

SIMMONS IS LINED
UP IN OPPOSITION
TO PEACE TREATY

Writer Says Senator Feels League of Nations Doesn't Protect.
COVENANT INADEQUATE
IN ITS BROAD SCOPE
People of This Nation Not Fully Protected by Terms of the Covenant.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Sept. 8.—Albert W. Fox, who in the Washington Post has been conducting a persistent propaganda against the League of Nations, in today's issue of that paper asserts that Senator Simmons has joined the ranks of the opponents of the League of Nations.
Mr. Fox does not specify the particular portions of the league covenant to which Senator Simmons objects. He merely asserts that the treaty unamended cannot have the North Carolina Senator's support. Possibly very slight amendment would meet Senator Simmons' objections, but Mr. Fox says he is completely out of the ranks of league supporters.
The better part of the article, which is headed "Senator Simmons Quits," is a fulsome tribute to the Senator's ability and details of the grounds for opposition are left out in a way to indicate that the writer had very little on which to base his article.
One of the statements is that Mr. Simmons is recognized not only as an American of intense national patriotism and a leader of marked ability, but also as a man wielding very great influence in his home State and throughout the South.

GINNED COTTON DECLINES
FOR THE PRESENT SEASON

Washington, Sept. 8.—Cotton ginned prior to September 1st totalled 138,003 running bales, including 1129 round bales and 30 bales Sea Island, compared with 1,038,000 running bales, including 3,178 round bales and 296 bales Sea Island to that date last year. The report of the census bureau announced today the lateness of the crop has been the cause of small ginning.

LIGHT SALES MARK
TOBACCO OPENINGS
HERE DURING DAY

Tobacconists Expect Floors to be Cleared Probably This Afternoon.
PRICES CONTINUE FIRM
FOR THE BETTER GRADES
Sales During Remainder of Week Will be Heavy as the Past Week.

The congestion of sales which has featured conspicuously since the opening of the tobacco market in this city last Tuesday will today be relieved to a great extent, it is believed by tobacconists well acquainted with the situation in tobacco town, and while, of course, there is much work to be done before this end is accomplished there is not the slightest doubt entertained that the blocked sales of Saturday cannot be cleared away with the offerings on the floors today.
It is expected that the sales will be equally as large, if not larger, than during the opening period last week, and although the beginning today is rather slight, there are no doubt hundreds of farmers holding back through advice on the part of warehousemen urging for lighter sales until the market has been cleared of the great amount of bright leaf which has been on the floors practically throughout the entirety of last week. In fact, the congestion has been so great at times that it was very difficult to distinguish the difference in sales from day to day, and although there has been some little uncertainty on the part of buying forces through such an occurrence, (Continued on page eight.)

MEXICAN ROBBERS
HOLD UP CASHIERS
AND GET PAYROLL

Members of American Companies
Victims of Robbers of Mexican District.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Details of three robberies in a week in the Tampico region have been received at the offices of the oil companies. The robbers secured $50,000 Mexican gold, American companies being the victims and the robberies all took place in the territory where no one but the Carranza troops are permitted to carry arms.
H. M. Kimball, cashier of the Penn-Mexican camp, was forced by bandits to open the safe, from which $25,000 was taken, the robbers escaping in a company launch. Twenty-eight men in all took part in the robbery, all armed with rifles and revolvers.
Luis Gutierrez, paymaster of the Agwi Company, while taking a pay-roll of $4,000 to the Tepetate camp, was held up by three armed masked men and robbed. Neither Gutierrez nor his companion, Kenneth Delacy, knew they were to make the trip until ten minutes before they started. The company officials, however, had notified the Mexican authorities at Tampico of the amount of the pay-roll, and the time of departure and route to be taken.
The robbers demanded the exact amount, according to the report, which was not known to the two men carrying it, and it was counted before the robbers would let their victims go.
A Tampico bank made up a $30,000 pay-roll of the Trans-Continental Oil Company, in an effort to thwart the robbers, and placed it in a box to be sent to the camp at Mata Redonda by launch. The Mexican authorities are said to have delayed the departure of the launch unexpected for one night, and when it reached the camp a box of old iron had been substituted for the original.
Royal Arch Masons will meet tonight.

