NORTH CAROLINA M. E. CONFERENCE

Held Session With the Church in Kinston

ONE MINISTER DROPPED FROM ROLL

Advancement of the Classes—Bishop Kilgo Given a Hearty Welcome—Committee Appointed in Regard to Representative Church in Washington.

The anniversary of the conference board of church extension which was held Thursday evening attracted a congregation to the church that filled the auditorium, galleries and aisles. Rev. H. M. Eure presided and after the opening devotional service, he introduced Rev. W. S. McMurray, D. D., as the speaker of the evening.

Bishop John C. Kilgo arrived during the first part of the service and was escorted to the pulpit stand and pronounced the benediction at the close of the service. When the service had closed many of the preachers gathered around Bishop Kilgo to shake his hand and speak to him.

The conference quartet again delighted the congregation with its splendid rendition of several popular hymns. The music by the quartet is a very attractive feature of the conference. The conference quartet is composed of the following: Rev. Charles E. Vale, first tenor, Rev. J. H. Frizzelle, second tenor, Rev. A. Parker, first base, and Mr. R. M. Phillips, second base. They have constituted the conference quartet for a number of years.

It was 10 o'clock, when Bishop Hoss called the conference to order Friday morning. Rev. Franklin S. Parker, D. D., professor of Biblical literature in Trinity College, conducted the opening devotional service.

Bishop Hoss requested the conference to sing the hymn beginning with the words, "Oh, Worship the King."

The minutes of the session of Thursday were read and approved, after which Bishop John C. Kilgo was introduced to the conference and addressed the body.

Four preachers were admitted on trial in the conference: R. E. L. Edwards and R. E. Pittman, from the New Bern district; N. B. Stricklin, of the Raleigh district, and H. R. Hastey, of the Rockingham district. One of the preachers admitted on trial was represented to be 42 years of age, with a wife and six children. Speaking of this case, Bishop Hoss stated that many good men did themselves, their families and the church an injustice by entering the itinerancy so late in life. "The church," he said, "is superannuating men at 50, now, because no place can be found for them."

Statements were made, showing that this man has property valued at several thousand dollars. "He will need it all, no doubt," said Bishop Hoss.

The following named members of the class of the first year were advanced to the class of the second year: J. H. Ormond, L. D. Haymen, J. E. Blalock, Costin J. Harrell, K. F. Duval, J. C. Eilers, G. S. Beard, E. L. Stack, answering minute question No. 2, "Who remain on trial?"

The order of the day for 10:30 was the reception of the class with full connection, and at that hour F. M. Culbreth, G. H. Higgs, R. L. Caraway, T. M. Grant and M. W. Dargan were

ELEVEN WESTERN GOVERNORS TOUR EAST

Twenty-One Cities to be Visited by Them in Twenty-One Days

MANY CELEBRATIONS BEING PLANNED

Swing Round Eastern Circuit to Cost $75,000—Eastern Cities Getting Ready for History Making Visits of The Governors.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 25.—The preparations for the tour of the east by the party of eleven governors of as many western and northwestern states, scheduled to start from here next Monday, are practically completed. The "Governors' Special" train has been "made up" and fully equipped and stands ready to start on its long journey when the signal for departure is given. The train is quite long and consists of several sleeping cars, enough to accommodate the governors and the members of their respective parties, a dining car, baggage car and five cars containing well arranged exhibits of the agricultural, horticultural and mineral resources of the western states represented by their executives in the party.

The governors included in the party will be A. L. Eberhart, of Minnesota; John Shafroth, of Colorado; Joseph E. Carey, of Wyoming; R. L. Vessey, of South Dakota; John Burke, of North Dakota; James Hawley, of Idaho; Edwin Norris, of Montana; M. E. Hay, of Washington; Oswald West, of Oregon; Tasker Oddie, of Nevada, and H. W. Johnson, of California. The governors will be accompanied by their secretaries and members of their staffs. The party will be in charge of former Governor James H. Brady, of Idaho, with whom the idea of the trip originated, and Riley Atkinson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, of Boise, Idaho.

The tour of the western governors, the total cost of which will be about $75,000, will extend over a period of twenty-one days during which time twenty-one cities will be visited. The train will start from here on Monday evening and will make the following stops: Nov. 28, Chicago; Nov. 29, Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids; Nov. 30, Detroit and Toledo; December 1, Cleveland; Dec. 2, Buffalo; Dec. 4, Rochester; Dec. 5, Syracuse and Utica; Dec. 6, Albany; Dec. 7, Washington; Dec. 8, Baltimore; Dec. 9, Philadelphia; Dec. 11, New York; Dec. 12, Harrisburg; Dec. 13, Pittsburgh; Dec. 14, Columbus; Dec. 15, Indianapolis; Dec. 18, St. Louis; Dec. 19, St. Paul.

