Minister Calhoun Cables American Government

TO PROTECT THE CHIWANGTAO R. R.

Communication From American Minister to China to Government Finds Officers Studying Problem of Expedition—Cause is Dynamite Found Along the Railroad to Peking.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Peking correspondent of the Herald sends the following cable:

W. J. Calhoun, the American minister here, cabled tonight to Washington requesting that troops be immediately sent inland for the protection of the Chin-tantao-Peking railway communication.

From its Washington correspondent the Herald received the following:

Mr. Calhoun's cable asking that American troops be sent to China immediately to help guard the Chinwangtao railway was received at the State Department today. It came almost precisely at the time that officials of the State Department and the War Department were in conference on the best methods of getting troops from the Philippines to China with the least delay.

Because of indications of renewed fighting and reports that foreign governments were arranging for the protection of their subjects, the War Department took a hand in the situation today by pointing out that if American troops were to be sent from the Philippines, it was time they be gotten ready. In its analysis of the military aspect of the situation, the War Department wished to take no chances of not being able to get the troops to China in time to serve the government's purpose.

It was also pointed out that from the army viewpoint it was more desirable to have an American regiment on the spot should there be need for it than to have this regiment engaged in herculean efforts to travel over great distances in answer to an emergency call.

MACK PREDICTS TAFT'S DEFEAT

Chairman of Democrats Speaks On Coming Race

SPEAKS OF DARK HORSE CANDIDATE

Norman E. Mack Refuses to Make a Choice of the Men Now Mentioned, But Predicts Defeat For Taft And Victory For a "Dark Horse" Candidate.

"The next president of the United States will be a Democrat."

Norman E. Mack, of New York, chairman of the Democratic national committee, made the above prediction yesterday to begin the preliminary work for the Democratic national committee meeting here Monday, when a place and time for holding the Democratic national convention will be selected. He discussed the general political conditions at length with his friends in Washington, and is satisfied that the next convention will name a winner. The split in the Republican party and a united Democracy cause him to take this view.

"Dark Horse" as Candidate.

As to the candidate, Mr. Mack said it looked to him as if the proverbial "dark horse" would be nominated. He was unwilling to make a choice among them. "You know," he suggested, "New York has three men mentioned for the nomination—Gov. Dix, Mayor Gaynor, and Judge Alton B. Parker.

NAVY YARD STRIKE SEEMS IMMINENT NOW

Washington Employees Not Placated By Meyer

THEY THINK WAGES TOO SMALL

Secretary Eliminates Card System Objected to and Norfolk Machinists Are Satisfied as to That Point, But Claim That They are Receiving Less Pay Than Other Skilled Workmen.

NORFOLK, Jan. 6.—The action of Secretary of the Navy Myer yesterday, in ordering the discontinuance of the index card system in the Norfolk, Washington and other navy yards of the country, the introduction of which precipitated the strike of machinists in the Norfolk yard, will, it is said, simply matter in the settlement of some differences, but does not entirely eliminate the critical strike situation with regard to wages. Particularly, it is declared, does this apply to the machinists of the Washington yard, who say that they are paid less for skilled work than any other of the government employes in the capital.

Secretary Meyer's action followed an interview with the Virginia senators and members of the Virginia congressional delegation. Senators Martin and Swanson and Representative Carlin, of the Alexandria district, personally called on the officials of the Navy Department yesterday in an effort to have the objectionable card index of the "Taylor System" discontinued in the Norfolk navy yard and have the order applying its use to the Washington and other yards recalled.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Winthrop, during their interview with the Virginians, showed a telegram to (Capt.) Joye, commandant of the Norfolk yard, directing him to explain to the men in the Norfolk yard that the Navy Department had no thought of installing the Taylor system or anything like it.

TAFT MUST NOT ATTACK ROOSEVELT

President's Forces Notified To Let T. R. Alone

RELATIONS ARE NOT STRAINED

Although President Taft Assured His Supporters Yesterday That He Was in the Race to Stay, He Asks His Friends not to Attack Col. Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—While President Taft reiterated yesterday that he is in the fight for renomination and re-election to the finish, word was sent broadcast to his supporters notifying them that under no circumstances would he countenance attacks on Col. Roosevelt, no matter what the ultimate intention of Mr. Roosevelt may be with regard to the Republican presidential nomination.

