WANTED TO FRAME UP LIEUT. BECKER

Witness For Defense Is Admitted to Chair

BOTH SIDES THROUGH CASE

Summing up Will Take All Day Today, Case Going to the Jury Probably Sometime Tonight

New York, Oct. 22.—The defense in the case of Police Lieutenant Becker charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal signified that it rested at noon today, but Justice Goff taking it into his own hands reopened the testimony and recalled to the stand "Jack Sullivan" who had previously testified for the defense.

"There were certain questions put by the defense to this witness which I excluded before. I now permit you to put those questions," he said to John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel.

Mr. McIntyre said he declined to put the questions now, as he preferred to let the case stand as it was.

"Then I direct the District Attorney to ask the witness those questions," said Justice Goff, "in the interest of the defense."

Mr. McIntyre's vigorous objections were disregarded.

The action of the defense in announcing that it desired to rest was sudden and unexpected. Mr. McIntyre had said less than an hour before that he expected to call Becker to the stand.

The morning session had been taken up mainly with testimony introduced to sustain with testimony of the defense that the informers, Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepps, had "framed up" Becker to save themselves. Character witnesses were then called and Mr. McIntyre announced that he was through.

By the court's direction "Jack Sullivan" was recalled.

"What did Rose say to you in the Council room," asked the District Attorney of Sullivan.

"He said 'self preservation is the first law of nature; I had to testify against Becker to save my life.'"

"What did Bridgie Webber say?"

"He said, 'I am the happiest man in the world. That — Rosenthal is dead and I don't have to worry about his getting me now. Now, Jack, it's all been fixed up by the District Attorney for you to corroborate us when we testify. We are all Jews and what do we care about that Dutch — Becker, anyhow?'"

"Did Rose say anything else to you?"

"Yes he said that he and Webber and Vallon and Schepps were going to 'frame up' Becker, and I said 'Why you bald-headed —, what do you mean by this?' He said, 'Well, you know, self-preservation is the first law of nature.'"

Sullivan said he took no part in the assassination of Rosenthal nor in the alleged conspiracy of Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepps to assassinate the gambler.

"Bridgie Webber said to me, 'The only way you can get out is for you to do as Mr. Whitman says and swear you saw Becker at Forty-second street and Sixth avenue a few hours after the murder. If you do that you will get out like we will, after the trial. If you don't you'll be indicted and spend six months in jail.'"

"Did Webber offer any money to corroborate him?"

"Yes he said, 'For God's sake, Jack, say that you saw Becker as we will testify. If you want any money, I'll give you $1,000 now and when you get out we will go into the hotel business. I'll put in $25,000 and we'll divide the profits evenly. All you have to do is to lie for me; if you lie it's all right. If you don't you'll go to jail.'"

COLONEL ROOSEVELT BACK IN HIS SHELL

EX-PRESIDENT REACHES HOME AT OYSTER BAY, AND IS IN FOR SOME DAYS OF REAL REST

PROBABLY TAKE UP CAMPAIGNING

OYSTER BAY, Oct. 22.—A week of absolute rest is all that is required, in the opinion of his physicians, to put Colonel Roosevelt in the best of condition.

At the end of that time if he follows the strict regime which has been planned for him, it is expected that he will be able to take up the campaign in the closing days.

The Colonel reached Sagamore Hill from Chicago shortly after 10 o'clock today and walked unassisted up the stairs and went to bed, expecting to remain there most of the day. When the automobile carrying Colonel Roosevelt reached the house, the colonel stepped out, declining assistance. "It's mighty good to be home again," he said.

While a week was set as the period of absolute rest it was explained that for a considerably longer time Colonel Roosevelt must avoid hard work and will be impossible for him to attempt to make many speeches.

Several weeks will be required for the complete healing of the wound and the knitting of the fractured rib.

Schrank, Would-be-Roosevelt's Assassin, Now Penitent

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 22.—John Schrank has arrived at the stage of being sorry for his attempt upon the life of Colonel Roosevelt, according to the statement today of a prisoner on trial in Municipal Court.

John Frey, on trial for murder, was lodged in the same tier of cells with Schrank. He has played checkers with Schrank and during one game Schrank, according to Frey, said: "I considered it my duty at the time I fired to rid the country of a third term. But I am sorry now."

Rifle Shooting in Greenville Heights is Very Dangerous

Promiscuous and irresponsible rifle shooting is causing a great deal of anxiety amongst residents of that part of town known as Greenville Heights.

