U. S. TELEGRAPH URGED BY POST- MASTER HITCHCOCK

Will Ask Congress to Take Over All Telegraph Lines

COST TO BE ABOUT $250,000,000

Has Carefully Studied Conditions in Europe and Japan, Where Government Owned Telegraph Lines Are Prosperously Managed—Federal Payroll Would Have 100,000 More Names in It.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Acquisition of the telegraph lines of the United States by the government and their operation as a part of the postal services, will be recommended to congress in a short time by Postmaster General Hitchcock.

For a year or more Mr. Hitchcock has had this recommendation under consideration. After a thorough study of the operation of government controlled telegraph lines and postal telegraph systems of foreign countries, he has decided to urge the matter up to congress.

"Should this recommendation be adopted," said Mr. Hitchcock last night, in a statement of his intention, "I am convinced it would result in important economies and very matterially lower telegraph rates. In approximately 50 countries of the world—notably in Great Britain, France, Germany, Austral, Italy, Spain, Russia, and Japan—government controlled telegraphs now are in successful and profitable operation.
In many of the countries they are operated in connection with the postal service. These telegraph serve an aggregate population of 950,000-000, and in every instance they have been found to be of immense practical benefit to the people, in both promptitude and cost of the service.

"In this country postoffices are maintained in numerous places not reached by the telegraph, therefore, would afford a favorable opportunity for the wide extension of the telegraphic facilities. In many small towns where the telegraph companies have offices the telegraph and mail business could be handled readily by the same employes. It is evident that the separate maintenance of the two services under present conditions results in a needless expense.

SEEKING LAW FOR PERJURERS

False Oaths Unpunished, Says Land Commissioner

NO LAW FOR CERTAIN CRIMES

Land Commissioner Dennett Declares That There is no Law to Cover Certain Crimes Committed by Unscrupulous Professionals.

"Owing to the nonexistence of any common law covering certain crimes which the federal courts can administer," says Fred Dennett, commissioner of the general land office, in his annual report to Secretary of the Interior Fisher, "many forms of false swearing seem to be not punishable by proceedings in those courts, and I earnestly recommend that this defect in the law be repaired.

"Attempted prosecutions for false oaths in relation to the character of the land of which entry is sought, or concerning the legal qualification of the would-be entryman, have failed of success because it was held that these oaths were not officially required by statute."

Seek Restoration of Army Canteen.
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—A meeting to arouse interest for the restoration of the army canteen was held at the Waldorf-Astoria today under the auspices of the National League for the Civic Education of Women. A number of prominent army men delivered addresses strongly favoring the restoration of the canteen. Many army men and their wives were present and acted as patrons of the gathering.

PEOPLE WOUNDED BY EXPLOSION

Cold Wave Responsible in Washington For the Freezing and Exploding of Pipes and Kitchen Stoves—Five Persons Are Badly Injured on Account of Accidents Due to Intense Cold Reigning in Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Five persons were seriously injured yesterday by the explosion of frozen water pipes connected with kitchen stoves.
Michael Fronini, 14 years old, of 2200 I street northwest, is at Emergency hospital in a critical condition from a fractured skull, caused by being struck with a piece of metal in an explosion at his home yesterday morning. Michael Fornini, sr., the lad's father, was struck by pieces of iron, but his injuries are not serious. The house was set on fire, and the engines were called to extinguish the blaze.
The damage was $75.

Mrs. Harriet Mattingly, 29 years old, and Fred Burgess, 28 years old, of 412 C. street northwest, were injured yesterday morning in the explosion of the kitchen stove, caused by bursting of a water pipe. Both were burned about the hands and face, but refused hospital treatment.
The fire was extinguished, with $75 damage.

Werner Maske, 89 years old, a boarder at the home of Thomas S. Wood, of 666 Massachusetts avenue northwest, was seriously burned yesterday morning in the explosion of a kitchen stove. The aged man was near the stove when a frozen water pipe burst. The firemen responded to an alarm in time to keep the fire under control. The damage is estimated at $50.

PREMIER BEGGED BY KING ALPHONSO

Is Urged By Spanish Monarch to Continue as Premier

RE-PREMIER WILL ANSWER TODAY

Head of Spanish Ministry Admits His Mistake in Advising Ruler Not to Relieve Political Criminal, and Resigns—Alfonso Urges Him to Resume Reins of Government.