While various stories are current as to the alleged animosity of Mr. Roosevelt to President Taft, including one which points out in detail that none of the Colonel's family has been entertained at the White House, although Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel Roosevelt have visited this city several times, it is understood that the president is unaware of any effort to his predecessor and is at loss to account for reports that relations between himself and the colonel were seriously strained.

The president has not taken opportunity to reply directly or indirectly to any utterances of Col. Roosevelt that have been interpreted in some quarters as attacks upon the policy of the administration, and, it is said, does not wish his friends to go any further than he has gone himself.

NEW YORK NOT TO RULE AMERICAN CAPITAL

Wall Street To Be Deprived of Control of Money

COMM. FAVORS FIFTEEN BRANCHES

Secretary of The Treasury, McVeagh, Advocates That One Bank Should Not Hold Stock on Another Banking Institution—This Is Opposed by Solicitor General Lehman.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The monetary commission's plan for a national reserve association, when it goes to congress Tuesday, will provide for an organization so constituted that the financial institutions of New York—the seat of the money power in the United States—will control less than 10 per cent of the total representation in the central association, although they possess fully 30 per cent of the banking capital.

This has been done to guard against so-called Wall street control of the proposed institution, which would largely supplant the United States treasury and perform the function of a national fiscal agent.

The South, with about 10 per cent of the banking resources of the country, would control 23 per cent of the representation in the reserve association; New England, with 12 per cent of the banking capital, would have 8 per cent; the middle West, with 25 per cent of the banking capital, would control approximately 25 per cent.

By prescribing such a method of organization, it is expected to remove completely the possibility of control of the reserve association from any single group or set of men.

Morse Counsel Send Reports to President Taft

THE BANKERS DEATH IMPENDING

Atlanta Physician Takes Document to National Capital in Which is Stated That Morse's Death is Near—Would Hasten End by Sending Morse to Jail.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Additional evidence intended to indicate that Charles W. Morse is in a serious condition, and that his days will be shortened by further incarceration in the Atlanta penitentiary, was presented to President Taft and Acting Attorney General Fowler yesterday.

T. B. Felder, of Atlanta, counsel for Morse, laid before the acting attorney general a paper, dated January 1, from Dr. A. L. Fowler, of Atlanta, declaring that Morse was losing vitality, even in the Fort McPherson hospital, and his death would be hastened if he were sent back to the penitentiary. Mr. Felder said he had also placed the report in channels to reach the president.

Dr. Fowler, in agreement with the army surgeons who have examined the former banker, said Morse was suffering from three diseases, each progressive in its nature—arterio sclerosis (hardening of the arteries), organic valvular disease of the heart, and chronic Bright's disease.

"Each week," he added, "that the patient has been under observation at the Fort McPherson hospital he shows a slight loss in vitality.

Head of Mazdan Cult Is Hailed to Court

SOME OF MYSTIC RITES REVEALED

Philadelphia Boy, Heir to Fortune Over Whom Suit is Brought, Disappears—His Mother Sure That Hanish is Reincarnation of Christ—Enjoy Baths.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—This disappearance of William Lindsay, 12 years old, and heir to a Philadelphia uncle's fortune, and the appearance on the witness stand of the cult leader himself were features of today's hearing in the juvenile court involving the "Rev. Dr." Ottoman Zar Audsht Hanish, head of the Mazdan cult here. The boy is believed to be with his mother outside the jurisdiction of the court. Their attorney told the court today he did not know the lad's whereabouts.

The court proceeding are the outgrowth of the attempt of Charles R. Lindsay to remove the boy from the cult's "temple," where he was living, and where with his mother he was receiving "treatment" in accordance with the Mazdan belief. Lindsay complained to the court that the Mazdan temple was not a proper place for a small boy, even though his mother was there.

The Mazdan cult is said to be a revival of the ancient Persian fire worship, and many forms and ceremonies, together with posturing and breathing exercises, are said to be in its ritual.

It is asserted that Hanish advises the worshippers to take sun baths unhampered by clothes, and that they take them. The detectives have obtained a copy of the mysterious "green book," written by Hanish, and which only a selected few are permitted to see.

