Notes of Interest From Wake Forest College Athletics

(By Henry J. Langston)

WAKE FOREST, Sept. 21.—At the chapel service a few mornings ago, the President of the college voiced the obvious suggestions of the hazing tragedy at our state university. He expressed the sympathy of our entire community with the circle of loved ones who were weeping a few days ago around the bier of a promising young man, with the faculty and general student body who had been distressed and humiliated by the folly of a few boys an with the whole college world which in a measure discredited, for "hazing" is the crime and shame of American college life.

The above statement with all of its truth and meaning, and with the tragedy of our University and with a tragedy of about the same kind in one of the northern state colleges a few days ago, set the student body of this college not only to thinking, but to acting. And in a mass meeting a few mornings ago the student body took definite steps regarding hazing, after a strong and impressive speech by Dr. Brewer, denouncing hazing in all its form and calling on the men composing the student body to drive it out of the college now and forever. He showed that the tragedy that happened at the University might have happened here, also, he showed that there was no good to come out of this thing called hazing. Then a few words from some of the leading students of the college, begging the men to see the foolishness and folly of hazing and to vote to put all forms out of college; a vote was taken, which resulted in an almost unanimous vote against all forms of hazing. Thus it is now, that we are to have no form of hazing here any longer. Not even to dancing or anything of the nature of hazing, is to be tolerated in Wake Forest College.

In the future mothers and fathers can send their boys to Wake Forest with the assurance that they will not be hazed, but will be regarded as men and treated as such. In other words, the student life here in the future is to be on a common basis, and the privileges of college life here are to be mutual.

It is hoped that this good news will add new friends to this college, to other colleges and universities, and to the whole college world. Indeed, the day has come when every college and university must drive out hazing and make them a fit and safe place for the fathers and mothers to send their boys.

In the last meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, which was on last Monday evening, an employment bureau was formed to be worked by the association. The business of this bureau is to find employment for students who wish to work during the school season and also to get positions for men who wish to work during vacation. This is one among the many good things the Young Men's Christian Association is offering for men and youths of our country.

At a meeting of the Athletic Association a few days ago the following men were elected as officers and also some of the team managers were elected:

- President, Oliver L. Stringfield, Jr. Vice President, R. B. Green. Treasurer and Secretary, W. R. Chambers. Treasurer and Secretary, W. R. Alumni Athletic Association, W. C. Dowd. Manager of basket ball, T. B. Henry. Manager of Base ball, Rollen S. Pruett.

DISTRICT ATTY. WHITMAN INSULTED

He Only Laughs When Called "Shrimp"

At the Hearing at Hot Springs Lieutenant Becker's Lawyers Become a Little Excited

BECKER'S COUNSEL AFTER HIM

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 23.—District Attorney Whitman, of New York, was under fire today when the hearing was resumed to determine what conversations Sam Schepps, the Rosenthal conspiracy witness, had with Hot Springs people during his sojourn here.

Once the district attorney was branded a liar after a tilt with L. E. Sawyer, a Hot Springs lawyer, retained by John W. Hart, representing Police Lieutenant Becker.

"Oh you Arkansas!" coolly retorted Whitman, with a laugh. He seemed as unconcerned when Mr. Hart called him a "little shrimp".

The tilt began when Mr. Hart asked to have other witnesses than this one additional witness, Gilbert Hogaboom, examined.

Mr. Whitman declined, referring to the stipulation made Saturday and the fact that only one person, Hogaboom, had been named.

Then Sawyer asked Mr. Whitman if he would not agree to examination of material witnesses after the regular order had been exhausted.

"I will not," Whitman declared. "Those tactics are old in New York."

"What do you mean by 'tactics'?" Sawyer asked.

"Delay," was Whitman's response. "Do you insinuate that that is meant for delay?" said Sawyer.

"I make no insinuation at all," Whitman replied; "I state it as a fact."

"You are a liar!" shot Sawyer. "Oh, you Arkansas!" retorted Whitman, laughing.

"You little shrimp," interposed Hart, leaning over the table toward Whitman.

The district attorney would not glance at Hart's direction, but continued to laugh at Mr. Sawyer. The hearing then adjourned.

Roosevelt's Bull Moosers Make Clean Sweep in Burke

MORGANTON, Sept. 22.—With the holding the Progressive or Roosevelt convention here yesterday the last vestige of the old stand pat Republican organization was swept away and the Bull Moosers have absolute control of the party organization and named a full county ticket.

The convention was marked by the conspicuous absence of the domination of two or three politicians that have formerly run things. Four years ago President Taft carried the country by a small majority while at the present time the most conservative estimates give him less than 50 supporters in the entire county.

The following ticket was unanimously nominated: Legislature, John M. Mull; sheriff, C. A. Potent; register of deeds, J. M. Patton; treasurer, J. D. Hoke; commissioners, S. M. Huffman, W. M. Walls, J. H. Mull, John Walters and D. N. Johnson.

