MISSOURI SENATOR BITTERLY ATTACKS LEAGUE OF NATION

Senate Galleries Start Big Demonstration for Senator Reed's Speech.

REED DELIVERS LONG ATTACK TO SENATORS

No Outburst has Occurred Like It Since the Treaty Fight Started.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—At the end of a four-hour attack on the League of Nations by Senator Reed, of Missouri, a Democrat, who refused to stand with his party for unreserved ratification of the peace treaty, of which the league covenant is a part, the senate galleries late today started a demonstration that had to wear itself out and then blossomed into a riot when the cheering was condemned from the floor.

There had been no outburst like it since the treaty fight was put before the senate by the Foreign Relations committee. But there were indications today soon after Senator Reed began his speech that the crowds, swarming for admittance at all doors, were in sympathy with his arguments. Mindful of the evidences of feeling in the galleries, Senator Cummins, president pro tem, gave warning while applause might be tolerated, despite Senate rules, at the end of the address it would not be permitted at other times. Threats to clear the galleries if repeated had no effect, and no attempt was made to enforce the long standing rule.

When Senator Reed closed his speech the applause broke, followed instantly by lusty cheering from every gallery. Men in uniform joined in the demonstration and many women stood, waved their arms wildly and shouted with the men.

Senator Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, sitting nearest Senator Reed and first to congratulate him, shouted loudly for order a moment after, and the crowds, not knowing what to expect, suddenly became still. But the quiet orderliness of the Senate did not prevail long, for as the spectators realized their conduct was being condemned a wave of hissing swept through the chamber, while gallery guards struggled to no effect, and no attempt was made to subdue and eject those responsible for it.

ITALIAN MINISTER RESIGNS ON ACCOUNT FIUME INCIDENT

Rome, Sept. 23.—Tommaso Tittoni, the Italian foreign minister, has resigned because of the Fiume incident, according to the Giornale D'Italia. The postponement of the opening of parliament indicates a grave situation, according to the newspaper.

SAYS KING EMMANUEL WILL NOT BE ADMITTED IN FIUME

Paris, Sept. 23.—D'Annunzio is reported as saying that King Victor Emmanuel himself would not be omitted to Fiume unless he affirmed himself King of Italian Fiume.

STEEL PLANTS ARE CLOSED IN VICINITY OF CHICAGO

Chicago, Sept. 23.—All steel plants are shut down in this district except the independent plants at Hammond, Ind. The union leaders say that there are 40,000 men out, while the company officials admit 15,000.

SEVERAL DIVORCES IN SESSION COURT DURING YESTERDAY

Three Cases Received Favorable Action With One Being Dismissed.

FOUNTAIN WOMAN GIVEN ALIMONY IN HEARINGS

Entire Day's Activities Consisted Solely in Reconciling Differences.

(By The Associated Press.)

Yesterday was decidedly an auspicious day for divorce actions in the last week's session of the civil term of Pitt county superior court which re-opened in this city yesterday morning following a delay of one week on account of supreme court session in Raleigh last week, and while there were only three divorces granted during the day's activities, there was one case for alimony receiving action, and one divorce action dismissed on account of a change in sentiment on the part of a forgiving husband for an extremely penitent wife. Judge Kerr conducted the work with the same ease that has featured the entirety of the session during the last three weeks, therefore, there were very few things occurring to bring about the usual delays occurring from time to time by controversies of more or less importance.

The case that attracted possibly the greatest attention during the day's session was in the alimony case of Sue Pittman vs. G. W. Pittman, white people of the Fountain region. After argument had been completed for both

AMERICAN MARINE HAS BEEN LANDED IN FIUME REGIONS

Ultimatum to Soldiers Has Been Modified to Some Extent, It Is Said.

Rome, Sept. 23.—American marines have been landed at Bucari, a small town on an arm of the Gulf of Quarnero, about ten miles southeast of Fiume, says a despatch to the Massagero. One American ship is in Fiume harbor, according to advices, but the anchorage is a considerable distance from the city.

General Badoglio's ultimatum to the D'Annunzio soldiers, giving them until Friday night to leave Fiume is said to have been modified so that the time limit would expire last night, an additional forty-eight hours being given.

Fiume is closely invested, but in spite of this fact numbers of volunteers have managed to elude the vigilance of the guards and have joined the forces of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio in the beleaguered city according to reports received here. Personal friends of Captain D'Annunzio have sent word to him they have sent supplies to the city and express the hope that ships bearing the stores may run the blockade.

Reports reaching this city from Fiume state that food for 46,000 persons must be distributed there daily.

American navy headquarters here which is in direct communication with Adriatic ports, has no confirmation of the report from Rome last night that American marines have been landed at Bucari, near Fiume. Naval authorities here are not inclined to credit the report as far as known, there being no reason for the United States to interfere. The fact that an American ship is in the harbor of Fiume is of no significance in the opinion of naval officers.