GREAT OVATION IS GIVEN PERSHING IN
CITY OF NEW YORK

Arrival of Noted Warrior
Greeted by Thousands of People of Metropolis LEVATHIAN DOCKED IN HARBOR DURING TODAY

New York, Sept. 8.—General Pershing arrived on the Levathian this morning amid the screeching of sirens from thousands of factories and ships. Messages were dropped from police dirigibles welcoming Pershing on behalf of the city. They were signed by Mayor Hyland, Rodman Wananaker, chairman of the reception committee, Vice-President Marshall, Secretary Baker, General March, members of congress and other notables went down the river aboard the destroyer Blakely to greet the returning general. Receptions, luncheons, theatre parties marked the first day of ceremonies which will last three days.
When congress confers the permanent title of General upon John J. Pershing he will be the fourth man to hold that coveted title in the army of the United States. The other three were Grant, Sheridan and Sherman.
As the central American figure in the world war, with the single exception of President Wilson, so much has been written about Pershing, and his life and history are so fresh in the public mind that it is difficult to tell the average American anything new about the man who commanded the great army on the battlefields of Europe.
When some of Pershing's friends (Continued on page four.)

FOCH IS ENJOYING
FIRST REST PERIOD
IN SEVERAL YEARS

Noted General Is Living Simple
Life on His Estate Near Brest District.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Marshal Foch is enjoying the first holiday he has had in five years. On his estate at Morlaix, near Brest, the Generalissimo of the Allied armies is living the simple life, dressed in loose tweeds and wearing a cap, only retaining his leather leggings as a reminder of his uniform.
The Marshal is a great lover of hunting and partridges are thick in the woods of Brittany. But the Marshal disconsolately watches them flutter about with impunity. It will not be open season for hunting in France until September 15. It was open season for the enemy for five years and the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied armies never missed a day. Some newspapers are asking that an exception be made in favor of Foch, one of them adding naively that "as he has rendered slight service to his country, in ridding it of the Germans he might be allowed to deprive its woods of a few partridges."
When it became known that Foch was going to Morlaix, the Mayor and City Councilors at once made elaborate plans for the reception. They assembled at the house of the Mayor and commenced marching down the station when some one remarked that the hour at which the train was due had passed.
"It matters not," said the Mayor, "that Brest train is never on time."
They arrived at the station, however, to find that the train actually had come and gone for twenty-five minutes. For once it had been on schedule time. General Foch was aboard and he never brooks delay. And now Minister of Railways Clavelle has lost a few votes in Morlaix for doing his work too well.

SAYS JAPS OUGHT TO PURCHASE THE PHILIPPINE ISLAND

Writer Thinks Dutch East India Island Should Also be Purchased.
GROWTH OF NATION IS
CAUSE OF SUGGESTION
More Territory Is Needed to Meet Expansion, It Is Explained.

Tokio, Sept. 8.—The suggestion that Japan purchase the Philippine islands from the United States and the Dutch East Indies from Holland as a means of solving the problem of Japan's ever growing population is made by a writer in the Herald of Asia, a conservative Japanese weekly journal. The writer contends Japan is bound to expand territorially as she is expanding in population. Pointing out that the population has more than doubled in the last fifty years, being now over 57,000,000, he estimates that at the rate of increase the population will in another fifty years have reached 114,000,000.
It is not too much to hope, he argues, that "some day justice and destiny will decide that all the islands on this side of the Pacific, north of the equator, will come under the jurisdiction of Japan." He asks the question whether America intends to keep out Japanese emigrants and still hold the Philippines permanently. If not, why should she not some day sell them to Japan? He adds: "Having closed her own doors to the Japanese, this would be a gracious act on her part and one that would be but naturally expected from a country boasting of so much philanthropy" (Continued on page eight.)

DODGE APPOINTED MINISTER TO THE
SERBIAN LOCALITY

Appointment Causes Much
Satisfaction in Diplomatic Circles, Said.

