SEN. OVERMAN FOR FREE SUGAR

Always Objected to Taxation of "Necessities"

EXCISE TAX "CONSTITUTIONAL"

Tar Heel Senator Has Declared Himself in Favor of Free Sugar And Will Support The House Sugar Programme.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—Senator Overman, of North Carolina, will support the house sugar program which includes free sugar and an excise tax in the belief that the two companion policies are sound, according to a statement he made today in discussing the action of the house democrats in caucus last night. "I will stand by the house program of free sugar," said Senator Overman, "because I have always opposed taxation on necessities of life. I believe that an excise tax or an income tax from which the proposed excise tax differs in some ways, contrary to the claims of its opponents, is eminently just."

"More than two-thirds of the states including North Carolina, have already adopted the constitutional amendment providing for an income tax and it is only a question of a short time, I believe before there will be an out and out federal income tax. The two bills will make an exceedingly popular issue on which to face the people."

Labor Leader Goes on Stand And Tells Real Conditions of Laborers in Massachusetts Town—Member of Citizens Committee of Lawrence Objects.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—At the conclusion for the day of an unusual hearing before the House Committee on Rules on bills proposing an investigation of conditions relating to the strike of textile workers at Lawrence, Mass. Representative Victor Berger of Wisconsin and Robert McCartney of the Citizens Committee of Lawrence almost came to blows. They were separated by Representative Wilson of Illinois.

The Rules Committee had adjourned the hearing to be resumed on Monday, necessitating the stay in Washington of women and children from the Lawrence woolen mills who had been sent here to give testimony concerning strike conditions.

"Who is going to pay the expenses of these people?" asked Representative Berger, the Socialist member of the House, as the committee was about to adjourn.

MRS. ANNA ABERNETHY DIES IN CHAPEL HILL LAST FRIDAY

MOTHER OF SOLICITOR CHAS. L. ABERNETHY DIED AT CHAPEL HILL—SONS ALL ATTAINED PROMINENCE

RALEIGH, N. C., March 3.—Dr. C. O. Abernethy returned yesterday afternoon from Chapel Hill where he went to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Abernethy, who died the evening before in Chapel Hill. Mrs. Abernethy had been ill but a few days, three in fact, pneumonia of a malignant type developing the middle of the week. She was sixty-one years of age and this told in the resistance offered to such a treacherous disease.

Mrs. Abernethy was the wife of the late Rev. John T. Abernethy, Methodist minister and twenty years professor of Mathematics at Rutherford College in the western part of the state. He died in Enfield in the summer of 1899 and she has lived a considerable portion of her life in Chapel Hill. She leaves seven children. Five of these are boys and have gained prominence in the world. They are Solicitor Charles L. Abernethy of Beaufort, Dr. Eric A. Abernethy of Chapel Hill, B. S. and I. B. Abernethy of New York and Dr. C. O. Abernethy of this city. Mr. B. S. Abernethy has returned to the South and is not living in New York at this time. There are two daughters, Miss Dora E. Abernethy of Roxobel and Miss Dora Abernethy of Farmington, Davis county.

Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, was the first to contribute and Representative Berger held the hat. Several Lawrence young women collected the contributions, which came from men and women in the committee room.

Proclamation Issued to Americans in Mexico

President Taft Warns all American Residents of Neighboring Republic to leave—Mexican Situation is Nearing Crisis—Already exodus has Commenced—Proclamation Means U. S. Government will steer Clear of Intervention

There is Belief That The Proclamation Does Not Really Mean That Uncle Sam Has Lost All Hope of Restoration of Peace in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The gravity of the situation in Mexico caused President Taft today to issue a proclamation virtually warning American citizens to refrain from entering that country and those now resident there to leave when conditions threaten to become intolerable. The decision to issue such a warning was reached at a special meeting of the cabinet.

