B. VANN APPEALS TO SUPREME COURT

Sentence of 25 Years Passed on Him

PRISONER CALMLY FACES JURY

Story of Quarrel Believed to Have Saved Layden's Slayer From Death in the Electric Chair

ELIZABETH CITY, Sept. 25.—B. F. Vann, the confessed slayer of Oliver Layden, whose dead body was found in the woods near this city about a month ago, was today found guilty of murder in the second degree and the court immediately sentenced the prisoner to twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

Vann's counsel noted an appeal to the supreme court and Judge Lane fixed the convicted man's bond at $5,000.

The jury retired shortly after Judge Lane had concluded instructing them last night.

Vann's testimony that he killed Oliver Layden in self defense during a quarrel over a small debt is believed by many to have saved him from the electric chair.

The prisoner was brought in court about 9:30 this morning after the jury had announced that it had reached a verdict during the night.

For the first time during the entire trial his mother and sister were absent. Of his counsel Judge George Ward and W. M. Bond were with him.

Vann stood up to hear the verdict without a perceptible tremor with much of the apparent indifference which has characterized his manner throughout the trial.

Later he heard sentence passed on him without the slightest expression on his countenance.

Judge Lane declared that he had not allowed himself to be swayed by public sentiment, nor had he been carried away by his sympathies.

The sentence he was about to impose, he said, would find the prisoner a mature man at its expiration, but would still leave him an opportunity to come out and do something to redeem his past life.

Mr. Bond, for the prisoner, made the formal motion that the verdict be set aside and a new trial granted on errors to be assigned. This motion was denied by the court.

Pitt's Contribution to the Wilson Fund Gets Boost

Wilson's Campaign Fund from Pitt county went a little further today when Mr. Pierce received a letter from Bethel. Democrats there spoke to the tune of $10.50. Another three names have been added to the Greenville list and it now looks as though the century mark will be passed before Pitt's contribution is called for incorporation to the fund.

DISCOVER PLAN TO FREE S. ALLEN

Wooden Keys Found on A Brother Prisoner

BALDWIN DETECTIVES KEEP PREY

Three Wooden Keys Were to Open Cell and Prison Doors to the Famous Hillsville Court Shooter

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 25.—But for the care of Baldwin detectives, who took Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards to Hillsville Sunday, where they were arraigned in court Monday morning to hear indictments charging them with the murder of court officers, both prisoners might now have been at large.

It was learned that three wooden keys, skillfully made to fit locks on the Hillsville jail, were found on another prisoner in the jail. When the detectives placed their prisoners in the jail the other occupants were searched as a precaution against escape.

On an who had been sentenced from Carroll county for moonshining were found the three wooden keys. It is said he is a friend of Sidna Allen and it is believed he made the keys to aid the prisoners in their escape. He had acted as a trusty and in that way had time to study the locks and develop his models.

The detectives tried the keys on the jail doors, one unlocked the door to Sidna's cell, another turned the lock in the cell tier, while the third was made for the outside door.

Nearly Half A Million Pounds of Tobacco in Town Today

As ventured in yesterday's Reflector, another big break took place in the tobacco market today. Approximately half a million pounds were rolled into town between last night and this morning.

The sale was blocked yesterday, when five o'clock came around and second sale houses had not gotten through with their contents. Some fancy prices were given at the Star, one pile of 100 pounds, we remember, bringing $47.00. In the Centre Brick, which happened to be another second sale warehouse, quite a few piles of tobacco remained on the floor at 5 o'clock, but the sale for this morning was waived in order not to break the continuity of sales as arranged before the opening of the market.

The quality of the tobacco being brought in seems way ahead of that of the weed which used to crowd the houses at the beginning of the season, and naturally prices are still soaring high. They are probably trying to catch up with the price of beef and other life's necessities, which have taken to aviation in the past few months.

Two Negroes Engage in A Knife Play in Tobaccotown

A little after seven o'clock this morning two colored men, Ashley Hopkins and Jucas Joyner, employed by the Liggett Myers Co., had a quarrel in the Gum Warehouse, and from heated words the encounter grew into a knife contest.

