

SENATE SITUATION ON PEACE TREATY MORE ENLIVENING

Discussion of Persian Peace Treaty of More Than Ordinary Interest. PACT SOUGHT TO GIVE BRITISH POWER PERSIA. Russell Suggests that Senate Make Written Protest Against Shaw.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Sept. 3.—Objections of Hungarian and Albanian sympathizers to proposals to dismember those countries under treaties yet to be negotiated were laid today before the Senate Foreign Relations committee. At the suggestion of Senator Knox, Republican, of Pennsylvania, Charles W. Russell, former Minister to Persia, appeared before the committee and presented for its consideration a copy of the recently negotiated treaty between Great Britain and Persia under which Mr. Russell said Great Britain would be given valuable rights and powers in Persia.

Discussion of the Persian treaty which followed former Minister Russell's suggestion that the Senate make a "written protest" against the pact was the only enlivening feature of the treaty controversy today, either in the committee or on the floor of the Senate. Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, leader of the administration forces, postponed his prepared speech replying to recent attacks on the treaty and League of Nations covenant by Senator Knox and Chairman Lodge of the Foreign Relations committee, until tomorrow on the eve of the President's departure on his speechmaking tour of the country in the interests of the treaty. There was no apparent change in the Senate situation.

Some members of the Senate Foreign Relations committee expressed the belief today that the treaty might be reported to the Senate before the weekend and Chairman Lodge indicated a desire to speed up action by holding all of today's witnesses to the time allotted them.

WAS ON TRAIN WHEN COOPER WAS SLAIN

Nashville, Tenn., 3.—That J. F. Feuston, 41, arrested last night on the charge of violating the prohibition law and who was questioned by the police regarding the murder of Robin J. Cooper, was on the train coming from Louisville to Nashville Thursday night when Cooper was murdered and his body thrown into Richland Creek, has been developed by an investigation of his movements.

Feuston and Miss Casey Jordan were arrested last night near his home shortly after they are alleged to have reached the city from a point in Kentucky with 150 quarts of liquor.

FARMERS MEETING COVENED IN THIS CITY EARLY TODAY

Convention for Farm Work Conducted by Congressman John H. Small. SEVERAL SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM FOR THE DAY. Evening Session Promises to be of More Than Ordinary Interest.

Although the morning session of the Farmers' convention which convened in this city today at the county court house, under the direction of Congressman John H. Small, of First congressional district, was not as largely attended as had been anticipated several days ago, this fact did not detract in the slightest from the number of important topics taken up for consideration at the opening of the meeting and the subsequent discussion of several interesting features having a direct bearing upon the crop situation in this part of the country.

The attendance was under the average for a meeting of this kind, but this came about as a natural result of the opening of the tobacco market in this city yesterday and the attention of practically all farmers centered in this direction. The meeting was to have been conducted at the Training School. (Continued on page eight.)

NEW FEATURE HAS BEEN INTRODUCED FOR TESTING AUTO

Late Development of Testing Demonstrated by Willys-Overland Company.

The Willys Overland company of Toledo has this season introduced new methods for testing automobiles which are a direct development of war experience.

Realizing that the modern motor car must successfully meet the motor extreme riding conditions, the Willys-Overland company planned and carried out the idea of subjecting the new light weight car the company has been developing for two years, and which, it is understood, will soon be on the market to tests which would parallel the rough and ready use motor cars in the war zone daily received.

For these tests unusual "breaking machines" have been rigged up and used in the factory, and the cars have then been sent into rough, untraveled country for most gruelling road performances.

In the preliminary tests, the new Overland car showed stamina and riding qualities so remarkable that the car was selected as the official scout car in the first trans-continental test trip of the United States Motor Transport corps, which started at Washington, D. C., on July 7, and is expected to arrive about September 7 in San Francisco. The route being followed by the Motor Transport corps is that of the Lincoln highway.

The trans-continental trip has been undertaken to establish and demonstrate the possibilities of the motor vehicle as a factor in coast-to-coast transportation. It is to serve as a supreme test of the utility and dependability of the modern motor vehicle.

With the army trucks participating in this convoy are three of the new light Overland cars, which will be put on the market this season by the Willys Overland company. The cars on this tour, according to report, are making a record for comfortable riding qualities, roadability and all-around utility.

The Overland company makes no disclosure as to price or date of the public announcement of the new car, except to say the car will be moderate in price and will soon be delivered to dealers.

BRITISH BECOMING ANXIOUS OVER BIG SHORTAGE OF IRON

Steel and Iron Industry Seriously Threatened by Shortage of Year. INCREASED PRICES ARE ACCENTUATING SITUATION. Americans Say Country Needs to Apply Modern Methods in Activities.

London, Sept. 3.—British iron and steel manufacturers are seriously wondering whether they will be able to maintain their home trade, not to speak of extending their export business, in the face of steadily increasing prices of materials and labor. Americans who have looked over the situation, declare the British need not work if they will adopt modern methods, for wages in the industry are much higher in America than they are in England.

Anxiety is chiefly confined to makers of railway materials, tools, machinery, engines, and those things which go to fit out the completed ship's power plant.

The British workman not only demands high wages, but he is charged with refusing to give its equivalent in labor, thus cutting down production and making it impossible for his employer to fill contracts on time.

DECLARES PEOPLE MUST BE RELIEVED OF FUTURE STRIKE

Senator Robinson Would Prohibit Such Occurrences in the Future.