This book deals with the sex problem in a way that would have brought blushes to Adam and Eve in the Garden, it is said, and contains teachings on which the authorities may bring action.

Authorities Are Afraid Of Violence For Their Charge

Informers in The McNamara Case is Being Taken to Indianapolis to Testify and is Being Carefully Guarded to Offset Any Possible Violence.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 6.—Ortie E. McManigal, confessedly a member of the dynamiting staff of John J. McNamara, was not brought into this city tonight, as was expected, but will reach here in time to testify before the Federal grand jury Monday. Several agents of the Department of Justice today guarded with greatest secrecy the whereabouts of McManigal, and prepared to prevent the time of his arrival from becoming known.

McManigal, upon whom the government is relying for direct testimony as to the identity of the many men alleged to have been concerned in the dynamiting conspiracy that extended from coast to coast, is tonight somewhere between California and this state.

Against The Bill.

The Sherwood pension bill will strike at least one snag in the senate. Leaving Salisbury for Washington, Senator Overman gave out an interview to The Post, in which he defined his position very clearly. He expressed himself as being red hot against the bill. "You can say in your paper," he said to the reporter, "that I am opposed to it and will do all I can to defeat it in the senate. I voted against it last year and will do so again. I voted against the $25,000,000, the $60,000,000, and the $70,000,000 pension bill, and you can be assured I will vote against the $75,000,000 bill. A bill similar to this bill was introduced in the last congress. It was known as the Sulloway bill, but the papers did not notice it. I voted against this bill. That was last March. It was a Republican bill and no one paid any attention to it, but as soon as the Democrats passed the Sherwood bill there was a big howl. I am against this pension bill. It is not in line with the Democratic policy of economy. The Democratic congressmen from the North and West represented a lot of old soldiers and they had to vote for the bill or lose out next time. I do not think the bill will pass the senate—not in the present form at least." Senator Overman's friends had expected that he would take this view of the Sherwood bill.—Charlotte Evening Chronicle.

According to a statement just issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, fourteen million five hundred thousand dollars was spent during the year 1911 throughout the country in the war against the white plague. New York leads all other states in the Union in the amount of money contributed toward the war. With the slogan, "No uncare for tuberculosis in 1915," $3,550,000 was raised in that state during the year for the campaign, over a million dollars of which represented private charity. For the year 1912 appropriations of over $10,000,000 have already been made by state legislatures and other public bodies.—Salisbury Evening Post.

Convicts on the Public Roads.

No subject is of more importance in the year 1912 than the apportion of a wise and general system of working the public roads, utilizing all the convicts in county and state, except such as are physically unable to do this work or who must be kept in close confinement. The more this question is discussed, the more light is thrown upon it the better will be the measures that will be adopted and the better roads we will secure.

We published last week a wise and sensible article from Dr. Charles O'H. Laughinghouse, of Pitt county, who outlined a plan that has been widely commended. We are publishing today an article from Mr. John P. Kerr, in which he quotes recommendations made by Mr. J. S. Mann, a former superintendent of the state prison and adopted by the board of directors, January 1, 1909. It is a thousand pities that the legislature of 1909 did not take up the recommendations of Mr. Mann and adopt the substance of them and create a highway commission, but because we have lost several years in this work, that is all the more reason why we should consider the recommendations of Mr. Mann and the letters of Mr. Laughinghouse, and the views of others so that by the time the legislature of 1913 convenes that body fresh from the people, will be able to study all the plans and adopt the best ones.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The following from the Charlotte News has covered our physiognomy with blushes, "wreathed" it as Ella Wheeler Wilcox would say and we are especially happy, too, because it would seem to dispel the fact that we are not red-headed, which has been the cry of that fellow Whichard, over in Greenville, for many moons:

The Bouquet of Life.

It's only a little way at best, Brief is the time we spend on earth; We may be called from toil to rest. Before we've shown our real worth. Too precious is one day to mar. To rare are moments to be kind To let them slip, for kind deeds are The moments we leave behind.

We think life's journey now is long And we hurry to its end; We stoop to little deeds of wrong That in the future we would mend, And yet the chance for doing right May never, never come our way; We leave forever with the night Tho good we might have done today.

