Two Divisions of Turkish Reserves Are Captured by Bulgar Warriors

PROVINCE OF MACEDONIA IS NOW COMPLETELY CONQUERED BY SERBIANS, WHO OFFICIALLY OCCUPY PORT OF DURAZZO, ON THE ADRIATIC. RUSSIA ORDERS AUSTRIANS OUT OF BALTIC PROVINCES.

SERBIA DISREGARDS ALL THREATS

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.—Two entire divisions of Turkish reserves surrendered today to the Bulgarian troops near the village of Marhamli, between the port of Dedeagatch and Demotica, according to an amendment made by the official news agency here.

A fierce fight between the Turks and Bulgarians preceded the capitulation of the Turkish reserves. The Turkish force was commanded by Yader Paasha.

Two generals, 252 Turkish officers and 8, 879 men surrendered.

The loot captured by the Bulgarians included eight mountain guns, two machine guns, 1,000 horses and large quantities of amunitions. The Turkish prisoners have been sent to Demotica.

Servia's Attitude Causes Nervous Tension

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Europe is being kept in a state of nervous tension by the preparations for eventualities which the powers directly interest in the Balkan situation are making and by Servia's contemptuous attitude toward Austria's prohibition against the occupation by a smaller state of a seaport on the Adriatic Sea.

The Servian troops have occupied the port of Durazzo and the question now arises in the minds of diplomats and of the general public whether Austria will take immediate steps to turn them out or will wait until the conclusion of the war before taking action.

Servia appears to fear that Austria-Hungary will not wait for the whole question of the Balkans to be considered by a conference of the European powers after the cessation of hostilities.

According to reports reaching here from Vienna, she is mobilizing her army on the Austrian frontier for the protection of her territory. Elsewhere a more optimistic view is held and although a war-like feeling prevails in Vienna and St. Petersburg, the rulers and ministers of Russia and Austria-Hungary continue working to avert a conflict.

The suggestion has been thrown out in one diplomatic quarter that the matter would be quickly settled if Servia were given the port of San Giovanni Di Medua, on the same terms as those by which Montenegro held Antivari until 1908.

These conditions were that no forts should be erected and no Montenegrin warships should be stationed there and no foreign warships should be admitted to the port.

Neither Servia nor Austria has expressed an opinion on this proposal and so far as is known here there has been no relaxations from the original demand of the Servians for ports on the Adriatic nor on the part of Austria in prohibiting her from taking them.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.—The lines of investment drawn by the Bulgarian troops around the beleaguered Turkish stronghold of Adrianople are being tightened day by day. The attacker's trenches have now approached within 1,100 yards of the city itself and the foreign consuls have hoisted flags over their offices so as to prevent the Bulgarians firing shells in their direction.

According to one report from Adrianople, the original Turkish garrison has been reduced by losses during the desperate sorties and by deaths from disease to less than half its strength at the beginning of the siege.

Belgrade, Servia, Nov. 29.—The Servian troops captured the town of Dibra in Albania, only after a desperate struggle with the Turks who had rallied there after their retreat from Monastir and had been joined by contingents of Malissori and Arnaut tribesmen.

With the capture of Dibra, the whole of Macedonia has been subdued. Two of the Turkish regiments which had been routed at Monastir surrendered yesterday to the Servians. Vienna, Nov. 29.—The assertion that Servia is mobilizing against Austria is made today by the Reichspost. The entrenched positions near the town of Semendria, on the Danube, have been occupied recently by the Servian troops of the Danube division. The Servian recruits belonging to the contingents due to be called up in 1913 and 1914 have been called out by the Servian war office and Christian prisoners among the Turkish prisoners are being induced to serve in the Servian army.

The weapons captured from the Turks are being hurriedly repaired in the Servian arsenal at Kralyavatz, where also ammunition is manufactured in large quantities. Cattle and cereals are being requisitioned by the war office and taken to Nish, which the Reichspost says will be formed into a Servian Tchatalja or last line of defense. The garrison of the entrenched camp there is being rapidly raised to 120,000.

