WATTERSON OFFERS AUTHORITY PROOFS TO SEN. TILLMAN

Col. Watterson Says He Was Authorized by Gov. Wilson

WILSON, IN BOSTON DENIES IT

Watterson Offered to Show Tillman Proofs as to His Authority to Collect Funds for Wilson Campaign—Tillman Refuses to See Them and Governor Wilson, from Boston, Denies Authority.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Col. Henry Watterson yesterday offered to submit to Senator Tillman his proofs that he had authority to solicit campaign funds for Gov. Wilson's campaign, and agreed that if the word of the senator as to their authenticity were not accepted, they should be submitted to a court of honor, composed of five gentlemen. This invitation to inspect the documents was declined by Mr. Tillman, who declared he was not a party to the quarrel between Col. Watterson and Gov. Wilson.

General Manager McCoombe, of the Wilson campaign, issued a statement in New York denying the colonel's story in total. To this Mr. Watterson declined to make reply, preferring to await something more specific from Gov. Wilson himself. Col. Harvey, likewise, refused to be drawn into the tangle any further, and remained silent. Late last night Gov. Wilson was seen in Boston, and made an emphatic denial of Col. Watterson's claims, denouncing them as absolutely unfounded. That statement came to Washington too late to reach Col. Watterson for any possible reply he might care to make.

PRESIDENT RYAN ACCUSES DETECTIVE

Head of Ironworkers Accuses Employee of Attorney

TRIED TO KILL HIM, RYAN SAYS

Detective in the Employ of Attorney Drew Asserts He Only Called on Ryan to Tell Him He was Being Shadowed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 29.—Charges that he assaulted and attempted to kill Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, were made in warrants issued tonight against Robert J. Foster, a detective.

Foster, a former captain of police at Louisville, Ky., who is employed by Walter Drew, counsel for the National Erectors' Association, in gathering evidence for the federal grand jury's investigation of the dynamite conspiracy, asserted he visited the ironworkers' headquarters today to inquire about a report that Mr. Drew was being "shadowed" about the country. Ryan declared after he had refused to discuss the subject and had forced the detective out the door, he was struck by Foster with a revolver. One of the warrants charges that Foster struck Ryan "with premeditated malice to kill and murder."

As soon as the warrants were issued in a justice of the peace court they were turned over to a constable to be served on Foster. It was announced that Foster later would submit to arrest.

In the absence of Mr. Drew in New York, Foster has been active in gathering evidence which the erectors' association wished to have presented to the grand jury.

CONGRESSMEN ARE ANGRY AT TAFT'S ACTION

Sixty Of Them Were To Visit Cuba on U. S. Cruiser

PRESIDENT OPPOSED TO TRIP

Executives Who Went to See Opening of Florida Oversea Railroad Ready to be Taken to Havana, When President Changes Plan—Was Afraid Cubans Might Feel Offended.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Sixty members of the house of representatives, who went to Key West, Fla., to witness the opening of the over-the-sea railroad from Miami to Key West, returned to Washington yesterday, each one nursing a grievance against President Taft.

Their indignation is due to the fact that the president denied them the use of the cruiser Washington for a trip to Havana, Cuba, where they expected to view the remains of the wreck of the battleship Maine. The trip to the Cuban capital had been arranged before the party left Washington more than a week ago.

None would discuss the incident yesterday, except to say that the president probably did what he thought was right and to express keen disappointment because of the failure of this part of their program.

The president, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, it is said, directed the commanding officer of the Washington not to make the proposed trip of 90 miles from Key West to Cuba, although the vessel had been prepared and was waiting for its congressional guests to go aboard.

The reason for the last-minute action of the chief executive was understood by the party to be that a visit to Cuba of an American warship, carrying a large number of members of congress, besides several government officials and foreign guests, would be susceptible of misinterpretation by the people of Cuba, who are now in the midst of a political upheaval.

