Woodrow Wilson Leads All Democratic Candidates

Eleven New Mexico Counties Have Instructed For Him in Latest News

NORTH CAROLINA ISSUE BETWEEN HIM AND UNDERWOOD

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—(Special).—With victories in Texas, South Carolina and Porto Rico during the past week, Governor Woodrow Wilson picked up sixty-four delegates to the Baltimore convention and he is easily in the lead among the other candidates.

The coming week is a most important one in the Democratic contest, conventions and primaries being scheduled in eleven states. With the big lead obtained during the past week the friends of Gov. Wilson are more confident than ever that he will be the party choice at Baltimore.

Gov. Wilson's strength to date is as follows:

Pennsylvania, 76; Oregon, 10; Texas, 40; Maine, 8; Wisconsin, 24; Oklahoma, 10; Illinois, 2; Porto Rico, 6; Florida, 2; South Carolina, 10; Delaware, 6; Kansas, instructed second choice, 20; North Dakota, second ballot, 10; total 232.

The campaign managers of Speaker Clark conceded 74 delegates to Gov. Wilson last night. In view of the fact that the Clark people claim 17 delegates from Pennsylvania in the face of iron bound instructions of the people at the polls and later by the state convention, that sort of statement is in no sense surprising.

While denying to Gov. Wilson three-fourths of his actual strength the Clark managers give to the others of the allies every vote than can possibly be apportioned to them. For instance Gov. Harmon is given his entire strength—his two votes from Nebraska—and Mr. Underwood is given 84 votes, which is the total number carried by him. The allies are playing the game together even to the smallest details.

Speaker Clark has 160 delegates. He will receive the twenty votes of the Kansas delegation on the first ballot, but two-thirds of the delegation favor Gov. Wilson and are free to go to him in pursuance of instructions on any ballot.

The Speaker's campaign managers claim Massachusetts, but the delegates were elected under a pledge to vote for Governor Foss and do not consider themselves bound by any other instructions. George Fred Williams, who ran open as a Clark delegate with the prestige of being the Speaker's campaign manager, was overwhelmingly defeated by the Foss delegate ticket.

Gov. Harmon has two delegates, Mr. Underwood 32, Governor Baldwin 14, Governor Marshal 30, Governor Burke 10, and 106 are uninstructed.

A telegram from A. L. Whiteman of Roswell, New Mexico, to Woodrow Wilson headquarters states that eleven counties in New Mexico have instructed for Gov. Wilson, giving him 143 delegates, to the state convention. Speaker Clark has carried nine counties, which gave him 120 delegates. Five counties have not acted or instructed.

Widening Out.

The Atlantic Coast Realty Co., continues to extend the scope of its operations. Only a few days ago a deal was made for handling a valuable tract of land in Georgia. This makes four states in which the company is now operating. Besides doing a large business for itself the company is a big advertisement for Greenville.

Two More Aviators Meet Death

Distinguished American Visitor to Brooklyn Track Goes up for Air Trip. Passenger and Driver Falls About 150 Feet.

LONDON, May 13.—Victor Louis Mason, an American identified with extensive mining interests and at one time private secretary to the American secretary of war, Gen. R. A. Alger, and to his successor, Elihu Root, was killed today while making a flight at Brooklands with the English aviator, E. V. Fisher. Fisher was also killed by being pitched out of the machine when at a height of about 150 feet.

Fisher was about to give an exhibition and picked Mr. Mason as a passenger from among the spectators. They circled the track once, when, eye witnesses say, the machine, which is a monoplane, made an abrupt turn. It wavered a moment and then fell straight to the earth. The sudden stoppage in the air threw Fisher head foremost from his seat. Mason was pinned beneath the wreckage, which caught fire, and he was badly burned before being extricated. Physicians say both men died almost immediately.

It is surmised that some fault developed in the engine of the aeroplane, which caused the accident, as weather conditions were perfect. The bodies were removed to a mortuary to await an inquest, which probably will be held on Wednesday. Fisher was regarded as a daring aviator.

