S. C. SENATOR JOINS WILSON'S MOVEMENT

Many Reasons Why He Favors N. J. Governor

THE FORMIDABLE CANDIDATE

Senator E. B. Smith of South Carolina, strong in his praises for New Jersey Executive—Heard him speak at several public functions—Sure he is best exponent of Democracy in the field today.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Another United States Senator today joined the already large list of Democrats in that body who favor the nomination of Gov. Woodrow Wilson for the presidency. Senator E. D. Smith, of South Carolina, who has been claimed by both the Clark and Underwood forces came out today in favor of the nomination of Gov. Wilson, expressing the opinion that the New Jersey executive is the most formidable candidate that Democracy can nominate for the Presidency.

In giving his reasons for favoring the nomination of Governor Wilson the South Carolina Senator said:

"I have heard Gov. Wilson speak on three separate occasions. On two of these occasions, it was when others aspiring for the presidency also did speak. At the Jackson Day banquet, held in the city of Washington, Democrats aspiring for the presidential nomination spoke together with him. "In Philadelphia, at the Periodical Publishers' Association banquet, I heard Gov. Wilson when aspirants for the Republican nomination also spoke. "On both these occasions, as on the occasion when he spoke alone, he impressed me as being a profound student of philosophy of government. I consider that his expressions as to the theory of government, and the comparison of this theory with that now in practical existence, was by odds the clearest and most convincing of any expressed on these several occasions."

Seaboard Flagman Badly Hurt

Harry Goodwin, a Flagman of the Seaboard Thrown off a Freight at Cheraw, S. C., and Severely Injured.

HAMLET, March 19.—On Friday night Harry Goodwin, a flagman on the Seaboard, was thrown from a freight car at Cheraw, S. C., and seriously injured. From information received here his train was shifting some cars during the severe storm that was then raging, and in the progress of the shifting it was necessary for him to ride on the side of the car. The wind was blowing at such a rate that a tree was blown across the track and the engineer had to put on emergency brakes, and in doing so, Goodwin was thrown from the car directly under the wheels. His right arm was run over and his shoulder crushed. He was carried at once to the hospital at Columbia, S. C., and an operation was performed. At last account he was resting easily, and hopes are entertained for his recovery. He has many friends here.

STATE CONDENSED NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE OLD NORTH STATE

Asheville Damage Suit Compromised.

Asheville.—The case against the Southern Railway in which Gus Hammett was suing for a large amount for personal injuries, has been compromised by the attorneys and the plaintiff to recover the sum of $5,400. The case was tried a few months ago in superior court and was dismissed. The plaintiff appealed to the supreme court and a new trial was granted. The new trial had not been heard. It was contended that Hammett was going to his work at a tannery and was walking along the railroad track in the dark. Both of his legs had to be amputated.

Washout Repaired.

Waxhaw.—The fearful washout on the south side of the Catawba river 3 miles from Waxhaw has been repaired and on Sunday trains began to run. No mail reached this place Saturday by rail and when the Charlotte Observer came our people were hungry for it. The postmaster says the good people feel a great loss if the Charlotte Observer fails to come.

Two Durham Mail Carriers Establish Long Distance Records.

Durham.—Two of Durham's mail carriers are now hailed as champion walkers. To set out and walk 101,600 miles is not the work of a lazy man, nor a patron of the street cars, but at the same time it is a record that two Durham mail carriers have established within the past twenty-two years.

Body of Gales Recovered.

Salisbury.—Mrs. R. F. Hoover has received a message from her brother, Mr. W. W. Gales, whose 13-year-old son was drowned in the Clinch river near their home at Glendale Springs, Va., Saturday, notifying that the body was recovered from the waters today and that the funeral would take place tomorrow. Full particulars of the tragedy have not been received.

100 Feet Fall Kills Him

It is not known whether Mr. Fleet Board of Alexandria, Va., Attempted Suicide or Whether His Death is Simply Due to an Unfortunate Accident.

