CHAPEL HILL GIVES WILSON PREFERENCE

Tar Heel Students Conduct a Mock Election

NEW JERSEY MAN FIRST CHOICE

Strength of Democratic Candidate over Other Democrats and Republicans Proves to be Strong for Their Chances to Beat Him.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., March 12.—The most interesting thing that has happened at the University the past week, aside from the regular work of the college, was the mock election for President of the United States held last Thursday under the auspices of the Tar Heel, the college newspaper. The polls were opened at 9:45 a. m. and remained open until 4:00 p. m. The general voting place was at the Y. M. C. A., but the faculty had a separate voting place at the Bursar's office. The candidates voted on were: Wilson, Harmon, Underwood, Clark, Roosevelt, Taft, LaFollette and Debs. Every voter was allowed to make a first and second choice.

A total of 492 ballots was cast. Woodrow Wilson received 84.9 per cent of the Democratic vote and 71.1 per cent of the total vote for first choice. Oscar Underwood received 154 votes as second choice for president. Out of 35 votes cast at the faculty precinct 28 were for Wilson, 2 for Underwood, 2 for Harmon, 2 for Roosevelt and 1 for Taft. The vote for first choice of the different candidates was: Wilson 350; Roosevelt 57; Underwood 38; Taft 21; Harmon 21; Clark 2; LaFollette 2; Bryan 1. As second choice for the presidency Underwood received 194 votes, Harmon 86, Wilson 47, Clark 40, Taft 43, Roosevelt 38, LaFollette 17, Bryan 2, Debs 1, Foss 1.

The question which is of most serious importance to the voters of Orange county just now is that of a bond issue for good roads. The University has been brought into the controversy because of the fact that one of the leading professors has written two articles for the Chapel Hill News attacking the proposition as unsound. The statement has been made, with this as a basis, that 75 per cent of the faculty is opposed to the progressive measure. In order to verify this statement every member of the faculty has been interviewed on the matter. Every one of the faculty with the single exception of Professor H. H. Williams is in favor of the bond issue.

Agree to Divide the Duties

Until Such a Time as the Board of Aldermen Meet and Elect a Successor for the Late W. H. McGowan.

Chief of Police Smith and Officer George Clark have agreed to temporarily maintain the safety of Greenville until such a time as the board of aldermen should meet and elect a successor to the late Officer McGowan, who was buried yesterday.

It was very commendable of Captain Smith and Officer Clark to offer their services in the meantime, but we trust that they will not have to continue their vigil very long, as their work was heavy enough previous to the death of Mr. McGowan, and we would not care to lose either of them by reason of overwork.

RALEIGH, March 12.—Editor Josephus Daniels, of the Raleigh News and Observer, and democratic committeeman active in the preparations for the approaching democratic national convention, is improving rather slower than was hoped for from the rather complicated operation he underwent in Rex Hospital here two weeks ago. However, the attending sphysicians say there is no occasion for that the v. occasion for anxiety as to his condition and that the fevers that have developed repeatedly are due to over exertion through reading and undue effort to keep in touch with events and accumulated business during the time he is shut in. They hope to have him out in a couple of weeks.

World Wide Strike of Coal Miners

The Coal Miners' Strike Begun Last Week in England Finding a Ready Echo in Other European Countries.

German Miners Strike in Sympathy With Britishers and French Coal Operators are Threatened With a Partial Strike From Their Employes

AMERICAN ANTHRACITE AND BITUMINOUS WORKERS IN CONFERENCE HERE

NEW YORK, March 12.—A world wide strike of coal miners is regarded by the coal trade as more than a likelihood if negotiations now in progress between the anthracite and bituminous workers and their employers in this country do not result in a settlement of working conditions.

With more than a million coal miners on strike in Great Britain and 150,000 miners in Germany voting to quit work to force higher wages, a severe coal shortage in Europe is faced.

The anthracite coal operators are drafting their negative reply on the question of wages to the hard coal workers for presentation to the miners Wednesday. Next week at Cleveland the bituminous operators and their employes will confer to try to bring about an adjustment of conditions in the soft coal fields.