GIRL DISSAPPEARS IN RICHMOND

Miss Williams Has Been Missing Since Tuesday

Had Told Woman With Whom She Roomed That She Would Return in a few Moments—Fear of Foul Play—Last Seen on Car.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 29.—Miss Nellie Hazel Williams, of Richmond, Va., disappeared on Tuesday from 1214 O street northwest, where she had been rooming for about two months. Except what she wore, she took no clothing with her. Despite search in Virginia and Maryland, private detectives have been unable to find her.

When private detectives failed, Mrs. M. Freeman, with whom the girl was living, notified Inspector Boardman at police headquarters. William Williams, a brother, of Richmond, was notified of his sister's disappearance yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Freeman and is expected to come to Washington this morning.

According to Mrs. Freeman the girl, who is 20 years old, left the house Tuesday morning, saying she was going to visit a friend and would return soon. When she did not return home that night, it was thought she was still with the girl on whom she had intended calling.

"I am certain Miss Williams did not elope," said Mrs. Freeman last night. "We have telephoned to nearby cities to learn whether she had been married, and there is no record of a marriage license bearing her name."

NEWS THROUGHOUT THE NORTH STATE

North Carolina News : : : In Brief

Prosperous Blind Tiger Landed.
Statesville.—Deputy Sheriff Gilbert arrested Otis McLelland for retelling. He was given a hearing before Justice King and pleaded guilty in default of a $500 bond has been placed in jail to await trial next week at Iredell Superior court. As soon as the arrest was made, Mr. Gilbert, with Sheriff Deaton made a search of the house of McLelland's father, with whom he lived. It was found that a room which adjoined that of the young man was being used for the purpose of dispensing liquor and wines. A number of empty kegs and bottles were found that three or four jugs, several quart bottles full of whiskey were evidences of the intent of McLelland's operations. The officers seized the lot and took it to the court house with the prisoner. His excuse for engaging in an illicit business was that he is not able to work, but from appearances he is by no means physically disabled.

Lutheran Laymen's Convention.

Salisbury.—Extensive preparations are now well under way for the opening of the Lutheran Laymen's Convention for the south which convenes in Salisbury February 7th for a three days session. It is confidently expected that five hundred to seven hundred delegates and visitors will attend the convention from all southern states. Visitors and speakers will also attend from many northern states and there will be several foreign visitors and speakers. Registrations have already been made from ten states and other names are coming on every mail. The speakers will include men of national reputation and the program now being arranged will be a strong one. The arrangements are in charge of Rev. Dr. E. C. Cronk, of Columbia, who has opened headquarters in Salisbury.

To Select Annual Meeting Place.

Rocky Mount.—This city will have as its guests Thursday, February 22, the officers and executive committee of the North Carolina Bankers' Association.

who have been called to meet at the Ricks hotel on that day for the decision of several matters of importance to the organization. The one item of considerable public interest at this meeting will be that of a place for holding of the annual convention this year. Several resorts and cities have already made bids for the convention, and it is known that these, along with the others who may make requests for the meeting will be heard and the indications now point to a lively bidding upon the part of many North Carolina cities and resorts for this annual meeting.

Hundred-Year Old Home Burns.

Winston-Salem.—More than a hundred years old was the dwelling house which was burned several days ago at the home place of Mr. J. A. Hege, of Enterprise, about ten miles from Winston-Salem. An interesting history attached to the old residence, which had been improved, of course, since its primitive construction, and four generations of the Hege family had been reared under its roof. The fire originated in a defective flue in the kitchen, it is believed. There was no insurance. There will be a new dwelling erected on the site for Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver's family, who were occupying the place at the time of the fire.

Must Pay Taxes.

Raleigh.—The North Carolina Corporation Commission, Commissioner Travis writing the opinion rules that the Oxford Seminary Construction Company which owns the property with which F. P. Haggood conducts that well known college for women, must be assessed in spite of the fact that it is used exclusively for the educational purposes. This ruling is on the ground that the construction company conducts no school, but rents the property at a profit for this purpose to Dr. Hobgood, who pays $250 a year rental, maintains the property insurance and interest on the corporate debt.