The proclamation was augmented by a telegram addressed by the state department to Ambassador Wilson, in the city of Mexico. The ambassador was instructed to inform Americans in peril there to withdraw across the border, leaving their effects in the care of the nearest United States consul. Copies of the telegram were sent to all consular agents.

The president's utterance it was explained, was in no sense a recognition of the revolutionary movement in the sister republic to the south. Neither was it to be looked upon as a declaration of neutrality. It was declared the utterance was solely a warning to Americans to avoid anything that might savor of partisanship in the existing state of affairs. State department officials insisted that the issuance of the proclamation and the dispatch of telegrams to Ambassador Wilson and the American consul in Mexico were not the result of startling or sensational developments today in the Mexican situation. It was said they were the result of many conferences in the past few days and of long exchanges by wire between the department and Mr. Wilson in the City of Mexico. Because of the interest felt by European nations, many of whose subjects are residents in Mexico, the department has fully advised with their diplomatic representatives in Washington.

It was also stated that today's action was not to be regarded as indicating that the administration had abandoned hope of the speedy restoration of peaceful conditions. Such hope, it is said, was entertained and the proclamation and instructions to Ambassador Wilson were expected to aid in bringing about peace, in addition to safeguarding the interest of Americans in Mexico and allaying anti-American sentiment in that country.

The task of warning Americans to flee the country will be left to Ambassador Wilson and American citizens are urged to heed his advice. The state department has added that such fugitives from Mexico might expect to obtain redress for losses just as soon as tranquility was restored.

S. C. TO BEGIN INVESTIGATION

EVEN GOVERNOR BLEASE HIMSELF IS SUBJECT TO INVESTIGATION UNDER THE RESOLUTION

COLUMBIA, S. C., March.—Next Thursday will see the beginning of what may develop into a reopening of the affairs of the old state dispensary. On that day the special legislative committee appointed at the last session will begin its work. The committee is empowered to act with the widest possible latitude, the resolution calling for its appointment including with the scope of the proposed investigation practically everybody who ever had anything to do with the state dispensary. That is, the committee is empowered to go in to the dealing of the old directors, of the legislative investigating committee which led to the now notorious exposures of graft, of the winding-up commission and of the second winding-up commission appointed by Governor Blease when he removed the first. Besides this, the Governor himself is subject to investigation under the resolution.

STOCK LAW FENCE CUT.

Opponents Resort to Illegal Methods.

It is commonly rumored on the streets today that the portion of the new stock law fence that was erected before the injunction was started, has been cut to pieces. The report says that parties had gone the whole length of the fence and cut it in two every few yards. We regret to have to state that there are people of Pitt county who would resort to steps of this kind.

BILLS BELONGED TO EVERHARDT'S

PRISONER ACCUSED OF EVERHARDT'S DEATH CONTINUES TO KEEP IN GOOD SPIRITS—SMILES TO ALL

LEXINGTON, N. C., March 4.—The state again took up the task of piecing up evidence against young Robt. L. Leonard, charged with the murder of Charles Everhardt, which occurred November 25th. Leonard continued to keep his nerve and spent the morning playing wit his two babies. He has a ready smile for everything and apparently has no fear of the outcome of the case.

There was a sharp clash between counsel over the identification of a one dollar bill, said to have been in the possession of Charles Everhardt Monday before he was killed. It is asserted that this bill was turned over to J. M. Norris, a merchant of Thomasville, in paying for a sewing machine by Robert Leonard on the same night Everhardt was killed. The bill was presented in evidence and was positively identified by Edgar Swicegood as having been in Everhardt's possession.

TO BACK PROPER MEN IS SLOGAN

Pitt County Farmers are going to do so

IN NEXT DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

Owing to the hour in which Saturday's mass meeting of Pitt county farmers was held we were unable to give a complete account of what transpired.