At all cities where the "Governors' Special" will stop there will be receptions and banquets in honor of the visiting executives. The cars containing the exhibits will be thrown open to the public and there will be some official in every car to answer questions and to distribute literature setting forth the advantages to settlers of the large fertile areas of the west. The exhibits contain specimens of grains and other agricultural products, displays of the various kinds of timber growing in the west and specimens of minerals mined in the various western states. In addition there are hundreds of maps and photographs showing the results of conservation through irrigation, dry farming, drainage and other methods employed to conquer adverse natural conditions in the so-called "arid belt."

Faint hearts are not losing many fair ladies these times. It's the faint bank account that fails to come out winner.

If You Have Not Seen "That Friend", Do it Right Away and Get His Subscription

LAST CHANCE AT DIAMOND RING

Subscription's Begin Pouring in at left 'way behind. Many contestants who played a clever game will be seen climbing up the ladder that will land them nearer the handsome prizes offered by the Daily Reflector, and friends of the contestants who have so ably helped their friends will have every reason to congratulate themselves for their choice of candidate. Some of them, however, have failed to answer to the summons of well-meaning admirers and will, indeed, be sorry for the lost opportunity.

Who Will Win The Diamond Ring?
This is still a matter of conjecture and one which will be decided Monday, next. It is a "clinch," though, that the best worker of them all will be the proud possessor of this gem. We can also say that this same young lady will be able to take her pick from four beautiful rings which have been specially sent for so that the most fastidious taste will be pleased.

Country Contestants, Please Remember
That the same courtesies extended you heretofore because of the distance you live from Greenville, will be allowed in this instance. As long as your letter bears Saturday's postmark in your post office your subscriptions will count in the diamond ring offer and the fifty per cent increase as well.

Today Greatest Ever.
Since an early hour this morning contestants and their friends began their assault on the Contest Manager and by the time we went to press many hundreds of new subscribers had been added to the list any many more had come in to renew and vote for their favorites in this great voting contest. ## GREAT GATHERING OF CATHOLIC PRELATES

Three American Representatives in Rome

OTHER NEWS OF INTEREST

What The World at Large Will Do Next Week—Condensed News of Widest Interest—Three American Representatives in Rome.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—From many lands the high officers of the Roman Catholic church will gather in Rome at the beginning of the week to participate in, or witness the great ceremonial of the consistory when the largest number of prelates to be named as cardinals at one time for more than 400 years will receive their insignia of office and honor. The Sacred college will then be raised from forty-six to sixty-six members. Among the new cardinals are the three American prelates, Archbishop Farley, of New York, Archbishop O'Connell, of Boston, and Mgr. Falconio, the papal delegate at Washington. According to the latest advices from Rome the private consistory will be held Monday, and the public one two days later.

In far-off Bangkok, the capital of Siam, representatives of the leading nations of the world will assemble for another interesting ceremony—the coronation of King Maha Vajiravudh, who succeeded to the Siamese throne upon the death of his father a year ago. The coronation ceremonies and festivities will last an entire week.

Another assembly of the nations will be the international conference for the suppression of the opium traffic, which is scheduled to begin its sessions at The Hague. Great Britain, the United States and other nations will participate in the conference, which will try to complete the work begun at Shanghai in 1909.

The governors of ten Western States—California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, South Dakota and North Dakota—will start from St. Paul Monday night on a 5,000-mile tour of the middle west, carrying exhibits of the products of the States they represent. The governors will attend conferences and get acquainted with the business men of the many cities they will visit in an effort to attract further public attention to the western country as a desirable field for the homeseeker and the invest of capital.

Pursuant to the call of Governor Johnson, the California legislature will begin a special session Monday for the investigation of matters of state concern, including woman suffrage, the initiative and referendum, weights and measures, and the issuance of irrigation bonds.

Their royal highnesses the Governor General and the Duchess of Cornwall will be the guests of Toronto the first four days of the week and will be elaborately entertained. From Toronto they will go to Hamilton for a visit of two days.

In Boston and in other cities as well exercises will be held Wednesday in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Wendell Phillips, the noted reformer and orator.

The International Live Stock exposition will open in Chicago Saturday, and the number of entries from all parts of the United States and from Canada and Mexico indicates that a record-breaking display of highly-bred stock will be exhibited.

The annual convention of the Southern Educational association, which will begin its sessions Thursday in Houston, will be an occasion for a great gathering of noted educators from all parts of the South.

The football season of 1911 will be brought to a close Thanksgiving day with many games in all sections of the country. Of special importance will be the Brown-Carlisle games at Providence, the Pennsylvania-Cornell game at Philadelphia and the contest between Sewanee and Vanderbilt at Nashville. Other sporting and athletic events of the week will be the automobile races at Savannah, the open championship tournament of the Southern Golf association at Memphis, the amateur billiard championship tournament in New York, and the opening of the Middle West Bowling tourney in Des Moines.