Joyner proved to be the unfortunate one, as he received a wound that began somewhere near the ear on the left side of the face, traveled south and along the cheek until it reached the chin, where probably the knife slipped off and viciously smote the atmosphere.

Joyner was taken over to Dr. Skinner's to undergo the necessary repairs, whilst Hopkins made a dash for freedom before the impending arrest.

Mr. Base Ball Fan: Begin Now to Save Dough for the Series

GIANTS AND RED SOX TO BATTLE FOR TITLE OF WORLD'S CHAMPIONS BEGINNING TUESDAY OCTOBER 8 IN GOTHAM

New York, Sept. 25.—The National Baseball Commission, in session here today, decided that the opening game of the world's baseball series will be held in this city on Tuesday, October 8. The games will alternate between here and Boston, one game in each city until the series is concluded.

The Boston club will control the sale of tickets in that city. This is a victory for Ban Johnson in the American League.

The umpires selected were—National League: Klem and Rigler; American League, O'Loughlin and Evans.

The toss of a coin decided which city was to get the opening game.

A second toss, with similar result, fixed the opening game for Tuesday, October 8. The Boston club preferred Monday, October 7.

In New York the sale of tickets will be handled by the National Commission. Boston has worked out a plan, it was announced, whereby tickets will be delivered, so far as is practicable, to persons who have already made application. Their applications have been filed and they will be notified to send the money. Tickets good for three games each will be issued.

In New York, with a view to defeating the speculators the only seats reserved will be a block of 8,500 in the upper grandstand. Seats in the lower grandstand and bleachers will be sold at the Polo Grounds and each person purchasing a ticket must pass directly into the grounds.

In the event of rain it was decided that the visiting team should remain in town until the game is played.

Among the reserved seats will be a block of 75 for the National Commission; two each for each member of the opposing teams and not over fifty tickets for representatives of the local papers.

The number to be allotted to out-of-town correspondents was not announced. The list will be approved by the Baseball Writer's Association.

Periscent Herrmann, of the National Commission, who was spokesman for the conferees, added that "every effort would be made to prevent tickets from falling into the hands of spectators."

PRESIDENT TAFT PROMISES TARIFF REVISION

TO DO THIS HOWEVER, HE MUST BE RE-ELECTED—EXPRESS-BELIEF THAT WOMEN "CAN" VOTE.

DISCUSSES THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Evening World today publishes an interview with President Taft, in which the President goes at length into some of the issues of the campaign.

The President promises a revision of the tariff on a scientific basis so far as may be necessary to keep the prices from being exorbitant. This may be done by the continuance of the tariff board's investigation into the facts, the President is quoted as saying.

The President then hinted at an extra tariff revision session in case the Republicans should be in control of the next Congress.

Referring to the high cost of living, the President expressed the opinion that American workmen were very much better off than the workmen of Europe; not only were they able to pay the high cost of living, he said, but also they could put something aside for a rainy day. The Payne tariff law had $10 more to do with the high cost of living than the latest Atlantic cable tariff, he declared.

FIRST AERIAL FERRY TO BE IN LONG ISLAND

THE WRIGHT COMPANY PROMISES TO CROSS THE SOUND WITH PASSENGERS AND MAIL

IT IS SAID TO BE ABSOLUTELY SAFE

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Mail and passengers are to be carried by an aeroplane ferry which will be established by the Wright Aeroplane Company across Long Island Sound from the station and school at Glen Head and New Rochelle. Regular trips at stated intervals are to be made. The establishment of the ferry will mark the first steps toward putting the hydro-aeroplane machine to commercial use. Officials of the company predict that in another year hydro-aeroplane ferries will crop up in many important parts of the country. The trip across the Sound can be made in a quarter of the time it takes a ferry-boat to make it.