Following Lawyer Evans' speech denouncing that part of the legislature which betrayed the faith of the farmer the attendance resolved that they were entirely opposed to such action by the legislature and further resolved that they should be properly represented and their interests properly looked after. For this purpose such men as are in accordance with their views will receive full support in the coming Democratic primaries.

A platform was made up and the following resolutions were adopted:

1. That the farmers of Pitt county are in favor of being advised when changes in the legislature are about to take place and such changes are of importance to them. That in all matters of local issue they should be consulted before action is taken.
2. That the farmers of Pitt county believe the county already heavily bonded and are against any further issue of bonds except where other means are totally inaccessible; that is outside of cities and towns.
3. That they are in favor of good roads, but without bond issue and that they believe the road convict force is worked in a manner which benefits the county little if at all. Also that same county convict force is not worked along economical lines.
4. That the existing county home is a disgrace to the county and that a new one should be erected and properly maintained.

OPENED-EYED JUSTICE.

The originator of the idea that Justice goes adound prouetting on domes of buildings where she is dispensed with an old rapier in one hand, a pair of scales in the other and a broad band across her eyes, hit the nail square on his thumb.

Witness the case of the Carnegie polish employee who through the inability of expression and the unfortunate lack of means got convicted of a murder which somebody else committed. After serving twenty years of a life sentence for the alleged crime, a dying man confessed the crime and the government making use of its clemency, graciously pardoned him—yes, pardoned him for something he had never done. The handsome Carnegie, he of library, scholarship and peace-fund fame, came to the rescue and calling to mind the poor fellow had a week's salary due him in the Co's books, decided to pay him the week's wages with interest accruing during the twenty years of imprisonment. With this handsome reward a broken-down old man with the prison pallor on his cheeks was sent out to begin all over again. Tell that man about Justice and his failure to "start something" will be only due to want of energy and spirit that must belong to a man who has served twenty long years. Coming to a more recent case—Brandt, a young Swede, who was once a valet for Schieff, after serving five years of a thirty year sentence for an alleged assault and robbery has succeeded in having his case reopened and surprising facts have come already to the surface—facts which strongly lead to believe that Brandt has been the victim of otherwise than blind justice.

In opposition to these two cases we are glad to see that now and then things are changed and that Justice is fair. In the Tarboro Southerner we see where a dispatch from "Le Temps" tells of a man who after serving a long part of a sentence was found innocent. The court of assizes awarded him damages to the extent of thirty thousand francs, or six thousand dollars and furthermore that all important dailies of the country tell of his innocence. Now that's something like Justice. What is a gracious pardon to a man who has been snatched from his family, his friends his country, thrust into the confinement of a 10x6 cell and told to expiate some crime which he never did commit. The best in the land is not enough for that man and yet a country which will worship some heroes to the border of idolatry, will simply "pardon" such a man and release him into the midst of a society which must be hateful to him for the little interest it showed when it failed to investigate his own particular case to the point where his innocence would have been made clear. Society is there to protect itself and every one of its members and when society through its representatives, the government, makes a mistake should not be backward in making the kind of apology that will assuage most.

THE STOCK LAW CASE.
 Last Saturday morning a representative crowd of Pitt county farmers gathered in the court house and in words which admit no doubt strongly resented the thrusting upon them of the Stock-Law.

It is right that the farmers of this county should get together to discuss a subject which so concerns them and we are glad to see them do it. We sincerely hope that they will obtain what they need. Nobody is in a better position to understand these needs than themselves. For this reason, we repeat it, we are glad they took the step that they did take. Now there is one thing that we would like to mention in connection with this mass meeting. The Reflector has in every occasion done all in its power to be of service to the farmers of the county and will continue this policy whenever the farmers are right as they are in this question.