Try Richeson's Guard for Murder.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 29.—Harry Butts, the negro prisoner, who has set guard over Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson at the Charles street jail following the minister's self-mutilation, was placed on trial for his life in the superior criminal court today, charged with the murder of Robert Williamson. The alleged murder occurred on June 21 last and is said to have been the result of Williamson's attention to Mrs. Butts. Butts claims he shot in self-defense. One of the peculiar features of the case is that District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier was an eye witness to the crime, and will be the principal witness for the prosecution.

TAFT SPEAKS OF MENACE TO THE JUDICIARY

In Impassioned Speech in New York Taft Admits Faults

IS TRYING BEST TO ERADICATE THEM

If the Whims of the People Are to be Listened to the Judiciary is in Danger, He Declares—Present Government is Doing its Best to Eradicate Faults, But Must be Very Careful About It.

New York, Jan. 29.—On the eve of this three-day visit to Ohio, his home state, President Taft spoke tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria to the Ohio Society of New York, delivering probably the most impassioned speech he has made in many months, directed against the "nostrums of reform," and particularly aimed at the recall of judges.

In the efforts that have been made to reform legislation in this country, the president saw much that was good. He saw the faults of government in the United States today, and admitted that in trying to eradicate them much might be accomplished by reformers. But in the effort to make the judiciary responsive to every "whim" of the people he saw destruction. He declared that the conservative element of the nation must eventually "get together" to prevent a movement that would make the courts the creatures of popular will and might make the decision in every case not accord with the law, but accord with what a majority of the people thought the law should be.

"They are having a constitutional convention in Ohio," said the president, "and I am told that one of the propositions is to propose the judicial recall. Orators and statesmen are going up and down the country denouncing courts, pointing out their corrupt nature. The time is coming, in my judgment, when the conservative people of this country, who are in favor of the eternal principles of justice and their administration so as to make them prevail, should rise to meet these misguided supporters of an utterly indefensible theory and end the agitation against the courts."

Virginia To Be Asked State Appropriation

100 BLIND PLEAD FOR ADMISSION

It Has Been Ascertained That 100 Blind Negro Boys and Girls Are Pleading for Admission Into State Institutions.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 29.—Declarations by representatives that there were 100 blind negro boys and girls pleading for admission to the Virginia State School for Colored Deaf and Blind Children, at Newport News, Va., and that the accommodations of the institution were totally inadequate to care for them the joint committees on finance of the house and senate of the general assembly had the question of state aid for the institution put squarely up to them Thursday night, at a session which lasted until midnight.

The closing moment was marked by the presentation of a hand-knit slumbering robe to Committee Chairman Bowman and other presents for members of the committee. The presents were the handiwork of the blind and deaf inmates of the Newport News institution, and showed the wonderful possibilities which come from the training of those who otherwise would be state charges.

The bill providing for amending the constitution to permit women the right of franchise will be given a public hearing by the senate Monday night.

CONGRESS DEBATES ON STEEL BILL TILL MIDNIGHT

Bill Not Likely To Be Passed Till Late Today

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS ASSAILED

Republicans and Insurgents Fail to Amend Measure—A 35 Per Cent Reduction on all Metals in Sight—Provision to be Adopted Sometime Today.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—In order not to pass the metal tariff revision bill on Sunday morning, Democratic leaders of the house, after finishing the measure almost to the last paragraph, adjourned that body a few moments before midnight last night. They will pass it early tomorrow. All attempts of the Republicans to amend the measure failed. The session was marked by a sharp division between Democrats and insurgent Republicans and the open declaration of many of the insurgents that they would vote against the bill.