Only quite recently the twelve year old daughter of Mr. John Turnage was struck on the back by a small stray projectile inflicting a wound that at first seemed rather serious.

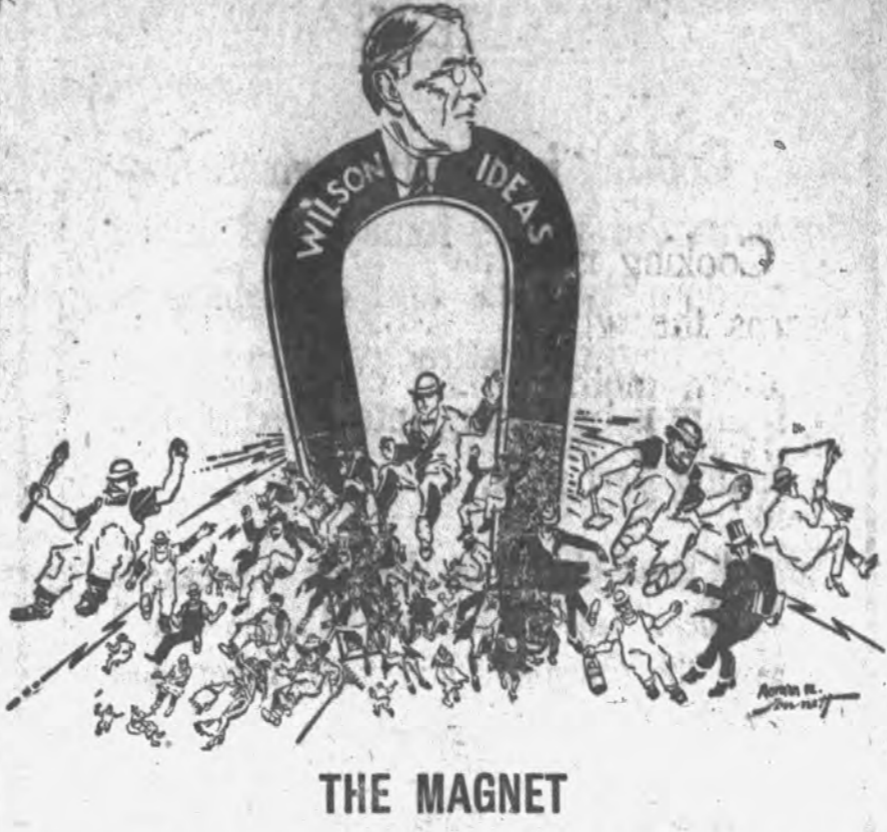

The shooting is probably being done by small boys in possession of the rifles which called for so much protest during this time last year. Parents should not be too indulgent with their children in allowing them to purchase fire arms which from appearance deceive, as to the harm they can do.

Saturday the Last Day

Next Saturday, 26th, is the last day on which voters can register for the coming election, except those who become of age between that day and the day of election. Those who were registered in the last election, or who have not changed their residence to another precinct since then, do not have to register again this year, but all who have become of age in the last two years or have moved to another precinct must register.

Notable Wedding in Ottawa

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 23.—Many persons of prominence attended the wedding here today of Miss Germaine Nantel, daughter of the Hon. W. R. Nantel, the Dominion minister of inland revenue and Mr. C. A. Seguin, a prominent lawyer of that city.

Uncle Sams Post Office Men Frame Law on Paper Circulation

From Now on no Subscriber Owing a Publisher Over a Year's Subscription Will Not be Able to Receive Paper Without Getting the Publisher in Trouble

NO LOOPHOLE LEFT, PAPERS MUST CLEAN LISTS

Now and then of late The Reflector has asked its readers to look at the date after their name on the paper and if it showed them in arrears to send in a remittance to bring up their subscription. It has become necessary for us to call attention to this again, especially those subscribers as much as a year in arrears and give notice that the paper will have to stop going to them unless they pay at once.

We have just received a notice from the Third Assistant Postmaster General which says:

"The right of publishers to extend in good faith credit on subscriptions is recognized and will not be abridged, and although all subscribers are regarded as expiring with the period for which they were obtained, nevertheless, in order to give an opportunity to secure renewals, copies of their publications will be accepted for mailing as to subscribers at the usual second-class rates of postage for a period of one year from the date of expiration; but copies sent to persons after one year from the date of the expiration of their subscriptions unless such subscriptions be expressly renewed for a definite time, together with an actual payment of subscription or a bona fide promise of payment, will not be accepted at the pound rate, but will be accepted at the transit second class rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed."