Unfortunately a something happened previous to this mass meeting for which the wilful and malignant and there are bound to be some everywhere, tried to tax The Reflector. Through no specific fault of anybody when we announced the mass meeting a mistake was made in the date. Absolutely no harm was meant by it and it was the kind of a mistake which is liable to happen in the best regulated paper. We are sorry the mistake was made and would have made the change and prominently made mention of it had our attention been called to it. But it was not. At least not until the evening previous to the meeting. And when our attention was called to it, the complaint was formulated with insinuations unworthy of a hearing. Being at fault we did listen very patiently. And as far as we are concerned got our own reward.

Now we want to be understood. To those farmers who, through our mistake failed to attend last Saturday's meeting, we sincerely apologize for a purely innocent mistake. To those who tried to make of our mistake a wilful act, entirely in discord with our policy towards the Pitt county farmer, we have nothing to say. Roosevelt would call them "muck-rakers". We don't call them anything.

Greenville is going to be a good town in spite of the do-nothing attitude of some of her citizens who ought to be doing much toward making her go forward.

Sometimes very small men seek notoriety by standing up and maligning men of large caliber, but is has about the same effect as a fly lighting on a horse's back.

We have had "a look at the books," and the way subscriptions to stock were going down the column that new hotel seems certain.

The Democratic party has had many knocks in its day and time, but it goes right on doing business.

When you pitch and cultivate your crops this year have an eye to the Pitt County Fair next fall.

A year from today the country will be inaugurating a Democratic president.

The streets now show where the split log drag missed its opportunity.

The Senatorial Fight.

Governor Kitchin opened his campaign for the senate in a speech before the "Office Holders' Club" in Raleigh last Friday night. Judging by reporters there was very little enthusiasm and the speech fell flat. He denounced Senator Simmons severely but announced no principles for which he stood, except that he wanted the place—which is nothing new, as it is said by men who know the Governor that he has been "wanting something" ever since he reached his majority. If, by denouncing Simmons' record in the Senate Governor Kitchin hopes to draw public attention away from his own reactionary record as Governor, The Herald thinks he is doomed to disappointment. In our opinion the majority of the Democrats in the State are disgusted with the records of both of them and are only awaiting the psychological moment, as it were, when they will kick them into everlasting darkness.

In this connection it may be well to state that none of the candidates except Judge Clark has had the courage to say for what he stands and those who stand with him represent principles and are willing to work for the election of men who will enact laws to secure the measures which they deem for the public welfare. As to the others, it seems to be only a question that one wishes to keep the place and the other two want to get it.

The news from all over the state indicates that while machine politicians, who have been enlisted for some time back by Simmons and Kitchin, are noisy, the great masses have not yet taken any interest. They are now beginning to sit up and take notice and wherever the views for which Judge Clark stands are presented to them and properly discussed they are lining up behind him. The people know that Judge Clark will stand by his principles after he is elected just the same as he does BEFORE his is elected; they also know that the same can truthfully be said of neither Simmons nor Kitchin.—Madison Herald.

Under the full heat of campaign discussions, it became necessary for the Democratic party to explain its position more fully upon this plank of the platform and this was done in a circular sent out from the State Democratic headquarters as an amendment to the Democratic hand-book for that year. This circular, of which were 40,000 printed and sent out, explained that the Democratic party stood for the removal of the tariff upon lumber only upon the condition that the tariff upon all machinery which entered into the manufacture of lumber should likewise be removed. About that time, Congressman Claude Kitchin, a brother of Governor Kitchin, made two or more speeches in Stanly county and some of our most prominent Democrats who heard him, say that he forcibly set forth this explanatory view, and his speeches were, in every respect, in hearty accord with the position held by Senator Simmons upon this self-same question. As a matter of order that the full truth be known, it is a matter of right that these facts become known, since the advocates of the Governor and his brother cite both as the living embodiment of Democratic virtues and truth. It would seem to us that Senator Simmons is wholly consistent, and that Congressman Kitchin is not in harmony with his own expressed sentiments of the campaign of 1908, for there is no room for doubting that his speeches in Stanly county in the campaign of 1908 would fully exonerate Senator Simmons of the charges now being advanced by Governor Kitchin.—The Abemarle Enterprise.