Life after all is a bouquet Of days that we have gathered here; Some gather roses by the way, Some pluck the weeds, year after year. The bud we see about to bloom And plan to pick when its full blown, We may not reach; and then will loom Only the days that we have known. —Edgar A. Guest, in Detroit Free

Give the Boys and Girls a Chance.

Schools may not make men and women, but they will always help. Certainly the lack of educational advantages will not make men and women. Because the little log school-house with the slab benches and two-by-four blackboard has turned out strong men and noble women, it does not follow that they would not have been stronger and nobler and have had greater influence for good if they had had better advantages in their youth. Because your hero, perhaps, learned his letters for himself by a flickering fire of lightwood knots and got most of his learning in the "School of Hard Knocks," it does not follow that there is no better way of training men. All the evidence agrees that the more of opportunity, the more of culture, there can be put into the life of boy or girl, the better will be his or her chances of developing into the worthiest and most useful type of manhood or womanhood. We believe, with Elbert Hubbard, that it is a good thing for a boy to have had the privilege of warming his feet cold mornings on the ground where the cows lay the night before; but we also believe that it is good for him to have had the privilege of going to a school-house made neat and bright and cheerful without and within, and of advancing from that school-house to higher institutions of learning where he can breathe the air of academic inspiration, absorb traditions and ideals of his college, and acquire all that it can give of learning and culture and breadth of thought.—The Progressive Farmer.

Closing The Doors.
I have closed the door on Doubt;
I will go by what light I can find,
And hold up my hands, and reach them out To the glimmer of God in the dark and call
"I am Thine, though I grope and stumble and fall.
I serve; and Thy service is kind."

I have closed the door on Fear,
He has lived with me far too long.
If he were to break forth and re-appear, I should lift my eyes and look at the sky,
And sing aloud, and run lightly by;
He will never follow a song.

I have closed the door on Gloom,
His house has too narrow a view.
I must seek for my soul a wider room,
With windows to open and let in the sun.
And radiant lamps when the day is done,
And the breeze of the world flowing through.

It was the coldest morning since winter came.
Tomorrow being the first Sunday in the year, you should attend Sunday school and church.
Ask for business if you want to get it, and the best way to ask is through a good advertisement.
A warm stove was a good companion today.
Bad roads and bitter cold weather made the first Saturday crowd in town smaller than usual.
J. R. & J. G. Moye are building a large shed in the vacant lot on the north side of their store in which to carry their farm implements and machinery.
And some people have too much respect for other people's homes and not enough for their own.
And every mother's son of us expects to strike it rich some day.

business of grave importance is to

To Improve Club Quarters.

The board of governors of Carolina club at a meeting held Thursday

Condition of Rev. F. A. Bishop Very Critical.

Rev. F. A. Bishop, a minister of the Methodist church, superannuated at the last conference, in order that he might be given a rest, hoping that it would be beneficial to his failing health, is at the Jawes Walker Memorial Hospital, and is critically ill. He is not expected to recover. He has been living at his summer home on Greenville Sound since the action of the conference. He was taken violently ill several days ago and brought to the city for treatment. Rev. R. B.
John, presiding elder of the circuit in which Rev. M. Bishop was pastor, and a close personal friend, is at his bedside. The most skilled medical attention is being rendered, but little hope is entertained for his recovery.
—Wilmington Dispatch.

Mr. Bishop was once pastor of the Methodist church here, and has many friends in Greenville will regret his serious condition.

RAISES FINE POULTRY.

And Will Have Exhibit at the Poultry Show in Atlanta.

There is not a more enthusiastic poultry fancier in Pitt county than Dr.
Jenniss Morrill, of Falkland. His specialty is White Orpingtons and he is having marked success with them.
Dr. Morrill was in Greenville Friday, and while talking about his poultry farm with the Reflector man, said he was going to send a coop of his White Orpingtons to the poultry show soon to be held in Atlanta. This will be the largest poultry show in the South, and not only the States but some foreign countries will enter poultry in contest for the prizes. We hope Dr.
Morrill will be among the winners.

portance are to be considered and every member should have a part in Sunday in the year to be present.

The Happenings Around Standard.