Belgrade, Sept. 8.—Appointment of H. Percival Dodge as first Minister of the United States to the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, has caused general satisfaction to members of the diplomatic corps and Americans here, in view of his handling of affairs during the difficult period that followed the liberation of Serbia and the organization of the new kingdom of Yugoslavia.
Mr. Dodge who has been here for some time as American special agent and charge d'affaires, has held posts in Africa, Asia and Latin-America, as well as in Europe. He is 49 years old, a graduate of Harvard, and a lawyer as well as a diplomat. He was in Berlin several years as secretary of the embassy. Subsequently, he became secretary of embassy at Tokio and in 1908 was appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Salvador. Later he went in the same capacity to Morocco and in 1910 became chief of the Division of Latin-American affairs in the Department of State. In 1911 he went to Panama as minister. In 1914 he was secretary for the United States at the A B C conference.
When the war broke out Mr. Dodge went to France as a special agent of the State Department to aid the American ambassador in looking after German and Austrian interests. He was a member of the Breckenridge Mission organized to rescue Americans who were stranded in Europe because of the war, and which spent $1,500,000 in gold for this purpose. In July 1917 he was sent as special agent and charge d'affaires to the Island of Corfu where the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Serbia had located and remained there until the changing fortunes of Serbia made possible the return of the government to Belgrade.

OFFICIALS RESIGN

Craven Tender the Resignation Today.
WERE UNABLE TO AGREE
TO POSTOFFICE POLICY
Re-organization of the Commission of Principal Importance, Is Said.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Charles M. Galloway and Herman W. Craven today in announcing their resignations from the Civil Service Commission, stated that they had been unable to agree to the policy of the postoffice department regarding examinations for postmaster-ships.
Galloway and Craven were asked to resign just before President Wilson returned to the peace conference early in March. The letters were said to have contained no reason for the request, but it was said at the White House that it was the President's purpose to reorganize the commission. Martin A. Morrison, of Indiana, and George R. Wales, of Vermont, were appointed new members of the commission. Mr. Galloway's statement today follows:
"My resignation was forced because I would not co-operate with Postmaster General Burleson in debauching the civil service and making a sham of the merit system. Herman W. Craven, the Republican member, and I, a Democrat, were ousted from the commission because we were not willing that the commission should be a mere adjunct to the postoffice department, and subservient to it, especially with reference to examinations for presidential postmasters under the executive order

NORTH CAROLINIAN

Rose Rapidly.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Sept. 8.—James W. Osborne, former assistant district attorney of New York, and widely known as a criminal lawyer, was found dead in bed in his apartment at a hotel here today. The body was discovered by his son when he returned to the hotel after spending Saturday night with relatives. Mrs. Osborne had gone to visit her father. The cause of death was given as angina pectoris.
Mr. Osborne, who was 61 years old, was born in Charlotte, N. C. He came to New York when he was 25 years old and five years later entered the district attorney's office. He served under successive district attorneys for fourteen years, later entering private practice.
During his terms as an assistant district attorney, Mr. Osborne gained wide fame by his successful prosecution of Albert T. Patrick, murderer of the aged millionaire, William Marsh Rice. Mr. Osborne also prosecuted Roland B. Molineux, son of Gen. Edward L. Molineux, who was charged with the murder of Mrs. Katherine B. Adams here in 1899.
Four years ago, Mr. Osborne figured in the "Oliver Osborne" case which gained nation-wide publicity. His Bar-Tanzer, of New York, sued him for $50,000 for breach of promise alleging he was the "Oliver Osborne" who, she said, proposed to her within an hour after they met, and who had taken her to a hotel in Plainfield, N. J., where she registered as his wife.

Washington, D. With foreign loans approaching ten billions he said the government would have to leave the problem of providing a market to enterprises in the South.

BOARD OF HEALTH
WARNING CITIZENS
OF FLU APPROACH

Influenza Expected in the Fall,
But in Lighter Form Than Customary.

The influenza will return perhaps in a form much milder than last year's as soon as cold weather begins. The history of all epidemics in the country is that they come back, but in a milder form.
Everybody is expecting a return of the epidemic and having experienced it are going to know what it is and how to combat it this year.
An educational campaign is going to be carried on to teach prevention of influenza. School teachers will instruct their pupils in the best ways to prevent the spreading of the germs and other measures will be taken to teach the people how to prevent the disease. The pupils of all schools will be watched carefully and in all cases of acute colds they will be sent home to remain there until all danger of influenza is past.
Children should be taught the use of the handkerchief, whenever they cough or sneeze they should use it and they should be so instructed that they will in every way do their best to prevent the spread of the epidemic.
The best way to combat influenza is to keep clean and disinfect the nose, throat and mouth; eat only wholesome food but not too much. Keep in good general condition and get plenty of fresh air. At first symptoms of an acute cold, the patient should be put to bed. This is one of the best ways of preventing influenza.