Washington, Sept. 3.—A law to prohibit strikes or lockouts of railroad employes and thus to protect the public from transportation tie-ups was advocated by Senator Robinson, Democrat, of Arkansas in an address today in the Senate.

"The time has come," he said, "when congress must protect the public against loss of life and property and widespread suffering which will inevitably result if the railroads should be tied up by a general strike.

"The right to strike has heretofore been recognized in our laws particularly in certain provisions of the Clayton act. Those laws should be modified and strikes of employes on railroads engaged in interstate commerce should be forbidden."

Senator Robinson's address was in analysis and commendation of the bill by Senator Cummins, Republican, Iowa drafted by the Senate interstate commerce sub-committee proposing a permanent railroad policy of private ownership and operation of railroads, under strict government supervision and with a committee on wages and working conditions composed equally of employers and employes whose recommendations would be subject to final decision of the interstate commerce commission.

BANKERS IN SOUTH TO DISCUSS PLANS OF FUTURE CREDIT

Convention of Bankers at St. Louis Will Take to Important Features. PRESIDENT WILSON HAS BEEN INVITED TO SPEAK. Social Conditions of Capital and Labor Will Also be Considered.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 3.—Revival of international trade, the question of furnishing foreign credits to facilitate exports, the railroad problem and the labor situation are among the important topics to be discussed at the forty-fifth annual convention of the American Bankers' Association here September 29 to October 3. More than 5,000 bankers from all parts of the United States, Canada, Porto Rico, and the Philippine Islands are expected to attend.

President Wilson has been invited to deliver the principal address, and others expected to speak are David B. Francis, formerly Ambassador to Russia, Homer L. Ferguson, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, Henry P. Davison of New York, formerly head of the American Red Cross and Robert F. Maddox, of Atlanta, Ga., president of the association.

Richard S. Hawes of this city, first vice-president of the association, said social conditions and the question of capital and labor would be considered, and plans for the eradication of Bolshevism and other radical doctrines discussed.

Consideration he said also would be given the subject of public education, foreign exchange regulations and the future security of railroad investments.

CASUALTIES OF THE EGYPTIAN SOLDIER ARE MADE KNOWN

Over Million Egyptians Fought by Side of the Allied Troops, is Said.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Ronald Lindsay, charge d' affairs of the British Embassy today made public a letter to Grover C. Hall, Associate Editor of The Montgomery Advertiser, Montgomery, Ala., in reply to an inquiry by Mr. Hall as to "how many Egyptian soldiers fought under the British flag during the war and what was the number of casualties suffered by them?"

The inquiry, it is said, was prompted by the brief recently presented by Joseph W. Folk, former Governor of Missouri to the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate, in which Mr. Folk called attention "to the fact that 1,000,000 Egyptian troops fought as the side of the Allies."

"The British Government" wrote Mr. Lindsay, who was in Egypt all through the war, "has carefully avoided destroying Egyptian sovereignty. Egyptian soldiers always serve under the Egyptian and not under the British flag. The Union Jack does not fly in Egypt except over the British military establishments in the country, elsewhere the distinctive Egyptian flag is displayed. To answer your question literally, no Egyptian soldier joined the British colors.

"Of course this is only a partial statement. In February, 1915, when the Turkish army attacked Egypt, a battery of Egyptian artillery joined the British force defending the line of the Suez Canal. The enemy's attack developed just opposite this battery the members of which managed their guns in an able manner and assisted in the repulse of the enemy. I believe they lost two killed and half a dozen wounded.

TOBACCONISTS ARE GREATLY PLEASED OVER LATE SALES

Opening of Market Yesterday Has Drawn Favorable Comment, is Said. HIGH PRICES WILL BE EXPECTED THRU YEAR. Better Grades of Bright Leaf Will Bring Good Price for Some Time.

High prices prevailing at the opening of the Greenville tobacco market yesterday have produced more than ordinary interest throughout every part of the country, and particularly in the tobacco growing regions where people have been waiting for the opening of this market with intense interest, believing that in the opening sales they would be able to form some definite idea as to what might be expected with the opening of the surrounding towns and cities, and to some extent, gain an exact idea of what the final outcome of the year would be for the planters in this immediate locality.

The opening without a doubt surpassed the expectations of men well acquainted with the situation throughout this part of the county, and whole of course, no one expected that blocked sales would feature the opening here, this fact with the high prices in prevalence made the day of more than ordinary interest to every person interested in the outcome of the season.

Warehousemen are today endeavoring to clear their floors of the offerings of the past two days, but work has been going on almost continuously since yesterday morning in an effort to get everything in readiness for tomorrow's sales. Indications seem to point (Continued on page eight.)

BIG GAMBLERS OF NATION FOODS ARE STUNG UNTIL HURT

Speculators Are Held Responsible for High Prices in Many Sections.

Paris, Sept. 3.—A distressing era of speculation in foodstuffs in the United States and throughout the world's primary food markets is largely responsible for high food costs, in the opinion of Herbert Hoover, chairman of the inter-allied relief organization, who on the eve of his departure for the United States, granted the Associated Press an interview.

Wharves and warehouses in Northern European ports are overflowing with food stuffs, principally meats, fats and dairy products, sent by merchants all over the world, Mr. Hoover said. These merchants, he declared, had "gambled" on sales in Poland, Czechoslovakia, the Baltic states and Germany at high prices but these states have only a depreciated local currency and many commodities are in danger of spoiling, as the central European market for foodstuffs is limited to the ability of the peoples to buy on "this year's speculation."