STANDARD, N. C., Jan. 5.—We learn that Mr. L. F. Worthington and wife has purchased the land known as the May place for $5,500. Isn't that paying for land?

Mr. Heber Nichols, of Ayden, is moving to the Qiberly farm near here.
We wish him much success.

Mr. Isaac Worthington has purchased the farm known as the J. S.
Williams place from Mr. Royce Tucker and is moving his family nearer Standard.

Mrs. J. H. Cobb has been on the sick list for the last few weeks.

Mr. Royce Tucker, who is studying at the Medical College of Philadelphia, spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. N. E. Tucker, during the holidays.

Mr. G. T. Tyson, of near here, has been killing hogs this week. If every farmer would have the gut-up in him as Mr. Tyson has and make a plenty of meat for their farm and also have two or three hundred dollars worth for sale, it would look like living.
If its hogs, or cattle, or sheep, you need you would do well to see Mr.
Tyson before buying.

Mr. W. H. Elks, Jr., went to Rocky Mount Tuesday, but we see that he is back with us this morning.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. J. J.
Nobles, who fell and sprained some of her limbs during the summer is improving very slow. We hope to see her out again soon, as she is so jolly that we all miss her.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Norman spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. J. H.
Cobb, last week.

The Improved Order of Red Men will have some extra work on hand for Friday night. It is also time to install officers.

STALK CUTTER

The Parin & Orendorf Co., Canton, Ill., made the first Stalk Cutter ever built, over 50 years ago; today they are building the best Stalk Cutter on the market

You need weight in a Stalk Cutter to do good work. You get it in this one—and with weight you get strength. The P. & O. is practically indestructible. Beware of light, flimsy stalk cutters—you will rue the day you buy one. This one will last a life-time. What do the manufacturers themselves think of it? "Back it up with an unqualified guarantee." That is putting it pretty strong—what more can you ask?

NEWS FORECAST FROM WASHINGTON

DONGS AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—The week promises to be prolific of interesting news relating to politics and public affairs. The Democratic national committee will meet in Washington Monday to fix the time and place for the national convention. Coincident with the meeting of the committee will be the Jackson Day banquet to be given Monday night at the Hotel Raleigh and which will have among speakers all of the leaders whose names are mentioned in connection with the Democratic presidential nomination.

The sub-committee on arrangements for the Republican national convention, of which Harry S. New, of Indiana, is chairman, will hold its first meeting in Chicago Saturday.

The senate committee of which is investigating the election of Senator Lorimer, will resume its sessions in Washington, Monday, when Mr. Lorimer will take the witness chair and testify in his own defense.

Attorney General Wickersham is expected back from Panama early in the week. His first work, it is expected, will be directed towards reaching a basis of settlement of the government's two biggest pending "trust" cases—those of the International Harvester Company and the United States Shoe Machinery Company.

During the week the legislatures of New Jersey, Virginia, South Carolina and several other states will begin their regular sessions.

The Dominion parliament, which adjourned early in December for the holiday recess, will resume its sessions Tuesday.

The important event of the week in Europe will be the general elections for members of the German Reichstag. The elections are regarded as the most important since the formation of the present German Empire. The main electoral issues are Morocco and the foreign policy of the government, the high cost of living, a demand for a revision of the tariff, reform of taxation with the introduction of an inheritance tax, and a curtailment of the power of the Catholic Centrum.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

Denmark's union membership at the end of 1910 was 131,563.

Ten thousand cigar makers in Westphalia, Germany, are on strike.

The South African Labor Herald, a paper devoted to the interest of wage earners, has been started in Cape Town, the initial issue consisting of eight pages.

The total number of workmen's houses already constructed near the city of Havana amounts to 395. These are sold to the workmen on small annual payments.

Another Robbery in Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 5.—Although the matter was kept very quiet, report was learned Tuesday of one of the largest robberies of money which has occurred in Wilmington in years. The amount of money taken was in the neighborhood of $1,500. The sum was secured from the safe in Mr. M. L. Starkey's place on Princess street between Front and Second street. Prompt and energetic action Tuesday morning on the part of Constable W. B. Savage, resulted in the recovery of the entire amount of money which was taken, together with the identification of the person who committed the act. The owners of the money were content with getting the sum back and did not prefer any charge against the man who had taken the cash.