MADRID, Jan. 15.—After the Spanish cabinet, of which Jose Canalejas Mendes was premier, had resigned today, King Alfonso sent for Senor Canalejas and asked him to reconsider his course, and take up the duties of his office again. He assured the statesman of his continued confidence. Senor Canalejas asked for time to reflect, promising to give his answer tomorrow.

On leaving the palace, the former premier declared that if he decided to accept the office he would retain the same ministers.

The cabinet resigned as the result of a divergence of views with King Alfonso as to the advisability of cum-mulating the death sentence of one of the rioters, who murdered a judge and wounded several court officials in the town of Cullera, province of Valencia, last September.

The general strike at that time in Valencia and other provinces involved a plot to assassinate Gen. Weyler and the king was compelled to suspend the constitutional guarantee.
The trial of the strikers concerned in the Cullera murder has engrossed public attention to the exclusion of all else for some time. The radicals seized upon the affair as a weapon to attack the government, in the same way as they utilized the refusal to repeal Francisco Ferrer, director of the modern school, who was executed in 1909 to bring about the downfall of the Maura cabinet.

NEWS THROUGHOUT THE NORTH STATE

North Carolina News : : : In Brief

To Improve Streets.

GREENSBORO, Jan. 15.—Agitation for the issuance of $100,000 street improvement bonds is rapidly forming here and the city commissioners have already announced a desire and hope for such an issue in time to start improvements during the summer. The present condition of many of the principal streets in the city is the strongest argument that can be advanced in favor of the bonds and there is a general sentiment in favor of improvement. Greensboro's streets have had no real and permanent improvements within several years and it is already realized that it is folly to keep patching with tar and other material that holds less than six months. Outside of Elm street there isn't a good pavement in the city and the people are determined that such conditions shall not exist another winter.

Rough Weather at Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 15.—Wilmington had a variety of weather today. The day dawned cloudy with temperature 14 degrees above zero, about 11 o'clock the sun came out and shone brightly for a few hours, when a misty rain began and continued at intervals until 5 o'clock, when there was a decided jump in the temperature, rising to 30 degrees, with rain increasing. The thermometer tonight stands around 30 above zero and the rain which is falling is freezing. The local weather observer promises a little milder weather for tomorrow.

ture and many other spectators.
Following the installation of Governor

National Board of Trade.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.— With a three-day programme calling for the discussion of many of the important matters pending before congress, the National Board of Trade began its forty-second annual meeting at the New Willard Hotel today. Nearly one hundred commercial organizations scattered throughout the country were represented at the opening. The meeting has set aside tomorrow for the consideration of the corporation problem.
Other leading matters of discussion will include the subjects of banking and currency reform, the creation of a non-partisan tariff commission and the question of making the Panama canal free to American coastwise shipping.

Florida Democrats.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 16.— The Florida Democratic Committee went into session here today to select the date and make other arrangements for the coming state primary election to name candidates for governor and other state officers and members of congress. Whether a presidential primary for the selection of delegates to the national convention shall be held will be determined by the committee.

Master Printers' Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 16.— A Master Printers' Cost Congress met in this city today with leading men of the trade in attendance from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia. The session will last two days and will be devoted to the discussion of a uniform price scale and the exchange of ideas on matters relating to the printing trade.

Raleigh Looks Forward to Warmer Temperature Shortly.

RALEIGH, Jan. 15.—The mercury dropped to only seven degrees last night here, instead of to zero, as was expected. The lowest temperature in Raleigh in many years was two degrees below zero in February 1892.
The temperature rose slowly today, and indications are that this section will be out of the grip of the cold wave in a few days.

Great number of people persist in having water running all night to prevent freezing of pipes and the city reservoirs sank so fast last night that it was necessary to cut supply off from 11 to 5 o'clock this morning this being done again tonight.

Frozen and bursting water pipes promise to prove the greatest damage. The associated charities are taking great precaution to prevent suffering from cold among the very poor.

Derailment on Norfolk Southern.

WALSTONBURG, Jan. 15.—The Norfolk Southern passenger train hap was due to slippery, icy tracks.

The rails have been replaced and trains are operating over the road as usual.

FIVE WOMEN AND A MAN DEAD

Express Crashes Into Light Wagon at Crossing and Kills All of Its Six Occupants—Watchman Not at Post When Driver Came to Crossing—His Substitute Had Not Arrived Yet.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—Six persons, five women and a man, were killed when an express train on the New York division of the Pennsylvania railroad crashed into a light station wagon at the Linden avenue grade crossing in Torresdale, a suburb today. The dead are:
Charles Davidson, aged 50 years.
Nellie O'Connor, aged 19 years.
Bridget Malloy, aged 42 years.
Agnes Garrity, aged 22 years.
Rose Gallagher, aged 18 years.
Mary Roddy, aged 20 years.