WAKE FOREST, March 19.—Diving fully one hundred feet from the top of a water tank at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Benjamin Fleet Board came to a terrible death here last night. Although the suicide theory has been advanced as a probable cause of the death, those members of the family who knew him best are confident that the tragedy was entirely accidental.

Mr. Board, who was a prominent manufacturer of Alexandria, Va., together with his wife and infant child, came to Wake Forest ten days ago on a visit to Mr. Board's brother-in-law, Mr. W. R. Powell. It was his intention to recuperate here from a period of strenuous work in his business, during which time he occasioned a great loss of sleep and mental worry.

Mrs. Brooks Improving.

Last Monday at the Washington Hospital Mrs. E. L. Brooks underwent a serious operation and at the time the consensus of opinion was that she would not recover. Since then, however, her condition has improved to such an extent that hopes are entertained that she will soon be out. Mrs. Brooks is now holding her own. She is the wife of Mr. E. L. Brooks, one of the city's popular merchants and enjoys the esteem and friendship of a large number not only in Washington, but elsewhere. Mrs. Brooks is a daughter of the late Colonel Isaac Suggs, for years a leading practitioner at the bar in Pitt county. The news of Mrs. Brooks' improvement is noted with genuine pleasure by the Daily News—Washington News.

GREENVILLE TO HAVE POSTOFFICE BUILDING ERECTED EARLY IN 1913

Present Session of Congress Appropriates $29,000 For the Construction of Such Building.

TO BE ERECTED ON GOVERNMENT LOT ON EVANS STREET

The Reflector is in receipt of the following communication from Congressman Jno. H. Small:

Washington, D. C., Mar. 18. Editor Reflector: It will be of interest to the citizens of Greenville to be informed that the Treasury Department has recommended an appropriation of $29,000 at this session of congress toward the construction of the Post Office building at Greenville. I am further informed by the supervising architect of the Treasury Department that the public building at Greenville will probably be reached in its order next October, at which time the preliminary sketches for the building will be made and proposals for the construction of same will be asked about the end of the year and if the expectations of the Department are realized, construction of the building should begin early in 1913.

Very respectfully,
JNO. H. SMALL.

The above means that probably about the middle of 1913 the Greenville post office will be constructed and as it is more than likely that the new hotel will be already in operation Court House Square will present an aspect of prosperity and solidity of which all Greenvillians should feel proud.

Perhaps now, that this new public building is a fact, the property owners responsible for our lack of city delivery will begin to look to the sidewalk question on their properties and by the time that the building is completed Greenville will not have to march to the post office every train time to get "that mail".

MISS DUKE TO WED PRINCE

HER FIANCE PROMISES TO WORK

MOTHER AND BRIDE TO BE WILL SOON SAIL FOR EUROPE— WEDDING TO BE IN PARIS

RALEIGH, N. C., March 20.—When something like two weeks ago, the engagement of Prince Ludovic Pignatelli d'Aragon to Miss Mary L. Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Newton Duke of New York and Durham, N. C., was rumored a denial was authorized by Mrs. Duke.

After Prince Pignatelli had sailed away for Europe yesterday on the Kronprinz Wilhelm, it was learned that close friends of his and the Duke family had been informed that the engagement was now a fact and that the marriage would take place within the next few days in Europe.

Mrs. Duke and her daughter, according to present arrangements, will sail for Europe within two weeks and Angier Duke, the brother of Miss Duke, is expected to go over at the same time. Whether B. N. Duke will go over for the ceremony is not yet known.

There has been one obstacle to the marriage growing out of a question of religion, the Prince being a Catholic and Miss Duke a Protestant; but on last Sunday arrangements were started here for a special dispensation covering this question and it is understood that when the Prince went away yesterday all the arrangements for the wedding so far as they could be made on this side, had been perfected. The ceremony, it is said, will take place in Paris.