The bill as it will go to the state tomorrow will carry an average reduction of tariff duties on all metal articles of about 35 per cent from the rates of the Payne-Aldrich law, now in force. It is expected, if it becomes law, to increase imports by $25,000,000 and reduce revenues about $300,000.

Charges of "caucus domination" and "gag rule" were made repeatedly by Republicans, insurgents, and regulars, as Mr. Underwood applied the house rules to shut off debate and the amendments offered. Insurgent Leaders, of Nebraska, and Lenroot, of Wisconsin, charged the Democrats with denying the house a fair chance to consider the bill.

ENVOIOUS OF FAIR AMERICANS

German Women Resent Admiration For Americans

SPITE TO KEEP THEM FROM COURT

Kaiser Orders That Names of American Women be Kept Out of Reports of Official Receptions—Few to be Presented at Next Court.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—The explanation of the resentment expressed at the number of Americans to be presented at the kaiser's forthcoming court shows that jealousy was the motive. A German army officer in constant attendance at the court said today:

"No German woman is eligible for presentation unless of noble birth or the wife of an officer who has attained the rank of major, but all officers of the German army may attend court. In many cases the husband is admitted to the charmed circle, while the wife is excluded. The fact that many American women are received at court perhaps has incensed some daughters of the fatherland whose husbands, as junior officers, enjoy privileges to which their wives are not admitted. The fact is, the kaiser personally likes the society of Americans, and is always pleased to see them at court."

Although official circles consider the number of Americans annually presented is too great in comparison to other foreigners, Secretary Spencer, of the embassy, laughed at the idea of any official protest. He said the reception accorded Americans at court rather gave the impression that the court would be glad to see more of them. An American woman who was presented Friday said nothing could exceed the cordiality with which the Americans were received.

THE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

The temperance convention going on at Raleigh has proved a treat to the people of North Carolina who have followed in the columns of the press the different addresses made by prominent temperance men in the state.

"The people of North Carolina have put their hand to the plow in the matter of temperance and they will not turn back" is the way the News & Observer puts it and to judge by what has been going on at the convention that most excellent paper is only putting in print the spirit of the people.

It has been said time and again that prohibition cannot be enforced in the state, yet we are going the right way to discredit such statement. With the law acting as it should act, and the representative citizens of every community speaking the way they do, it is practically a fact that prohibition will be enforced and is being enforced in North Carolina.

Solicitor Heriot Clarkson of Charlotte spoke at the convention of some clubs as being nothing else than co-operative bar-rooms and cited several well known such institutions in some of the larger towns of the state. He is quite right. To what extent will prohibition go if men can for a sum of money which may or may not be "stiff" join a club where they will be able to purchase all the whiskey they want? The state should look well into the constitutions of some of these clubs and take its time about granting charters which will enable such institutions to successfully defy the law. Solicitor Heriot Clarkson also mentioned other clubs which have strictly adhered to the laws of the state and refuse to keep an open bar. The refusal is made all the easier from the fact that its members are more than willing to abide by the law and these clubs are models of membership, both in the number of its supporters and in the moral standing of them.

Right here in Greenville we have a flourishing institution with a membership which includes practically every business man of any standing and prohibition does not need to be afraid of a set-back from such a club.

Co-operation is what is needed for the successful enforcement of the prohibition law, and it certainly looks as if co-operation is forthcoming. To be sure, some breaking of the law is still in evidence in several parts of the state, but to those that make this their cry it should be said "Rome was not built in a day." Every habit, whether good, bad or indifferent takes some time to get out of, with the difference that it is always the worst habits that take the greatest trouble to eradicate.

For these reasons we believe that with the proper treatment prohibition will be enforced in our state. And we also thoroughly believe that we will be much better off when everybody comes to look at it from this point of view, for then we are sure that everybody will put his shoulder to the great work and success will be inevitable.

STILL THEY GO.

North Carolina has been the market where other states and even countries look for men who will lead great numbers. In education, as in church, does the old North State supply men to the outside world.

