

CAROLINA CLUB HOLDS GREAT MEETING

Mr. B. T. Rice, of the N. S. Addresses the Members

CO-OPERATION, HIS PRESCRIPTION

Interesting Address by Head of the Land and Agricultural Department of The Norfolk Southern Railroad, Enjoyed by Carolina Club Members Last Night.

The Carolina club met last night in a regular business meeting to discuss affairs of the club. Many motions of decided interest to members and prospective entrants were passed and altogether twelve names were added to the fast growing list of supporters of this organization.

Although last night's meeting was a business one, pleasure was added to it by having as a guest Mr. B. T. Rice, land and agricultural agent of the Norfolk Southern railroad, who came to Greenville at the request of the club, to offer his valuable suggestions in the movement of boosting Greenville and Pitt county.

In a very interesting address Mr.
Rice explained what his mission in connection with the Norfolk Southern road was. Many things of the utmost interest to Eastern North Carolina were discussed in this address.
Many surprising facts were brought forth and listened to with interest by the Greenville business men that are striving to "do things" in Greenville.
Perhaps the most interesting from the boosters' standpoint is the fact that at the New York Land show one of the most, if not the most important held in the Union, prizes of great value, as far as country advertising is concerned, were allowed to go by default to states that are "new in the game." How significant a fact this is, that we should wake up and fully appreciate the natural advantages of our own land can't hardly escape the business men of Greenville that listened attentively to last night's address. That we have the goods, but failed to show them where the showing would do us the most good is to be regretted, but we should be thankful for the lesson and in learning it by heart make good use of it. Mr. Rice spoke about his home seekers' excursions and gave many a valuable hint for the assimilation of such good people as will soon come our way on a tour of inspection of the possibilities of our rich country. It is apparent that his advice in regards to these home-seekers is of sterling quality and should be followed to the letter. The members of the Carolina club must have been surprised, as we were, when Mr.
Rice made the statement that cotton was the curse of this country. He, however, soon explained that cotton was a curse, simply inasmuch as our farmer thought only of his cotton crop and overlooked other crops necessary for our up-keep and which could be raised most advantageously right on our land. We can't help but agree with him. It is very well to provide the world at large with a certain product, but our satisfaction in being world wide providers should not be the means of our neglecting that we must seek our other products away from home, and that whatever we realize in our cotton crop must leave our homes to bring us other products necessary to us. Mr. Rice told the Carolina club that the next home-seekers' excursion would come via Washington at the beginning of January, but that owing to railway politics, or policies, arrangements would have to be made by the Greenville business people to extend the excursion to Greenville.

On his making this statement a motion was made and passed that the Carolina club defray the expenses of home-seekers from Washington to Greenville.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Rice's talk went home to all Greenville business men, and that the spirit of co-operation, about which he spoke with such conviction will be the spirit of every business man in Greenville and Pitt county.

Sometimes you encounter a man who is such a deep thinker that his thoughts never come to the surface.

The latchstring always hangs out to the rich.

NEW KING TO RULE ORIENTAL KINGDOM

Uncle Sam's Representative Ordered From the Philippines.

EXTRAORDINARY CELEBRATIONS

Bangkok-Oriental Capital to be The Scene of a Brilliant Ceremony Early Next Week--Nations Send Representatives.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22.— Announcement of the appointment of Col. Leo Febiger, commanding the Sixth Cavalry, now in the Philippines, to represent the United States as military attache at the coronation of the King of Siam draws public attention to the ceremonies that will make the city of Bangkok a centre of attraction early next month. The leading nations of the world will be represented at the coronation. Prince Fushimi has been named to head the Japanese delegation and England is sending an embassy headed by Prince Louis of Battenberg. France, Germany, Italy and other European nations are sending special ambassadors.

The ceremonies and festivities in connection with the crowning of the new king will extend over an entire week. From every part of the Siam-ese kingdom the princes and nobles and military and civil officials will assemble in the capital to renew their allegiance to the new sovereign.
The tenor of the oath they are required to take on this occasion seems to show how Siam has preserved its own territory. Here are some of the phrases used in it:

"We pray the powers of the deities to plague with poisonous boils and with all manner of horrible diseases the dishonorable, the disobedient, and the treacherous. When they have departed this life may they be sent to a horrible hell."