It is often difficult to tell whether a woman's laughter means tears or her tears mean laughter.

It sometimes happens that a pair of lunatics manage to keep out of an asylum by being engaged to each other.

The average woman doesn't care what the price of an article is so long as it is advertised as "below cost."

The Chicago negro condemned to death on finger print evidence felt himself the victim of a Black Hand outrage doubtless.

Nobody would have thought that Colonel Roosevelt could just sit and sit and think so long.

Lorrimerism, the issue, is a great deal bigger than Lorimer, the man.

However it will be quite impossible for the enthusiasts to nominate Theodore if Taft gets the delegates.

Editor Watterson in discussing the Wilson-Harvey incident cannot refrain from adding the "to be continued" line each time.

That Texas judge that fined himself for licking the man who called him a liar, should take an appeal to the higher court.

MY MISTRESS' BOOTS

They nearly strike me dumb,
And I tremble when they come Pit-a-pat;
This palpitation means
That these boots are Geraldine's—Think of that!

O where did the hunter win
So delectable a skin
For her feet?
You lucky little kid
You perished, so you did,
For my sweet!

The fairy stitching gleams
On the sides, and in the seams,
And it shows
That the Pixies were the wags
Who tip't these funny tags,
And those toes.

The simpletons who squeeze
Their extremities to please Mandarins,
Would positively flinch
From venturing to pinch Geraldine's.

What soles to charm an elf!
Hah Crusoe, sick of self,
Chanced to view
One printed near the tide,
Oh how hard he would have tried
For the two!

For Gerry's debonair,
And innocent and fair
As a rose
She's an angel in a frock,
With a fascinating cock
To her nose.

Cinderella's lefts and rights
To Geraldine's were frights;
And, I trow,
The damsel, deftly shod,
Has dutifully trod
Until now.

Come Gerry, since it suits
Such a pretty Puss (in Boots)
These to don,
Set this dainty hand awhile
On my shoulder, dear, and I'll Put them on.

—Frederick Locker.

STATE AND COUNTY NEWS

WAKE FOREST, N. C., March 4.—
The preliminary debate was held on Thursday evening to decide the representatives of Wake Forest in the Baylor-Wake Forest debate on Easter Monday resulted in the selection of R. S. Pruett and S. C. Hillard as the speakers. B. V. Ferguson was chosen as alternate. There were eight men in the final contest. The question, Resolved, that the Initiative, Referendum and Recall, (the recall not to apply to the judiciary) are wise government policies.

Wake Forest has the affirmative of this question and will meet Baylor University on the eight of April in Waco, Texas. This is the first debate of a series of three that will be held between these two institutions, providing one of the two does not win the first two debates of the series. The debate next year will be held at Raleigh on Easter Monday evening. Should there be a third debate it will be held at Macon, Ga.

This is a strong debating team we are sending to the great State of Texas and we are going to make it a very interesting time on Easter Monday evening for Baylor team.

Possibly the people of Pitt would be interested to know that Wake Forest has never in all of its history lost a series of debates. Therefore, we are not expecting to lose this series with the University of Texas.

The base ball season has begun.
Coach Thompson has out an excellent squad of men. The prospects are that we will have a better team this year than last year. Coach is working the men very hard. The first game of the season will be played on the 16th of April.

The prospects for track is better this year than at any time in the history of this phase of athletics in our college. It has had a struggle from the very first and is now on very sound bases. For the first time in the history here, the college has given us a Coach and we are going to put out a strong team this season.
We will have about six meets this season. They will be announced later.

AVOID HARSH DRUGS.

Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing, and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery.
Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless, and colorless. Combined with other well-known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy.
They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever.
They do not gripe, purge, nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons, and aged people, as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in three size packages
12 tablets, 30 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain them only at our stores—The Rexall Store.

PASTOR'S ANNIVERSARY.

