Headquarters For Wilson In This State

Greensboro to Be Center of Activities of North Carolina Wilson Party

S. E. WILLIAMS APPOINTED AS
N. C. MANAGER

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 24.—That the state headquarters for pressing the presidential campaign of Woodrow Wilson will be established in Greensboro at once was the statement yesterday made by S. E. Williams, of Lexington. Mr. Williams, at the request of Hon. William P. McCombs, manager of Governor Woodrow Wilson's campaign and also at the request of many Wilson admirers in North Carolina, has agreed to accept the management and said the Wilson men are coming here at once to the end that they make what effort they can to get a fair expression of sentiment.

Mr. Williams said he intended to press the campaign vigorously, but that he does not hope to organize the state in the short time he has in such a manner as to form or mould sentiment but only in as far as he may, to get a fair expression of the popular will, and that this is wanted. For the expense incident to the campaign, he said he shall have to look for such voluntary contributions as can be secured. He claims the expense will not be great, as he does not propose to do more than get those who are for Governor Wilson acquainted with each other to some extent.

He feels sure Governor Wilson is going to be the nominee of the Democratic party at Baltimore, "for," he said, "he stands for the highest ideals of Democracy and the great mass of the whole country knows it."

The Bland-Moore marriage will take place in the Memorial Baptist Church tonight, followed with a public reception at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moore, on Dickinson avenue.

CARPENTER BADLY HURT

Whilst working on a scaffolding reaching the second story of the W. B. Wilson residence in South Greenville, Lewis Johnson, a well known carpenter, had the misfortune of having the scaffolding which supported fall to the ground. In his fall Johnson struck a plank which cut a big gash on his left side. He was immediately removed from the place of the accident and put under the care of physicians.

With Pitchers Gregg, Mitchell and George all left-handers, the Cleveland Naps are well fixed in the way of porters this season.

Allen Trial Is On Docket For April 30

Will Take Place in Wytheville All Prisoners, When Arraigned Plead "Not Guilty"

CHANGE OF VENUE
WAS REQUESTED
AND GRANTED

HILLSVILLE, Va., April 23.—Six Allen clansmen pleaded not guilty to murder indictments. Changes of venue was asked. It was granted. The court announced that it would hold the trial at Wytheville, Wythe county, beginning on Tuesday, the 30th of April. The defendants will be tried separately. They were taken to Wytheville tonight.

Six members of the Allen clan were arraigned to answer for their part in the Carroll county court assassinations. The prisoners are Floyd Allen, his sons, Claude and Victor, and his nephew, Sidna Edwards and Byrd Marion, charged with first degree murder. The prisoners were brought from Roanoke yesterday. A venire of twenty-four men were summoned. The selection of the jury confronted the court, after preliminaries were disposed of. The prisoner's attorneys admitted that an effort will be made to place the responsibility for the five murders upon Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, members of the Allen gang still at large.

ANOTHER FEATURE OF THE TITANIC SINKING

Failure to Provide Binoculars or Spy-Glasses for the Lookouts Was One Contributing Cause of Ship's Loss

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23.—Like the missing horseshoe nail that cost a monarch his kingdom, the failure to provide binoculars or spy-glasses for the lookouts on the Titanic was one contributing cause of that ship's loss and with it the loss of more than 1,600 lives.

Two witnesses before the senate investigating committee today agreed on this. They were Frederick Fleet, a lookout on the liner and Maj. Arthur Godfrey Peuchen, Canadian manufacturer and yachtsman, who was among the rescued passengers.

Fleet acknowledged that is he had been aided in his observations by a good glass, he probably could have spied the berg into which the ship crashed in time to have warned the bridge to avoid it. Major Peuchen also testified to the much greater sweep of vision afforded by binoculars and as a yachtsman, said he believed the presence of the iceberg might have been detected in time to escape the collision had the lookout men been so equipped. It was made appear that the blame for being without glasses did not rest with the lookout men. Fleet said they had asked for them at Southampton and were told there were none for them. One glass, in a pinch, would have served in the crew's net.

Major Peuchen criticised in strong terms the lack of experienced sailors on board the Titanic. He said that when the call to quarters was sounded not enough of the crew responded to undertake the work required in lowering and filling the boats.

Furthermore, he said, no drills had been held from the time the ship left Southampton, although it was customary to hold such drills every Sunday.

Herbet J. Pitman, third officer of the Titanic, told of his failure to turn back the lifeboat in which he and his passengers were idly drifting, to attempt the rescue of others when the Titanic went down.