Hoover said, "are due, in measure chiefly to the belief of food and manufacturers that blockade was removed and an enormous demand for other commodities in Europe. This due to any import of actual fever which was greatly lay in the filth of salines that gut"

RECOGNITION WILL BE INSISTED UPON BY CAR STRIKERS

Charlotte Carmen and Electricians Will Accept No Other Offer. MEN WILL REMAIN FIRM IN PRESENT SITUATION. Declare Recognition of Rights Must be Acknowledged.

(By The Associated Press.) Charlotte, Sept. 3.—Hopes for an early termination of the strike of carmen and electricians here, following the settlement of differences between the Southern Public Utilities Company and its striking employes at Greenville, S. C., yesterday, were smashed here this afternoon when the electricians and the car men for the third time voted to consider no adjustment not involving recognition of the union and submission of other questions to arbitration.

This and the discharge of T. J. Fitzgibbons, strike-breaker, charged with murder in the preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace F. B. Alexander, when evidence, was introduced tending to prove labor's contentions on responsibility for the recent disorders here, were the outstanding developments of the day.

Z. V. Taylor, president of the Southern Public Utilities Company, after reaching an agreement with the carmen in Greenville yesterday, remained over for a conference with the electrical workers today. This afternoon, a telephone call from Greenville informed labor leaders that these workers would under no circumstances accept a settlement on the basis of which the car men's union would be recognized of the union, and requested the employes to belong to any organization they chose.

This afternoon the local car men and electrical workers voted unanimously against accepting such a proposition, and their action was communicated to the strikers in Winston-Salem and Greenville. At the same time, the Charlotte labor executive board issued this statement, signed by G. L. Clouinger, president, and George O. Hill, secretary.

 Of This Campaign.

Every general interest fostered by Southern Baptists will be strengthened and enlarged through the success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign which is now well under way, and which will reach its climax in the final drive to secure this sum in cash and subscriptions during the eight days of November 30 to December 7. A period of five years will be provided for the final payment of these subscriptions but for the campaign to succeed, the sum of $75,000,000 must be subscribed within the eight days. Many have expressed the belief that the subscriptions will run to $100,000,000.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention the $75,000,000 to be raised was home missions, $12,000,000; christian education, $20,000,000; state missions, $11,000,000; ministerial relief, $2,500, pitals, $4,125,000.

The apportionment of this sum among the several states within the territory of the Convention has been announced as follows: Alabama, $4, 000,000; Arkansas, $3,200,000; District of Columbia, $200,000; Florida, $1,000, 000; Georgia, $7,500,000; Southern Illinois, $1,200,000; Kentucky, $6,500, 000; Louisiana, $3,325,000; Maryland, $750,000; Mississippi, $3,350,000; Missouri, $2,925,000; New Mexico, $250,

 500,000; Tennessee, $4,600,000; Texas,
 $16,000,000; and Virginia, $7,000,000.

Here is what this big sum of money will help Southern Baptists do for the Master, as set forth by the Campaign
 Commission:

"It will equip more adequately and multiply manifold the 1,099 missionary workers of the Foreign Mission Board, and the more than 2,000 Home and State Board Missionaries.

"It will enlarge and raise to a better efficiency the 132 Baptist schools in the South.

"It will go far towards meeting the expanding needs of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Women's Missionary Training School in Louisville, Ky., the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School in Fort Worth, the Baptist Bible School in New Orleans, La., a Theological Seminary for the Negroes, and will provide a first-class college for boys and girls of the mountain region.

"It will increase greatly our hospital service to the sick, open wider our arms to the orphans and provide a strong support for our aged ministers of the gospel.

"It will put Southern Baptists in position to assume a considerable share in the reconstruction of war-torn Europe, and embrace many of the marvelous opportunities for service which thrust themselves upon us from all parts of the world, at home and abroad."

While $20,000,000 of this sum will go to foreign missions and thus be expended in carrying the gospel and its blessings to other lands, the remaining $55,000,000 will be expended at home in building up home missionary, educational and benevolent institutions and projects, of which there are a number in every state within the boundaries of the convention.

The Whole Secret of A Better Tire

Simply a Matter of the Maker's Policies

This you will realize—once you try a Brunswick—that a super-tire is possible only when the name certifies that the maker is following the highest standards.

For tire making is chiefly a matter of standards and policies—cost plus care. Any maker can build a good tire if he cares to pay perfection's price.

All men know Brunswick standards, for Brunswick products have been famous for 74 years.

Formulas, fabrics and standards vary vastly in cost. Reinforcements, plies and thickness are a matter of expense. And these variations affect endurance. It rests with the maker how far he wishes to go—how much he can afford to give.

For there are no secrets nor patents to hold one back.

To ascertain what each maker offers one must analyze and test some 200 tires—as our laboratories have done.

Then it is a matter of combining the best features and building according to the highest standards.

Once you try a Brunswick you will understand how we have built model tires, regardless of factory expense.

Yet Brunswick Tires cost you the same as other like-type tires. Our saving is on selling cost, through our nation-wide organization.

We realize that you expect more from Brunswicks, and we assure you that you get it. ONE Brunswick will tell you the story.

And then you'll want ALL Brunswicks. No other tire, you'll agree, gives so much for your money.

CULL CHICKENS IN AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER

West Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 13.—To have a good flock, one that pays the most money, hens should be culled during August and September, says Dr. B. E. Kaupp of the North Carolina Experiment Station. Dr. Kaupp suggests that those poultrymen who do not know how to go about this culling get in touch with their county agents or home demonstration agent and ask them to help.