Charles Wald, who taught Wright pupils at Dayton, Ohio, is the chief aviator at the school at Glen Head. The headquarters of the school are at the grounds of the Glenwood Country Club. Mr. Wald will inaugurate the ferry service. He has already made several practical and spectacular trips across to the New York shore from Long Island. He said passengers will run no danger of getting wet or meet-

Tampa Has Characteristics of Other Great Cities

(By D. J. Whichard)

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 23.—The traveler who has taken in the western shore of our continent will recall that San Francisco has her China Town, a considerable section of the city where the Chinese residents live to themselves. Tampa has her counterpart of this in Ybor City, a section occupied almost exclusively by Spaniards, Cubans and Italians, each nationality being somewhat to itself. They have their banks, one noticed with a capital of $100,000; their stores, some of them as fine and attractive as any in the city; their club buildings, places of amusement, coffee houses, so that it appears much like a city in their native country. A Saturday night trip through Ybor City is a reminder of China Town in San Francisco, or the Bowery in New York, though with an absence of dangers that effect both the latter. Here the visitor can go at will without the least fear of molestation.

There are also a large number of colored people here and they, too, live in sections to themselves. In fact Tampa has some citizens of various nationalities so that her population is quite cosmopolitan, but the Southern sentiment largely prevails. This is true except on Sunday when everything is entirely too wide open. One good thing about the town is it goes to bed early and gets up early. The climate or something makes the folks sleepy and they want plenty of it. Not many of the stores keep open after night and the streets are deserted so early that even the picture shows are ready to close by 9:30.

While there is plenty of business and enterprise here, with every prospect of much more of both, Tampa is rather backward in civic pride. It is naturally a beautiful place and could be made almost a paradise with little attention to lawns, parks and streets, which just now are unkept and apparently left to take care of themselves. This may in a measure be due to the absence of many home owners just at this season, for Tampa

THE PITT COUNTY OIL CO.
Winterville, N. C.
9 26 2d 1p

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 25.—That Governor Wilson won a sweeping victory in New Jersey primaries was evident from the returns which sifted into Democratic headquarters here during the early hours of the day. In his fight to prevent the nomination for United States Senator of former Senator James Smith, Jr., Governor Wilson carried the state by a plurality of early, if not quite $20,000, winning in every county except one—that one being Essex, the strong hold of the Smith forces.

Returns from 511 of the 1,799 districts in the state gave Representative William Hughes, the Wilson candidate, 17,020 votes to 11,751 for Smith. Even Essex county, which includes the city of Newark, didn't pile up for Senator Smith the overwhelming vote which he had expected to receive from his neighbors and townspeople. With a few districts missing the vote of Essex showed Smith only 4,000 ahead of his opponent. On the other side was Hudson county with an indicated Hughes plurality of 8,000 and Mercer county, with a Hughes plurality of 1,600.

The Morning Star, owned by Mr. Smith, conceded the election of Hughes at 2 o'clock this morning. Judge Hughes later issued the following statement from his home in Paterson:

"The vote is an absolute expression of the people of New Jersey in favor of the politics of Governor Wilson. On this basis I submitted my candidacy to the people and then they supported me admirably. The victory of Woodrow Wilson seems now assured at the November election."

It is believed that practically all the Wilson candidates for nomination throughout the state, outside of Essex, were successful. All told, each party selected twelve candidates for Congress, sixty-six candidates for the state legislature and many county and municipal officers.

The vote was light all over the state, although leaders declared that this was due more in inclement weather than to lack of interest. On the Republican side the primaries were uneventful. Senator Frank O. Briggs received an uncontested endorsement.

The Progressives did not figure in the voting except in Hudson county, where they defeated the regular organization and nominated their candidates for Congress and for the state legislature. In other sections of the state they will nominate their candidates by petition.

Wilson in Connecticut
NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson and Governor Hiram Johnson invaded Connecticut today.

The former left New York early today for Hartford where he made an address.

This evening he goes to New Haven for a meeting while Governor Johnson's program took him to New Haven this afternoon and Hartford for the evening.

Governor Wilson planned to spend the night in New Haven and tomorrow he will go to Springfield, Barre and Fall River, Mass. On Friday he will visit Boston and Bridgeport. While in Connecticut and Massachusetts Governor Wilson will be greeted by Governors Baldwin and Foss, respectively.

On some of the occasions the New England governors will speak from the same platform with the ominee. Governor Wilson was keenly pleased to see today that early returns indicated a victory by William Hughes, whom he supported against James Smith, Jr., in the New Jersey primaries for United States Senator.