Wilson County Blind Tiger Gives Himself up After Bond of $500 Had Been Paid to County Clerk by Bondsman.

Several weeks ago The Reflector told of a peculiar blind tiger case which began in Wilson county and finished in the room of the Clerk of Court, Mr. D. C. Moore.

J. B. Owen had been accused of selling liquor and was held in a $500 bond for his appearance before Justice Rountree. The original date for his trial before that justice was, for some reason postponed. When next he was scheduled to appear, he could not be found. A little later his bondsman came before the Clerk of Court and paid the bond. At the time he said he was glad to pay and be done with it.

Yesterday this bondsman, Mr. N. G. More, represented by Mr. J. E. Woodard appeared before his honor Judge Justice and surrendered Owen to the sheriff. The question arose as to whether the bondsman was entitled to his $500 or not. Solicitor Abernathy contended that once the bond forfeited Mr. Moore could not have it back and after a great deal of arguing the judge ordered the bond returned after all costs had been deducted from it.

Owen, will, of course, be now tried for selling liquor.

CAPT. ASHE DENIES ANOTHER FALSE SIMMONS RUMOR

Quotes the Record to Show Wherein Charge Made in Letter By Mr. Laughinghouse Is Erroneous Says Opposite Is the Fact

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—
Capt. S. A. Ashe, who it is rumored, will soon announce his candidacy for State Treasurer, gave out the following statement as he was leaving for Raleigh tonight:

"I have seen today a printed copy of a letter written by Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, superintendent of the state prison, dated October 7, 1911, containing certain charges against the late Governor Aycock and Senator Simmons and a letter written by Mr.
J. D. Langston, of Goldsboro, in reply to the charges in the letter as against Governor Aycock.

"All of the statements which this letter contains against Senator Simmons have been heretofore answered except the one which refers to the Union Depot at Washington.

"In Mr. Laughinghouse's letter (which, by the way, was marked 'confidential') he charges that 'some years ago when Aldrich and his crowd wanted to build the handsomest depot in America in Washington city for the rich railroads, a bill was introduced in the House to appropriate three millions of dollars for this purpose. It passed and went to the Senate and Mr. Aldrich moved to amend it by making it four millions, Mr. Bailey, from Texas and Mr. Simmons, from North Carolina, supported this bill when every other Democrat in the entire Senate voted against it."

The facts are just the reverse of Mr. Laughinghouse's statement. In the first place Senator Aldrich offered no such amendment and in the next place Senator Simmons as the Congressional Record, (Vol. 35, part 6, page 5459) will show, was paired against all the amendments, and voted against the bill as a whole.

"The campaign against Senator Simmons in North Carolina seems to be one of misrepresentation.

Only last week an opposition paper published an editorial charging that Senator Simmons, in the interest of the Diamond Match Company, had voted against the bill to surpress the manufacture of phosphorus matches, when as a matter of fact, Senator Simmons, was an ardent supporter of this bill and as the Congressional Record will show, voted for it."

A Loss to the Old Dominion.

Mr. Editor: There are losses other than shops, foundries and other manufacturing plants, which a city may meet and which take from it prosperity. All men, though, do not see alike; but as I see it, the loss of any influence or institution which brings men into a community and through the influence created by such medium, makes of men loyal, happy and enthusiastic citizens, building for good, for greatness and for God, is a serious loss.

Thus, strip a community of its better refining influences and you rob it of its greatest wealth-giving force; not cash, but assets valuable beyond the possibilities possessed by gold; for if you anchor the heart, you anchor the love, the soul and, the man, and you make of him an asset.

This city has met a loss; met it bluntly and squarely in the face and those of its citizens who realize keenly, feel the departure, not only from Bristol, but from the Commonwealth of Virginia, that of the Rev. Dallas Tucker and his ideal wife.

The pulpit Mr. Tucker has filled, while that of a very small and unprepossessing building, itself scarcely an honor to a community of the pretensions of this, has been filled by Mr. Tucker for the past two years; and not only the church itself has felt the pressure of this influence for God and for good, but regardless of creed, those who may have come within the zone of his influence have known greater joy, and their faith and love have strengthened as has their Christian spirit grown as they stepped in the footprints of this leader man.

It is not for me to write at length, save to say that the loss met by Bristol is the gain of the charming little city of Greenville, North Carolina, to which charge Mr. Tucker responds to a call.