Mr. Mull, the nominee for the legislature, is a practicing attorney here, being the partner of former Solicitor Spainhour and was postmaster for four years. The Democrats have already named A. N. Dale for the legislature and the race between these two men promises to be a close and interesting one.

Dr Hyatt Coming Dr. H. O. Hyatt will be at Hotel Bertha Monday, September 24th to treat diseases of the eye and fit glasses.

Wanderings Of A Greenville On Florida Soil

(D. J. Whichard)

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 20.—This is really a most wonderful place, and while not so large as Jacksonville, more business is done and more money per capita is in circulation than in any city of similar population in the south, or perhaps in the nation. Tampa proper has about 65,000 population, but the immediate and nearby suburbs increase this to approximately 100,000. While perhaps every state in the union has contributed to this population, fully one-fourth of them are foreigners, the bulk of these being Spaniards and Cubans who work in the hundreds of cigar factories here.

Tampa manufactures more genuine Havana cigars than any place in the world and is the largest contributor of internal revenue to "Uncle Sam". The cigar industry is enormous, the pay rolls of these factories alone aggregating nearly $200,000 a week. And this money quickly finds its way into the channels of trades for it goes to a class of people who receive large wages and part with it quickly. All branches of business, feel the effects of the large pay rolls here and are prosperous.

An idea of Tampa's financial condition and revenue surplus is shown in the fact that a recent bond issue of over $1,000,000 for city improvements was taken by three of the local banks.

The late Henry B. Plant, the railroad magnate and the Atlantic Coast line was to Florida's west gulf coast development what Henry M. Flagler and the East Coast railroad was to the Atlantic coast. Competition and rivalry between these two magnates for their respective sections was strong. One of Platt's pet hobbies was the Tampa Bay hotel here, on which he spent millions and made one of the most palatial in the country. Not only did he make the building and grounds magnificent, but both this and foreign countries were drawn upon lavishly for interior furnishings. He catered to the wealthiest of guests and Pullman cars bringing them here were run right in the building.

After Mr. Platt's death his wife, not feeling the interest in the hotel that he did and not caring to keep it, sold the buildings and grounds to the city for a mere song first stripping the building of several car loads of its most valuable works of art and furnishings for her own use. The city converted the grounds into a public park and leased the hotel, and while much of its grandeur under Platt's control has departed, it is yet a beautiful place.

NEGRO FINDS PACKAGE OF 55,000 WAS MONEY STOLEN FROM EXPRESS CO. SOME DAYS AGO?

PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 23.—The package containing $55,000 in currency, which was mysteriously extracted from an express shipment from the First National Bank here to the Louisville and Nashville pay car at Flomation, Ala., was found today at the rear of the bank by the negro janitor of the building.

Detectives are working on several important clues, which are expected to reveal the identity of the robber. A telephone message received at the bank Saturday evening but which was unheeded under the belief that it was from a practical joker, indicates that the valuable package was placed in the rear of the bank building that evening by the thief.

Bank officials reassert confidence that the package containing the $55,000 was delivered intact to the Southern Express agency here Wednesday morning of last week. When delivery was made to the Louisville and Nashville pay car that day at Flomation the currency which represented the railroad's monthly pay roll for that district, was missing and in its stead were found slips of paper cut from magazines.

That the robber was pursued so relentlessly that his nerve failed him and he crept to the bank and left the money where it was found today, is the belief generally expressed here.

The bank claims to have taken unusual care in preparing the currency for shipment. Several of the bank employes, in an automobile, took the money in a package to the Southern Express Company's office and got a receipt for it. A son of the bank's president was among the men who took the package to the express company.

VANN CONFESSES MURDERING BOY

Did it in Self Defense He Swears in Face Jury

Prisoner Keeps the Chair all the Morning and is Tripped on the Rigid Cross Examination

QUARRELLED OVER MONEY

ELIZABETH CITY, Sept. 23.—Ben F. Vann, accused of the murder of Oliver Layden, a fourteen-year-old boy of Hertford, whose body was found in the woods near Elizabeth City some time ago went on the stand in his behalf when his trial was resumed this morning and confessed that he killed the youth, but did so in self defense.

The defendant told a dramatic story which came as a complete surprise. It had been popularly supposed that the defense would put on no witness. Vann stated that he came to Elizabeth City with Layden. They had words over money which Vann admitted he owed Layden and the lie was passed.

They started back to Belvidere when they reached the forty-nine mile post on the railroad. Vann says they again had words and Layden cursed him and knocked him into the ditch an when he scrambled out, he says Layden came at him with an open knife.

Vann stated that he then shot Layden and when he found that the boy was dead he was scared.

Vann told the jury he then dragged the body into the woods and threw away the revolver and knife. Vann swore that he was so frightened that he didn't know what to do or what to say afterwards and the contradictory statements he made at various times were inspired by fear.