For those who desire to study the matter in detail the Poultry Department of the Experiment Station and State College offers one-day schools in culling poultry at West Raleigh, these schools giving the results of the experiments with poultry, which can be carried back to the folks at home.

However, it is easy for the average poultry keeper to know a good laying hen when he sees one. She can be recognized by such signs as late moulting, bleached beak and shank, when of the yellow skin variety, deep body, good capacity, cut early and late, happy and always hungry and with a large bright red comb.

A poor laying hen can be quickly detected, because she goes to roost early and comes out late in the morning, molts early, has a shallow body, a low capacity, a comb that is dry and stiff and long toe nails. Such hens as this should be quickly disposed of, as they only add to the cost of the flock and give practically no returns.

The early pullet which lays while young generally produces the best laying hen. Such a pullet should be marked by a toe punch, because when they begin to lay at five or six months of age they will moult late in the fall and become fine egg producers.

MR. CARR OF PITT COUNTY, CREW CLOVER THIS YEAR IN SPITE OF YEARS FAILURE

Failure in clover raising is not always the fault of the farmer. There are successful and unsuccessful methods. Mr. S. A. Carr of Farmville, N. C., (Pitt County) had a unique experience. His letter throws some light on the safest, surest and most economical method of securing a good stand. His letter is interesting:

Farmville, N. C., May 21, 1917.

Gentlemen: I bought two acres of your bacteria for crimson clover last September and use the same according to instructions, and am pleased to state that I have received very satisfactory results therefrom. I beg also to state that I have on several previous occasions tried to grow clover, but have always failed until I used Nitra-germ. Nitra-germ has my highest recommendation for clover growing in the South.

In conclusion I beg to say that I never intend to try to grow clover without the use of Nitra-germ.

(Signed) S. A. CARR.

Nitra-germ has produced similar records for thousands of farmers, not only in making successful stands of clover, but also vetch and alfalfa. Nitra-germed clover planted in your cotton strips after the last working of cotton will be ready when the cotton is picked. It is excellent for grazing and hay and builds the soil. Nitra-germed vetch when planted with oats and rye makes the very best feed. It will double your yield and build soil. Vetch stubble when turned under is equal to 700 lbs. of good grade fertilizer per acre. Nitra-germed alfalfa is sure of a good stand and 4 or 5 crops per year without cultivation. It is a wonderful land builder. In planting this fall inoculate your seed with Nitra-germ and be sure of a good stand. It improves your crop and land. It costs $2.00 per acre delivered. The "Green Flag" Smile

Is the Smile Worth While!
The Smile that "Won't come off"—

There was a time when he didn't smile,
When he drove his motor car:
For the engine knocked and thumped and bucked,
And gave him a terrible "jar"—

It's different now, when he takes the wheel,
And starts for his daily spin;
He uses "GREEN FLAG" to lubricate,
And his car runs as smooth as a pin.

There are two great essentials in lubrication. First, the quality of the OIL, and second, the correct grade or "body" for your particular car.

The "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL supplies these two great essentials. It is the highest quality Motor Oil, and is made in varying grades of consistency to meet the requirements of your particular motor. Your dealer has a chart that guides you to selection.

The quality of "GREEN FLAG" is all the guide you need as to a CHOICE of motor oil. Keep it in your mind, always, that you can not exercise too much care in the selection of a motor oil; the correct grade; and never try to run your car without a full supply in the lubrication box. Then you'll keep smiling like the man in the picture.

The following well-known and reliable dealers are exclusive agents for "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL in this county. They guarantee "GREEN FLAG". It will pay you to go out of your way to buy "GREEN FLAG" MOTOR OIL—

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 3, 1919.

Those Texans who have seen fit to draft resolutions requesting that the north refrain from interfering with race questions of the south is no doubt very timely, for it is an assured fact that the northerner is not familiar enough with conditions throughout this section of the country to offer suggestions that would be very beneficial in the long run. The south has handled its race question admirably for the past several years, in fact, there has only been slight friction between the classes and as a result the country today is in one of the most prosperous conditions in its history. Both the north and south should work together in complete harmony upon this question, and in leaving the matter entirely in the hand of the southerner who is thoroughly familiar with the customs and traditions of the colored man, it is hardly possible that anything but good can come about as a natural sequence.

Munich is again to the front after some little time spent in experiencing such peace as the section is afforded when in a state of dissension and disruption. In fact, from all reports received up to this time, soldiers are holding the main thoroughfares of the city, with martial law already proclaimed in every part of the town. The variations are certainly getting their share of belligerence, if such an unsettled state of affairs could be called such, and while there is immediate prospects of a change for the better no one can but doubt that the situation will remain serious for several months yet.

If negotiating the peace treaty is going to involve an expenditure of practically two million dollars to this country, we are wondering where in the name of goodness do the other negotiating powers come in for their share of the funds. It is true that the nation has already made an expenditure of $4,500,000 to see the treaty this year completed, and to see that it is properly carried out to the last end just five hundred thousand dollars more is going to be required. Truly, gentlemen, it is to be hoped that peace will not be quite so costly now that the war is over, but if it means uninterrupted peace and prosperity—let 'er go—let 'er rip, boys.

There are very few people of this section who do not believe in the future of the local tobacco market, for the splendid record which the market has established during the past few years without a doubt justifies such confidence. The opening of the market yesterday was another of the outstanding features in the gradual expansion of the tobacco industry throughout the territory, for the prices paid for the product calls for greater praise and commendation for the men behind the great movement. The season last year surpassed any of the state, and although the production is cut short around here on account of recent floods this fact will not detract from the progress expected for the present season.