BEATTIE MAKES SHORT CONFESSION

At Peace With His Master Before End Comes

NO HITCH IN THE ELECTROCUTION

Beattie Goes to Electric Chair Stolidly—Died in One Minute After The Electric Current Was Sent Through His Body.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 25.—(Special).—Not until late yesterday evening, hours after Beattie had been put to death in the electric chair, in the lobby of a downtown hotel Rev. Benjamin Dennis, spiritual adviser of Henry Beattie, made public a signed confession, where in brief words, Beattie admits to having killed his young wife in the Mildothian turnpike last July. It would appear that Rev. Dennis made the confession public with full consent of Beattie's family.

Characteristic in its terseness of all of Beattie's actions from the time he was indicted, to his confession. Even in this, his last whilst he admits his guilt, he does not do so in plaintive tone. Facts and nothing more. Beattie to the end.

The confession in full follows: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., desirous of standing right before God and man, do, on this the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details was not true, but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances remains. For this action, I am truly sorry, and, believing that I am at peace with God and am soon to pass into His presence, this state is made."

Beattie's body which was taken to the Beattie home, in South Richmond, immediately after the electrocution, will be interred in the Maury cemetery tomorrow afternoon. The deepest grief enshrouds the old home in South Richmond, and neighbors of the Beattie family are showing their respect for the aged father by abstaining from demonstrations of any kind.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1911.

The Central Carolina Construction Company, of Greensboro, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. It was a large contracting company and built Pitt county's new court house, completing it about two months ago.

The Binford girl who was the cause of Beattie's downfall, said dramatically the day before his execution that he was not guilty of the murder of his wife, while on the morning of his execution Beattie confessed that he was guilty. The girl makes her character blacker than ever, for she knew at the time she spoke that he was guilty and that she herself was a party to the crime.

In a communication in this paper Mr. O. L. Joyner gives some timely advice to the tobacco growers of Eastern North Carolina that every one of them should read and heed. No man takes more interest in or makes a closer study of the tobacco situation than Mr. Joyner, and what he says is always along right lines. His argument is logical and no farmer will make a mistake in following his advice. Just so sure as the farmers raise a large crop of tobacco next year, they will see it sell at a price below the cost of production. What he says about first raising all the needed supplies and giving money crops second consideration is also of utmost importance.

GREENVILLE'S NEW ENTERPRISE

Something That Will Meet a Popular Need.

A new enterprise that will begin business here December 1st, is the Greenville Real Estate and Collection Agency. Mr. J. Benj. Higgs is general manager, Mr. J. H. Manning, local manager and Mr. F. C. Harding, attorney. This agency will do a general real estate and collection business, making collections on commission for any individual or firm. They will also have accounts audited and inventories taken. The scope of this enterprise ought to meet much success, for Greenville has long needed something of this character. Mr. J. Benj. Higgs, the general manager of the agency, is one of Greenville's best known and most enterprising young men, and he, as well as those associated with him, have the confidence of the public. In addition to their personal integrity, the company is bonded to guarantee proper care of and accounting for all business entrusted to them. They will do business all over the eastern section of the state.

LAND SALE.

We will sell to highest bidder, for cash, at 11 o'clock a. m., on December 15, 1911, the following lands: One brick store building now occupied by J. C. Robertson & Co., one vacant lot facing Railroad street, one open lot back of store, one farm near Everetts, N. C., consisting of about 200 acres, about 80 acres cleared; fairly good buildings, good state of cultivation for 1912. The above farm was not cultivated this year. I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cause for Thanksgiving.

When you can save money there is cause for being thankful. Saving is the foundation of success and prosperity. When there is an opportunity to save money one-half on the price of goods you should take advantage of it. The opportunity for bargain buying now prevails in the special sale at C. T. Munford's big store, and it will make you feel like giving thanks to make your purchases there and note how much you can save. Everything is marked in plain figures and a look will show you the bargains.

Not only do we have to satisfy other people in order to make money, but we have to make money in order to satisfy other people.

DO NOT PLANT TOO MUCH TOBACCO

A Word of Warning to Tobacco Farmers of Eastern North Carolina

GOOD ADVICE THEY SHOULD HEED

The Value of a Commodity is The Price of the Surplus of That Commodity—A Big Crop Next Year Will Mean to Sell Below The Cost of Production.

We are now approaching the end of the selling season of the 1911 crop of tobacco, and while I do not think that this crop of tobacco has sold high enough to induce our farmers who reason well to go into an excessively large tobacco acreage next year, the fact that the price of cotton is so low in comparison with tobacco may incline many farmers to increase their tobacco acreage next year. To those who feel thus inclined, let me ask you to stop and think before you act in this matter.