Governor Kitchin Appoints Manager

Other Senatorial Candidates Have Already Chosen Greenvilleans to Represent Them in the Coming Race.— Importance of Pitt County Evident.

Mr. Sam T. White, head of the Sam White Piano Co., and one of our most energetic citizens has been appointed to represent the Kitchin interests in Pitt county in the coming senatorial race.

Already Mr. White has been doing some good work for the governor and Mr. Kitchin knew what he was about in appointing Mr. White to represent him. Knowing the "manager" as we do, we look to him to do some great things as the senatorial campaign keeps pace with the thermometer.

Died.

Mr. John James, who formally lived here, but about the first of January moved to a farm near Winterville, died on the 18th. Mr. James was an excellent citizen and one of our best farmers. His remains were laid to rest in the Nobles cemetery, four miles from Greenville, by a large number of sorrowing friends.

The Announcement Stands.

The Reflector was mistaken in stating Monday that no meeting of the Mens' Prayer League was held in the Christian church Sunday afternoon. A meeting was held, but with a small attendance and only one of the appointed leaders present. As announcement was made that the same place, subject and leaders be continued for next Sunday, the program committee has decided that it is best for this to be carried out. The leaders may govern themselves accordingly.

Mr. Rutledge's auction sale of books in the Proctor building is attracting much attention.

HIDING PLACE OF ALLEN GANG SQUIRRELS' SPUR

Detectives Claim They Have Corralled Outlaws

URGE EVERY AVAILABLE MAN TO HELP

If the Allens are in Squirrels Spur, as Latest Dispatches Give to Understand, Their Position is Even Stronger Than at Devils Den and Their Capture Will be Vedy Difficult Without Much Loss of Life.

HILLSVILLE, Va., March 20.—Working on the theory that the Allens are really in the Squirrel's Spur, the detectives leading the posse attempting the capture of the noted outlaws, are planning an attack upon the heights where they suppose the Allens to be. The original posse has been reinforced by volutary citizens who realize the hard task before the detectives. In all, over sixty men are camped at the base of Squirrel's Spur. Last night the strictest watch was kept over every point by which the criminals might attempt to evade the cordon.

The shifting of interest from Devils Den to Squirrel's Spur was caused by the near capture of Wesley Edwards, a nephew of the older Allen near his mountain cabin about eight miles east of Sidney Allen's home. When about to effect the capture Edwards escaped through the back door. It is expected at any time the posse will close on the outlaw's stronghold. Captain Devant, of the state militia, has offered a plan by which escape of the fugitives would be high impossible. He proposes to surround the mountains with about 250 soldiers and start a systematic search of every nook and corner, placing strong guards in all the highways and mountain passes.

The authorities believe that watching the movements of the women relations of the outlaws will lead to the interception of some communication that will lead the detectives to their hiding place. A citizen's posse left Mount Airy this morning to join the detectives already in Squirrel's Spur.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1912.

CHIEF JUSTICE CLARK.

We give below a chronological sketch of one of North Carolina's most illustrious and useful sons. Whether he is a candidate for the senate or not, it matters little, as our policy is to keep the people of Pitt county informed as to what is going on and taking it for granted that in things political the Pitt countian knows what ails him, where it ails him and how hard.

However, Chief Justice Clark's record is something about which all of us should feel proud for he is a son of our state, evidently born to do it and us honor.

1846—August 16, born in Halifax county, North Carolina.

1860—Cadet at Hillsboro Military Academy.

1861—Joined North Carolina troops as drill master. Assigned to 22 N. C. regiment under Col. J. J. Pettigrew, went with him to Virginia and served on the Potomac.

1862—Returned to N. C. and was made adjutant to Comp Mangum, near Raleigh. At the age of 16 was made adjutant of the 35th N. C. regiment under Col. (later senator) Matt W. Ransom. Was slightly wounded at Shrapburg. Also served at the first Fredericksburg.