The new king, whose full name is Somdech Chowfa Maha Vajiravudh, succeeded to the throne upon the death of his father a year ago last October. He was born about 30 years ago and was proclaimed Crown Prince when he was 15. He was educated in England and learned soldiering at Sandhurst, Aldershot and Potsdam. Later he spent some time in Paris and then having acquired a good conversational acquaintance with both English and French he was sent back to his country to go into training for the duties which he would later have to perform.

EXPRESS INQUIRY BEGINS.

Series of Important Hearings in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Interstate Commerce Commission began a series of important hearings in this city today with the object of determining whether the rates charged by the big express companies doing business in the United States are reasonable and just. The investigation is regarded as one of the most important that the commission has yet undertaken. It is the direct result of numerous complaints received from commercial organizations and individual shippers in all parts of the country. These complaints have cited many alleged abuses incident to the regulations and practices of the express companies. The commission will endeavor to find out why the express companies persist in keeping their tariffs practically secret. The basis of their division of profits with the railroads also will receive attention. The express companies have shown some disposition to oppose the investigation and it is not expected the inside facts in the matter will be gained except as the result of a strenuous fight.

Greenville, N. C., Nov. 22, 1911.
Mr. H. A. White,
Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:
I want to thank you for the prompt and efficient manner in which you handled my fire loss, occurring on Sunday, November the 19th. Only three days after the fire the loss has been satisfactorily adjusted and I assure you of my appreciation for your efforts in my behalf.
Again thanking you, I beg to remain,
Yours very truly,
T. E. HOOKER.

No Important Changes in Standing of Contest- ants in To-day's List

All Out Doing Their Best as Dia- mond Ring day Comes Nearer

But Four Days of Fifty per cent Increase on Voting Schedule left in Contest--After Dec. 25 Decrease of Regular Schedule

Your Best Now Will be the Best Ever--Half as Much Again for Your Effort Than After Saturday Next

END OF THE CONTEST NEARER BY ANOTHER TWENTY-FOUR HOURS --DIAMOND RING ONLY FIVE DAYS OFF.

Every twenty-four hours is bringing every contestant nearer to the greatest date in the history of the Daily Reflector contest. On Saturday, November 25th, the best remaining offer of the contest will be no more and those that took due advantage of it will be able to gather a big harvest of votes.

After Saturday, next, contestants will see the voting schedule start a downward journey that will mean defeat to those that did not make "hay while the sun shone." According to the full information on vote-issuing issued at the beginning of last week, within four days the fifty per cent increase will be withdrawn and failure to turn in all your subscriptions before 9 o'clock Saturday night next will mean the loss of many thousands of votes at a time when their loss will be great to any contestant that means to win the Gordon & Son prize, or any of the other handsome prizes offered in this mammoth contest.

Very Significant.
That contestants have not changed places in the last twenty-four hours is very significant to those that study the standing of candidates closely.

It seems that all of the contestants realize the importance of whatever they may accomplish now and are out scouring their districts for all the subscriptions and votes they can get.
This is attested to by the many lengthy subscriptions that are being received daily at the office of the Contest Manager. To show contestants that some of their friends are doing things for them even without their asking for support two subscribers walked in yesterday and when paying for their subscription asked for the paper and carefully going over the list of contestants casted their votes for their favorites. If they will do that without being asked, contestants may well imagine what support they would get if they were to ask for this help.

Remember Monday, 27th.
Next Monday will be diamond ring day in the contest and some energetic contestant will add a priceless jewel to her list of personal property. This prize will be awarded to the young lady turning in more subscriptions up to 9 p. m. next Saturday and it seem that the race for this extra prize is going to be a mighty close one.

DEATH COMES TO ED- ITOR J. P. CALDWELL

Funeral Will Probably Take Place Tomorrow in Statesville

THE EDITOR'S END WAS PEACEFUL

Had Been Confined in Physician's Home Since Second Attack of Paralysis Suffered in 1909.