We know—at least we feel—that the people of Greenville will at once recognize in Mr. Tucker and his wife those charms possessed, cultured and refined through many generations of the builders of the Church and defenders of this nation; those charms of manner and those evidences of refinement which come only to the brave and true, through strains of blood that have for centuries still further refined men and women for the higher places on earth; those qualities which make of men warriors for country and for Christ and their infinite charm men of the character of the men they have honored in wedlock.

It is scarcely necessary for me to say that the pressure which forced the resignation and departure of Mr. Tucker together with the loss to this community of his wife, has fallen like a heavy hand; does like a great big hurting lump in the breasts of many men and women—and children—make us wonder when again, if ever, will this place be filled in Bristol, or ever the loss repaired. There are assets more of value than is gold.

Miss Johnson, who was the librarian of the Carnegie Library of Nashville, is the daughter of Mrs. Hannah Payne Johnson of Virginia an a lineal descendant of Lucy Spotswood, daughter of the noted colonial governor of Virginia. Her father was George S. Johnson, a son of the late Col. Anthony Wayne Johnson. Dr. Claxton was a member of the faculty of the University of Tennessee before he was appointed Education Commissioner of the United States by President Taft.

Almost a Miracle.

One of them ost startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all of our family thought he was going into the consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe and reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Dallas Host of Odd Fellows.

DALLAS, Tex., April 24.—The annual meetings of the state grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the State Rebekah assembly, which opened their four days sessions here today, have attracted several thousand Odd Fellows and Rebekah from all parts of Texas to this city. Past Grand Master W. F. Boggs responded on behalf of the grand lodge and Miss Bessie Dolan on behalf of the Rebekah assembly of which she is the president. An elaborate program has been arranged for the two meetings.

Fight Close in Iowa.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 24.—On the eve of the Iowa Republican State Convention which is to meet in this city tomorrow to name the delegates at large to the Chicago convention, it is generally conceded by all disinterested parties that the handful of uninstructed delegates will decide the issue between Taft and Cummins. Both sides admit the convention will be closely divided, though the Taft managers claim they will control by a narrow margin.

Insurance Commissioners Meet.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 24.—Questions of more than ordinary importance to insurance circles are to come before the convention of State insurance commissioners, which met at the Hotel LaSalle in this city today. A standard accident and health policy is one of the most important matters to be discussed. The commissioners will also give attention to the question of expense limitation of liability companies and the question of reserves on workmen's compensation premiums.

A Friend or Two.

There's all of pleasure and all of peace
In a friend or two.

And all your troubles may find release
With a friend or two.

It's in the grip of the clasping hand
On native soil or in alien land,
But the world is made—do you understand?
Of a friend or two.

A song to sing and a crust to share
With a friend or two;

A smile to give and a grief to bear
With a friend or two;

A road to walk and a goal to win;
A single nook to find the comfort in,
The gladdest hours that we know begin
With a friend or two.

A little laughter, perhaps some tears,
With a friend or two;

The days, the weeks, and the months and years
With a friend or two;

A vale to cross and a hill to climb,
A mock at age and a jeer at time—
The pose of life takes the lift of rhyme
With a friend or two.

The brother-soul and the brother-heart
Of a friend or two

Make us drift from the crowd apart
With a friend or two;

For come days happy, or come days sad,
We count no hours but the ones made glad

By the hale, good times we have ever had
With a friend or two.

Then brim the goblet and quaff the toast
To a friend or two;

For a glad man who can always boast
Of a friend or two;

The fairest sight in the friendly face,
The blithest tread is a friendly pace,
And heaven will be a better place
For a friend or two.

—W. D. Nesbit.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Prayer meetings at the churches to-night.

Owing to the marriage to take place there, no prayer meeting will be had in the Baptist Church tonight.

The present term of court is attracting much interest.

The split log drag missed another good chance for effective work.

The business people realize that the Reflector brings results.

Keep In Mind

Because there is not much noise over the News and Observer contest this week, do not let up your work for the Reflector man to win the automobile. He wants every coupon and every subscription vote that can be put in for him, and there is yet some good working time ahead.

LINEN SHOWER.

Complimentary to Miss Moore, the Bride-Elect.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Hennie Ragsdale entertained at a linen shower in honor of Miss Lizzinia Moore, who this evening will become the bride of Mr. David Bland, of Goldsboro. The home was tastefully decorated in wedding bells, pink cupids, pierced hearts, carnations and chrysanthemums. The prettiest feature of the decorations was the punch table in the rear of the hall. The center piece was battenburg over pink and a row of candles in pink chrysanthemum holders formed a border. The punch bowl was draped with pink cupids. On the front of the table was a miniature altar surmounted with a bride and groom. Under the chandelier in the parlor, whose lights were covered with pink chrysanthemum shades and which was draped with wedding bells, was suspended a large wax cupid.