MARKET TO CLOSE FOR SHORT PERIOD DURING THE WEEK

Tobaccoists Decided to Close Houses for two Days After Sales Today.

CONGESTED FACTORIES BRINGS ABOUT ACTION

Matter Given Consideration at Meeting of Tobacco Board Last Night.

(By The Associated Press.)

Following the completion of sales yesterday afternoon the Greenville tobacco market will be closed down completely for the two days following in order to give the numerous drying plants of the city an opportunity of catching up with the enormous amount of work on hand, and to some extent, relieve the congestion which has played such an ascendant part since the opening of the market several weeks ago. The decision in closing the market came about following a meeting of the tobacco board of trade last night in which the matter was weighed from every angle, and while there were many adverse arguments precipitating indecision for quite a while the determination to close for a period was at last agreed upon.

The matter was taken up by the tobacco board of trade sometime ago, in fact, there was such keen interest exhibited in the proposed closing that false reports were circulated throughout many parts of the county, stating that the market would be closed for an indefinite duration, or until the

GOMPERS TRIES TO BRING ABOUT HIGH WAGE IDEAS AGAIN

Says They Are Necessary and Will Eventually Lead to Increased Output.

New Orleans, Sept. 23.—Co-operation between managements and workers in industries, and the gradual abolition of abnormal conditions now President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, said in a paper read before the Associated Advertisers about by war will eventually bring about the increased production of commodities which the world needs during these times.

High wages Mr. Gompers defended as one factor in high cost which would eventually lead to improved methods and progressive machine production, while a settlement of peace terms he classed as a fundamental requirement before the world can resume its orderly processes.

"Until definite terms of peace are agreed to by the leading nations of the world," Mr. Gompers said, "no country can return to normal industrial conditions. Credit is essential to a revival of industry. Credit can only be arranged upon definite political surety."

"That treaty is not perfect," he remarked, "but it is our only constructive suggestion for dealing with some of the things which cause wars."

"Workers are not an impersonal factor in production," he said in developing his second point.

DRIVE FOR COTTON ASSOCIATION WILL BEGIN IN OCTOBER

Farmers of Country Will Commence Campaign to Increase Membership.

PLANS WILL BE MADE FOR DEFINITE PRICE

Principal Object Will be to Regulate Prices, and Not the Sales.

(By The Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 23.—The co-operative organizations of California furnish an excellent example of just what can be done by farmers who determine that the produce of their farms shall be sold at a just profit. Only a short while ago some of the leading wholesale merchants of the country received their regular circulars from these organizations stating just what would be the price for raisins, for prunes, for citrus fruits, and even beans, during the present season. These circulars were from the organized farmers and the prices set were so fixed that the farmer could make a profit on his year's work.

This is what should be done by the cotton farmers, says Mr. S. G. Rubinsow, State Campaign Director for the American Cotton Association. Within a few weeks we will begin the campaign for the organization of the North Carolina branch of this association. It is our intention to secure at least 100,000 members from the ranks of the cotton farmers, business and professional men in the cotton country of

BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL CONTINUES TO GAIN INTEREST

Second Week's Session in $75,000 Campaign Increases in Scope.

The second week of the training school in the interest of the Baptist seventy-five million dollar campaign, in Memorial Baptist church, began with a much larger attendance of visiting representatives last night than were present at the sessions last week. Today there were others to come in to represent churches of the two associations for which this school of instruction is being held. The topics discussed are along the same lines as given the class last week, the addresses being by the same speakers.

Tomorrow is to be observed throughout the Southern States as a day of fasting and prayer for the success of the campaign. In connection with this the Woman's Missionary Society of the local church will hold their service of prayer for state missions at 4 o'clock p. m., and the members are requested to make their offerings for this object at the conclusion of the service. The day's worship will close with the prayer meeting at night and every member of the church is asked to be present.

SENATOR HARDING ENTERS RACE FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR

Senator Fordy Harding, of Greenville, Announces Candidacy Today.

ANNOUNCEMENT GREETED GLADLY IN THIS CITY

Decision to Enter Race Was Not Made Until Early of the Week.

(By The Associated Press.)

Following closely in the wake of various rumors concerning the probability of Senator F. C. Harding, of this city, eventually yielding to the persuasion of admiring friends throughout many parts of the state by entering the race for the office of Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, the intelligence given publicly today confirming the premature statements will no doubt prove of more than general interest to people throughout the entirety of the state who have been watching with no little interest the splendid efforts of Pitt county's statesman in endeavoring to promote everything having a tendency of increasing the intellectual progress and commercial expansion in every section of the state where this has been found necessary. The probability of Senator Harding entering the campaign for the high state office has been discussed favorably in this section of the state since the early circulation of rumors announcing the prospect of his candidacy, and while friends of the city and county have been persistently urging

COME ALONG WILL BE PRESENTED AT WHITE'S THEATRE

Musical Comedy Scheduled for City Tomorrow Night, It Is Stated.