Accident at Lumber Plant Kills One, Injures Another

Negro and White Laborers Caught as Roof of Shelter in Greenville Lumber and Cooperage Company Collapses.

A labor accident in which a negro lost his life and a white laborer sustained the fracture of his left arm occurred this morning in the plant of the Greenville Lumber and Cooperage Company.

William Farabee, a negro from Hickory Ground, Va., and a white man named E. P. Daniels, also from the neighboring state, were taking some props from one of the shelters in the plant this morning at about 8:40 when for some cause that has not been sustained as yet the roof of the shelter collapsed and pinned the unfortunate negro's head, crushing it so badly that death was almost instantaneous. Daniels was more fortunate only sustaining the fracture of his left arm. Workmen hurried to the scene and bodily lifted the fallen roof, but in spite of their readiness it was found out that the negro's life had been crushed instantly.

When a Reflector representative visited the scene of the accident, the negro's body had not been moved, as the coroner was still expected. The white man was removed to a doctor's office. As far as could be learned there is no apparent reason for the falling of the roof, and until the coroner's inquest is held, no information will transpire. The negro was about 27 years old.

Hon. T. W. Bickett to Student Body

GRADED SCHOOLS

The ninth year of the Greenville graded school has come to a close and under the superintendency of Prof. H. B. Smith and his efficient co-workers the year was a most successful one. The enrollment for the term reach 500, which more than crowded the capacity of the building. As Prof. Smith well stated this, in view of Greenville's constantly growing population, means that the school must have more room and a larger teaching force; and as these will call for more money it is a problem the tax payers will soon have to solve.

A large audience filled the auditorium of the building Monday night, for the second night of the closing exercises. After two excellent piano solos by Misses Leonard Tyson and Hattie Whitehurst, Mr. F. C. Harding, chairman of the board of trustees, introduced Hon. Thos. W. Bickett, attorney general of the state, who delivered the annual address. From his reputation as a speaker the audience expected much of General Bickett and he more than measured up to expectation.

Comparing education to a corporation, the speaker said it must pay a dividend or it did not come up to expectation. Education is not a uniform, but an equipment, in that it fits for the real battle of life. Every child who lives under the American flag is entitled to such physical, mental and moral equipment as to fit him for the highest sphere in life. A vigorous body is a necessary, if not actual, precedent of a complete education. That man falls short in life who is not able to produce something of value. It makes a man a better citizen and neighbor to feel that he is able to make his own living. "Man does not live by bread alone," but he must be able to make his bread or be a useless unit in our population.

While North Carolina is blessed with fine climate abundant raw material and an army of labor and has made rapid strides in progress during recent years, yet she has so far made but the cheaper manufactured products. She needs the skilled labor that can take this raw material and convert it into the finer manufactures. There is no need for us to continue the suicidal business policy of shipping our raw products to New England and buying it back in manufactures for which we pay many fold more than we receive.

We honor our profession according to what we put in it. Every occupation is entitled to equal honor if we put our best in it and he who does not put forth his best efforts fails to honor his calling. The farmer is coming into his kingdom, for he is learning that it requires as much brain to steer a mule as it does to guide a ship. Too much emphasis can not be placed upon industrial training, for the man who knows how is the man of the hour. The first

Famous Chicago Lawyer On Trial

McNAMARA'S DEFENDER

Ready for Darrow Trial.

* Chief Events in The Life of Clarence S. Darrow.
* Born in Kinsman, Ohio, April 18, 1857.
* Admitted to the bar in 1875.
* Moved to Chicago in 1878.
* Defended and obtained acquittal of Thomas I. Kidd of Almagamat Woodworkers Union at Oshkosh, Wis., on a charge of conspiracy in 1897.
* Pleading cause of anthracite miners before commission appointed by President Roosevelt in 1902.
* Defended William D. Haywood in murder trial in Idaho and obtained his acquittal.
* Took charge of McNamara brothers in Los Angeles dynamiting cases in 1911.
* Prisoners pleaded guilty before trial.
* Indicted for bribery of two jurors summoned in McNamara case.