Press reports convey the information that Italy is now considered one of the most expensive countries in the allied territory, and while such a statement is hard to believe by people of this land of high prices, there is only one alternative—and that to take the statement as it is.

With the postal employees of the nation determined to put up a persistent fight against the high cost of living, in conjunction with that at this time being waged by the government, there cannot be the slightest doubt entertained that the issue will not receive the attention of which it is so surely deserving. Profiteering must be a thing of the past at some early date, and while of course, it will take some little time to bring about any noticeable change it is assured greater results will be realized later when all forces are in concentrated action against the issues of the day.

While there may be some profiteering going on in Greenville just at this time it is very noticeable that the decrease has been surprising of late. The truth is, gentlemen, the excessive profit reaper never knows when the eyes of some public official are watching him, and for that reason good results are being obtained in every part of the nation as well as locally.

If you are interested in the gradual growth and development of Greenville get behind the man with some surplus money and persuade him to erect a residence for renting purposes. Greenville was never in greater distress from need of adequate housing facilities than at this time, and little room is left for commercial expansion unless homes are built in order that the incoming stranger may find a place to carry his family. The situation is one deserving attention immediately, and it is now up to the thinking men of the city to get behind the issue and build until there will be no necessity for such.

TO MY FRIENDS.

I will be in the city for a few days with my line of dress goods and children's ready-to-wear dresses. If you desire to see them call day 'phone 56 and night 'phone 520-L. Mrs. J. T. Ward.

DON'T LET HIM LURE AWAY YOUR GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

You remember how the Pied Piper of Hamelin Town played a siren tune on his pipe and lured the children away. They are making "golden" promises; they are offering stock in concerns which they say will make you rich. Hold your government securities. Don't let the Pied Pipers make a laughing stock and a sucker out of you.

HE TELLS WHAT HE THINKS OF AMERICA

Syrian Says Now is Time For Every Man To Prove Patriotism—Answer Found in War Savings Stamps.

It sometimes takes the new-comer to appreciate America. The native-born is often too close to the situation to realize what this country means to the world today. He is used to all that it offers, taking it as a matter of course, and frequently loses the vision in sordid detail; while the new-comer—but listen to what one of them had to say.

He is George E. Rihbany of the 1918 class of the Boston High School of Commerce and he came to this country from his native land, Syria, when he was 10 years old. In a four-minute speech on the value of War Savings Stamps, given at the school recently, he said in closing:

"Hate is not characteristic of the American people, but the Germans taught us unwillingly how to hate them. Now it is a sin not to hate the spirit the Hun showed and not to abolish it from the face of the earth. Of the latter we are positively sure, because the American passion for justice is a hundred times stronger than was the German passion for conquest.

"I never entertained the idea of becoming an orator and I am sure that I lack oratorical ability, but such qualifications are unnecessary on an occasion like this, because the only and best inducement to a true American is the call of his duty and government, and not even the best oration of the greatest speaker of all times.

"Whether we all realize it or not, we are now in the midst of a period which will be known to all the oppressed peoples of the world as the Americanization period. Now is the time for every one of us to prove whether he is a sham American or a genuine American."

The practice of thrift and the purchase of War Savings Stamps are just now good indications of the genuine American. They make for financial independence, freedom, prosperity and happiness.

UNCLE SAM'S MONEY BEST IN THE WORLD

Color Looks Good To Boys Coming Home After Seeing Only Foreign Currency for Months.

Just how good American money looks to a man away from home is illustrated by the story told by one of these boys who fought in France in the war for the preservation of civilization, and who afterwards saw service across the border in Germany.

Sergeant H. H. Coffey was attached to Company L, 35th Infantry, and for six months was at Trier, Germany, 30 miles from Luxemburg. Now he is back home.

"While we were in France," said Sergeant Coffey, "we were paid in French money. And afterward, when we were in Germany, we were paid in German money. The difference between the French and German money, as compared with United States money, is amazing. It is printed on white paper, and one gets an awful wad of it for comparatively a small quantity of American money.

"When we got this foreign stuff the boys were very liberal with it. They would gamble with it, would lend it and handle it very carelessly. But when we got to Brest on our way home, and that money was exchanged for real American money, all that liberality disappeared, and it was guarded zealously."

That is one of the lessons the war has taught. American money, any promise to pay on the part of Uncle Sam, is mighty valuable in the eyes of the world. That is why the Liberty Bonds found so ready a market, and that is why the War Savings Stamps look just as good as money. They are both evidences of indebtedness on Uncle Sam's part and his written promise to pay. There is no record yet that he ever failed to meet an obligation.

KEEP GRIP ON YOUR WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Advertising Clubs Issue Warning To Protect the Public Against Ubiquitous Stock Swindlers.

Various ways for prospective investors to detect the unscrupulous stock promoters are contained in a bulletin recently issued by the National Vigilance Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. The bulletin indicates several unmistakable signs of the "wild cat" stock peddlers which owners of War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds will do well to consider before exchanging their valuable securities for the offerings of northern stocks. The warning to prospective investors is as follows:

"So far as we have been able to ascertain not a single case has ever been reported where the promoters of a legitimate, worthy enterprise have offered to take Liberty Bonds in payment for the capital stock of a new company. We believe that the very offer to take Liberty Bonds should prompt the bond owner to consult a banker or legitimate broker as to the value of the stock that is offered in exchange for the bonds. The offer to exchange is an earmark which should serve as a warning.