PEACE TERMS CAUSE ANGER IN AUSTRIA

Geneva, Sept. 6.—The Austrian peace terms have been received in Vienna with the greatest surprise and indignation, according to advice reaching here. It is believed that the Renner ministry will fall as a consequence. Monarchists consider that the terms have definitely killed any hope of the return of the Hapsburgs.

Former Emperor Charles who received the news from Paris soon after the reply of the allies was handed to the Austrian commission has decided to leave Switzerland.

LIQUOR MEN AWAITING WORD ON "DRY" FIGHT

Philadelphia, Sept. 6.—Members of the Philadelphia Retail Liquor Dealers' Association are awaiting word from New York as to whether or not the Pennsylvania plan for fighting the prohibition amendment to the constitution has received the indorsement of the National Liquor Dealers. Pending final decision on the plan its details are being guarded as secrets too valuable to be made public. Just why this attitude should have been taken officials of the organization could not explain yesterday.

They admitted that as soon as the plan had been sanctioned, and they firmly believed it would be indorsed by the national body, it would necessarily become public property. Yet they insisted that until then it would not do to make it public.

GREAT LAW MUST BE OBEYED

Manifold Helpless Before the Irresistible March of Progress Known as Evolution.

The old sailing packet crawled along, tacking and trimming, that its yards of unfurled canvas might catch the freshening winds. The skipper, his leathern face seamed with the heavy lines put there by years of buffeting struggle with wind and wave, watched the great engine-driven liner race past him.

A dark bitterness welled up in the old sailing skipper's heart. For that engine-driven liner represented a relentless progress that would not be stayed or denied. It had driven most of his kind from the face of the waters; it had made cargoes for the few of his kind remaining difficult to obtain and obtainable only at rates that meant at best only a pittance.

On the bridge of the steam-driven liner the captain, as he gazed at the crawling old sailing packet, caught the hum of a mighty motor overhead. His glance turned from the miserable old packet to the swiftly approaching outlines of a giant aircraft. It came from behind and it passed the racing liner even as the liner had passed the packet. And in the heart of the liner's captain welled a dark bitterness. For he understood. The workings of the Great Law were written clearly in the air and sea before him. Even as the day of the skipper of the sailing packet had ended so his own day was nearing its end. A progress that would not be stayed or denied was overtaking him and his kind.

There is a sadness like unto no other for they who watch and give way before the changing eras, for they represent life's helpless discard.

Proof That Seeds Breathe.

It is easy to demonstrate that germinating seeds take in oxygen and give out carbon dioxide, according to the following experiment described in the Scientific American:

A score or so of peas are placed in a close-fitting jar with a small amount of moisture. After a while the peas start to germinate, but soon they cease all development, because the oxygen in the jar is exhausted. A single pea in a jar of the same size, however, will develop and grow up into a little plant. There is evidently oxygen enough for the needs of the single specimen.

To prove conclusively that there is no oxygen left in the jar in which the number of seeds germinated it is only needful to plunge in a burning match. This instantly goes out. The presence of carbon dioxide in this jar is clearly shown by pouring into it lime water, and then shaking. The lime water becomes milky in appearance. This would not happen in a jar in which there had been no germinating seeds.

FOREIGN BORN ARE NOW TAUGHT THRIFT

Course in Americanization is Enlarged So as to Include Special Lesson on Saving Habit.

Thrift is now one of the subjects being taught to thousands of foreign-born workers who are attending Americanization classes throughout the United States in factories, shops, churches and night schools.

As a majority of the attendants at these classes speak but little or no English, the study of language constitutes one of the principal subjects taught, a half hour drill being held at each session. The method was devised for the National Y. M. C. A. and is published by that organization. The lessons are short, consisting of about twenty simple sentences on everyday matters; and a class is taught by repeating one sentence at a time after the teacher, who illustrates it with motions and objects.

"I look at my watch," says the teacher, who takes out his own watch. The class repeats this in chorus, then individually. The next sentence deals with numbers and the telling of time. All sentences are linked together, and each teaches at least one new word with connectives. At the end of the lesson it is shown to the class in printed form on a chart.