The recent visits exchanged between Count Baron Berchtold, the Hungarian foreign minister, and the Egyptian Prince Ahmed Fuad, who is an Albanian by descent, are regarded by the Zeit as indications that the prince is a serious candidate for the Albanian throne.

London, Nov. 29.—The Western Greek squadron today occupied the Turkish island of Sasseno in the Adriatic Sea off the coast of Avlona, according to a dispatch from Athens.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—The Austrian reservists residing in Baltic provinces have been summoned to return to their homes in Austria and in Hungary, according to a dispatch from Riga to the Rech. The German reservists living in these provinces number 8,000 and these also have been warned to hold themselves in readiness to be called upon to join their regiments at any moment. The Austrian and German consulates at Kiev are guarded by a strong force of police.

An attempt was made by a body of students to organize a demonstration outside the Austro-Hungarian embassy in St. Petersburg today, but it was frustrated by the authorities.

NEW YORK CITY EX-CHAMBERLAIN GUILTY

HIGH OFFICIAL IN GOTHAM CONVICTED OF OFFERING BRIBE THAT CAUSED LOSS TO BANK

EFFICIENCY OF T. J. PATRICK MADE A BRAVE FIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Chas. H. Hyde former city chamberlain, was found guilty of bribery in connection with performance of his duties as a city official. The jury which has been hearing his case in the supreme court rendered its verdict shortly before midnight after nearly three and a half hours deliberation.

Justice Goff remanded Hyde until December 4 and the former chamberlain was led across the "Bridge of Sighs" to a cell in the Tombs. It was his first taste of prison life, for he had been at liberty on bail since his indictment and during his trial.

When the case was given to the jury shortly after 8 o'clock there were few who expected a verdict in so short a time and when word came from the jury that it wished to report, Justice Goff was not at hand. It was nearly forty minutes before he appeared. Hyde was brought in and faced the jury.

As the word "guilty" fell from the foreman's lips, Hyde's eyes, which had been fixed on the jurors' faces, did not waver and he gave no evidence of emotion. After his counsel, John B. Stanchfield, had asked for and obtained the privilege of making such motion in the case on Wednesday as he deemed proper, the "pedigree" of the former chamberlain was taken. Hyde answered the questions in a clear voice. When he came to be led away he flushed and walked with drooping head to the door.

Justice Goff in discharging the jury thanked its members for their attention to the case and their "conscientious discharge of duty".

PATRICK MAY FIGHT FOR RICE'S MILLIONS

LAWYER WHOSE LIFE WAS OFF SPARED, IS FINALLY FREED BY ACT OF GOVERNOR DIX

PATRICK MADE A BRAVE FIGHT

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Whether Albert T. Patrick, who was pardoned by Governor Dix will make a fight for the millions left by William Marsh Rice, the millionaire he was accused of having murdered, may be settled at a conference between Patrick and counsel, former Judge Mm. M. K. Olcott.

Patrick was beneficiary under what was by him alleged to be Rice's will. "I have not studied the will", Judge Olcott said today, "and until I have a chance to confer with Mr. Patrick I cannot say what action we will take in the matter."

Judge Olcott took occasion to defend the action of Governor Dix and in a statement he replied to the several criticisms made yesterday and last night by attorneys and others connected with the prosecution of Patrick.

In this statement Judge Olcott said: "Of course it is the precedent in an application for a pardon that the district attorney who tried that case and the judge before whom it was tried, should be heard before action is taken."

"Beginning with Governor Higgins and going through to Governors Hughes, White and Dix, every governor except Governor Dix has had his pardon application before him by my insistently knocking at their doors. Each one followed the precedent of asking Justice Goff and former District Attorney Jerome for their opinions and each of these officials, have rendered an opinion strongly and unchangeably against Patrick.

"When Governor Dix took up the matter, therefore, it would have been double work for him to have asked for these opinions again. They were on file, unalterable, by their terms, and it was in spite of these opinions that Governor Dix concluded to use his authority (superior to that of even the learned opinion of Justice Goff and Mr. Jerome) and to do eternal and much delayed justice in this case.

Notice to Contestants.

All those who are in the contest for the $2,000 automobile at Basnight's Pharmacy will take notice that voting coupons issued in November must be deposited in the store not later than next Monday, or they will be void. The color of coupons will change for December and two colors cannot be out at the same time.

