BEGGING FOR FOOD

PURSUED OUTLAWS AT MOUNTAIN CABIN

EDWARDS STOOD GUARD

As Allen Knocked at Door of Cabin and Begged for Food

HILLSVILLE, Va., April 5.—According to Sug Smith, who lives over Mt. Airy way toward the Carolina line, Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, came to his cabin last night and begged for food. Allen came to his door, he said, and Edwards stood guard. Allen declared that neither had taken food that day. They got none from Smith and took to the mountains. The mountaineer feared to tell the deceives until midnight and it was this morning when a posse took up the trail. Sheriff Hynes, of Mt. Airy, took the bloodhounds but they refused to scent the trail and the posse went off on Smith's direction. The posses are posting copies of Governor Mann's proclamation calling upon all citizens to withhold aid from the fugitive outlaws.

New Prospects For the Coming Week

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.—Next week will be a very important period in national politics. Before the week is over more than half of the delegates to the Republican national convention will have been chosen, while the list of Democratic delegates will be brought up almost to the half-way mark.

Presidential preference primaries will be held in Illinois Tuesday. The State is claimed by both Taft and Roosevelt on the Republican side and by Wilson, Clark and Harmon on the Democratic side. The same primaries will decide the party selection for United States senators representatives in Congress and State and county officers.

On Saturday the primaries of both parties will be held in Pennsylvania. The Taft managers claim 54 of the 64 delegates for Taft, and predict also that the twelve delegates-at-large to be selected by the State convention will be instructed for the President. The Roosevelt managers believe that the Taft estimate is greatly exaggerated. Woodrow Wilson is expected to win the Democratic vote. The Wilson managers go so far as to predict a solid delegation of seventy-six for the New Jersey governor.

The New York Democratic State convention will meet in New York city Thursday, but it is not at all certain that the proceedings will divulge the real preference of the leaders for the presidential nomination. New York naturally wants to cast her ninety votes for the winner. At the same time she would prefer what she considers a "safe" man, which from the New York point of view, means someone other than Woodrow Wilson. Either Harmon or Clark probably would be more acceptable than the New Jersey governor. It is thought likely that under the circumstances New York will mask her emotions under instructions for her favorite son, Mayor Gaynor, and not let loose her strength until she can throw it where it will do New York the most good.

The lines will be sparsely drawn between the Roosevelt and Taft forces in the State Republican convention of Michigan, which will meet in Bay City on Thursday. All of the Republican delegation in Congress are supporting Taft, while Vermont is expected to go for Taft without much opposition.

Kentucky Republicans will hold their State and district convention to select delegates to the national convention. The State is claimed by both the Taft and Roosevelt managers.

The Republican State convention of New York will assemble in Rochester Tuesday to adopt a platform and elect delegates-at-large and alternates-at-large to the national convention. The results of the recent primaries assure the election of the Taft delegates.

The Weather.

FIFTY YEARS SINCE SHILOH.

Reunion of the Blue and the Grays on Old Shiloh Battlefield.

PITTSBURG LANDING, Tenn., April 6.—A reunion of the survivors of the great battle of Shiloh began on the battlefields here today, on the semi-centennial anniversary of the historic conflict. It is a reunion of the Blue and the Gray and from as far south as Texas and as far north as Wisconsin and Michigan the old warriors have journeyed to mingle in peace and to exchange reminiscences and recall the events that made history in sight of old Shiloh church fifty years ago. The reunion is under the auspices of the Battle of Shiloh Association.

The battle of Shiloh, the most sanguinary of the battles that marked the early period of the civil war, was fought fifty years ago on April 6 and 7, 1862. Shortly after the capture of Fort Donelson, Gen. Grant moved his army to Pittsburg Landing on the Tennessee river, about 20 miles from Corinth, Miss. The army, numbering about 40,000 men, was in six divisions. The division commanders were Generals Sherman, McClelland, W. H. L. Wallace, Hurlbut, Prentiss and Lew Wallace.

At about the same time that the Federals moved to Pittsburg Landing the Confederates concentrated at Corinth with Gen. Albert Sidney Johnson in chief command, and General Bearegard as second. The four Confederate commanders were Generals Bragg, Hardee, Polk and Brinkridge. In numbers the army about equalled the Federals.