Meanwhile coal is being loaded on the Atlantic seaboard for South American and European ports usually supplied by English firms.

Berlin, March 11.—The coal strike went into effect in the Westphalian coal mines today when about fifty per cent of the 350,000 miners employed there obeyed the call of their leaders to cease work.

In some districts the cessation of work was practically complete while in others only from 15 to 30 per cent of the men struck.

Paris, March 11.—About two-thirds of the coal miners of France have responded to the appeal of the general miners' federation to strike for 24 hours. This action of the miners is not directed against the mine-owners but is designed to show to the Louisiana Politics.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 12.—The first preliminary step in the national political campaign in Louisiana was taken today when the Democratic State central committee met to decide them atter of presidential primaries for the selection of delegates to the Baltimore convention. There appears to be a growing demand among the Democrats for a presidential preference primary and the adoption of the system is regarded as likely. The Republicans are expected to adhere to the convention plan of naming their delegates to the national convention. Sentiment among the Republicans of Louisiana is divided between Taft and Roosevelt.

Something Hard to Understand

Another Semi-Burglary Scare Took Place Last Night and Again Would be Burglar Picks Wrong Place.

It is to be hoped that some day Greenvilles near-burglar will look before his leap and in spotting a house will figure before tackling it as to whether it is worth his risk to venture into a trip of inspection into the interior.

It was reported last night that somebody tried to gain access to the home of Mr. C. B. Mayo, but somehow or other, either the burglar made too much noise in prying a window open or the occupants of the house are very light sleepers. The fact remains that the Raffles did not gain an entrance and that is about all there was to it.

NEGRO IS SHOT BY CHIEF

WORST NEGRO IN ROBLSON COUNTY

CAUGHT BY CHIEF OF POLICE IN THE ACT OF ATTACKING A WHITE MAN—RESISTED

LUMBERTON, March 12.—While in a drunken stupor at the Seaboard passenger station this afternoon A. D. Watts, a white man from Marion, S. C., was attacked by Jim King, also drunk and one of the worst negroes in this section when full, because the white man would not take some cigars offered by him. King is said to have knocked Watts down and was kicking him in the face when Chief Redfern appeared on the scene. The chief seized King by the arm and ordered him to desist, but instead he struck him in the face with a bottle of liquor, as he went to strike the second blow the chief shot him in the face, the ball entering near the chin and ranging upward came out near the ear. After being shot he had to be clubbed into submission. He was placed in jail. After Watts' face was repaired he was locked up to get sober.

E. C. T. S. SENIOR CLASS GIVE PLAY

Good Interpretation of Goldsmith Comedy

GREAT ATTENDANCE IN HAND

Weather Remains Sober Giving the Young Ladies of Training School a Large Attendance—Play a Great Success Financially.

Had Oliver Goldsmith himself been present in the flesh at East Carolina Teachers Training School Monday night, he could have expressed nothing but utmost satisfaction at the presentation of his play, "She Stoops to Conquer," by the senior class of the school. It was a heavy play and occupied three hours in presentation, but every character was equal to the part assigned and rendered it in a manner that was both excellent and charming. Of course some parts were more difficult than others, but in all, both major and minor, there was such precision as fitted its respective place to perfection.

The staging and costuming were in keeping with the period in which the play was written, the beautiful costumes being procured especially for this event.

Where there was so much excellence as displayed in the presentation of this play, it would be unjust to particularize without mentioning each individual, for every one is entitled to credit. Professional stage performers could not have given the play better than did those young ladies and they brought praise not only to themselves but also to the school. The aim of this school is the best in everything and in this instance as in all others, it reached the mark of perfection.

While the play was long it was not at all tiresome, for the brilliant acting kept the audience at the highest point of interest and the intervals between the acts was filled with delightful old time melodies by the school orchestra of seven instruments—piano, cornet, violin, mandolin and guitars. The audience expressed in hearty applause its appreciation of both the play and the music. In one of the intervals Miss Arlene Joyner, to the delight of all, sang, "The Last Rose of Summer," that called for an encore.

The personnel of the play was as follows:

Noted Lecturer at Methodist Church

Chicago Lady Will Lecture on Temperance at the Methodist Church at 7:30 This Evening—Large Attendance Urged.