At the request of the Treasury Department, a special thrift lesson dealing with War Savings Stamps has been written and is now in the hands of American secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. all over the country. This lesson is an excellent illustration of the method by which thousands of foreign-born workers are now learning English, and it is as follows:

Has—John has some money.
Puts—He puts it in a stocking.
Says—Jim says: "It is not safe."
Answers—John answers: "No? I will see."
Looks—He looks for his money.
Is Stolen—The money is stolen.
Saves—John saves more money.
Asks—He asks: "How can I keep my money?"
Says—Jim says: "See this, John."
Shows—Jim shows him a book of War Savings Stamps.
Says—John says: "Where did you get it?"
Buys—John buys some War Savings Stamps.
Puts—He puts them in a book.
Says—John says: "This is safe and good."
Buys—John buys more stamps.
Says—He says: "America is safe and so is my money."

THE LUCKY THREE

Only three men out of every hundred have a savings account at the age of forty-five, ninety-seven per cent of them losing their entire savings in some reverse.

Are you taking a chance, thirty-three to one, on being one of those ninety-seven? Or are you making sure that you will answer "present" when the roll of three is called? It's just as easy to be in this latter class as in the first—if you think. Ninety-seven men out of every hundred don't think, saving spasmodically, if they save at all, and investing in securities of which they do not know the value.

Government securities are absolutely safe, pay a high rate of interest and are easily obtainable in small denominations. Save regularly and safely, and you will be sure to be among the lucky three.

STOCKHOLDERS GET U. S. THRIFT APPEAL

Corporations Mail War Savings Stamp Notice When Sending Out Dividends.

Not only is thrift becoming a part of the general education of the people of small and moderate means who are being taught and encouraged to cultivate habits of wise saving and sensible spending; efforts are being made to attract to the thrift campaign the stockholders of practically every large corporation in the United States.

Already twenty-six of the largest corporations in the country have agreed to mail with notices of dividend payments to stockholders inserts calling attention to the desirability of investing their stock earnings in War Savings Stamps. These corporations which have an exceedingly wide distribution of stock are among the largest dividend paying corporations in the United States.

Some of them already are mailing thrift inserts to their stockholders, and others have agreed to do so upon the next dividend date. The inserts which stockholders receive along with their dividend notices are as follows:

"Double your resources by investing savings regularly.

"Did you ever stop to consider how easily and rapidly you can accumulate a considerable sum by investing small amounts regularly at compound interest?

"You can begin at once by investing all or part of your savings in War Savings Stamps of the 1919 issue which you can buy in any amount up to $1,000. They bear four per cent interest, compounded quarterly.

"If you should have an unexpected call for ready cash before your stamps mature, January 1, 1924, you can redeem all or any number of them at any time, for the full purchase price, plus interest.

"No other investment offers such an attractive combination of safety, income, redeemability and convenience."

"Beware of small expenses; a small leak will sink a great ship," said Franklin. He knew.

KEEP ON SAVING

300 War Savings Stamps bought this year will be $1,000 in 1924 for that new office equipment, new car, postgraduate course in a specialty, payment toward a home, for the youngsters' education, or against a rainy day.
100 Stamps now will be $300 then, for advancement or protection; and 50 will be $250.

Fix your own mark of your needs or desires and get there via W. S. S. W. S. S. pay more than a 14 per cent and are absolutely safe and convenient investments for the busy man or woman.
Put Your Family on Safety Lane.

"Broken eggs can not be mended." Neither can "cashed-in" War Savings Stamps grow to their maturity value.

War Savings Stamps are better than money, because they earn more money.

There will be no "rainy" day for the man who regularly saves and invests his money in War Savings Stamps.

SOY BEAN WORMS AGAIN STARTING ON RAMPAGE

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 8.—Another generation of soy bean worms, the arrival of which was predicted by the entomologists of the Experiment Station, has now put in its appearance in the Belhaven section of the state reports Mr. R. W. Leiby, Assistant Entomologist of the Agricultural Experiment Station, who is located in a field station on Broad Acre Ranch near Terra Ceta where he is closely studying the worm situation. The soy bean worm it will be remembered has done injury in this state from Hot Springs, in the west, to the coast. It has been reported as injurious from Massachusetts southward.

The vast majority of the moths have now hatched from their cocoons in the ground. They may be seen by the millions in most any soy bean field, where they readily fly upon being disturbed. These moths are now laying eggs which should hatch within a week. The eggs are green in color and smaller than the head of a pin. They are laid on the under side of the leaves or on the stems among the hairs. The young worms are about an eighth of an inch long when hatched.