The standing of contestants will be published by number only as soon as the November coupons are in and counted. Each contestant must count their votes, do them up in a package and write the number plainly on the outside of the package.

Those friends of contestants who are working for them but keeping the coupons themselves, must hand these in, properly counted and labeled by Monday, with instructions who to vote them for.

While votes are transferable, these transfers cannot be made after the votes are registered at the store. Any transfer from one contestant to another must be made before the votes are recorded.

Observe all these instructions carefully to avoid confusion. In the near future semi-monthly prizes will be awarded the contestant registering the most votes in two weeks. These prizes, 42-piece dinner sets can be seen at the store. Winning one of these special prizes does not reduce the credit of the contestant for the automobile.

It is not too late to enter as a contestant and be a winner. Get in the race and hustle.

In addition to the grand automobile prize and the semi-monthly prizes above mentioned, second and third grand prizes will be awarded at the end of the contest. This increases the chance of every contestant to win a valuable prize.

If not interested yourself get busy and help out a friend.

President Elect Wilson Will Have 11,000 Plums to Give Next March

Greenville Looms High as Next Annual Meeting Place of Methodists

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 30.—The third day of the annual session of the North Carolina Methodist conference being held in Hay street church here has been one filled with business from 9:30 this morning until nearly the same hour tonight.

It has been a day of several features but hardly one pre-eminence. Today's program included the regular morning business session at which Bishop Collins Denny presided; as usual, a Sunday school "round table" discussion this afternoon, led by Dr. H. M. Hamil, the noted Sunday school specialist; the annual Trinity alumni banquet this evening at 6 o'clock and the meeting tonight devoted to the educational work of the church.

Features of the day include the admission to full connection of a class of young ministers this morning when Bishop Denny thrilled the conference by his stirring address in the form of a charge to the candidates; the very interesting and instructive talk and suggestion by Dr. Hamil this afternoon; the brief speeches at the Trinity banquet this evening by President W. P. Few and others in promotion of the Trinity spirit and a scholarly address delivered tonight by Dr. F. N. Parker of the Trinity faculty, on the subject of Christian education.

The feature of tomorrow's session, which is a live topic of conversation among the conference members and delegates tonight, is the matter of the meeting place for next year.

Greenville, Oxford and Wilmington will bid for the honor of entertaining the next conference and the supporters of each have busied themselves today and tonight pulling for their respective favorite. Ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis is here and he is said to be very anxious to have the conference go to Greenville and it has been predicted tonight that Greenville will win. This matter is made the special order for 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Ears Open

What to keep your ears open for in "The Mikado", the rich lyric singing of Nanki-poo; the bird-like singing of Yum-Yum; the passionate intensity of Kotsho's voice; the witty retorts of Koko; the solemnly humorous sayings of Pogh-bah; and a hundred and one other entrancing sounds.

Trade Report

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 27.—Brad-streets tomorrow will say for Richmond and vicinity:

Trade in most staple lines continue active, although continued warm weather has retarded sales in seasonable commodities, up to the beginning of this week, however, the usual holiday activity is becoming evident and retail trade shows improvement. Wholesale shoe and dry goods houses have had a good season and continued filling in orders are noted. Machinery and supply houses report activity, the same is true of foundries and structural steel works. Paper manufacturers report active work. Lumber manufacturers and dealers report active ordering. Coal brokers and shippers are not in position to supply the demands owing to curtailment of production and in this and other lines, complaints are heard of our shortage. Construction work is unusually active for this season of the year and all available labor is employed. The tobacco crop is reported of poor quality, but good prices are paid for what is offered. Cotton price continues to advance and will the marketing of this product collections at the south show improvement.

Special Attention

On account of the "Mikado" at the Training school on Dec. 9th, the ladies of the Episcopal church will not open their bazaar in the basement of the court house until 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 10th.

IN ALL SALARIES OF OFFICES TO BE FILLED BY HIS APPOINTMENTS WILL TOTAL $33,000,000 ANNUALLY—IN NORTH CAROLINA THERE WILL BE 143 POST-OFFICE JOBS TO BE CONFERR-ED ON DEMOCRATS.

OF COURSE, SOME WILL BE DISAPPOINTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.—Democrats with a bit of a pull and a yearning for office gave thanks yesterday for a huge feast in prospect. But there's a fly on the window-pane. Huge as it is, the meal, by something like 1,000 to 1 is too small to go around.

During the four years after March 4, next, 143 Republican first, second, and third-class postmasters in North Carolina, who draw salaries aggregating nearly $300,000 a year, will be replaced by 143 North Carolina Democrats.

The figures are taken from the latest issue of the official postal guide and are accurate. The sums paid to fourth class postmasters whose salaries range to $1,000 a year are not included. A few weeks before election Pres. Taft issued an order placing all the fourth class postmasters under the protecting wing of the civil service law. Great pressure will be brought to bear upon President Wilson by Democrats from all sections of the country to rescind this order. He may, and he may not, do so. Coming as he does from a section of the country where civil service is more highly regarded than in some other parts of the country, the new Democratic president will likely think twice before he abolishes the Taft executive order.

All told, not counting fourth class postmasters, the Wilson administration will have places for about 11,000 favored Democrats. The average salary is about $3,000 a year. So the total spoils of war for the entire country is about $33,000,000 a year.

Over 6,100,000 persons voted for Wilson and Marshall. It is considered low to say that 1,000,000 of these think their fair recompense would be a federal office paying, say $3,000 a year. The problem to be solved is that apportioning 11,000 places among 1,000,000 applicants.

If President Wilson pursue the usual course, Senators Simmons and Overman and the Democratic congressmen from North Carolina will disperse the plums for their state.

Of the above mentioned 143, first, second and third class postmaster-ships, 13 recess appointments have been made by President Taft. They are: William A. Mace, eBauffort; Charles F. Smathers, Canton; Edward C. Beaman, Farmville; William H. Cox, Laurinburg; Frank Roberts, Marshall; John W. Brown, Oxford; John R. Joyce, Reidsville; George W. Robbins, Rocky Mount; Samuel M. Jones, Sanford and Thomas E. Wallace, Wilmington. It is probably safe to say that none of these Republicans will be confirmed by the senate.

Besides these appointments already made the commissions of John B. Spence, at Charlotte, expired December 17, 1911; Frank Roberts, at Marshall, December 17, 1911; C. F. McKesson, at Morganton expires March 10, 1914; W. H. Everett, at Newton, Feb. 10, 1912; B. A. Barber, at Shelby, March 2, 1915; D. Luther Yount, at Lincolnton, March 24, 1912; G. F. Mambright, Kings Mountain; E. Grant Tasour, at Gastonia, June 13, 1914. Mt. Holly, which is now a presidential office open for appointment, the commission of the present incumbent having expired Jan. 1, of this year.

In addition to the postmaster-ships, the United States attorneys, and marshals, the collector of revenue and customs, together with the minor jobs of assistants and deputies in these various offices, are regarded as legitimate prizes of victory and these total up an amount aggregating $40,000 to $50,000 a year.

The heating plant in the Baptist church is now in good condition and the building will be comfortable tomorrow.

George Carpenter, who recently lost a battle to Bill Payke, will meet Marcel Marean in Paris Jan. 15.

THERE OUGHT TO BE INTELLIGENCE AND HUMANITY ENOUGH IN EUROPE TO PREVENT A REAL WAR

Some busy people may not understand main facts concerning the war between the Balkan states and Turkey—and the great interest that nearly all the European powers feel in the outcome.

Here is an explanation, short and sufficiently simple to read to your fifteen year old boy:

England, the great naval power, holds one door, the western gate to the Mediterranean.

The eastern gate is the Dardanelles, the little strip of water that separates Turkey in Europe from Asia.

That little gate which shuts out Russia and her fleets from the Mediterranean has been held for centuries by the Turks.

And Turkey has kept the Dardanelles and kept her European possessions only because the great European powers wished it, fearing to disturb what is called the balance of power.

Turkey, in possession of the Dardanelles, was harmless. She could do nothing, having no force. She was no danger to the great powers of the Mediterranean—France, Italy, Spain, Austria.