The Linden avenue crossing is usually guarded by a watchman, but the regular man was on leave of absence, and his substitute had not appeared when the coach reached the crossing.
Davidson waited for a freight train to pass and then drove directly in front of the approaching express.

The horses managed to clear the track, but the engine struck the wagon squarely on the side. Davidson and Anger Garrity, who were seated on the front seat, were tossed to the side of the track. The four other women were thrown directly under the wheels of the train, and when their bodies were recovered were so mutilated that it was necessary to identify them by their clothing.

Agnes Garrity was still alive when she was picked up, but died while being conveyed to Torresdale station.
Davidson was dead when his body was found 50 feet from the tracks.

PEKIN, Jan. 14.—It is understood that the imperial premier, Yuan Shi the hope of inducing the withdrawal of the opposition heretofore placed in the way of raising a foreign loan.

If not successful, it is believed, Yuan Shi Kai will retire simultaneously with the court.

The republicans are not yet aware of the Manchus' decision to ask for an extension of the armistice for a fortnight.

An official communication says that many large wells in Shensi province are filled with the bodies of women, principally Manchus, who cast themselves into the wells to escape outrage or murder.

R. R. WRECK IN KENTON, OHIO 50 INJURED

Big Four Train Leaves Rails and Goes to Ditch

RAILS SPREAD ON ACCOUNT OF COLD

Train Going at Forty Miles an Hour Leaves Rails, Spread Out by Cold and Goes Into Ditch—Diner Catches Fire and Adds to Passengers' Panic—Farmers Rescue and House Passengers.

KENTON, Ohio, Jan. 15.—About 50 persons were injured this afternoon, when Big Four passenger train No.
1, from Detroit, was wrecked near Carey, Ohio, a short distance from this city. None of the injured was fatally hurt, it is believed. An official list of 34 seriously injured has been given out.

Spreading rails, due to the intense cold, caused two of the coaches to leave the track and go into the ditch.
The train was late and was speeding at a rate of about 40 miles an hour when the accident occurred.

Many of the passengers suffering from cuts and bruises were unable to emerge from the overturned coaches before assistance arrived.

Passengers who first were taken out of the overturned cars assisted in extricating the women and children.
Ladders were procured, and it was with difficulty that the rescuers were able to reach the inside of the coaches as many of the windows were locked down.

The buffet car took fire, and for a few minutes there was a panic among the passengers in it. All, however, were extricated, and none of the coaches was demolished. The baggage car was thrown sidewise across the track, and the engine was also derailed.

Physicians from Carey were rufled to the scene of the wreck, and they superintended the work of hurrying the more seriously injured to a hospital in this city. Others less seriously hurt are being cared for at Carey.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Jan. 15.—
With his pockets empty, John Jay McDevitt gave up his play as a millionaire when he stepped from a Pullman sleeper this morning. When he awoke, he discovered there remained in his clothes $1.53. As he stepped to the ground, he handed the porter $1.50, and the three remaining pennies he chucked to a newsboy. He was then "dead broke" without the price of breakfast, but possessing a very strong appetite.

John Jay had not parted with his nerve, and this he carried with him to the nearest beanery. Taking his seat on a stool at the hash house, he yelled "one thousand," which in the vernacular of lunchrooms here is the signal for a plate of beans.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1912.

It will not be this way the 4th of July.

This is as bad as the ground hog could give us.

About all this weather is fit for it to keep people in the chimney corner or by the stove.

Some of them talk like they had never seen this kind of weather before, but there has been worse.

Cold as it is, the trees covered with a glittering coat of ice are something pretty to look at.

It has reached the point that there must be something more than talk to get the hotel.

In years gone by farmers did not mind selling wood, but very few of them do so now. Inability to get hands to cut it may have something to do with the scarcity.

A visitor from a more frigid region said he thought we people down here called this the "sunny south." So we do. Come again when we have no snow and you will see for yourself.

Postmaster Hitchcock is not satisfied with having placed the postoffice department in a paying basis. He would have the government take over the telegraph lines and do as some European countries have been doing successfully for many years. Government owned telegraph lines would probably be just as successful here as abroad and might be the means of giving the people better and cheaper service.