1863—Returned with his brigade to N. C. Entered the state university. Studied law under Judge Wm. H. Battle.

1864—Graduated at the head of his class. Elected major of battalion of 5 companies of Junior Reserves. A month later made lieutenant colonel of the 70th N. C. regiment. Was then youngest officer of that rank in either army. Commanded the advance post at Williamston, N. C. Faced the enemy at Plymouth and Washington. Christmas day was with his regiment in the fight with the gunboats at Poplar Point.

1865—Fought with his regiment in Southwest Creek and was present at the three day battle at Bentonville. Was paroled May of that year. After the war studied law in New York and the Columbian Law College in Washington. Was licensed to practice law and located in his native county, Halifax.

1873—Removed to Raleigh to continue law practice.

1874—Married Miss Susan Washington Graham.

1875—Appointed judge of the superior court by Gov. A. M. Scales.

1876—Elected by the people to the bench.

1880—Issued the article known as the "Mudcut Circular".

1881—Sent as a lay delegate by the state Methodists to the Methodist Ecumenical Council in London.

1889—Appointed associate justice by Gov. Fowler to succeed Judge Merrimon, who had been appointed to take Chief Justice Smith's place.

1890—Appointed by the people for unexpired term.

1894—Nominated by the Democratic party to succeed himself. Nomination endorsed by Republican and Populist parties. Only Democratic nominee elected that year.

1894—Wrote an article on government ownership of telegraph lines as part of the post-office department. Also published ed later as a public document as ordered by the senate.

1894—Published a 3 volume translation of Constant's "Memories of Napoleon.

1896—Was tendered the nomination for governor but declined it.

1896—Before the Tennessee Bar Association advocated the election of senators and judges and post masters by the people.

1897—Drafted fellow servant act.

1900—Delivered an address before the National Association of Railroad Commissioners at Denver, Col.

1901—Delivered an address before the State Bar Association of Kansas.

1902—Candidate for the nomination for chief justice. Railroads and interests waged a fierce fight against him. Notwithstanding at Greensboro Democratic Convention received practically all the votes cast.

Elected at the polls by a majority of 65,000.

1902—At request of Gov. Carr undertook the compilation and editing of the State Records. Published them in 16 large folio volumes.

1903—Delivered an address before the State Bar Association of Virginia.

1904—William Jennings Bryan named Justice Clark as one of the men most eminently fitted for the presidency.

1906—Discussed the U. S. Constitution in an address before the Pennsylvania University. Leading law magazines of the country copied this address. U. S. senate had it recently published as a public document.

1909—In Charlotte called attention to the fact that the South had been paying heaviest war contribution ever exacted in history.

1910—Renominated for Chief Justice without opposition.

THE CIVIC LEAGUE OFFERS.

In our issue of yesterday we announced the offers made by the Civic League for certain "showings" to be made about the 4th of the coming April.

No matter what the value of the prizes. Wherever they go their intrinsic value would be put at naught when compared with the satisfaction that should be felt by the winners.

It has been said time and again that the highest sign of civilization should be a standard of white with a cake of soap and a pail of water rampant. And this is no joke. Dirt and soap have fought many a battle and no doubt will keep on fighting for a very long time. The question is to get to it feeling that more than our own and our neighbor's comfort depends on our degree of cleanliness. Our health, the most important part of our human "make-up" is impaired if our bodies and surroundings are not kept clean and taking the importance of this point into consideration it seems hardly necessary to say, that prizes or no prizes, it should be our pleasure, as much as our duty to look to it willingly.

It is perhaps not too far ahead to state that if the next legislature fails to make a substantial appropriation for the enlargement of East Carolina Teachers Training School, it will fall much below the mark of duty. In its great mission, teacher training, this school stands without a peer in the state and its work is so excellent that there is greater demand for admission than the building can accommodate. Even with many students finding rooms and board in private homes in the town, quite a number had to be turned away at the summer terms last year. From the applications already coming in the outlook points to similar conditions during the summer terms this year. Those who are preparing for teaching need just the training this school gives and the state should provide ample room and equipment for them to get it.