Black Pugilist Now Has to Face Representatives of Uncle Sam

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The Federal grand jury today began its investigation into the Jack Johnson-Lucile Cameron affair with a view to learning whether the negro pugilist has violated the Mann act by causing the Cameron girl and other young women to be brought to this city for illegal purposes.

The first witness to be questioned was Mrs. Cameron-Falconnet, of Minneapolis, the girl's mother, who has been waging a fight to induce her daughter to quit Johnson.

Lucile Cameron, who has been held in the Rockford, (Ill.) jail, in default of $25,000 bonds, and her mother appeared at the Federal building and while they waited to be called into the jury room the mother again pleaded with the girl to give up the negro pugilist and also to tell the jurors all she could regarding her relations with him.

Jack Curley, fight promoter, who was wanted in connection with the case, appeared at the Federal building and said he was ready to tell all he knew of the affair.

A search was made for him yesterday, but he could not be located. Curley said Johnson and the Cameron girl had been at his home only twice. The first time to meet her mother, he said, and the other time when the champion came to ask him to look after his planned fights in Australia.

Lucile Cameron will, according to present plans, tell her story of her relations with the negro immediately after her mother has completed her testimony.

PENN. DEMOCRATS IN LIVELY CAMPAIGN

TO WREST LEADERSHIP FROM THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY IN KEYSTONE STATE, IT IS PROPOSED

BOSS FLYNN STRONG BULL MOOSE

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Campaign managers are revising plans and altering arrangements for the wind-up of the presidential fight.

The inquiry to Colonel Roosevelt, the voluntary withdrawal of Governor Wilson from the stump and the fact that neither President Taft nor Vice-President Sherman have taken part in the active work of the campaign have resulted in changing plans in all three of the chief political camps.

The ensuing two weeks will witness a concentration of activity in the sections where the respective campaign managers believe the outlook is most favorable for the capture of disputed ground. Governor Johnson, Progressive vice presidential nominee, is to fill in most of Colonel Roosevelt's proposed engagements in the East and the Democratic leaders are rushing a number of their chief speakers into Pennsylvania and New York to take up the work planned originally for Governor Wilson.

The Democratic campaign will center in Pennsylvania from this time forth according to statements made here.

Travelling at 55 Mile Rate Aviator Falls; Escapes Death

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Flung from a speeding aeroplane and miraculously escaping death, William Kabatzke an aviator, today was receiving the congratulations of his friends at the army aviation field at College Park, Md. The accident occurred late yesterday when Kabatzke, in demonstrating a machine ordered for the signal corps, flew too close to the ground and one of the wings striking he was hurled from his seat into a pile of soft sand.

The machine which was traveling at a speed of approximately 55 miles an hour, was demolished. Kabatzke escaped with a few bruises.

Tobacco Market Has Another Good Break With High Prices

Another good break of the tobacco market kept warehousemen busy today, something like 200,000 pounds being auctioned in the five warehouses.

Incredible as it may seem, prices continue to climb, and it seems that farmers are doing their very best in hurrying whatever has been left from the terrific rush of the early season.

Want Eastern Star Home

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Oct. 23.—The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Iowa grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star which settled down to business here today, is featured by a spirited contest of rival cities to secure the Eastern Star Masonic home. The home was formerly located at Boone, but it was destroyed by fire last spring. Boone is making a strong effort to have it rebuilt there, while Marshalltown and Cedar Rapids are offering strong inducements to secure the institution.

Vermont Sunday Schools

BARRE, Vt., Oct. 23.—A large attendance marked the opening here today of the annual convention of the Vermont Sunday School Association. The meeting will last three days and will have as speakers W. C. Pearce, of Chicago, H. S. Conant of Boston and several other Sunday School workers of national reputation.

ALLIED ARMIES CROWDING TURKS

Guerrilla Warfare to be War's Feature

ARMED PEASANTS TAKE PART

147 Peasants of the Bulgarian Village of Girono Are Massacred by the Turkish Soldiers

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The armies of Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece continue to clear their way to their main objective points the Turkish fortresses of Uskup, Adrianople and Servia, the last a town on the Grecian frontier.

Greek armies have crossed the Turkish frontier at two points. In Epirus, at the western end, they have occupied the heights of Grimbova, while at the eastern end they are pursuing the Turkish troops to their base at Cervia where an important battle is expected to be fought and the taking of which by the Greeks would carry them apparently nearer the Monastir and Salonika road.