Special to The Reflector.
News of the death of Mr. Joseph Pearson Caldwell, editor of the Charlotte Daily Observer, reached the Daily Reflector by special wire this afternoon at 3:00 p. m. Mr. Caldwell's death was not unexpected and the end came peacefully at 5:30 this morning. No arrangements have been made as yet for the funeral services and interment, but it is expected that the body will be removed this afternoon to Statesville and the funeral will probably take place tomorrow.
Death came to Mr. Caldwell at the home of Dr. John McCampbell, superintendent of the state hospital at Morganton, N. C., where he had been since he suffered a second stroke of paralysis in June, 1909. He reached the 59th year, having been born in Statesville on June 16, 1853.

AT THE GAIETY.

Vaudeville Pleases Large Crowds Each Night.

Last night's performance was highly appreciated by every patron who had the pleasure and time to visit this popular little play house.
The singing of Miss Lovelace is up to the standard. She should be heard by every one in this city. Singers are few and far between, that have the talent possessed by Miss Lovelace.
Joe Howard still continues to please the funny side of the audience.
Every one should visit the Gaiety tonight as this is positively the last appearance of these two artists in this city. Remember the best comedian on earth can't make chairs laugh.
Tomorrow new acts. Hearem & Giggle will hold down the boards.
This team comes highly recommended and we believe will please everyone.
There will be nothing said or done that the most fastidious person would object to.
An entire change tonight, so everybody come out.
Mr. Armstrong will sing "In all My Dreams I Dream of You."

WHO HAD LARGEST FAMILY.

At The Recent Pitt County Fair Held in Greenville?

In preparing the premium list for the recent Pitt county fair, a premium of $5 was offered for the largest Pitt county family present at one time at the fair. Through some oversight no family attending the fair made application for registration, hence the record was not made. We are authorized by the executive committee of the fair to state that if the heads of large families attending the fair will now make affidavit, giving the number and names of the members of their family present, the prize will be awarded to the largest family reported present. These reports should, properly certified, come in to the president or secretary not later than the 10th of December.

Printers Cost Congress at Greensboro.

At 10 o'clock this morning in the lodgeroom of the Knights of Pythias, the First North Carolina Printers' Cost Congress will be called to order by H. E. Seeman, preliminary president of the movement to draw the printers of the state into a closer business relationship. More than 100 representative job printers of the State, with fully 50 out-of-state and factory representatives, will be in attendance and the day promises to become epochal in the history of the industry. The sessions will continue until Thursday noon, with three Wednesday and a final meeting Thursday morning. All will be held in the K. of P. hall.—Greensboro News.

The Weather.

The wild waves are probably saying that they are glad the surf bathing season is over.
Keep an eye on the man who says he doesn't mean any harm.

BAPTIST REVIVAL CLOSED LAST NIGHT

There Were Five Professions at the Final Service

FORTY PROFESSED DURING MEETING

Several Gave Testimony of Benefit From the Meeting, and Evangelist And Singers Express Appreciation —It Was a Revival That Blessed The Community.

The meeting that has been in progress a little more than two weeks in Memorial Baptist church, came to a close Tuesday night. In every way it was a good meeting, the town has been greatly blessed and the influence of it will be long felt. While there have been a larger number of professions at some former meetings held here, none proved more a real revival than this. The real revival spirit was manifest and the hearts of a host of Christians were made glad through reconsecrating themselves to the service of the Master and a determination to do more for Him.

There were forty professions during the meeting, and a good result of this is that nearly all of these have presented themselves for membership in the churches.

The meeting began on the first Sunday in this month, and from then until the following Wednesday night the pastor, Rev. C. M. Rock, did the preaching. On Thursday Evangelist H. R. Holcomb, accompanied by Prof. and Mrs. Blankenship to lead the singing, arrived to take charge of the meeting. They had been here only two days when Evangelist Holcomb was summoned to his home in Mississippi by the death of a child, and this threw the preaching back on the pastor, the singers remaining with him to help carry on the meeting.
Evangelist Holcomb returned last Thursday and did the preaching from then until the close of the meeting.

