Watts, Nashville, Tenn.; first vice-president, William Livingstone, Detroit, Mich.;

NORFOLK SOUTHERN BUYS MORE ROADS

Now Own The Raleigh & Southport and Durham & Charlotte Railroads

WILL BUILD RALEIGH TO CONCORD

Raleigh and Southport Road Now Belongs to the Norfolk Southern and Will be Extended to Concord as Soon as Rights of Way Are Secured.

Raleigh has just begun to grow. The engine that will pull the train the Norfolk Southern will run from Raleigh to Concord, will soon be making music in the Union Depot. Although the men who know all about it say that their present plan is only to go to Concord, all the world knows that when the Norfolk Southern railroad's line running from Norfolk through Raleigh to Concord gets to the capital of Cabarrus, the progressive city of Charlotte will make such inducements as will give a direct line from Raleigh to Charlotte. However, that is another story.

The News and Observer states today upon authority that the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, and interest allied with that company, have purchased from Mr. John A. Mills and his associates the Raleigh and Southport and all its properties. It has also purchased from Mr. Lennig and his associates the railroad known as the Durham and Charlotte road which is now and has been for years in operation from Cunnock to Troy. The Norfolk Southern will construct this road from Raleigh to Concord, either under its own charter or under the charter of the Raleigh, Charlotte and Southern Railroad obtained from the last legislature by leading citizens between Raleigh and Charlotte and purchased some weeks ago by Mr. E. C. Duncan, acting for himself and his associates his associates now turning out to be the Norfolk Southern Railway Company.

This announcement will be received with great pleasure, not only by everybody in Raleigh, but by all North Carolina. It means that this big railroad system, now running from Raleigh to Norfolk and controlling by lease the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad from Goldsboro to Morehead City, has determined to penetrate Piedmont North Carolina and to tie the capital of the state with all the towns and flourishing country between Raleigh and Concord and later on tie the capital to Charlotte. It is not conceivable that Progressive Charlotte would fail to secure the completion of the road to that city when it gets as near to it as Concord. It may be that the terminus of the road will be Concord for some little while, but the road will go to Charlotte before many moons wax and wane.—Raleigh News and Observer.

NORFOLK SOUTHERN EXTENSION.

That was good news contained in Saturday's Raleigh News and Observer, and which we are copying today, that the Norfolk Southern railroad had purchased two other roads, the Raleigh and Southport and the Durham and Charlotte. This means better things for every point that the Norfolk Southern road touches. It is easily the most enterprising and the most public spirited of any railroad in North Carolina, and it puts forth more energy toward developing and upbuilding the section traversed by it than any other. Any section is to be congratulated upon having this progressive road go into it, and its extension into new territory brings more advantage to all other points already on its lines.

The announcement is made later that the Norfolk Southern has also purchased the Ashboro and Aberdeen road, making three roads recently acquired. That is all the better and means still greater things for the Norfolk Southern.

The fire out in the suburbs of the town, Sunday afternoon, with the attendant loss, is strong argument that the water means with hydrants should be extended further so that all sections of the town may have ample protection. The property owners of suburbs within the corporate limits are tax payers as well as those in the heart of the town, and it is right that all should have protection. The town may be already in debt and short of money, but money is found for other things that might wait until ample fire protection, the most needed of all, is provided.

Years ago there was a Boston tea party, but recently there was a Kansas tar party. In the latter a lady school teacher was the victim and a dozen or so young toughs the principal actors.

When a man starts out for argument and can only say that he thinks somebody else thought so and so, he bases his facts on a very poor foundation.

LAND SALE. By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt county, made by his honor, H. W. Whedbee, judge presiding at November term, 1911, in the case of Harry Bynum, et als., against Edna Cannon, et als., the undersigned commissioner will sell, for cash, before the court house door in Greenville, on Monday, December 18th, the following described piece, or parcel of land, situate in the county of Pitt and in Farmville township, adjoining the lands of the late W. A. Barrett, George Belcher, W. H. Wilkinson and others, containing fifteen (15) acres, more or less, and being the same land deeded to Elijah Bynum by J. J. Hearne and wife, December 29, 1884, which deed appears of record in the office of the register of deeds of Pitt county, in Book L-4, page 267. Said land sold for partition. This November 18, 1911. J. B. JAMES, Commissioner.

Balked at Cold Steel. "I wouldn't let a doctor cut my foot off," said H. D. Ely, Bantam, Ohio, "although a horrible ulcer had been the plague of my life for four years. Instead I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Heals burns, boils, sores, bruises, eczema, pimples, corns. Surest pile cure. 25 cents at all druggists.