Mrs. Armena McDonald, the National lecturer of the Woman's Temperance Union, with headquarters at Chicago, has come to Greenville and is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Hoyle.

Mrs. McDonald, who has a nationwide reputation as a lecturer in temperance will deliver two addresses at the Methodist church tonight and tomorrow night. Her subject will be Temperance and we are assured that whatever fame may have preceded the lady to our town, is only in full justice of the excellent lecture qualities of Mrs. McDonald.

She lectured last at Washington, N. C., and everybody was delighted with her addresses. Everybody who can do so ought to be present tonight and tomorrow night at the Methodist church.

START SOMETHING.

The Durham Sun not long ago published in its editorial columns a little story which has a very big moral. It ran something like this: "A farmer came to town and upon stopping in front of a grocery store was accosted by a young fellow who inquired if the farmer wanted somebody to hold his horse. The farmer replied he was not in need of anybody to hold his horse. The young fellow was retiring when the farmer calling him back said, 'Young man, I do not need you to hold my horse, but if you are around a little later I may have you help me start it'."

This is a funny story. Supposed to be funny anyway. But, is it? Think it over—you won't need to do it very long ere you come to think with us. This is the story of almost everything. The "start" is what needs the helping, not the "stopping."

And right here in our community can we apply this story to the greatest advantage to all of us. For there are so many things that we could help to start and once started would be of such benefit to our Greenville, yours, etc., etc.

Of course we must not be unfair. Anything but that, and we are glad to record that since the only business organization Greenville has began getting "a wiggle on" (as Tom Towers of the New York American would say) we have added a great many things to our town. We had some good ones before, but we refer to the ones gotten lately and to some extent owing to the efforts of the Carolina club members.

It is now about two months since one of our able pastors, Rev. C. M. Rock, spoke before the club and suggested the acquisition of some things we seemed and did, really need worse. He spoke of a steam laundry and we certainly have one now. Something was said about a very fine modern hotel. We won't say we have it, but we will allow time to take its course and we will see it gracing our main street and facing our court house. A spirit of moral and physical clean up also was spoken of by the Rev. Rock at that time and we can already see in the cleaning up of Court House Square that a start towards the beautifying of Greenville has been made, a substantial start towards this commendable task.

All that had a start and we trust will never have a stop. We were around on an unofficial visit of inspection to the plant of the Lumber and Coopers Co., the other day and things are getting a mighty good start over there.

Start something and if whatever you start is good let it go on. It will probably be self running and a stop will not be necessary. It is only bad things that need be stopped and prevented from running and even then the movement towards stopping has to be started.

BURYING THE HAMMER

The other day we saw in one of the current magazines pictures of a ceremony which would prove infallible cure for sore eyes to some of our own wisenheimers. It happened to be the burning at stake of a hammer and the ceremony took place in one of the growing cities of the west.

Naturally a city that has that spirit about the dangerous weapon wielded against a community is bound to grow, flourish and progress. In that particular city they gather each year for that ceremony which consists of parading through the town a very large hammer which is finally burned and its ashes buried.

We hardly need to interpret all this to our readers, yet some remarks here seem to be appropriate, as we are not exempt from that community-calamity called the knocker.

Have we got them? To be sure and a plenty. What benefit they derive from their continual knocking is beyond our understanding, and all we can surmise when we hear somebody hammering someone else or something in the town, or yet some enterprise just launched is that that particular somebody ought to have a very good physician look into his interior and making use of all the means that science has put at his command, made another man of him and return him to a community where he could be a blessing were he only a man in possession of perfect health. In most cases the liver of these people is to be blamed for their hammering. At least we understand it that way from the amount of billiousness and gall they have to spare.

Example. When the Boy Scouts began organizing here, there were many people who openly criticized the move. "T'werent' going to be no good, nohow." "A whole bunch of youngsters" etc., etc. Here followed a whole lot of reasoning (?) of the dogmatic character. That is of nature that admits no "recall."