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—The case of Clarence S. Darrow, former chief counsel of the McNamara brothers and now charged with the bribery and attempted corruption of two jurors in the case of the confessed dynamiter, James B. McNamara, now serving a life term in San Quentin prison, will be called for murder tomorrow in the county court. Both the prosecution and the defence claim to be ready for the trial and it is quite likely that the latter will proceed without further delay. The trial promises to be no less a cause celebre than the McNamara case and it is quite possible that it will last a month or more. Some are even inclined to believe that it will not be concluded short of three months.

Clarence Darrow has many staunch friends and they have nobly rallied to his support. Among them are J. Ham Lewis, Democratic candidate for the United States senatorship of Illinois; Lincoln Steffens, the magazine writer and former United States senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota. Others are expected here from Chicago later on to testify to Mr. Darrow's good character and reputation.

Clarence S. Darrow is charged with the bribery and attempted corruption of Robert Bain, a juror in the James B. McNamara case and the bribery and corruption of George N. Lockwood, a venireman, called in the same case. At the coming trial Darrow will act as his own principal attorney and will be assisted by Judge Cyrus McNutt and Earl Rogers. McNutt was identified with the McNamara defense and Rogers was counsel for Patrick Calhoun during the famous graft trials in San Francisco and also directed the first work of investigation of the Times dynamiting case.

The prosecution will be conducted by District Attorney John D. Fredricks, assisted by deputy district at-

Allen Case Coming to An End

Attorneys for Defense and State Summing up Case Before Jury. Last Chapter of Hillsville Tragedy.

WYTHEVILLE, Va., May 13.—The Allen jury was today instructed by the court on the law of murder, conspiracy and self-defense and attorneys on both sides began summing up the case. Floyd Allen, first of the outlaws, who shot up the Hillsville court and killed five people on March 14, to be brought to trial exhibited more interest than at any time since his ordeal began.

Walter M. Poage opened for the monwealth; W. W. Cox opened for the defense and commonwealth's attorney, Stuart Campbell, of Wythe county, delivered the last address today. Six more lawyers are to speak before the case goes to the jury which can hardly be before Wednesday.

Four other captured members of the gang are now awaiting and upon the verdict of the jury in Floyd Allen's case probably rests the course of the state in others. It has been the contention of the prosecution that the Allens hatched a conspiracy to shoot up the Carroll county court and came protected by metal breast plates. The defense has maintained that the shooting was started by the court officers—three of whom were killed in the affray—who had a feud on with the Allens.

Sidney Allen, the ring leader of the outlaws and his nephew Wesley Edwards never have been taken and are supposed to be somewhere in the Blue Ridge. Witnesses at this trial testified that Sidney shot Judge Mas-

Cannon and Son Rowland Are Acquitted

Character of Evidence Not Strong Enough to Convince Jury In Fence Cutting Case

REACHED VERDICT
WITHIN FIVE MIN-UTES OF RETIRING

As announced in a special bulletin of The Reflector yesterday afternoon, Erastus Cannon and his son, Rowland, were acquitted of the charge of cutting the stock law fence on the night of the 4th of May. The jury was barely out 5 minutes before returning with the verdict: "Not Guilty". The large crowd that had gathered to be present at the trial did not attempt to conceal their joy as the foreman announced the verdict. On the contrary, wild shouts and much applause followed the words that set Erastus Cannon and his son free.

Before the noon recess the county had finished presenting its evidence and upon resumption the defense put its witnesses on the stand, beginning with the elder Cannon himself. He explained his presence near the fence and his son's testimony corroborated all he said, as did all the evidence of the other four or five witnesses.

Lawyer Evans addressed the jury for over an hour and his assistant in the case, Mr. F. C. Harding, took his stand before the jury directly after him continuing his address to the jurors for about an hour.