Right after Dr. Broughton was offered and accepted the call to Christ Church in London, another North Carolinian, Dr. Henry Lewis Smith, has been offered the presidency of Washington and Lee University, in Lexington, Va.

If he accepts this presidency North Carolina will be represented by its illustrious sons in five different leading educational institutions in the States.

The South has done great things. North Carolina many of them. And this development of great men with great minds is the greatest of them. A man may lead in business, in politics, in war. But, when he leads in church and education, he leads them all. And many such men claim North Carolina as their home state.

Some vagrants might make as good roads hands as blind tigers.

The ground hog will get his day this week, Friday, February 2nd.

In the controversy against Governor Wilson it looks like he is coming out much to the good

Count that day lost whose low descending sun finds that you have nothing for Greenville done.

The word has been used before, but it is certainly eggstraordinary that the hens are laying so few eggs.

Attorney General Bickett has construed the serving of wines or any kind of liquors in connection with banquets or meals for which charge is made, as a violation of the prohibition law, and steps will be taken to punish any future violators of this phase of the law. In some instances hotels have had wines and beers listed on their menus, but after this opinion by the attorney general there will likely be a change in this particular.

The meeting of the temperance forces of the state in Raleigh the last few days gave the cause of prohibition a great uplift. The people are coming together more and more for law enforcement, and it is not a far distant day when such a united appeal will be presented to congress as will result in the enactment of laws that will enable a state having prohibition to enforce the laws by preventing the shipping in of liquor from other states

"Pretty soon," says the Pensacola Journal, "we'll be seein' 'em in bathing suits." Must have powerful large bathing suits down on the Florida coast, when he had always labored under the impression they were of pillow dimensions, such as Bob Phillips, we believe it was, accused Whichard, of the Greenville Reflector, of having.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Aw, shut up. What do you want to be jabbing a fellow like this for after the ground hog comes and goes? We've got that same "envelope" bath suit on top for use when the weathr quits freezing, provided Cowan sends along his bid to come down.

Epictetus and Agriculture.
Addressing the graduating class of the public school No. 160 on "What Constitutes Real Success and How to Attain It," Mayor Gaynor said: "The best opening I know of is farming. There are not enough boys going at it."

This counsel is not surprising from a mayor who recalls with longing the old days when he listened with youthful rapture to "the singing of the hens" in the barnyard, but it is not what we have a right to expect from an apostle of Epictetus. The ancient sage based his philosophy frankly and candidly upon the teachings of experience. He taught as truth only such things as could be proved by experiment. And he never advised anybody to take to farming.

Among the industries of our time involving the investment of capital there is not one more complex in its nature or more uncertain in its conditions than farming, nor is there one requiring a larger and more accurate knowledge of many things or a more careful and careless labor. A man must have capital wherewith to farm; he must understand the natures of soils, grains, grasses, fruits, trees, horses, cows, chickens, hired men and markets. Moreover, he must be able to forecast the consequences of sun and wind and rain and blight and mildew and insect pests. He must know how to gather his crops in season and sell them in some instances 3,000 miles away. Most boys do not take to this. There are other things less difficult and just as poetic.—New York World.

A Distinguished Visitor.

The unofficial visit paid this week to this country by his royal highness,

Arthur, Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada and only surviving son of the late Queen Victoria has given little old New York one of the most appreciated free shows it has had in a great many months. Each and every move of the duke, the duchess and their daughter, Princess Patricia, has been watched by as large a crowd as circumstances would permit and the number of camera fiends who have snapped the party to their hearts content is simply not to be estimated.

These latter days are not particularly rose-strewn for scions of royal lines but the Duke of Connaught seems to have lived a very useful life in spite of his proximity to the British throne. As an infant of a few weeks he received the blessing of the aged Duke of Wellington and took his name in a baptismal ceremony in which the duke acted as sponsor. After such a debut he could scarcely have been other than a soldier and a soldier and administrator he has been—apparently performing what duties came in his way with hearty good will although without any undue cleverness.