On April 1, both armies were expecting reinforcements. Grant expected Buell with about 40,000 men, and Johnson expected Van Dorn with 30,000. Johnson, however, concluding to attack Grant before joined by Buell, started from Corinth on April 3, but owing to heavy rains, he could not attack until early dawn of Sunday, the 6th. By persistent and continuous fighting Gen. Johnston succeeded in driving the Federals back during

WATERS BREAK LOOSE

CONDITION IN FLOODED COUNTRY MOST ALARMING

ALL EFFORTS ARE FUTILE

Earthworks Swept by Rushing Waters, Thousands Homeless

HICKMAN, Ky., April 5.—With a roar that could be heard for miles, the Mississippi river flood burst through the government levee five miles west of Hickman late today and tonight is racing over several counties in Kentucky and Tennessee toward Reelfoot lake. By tomorrow 150,000 square miles of farming lands in Fulton county, Kentucky, and Lake and Obion counties, Tennessee, will be an island sta. Grave apprehension is felt for the safety of farmers in remote sections of the sparsely settled country. The water when it came through tore a gap 60 feet in width in the levee eating away the earthwork and widening the breach. Until today when the waves, driven by a high wind, began to beat against the banks, it was thought the fight was at an mldk,ofmriker would be won. The battle was at its height at the end. When the collapse came the workers were compelled to run for their lives, a number making their way to Hickman on foot, while others, marooned beyond the break were rescued in gasoline launches.

HOT FIGHT IN ILLINOIS.

Fight Between Republicans and Democrats Hottest in 20 Years.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 6.—With both sides ready for Tuesday's state-wide primaries, conflicting claims continued to be made today. Through an act passed at the eleventh hour by the legislature in special session the voters of both parties are to have an opportunity to express their preferences for the presidential nominations.

On the presidential question Illinois is not only almost pivotal but a puzzler. President Taft is supposed to lead on the Republican side, but local conditions make it difficult to estimate what may happen. The various straw votes taken by the Chicago newspapers exhibit a preference for Roosevelt over Taft, but the president's followers say that these results should not be taken too seriously. About the only statement that can be made with absolute certainty is that a feeling of equal confidence seems to pervade both camps on the eve of the battle.

The situation on the Democratic side appears to be even more taggled. Unprejudiced political students, however, are inclined to believe that much depends upon Roger Sullivan, the Illinois member of the national committee and for many years the most influential leader in the state. Sullivan has no use for Bryan or any of his candidates and as Wilson is supposed to be highly favored by Bryan, Sullivan's power, or what remains of it, will be thrown against the New Jersey candidate. Hearst is helping Clark and the Harmon men are equally active. The outcome certainly cannot be predicted.

The names of multitudes of candidates will appear on Tuesday's ballot for United States senator, representatives in Congress, governor and other state officers and members of the legislature, not to mention the many candidates for county and municipal offices.

Three Republican candidates are in the field for the toga of the venerable Senator Shelby M. Cullom, who aspires to another term.

Eight Republican and four Democrats are seeking the governorship, but the Democrats really have a three cornered contest.

A PITT COUNTY HOSPITAL.

What can be more profitable than the relief and elimination of human suffering and disease? The immediate monetary profit in the saving of time and expense because of sickness is in itself enough,—to say nothing of that great satisfaction which comes to one by the knowledge that human suffering has been eliminated by human hands.

In no way can the Divine in man be more splendidly expressed, than by the effort of giving that which is best to the sick and suffering.

That all are born to sickness and ultimate death, no person will deny. Why not then, seek to conserve the health, safety, comfort and longevity of Pitt County's people. That every effort should be put forth to prevent the needless destruction of human life is not only right, but it should be the imperative duty of not only national, but local governments as well.

That the people of Pitt county are constantly spending moneys for the improvement of things pertaining to the county's welfare, to wit: court house, bridges, jails and the like and very properly so. Why not put money in a county hospital? Wisely managed it can do much towards defraying its running expenses.

The county is bisected, North, South, East and West, by the Atlantic Coast Line and Norfolk Southern railroads, both have a double daily service, which puts every physician and every person in the county in close proximity to a hospital situated in the town of Greenville.

Pitt county has a population of about 40,000 people. Enough money is spent each year in railroad travel alone, by her people carrying patients to and from hospitals, to more than maintain a county hospital. If immediate necessities demand immediate attention, it is time the county hospital question was in process of decision.