Cok James did not entertain the jury as long as did the lawyers for the defendants, simply resuming the case with all the possible clearness. Magistrate Mayo did not attempt to go into the evidence given at the trial and his instructions to the jury were such as are given generally.

The jury filed out of court and as previously announced came in five minutes later with the "not guilty" verdict.

"THE SHORT AND UGLY WORD."

Following are Associated Press dispatches: Baltimore, May 4, In the closing speech of a fourteen-hour campaign trip through Maryland, President Taft added a new chapter to the history of the harvester trust here tonight. Speaking to an audience that filled the Lyric theatre Mr. Taft declared that Colonel Roosevelt did prevent the prosecution of that "trust" after George W. Perkins, one of the directors and now a Roosevelt supporter, had asked that the trust be not taken into the courts; intimated that Charles J. Bonaparte, attorney general under Mr. Roosevelt, was "mistaken" when he said that he (Mr. Taft) was present at a cabinet meeting which decided against prosecution and said the diary of Herbert Knox Smith, then and now head of the bureau of corporations proved that at the time referred to he was on a trip around the world.

Mr. Taft's explanation of the harvester trust muddle was only one of the many points on which he attacked Colonel Roosevelt. He said his predecessor's attitude towards the trusts showed clearly that he wished to perfect a benevolent disposition that would discriminate between the good and bad trusts; pointed out how Mr. Roosevelt had changed from his attitude regarding his entrance into the presidential race as a calamity to that being an active campaigner for the nomination and insisted that Mr. Roosevelt was striving to make this campaign one in which the man who had little should be arrayed against him who had none. In concise form he listed the achievements of his administration and the charges which Mr. Roosevelt had made against it, declaring that in his term in the white house there had been more progressive legislation enacted than in any previous president's term since the civil war.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 5.—In a statement issued here tonight by Colonel Roosevelt, in reply to President Taft's speech in Baltimore last night, the colonel asserts that Mr. Taft knew he was making an untrue statement when he said that the anti-trust law ought to be repealed. He also again contradicts the president in regard to the "harvester trust" case, saying that at a cabinet meeting and in private conversation with him, Mr. Taft "repeatedly and emphatically approved the course actually taken".

Colonel Roosevelt had read President Taft's Baltimore speech carefully and he prepared his reply with equal care, writing it out with a pencil instead of dictating it to his secretary. He would make no further statement. The colonel returned this morning from his Maryland tour. He said he expected to remain in Oyster Bay for a week before starting on his Ohio campaign.

"Mr. Taft says I have said that the anti-trust law ought to be repealed," asserts Colonel Roosevelt. "Mr. Taft well knows that this is not true. I have always stated that it ought to be kept on the books and really enforced (not merely nominally enforced as has been done by Mr. Taft in the Standard Oil and Tobacco trust cases) against all trusts guilty of anti-social practices, but I have always said and say again that by itself, anti-trust law will never solve the problem of dealing with the great corporations and that to control the great industrial interstate corporations we should have a law akin to the present interstate commerce law but without the mischievous interstate court."

Colonel Roosevelt refers to the pending investigation of Judge Archibald of the commerce court and asserts that the judge was appointed to placate a Pennsylvania politician, although the appointee's alleged unfitness for the office had already been called to President Taft's attention. The statement continues: "In Kentucky and Indiana, in New York city and elsewhere, Mr. Taft knows well that the delegates elected for him represent barefaced frauds. He stands guilty of connivance and of condonation of the frauds; he stands guilty of approving and encouraging fraud which deprives the people of their rights to express their will as to who shall be nominated.

"In all these presidential conventions I have stood for absolute honesty and fair play. Mr. Taft stood for crooked misrepresentation of the will of the people."

This is My Birthday

Sir Squire Bancroft.