Things certainly do look good for Greenville's near future. A handsome court house and jail completed last year, a $60,000 hotel to be built this year and the public building next year, to say nothing of others to come along between, shows what we are doing.

WITH OTHER EDITORS

A Million For School Houses.

The indications are that the year 1912 is going to be a record-breaker in the building of school houses in this State. North Carolina Education estimates that at least a million dollars will be invested in school property. In no other year has there been such great activity. "The building now under construction of Trinity College and the State University," says this paper, "will cost, when completed, about half a million dollars. Appropriations for public school buildings, together with the appropriations from the loan fund will amount to another quarter million. The improvement, going on at the other institutions, the erection of the school for the feeble minded, and the amount to be expended for city school improvements will amount to easily another quarter million. Durham, Charlotte and Greensboro alone are planning improvements that will cost a hundred thousand dollars. This is moving forward some." It is for a fact. In educational progress, North Carolina, so long indifferent, is now setting the pace for other Southern states. In North Carolina the endeavor is for more and finer school houses and more and better paid teachers.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Vote For Good Roads.

Permanent improvements in roads can not be obtained without the spending of money, and much money. Hence there arises the call in many counties for bond issues for the building of good roads, as there is no other way to obtain these improvements, the road tax not yielding sufficient funds to accomplish the work which is sought to have done.

There are many counties in the State which have voted large sums of money for permanent road work and the results have been such that the people have found large returns for the money instead. The improvement in counties which have put in good roads have been wonderful, and prosperity has come because of the good roads. The benefit is one in which the farmers have had a large share, though it is a benefit that is shared by all the people of a county. What benefits one class of work and gives to it advantages must necessarily benefit other classes of work.

Today there is an election in Orange county on the matter of a bond issue of $250,000 for good roads. Orange county needs good roads, for on either side of it there are counties with good roads. Durham and Alamance. Reports from Orange county are that the roads of the county are in such condition as to retard its prosperity, and for this reason the eyes of the State are on Old Orange today to see whether it is to go forward, or whether it will be content with its present bad roads. If the issue is carried new life will be put into the county and it will be in the line of progress. The indications, it is reported, are that the bond issue will carry by a safe majority. If this prove true the result will prove a good thing for that county, and its best friends hope that its voters will realize the fact today that it can not keep pace with the other counties unless they vote the money to build the roads and that facing this serious matter they will elect to put the county in a position for it to be progressive and prosperous.—News & Observer.

The letter from Congressman John H. Small, published elsewhere in this paper, brings gratifying information about the public building for Greenville. That work on this building will begin within a year is cause for rejoicing. Congressman Small is a man who does not go to sleep on his job and it is due to his earnest and untiring efforts in behalf of his people that we are to get this handsome postoffice building so early. It places our people under renewed obligation to him and they will not be slow to show their appreciation.

There are some folks who are worth good money to Greenville and others who are not worth thirty cents. Which class are you in?

This is a year in which you want to do some voting, but will be denied that privilege unless you pay your poll tax by the first of May.

With other good things coming this way, first thing you know Greenville will be making up her mind to have a hospital.

By the time the gardens get fairly started, the neighbor's chickens will be on hand to destroy them.

If there was not so much water in the river these pretty days would be a temptation to dig fish bait.

There is a "Devil's Den" in more places than one.

It has done so much good by restoring her appetite and building up her strength that I think Vinol is the finest tonic ever prepared and I am telling everyone about it." SIDNEY LANIER SOCIETY
Of the Training Schools Holds Very Interesting Meeting.

On the evening of March 18th the Sidney Lanier Literary Society of the Training School held its regular monthly meeting. The hall in which the meeting was held was tastefully decorated in green and white, carrying out the St. Patrick idea. Irish flags, shamrock, evergreens, pot plants and St. Patrick banners were in profusion.