ROOSEVELT, THE MAGICIAN

In North Dakota Roosevelt, the magician, waved his wand and divided the voters into two classes—those who are with the Bull Moose party and against Wall street, and those who are against the Bull Moose party and with Wall street. How easy it is: just a few words and all the "absolutely pure" assemble themselves under the Perkins-Roosevelt standard and the bad divide among the two old parties. And yet this is the same Roosevelt who, less than a year ago, could not see enough difference between Taft and La Follette to justify him in taking sides against Taft, but as soon as he becomes a candidate himself the man who does not embrace the trusts and shout for a third term becomes an enemy of his country. Can he fool the public with his slight-of-hand performances?

THREE MOTTOES

"What's the use?" seems to be Mr. Taft's motto. He sees there is no chance and is not disposed to worry himself about the campaign.
"I can't make it any worse," appears to be the attitude of the ex-president; so he plunges into the campaign and lets loose some new misrepresentation with each speech.
"I'll work anyhow," is Governor Wilson's slogan. Although the people show themselves willing to offer him the presidency on a platter he is responding to the demand for speeches.

There is an opportunity at this season of the year for Greenville merchants to draw much trade from the surrounding towns and country. There is money in the country now, and to bring it here Greenville merchants must offer as good or better inducements as can be had elsewhere, and they must let the people know what they have and that they are here for business. The Reflector is read by these people and is ready to carry the message to them.

The season of the year is drawing near when the need of good roads will be in evidence and the time is coming on apace when the good roads will be constructed. They are something—all North Carolina must have, and Pitt county can not afford to lay behind in the march of progress. The next few years will show wonderful changes in this particular.

The decision of the Democratic state executive committee that only those persons who vote the entire Democratic ticket, from president to township constable, without scratching a man, will be permitted to vote in the senatorial primary, means that there are going to be a number of people in Pitt county who will not express any preference for senator.

The Reflector man returning from a trip south had hardly got his seat warm before he caught wind of a new enterprise—a cotton seed oil mill—coming Greenville's way. In short definite information will be ready for our readers and it will be good news.

Registration books for the coming election will be open from the 3rd to the 23rd of October. As there is no new registration, only those who have become of age or changed their residence since the last election will be required to register.

With the amount of money flowing into the Republican campaign fund, there will be enough to buy Roosevelt off on the eve of the election provided he cannot be pulled off any other way.

A Jamestown, N. Y., man drank a quart of whiskey in five minutes and died in less than half an hour afterward. The stuff kills plenty of people who do not drink it that fast.

Greenville and Pitt county only needed a little stirring to get in line with contributions to the Wilson campaign fund. The stirring came and the money followed.

It is pleasant to visit other portions of the country and see what is going on, but North Carolina in general and Greenville in particular look good to get back to.

In no town visited in Florida did we see a court house as pretty as the one in Greenville, even if there was a good many other things that are ahead of us.

Charlotte papers say construction gangs are rapidly pushing the work building the Norfolk Southern railroad to that city.

Everybody in and around Greenville is busy, with the wise advertiser well in the lead of the race.

Teddy R. is to talk to the Raleigh folks next Tuesday and tell them about his Bull Moose party.

Mr. Mercer Tyson returned to school in Baltimore today.

The nights are getting almost cool enough for night wraps.

The Ladies of the Round Table will meet with Mrs. J. E. Winslow Friday at 3:30 p. m.

Luna Hides Her Face

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26.—Observers of the celestial spheres were up and astir before the first crowing of the rooster this morning to witness the partial eclipse of the moon. In this vicinity, it is true, the astronomers were somewhat apathetic regarding the eclipse, for the reason that the time when the moon entered the shadow of the earth was so close to the hour of daybreak that no observations of value could be taken. In the far western part of the country the chances to view the salient features of the eclipse were much better.

Federal Building Dedicated

PANA, Ill., Sept. 26.—Pana's new Federal Building, which was recently completed at a cost of $70,000, was dedicated today with interesting exercises. Former Congressman Ben F. Caldwell, of Springfield, delivered the dedication address.