The closing service was truly an impressive one followed with five professions. Just before the sermon the pastor gave opportunity for testimonials as to benefit derived from the meeting, and there were several who gave expression.

Mr. Holcomb's final sermon was from the subject "They Shall be Judged Out of the Book." He said that as every person reaches the age of accountability God gives them a clean book and they make therecord by which they are judged. He pictured especially to book of those who reject Christ. It contains five chapters, and the titles to each of these, is Sin, indifference, excuses, hardness of heart, lost. He closed with an earnest appeal to the unsaved to accept this final invitation he gave them to turn to Christ.

Just before the service concluded, Evangelist Holcomb, Prof. Blankenship and Mrs. Blankenship all spoke a few words to the people, expressing appreciation of the courtesies shown them, the pleasure it had given them to labor here, and prayed that God's blessings might abide upon all. They left this morning for Columbus, Ga., where their next campaign will be conducted.

The evangelist and singers are working under the direction of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist convention, and it can be said of them that no Christian workers who have ever visited Greenville made a deeper impression upon the people for their earnest consecration.
Evangelist Holcomb preaches the gospel plainly and with power. As a choir and congregational leader in singing Prof. Blankenship is not surpassed, and the sweet gospel singing of Mrs. Blankenship added much to every service. She was heard with delight. The progress of God's people here will follow them in their work.

Pastor Rock announced that he will preach next Sunday morning on baptism and communion, instructing the new members in the ordinances of the church, and will administer baptism at the Sunday night service.

The Weather.

Increasing cloudiness, probably followed by rain in west portion late tonight or Thursday; rising temperature; moderate northwest and east winds.

J. P. CALDWELL.

In another column of this paper we print a special, announcing the death of Mr. J. P. Caldwell. In his passing goes one of the grandest newspaper men North Carolina ever produced.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving day is one week off tomorrow. We have lots to be thankful for. Of course some of us have had what we call trouble, but should not we every one turn our minds to God and say, "Father, I thank thee for the blessings I have received?" If one would stop and think only of the good things, forgetting the misfortunes that have come to him this year, he will realize that he has great cause indeed to give thanks to God.

Hunting on Thanksgiving day came from the necessary habit of our Pilgrim fathers to go out and kill meat for that day. They would probably bag a deer, wild turkey, or some birds or something of the kind in a few minutes and return home to give thanks and eat. In this year of our Lord it is not necessary for a mother's son in this whole fine country to do that, and if it was necessary in all probability the game would not be found. So how can a man take his gun and go out and slaughter the remainder of God's beautiful creatures on the most sacred day in the year? Sport? What a farce!

Te conviction of William J. Cummins for grand larceny will be welcome by men with bank accounts. It will help safeguard their money. Reichman, already convicted, was the weak president of the Carnegie Trust Company. Cummins, its controlling factor, is convicted upon the specific count of misappropriating $140,000 of the trust money to his own purpose. The "banking prisons" of Atlanta and Leavenworth show that the federal laws "have teeth."

Henry Clay Beattie is soon to pay the penalty for his crime, and again Willie Hearst voted himself into the Annanias club. One of his papers published a statement that Governor Mann had promised Beattie 30 days life for a full confession. Governor Mann came to the rescue of truth in a statement flatly denying the one that ornamented Hearst's paper. Some day Hearst will tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. Some day.

Greenville has started a "boosting" movement, and it is expected that every Greenville citizen will constitute himself into a committee of one to do a certain amount of it. The hammer must be sent to keep that hatchet company and co-operation must be Greenville's password. The hammer is all right in its own particular place, but Greenville does not happen to be that place.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. Its the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25 cents at all druggists.

The Morning Telegram is a new, neat, up-to-the-minute newspaper published in Rocky Mount. We would say it is the best daily paper from a news and typographical standpoint in a town the size of Rocky Mount in the state. We congratulate The Telegram May it meet with success.

They are after John D. again. This time it is about an alleged swindle in steel mine stock said to have been put through by his preacher secretary "in charge of charitable work." If he is guilty the preacher was stretching charity some.