The Best Kind of Family Reading. For your home, where the right influence counts for so much, choose the reading that quickens the pulse, that tells of deeds of daring, that takes the reader into strange parts of the world, and yet, with all its power to entertain, depicts honor, true manliness, gentleness, loyalty to principle, as the things of chief importance in life. It benefits while it entertains.

You will find such reading week after week in the pages of The Youth's Companion, contributed by the most popular story-writers, and by men and women whose names are famous in every field of enterprise and scholarship.

Send us your address on a postal card, and we will mail you the beautiful Prospectus of The Companion for 1912, together with samples copies of the paper.

We think you will agree, when you have read them, that there is no other paper that gives quite so much of such a high quality as The Companion, and it costs only $1.75 now for the 52 weekly issues. On January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.00.

The new subscriber receives a gift of The Companion's Calendar for 1912, in ten colors and gold, and all the remaining issues of 1911, free from the time the subscription is received.

GRAY HAIRS VANISH.

Harmless Remedy Made From Sage And Sulphur.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens, weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle today, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, Moye's Pharmacy.

CLOSE CONFERENCE YEAR.

Rev. J. H. Shore Successful Pastor of Methodist Church.

On Sunday Rev. J. H. Shore closed the conference year of his pastorate of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, and will go over to the annual conference with an excellent report of his work here. The past year showed a gratifying increase in membership, with larger collections than ever for all the objects of the church.

Mr. Shore has served the church here for three years, and won a warm place in the hearts of our people. He is a preacher of marked ability and a most faithful worker in the cause of Christ.

Saved Many From Death.

W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe its the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Greenville People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come mysteriously. But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy—If there are settlings and sediment, Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off serious diseases. L. W. Lawrence, 311 Washington street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I am pleased to make the fact known that I have been greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, which I obtained from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. Too frequent passages of the kidney secretions annoyed me and I often noticed that the flow was scanty. I took Doan's Pills as directed and since then my kidneys have been in much better condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

"THIS IS MY 60th BIRTHDAY."

Bishop McIntyre. Robert McIntyre, Methodist Episcopal bishop of St. Paul, was born in Selkirk, Scotland, November 20, 1851. At an early age he was brought by his parents to America and received his preparatory education in the public schools of Philadelphia. He worked as a bricklayer in his youth, but after his conversion determined to become a minister. He attended Vanderbilt University, graduating in 1877 and the next year was ordained to the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Jacksonville, Ill. He filled pulpits in several of the smaller cities of Illinois and in Chicago, Denver and Los Angeles. In all of these places his personal magnetism and zeal made him a popular minister. He was elected a bishop of the church at the Baltimore quadrennial conference in 1908. In addition to his reputation as a forceful orator and platform speaker Bishop McIntyre is well known as a writer.

of Carolina Club Tuesday night, to consider some important matters. Mr. B. E. Rice, land and industrial agent of the Norfolk Southern railroad, will be present and address the club. Applications for membership will also be acted upon at this meeting and it is a good time for those who contemplate joining to send in their names. The half rate membership fee will not be held open after this month.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Pick Ups and Hand-me Downs.

Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. and A. M. meets tonight.

The storekeepers should be getting their Thanksgiving talk ready for the housekeepers.

HATCH DIVORCE SUIT.

Allowance for Support While Trial is Pending.

Recently a suit for divorce and alimony was instituted by Mrs. Flossie Hatch against her husband, Mr. L. C. Hatch, and the matter has attracted much interest. For alleged mistreatment Mrs. Hatch took her child some weeks ago and sought refuge with friends in a boarding house. The suit for divorce and alimony were started and has been pending during the court last week, but the case not being reached and Mrs. Hatch being without support for herself and child, Judge Whedbee made an order that Mr. Hatch pay her $35 per month from the time of separation until the suit is tried, this allowance to be increased to $40 for the month of December, he also to pay attorney's fee and costs. Judge Whedbee also ordered that if Mr. Hatch attempted to dispose of or make way with his property during the pending of this suit except in course of carrying on a regular retail business, upon complaint to the court he will be attached for contempt of court.

The divorce suit will be tried at the December term of court.

Dr. J. Morrill Won First.

Attention has been called to an error in the live stock department of the premium winners at the recent Pitt county fair, as published in The Reflector a few days ago. The report of the judges placed W. H. Dail, Jr., as winner of first prize for the best stallion raised in Pitt county, when this should have been Dr. J. Morrill.

Another Error.

Attention has been called to another error in names of premium winners at the recent Pitt county fair. Where Miss Etta Hines appeared as winner of second premium on fancy handkerchief, it should have been Miss Etta Harris.