This brood of worms will be doing damage which is first seen by the farmer only after they are about half grown. Farmers are urged to be prepared to meet the attack as soon as they detect the young worms. A shaking of the plant will reveal their presence and the farmers are advised to examine their beans every few days for the presence of the worms. This brood can be exterminated in some fields and no serious injury will result if the beans are sprayed or dusted in time. Most of the real injury is done by worms which are half grown or older and the careful farmer who is interested in saving his beans will be on the watchout for the first sign of worms.

Mr. Leiby believes that this brood will be heavy enough to completely defoliate beans within a shorter period of time than the last brood and that the beans will suffer more, because most varieties will not be putting out new foliage as they did following the attack of the last brood. Beans which are unable to maintain their foliage will die before the seed is mature. This has been demonstrated by the past brood of worms on such early maturing varieties as Black Eyebrow, Ito San and Virginia.

In Olde Virginia

Where Cigarette Tobacco Was Born

"One Sunday morning a particularly venturesome redskin, having discovered that the sentinal on duty had fallen asleep, crept up within bow shot of the meeting house and discharged a flaming arrow through an open window. The careless sentry was placed in the stocks for 6 hours and fined 50 pounds of tobacco."

—From story by P. A. Bruce.

The fragrance of golden Virginia-Carolina is in every Piedmont

Sun-ripened, mellow Virginia-Carolina tobacco—that's what gives that full flavor to Piedmont cigarettes.

When you smoke a cigarette made of Virginia-Carolina mixed with other tobaccos, you are missing some of Virginia-Carolina's fragrance and flavor.

But when you smoke Piedmonts, you are getting all of it with every puff because Piedmonts are made entirely of Virginia-Carolina tobacco.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Virginia-Carolina Cigarette

Piedmont

NOTE—In England, where Virginia-Carolina tobacco has the preference, a smoker pays as much for it as for the best Turkish tobacco. Because over there both kinds of tobacco pay the same import duty. But in this country Virginia-Carolina tobacco costs you less than Turkish tobacco because it is grown in this country and, unlike foreign-grown tobacco, carries no import duty.

MONDAY, SEPT. 8, 1919.

Judging by the pleasing demonstrations occurring in the various cities which have already been visited by President Wilson on his ten thousand mile speech-making tour, it is more than evident that a majority of the people of the country are already favorably impressed with the league of nations. In fact, there cannot be the slightest doubt entertained that the issue is not one of more than paramount interest to the American people, for in it, and through the president's effort in its behalf, they have recognized one of the most vital forces in the future of the nations of the world. Isolation, as has been explained, seems almost improbable for this nation in the days to come, but as Mr. Wilson says, if the American people should abandon the league of nations it would be nothing more than an indirect step in this direction. With all countries combined in one great body by the covenant, there is really no reason why the future would not be one filled with peace with militarism and autocracy something forgotten and buried with the past great conflict of the world. The league critics, evidently, have been misled, to have misconstrued the articles now under discussion, therefore, their prattlings cannot be more than lost air as far as the enlightened public is concerned.

Peculiar circumstances surround the strikes taking place in many parts for with the promise from President Wilson that he is going to do everything in his power in their interest, men directing the strikes, so far, and in very few instances, have given his assurances no attention at all. It would be far more wise if workmen in every part of the nation would for a moment pause and consider the final outcome of their efforts, and the disorganization which is invariably brought about as a natural sequence, for then, we believe that it would be found advisable to refrain from measures of more or less injury to the sections in which the strikes occur. Little can be said of the injury to the economic situation of the nation brought about through such drastic measures, for greater the disension in labor circles, the more severe conditions become in every territory.

It is certainly pleasing to note the recent announcement regarding the decline in shoes in clothing, and while of course, people in this part of the country have not yet had an opportunity of being impressed with any evidence of such, the assurance from other centers causes everyone to take an optimistic view of the future. The Commercial Federal Reserve board evidently believes the change is occurring in many parts, and although it is admitted that prices continue on a high level in some cities, it is generally believed by authorities that the decline is becoming visibly noticeable, especially in the cities where the various commodities are produced. It is to be hoped that the lowering prices will reach this vicinity soon, for if anything, there appears to be a gradual increase predicted.

It is to be hoped that the chamber of commerce will soon be able to put over the deal for a proposed gas plant, for the rapid development of the city every day demands that such a convenience become a permanent factor in future activities. The city aldermen have promised their assistance in bringing such necessity to place, and while of course, it is going to require some little labor before the proposal is made a reality, it is believed that the determination behind the movement is going to terminate under the most auspicious circumstances.