Splendid Year's Work at Memorial Baptist Church.

Sunday was the anniversary of Rev.
C. M. Rock's pastorate of Memorial Baptist church, he having taken charge of the church on the first Sunday in March, 1911. He did not preach a regular sermon Sunday morning, but made an interesting talk on the work of the year, and how in every way the church helped and encouraged him in his efforts to advance Christ's kingdom. While his first duty was to the church of which he was pastor, he had not hesitated at any and all times wherever he could be of service or render aid to the needy. During the year he received 66 members into the church and the offerings for all objects were largely increased.

Mr. Rock has truly been a factor in the spiritual and moral uplift of the community and he has a strong hold on the affections of his church and all people here.

No Prayer League Sunday.

The snow Sunday afternoon called off the meeting of the Men's Prayer League that was to have been held in the Presbyterian church. The same subject and leaders and place of meeting will be the program for next Sunday.

Beautiful Duet.

At the service in the Baptist church Sunday morning Misses Arlene Joyner and Marjorie Davis, students of the Training School, sang a beautiful duet for the offertory. Both these young ladies have excellent voices and their song was much enjoyed.

Another Snow.

In keeping with every Sunday so far this year bringing bad weather, the Sunday just passed did not prove an exception. The day began raw and cloudy and about midday snow began falling. This kept up through the afternoon, covering the ground to the depth of about an inch, but sleet came early in the night and took the snow away.

Club Meets.

The Sans Souci Book Club will meet with Miss Mary Higgs on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

ANSWERS THE CALL.
Greenville People Have Found That This is True.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench. A little cause may hurt the kidneys. Spells of backache often follow. A splendid remedy for such attacks. A medicine that has cured thousands.

Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a true kidney remedy.

Many Greenville, people rely on it. Here is Greenville proof.

L. W. Lawrence, 311 Washington St., Greenville, N. C., says: "I am pleased to make the fact known that I have been greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, which I obtained from the John L. Wooten Drug Co. Too frequent passages of the kidney excretions annoyed me and I often noticed that the flow was scanty. I took Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and since then my kidneys have been in much better condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan—and take no other.

MERCHANTS, TAKE NOTICE.
That the last legislature passed an act forbidding the sale of 22-cartridges that are commonly used in 22-rifles, and can be used in 22-pistols, without paying a license tax. I have been informed that several merchants throughout the county are selling such cartridges and it is unlawful to do so. All who continue to sell them after this date will have to pay the required tax for selling pistols and cartridges.

Pin Knights Invade Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., March 4.—The greatest aggregation of ten pin players in the history of the sport has assembled in Chicago to take part in the 12th annual championship tournament under the auspices of the American Bowling Congress, which begins tonight at the International Amphitheatre, to continue for three full weeks. From New York to San Francisco the alley men are swarming in, to compete for the honors and cash prizes and to enroll themselves as guests at the Chicago Bowling Tournament Company, host for the championship tournament. The company is headed by Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, who declares that nothing will be left undone to contribute to the entertainment of the visitors.

Many of the visitors will not get to town for a week or ten days, owing to the fact that the first week of the tournament will be given over to the Chicago bowlers. Beginning a week from today the visiting teams and individual bowlers will have their innings. The hottest kind of competition is looked for in all the events, five men, two men and individual. Milwaukee, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Louisville, Omaha, Kansas City, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Denver, Seattle, Los Angeles, and numerous other large cities of the country are sending their best players. South Bend, Hammond, Oshkosh and numerous smaller cities within a radius of 500 miles will have their men here, anxious to compare their skill with that of the big city players.

The annual meeting of the American Bowling Congress, controlling organization of the game, will be held next Friday, and when the election of new officers comes up a hot fight is looked for. Robert Bryson, of Indianapolis, president of the organization for several years, has declined to run again and a spirited fight is on for the place between "Judge" Howard of Chicago, chairman of the executive committee and J. D. Wooster Lambert of St. Louis.