The Servian armies are probably having the hardest fighting at the present moment. They are operating toward Uskup and Prishtina and further north in the district of Novipazar and have on contend not only against Turkish regulars but also against the Turkish raganauts who are fierce fighting Arabian tribesmen. One of their armies has advanced as far as the outskirts of Kuananova, the principal town between the Servian frontier and Uskup.

The Servians have secured possession of the mountain pass leading to Prishtina.

No news of importance has come from the Bulgarian frontier today and this leads military authorities to suggest that King Ferdinand will not attempt to rush the fortress of Adrianople but will mask it and move round it to the east or to the west.

The reported intention of the Bulgarian army to give Adrianople the go-by and to head direct for Constantinople is dismissed as impracticable by military men.

The distance is the same as that from Dalny to Mukden, in Manchuria, which took the Japanese army a year to cover.

The town of Kirk-kileseh is still held by the Turks although it was rumored today that the Bulgarians had taken the outer positions. This, however, lacks confirmation.

The western Bulgarian army, like the Servian armies, is fighting against large bodies of tribesmen, assisted by Turkish artillery and from all accounts there has been some stiff skirmish in which the Bulgarians have been victorious.

The warfare in this region is of a merciless character, as the Pomaks, or Bulgarian mussulman tribesmen, are fanatics.

The Montenegrin army apparently is inactive at present.

The representatives of the powers continue actively to confer and it is now suggested that intervention in the Balkans might occur earlier than was hitherto thought possible.

It is generally believed, however, that one big battle must be fought before the powers can take any decisive step.

Turks Fleeing in Panic

Athens, Greece, Oct. 22.—The Turkish army is fleeing in panic from Dhisikata on the way to the Turkish town of Servia in the north, according to a semi-official statement issued here today. The Greek troops are said to be pursuing them vigorously.

When the Turks precipitately abandoned the town of Elassona, it is said, they left behind them their staff maps and a million cartridges. They also dropped during their retreat much of their clothing and most of their engineering implements.

The total losses of the Greeks during the first day's engagement are given as one captain, two sub-officers killed and several wounded.

The Turkish artillery fire upon the heights of Grimbova was without material effect which point they bombarded heavily.

Mr. Hugh Pittman of No. 6 township was the victim of a serious accident Saturday morning. It seems he had a fuse cap, such as are used in blowing stumps with dynamite, which he had been carrying for more than a year. This morning he changed pants and had this cap and a shoe buttoner, both in his hand and absent minded, as one old darkie said, "tapped the pro against the con" and that spread consternation.

It tore off two of his fingers with such force that they were blown into his face to such a depth that it took the service of a doctor to extricate the finger bones.—Tarboro Southerner.

BASE BALL NOTES

Just to show how the advance dope on the world's series ran for Sweeney: Young Forrest Cady proved to be a better backstop than the veteran Bill Carrigan; the star outfielder of the Red Sox had nothing on the Giant's gardeners; "Red" Murray came back and was there with the wallop; Yerkers of the Sox, didn't blow up as was predicted; Bedient, the unknown, pitched his way into the baseball hall of fame and Heine Wagner upset the dope by playing the best all-round game of any player in either outfit.

THE PITT COUNTY FAIR

A Real Fair And Everything Will Be Free

The Pitt county fair is perhaps different from any other that is held in the state, in that everything about it is absolutely free. There is no charge either for making exhibits or for the attendance. Several hundred dollars will be paid in premiums for exhibits, but the money for these premiums is made up by voluntary donations from the people, supplemented by a donation from the state agricultural department. Nor are there any side shows, concessions, fakes, or clap-trap of any kind to catch the people and pull money out of them. Not only are these things strictly barred from the fair, but the aldermen shut them out of the town on the days the fair is open. There are exhibits in abundance which the people come to see and enjoy being with each other for two days. That is the kind of fair Pitt county holds. The dates for the fair are November 14th and 15th.

YOUR BANK IS YOUR MOST CONFIDENTIAL FRIEND

—The relation of a Bank to its depositors is most confidential and based upon implicit confidence. When you are thinking of a banking connection consider the prominent character and clientele of this Bank, with its history of six and one half years of practically the same management.
—Then think a little further and consider the standing directorate and its assets of $450,000, and the fact that this is the only National Bank in Pitt County.
—Then think of its various kinds of Savings Accounts—its Trust Department—its Safe Deposit Department—and you are bound to realize that its equipment to serve is complete in every detail.
—Then the Conclusion: It is the Bank for you; the institution in which you are justified in placing your funds with the satisfaction that every confidence sacredly safeguarded.
—We have not mentioned our service. You will have to be personally acquainted with this to appreciate it.