As the members of the society arrived they were met at the door by Misses Lena White, Lula Quinn and Willie Greene Day, who pinned at their necks a large green bow and handed to them pads of green and white to be used later.

The meeting was opened by the president, Miss Marjorie Davis, calling the meeting to order and asking for the business. After the business had been transacted the meeting was turned over to Miss Willie Green Day, chairman of the program committee, who in turn explained that the program for the evening was to be an Irish one in honor of St. Patrick.

The first number on the program was a paper on the "Geography of Ireland," prepared by Miss Mary K.
White. Next Miss Ruth Moore gave a most interesting and amusing reading on the "Snakes of St. Patrick." Miss Mabel Lucas then read a paper on "Legend of St. Patrick," Miss Arlene Joyner was third on the program and sang most sweetly, "A Little Irish Rose." Miss Mary Chauncey then gave a reading entitled "St.
Patrick's Birthday." Miss Sarah Waller came next and amused all with a reading entitled "God loves the Irish." Miss Marie Felton then read a well-prepared paper on Irish Patriots. Miss Joyner was again called upon and sang "an Irish Love Song."

Now came the most interesting and amusing feature of the program. The members of the society were given 8 minutes in which they might write the best Irish joke they knew. Mrs.
Beckwith and Misses Bishop and Beaman were appointed judges and at the end of the eight minutes the roll was called and each member of the society was asked to respond with her joke. The judges then retired to make their decision and the society was entertained by instrumental music by Misses Mary L. Dupree and Ruth Davis. When the judges had made their decision, in a few fitting remarks, Mrs. Beckwith presented to Miss Sabra Sykes the prize—three large baked Irish potatoes in a green box tied with white ribbon.

This concluded the program for the evening and each one departed declaring they seldom spent such an enjoyable evening.

Endorsement of Hon. S. G.
Daniel

For Corporation Commissioner
State of North Carolina

Endorsement of Hon. S. G. Daniel for Corporation Commissioner, State of North Carolina.

A mass meeting of the representative citizens of Warren county was held in the court house in Warrenton, North Carolina, on the 8th day of February, A. D., 1912, for the purpose of presenting the name of Hon.
S. G. Daniel to the Democratic party of the state of North Carolina for the position of Corporation Commissioner, to be nominated at the state convention to be held by the said party.
It was unanimously Resolved:

First—That the Democratic party of Warren county present the name of Hon. S. G. Daniel to the Democratic party of the state of North Carolina, as a candidate for the position of State Cororation Commissioner and that we put forth every honorable effort to secure his nomination and election.

Second—That we submit to the Democratic party of North Carolina a candidate in all respects qualified to hold this important position. Mr.
Daniel has long been an active practicing lawyer in this county and before the courts of this state. He secured his license after reading law in the celebrated law school of Dick and Dillard at Greensboro, North Carolina, and immediately became closely identified with the people of the state and their interests, both locally and in the whole state.

Mr. Daniel has taken an active interest in Democratic politics. He was one of the large factors which overthrew Radicalism in this county and was the first Democratic member of the legislature from this county elected by white voters after Reconstruction days. For three terms
Mr. Daniel faithfully represented this county and boldly and cleanly and courageously stood for those measures which tended to the welfare of the state of North Carolina. Mr.
Daniel is no trimmer; he is clean in life and his acts, private and official are wholesome and pure.

Mr. Daniel is now a director of the State Hospital for Insane and a member of the Executive Committee. He takes a close interest in the affairs of the state and is well posted in every public matter and will make such a Corporation Commissioner that his friends will be proud of his official life and the state of North Carolina will rank him as one of its most faithful officers. The county of Warren, with great pride and with assurance of success, will press Mr.
Daniel's candidacy first, last and all the time.—The Warrenton Record.