Several newspaper statements say that Senator Borah is gnashing his teeth over some of the plain facts which President is presenting to the American public in his tour of the country. The gentleman from Idaho is all fluffed up, too, so it is said, and which of course everyone is sorry to see the poor fellow so greatly humiliated, nevertheless, there are some who no doubt will be glad to hear that he is so forcefully impressed with his mistakes that a silence will follow in the wake of the momentary depression.

Greenville people right now want to get a little more assurance about the recent proposal for the establishment of a hospital to perpetuate the memories of the boys who died upon the battlefields of France in preserving the democracy for which they fought and died. A more suitable memorial certainly could not be contemplated, and though the matter has been deferred so much, it is to be hoped that the next time it is considered it will become more of a reality.

Tobacco evidently is demanding pretty good prices in every part of the country now, judging from the reports carried by the newspapers from other cities. The situation demands the same attention as that in this city, and which it is very hard indeed to believe that prices are on a level with those at the opening of the market last week, it is more than gratifying to learn that planters are coming into their own.

Now that the base ball spirit has been revived in many of the well populated districts of the nation, it is only a matter of course for American enthusiasm to be heightened just a little more than usual. When people can sit in the broiling hot sun in the bleachers, a certain spirit of contentedness gains sway, making happiness supreme for the time being.

When the stump politician begins making his rounds of the nation the cootie will no longer be the professional agitator in the ring, for to tell the truth, when both get in action, the public is certainly disinclined to give credence to statements declaring that the professional agitator is a thing of the past.

GREAT OVATION IS GIVEN PERSHING IN

speak of his rise to a position of great military importance in world annals, they refer to a story quite commonly told of Charles M. Schwab, the ironmaster, who is said to have remarked to his old Scotch gardener, a friend of his childhood:

"You never expected to see me in this place, did you?"
And the gardener is said to have replied:
"You never expected it yourself."

As late as the time of the Russo-Japanese war in 1904, Pershing, over 40 still was a captain in the regular army. His associates say he never grumbled, but always kept plugging at his job. Reams and reams have been written about how he took a prominent part in the pacification of the Philippine islands and how President Roosevelt made him brigadier general jumping him over the heads of exactly 802 other men who were senior to him on the service roll.

When Pershing took the punitive expedition to Mexico after the bandit Villa, he became the only living officer in the American army who had commanded a body of troops so large as a brigade in anything approaching action. It is true that the late General Funston commanded more than a brigade on the Vera Cruz expedition but Funston's troops never got into action.

From the time Pershing graduated from West Point in 1896 he had his full share of active and valuable service in the army. Like his classmates he immediately was plunged into the Indian wars. He entered a campaign against the great Apache chief Geronimo who for many years had kept the great southwestern country almost closed to immigration by his skill and bravery. It was in those campaigns that many of young American army officers received that special training evolved in combat with the wily savages which proved of peculiar value in certain phases of the highly scientific modern warfare in France and Belgium.

They were taught the art of scouting, of training and of perfect self-reliance in the school beyond the ken of any European soldier and many a detail in Washington in the Bureau of Insular Affairs was sent out to the Philippines as adjutant-general of the department of Mindanao and Jolo.

It is recorded officially of Pershing that at the beginning of his career, for instance, he was complimented by General Miles, his commander-in-chief in the Geronimo campaigns, for "marching his troops, with pack trains, over rough country, 140 miles in 46 hours, bringing in every animal and man in good condition." Until he reached command rank Pershing always was a cavalry officer and the records of the War Department show more than one honorable mention for his conduct during his ten year's service in the Department of Arizona. In the Spanish War as an officer of the Tenth Cavalry he was promoted for gallantry at the battle of El Caney to be a major in

BRIDGERS-WHICHARD.

A marriage that comes as a surprise to a host of friends took place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Whichard when their daughter, Essie Sheppard, became the bride of Mr. Samuel L. Bridgers, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives of the family. The couple left on the 5:17 train for Lumberton where they will make their home.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. W. H. Moore, assisted by Rev. John R. Carroll. Preceding the ceremony Miss Inez Pittman sang "For You." As the bridal party entered the library the wedding march was played by Mrs. Lina Baker. First to enter was the maid of honor, Miss Hennie Whichard, sister of the bride, followed by little Miss Elizabeth Carr, flower girl, and Master James Wilson, ring bearer. The bride entered with her father. She wore a going-away suit of blue Paulette, with accessories, and a corsage bouquet of pink asters and ferns. She was met at the altar by the groom with his best man, Mr. J. Herbert Waldrop.