"Dr. Wiley," says the Courier and News, of Charleston, "says that there is very little pumpkin in pumpkin pie." But, the dear doctor never ate North Carolina pumpkin pie.

Carolina club is rapidly developing into a "Greater Greenville club." Let the good work go on. We will have some large manufactories with helpful pay rolls here yet.

Cotton is king but its throne just at present is about to have the props knocked out from under it, says the Charlotte Daily Observer.

Once more the United States government is patrolling the Rio Grande. This time it is not called maneuvering.

Charlotte Leads the State.

According to a report just issued, Charlotte made a better record in manufacture and products than any other city of the state.

The report is interesting: "Charlotte made a larger per cent of increase in value of manufactured products and for the number of men employed from 1904 to 1909 than any other city of 10,000 or over in state. While Winston-Salem employs more men and shows a larger value for her products, the percentage of increase for the Queen City is much larger than that shown for Winston-Salem.

"In 1904 the total value of manufactured products in Charlotte was $4,850,000 and in 1909 it had increased to $10,460,000, while the number of employes increased from 2,234 to 4,199. Winston's industries increased from $11,353,000 in 1904 to $16,778,000 in 1909, while the number of employes went from 4,850 to 6,718.

"Asheville, Greensboro, Raleigh, and Wilmington also made substantial gains in manufacturing. Greensboro from $1,744,000 to $2,032,000; Asheville, from $1,904,000 to $3,250,000; Wilmington, from $2,904,000 to $3,005,000; Raleigh from $1,087,000 to $2,376,000.

"There were no comparative figures for Durham, as that town had a population of less than 10,000 in 1904. The only figures obtainable are for 1909 and these show the value of products to be $23,272,000 and the number of employes at 3,718.—Charlotte News.

"THIS IS MY 51ST BIRTHDAY."

Justin McCarthy.

Justin McCarthy, whose reputation as statesman, historian, journalist, novelist and orator is world-wide, was born in Cork Ireland, November 22, 1830. He early mastered the classics and at 18 was forced to earn his own bread. For several years he was employed as reporter and stenographer on Liverpool and Cork papers until 1860, when he became political editor of the London Star, then owned by John Bright, the celebrated statesman. Later he visited America, lecturing and writing for the magazines. Mr. McCarthy's greatest speech was made in defense of Parnell during the great leader's fight against the London Times. His greatest literary achievement is "The History of Our Times," a chronicle of what has happened in the three countries of the United Kingdom since the beginning of the reign of Queen Victoria. In addition to this and several other works of his history, Mr. McCarthy has produced a score or more of popular novels.

THE HAPPENINGS AROUND WINTERVILLE

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 22.—Mr. L. C. Fletcher left Saturday to visit his father in Person county.

See Harrington, Barber & Company for your farm fencing. They have a large stock on hand.

Mr. W. L. House, who spent a few days here left for his home in Dade City, Fla., yesterday.

You need a buggy don't you? If you have used a Hunsucker buggy we believe you will want another. If you have never used them, you should give one a trial. Place your order now for a buggy like you want. We are a little rushed, but we will get your buggy as soon as we possibly can. Come to see the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, Winterville, N. C.

A new lot of stoves and heaters just in at A. W. Ange & Co's.

Mr. T. R. Boyd, of Edward, came in Sunday night and has taken the railroad agent's place here for a few days to let Mr. J. E. Green be off a short while on business.

Harrington, Barber & Co. are carrying a large stock of elasticate rubber roofing, the cheapest roofing on the market for service and durability.

Miss Agnes Dixon, of Ayden, spent Monday evening and night in town.

If you need heavy underwear you will find a nice lot at A. W. Ange & Co's.

Miss Lizzie Cox spent Saturday and Sunday in Ayden with her sister, Mrs. Edgar Dixon.

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." A dollar in the bank is worth two in the pocket. Isn't that true? Everyone knows that money which you carry about seems to melt away. Cut down expenses and watch your money grow in the bank. Begin with any amount of money, large or small, but begin with the Bank of Winterville.