Bay State Progressives Are Hopeful.
BOSTON, Mass., March 4.—The opening gun in the campaign to swing Massachusetts into the Progressive Republican column at the election next fall will be fired tomorrow night. The local committee of the organization has completed arrangements for a mass meeting to be held at that time in Tremont temple, with Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, Governor W. R. Stubbs, of Kansas and former Governor J. Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, as the head-line speakers. The personnel of the speakers' list is taken to indicate that the affair is to be a Roosevelt demonstration, though the promoters of the meeting declare that its sole object is to boom the progressive cause in this state, without regard to any individual candidate.

The political situation in Massachusetts this year is regarded as peculiar and unless all signs go astray the Old Bay state, for many years looked upon as rock-ribbed Republican, will be as well worth looking after by the G. O. P. managers as some of the other state have been known in the past as "doubtful."

Encouraged by the re-election of Governor Foss last fall the Progressive Republicans propose to see what they can do to prevent a solid delegation being sent to the Chicago convention for President Taft. The Progressives say that Governor Foss' reelection proves two things, first that there is a strong progressive element in the state which is willing to support a Progressive candidate, and secondly that a great many Republicans are dissatisfied with President Taft and his administration and took the only means in their power to show their disapproval by voting for the Democratic candidate for governor. The president's championing of reciprocity, say the Progressives, was resented by the farmers, who voted for Governor Foss, not because he was opposed to reciprocity, but to show their disapproval of the president's action. Business men, they also claim, voted against the Repub-

Repeals Attack of Death.
"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die with consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." Its folly to suffer with coughs, colds or throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE PRESENT WEEK

Washington, March 2.—President Taft, among the numerous entries in the presidential race, promises to be most in the public eye during the week ending to his western trip. The president is going to Chicago to speak Saturday night at a meeting to be held under the auspices of the Illinois Swedish-American Republican league in celebration of the semi-centennial anniversary of the battle between John Ericsson's Monitor and the Confederate ram Merrimac. On his way to Chicago the president will stop in Toledo, where, it is announced, he will make a speech that will be an answer to Mr. Roosevelt's recent speech at Columbus.
Several of the southern states are to receive attention from Harmon and Wilson, the rival aspirants for the Democratic presidential nomination. Governor Wilson has accepted an invitation to address the Maryland legislature Thursday evening, while Governor Harmon is expected to speak before both the Maryland and Virginia lawmakers during the week.
State conventions to choose delegates to the Republican national convention will be held during the week in Alabama and New Mexico. It is regarded as likely that fights between the Taft supporters and Roosevelt supporters for control may develop in each of these conventions.
President Taft, Cardinal Gibbons and other men of national prominence will take part in the twelfth annual meeting of the National Civic Federation, which will meet in Washington Tuesday for a three days' session. "Industrial Peace and Progress" will be the general theme of consideration, with an exhaustive discussion of the practical operation of trade agreements between employers and employees.
At a meeting called at Kansas City next Monday plans are to be perfected for the formation of a territorial federation of railroad shop employees that will include every railroad operating west of the Mississippi river. As soon as the organization is launched demands are to be made for a general advance in wages on every road.
As a result of the municipal election Tuesday, Seattle may be the first large city of the United States to adopt the single tax. On that the voters will pass on the Erickson single tax amendment to the city charter. Broadly stated, the amendment proposes to exempt all buildings and personal property from city taxes and confine the taxes wholly to land values and the franchises of public service corporations.

Taft Campaign in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Ill., March 4.—Henry L. Stimson, secretary of war, will be the principal speaker at a mass meeting at Orchestra hall tomorrow night, which is to mark the opening of the Chicago campaign for the re-nomination of President Taft. Four days later the campaign will be given a further impetus by the visit of President Taft himself to speak at the annual meeting of the Illinois Swedish-American Republican League.