"Another earmark of the faker is his attitude when it is proposed to postpone action pending an investigation. He will usually sneer at the thought of consulting a banker or broker of standing, suggesting that, of course, they would not recommend the stock because they have stocks of their own to sell.

"In such a case the prospective investor might be sensible enough to remember that it is the one who war restrictions upon business men standing who is likely to be the by-night salesman, and that he has been in the community years and will no doubt continue his business for many more. He reasons that an established business would surely be able to get a good price for the stock. Yet there are thousands of people who allow themselves to be hoodwinked because they believe in fairy stories."

HAND GRENADE BANKS WILL SOON BE READY

Children Are Urged to Begin Saving Money At Once So That They Will Not Lose Any Time.

Some 250,000 hand grenade banks will be ready for distribution in the Fifth Federal Reserve District by August 30, according to a statement issued at the War Loan Organization of this district.

Every one of these hand grenades was manufactured to carry destruction to the Huns, and now, with percussion cap and explosive removed, they are to serve in the campaign for thrift. Made into penny-slot banks they will be lent, one to each child under seventeen years old who calls at a bank. Then, if enough money to purchase one or more War Savings Stamps is saved in a specified time, the hand grenade becomes the property of the child.

There has been some delay in Washington in getting the grenades ready for distribution, due to the large number that had to be prepared for their new capacity, but it is now assured that they will shortly be ready.

Every child who would like a real souvenir of the great war can get it by calling at the bank as soon after August 20 as possible, for there will probably be more than 250,000 children in the district who will want the grenades, and the supply is necessarily limited.

Meanwhile, the children are urged to begin saving at once so that they may have a "running start" when the grenade banks are delivered. The sooner enough money is saved to buy a War Savings Stamp the sooner the hand grenade belongs to the child, and the sooner the child begins to save the sooner the desired end will be reached.

Compulsory School Attendance Law

NOTICE.

The law requires the publication of the Compulsory Attendance Law. It will be found below. Please read it carefully. Notice that it requires the attendance for the whole term of all children between the ages of eight and fourteen, unless there is reason for absence sufficient to constitute a legal excuse.

It is the earnest desire of the school officials of the county that this law be enforced fully and completely to the end that the children may have opportunity to use the educational facilities that are offered. Children from 8 to 14 years of age should be in school continuously from the first day. The teacher is required by law to notify the first day. The teacher is required by law to notify the parents when such children are absent. The parent must render an excuse in writing. If no excuse is offered, or if the excuse offered is not sufficient, the teacher must at once report the matter to the county superintendent of public welfare for his attention and investigation. If she should fail to carry out her part of the provisions of the law and the rules of the State Board of Education she would be guilty of a misdemeanor.

All parents are urged to acquaint themselves with the law, and then full co-operation is earnestly invited. It is for the sake of the children and the future of the county.

PITT COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

- A. G. COX, Chairman. L. C. ARTHUR, M. O. BLOUNT, S. B. UNDERWOOD, Secy M. K. BLOUNT.

County Superintendent of Public Welfare and Chief Attendance Officer.

An Act to Provide for the Compulsory Attendance Upon the Public Schools of Children Between Certain Ages and to Regulate and Restrict the Employment of Children and to Provide for the Enforcement of the Provisions of This Act and of Chapter 83, Public Laws of 1913, and Chapter 857, Public Laws of 1909.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. Every parent, guardian or other person in the State of North Carolina having charge or control of a child between the ages of eight and fourteen years shall cause such child to attend school continuously for a period equal to the time which the public school in the district in which the child resides shall be in session. The principal, superintendent, or teacher who is in charge of such school shall have the right to excuse the child from temporary attendance on account of sickness or distance of residence from the school, or other unavoidable cause which does not constitute truancy as defined by the State Board of Education.

Sec. 2. Any parent, guardian, or other person referred to in section one of this act, violating the provisions of the aforesaid section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than twenty-five ($25) and upon failure or refusal to pay such fine the said parent, guardian, or other person shall be imprisoned not exceeding thirty days in the county jail.

Sec. 2a. It shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to formulate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this act. Said board shall prescribe what shall constitute truancy, what may constitute legitimate excuses for temporary non-attendance due to physical or mental inability to attend and under what circumstances teachers, principals or superintendents may excuse pupils for non-attendance due to immediate demands of the farm or the home in certain seasons of the year in the several sections of the State. It shall be the duty of all school officials to carry out such instructions from the State Board of Education, and any school official failing to carry out such instructions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; Provided, that section one of this act shall not be in force in any city or county that has a higher compulsory attendance law now in force than that provided herein; but in any such case it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to investigate the same and decide that any such law now in force has a higher compulsory attendance feature than that provided by this act: Provided, that wherever district is without adequate building or buildings for the proper enforcement of this act the county boards of education may be allowed not more than two years from July the first, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, to make full and ample provisions in every district.

Sec. 3. The county superintendent of public welfare or chief school attendance officer or truant officer provided for by the law shall investigate and prosecute all violations of the provisions of section one of this act.

Sec. 4. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prepare such rules of procedure and furnish such blanks for teachers and other school officials as may be necessary for reporting each case of truancy or lack of attendance to the chief attendance officer referred to in section three hereof. Such rules shall provide, among other things, for a notification in writing to the person responsible for the nonattendance of any child, that the case is to be reported to the chief attendance officer of the county unless the law is immediately complied with. County boards of education and governing bodies of city schools shall have the right to appoint town or district attendance officers when deemed by them necessary, to assist in carrying out the provisions of sections one, two, three, and four of this act, and the rules and instructions which may be promulgated by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. But in every case in which it becomes necessary to prosecute for nonattendance the case shall be referred to the chief attendance officer of the county for further action: Provided, that in towns or cities having special attendance officers paid out of town or city funds said officers shall have full authority to prosecute for violations of this act.