On arrival the guests were received at the front door by Misses Hennie Whichard and Willie Ragsdale and at the parlor door they were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Sam White and Miss Sophia Jarvis. In the receiving line were the hostess, the bride-elect, Miss Lorena Bland, sister of the groom-to-be, and Miss Corinne Ward.

Cherry Smash was served by Misses Ward Moore and Katherine Staples and Misses Susie Moore and Rebekah Knight received at the living room door.

Progressive "Rook" was the game of the afternoon and the progressors were awarded wedding favors. Among these were miniature silver horse shoes, silver arrows, wedding rings, china slippers surmounted with doves and gold horse shoes surmounted with doves.

Between each two games the hostess showered the bride with the linen gifts which were numerous and beautiful. The first shower was a string of wedding bells from which were suspended pink ribbons bearing the linen. The second was a string of horse shoes, orange blossoms and cupids from which also were suspended the linen. The last shower was a basket, prettily decorated with pink crepe paper and meline, the handle bearing a large bouquet of orange blossoms.

At the conclusion of the game pink ices and cakes which were surmounted with orange blossoms, were served by Misses Nannie Boyling, Inez Pittman and Essie Whichard. Just before the departure of the guests they were each presented with a miniature satin bag filled with confetti, which they in turn showered upon the pretty bride-to-be amid many expressions of love and best wishes.

Pre-Wedding Reception.

Tuesday night after a rehearsal in the Baptist church for the Bland-Moore marriage, the entire bridal party was entertained by Misses Susie and Ward Moore, Rebekah Knight and Catherine Staples, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moore, on Dickinson avenue. The reception was informal and an occasion of much pleasure. Punch was served by Misses Mae Schultz and Hennie Whichard and after the cutting of the bride's cake, which afforded much amusement, ice cream and cake were served.

The guests were welcomed at the front door by Mrs. White and invited into the library where they again had the pleasure of speaking to the bride-elect.

After the guests had arrived attractive score cards, appropriate to the occasion were passed, each of these being tied to pink and white roses. The game of Sweethearts was played with a great deal of zest and interest. Miss Susie Warren win-

Way-Day Milk-Maids and Chimney-Sweeps—At The Normal College, Greensboro, N. C.

The ancient Saxons called May "Three Milk Months," because at this season they milk their cows three times daily.

"On the first day of this month we see the ruddy milk maid exerting herself in a sprightly manner under a pyramid of silver tankards, and like the virgin Tarperia, oppressed by the costly ornaments which her benefactors lay upon her." These decorations of silver cups, tankards, and salvers, were borrowed for the purpose and hung around the milk-pails, with the addition of flowers and ribbons, which the maidens carried upon their heads when they went to the house of their customers and danced, in order to obtain a small gratuity from each. Of late years, the plate, with the other decorations, were placed in a pyramidal form and carried by two chairmen, upon a wooden horse. The maidens walked before it and performed the dance without any incumbrance. I really cannot discover what analogy the silver tankards and salvers can have to the business of the milk maids. I have seen them act with more propriety upon this occasion, when in place of these superfluous ornaments they substituted a cow. The animal had her horns gilt, and was nearly covered with ribbons of various colors, formed into bows and rose, and interspersed with green oaken leaves and bunches of flowers. Joseph Strutt, "The Sports and Pastimes of the People of England."

On the first of May the chimney-sweeps of London paraded the streets in various disguises, their dresses decorated with gilt paper and other mock fineries. To the music of their rattling of shovels and brushes, they jumped about in imitation of dancing. Sometimes they had a fiddler and a Jack-in-the-Green as well a Lord and a Lady of May. This Jack-in-the-Green was a hollow frame of wicker work, made in the form of a sugar loaf, open at the bottom, large and high enough to receive a man. The frame was covered with leaves and flowers, so that the man could see without being seen. He danced with a companion and the odd spectacles of the living dancing pyramid convulsed the populace.

Long after all other May-sports ceased to be common, the festival of the chimney-sweeps remained.

ing the prize, a lovely pin. The guest of honor was presented with a beautiful cut glass heart shaped bonbon dish, after which the hostess served an elegant luncheon. This brought to the close another most enjoyable party given in honor of the bride-elect.