Mr. Bridgers recently returned from long services with the American Expeditionary forces in France and the army of occupation in Germany. Before entering the army service he was for several months with the express office in Greenville, and since his return has been appointed express agent in Lumberton.

Miss Whichard is a favorite with all who know her. No young lady in the community has a larger number of friends than she, and no one leaving the town will be more generally missed. The best wishes of all go with her.

MAJOR REVOLUTIONISTS CONTROL PART OF RIVER

Belgrade, Sept. 6.—"When the steamer service was turned over to the government at Belgrade on July 1," continued the admiral, "we were handling commercial freight at Belgrade at the rate of 3,000,000 tons a year, and there was available passenger and commercial service from Belgrade for a naverage daily distance of 1600 miles."

The jurisdiction of the commission is from Sulina, at the mouth of the river, to New Uim, in Bavaria. Steamers ply in various sections of the river from Sulina to Paya. Navigation is impossible between Paya, 110 miles south of Budapest, to Prisbourg, a like distance to the north. This section of the stream is controlled by the Magyar revolutionists and is heavily mined. The section of the river from Prisbourg to Passaw in Bavaria is open, and the commission is now actively engaged in restoring traffic from Passaw to Uim. The restoration of through traffic on the great river highway therefore awaits only the restoration of normal conditions in the Magyar area.

In addition to his control of commercial traffic Admiral Troubridge is in supreme command of the Allied naval force on the Danube, which embraces a total of approximately thirty craft, British, French, Serbian, Jugoslav, and Rumanian. This force is almost a new creation, the crews representing a dozen nations and the ships coming from many sources, some of them being prizes of war.

MEXICAN BANDITS FIGHTS WITH GOV'T. AMMUNITION

Mexico City, Sept. 6.—Government authorities have discovered that, in a recent brush with bandits at the Desert of the Lions, near this city, the opponents of the government troops used ammunition manufactured at the Federal arsenal. The military authorities have issued strict orders that the sale of ammunition by government troops shall be prevented at all costs. A large number of cartridges is said to have been discovered at the Thieves' Market, where dealers had purchased them from soldiers with the purpose of selling them at great profit to agents of Felix Diaz and other revolutionary leaders.

LGHT SALES MARK

It has had very little effect upon prices which have fluctuated occasionally, but in most cases, advanced rapidly.

It is estimated that practically two million pounds of the bright leaf received direct disposition on the warehouses floors during the week, and while it is very difficult indeed to form an definite or exact idea as to the total amount of money paid out for the product, rough estimates place the figure above $700,000.00. Better grades have held a pretty high standard throughout the entirety of the sales, in fact they have been surprising from the beginning until the present time, when there are good prospects for an increase. Inferior grades have not been in demand much, and prices have fluctuated freely when such grades were under consideration.

With the market completely cleared from the congestion, warehousemen are looking forward with even greater activity this week and fair prospects of plenty of the golden weed and prices above the present average. Everything is being done for the convenience of the farmer, and if expediting sales count for anything, last week and this week, too, are going to be of more than ordinary interest. The warehouses have every feature necessary to accomplish this end and there is little doubt that they will not be able to keep pace with any future amount of leaf brought here for disposition.

SAYS JAPS OUGHT

TO PURCHASE THE PHILIPPINE ISLAND

and Christian altruism."

As for the Dutch East Indies the article contends the inhabitants are more akin to the Japanese than to Holland and that Japan administer the islands with greater benefit on the whole to the people and to herself than could Holland which, moreover, is a small country untroubled with surplus population.

It is pointed out also that the Dutch East Indies form the southern line of Japan's defences and that more than once the independence of these islands has made a menace to her safety.

After remarking that the Japanese do not like to settle in cold climates like Hokkaido or Siberia, the writer concludes: "Certainly it would be better to let Japan have them than to let them pass into other hands, a contingency that Japan could not contemplate. There was no surprise when America purchased the Danish West Indies. There should be no surprise if Japan should purchase the Dutch East Indies. Were Japan once in command of the Sunda straits she could slacken her naval programme and feel at ease both as to defences and population for all time to come."