Sec. 5. No child under the age of fourteen years shall be employed, or permitted to work, in or about or in connection with any mill, factory, cannery, workshop, manufacturing establishment, laundry, bakery, mercantile establishment, office, hotel, restaurant, barber shop, bootblack stand, public stable, garage, place of amusement, brick yard, or any messenger or delivery service, except in cases and under regulations prescribed by the commission hereinafter created: Provided, the employment in this section enumerated shall not be construed to include bona fide boys' and girls' canning clubs recognized by the Agricultural Department of this State; and such canning clubs are hereby expressly exempted from the provisions of this act.

Sec. 5a. It shall be the duty of the county boards of education of each county in the State of North Carolina to cause this act to be published in full in some newspaper published in the county if there be one, and if there be none, then in circular form and distributed over the county at least four weeks prior to the opening of the schools after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

Sec. 6. No person under sixteen years of age shall be employed, or permitted to work, at night in any of the places or occupations referred to in section five of this act, between the hours of nine p. m. and six a. m. and no person under sixteen years of age shall be employed or permitted to work in or about or in connection with any quarry or mine.

Sec. 7. That the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Secretary of the State Board of Health, and the Commissioner of Public Welfare of the State of North Carolina are hereby constituted the State Child Welfare Commission, and they shall serve without additional compensation. It shall be the duty of this commission to make and formulate such rules and regulations for enforcing and carrying out the provisions of this act, and of chapter eighty-three of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, chapter eight hundred and fifty-seven of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and nine, as in its judgment it shall deem necessary.

Sec. 8. That for the purpose of securing the proper enforcement of the provisions of sections five, six, and seven of this act, and of chapter eighty-three of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, chapter eight hundred and fifty-seven of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and nine, the said commission, or its duly authorized agents, shall have authority to enter and inspect, at any times, mines, quarries, mills, factories, canneries, workshops, manufacturing establishments, laundries, bakeries, mercantile establishments, offices, hotels, restaurants, barber shops, bootblack stands, public stables, garages, places of amusement, brick yards, lumber yards, and other places of employment, and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse permission to enter, obstruct, or prevent any duly authorized agent of said commission in his effort to make the inspection herein provided for.

Sec. 9. The said commission shall have authority to appoint and employ such agents for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of section five, six, seven and eight of this act as may be found to be necessary, and they may use the county superintendent of public welfare or chief school attendance officer or truant officer of the several counties for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sections five, six, seven and eight of this act, and they may use the agents specially designated for carrying out the provisions of sections five, six, seven, and eight of this act, to aid in carrying out the provisions of sections one, two, three, and four of this act in regard to school attendance.

Sec. 10. That if the employer of any person under sixteen years of age shall, at the time of such employment in good faith procure, rely upon, and keep on file a certificate issued in such form and under such conditions and by such persons as the said commission herein provided for shall prescribe, showing that the person is of legal age for such employment, such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the age of the person and the good faith of the employer. No person shall knowingly make a false statement or present false evidence in or in relation to any certificate or application therefor, or cause any false statement to be made which may result in the issuance of an improper certificate of employment.

Sec. 11. The State Treasurer shall honor all warrants for necessary expenses incurred by said commission in the enforcement of this act, and the necessary expenses incurred by said commission in carrying out the provisions of this act out of the funds not otherwise appropriated, such warrants to be drawn upon the State Auditor by the Commission hereby created, or its duly authorized agent: Provided, that said expenses so incurred shall not exceed the sum of six thousand dollars per annum.

Sec. 12. That any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of sections five, six, seven, eight, nine, and ten of this act, or of the provisions of chapter eighty-three of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, or of chapter eight hundred and fifty-seven of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and nine, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, within the discretion of the court.

Sec. 13. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 14. That this act shall be in force from and after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

Ratified this the 10th day of March, A. D., 1919.

WILL MAKE EFFORT TO CONSERVE RESOURCES

New Orleans, Sept. 2.—What to do with the now latent energies developed by women for war work is one of the problems for the sex to work out, in the opinion of Mrs. Fred J. Foxley of 5004 St. Charles street, president for the Louisiana Diocese of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church, and one of the leaders of the South in social and religious work.

Mrs. Foxley thinks a program of social helpfulness is the logical means to prevent waste of the force woman has developed.

"It seems to me," she said today, "that never were there so many opportunities, so many open doors for women as there are now in religious work, social service, and helpfulness."

"No one who has followed the work of the Red Cross and similar organizations in the recent war can have failed to notice the splendid achievements of women. This work was not simply a matter of rolling surgical bandages and knitting sweaters and socks although this labor was very necessary and was done in a most efficient manner. But women proved that they were capable of doing many other things besides."

"They filled many places left vacant by men who went to the colors, and they did creditably and efficiently. Women have become a reorganized force and power in the world. The question now seems to be on what objects these women who have "made good" can now expend their energies. Many opportunities for broader church and social service work are offered, and in the case of the Nation-Wide Campaign of the Episcopal Church, by which the various fields of activity in the Church at home and abroad are presented and their need for workers and yet more workers is shown, many women will feel the power of the call to the colors in the Church army as they did not feel of this country."