Sir Squire Bancroft, who until his retirement some years ago one of the foremost actor-managers of the English stage, was born in London, May 14, 1841. The premature death of his father put an end to his dreams of a college education and at an early age he was obliged to seek his own livelihood. His inclination led him to the stage and he got his first engagement in Birmingham in 1861. He continued in the province for several years and won much applause as an interpreter of Shakespeare. In 1865 an engagement was offered to him in London by Miss Marie Wilton, the noted actress who later was to become Lady Bancroft. Together the Bancrofts appeared with much success for many seasons, first at the Prince of Wales Theatre and later at the Haymarket Theatre, both of which were under their management. Sir Squire Bancroft was the second English actor to be honored with knighthood.

Congratulations to:

- Sir Douglas Fox, one of the world's most noted engineers, 72 years old today.
- Col. Theodore A. Bingham, former police commissioner of New York city, 54 years old today.
- Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for president of the United States in 1904, 60 years old today.

WITH OTHER EDITORS

A Slight for the Gods.

Not even in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has the political history of the United States furnished such a deplorable spectacle as that presented, by the daily exchange of personalities between President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt, former president. We stated some days ago that the warfare between these two men was not of Mr. Taft's bidding. On the contrary, he never allowed himself to open a personal attack on his former friend until he (Taft) was particularly compelled to do so in self defense and on the insistent urgings of his advisers and managers. But even up to this time he has indulged in no such pet names as 'crook', 'liar', 'falsifier' and 'cheat', yet we find these terms almost daily in the mouth of Theodore Roosevelt.

What a sight for eyes of men is here presented! How the balance of the world must be laughing at us to see the president of the United States forced to descend into the political mire; to fight for the endorsement of his term which has always been customary, even as the lowest ward heeler would fight for a paltry office. Behold, too, an ex-president of the United States filling his mouth with the vocabulary of the scavenger; see him descending into the sewers to find material wherewith to besmirch the highest office in the land, one supposed to be clothed with the dignity of kings. Conditions have indeed reached such a pitch that decent Americanism stand against the shame and contumery that has buried the lustre which surrounded the office of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln.

Wherein lies the remedy? Surely it must be in limiting the president's office to one term of six years. Such a movement is really afoot and it should receive the endorsement of every patriotic citizen who recoils from seeing the highest gift of the nation handed about like so much merchandise.

As the situation now lies between Messrs. Taft and Roosevelt, neither of them, weighed in each other's scales, can be called proper presidential material. The logical move for the national republican party would be the elimination of both from the race, and the substitution of some other candidates who does not stand accused of every crime on the calendar.—Asheville Citizen.

Salary vs Fee System.

A correspondent of the Salisbury Post who has been gathering information on the important question of salaries vs fees, has the following in Tuesday's Post:

The salary system for county officers has been in vogue in Wake county for less than a year but already the county can see that there will be a saving of from $7,000 to $8,000 for the first year and this amount to be greatly increased year after year.

The allowance for salaries, clerk hire, etc., in Wake is very liberal. A gentleman familiar with the affairs of the county says the allowances for officers could be cut very materially for the betterment of the service, if with a very liberal salary list Wake has saved $7,000 to $8,000 the first year, it means that the saving will be greatly increased later, for the saving the first year is always less. The amount saved in Guilford county was very nearly doubled—increasing from $7,000 to $12,000—in three years. If the people of Iredell want to abolish an antiquated method of doing business and adopt a modern method at less cost, they will adopt the salary system.—Statesville Landmark.

Mother's Day.

"There are tears in the very thought of this quiet, symbolical celebration. We shall not attempt to add to them. All that we would say is that when the Governor of Virginia calls on Virginians to wear a white flower for the memory of mothers dead or alive, there will be a response which will reflect the heart of the people.

"Mothers! Those who believe everything that everybody else denies; who trust where everybody else has lost faith; who are constant where everybody else turns the back; who are always ready to applaud where others scoff; who suffer in silence, and pass away finally as the calm sun sets after a storm smiling through the mists of tears. "A white flower for the white soul which even the poorest knows and even the desperate yearns toward. "Mother's Day" is no less than an anchor to windward to a drifting humanity."—Richmond Virginian.

Social and Personal

Our Boys in Gray.