As governor general of our nearest neighbor it was an excellent thing for the duke of refresh the impressions of America he may still have by him from his only other visit to us nearly half a century ago. It was a good thing for him to run down to Washington and say "howdy" to "Big Bill" Taft and his folk. The visit will necessarily tie tighter the bonds of good feelings already connecting the two countries. The fact that it was unofficial rather than formal gave him a much greater chance for such good results.—Charlotte News.

Imprisoned bird, how can thou sing
As if 'twas early morn
And from the blue o'er sparkling

Thy song was born?

Thy world is now a little cage
Hung on a dusty street
And with the sound of heavy wheels
Thy strains complete.

Ah, if thou canst from just the rays
That on thy prison fall
Find and float forth thy happiness
So may we all!

So may we all for little things
Pour out our hearts in praise
And in the sun of what we have
Find singing days

Dr. Potat Tonight at Training School.

Greenville people certainly should appreciate the opportunities that come to them of frequently hearing noted educators who come to deliver lectures at the Training school. In the last few months such men as Dr. Smith, of Davidson College, Dr. Venable, of the University, Prof. Barnes, of Girard College, Philadelphia, Prof. Graham, of the University, and others have visited the school here, and tonight Dr. Potat, president of Wake Forest College, will be here. President Wright is constantly looking out to bring the best before the pupils of the Training school, and the invitation is extended the people of Greenville and community to hear these noted educators when they come. A rare treat is in store for all who hear Dr. Potat tonight.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Two persons were received by letter into the membership of the Baptist church at the service Sunday morning.

As threatening as the day looked, we came through Sunday without getting any snow.

Manager Phillips is now at work preparing to issue a new telephone directory for the local and county exchanges, and the copy for this will soon be in the hands of the printers. Persons who are contemplating putting in telephones should do so now in time for them to be listed in the new directory, so that it can be as complete as possible.

Y. W. C. A. Services.

The Sunday evening services of the Y. W. C. A. were conducted by three of the young ladies. Miss Hazel Armstrong read the Scripture lesson. Miss Ethel Perry, on Lifters as Leaders, and Miss Luella Lancaster, on Learning, made good, strong talks, full of wholesome spirit and showing an understanding of student's problems from the view point of girls among girls.

INCREASE PASTOR'S SALARY.

Memorial Baptist Church Votes Unanimously for This.

After the morning service in Memorial Baptist church Sunday, the members held a meeting to hear a report and recommendations of the finance committee. The financial condition of the church made such an excellent showing that a motion to increase the salary of the pastor, Rev. C. M. Rock from $1,200 to $1,500, received the unanimous vote of all present. This was entirely without the knowledge of the pastor, and at the evening service after being informed of the action of the church, he expressed his appreciation of the esteem in which the people and congregation hold him.

Mr. Rock began his pastorate of the church here on the first Sunday in March of last year, and the church has gone forward in all its work under his ministry and leadership. In the eleven months 65 members have been added to the church. Besides being an able preacher, the church has not had a pastor loved more by all people of the community than Mr. Rock.

Mr. W. R. Wilson Sick.

Today Mr. W. B. Wilson received a telegram stating that his son, Mr. W. R. Wilson, who is at West Point, was seriously ill with pneumonia. Mr. Wilson leaves this evening for West Point to be with his son.

MEN'S PRAYER LEAGUE.