Women in Third Party

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 26.—Seven were among the accredited delegates to the state convention of the Progressive party of Connecticut, which met in this city today to name candidates for state office, congress and presidential electors and to adopt a platform and complete arrangements for the state campaign.

Missouri Confederate Veterans

WARRENSBURG, Mo., Sept. 26.—Scores of Confederate veterans from various parts of the state are here in attendance upon a three-day session, beginning today, of the annual convention of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Missouri. The city is decorated in honor of the old soldiers and ample entertainment has been provided for them and their friends.

Pendleton's Round-Up Carnival

PENDLETON, Ore., Sept. 26.—Pendleton's annual Round-up carnival got under way today under conditions of the most favorable character. The city is crowded with visitors who have come from all over the northwest to witness the competitions and take part in the festivities. The United States, Canada and Mexico, have sent their most expert riders and ropers to compete for the championship honors and cash prizes aggregating several thousand dollars.

Lively Bout Expected

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 26.—Quaker City fight fans are looking forward to a lively bout at the Olympic Club tomorrow night, when Billy Papke, the "Illinois Thunderbolt," and Leo Houck of Manchester, will mix it up for six rounds. Houck has many ardent admirers in this vicinity and they confidentially expect that he will be able to hold his own against the former middleweight champion. The bout will be the last in which Papke will engage before he sails for Paris to meet George Carpentier, the French champion.

Tampa Has

pans love vacations and most of them who go away do so late in the summer. When preparations commence for winter visitors there may be improvements in this particular. There is room for it.

In the country out from Tampa, and even in the suburbs, are numerous orange and grape fruit groves. It was a treat to get out to some of these and see the trees laden with fruit, some of it so heavy as to bend the limbs to the ground. The fruit is green now but will begin ripening next month. We were especially interested in the grove of Mr. J. T. Wilder, who has 20 acres of trees from which he says he will gather 5,000 boxes this season. He also raises celery, pecans and poultry, specializing on Orpingtons and has a dairy herd. Though Mr. Wilder was born in Florida he is of North Carolina stock, his relatives being around Charlotte and he has enough Tar Heel blood to make him seem like one of us. He was just that courteous that he left a right new baby long enough to show us about his grove and explain how he handles the trees and fruit.

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 23.—The Citrus industry is a big asset to Florida. As we have stated before this year's crop is expected to bring $15,000,000 to the state. Recent years have brought a decided improvement in marketing the crop. This is done mainly through the Florida Citrus Exchange, whose headquarters and main offices are in Tampa. The exchange has branches and packing houses throughout the orange district. It is jealous of the reputation of Florida fruit, and not only looks to the interest of the grower, but also of the consumer. Every package of fruit bearing the stamp of the citrus exchange has the guarantee of being just as represented and orders they book are filled at the time stipulated. This is not the case when fruit is bought indiscriminately from independent shippers, who will palm off on the buyer anything that looks like an orange and will only fill orders if they happen to pick up the fruit under the price agreed upon, and failing to fill them is agreed in case of an advance in price or an opportunity to get more from other buyers. There is no reliability as to quality, no certainty of getting the goods when buying outside the exchange.

Another thing the citrus exchange has done is to secure the enactment of laws regulating shipments of fruit from the state. These laws forbid the shipment of green, premature and inferior fruit that reaches the consumer in such poor condition as to injure the reputation of Florida in competition with that from California. Even this early when the fruit is barely beginning to turn, some independent shippers anxious to be first in the market when prices are higher, are trying to smuggle car loads of green grape fruit out of the state contrary to the citrus laws. Representatives of the exchange are on the lookout for such shipments and when intercepted the fruit is confiscated and the shipper prosecuted. But with all this diligence an occasional car slips by.

Leaving Tampa for home the trip back nearly to Jacksonville was by daylight and the country was a revelation. Around Plant City, Lakeland, Orlando, Winter Park, Sanford, and other points the orange groves are immense. Sanford is also noted as the celery city. All we saw of Florida was full of interest and the trip will be long held in pleasant memory.