Vann was on the stand almost the entire morning and underwent a scathing cross-examination.

He proved an antagonistic witness on cross-examination and the prosecutor succeeded in confusing him on various details of his story.

It now seems that the defense will consume the entire day introducing testimony.

Wilson Marshall

DEMOCRACY AND BOSSISM

Theodore Roosevelt and his political henchmen are charging that the democracy is "subservient to the bosses." In order that the precise nature of that "subserviency" may be generally understood the Republican begs to place in evidence the most important document which this campaign has thus far brought forth—the letter of Governor Wilson to New Jersey democrats concerning the senatorial candidacy of former Senator James Smith, Jr.

Smith has been for many years the boss of the New Jersey democracy. His word has been law. When he and Governor Wilson crossed swords on the question of the duty of the legislature to ratify the choice of Martin at the primaries the governor won. Now the former senator's late adversary has become the party's candidate for the presidency. Every consideration of political expediency, as "old-guard" politics understands the phrase, would move Governor Wilson to draw if a little easy on Mr. Smith. Does he? Referring to Smith's tariff revision record in Cleveland's second administration, the governor says:

"Mr. Smith was one of a small group of senators calling themselves democrats who, at that critical and hopeful juncture in our politics utterly defeated the programme of the party. His election now might bring the party face to face with a similar disaster and disgrace and would unquestionably render the satisfactory administration of the federal functions in New Jersey all but impossible for a democratic president."

In order to get the proper perspective in viewing this remarkable letter let us try to imagine as like being written a few years since by a man still in public life. When Theodore Roosevelt was governor of New York Thomas Collier Platt was to the Empire state what James Smith is to New Jersey. Governor Roosevelt did, it is true, refuse to make certain appointments desired by Senator Platt, but can the wildest imagination picture him flinging defiance in the face of the "easy boss," antagonizing the "organization" in campaign year?

No. In the hour of decision Mr. Roosevelt was always "right" with the organization. He had the support of Quay, the support of Hanna, the support of Platt, the support of Cannon, the support of Penrose. He has the support of Perkins and Flinn today.

In the 'nities the republican and democratic parties alike were boss-ridden. Beside Hanna, Platt and Quay, we must range Gorman, Brice, Hill and Smith. Smith, who was one of the "sugar senators" who kept that staple off the free list of the Wilson bill, confessed in the senatorial inquiry that he had speculated in sugar at the moment when he was aiding in holding up the sugar schedule.

The republican boss domination has continued to the present. Penrose ruled the republican convention at Chicago, even as Hanna and Platt used to rule of old. But a new day has come to the democracy and a candidate chosen by the people, boldly challenges the organization leader in his own state and calls on all good democrats to aid in his defeat.

In the Wilson letter on the Smith candidacy may be read the spirit of present-day democracy.

The Great London Shows Consolidated, which comes to Greenville, Friday, October 4th, will bring special importations in the way of all kinds of new circus acts which have been secured in conjunction with a long string of the pick of American performers.
Every department has been increased extensively, and it is claimed the exhibition of blooded horses is the best ever offered, among which are the wonderful Dublin Grays, the Big Six, who have captured all of the prizes at the prominent horse shows. They are valued at $25,000.
The parade, said to be the "finest turnout of any circus has ever made in any country," will traverse the principal streets on the morning of show day.

STATEMENT BY TILLMAN

Has Had Nothing to Say About the Senatorial Fight in This State (Charlotte Observer, Sept. 20, 1912.) To the Editor of the Observer:

An editorial appeared in your paper of September 14, headed "A Message from Tillman," in which you stated that some mythical person from South Carolina, related to Senator Simmons and a group of friends that several days ago, he saw Senator B. R. Tillman and told him he expected to meet Senator Simmons in Charlotte. He asked Senator Tillman what, if anything, he (the South Carolinian) should say to his North Carolina friends as coming from Tillman. The South Carolina Senator said with emphasis: "They should return Simmons to the Senate by a landslide."

Knowing Senator Tillman to be a man of an entirely different type from Senator Simmons, I wrote him and asked him as to the truth in that statement. I have received the enclosed reply thereto. I trust that you will give the many admirers of Senator Tillman and the Senator himself a square deal in this matter, by printing his denial with the same prominence with which you printed the uninvestigated assertion.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM M. WILSON,
Manager for Clark in Mecklenburg.

Trenton, N. C., Sept. 17, 1912.
W. M. Wilson, Esq.,
Charlotte, N. C.

My Dear Sir:
I have yours of Sept. 14. I have nothing whatever to say about the senatorial fight in North Carolina, because I would deem it very improper for an outsider to "butt in" to a contest like that going on in your state. I do not read the Charlotte Observer, or I would have written to the editor.

Very truly yours,
B. R. TILLMAN.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists. Price 15c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