Chooses Officers for the Present Year. The meeting of the Men's Prayer League in the Presbyterian church, Sunday afternoon was not largely attended, but it was up to the standard in interest. The subject was "How to Obtain Wisdom," and the leaders, Messrs. Robert Humber, Jr., A. C. Holoman and J. B. Little all made good talks. Robert Humber, who is but 13 years of age, is the youngest leader who has yet spoken at any meeting of the league, and his talk Sunday, and his knowledge of the Scriptures was remarkable for one so young. Mr. J. W. Martin, a visitor from the country, was so impressed with the work of the league that he expressed his pleasure at being present in an enthusiastic and interesting talk. A committee appointed a week ago to recommend officers of the league for this year made their report, which was adopted, the officers being as follows:

President, C. W. Wilson.
Vice President, H. B. Smith.
Chairman devotional committee, D. J. Whichard.
Chairman charity committee, G. E. Harris.

The meeting next Sunday afternoon will be held in the Christian church. Subject, "Faith and Works." Text, James 2:18. Leaders, Messrs. D. C. Beach, C. C. Pierce and R. M. Hearne.

An Indoor Track Meet.

The Y. W. C. A. of the Training school gave to the school on Saturday evening a nique social entertainment, an indoor track meet, a burlesque on fields sports.

The centre of the reaction hall was roped off for the sports and the spectators banked along the walls. Misses Day and Morrill, masters of ceremony, ushered in the line of contestants, two from each class for each of the six contestants. First was the 30-yard dash; the sport was to see who could eat the marshmellow at the end of a 30 in. string first without aid of hand. Second was the short put, to see who could drop the most beans into glass on the floor. In the third, throwing the banners, empty paper bags were substituted for the banners. The broad grin was measured in the fourth. The relay race, the fifth, was to prove which could make a soda cracker disappear first. The sixth, the foot race, was to test the length of foot represented by each class.

The judges announced that the junior class had made the most points. President Wright delivered to them a one handled tin loving cup. There was much class spirit manifested as each couple of contestants came forth to compete for the honor of her class.

Mr. Austin, as manager of sports, giving directions in a stentorian voice through a megaphone and throwing in apt remarks, added much to the evening. A third of the guests at a time were served dainty refreshments in the Y. W. C. A. hall, which was beautifully decorated in green vines, plants and gray moss. The guests awaiting their turn were entertained by a Capital Punishment contest, a blood curdling story in the dark and by singing jolly songs.

The entertainment was full of snap, interest and class spirit.

At the New York headquarters of the United Garment Workers of America it is announced that preparations are being made for a secret ball lot on a proposed nation-wide strike. It is claimed that the strike, if called, will affect 125,000 garment workers in New York and 150,000 throughout the country.

The employes and clerks of the Toronto, Ont., Post Office have started a movement to organize the staff of clerks and letter carriers for the purpose of making a demand upon the government for a better rate of pay than that which clerks and letter carriers now receive. If some consideration cannot be obtained, it is hinted that a strike may result that will tie up the service.

SNEAD CASE UP.

Great Interest is Manifested in the Snead-Boyce Case.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 29.—Public interest in the Snead-Boyce sensation was revived today when the case of J. B. Snead was called in court for trial. Snead is to be tried on a charge of first degree murder. His victim was A. C. Boyce, Sr., whom he shot and killed in the lobby of a local hotel on January 13. The killing was a sequel to the elopement last November of Snead's wife and A. C. Boyce, Jr., son of the man whom Snead killed. A few days before the tragedy Snead, who is a prominent banker of Amarillo, had returned with his wife from Winnipeg where he found her in company with the younger Boyce. Able counsel has been retained to defend Snead and preparations for a great legal fight are being made. The younger Boyce has remained in Canada since his release by the Winnipeg authorities and it is not believed that he will return to Fort Worth for the trial of his father's slayer. Neither is anything definitely known as to the part Mrs. Snead, wife of the accused, will play in the trial. Immediately after the return from Winnipeg the banker placed his wife in a sanitarium, where she had been confined previous to the elopement. After the killing of the elder Boyce she left the sanitarium and is now believed to be sheltered by relatives.

On Prussian state railways the predominant working hours are eight to nine and nine to ten. More than half the locomotive and plate layers work less than nine hours, but 54 per cent of pointsmen and signalmen are on for ten to twelve.