We are glad to learn that the child of Rev. C. J. Harris, who was operated on in Kinston a few days ago is improving and is past the danger point.

We have just a few pairs of cart wheels on hand now. Call in and get yourself a pair. A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company.

Our sister town of Ayden had a narrow escape at the bank last Saturday morning, and to steady their nerves they called on the Winterville troops who marched over to their aid.

Mrs. W. J. Boyd, of Ayden, was in town Monday evening.

At any time when you run up with Mr. C. S. Smith, on any of his trips, and you want prices or want to see cuts of our buggies, wagons, etc., don't fail to give him a chance to talk with you. He might be able to save you money and help you to get a good vehicle. A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company.

Harrington, Barber & Company will save you money on your suit.

Rev. Mr. Carroway held services at the Methodist church Monday night and at the close of the services three were baptized into the church.

See Harrington, Barber & Company for your shoes. They can fit all the family and at prices that are within keeping of the times.

Dr. B. T. Cox left Tuesday morning for Baltimore on business.

A nice coffin or casket almost any size and price will be furnished you by the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, Winterville. They also can give excellent hearse service.

Mr. B. F. Manning made a trip to Farmville Tuesday buying cotton.

We are requested to announce that Rev. Harris Settle, of Wilson, will preach at Red Oak next Sunday.

Harrington, Barber & Company will sell you comforts and blankets at very low prices, and they are full size.

Mr. J. F. Stokes, of the Pitt County News (was in town Tuesday evening.

Mr. B. F. Manning, our clever cotton buyer, went to Robersonville today in interest of the white staple.

The Bank of Winterville will be closed Thursday, November 30, to observe Thanksgiving.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Greenville People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come mysteriously. But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy—If there are settlements and sediment, Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off serious diseases. L. W. Lawrence, 311 Washington street, Greenville, N. C., says: "I am pleased to make the fact known that I have been greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, which I obtained from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. Too frequent passages of the kidney secretions annoyed me and I often noticed that the flow was scanty. I took Doan's Pills as directed and since then my kidneys have been in much better condition."

To Honor Congressman Underwood.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 22.—Leaders of the Democratic party throughout the South have been invited to attend the big banquet to be given in this city tomorrow night in honor of Congressman Oscar Underwood. The affair is intended as a testimonial to the distinguished public services of Mr. Underwood. Incidentally, it is designed to call the country's attention to the movement which aims to make the minority leader in the House the head of the Democratic presidential ticket.

In Memory of Confederate Dead.

KAUFMAN, Texas, Nov. 22.—A handsome memorial in honor of the confederate soldiers of Kaufman county was unveiled here today with interesting exercises. The monument is twenty-seven feet high and consists of a granite shaft surmounted by a statue done in Italian marble of a confederate soldier standing at "make-ready."

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH.

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach. This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable.

His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store Moyes Pharmacy, Greenville, N. C.

GRANDMOTHER'S SECRET.

Look Young by Preserving the Color of The Hair.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.
This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.
If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Weyth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time.
This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, Moye's Pharmacy.

Honor Memory of Bishop Galloway.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 22.—A large oil portrait of the late Bishop Charles B. Galloway, "the Mission Bishop of Methodism," was formally presented today to Millsaps College, of which institution he was one of the trustees from the opening of the college until the day of his death. Leading participants in the presentation exercises included Bishop Bratton of Mississippi, Bishop Chandler of Geor-

MISSISSIPPI BAPTISTS MEET.

Roll Call Shows an Unusually Large Attendance.

GULFPORT, Miss., Nov. 22.—Three days of interest and activity for the leaders of the Baptist denomination were ushered in here this morning with the formal opening of the annual meeting of the Mississippi Battist Convention. The roll call showed an unusually large attendance of ministers and lay delegates representing the Baptist churches throughout the State. Following the exchange of greetings and the completion of organization the convention spent the day in listening to the annual reports from the colleges, hospitals, orphan asylums and other institutions maintained by the denomination. One of the important matters to come before the convention is the proposal for the establishment of a new Baptist college for girls in this State.

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel.
In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson
