RECORD BREAKING PRICES PREVAILING THROUGH ENGLAND

Enormous Fortunes Being Made During the War in Art Work, Is Said
INTEREST IS CENTERED ON INDUSTRIAL FEATURE
Commission Would Control all State-Owned Industries, as it Stands.

London, June 14.—The enormous fortunes made in England during the war are responsible for record breaking prices which sellers of antiques of every kind are realizing in London auction rooms, in the opinion of men who have long been close to the trade. The whole country is being searched for treasures of all kinds which find ready sale at prices which hitherto have only been paid by foreigners.

A mysterious portrait which recently appeared in one auction room and was said by some one to have been by Frans Hals quickly brought $300,000, although its authenticity has been now not been established. A Reynolds portrait which to the present had not attracted much attention was easily sold for $70,000, and pictures by much lesser light brought phenomenal prices.

Artistic furniture is in even more demand. Six Chippendale Gothic chairs recently sold at a country sale for $5,125 in spite of the fact that modern articles are copying this particular design with marked success and only the trained expert can detect the difference. At another country sale two Chippendale tables brought $1,000 and a Chippendale cabinet $6,250.

Shelton furniture is not so popular, excellent tables going as low as $100. An old harpsichord in a William and Mary case sold for $2,500, and a grandfather's clock gave its fortunate owner $400 in spite of the fact that the clock had probably ceased to tick more than a hundred years ago.

EMPLOYEES ARE DISMISSED FOR GOOD REASONS, STATED

Washington, June 14.—Employees of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, at Atlanta, were dismissed "for good and sufficient" reasons, and not because of union affiliations, Postal Inspector Cole reported to Postmaster General Burleson today.

New York, June 14.—With more than 1,000,000 men and women actively enrolled in support of the national security league's campaign against Bolshevism, thousands of flag day celebrations inspired by the league as a means of combatting the radical menace will be held throughout the country tomorrow, the organization announced here today.

Municipal departments, civic associations, schools and other organizations, together with branches of the league in various cities, will cooperate in the day's observance.

WRIGHT MENTIONED FOR PRESIDENT OF STATE UNIVERSITY

President of Teachers Training School Receives Favorable Mention.
TO BE ONE OF PRINCIPLE MEN TO BE CONSIDERED
Greensboro Daily News Gives Story of Developments in Guilford.

The following clipping from yesterday's edition of the Greensboro Daily News, suggesting the probability of Prof. R. H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Teachers Training School of this city, becoming the next president of the University of North Carolina, will be read with more than general interest by the people throughout this city and county, as Dr. Wright during his connection with the local institution, has established a very enviable reputation, not only recognized in this immediate territory, but in other sections of the state, as the comment from Greensboro newspaper plainly portrays. The comment follows:

Robert H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Training school, will become president of the University of North Carolina if the trustees of the university adopt the suggestion of a Guilford man, who picks Dr. Wright as the ideal university president.

The author of this suggestion realizes, of course that a multitude of men are being considered for the presidency of the university. But he finds in Dr. Wright qualifications that should be given the most careful consideration, he feels.

It is suggested that those who are opposed to going out of the state to find a head for the university could not object to Robert H. Wright on these grounds, as he first saw the light in North Carolina, and has spent his life and was a stellar member of the varsity football team in this commonwealth. He is a graduate of the university. For some time he taught at Oak Ridge institute. Several years ago

PEACE TREATY IS CONSIDERED THING OF PAST EFFORTS

Knox Resolution Now Looms Large Before Members of the Senate.

Washington, June 14.—All sides seem to derive satisfaction out of the results of the investigation by the Senate of how copies of the peace proposals formulated at Paris got to Wall street, the Senate, private citizens, newspaper correspondents and unofficial statement. Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, author of the investigating resolution, was sure President Wilson himself had been cleared of any insinuation of impropriety. Conservative Republicans like Senator Lodge saw nothing wrong in the possession by Ellhu Root or Henry P. Davison, chairman of the American Red Cross, of copies of the document, but argued that the Senate should have had as a matter of information was virtually common property abroad. Progressive Republicans like Senator Borah, anxious to prove that the framing of the peace treaty was of special interest to Wall street, were satisfied that the hearings brought out that two members of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. were aware of the contents of the treaty before the Senate was.

TWO MEN KILLED BY AN UNIDENTIFIED NEGRO

Memphis, Tenn., June 14.—John G. Brinkley, a police sergeant, and another white man were shot and killed here today by an unidentified negro, who, with a companion, earlier in the day wounded two other men who were detaining them until the arrival of the police. One of the negroes was killed in an exchange of shots with the police and the others captured. They were charged with chicken stealing.

Atlantic City, June 14.—Resolutions urging recognition of the soviet government of Russia and the lifting of the blockade against that part of the country under its control, were among 200 submitted by delegates attending the convention of the American Federation of Labor here, texts of which were made public today. Publication of the resolution concerning soviet Russia aroused intense interest among the delegates.

ANOTHER WHISKEY STILL FALLS INTO HANDS OF SHERIFF

Sheriff Dudley and Deputies Capture Outfit in the Bethel Section.

OPERATORS WERE AWAY AT TIME OF THE RAID

Law and People Must Give Officials Greater Support, It Is Believed.

Sheriff Dudley, accompanied by Deputies R. E. Corbett, Guy Caton, Amos Jackson and Russell Corbett, effected the capture of another monkey rum still in the Bethel territory, between Bethel and Conetoe, last night about 12 o'clock, and while no men were captured with the outfit, several barrels of beer were destroyed, the still taken, and everything having any connection with the distillation of the beverage completely wrecked.

Information concerning the location of the still came to the sheriff's office through the same unsuspected source usually featuring such raids, and while a capture of the men connected with the still was not accomplished, something may occur at an early date to bring them to account. The officers say that captured still had not been in operation for some time, probably from fear of the raid, but the inactivity would not have continued for any

NORTH DAKOTA TO TEST FEATURES IN PARTISAN PROGRAM

Direct of Non-Partisan Program to Take Place Later Part of Month.

Fargo, N. D., June 14.—The first direct test of the National Nonpartisan League's industrial program will take place June 25 when a special referendum election will be held on seven of the League's measures passed by the North Dakota legislature.

Interest centers chiefly upon the industrial commission bill and the act providing for establishment of the bank of North Dakota, both of which are vital to the entire program.

The industrial commission bill provides for a commission which would control the state-owned industries to be established. The Bank of North Dakota would provide funds for carrying out the program. League supporters say failure of either measure would disrupt the program.

The other bills to be voted upon deal with education, taxation, state printing, emigration and judicial redistricting.

The referendum election was called by Governor Frasier after circulation of petition by the Independent Voters' Association. The Association also circulated petitions for the initiation of a mill and elevator association law, a non-partisan election law, rural credits law and a home building law, the initiative election to be held simultaneously with the referendum. These measures, with the exception of the non-partisan election law, are included in the league program.

RACE RIOTING RENEWED IN THE REGION OF CARDIFF

London, June 14.—There was a renewal in Cardiff last night of the race rioting that broke out recently between negroes, who had been brought into Great Britain as laborers during the war, and the white population. One white man and one Arab were killed and several persons were injured. Many arrests were made. The negro rioters had possession of numerous revolvers and kept up an incessant fusillade, while the whites for the most part, according to reports, threw bottles and bricks.

CENTURY CLUB TO CLOSE UNTIL NEW YEAR WORK OPENS

Final Session of the Club Held With Mrs. W. H. Long Wednesday.

YEAR'S ACHIEVEMENTS ARE FULLY OUTLINED

Mrs. R. R. Cotton Tells of Biennial Meeting of Federated Clubs.

The End of the Century Club on Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Long, held its final meeting for the club year. There will be a vacation until the new club year begins, which is on October 7th. This last meeting was one of very great interest because of the summing up of the year's work and because of reports from the annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. R. R. Cotton attended these meetings which were recently held in Asheville, and also attended the biennial meeting of the National Federation of Women's Clubs which was held in Hendersonville immediately before the State meeting. She gave enthusiastic accounts of what was done at these meetings, and passed on to the Greenville Club the ideas that she considered of the most interest and importance, and gave sketches of personalities that impressed her. One of the topics that brought forth much discussion was how to get the people to keep up the habits of thrift that they had formed during the war was what the boys had brought home from the war that they did not have before, she said the universal verdict was that the most significant thing the love gained is the love of giving, not only money but themselves, and that this would have great effect on the solution of all great problems. Mrs. Cotton gave her report so clearly that each one who heard her felt that she had taken part in the meetings.

There were three guests on Wednesday afternoon that were members of other clubs, and this added interest to the meeting. These were Mrs. R. (Continued on page two.)

TO STOP PLANNING FOR CORPORATION OF HOUSING ISSUE

Merchants Committee Withdraws Operations in Favor of Chamber of Commerce.

To the Chamber of Commerce of Greenville, North Carolina:

We, a committee appointed by the Greenville Merchants Association, for the purpose of formulating plans by which a Housing Corporation could be organized in the town of Greenville, having heard that since our appointment by the Merchants Association, the Chamber of Commerce has had a meeting and appointed a committee to organize such Housing Corporation; and realizing that it is impossible and impracticable that the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association could each cause to be organized a separate Housing Corporation. We, the members of the committee appointed by the Merchants Association, for the sake of harmony and for the best interests of the town of Greenville, do hereby withdraw all our operations and leave it to the Chamber of Commerce to organize said Housing Corporation in the town of Greenville.

SEDITION FAVORED BY THOUSANDS OF NEW YORK PEOPLE

Director of Seditious Activities Says There Are 300,000 Supporters.

FORCIBLE EIZURE OF PROPERTY ADVOCATED

Revolutionary Overthrow of Government Principal Feature Involved.

Schenectady, N. Y., June 24.—There are probably between 300,000 and 500,000 men and women living in New York City who believe in and advocate the unlawful and forcible seizure of property and the revolutionary overthrow of the established government. This estimate was given by Senator Clayton R. Lusk, chairman of the Joint legislative committee investigating seditious activities in this state in an address tonight before the State conference of Mayors and other city officials.

"A few years ago" Senator Lusk said "these doctrines were systematically advocated by a few so-called 'crack pots.' Today in the city of New York this propaganda is being systematically handled by shrewd, experienced men and women who seem to be systematically coordinating their efforts and who apparently have no lack of funds with which to operate. In New York City alone over 50 publications are regularly circulated advocating this radical doctrine.

"A large number of public meetings are held each week in the city in which these doctrine are openly advocated. When the speakers at these meetings suggest accomplishing these results by force and violence the suggestion is received with tremendous applause. It is estimated by people in a position to know that as many as one hundred meetings of this kind have been held in the city in one week. Speakers are being sent throughout the state and have been holding meetings even in the smallest cities, and the yare circulating their literature among the working men throughout the entire state."

The favorable weather of last week has enabled large forces of men to repair the road.

THE RED CROSS STILL SERVES THE SOLDIER.

During the period of active hostilities the Red Cross left nothing undone to alleviate the hardships of military life; in camp and hospital, on battlefield and in transit the men were given innumerable small comforts, which often meant health and life to them. With the coming of peace there were some 2,000,000 Americans still under arms. Many were ill with influenza, many were suffering from wounds, shell shock and disease, in foreign hospitals as well as in home camps and cantonments. The work of the Red Cross in providing comforts for these men and later in co-operating with the government in a full program of recreational activities which lead back to health and normal strength men whose vitality has been drained to the limit of human resistance, is a work of incalculable value to the present and future generations.

It means little to say that the Red Cross provided 161,686 sweaters in the Southern Division during the last six months, or that 108,000 miscellaneous articles were distributed in the same territory, for figures tell no story of themselves. But it means much to say that the Red Cross through its department of Military Relief and the allied bureau of the Canteen, the Motor Corps, the First Aid Classes and its wonderful service in the hospitals has reached hundreds of thousands of men and brought to them cheer, comfort, hope and encouragement.

And not only to the men themselves, but to their families has the Red Cross performed its mission. The disruption of homes, the disorganization of families and the utterly unavoidable conditions produced by war did not adjust themselves automatically with the coming of peace, but demanded an intelligent, far-reaching and understanding human touch. This the Red Cross gave and is giving to-day in fullest measure through its great army of Home Service workers in all camps and hospitals and in thousands of cities, towns and villages the country over.

mans, of Brookline Massachusetts, who is the guest of Mrs. Cotten, Mrs. Hyman Phillips, of Tarboro, and Mrs. Kemp, of Smithfield. Mrs. Romans gave her impressions of the same meetings Mrs. Cotten reported, and told something of her club in Brookline. Mrs. Phillips told some of the things the magazine club of Tarboro had been doing.

The social features of the meeting were very enjoyable. This was the first time the club had met at the magnificent new home of Mrs. Long. Delicious refreshments were served by Misses Hennie and Anna Long, Eva Hodges, and Fannie Greene Allen.

The business meeting was especially important as the annual reports from the officers and committees brought the year's work before the club all together in such a manner that it showed the success of the various undertakings of the club. Last fall when the year's work began the club was absorbed in war work, bending every effort to understanding and helping in war activities. Instead of having a literary course of study their study was confined to the history, architecture, and other features of the cities that had been greatly affected by the war. Practically all of their funds were turned into war work. After the armistice was signed they continued their study of the war districts and their work for war sufferers.

One of the most interesting features of the programs of the year have been a series of talks on war topics or on effects of the war. The first of these was a talk by Miss Scoby, the Home Economics teacher in the Training School, on the effects of the war on food.

Dr. Laughinghouse at the last meeting in April told a most thrilling story of his experiences both in camp in this country and in hospital service in France. He gave clear explanations of how the hospital service was managed, vivid pictures of scenes in hospital and camp, wonderful stories showing efficiency and heroism, not forgetting the touches of humor. He told of problems he had to face when he landed in a small village in England, when he had thousands of wounded men to find homes for and not a hospital at hand; how he placed them all showed how the people of England responded to calls for help. He explained how they had to change methods of examining men so that could be taken care of in a day, instead of hundreds thus expediting matters. One could well see how Dr. Laughinghouse rose to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Although he gave full credit to others it was clear he was in the midst of things.

At this meeting Miss Maupin gave an excellent account of the chief characteristics of the French people and how these had figured in history.

At the last meeting in April Mr. R. H. Wright made an educational talk showing the women the excellent opportunities they have here and touched on the leading educational problems that the nation is facing in this reconstruction period.

In looking forward to the next year's work was decided to resume work along literary lines, and the drama was chosen as the subject special study; a number of plays from the leading dramatists of the day will be selected and read. Other things, along musical and are lines, will add variety to the meetings.

The End of Century Club has cause to be proud of its record during the war period and is ready to do its part now in any good cause, especially anything that will contribute to the advancement of Greenville and this community.

TYPHOID FEVER

How Do We Get It—You Don't Have to Have It.

Typhoid fever is an infectious disease, being due to the bacillus typhosus, which lives and grows in common filth. A filth borne disease. These germs come from the discharges of people suffering from the disease also from people who have had the disease but have recovered, yet continue to discharge the typhoid fever germs from their bowels and thirdly from the person who has typhoid, but not sick enough to go to bed and the one a doctor has not seen "walking case" this probably being the most dangerous person, because he is going from place to place and using no precautions whatever.

It being true that the typhoid fever germ lives only in the bowels of human beings, then for a person to have typhoid fever must partake of the bowel discharges of some other person. No person does this knowingly—yes, he does; but carelessly and unthoughtfully. Well, how does he? There are but three principal ways in which a person gets human excrement containing typhoid fever germs into their mouths. Namely: 1st through drinking water, 2nd by personal contact and 3rd by flies. Of these three which would you expect to be the most common source, if it was water, then you would expect more typhoid fever during the winter and spring months. If it was by personal contact, then you would expect the disease during the entire year, as personal contact is about the same throughout the year, probably more during winter months. If the flies are the most common source then we would expect more typhoid fever during the months between March and October with the coming of the fly, and this is just what happens.

You do Not Have to Have It.
Now, it is easily seen that you do not have typhoid fever; protect your self: 1st by seeing that your water is pure, free from the typhoid germs, and that it stays so. 2nd, by guarding yourself against the person and 3rd by protecting yourself against the most common source. The fly. Screen your house. Swat the fly. Lastly the 4th protection for yourself against typhoid fever is to be vaccinated, which will prevent the growth of these germs in the human body once they gain access. To complete the vaccinate treatment, it requires three inoculations, given a week or ten days apart. It is safe, practically painless, causes no open sore and is the universal protection. You can become immunized free of charge by going to the county health office in the county court house on any day of the week.

he went to Greenville and for a number of years has served there as president of the East Carolina Training school.
Dr. Wright is described as one possessing executive ability of a high order, together with many other traits which would make him an able president of the University of North Carolina.
Discussion of the university presidency in Guilford continues, a large number of names being mentioned in this connection. It is no secret that R. D. W. Connor, secretary of the North Carolina Historical commission, has a number of friends in this county who would like to see him selected as head of the university. Secretary Josephus Daniels, too, is frequently mentioned here as an admirable man for the place, and there are many others suggested. On every hand is discernible keen interest in the question, which will probably be settled by the trustees within the very early future.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
Illuminated manuscripts also are in demand, and as in the case of furniture, record prices are being obtained. Letters of David Garrick, and a few by his wife, to noted persons of their time, caused spirited bidding, but were withdrawn and will be offered again.

KEPT HER AWAKE
The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.
Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.
I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night... I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui...
I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again... I decided I would try Cardui... By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.
I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

An Explanation To Our Many Patrons Throughout The City

Recent complaints registered at this office appear to indicate that some of our customers have become displeased with the appearance presented by their Laundry of the past week or so, and in order to eliminate all expectation of such occurring again, we wish to state that the same grade of starch used at that time has been replaced by a superior quality, assuring you of an immaculate appearance to all grades of work.

The grade of starch used for the past several weeks was the same we have always used in our best work, but our last order showed an inferiority in quality, necessitating the purchase of a different brand. We are prepared to give you the very best service obtainable in our line, and assure you that all future pieces of laundry will be perfectly clean and immaculate, as far as this is possible. We will be glad to show you the splendid services which we are capable of rendering at this time, and believe that we can please you at all times.