The "nuff said" kind. Now we can't think of a more noble organization than that of the Boy Scouts. Ever since its inception in our community the boys have been very active and under the leadership of Rev. C. M. Rock have been doing things well worth watching from every point of view. And besides it is right that those boys should organize and devise plans to usefully "put in" their spare time. They have now some place to go when out of school. It may be a very small place of meeting. Still it is much larger than the street from a moral point of view. And in time they will have quarters that will fit the importance of the organization.

This is only an example of "Knockers' work". Others are furnished daily and we will never get tired of saying that a hatchet is nothing compared to a hammer when it comes to doing a powerful lot of harm. So whenever one of those "gloomy" faulty livered" parties approached you look out for him and whatever he may have to say let it go in by one ear and quickly out by the other.

The discovery of neither of the poles, North or South, is not troubling us, as we never expect to try to visit either of them.

Greensboro captured the next meeting of the State Teachers Assembly and Bob Phillips is preparing to dispense pie and have a big picnic.

Congratulations to:

Hilary A. Herbert, who was Secretary of the Navy in President Cleveland's second administration, 78 years old today.

WITH OTHER EDITORS

A Question of Lying.

Its very dignified and altogether responsible and prosperous neighbor, The New York Times having asserted that "the Ananias Club, it seems, either has lost or is losing its prestige" the envious New York World declares that "this is a characteristic and peculiarly infamous falsehood." Claiming precedence for itself as "the oldest living charter member of the Club" The World reviles The Times for its almost indecent attempt to obtain admission to this association, which now numbers among its members representatives of some of the first families in our country and charges The Times was thinking that "it can now qualify for membership by lying about the Club," which The World as a charter member, describes as never having been in so flourishing a condition as it is at present.

The only difference between The World and The Times that we can discover at this distance is that The Times only prints the lies that are fit to print, while the world, having lost its character for veracity very soon after the organization of this noble band of prevaricators, feels that its privileged to print any old sort of a lie about The Great American Embodiment of Truth. We are inclined to give The Times a little leeway, feeling perfectly confident that before the present campaign is ended it will have fully qualified itself for a high place in the great family of Ananias.—Charlotte Observer.

It Might Do Some Good.

On Christmas night in New Bern one Baker Bryan shot and killed a young man named William Avery. There was practically no provocation for the killing and the community felt that a murder had been committed. Later Bryan was tried and acquitted and then the put-up indignation of the New Bern citizens blazed. A monster indignation meeting was held and resolutions passed denouncing the verdict of the jury. Realizing that New Bern was not a particularly desirable place of residence for him just then, Bryan disappeared. Now the father of the dead youth has entered suit for damages against Bryan for the murder of his boy, to amount named being $25,000. Bryan owns some property which may account in part for his acquittal and when the civil action was brought against him an attachment was issued against his property and the sheriff has it in possession. It seems almost impossible under our present system, to get the criminal law enforced against murderers and it may be that the damage suit will have to be resorted to to check homicides in North Carolina. Damage suits are somewhat popular in this state and it may be that one who is willing to kill another and take chances on the criminal law might take second thought if he realized that he would have to face a damage suit.—Statesville Landmark.

The gangs can be set close together or graduated at intervals of two inches until they spread to their extreme width on the ends of the frame. Two levers—one for each gang—and the gangs can be operated at any angle. The gangs can also be reversed to an inthrow. Everything about it is simple and strong, and it is backed by an unqualified guarantee.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help. I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health. It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

DON'T SUFFER WITH Rheumatism

It is the most distressing and discouraging of all troubles. Nine cases out of ten can be cured by Noah's Liniment. Where there is no swelling or fever a few applications will relieve you. It penetrates—does not evaporate like other remedies—requires little rubbing.

Noah's Liniment is the best remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lame Back, Stiff Joints and Muscles, Sore Throat, Colds, Strains, Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Colic, Cramps, Neuralgia, Toothache, and all Nerve, Bone and Muscle Aches and Pains. The genuine has Noah's Ark on every package and looks like this one, but has RED band on front of package and "Noah's Liniment" always in RED ink. Beware of imitations. Large bottle, 25 cents, and sold by all dealers in medicine. Guaranteed or money refunded by Noah Ramsey Co., Inc., Richmond, Va.