THIS IS MY BIRTHDAY

Charles Finney Cox.
Charles Finney Cox who has won fame in two widely diverse fields, railroad finance and the science of biology was born in Richmond county, New York, January 16, 1846. After completing his education at Oberlin College in 1869 he became associated with a prominent banking house in New York. His financial training secured for him a position in the auditing department of one of the prominent railroads and later he became treasurer of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company. Among railroad men the country over Mr. Cox is well known as a master of the financial side of the railroad business. At the same time he has acquired among scientists a reputation as a deep student and an original thinker on problems related to evolution of animal and plant life. For years he has made a deep study of the various branches of biology particularly the Darwinian theories pertaining to evolution on which he is a recognized authority.

What the Democrats Must Do.

In 1908, Mr. Taft received 7,678,908 votes, and Mr. Bryan received 6,409,104 votes. Mr. Taft's popular plurality was 1,269,804. Mr. Taft received 321 electoral votes, and Mr. Bryan 126 electoral votes. Roosevelt's popular plurality in 1904 was 2,545,515, McKinley's popular plurality in 1900 was 849,790, and in 1896 it was 601,854. Mr. Taft polled more votes in 1908 than Mr. Roosevelt polled in 1904.

The New York World gives these figures to show that "if the Democrats think the next election is as good as won they are sadly mistaken. They have a fight on their hands, whether or not Mr. Taft is renominated." They will have to change more than 600,000 votes to win the election and get 266 votes in the Electoral College. Referring to the result of the last four successive presidential elections, The World says very truly, "the brute force of these recurrent Republican majorities constitute a tremendous handicap upon any Democratic candidate."

What is to be done about it? We cannot hope to win with a weak candidate on a bad platform, or with a trading candidate on a strong platform. Much will depend upon both candidate and platform, and much also on what the present Democratic congress shall do in the matter of legislation and particularly in the appropriation of money from the public treasury. A few more licks like the Dollar-a-Day Pension Steal and a few examples of personal graft like the mileage steal, and the party will be compelled to fight an explanatory battle from the time the candidates are named until the polls are closed. It is just as well, in our present state of confidence, not to lose sight of the fact that the fight this year is to be a fight to a finish.—Charlotte Observer.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Madison, Wis., is to vote next month on the commission form of government.

The Republican state convention of Maine will be held in Bangor, Apr. 10.

Speaker Atkins of the Illinois house of representatives has formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor.

Senator Owen of Oklahoma whose term will expire next March will be opposed for re-election by former governor, Charles N. Haskell.

Congressman M. E. Olmsted of the 18th Pennsylvania district is mentioned as a possible candidate for governor.

The first candidate to announce for the Republican gubernatorial nomination at the primaries in Maine next June is William T. Haines of Waterville.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts and Representative Frank B. Willis of Ohio are to speak at the Lincoln celebration in Springfield, Ill., next month.

John Hays Hammond of Massachusetts and Governor Robert P. Bass of New Hampshire are to speak at the opening meeting of the Republican campaign in Michigan in February.

William J. Bryan's name has been advanced for a position on the Democratic primary ballot in Nebraska as a preferential candidate for the presidency by a petition placed on file with the secretary of state.

Professor P. G. Holden, known as the originator of the corn gospel, has resigned his position as superintendent of the extension department of the Iowa Agricultural College to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

There will be only 182 delegates in the next Democratic State Convention in Pennsylvania which is less than half the number in the last convention. The number was reduced by reason of the small vote cast for the Democratic candidate for governor in 1910 upon which the basis of representation is fixed.

Among the speakers to be heard at the annual dinner of the Republican League State Clubs to be given in Washington next month will be Governor Hadley of Missouri, Governor Goldsborough of Maryland, former Vice-President Fairbanks of Indiana, Job Hedges of New York and John Hays Hammond of Massachusetts. John C. Capers, president of the league, will be toastmaster.

Governor W. R. Stubbs of Kansas, one of the original "progressives" as declared himself in favor of the nomination of Roosevelt for president. Governor Stubbs is a warm admirer of La Follette but believes that he should not be nominated for president for the reason that his removal from the progressive leadership of the senate would be to take a great factor for good out of that body and thereby weaken the cause.

The California Equal Suffrage Association which after thirty years of constant effort has succeeded in having the ballot conferred upon the women of the state, has decided to continue its organization in order to help the women of other states in their fight for the franchise.