Mexican President Offers Rebels Terms to End Lengthy Struggle

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 25.—A new movement to obtain peace in Northern Mexico was made today when President Madero and his cabinet instructed the minister of war to offer amnesty to the followers of Pascual Orzoco, the rebel leader.

Stringent measures such as the government's recent suspension of constitutional guarantees and the execution of numerous rebels failed to have the deterrent effect anticipated by the government.

The revolution in the north, which two months ago was confined principally to the state of Chihuahua, has spread to Sonora, Coahuila and other States.

Only yesterday President Madero asked Congress for an appropriation of $20,000,000 pesos, or a loan authorization and admitted there was less than thirty million pesos in the national treasury.

The government is convinced with the truth of reports that General Higinio Aguilar, of the regular army, who recently disappeared from the capital, is at the head of a large body of rebels operating on the boundary between Pueblo and Oaxaca.

This is My Birthday

King of Denmark

King Christian X., who succeeded his father on the Danish throne last year, was born in Copenhagen, September 26, 1870. He received both military and scholastic education. In his youth he served as a private in the Danish army and some years ago attained a major's rank and later the grade of general through merited promotion, as was often attested by the character of papers he read before the Society of War Science. The future king took his university degree when he was 18 years old and shortly before he came to the throne he added an honorary D. Sc., the thesis for it being a discussion of political science. King Christian was married in 1893 to Princess Alexandrine of Mecklenburg-Schwerin. The royal couple have two sons, the eldest of whom, Crown Prince Frederick is now in his fourteenth year.

Congratulations to:

Irving Bacheller, the well known novelist, 53 years old today. George F. Baer, president of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company, 70 years old today. Odette Tyler, successful comedienne and author, 43 years old today.

REWARD

A reward of Two Hundred Dollars will be paid for the arrest and conviction of two or more of the parties guilty of cutting the Stock Law Fence on the New Bern road, or a reward of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars for the arrest and conviction of one single person for cutting said fence.

Commissioners of Pitt County. Sept. 19th, 1912. 9 11 11md&w

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Gertrude Dallas has replaced Katherine Kaelred in the cast of "The Ne'er-Do-Well".

Mrs. Louis James has decided to remain in vaudeville for another year. "Little Boy Blue" will begin its second season at Newark late this month.

Daniel Frohman has accepted a one-act play called "Trapped", by Frederick Arnold Kummer.

"The Garden of Allah" is reported to have had "the biggest kind of an opening" in Chicago.

R. C. Carton's English play of the newly rich, entitled "The Bear Leaders", has been sold to America.

Mme. Simone is to have a play called "The Modern Way," by Macdonald Hastings, the young author of "The New Sin".

The author of "The Angelus" is said to be a priest, a graduate of Maynooth College, who veils his identity under a pen name for obvious reasons.

Nazimova will begin her season with "The Marionettes," and later on she will appear in a dramatization of Robert Hichens' "Bella Donna".

"A Strange Woman," William A. Hurbut's play, written with Mrs. Fiske in mind as the heroine, will be used by Mrs. Leslie Carter this season.

At the end of the present month William H. Crane will begin his fiftieth season on the American stage. He will continue to play "The Senator Keeps House".

Mary Shaw, who is now on the way to complete recovery from a recent bad fall, has written a play with Henry Irving Dodge, author of "The Higher Court".

Eddie Foy is in trouble in New York for allowing "the seven little Foyes" to appear and sing upon the stage with him. Incidentally "the seven little Foyes" made a big hit.

While Hauptmann's native town snubbed him by refusing him its freedom on his fiftieth birthday, England is preparing to present Mme. Bernhardt with a signed memorial on her birthday, Oct. 23.

Will H. Vodrey, a colored man, composed the music for "The Girls in Happyland." He composes all the scores for the Hurtig shows, and is under contract, it is said, not to publish any of the scores.

Mie. Dazie, the dancer, who is now in "The Merry Countess," is to make her debut as an actress at a matinee performance of "The Master of the House". She wishes to make a test of her capabilities as an actress.

Missouri Valley Physicians Meet COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 25.—The Missouri Valley Medical Association, which embraces Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, and South Dakota, met in twenty-fifth annual convention in Council Bluffs today for a two day's session.