Our ranks are growing thinner boys,
Our steps are growing slow,
Our eyes are getting dimmer,
And heads are bending low.
Our forms are bent, but people
We are ever proud to see
The boys who fought with Jackson,
With Johnson and with Lee.

We are not so lithe and limber,
As we were in sixty-one,
Our eyes are not so sparkling,
For we see our setting sun,
But the hero spirit's in us,
As twas ever wont to be,
The boys who fought with Jackson,
Bragg, Beauregard and Lee.

Our days are being numbered,
And soon we'll pass to rest,
Beneath the sod of Dixie,
The land we loved the best;
But grand will be our memory,
Till time shall cease to be,
The boys who fought with Jackson,
Hood, Gordon and with Lee.

We were never much in numbers,
But I know we did our part
And won the whole world's honor
And our native country's heart,
And when this life is over,
And we from earth have gone,
We'll join Pap Price, Dick Taylor
And Dowling round God's throne.

We have shown to all creation,
How the world's affairs should run,
Future men will gaze in wonder,
At the work that we have done:
We have helped to build your cities,
And made the old south grow,
But soon we'll go to glory
And leave it all with you.
—A. B. Finley, in "Living Confederate Songs."

Black Jack Items.

BLACK JACK, April 12.—We are glad to see such fine weather for the farmers to work.

From what we can hear all the farmers are through setting out tobacco and some of them have begun chopping cotton.

The Farmers Union held their regular meeting Friday night.

Quite a crowd attended the old soldiers dinner Friday.

Miss Cella Mills is on the sick list. We hope her a speedy recovery.

Mr. C. G. Paramore attended the Winterville commencement.

Messrs. J. W. Dixon and Jodie Dixon went to Washington last week.

Messrs. W. V. Clark and Henry Dixon went to Greenville Friday.

J. S. Dixon and wife went to Greenville Friday.

Mr. J. A. Clarke left last week for Norfolk, Va. where he has taken a position with Adams Express Company.

R. M. Williams went to Greenville last Wednesday.

We are having a nice Sunday school now. We cordially invite you all to attend.

Mrs. Elijah Mills of Simpson spent Saturday night and Sunday with her father, W. L. Clark.

Messrs. Charlie and Marshal Buck attended the Winterville commencement.

BEAUFORT, N. C., May 14.—E. Lester Cox, formerly of the Gaston and Yarborough Hotels, at New Bern and Raleigh, respectively, has been appointed manager of the Inlet Inn at Beaufort for the summer season, 1912, and will assume his duties May 15.

The Inn which is one of the most attractive resort hotels of the more exclusive class, along the Atlantic coast has a merited reputation for its excellent service. Beaufort itself is one of the prettiest resorts in the south and the popularity of the Inn is increasing with the remarkable growth of the town.

The spring fishing is the month the great attraction at Beaufort and number of reservations have been made by disciples of Ike Walton who know they can find here sport they will be unable to equal anywhere else. Catch of from 300- to 500 hogfish, perch, trout and sheephead, are being reported daily.

HON. T. W. BICKETT AT GRADED SCHOOL

thing to do with a dollar is to make it and then put that dollar to a good use. The idle dollar and the idle man have no place in a progressive community.

Following General Bickett's superb address were two more splendid piano solos by Misses Gertrude Critcher and Mavis Evans. Then Prof. C. W. Wilson in most appropriate words delivered diplomas to the graduating class, Misses Ova Crawford, Grace Smith, Annie Leonard Tyson, Gertrude Critcher and Bessie Corey and Mr. Joe McGowan; also diplomas for music to Misses Annie Leonard Tyson, Gertrude Critcher, Mavis Evans and Hattie Whitehurst and certificates to Misses Ruebelle Forbes and Ernestine Forbes and Fannie Spain.