The man of means can send his folks to hospitals in other states and towns, but the poor man has to let his family stay home and suffer. And this condition is existing in a county of 40,000 inhabitants, with an educational system second to none in the south; with a road tax of $12,000.00 being spent last year; with an agricultural progress that proclaims it the leading county in the east; with churches all over the county kept up by Christian people who daily quote, "I was an hungered and ye gave me meat, I was thirsty and ye gave me drink, I was sick and ye visited me."

It is hard to keep children from playing in the streets, but not all parents realize what dangers their children are subjected to. It is almost a daily occurrence to see some child narrowly miss being run over by a vehicle.

Fly Season Coming

These days mark the dawn of another fly season. In fact, recent advice indicates that an occasional fly has been sighted here and there. Swat him and do it now. Remember, so far as the fly question is concerned, a swat in time saves nine. Some enthusiastic mathematician has figured out for us that laboring under perfect conditions, a Mrs. Fly will lay 120 eggs, which mature into flies in from twelve to fifteen days. Swat her. These in turn produce 7,200 grandchildren twelve to fifteen days later. Swat them. The next generation, we are told, reaches the enormous number of 432,000, to be swated. And so on, until by fall or late summer our mathematician estimates that the grand total number of descendants of this one original Mrs. Fly amounts to some 1,096,181,249,310,720,000,000,000, or a mass having a cubical content greater than the earth itself. Too many to swat. A few ciphers more or less mean nothing to us. Such figures are mathematic gone mad. It simply emphasizes the fact that a swat in time saves nine, if not more. As a matter of fact, comparatively few descendants from each successive generation of flies ever live to reach maturity or old age. A very few withstand the rigor of winter, and herein lies our cue. If we can successfully combat these few now, and abolish their breeding places, our lot for the summer will be easier.

It has been well said that "A man's flies are they of his own household." We are fast fearing that the number of flies in a house or community is an excellent index to the sanitary conditions or cleanliness of that house or community. Some day, soon, we will consider the fly as much a disgrace in our home as we now consider the bedbug. In fact, it is already but we don't know it yet.

To every large extent our freedom from flies for the summer depends on the effectiveness of our first attack during the next few months. Five or ten cents investments in wire cloth fly swatters placed in the hands of small boys and girls yield excellent returns. Their enormous amount of exuberance and youthful enthusiasm may be put to good purpose in this manner, instead of letting it run to waste under the name of mischief. In the meantime, if all possible breeding places, such as manure piles, night soil, garbage, and filth of all kinds are effectively destroyed, removed, or buried, the result so far as flies and disease are concerned will be well worth the effort. Let's try it.—Raleigh Evening Times.

A Cruel Compliment

Andrew Carnegie has done many beneficent deeds, but when he showed unwelcome notoriety on Miss Virginia Lee by calling her the most beautiful girl he had ever seen, he did her great wrong. Modest and retiring, shrinking from such publicity as any Virginia girl, she has been driven into seclusion by Carnegie's cruel compliments. A myriad of callers are ever at the door of her home, and her mother and grandmother are kept busy sending them away and burning bushels of unopened letters addressed to her. Hundreds of offers of all sorts have been made to her to pose for the stage, but she refused them all. She is of modest, though amiable and joyous, disposition, but the limelight has brought only trouble and sorrow to her. She is described by one who knows her well as of "angelic countenance, though not as beautiful as reports would indicate." Mr. Carnegie ought to have known that such a compliment from him would grievously disturb Miss Lee's rights to privacy and freedom from molestation. By his thoughtlessness he made her a virtual prisoner in her home, and he ought to do everything in his power to relieve her of the unpleasant situation in which he has placed her. He would not like to have his daughter pursued by curious crowds, hunted by camera fiends, flooded with annoying mail, and made miserable, simply because she is beautiful. Carnegie talks to much, anyway, and if he cannot shut up, he ought at least to think twice before he starts his senile prattle.—Times Dispatch.

His Votes Are Growing.

This has been another good week for The Reflector man in the way of vote getting in the News and Observer automobile contest. Friends have not only sent in coupons in large numbers, but subscriptions have added thousands to his reserve vote. Of course it is impossible to see all friends personally, hence votes and subscriptions that are brought or sent in are all the more appreciated.