For a number of years we sold tobacco at from seven to ten cents. Reference to the records of the production of tobacco shows that whenever we have a short crop, the price was profitable, and whenever we have made a big crop, it was unprofitable. Nothing is plainer to the farmers than this.

I have written volumes during the last several years, urging farmers, as the only means of controlling the price, to reduce the production. I have said, and repeat again, there is no means of very long keeping down the price of any crop or commodity, nor is there any influence or combination that can raise the price of any product or commodity, when there is a surplus of that product or commodity. As a principle of economy and a matter of common sense, the value of a commodity is the price of the surplus of that commodity. Therefore, if there is a surplus, the crop or product will consequently be cheap. Most tobacco farmers this year have made some money out of the crop—a little—I don't believe any of them have made very much. Now, just as certain as they go to work and overdo the thing, by planting a big crop next year, they will sell the crop at, probably, below cost of production. Therefore, I appeal to the tobacco farmers of Eastern North Carolina, to think well before they plant the next crop of tobacco. Everybody is expecting you to plant a big crop of tobacco next year. Don't do it—rather plant your land in corn, oats and sweet potatoes. Devote some of it to permanent pasture for cows and hogs, rather than plant too big a crop of tobacco. Again, I say, don't do it. I prepared to plant this year ninety-three acres of tobacco. I have already made permanent arrangements for next year's crop, and those arrangements include the planting of only seventy-five acres of tobacco. I have also reduced my cotton crop forty per cent; increased my oat crop one hundred per cent; planted some wheat—something I never did before, and increased my corn crop twenty-five per cent. I have forty acres in clover, and have increased my stock of hogs one hundred per cent.

If every farmer in the land will act accordingly to what he feels; in accordance with what his common sense tells him is the proper thing for every farmer in the land to do, we will get profitable prices for our so-called money crops. The practical thing for any farmer to do, is to first grow an abundance of home supplies of every kind and description that can be produced on the farm; then grow as large a money crop as he can take care of, considering labor conditions and everything necessary to make that crop, and if he does this, he will be independent, and the price of his money crops will be high.

Being interested largely in the tobacco warehouse business, my position may seem paradoxical, but first of all, I believe it my duty to the tobacco farmers of this section to tell them what I believe, to give them the best of information which I feel is for their welfare and best interest, and in doing this I know I am at the same time advancing my own welfare and best interest.

O. L. JOYNER.

"There is only one real old French Market flavor."

This rare and historic beverage has been sold for over two hundred years at the old French Market in New Orleans (originally called Les Halles de Beouf). ference in the interest of the "representative church" in Washington City. He recommended the appointment of a committee of five to confer regarding the amount to be recommended as the contribution from this conference to the representative church.

Rev. M. T. Plyler, presiding elder of the Elizabeth City district, presented the following statement, in writing, to the conference, relative to the case of L. N. Booth, against whom charges were initiated during the sessions of the conference last year: "Pursuant to the order of this conference at its sessions in Elizabeth City, in 1910, the committee appointed by me to investigate complaints against L. N. Booth, preacher in charge of the Chowan circuit in 1910, who misappropriated conference funds and left the state about one year ago, beg leave to report that since that time nothing has been heard of him, save two letters written from Newark, N. J., in which he admitted using the money, but with the expectation of returning the same."

On motion of M. T. Plyler, the name of N. L. Booth was dropped from the roll of the conference on account of the statements contained in the reports read. Bishop Hoss added that in the motion he included the statement that Mr. Booth's name was dropped with charges resting against his moral character.

The characters of the following young preachers were passed and they submitted their reports and were added to the class of the second year: J. M. Ormond, L. D. Hayman, B. T. Burley, J. E. Blalock, C. J. Harrell, K. F. Durvall, T. C. Ellers, G. S. Bearden and L. L. Stack.

The following named were elected travelling elders: W. E. Trotman, W. C. Martin, W. W. Peele, J. M. Wright, W. T. Phillips and H. E. Spence.

H. E. Lane, W. A. Stanbury, W. J. Watson, T. G. Vickers, J. A. Martin, M. Y. Self, J. J. Boone, F. S. Love and C. R. Canipe were advanced to the class of the fourth year.

The report of the board on Bible cause was submitted and was adopted.

Rev. W. G. Bates addressed the conference in the interest of the American Bible Society. The report of the Sunday school board was read and adopted. Conference adjourned at 1:15 o'clock. Bishop Kilgo pronounced the benediction.

The anniversary of the Sunday school board was held this afternoon and Rev. C. D. Bulla, D.D., delivered the address. The Laymen's Missionary Movement held an informal meeting this afternoon, also.—Kinston Free Press.

HOT BLAST
Heater

The air enters at the top, drives the combustible gases into the fire where they are burned—prevents the escape of heat up the chimney—doubles the heating power of the fuel.
In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 24 hours.
We sell Wilson Hot Blast Heaters
for either wood or coal.