"The call is urgent, the need is great and if the women of this country will prove faithful and enter into the many fields of service offered them with the same zeal and power that they did their work during the war, we shall in this generation begin to lay the foundation of that Christian civilization for which our men have bled and died."

Nothing boosts a girl's self-conceit like two proposals in one week.

VIRGINIA TRUST LAW OPERATED ON BY D. P. S.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 1.—Members of the Virginia State Senate put teeth into the anti-trust law at the meeting held this afternoon. This action followed the contention of senator G. Walter Mapp that an effort was being made by indirection to render the act of little or no account.

For the first offense the convicted men will be fined not to exceed $1,000 or sent to jail not to exceed twelve months or both. For the second offense he will be fined not less than $1,000 or more than $5,000 and jailed not longer than twelve months or sent to the penitentiary for a period of from one to two years.

SOCIALISTS WILL NOT NOMINATE DEBS AGAIN

Chicago, Sept. —A candidate for President will not be named at the National Socialist Convention which opened today. Resolutions to that effect were adopted after J. Louis Engdahl of Chicago, had proposed Eugene V. Debs, now serving a prison sentence for violation of the espionage law, for the nomination.

Seymour Stedman, temporary chairman, declared that the nomination would injure Debs' chances for a pardon.

EMPIRE BUILDERS OF 1940.

"If you see an Englishman running down the street toward the telegraph office, ten to one, there is a new-born son at his house, and the father is hurrying to make a reservation for him fifteen years hence at Etom or Rugby," says a writer describing the importance an Englishman places on the training his son is to receive.

Quite properly too, for what could be more important to the proud father of a son than the future education of that son? Here in America it is not necessary for reservation in a picked school to be made so many years beforehand, but financial security is needed to guarantee that education.

The father who dreams great things for his little son will begin thinking

We Say In Advance Exactly What we will do And Do What We Say

The beautiful custom of erecting Memorials to the departed has been adopted by all nations. We are called upon sooner or later to tender this last mark of respect to those who have left the family fireside and passed into the realms of eternity.

It is an ABSOLUTE IMPOSSIBILITY to peddle your order for a monument and not eventually place it with an incapable firm, because their price is low.

'Tis better to place your order with an established dealer than with an agent with his office in his hat. And by so doing you can usually save the 30 PER CENT that goes into the pockets of the agent.

Place your order with a responsible firm at a legitimate price and get the right kind of goods. You will be gainer. You buy a monument but once.

By placing your order as far in advance as possible you will only save money, but you will help us to be of "greater service to a greater number"—to serve you best—to our satisfaction and to yours."

We have been located in Greenville for nearly five years, and from the beginning until today the amount of finished work turned out by us has been steadily increasing. This is gratifying, especially when we have NO AGENTS soliciting.

FARMERS MEETING CONVENED IN THIS CITY EARLY TODAY

but owing to some confusion in arrangements, the court house was chosen during the morning in order that little delay might be incurred in the day's work.

The convention was opened by Mr. Small who explained why the farmers had been requested to participate in the meeting, showing the necessity of closer co-operation, and giving various points of interest connected with the general program of the day. He told of the demand for agricultural development throughout this section of the state, and showed its direct service and relationship to the people. The planter was forcefully impressed with the necessity of continued development of every line of agriculture, and urged to do everything possible to concentrate his efforts for the general improvement of all things having a tendency of developing better farming in every territory.

Mr. D. T. Tyson was elected chairman of the meeting following Mr. Small's explanatory remarks, who immediately introduced Dr. F. D. Owens, who is in charge of hog cholera work of the state. Dr. Owens told of the possibilities for growing more and better live stock in this part of the country, outlining several ways for uninterrupted development along this line of thought. He also told of the necessity of tick eradication and hog cholera control, urging that greater attention be given these two things holding, as they do, such an important place in the success of farm work.

Mr. Charles S. Jones, specialist in live stock marketing for North Carolina, was the next speaker of the morning session. He brought out several points of interest in marketing live stock, conveying the fact that co-operative marketing among the farmers will have a tendency of bringing more for the sales than would otherwise be realized. Car shipments of stock through the co-operative plan would bring practically $600 more to the farmer than local sales, he said, and then told of how such an association could be organized among the farmers with desired results.

The convention adjourned shortly after one o'clock, but will resume session at 2:30 o'clock, when Mrs. Cornelia C. Morris, of Washington, will talk on home demonstration work of the state. Mrs. Morris will be followed by Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, director of infant hygiene of the State Board of Health, who will discuss the necessity of health and sanitation. Congressman Small will also speak during the evening session, and it is expected that a much larger crowd will be in attendance.

to increased interest after the market recovers from the opening, and while it is very difficult to judge the final outcome of the week, it is generally conceded by tobaccoists, that there will be an uninterrupted demand for better grades of the bright leaf with prices remaining firm for quite awhile.

The averages yesterday were somewhat higher than during last season, and if the unconfirmed reports are true, price will exceed the old averages from eight to ten cents. Inferior grades of the leaf were somewhat lower than last year, but taking it all in all, there is going to be very little change between the two seasons with the exception that this year will experience little higher prices, probably resulting from the decreased production over that of the preceding year.

It is believed by many of the tobaccoists that there will be slight fluctuation in prices for the best grades of the weed, and that the demand will not be curtailed to any noticeable extent throughout the entire year. This fact will no doubt be more than gratifying to surrounding farmers who have already experienced great loss from recent floods and rains, and the higher the prices go, naturally the more they will be pleased.