This over Superintendent Smith was about to say something when the advancing marshals took possession of the stage and almost hid the high school and music school graduates with beautiful bouquets. Then the superintendent expressed his gratification of the year's work and thanks to the faculty, trustees and people for their loyalty to the school. One thing he mentioned with regret was that when this present graduating class was back in the seventh grade there were thirty six of them, but the number has reduced until only six came to graduation. This showed too strong a tendency on the part of parents to let their children stop school after the seventh or eighth grades, when for the sake of better equipment for college or life's work they should continue through the high school course, and graduation.

Strayed.

From my place about March 1st, one white sooty cow, 7 years old, supposed to have calf with her, marked crop and slit in right ear and underbit in left. Also two steer yearlings; 2 and 3 years old, one white sooty, the other red with white face, ear mark crop and slit in right and underslope in left.

HIGH TRIBUTE TO SIMMONS' SPEECH

Senators of Georgia, New Jersey and Missouri Declare Speech on Metal Bill Fine

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—Tariff discussion was started in the Senate Tuesday when Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, ranking member on the Finance Committee, fired the opening gun on the metal schedule, which is one of a series of bills which the Senate will be called upon to enact at this session. The bill, which is the same as reported by the Democratic House, reduces the rates on metals and the manufacturing therefrom an average ad valorem of about 35 per cent to an average of about 25 per cent, and if passed will place these articles upon a revenue basis, but at the same time allows reasonable competition within the zone where foreign competition is not made impossible by transportation cost.

The bill transferred a few articles now upon the dutiable list to the free list.

Mr. Simmons was interrupted by Senators on both sides of the chamber frequently, so often in fact that his speech which ordinarily would have been delivered in two hours, consumed the better part of two days.

When he had concluded he was warmly congratulated by all of the leading Senators in the Senate, among them being Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia; Martine, of New Jersey; Stone, of Missouri; and Bacon, of Georgia.

"It is one of the strongest and ablest presentations of the tariff I have ever heard," said Senator Stone.

"The best Democratic tariff speech I have ever heard. It should be printed as a public document and circulated throughout the country," said Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia.

"Senator Simmons speech was the most exhaustive and most enlightening education of the tariff yet made. It is unanswerable for the fellows who want high protection. The statistics given were most complete, yet not burdensome," said Senator Martin, who has lived in Fayetteville and is a great admirer of Major Hale, editor of the Fayetteville Observer.

"I have been in the Senate a long time and have heard a great many tariff speeches," said Senator Bacon, of Georgia, "but Senator Simmons has made a speech that the Republicans cannot answer."

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, one of the leading Republican progressive Senators and an authority on the tariff said: "It was a very great speech."

From now on the eyes of the country will be upon the Senate. Senator Simmons is leading the fight for the Democrats for the downward revision of the tariff and that he will succeed in his efforts to pass tariff bills through the Senate lowering the duties on high protected articles, no one who knows the distinguished North Carolinian doubts. Whether these bills will be signed by the president remains to be seen. But the Democrats, with the assistance of Senator Simmons as leader, will continue to pass such bills through the Senate and then await the result.—News and Observer.

A strike is on at Birkenhead, England, to enforce a demand for a raise in wages of the engineers, about 2000 men being affected.

At a meeting of the Aberdeen (Scotland) joiners, it was decided to demand that the wages be increased from 16 cents an hour to 18 cents.

FOMOUS CHICAGO LAWYER ON TRIAL

torneys Ford and Keeth. It is believed that the state will rely to a great extent upon the testimony of Bert Franklin, a well known labor man, who was connected with the defence in the McNamara case and who is himself under indictment, charged with jury bribing. It is also believed that Mrs. Orlie E. McManigal and Detective Guy Biddinger, both of Chicago, will be called as witnesses by the state.

The maximum penalty defined for bribery is ten years in prison. For corruptly influencing one drawn as a juror five years and a fine of $5000 is provided by the law. Should Darrow be found guilty on all of the four counts of the charge, 30 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine might be imposed. It is not considered likely however, that the maximum penalty would be inflicted, even if the state should succeed in clearly proving its case against Darrow. The latter denies his guilt and his friends are hopeful that he will succeed in completely clearing himself.