Yet she held the Dardanelles, kept Russia confined and away from the Mediterranean, which was the great thing—and Europe wanted no change in that situation. England would not let Russia have the Dardanelles, Russia and the other powers would not let England have that passage. So everything was safeguarded and Turkey stayed in Europe.

Europe let Turkey stay and murder because Europe wanted peace of mind.

But the Balkan peoples, living free among their hills and mountains, born of free women, not poisoned in their childhood by the air of the Turkish harem, developed real men.

And today the world sees those scattered, poor, simple but desperately courageous men of the Balkans driving the degraded Turks like frightened dogs before them and soon to enter Constantinople—if powerful western Europe does not forbid.

The danger in the situation for all civilization is the possibility of a great European disturbance that would send two or more of the great European powers to war.

England would fight rather than let Russia have the Dardanelles. Germany, France and Italy would fight rather than let England have that passageway.

Austria fears the arrival of Balkan competition at some seaport on the Adriatic—which is one little branch of the Mediterranean food.

The only thing that can prevent trouble, and perhaps a very great war, is common sense.

The people of Europe do not want war.

The statesmen know that a war is just as costly for the victorious nation as for the nation conquered.

If Germany should conquer England, destroying English credits and English values, Germany would suffer a loss in consequence that would cripple her for half a century.

It ought to be possible for the nations not only to avoid this particular war on a big scale, but to end the present little war with justice to the men of the Balkans, and justice even to the miserable Turks.

It ought to be possible for the really great statesmen in Europe to take this occasion to end war entirely—substituting an international police of land and sea for the frightful standing armies and great navies and forbidding absolutely the existence of any other armed force on this planet.

Germany has a million soldiers. France has a million soldiers, and Austria and Hungary have half a million.

Russia has a million.

One single international army of a million, backed by the moral support and the reserves of all the nations in a peace compact, could forbid immediately the existence of any other armed force, eliminate all the fighting navies. Such an international army would permit no fighting organization to be maintained on this globe—except the armed police within each boundary. It would save thousands of millions of dollars annually, now spent in war, and put back into useful industry and agriculture the millions of men that waste their time parading up and down in uniforms.

The statement comes from a town up the state, not near so large as Greenville, that the weekly pay roll of its factories is $2,500 a week. That is what Greenville needs, and when we get the factories to turn loose large weekly pay rolls you will see a vast difference in the volume of trade.

Night riders have moved their base of operations down in Georgia where they recently destroyed barns containing $20,000 worth of tobacco. The weed is worth too much now to be destroying it.

As Thanksgiving games usually close the football season, college boys will have time to look after their books until they take the spring baseball fever.

Salisbury took a whack at locker clubs, several of them having to pay fines of $150.

It will take a soon start and a quick pace to lead Greenville in the race.

The wood and coal dealers are having an early harvest.

Nobody will feel spooky because cotton has reached 13 cents.

The snow storm hit telegraph and telephone wires a hard lick.

Now on with the rush for Christmas. Do your shopping early.

WE'LL NOT HAVE TO SHOW YOU twice our assortment of new neckwear and other furnishings. You will know at the first glance that they are the real things that classy dressers affect and will want some for yourself. This is no guess. It has been proved so often as to become a certainty.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Adds Healthful Qualities to the Food

Prof. Prescott, of the University of Michigan, explains why Royal Baking Powder adds healthful qualities to the food.

Testifying before the Pure Food Committee of Congress, the Professor stated that fruit acids were excellent articles of food and that of these cream of tartar, the acid of grapes, held rank with the highest both in itself and its effect in the process of leavening and baking. He regarded the results from cream of tartar baking powder as favorable to health. Scientists and hygienists are in accord with this opinion.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Look at these two men. They have been to market their cotton. One put his money in the bank and the other one didn't. They were held up on the way home. Eyes Open

What to keep your eyes open for in "the Mikado": that wonderful hand attached to "Pooh-bah, Lord High Everything"; the droll actions of Koko, the rare, comic "Lord High Executioner of Tichpu"; the winsomeness of the little maids, the butterfly flutter of the choruses and a hundred and one other enchanting sights.