The familiar expression, "Nobody loves a fat man," may apply to some fat men, but it certainly is not applicable to a good-natured, jovial person by the name of Charles R. McKinney, whom theatre-goers in Greenville will soon have the opportunity of seeing in the leading role of "Come Along," the delightful musical comedy booked at the White Theatre, Wednesday, Sept. 24th.

"Doolittle," which by the way totally belies the part he plays, he is to use slang parlance, "there like a duck"—not to infer from that, however, that he "waddles"—far from it, as he is the personification of grace and all that could be asked for when he dances, a comedian who can really sing, and above all, is brimming over with the sort of comedy that makes one want to see him on each scene as often as possible.

The poet who said that "A sense of humor was the saying grace of all mankind," must have had McKinney in mind, and to quote from his lines in the plot, "He's the messiest mess sergeant that ever messed up a meal," and when he gets through trying to straighten out some of the complications in which his sunny disposition involves the rest of the characters, you realize that only a comedian of ability and with a rare sense of the ridiculous could score as strongly as he does in the role.

If in past seasons you laughed with Frank McIntyre in the "Traveling Salesman," Macklyn Arbuckle in "The Round Up" and Tom Wise in the "The Gentleman from Mississippi," come and get acquainted with McKinney in "Come Along" and be glad you've added another real comedian to your list of favorites.

ELEVEN PERSONS WOUNDED IN PENNSYLVANIA RIOTING

Parrell, Pa., Sept. 23.—Eleven persons have been wounded in the rioting in connection with the steel strike, and all steel mills are closed.

STATE WITNESSES TESTIFY IN FAVOR OF RITCH IN PROBE

Marvin Ritch Is Yet to be Proven Guilty in Albemarle Conspiracy.

NO EVIDENCE SUGGESTS ASSISTANCE IN RIOTING

Defendants Were Not in Albemarle When Shooting Occurred, It Is Said.

Albemarle, Sept. 23.—After a wearisome day of argument over legal technicalities, Marvin L. Ritch and J. H. Graham, labor organizers on trial before the county court for conspiracy, are yet to be proved guilty of the charge. It has been proven by State witnesses that both these men have counseled peaceful picketing, that they have warned them against using weapons, that Ritch suggested that rotten eggs might have a moving effect should soft words fail and that he received laughing applause on the statement that they should endeavor to keep the non-union people from working during the strike by peaceful means as "It might hurt them to pull them through the fence."

This last remark was by some considered direction to forcibly remove any men who should insist on going to work. The defense offered that it must have been a frivolous remark as the fence is steel net work. It was proven that Grady Boyd and Dee Porter, the latter being in bed from wounds received on the morning of the strike, had pistols which were taken from them by officers as were those of Jack Morris. Morris, who is nineteen years of age and notoriously tough, had, according to evidence, been raising a disturbance for some hours. He seemed to have been "cussing" promiscuously, offering to shoot one up and in the next breath offering a drink of what he termed good liquor.

PITTSBURGH MILLS REPORTED IN OPERATION, IT IS SAID

Pittsburgh, Sept. 23.—A majority of the mills in this section are working this morning. The union leaders have predicted a spread of the strike today, but no disorders had occurred at the early hours.

William Z. Foster, secretary of the steel workers national committee, said that the report showed that the strike is making headway and that many mills will be affected. He also declared that four thousand men are out in Birmingham.

GENERAL FOCH APPEALS

TO THE BRITISH SOLDIERS

Paris, Sept. 22.—An appeal to the British soldiers dictated by the then General Foch asking them to remember their forefathers' victory over Napoleon inspired them to attack the Germans and recover the ground they had lost before the gas wave at the second battle of Ypres, writes Colonel Feyler in the Journal de Geneve.

Before the asphyxiating gas both British and French had been obliged to give ground. The General Foch intended to recover the former positions at all costs, according to Colonel Feyler. He asked General Sir John French to co-operate with him. "Impossible," replied French, "my men are ready to hold here but I do not feel that I can demand of them in their present condition further sacrifices in attacking."

Foch expressed surprise: "Their morale is low," he said, "why don't you launch a proclamation? Something like this: 'British soldiers forward! You who have vanquished the great Napoleon, shall it come to pass that you will permit the lowly German to drive you from your positions and retain them."

"How is that?" asked French greatly interested, "please repeat it." And at the dictation of Foch, French wrote out the proclamation which was given out to the troops the next day.

The next morning the British soldiers hit the line and recovered all the lost ground.

MISSIONS NEEDED ALSO IN HOMELAND

SECRETARY GRAY OF HOME
BOARD SETS OUT SITUATION
CONFRONTING SOUTHERN BAPTISTS THERE.

$12,000,000 IS GOAL SOUGHT

This Sum Will Be Laid Aside From Baptist 75 Million Campaign For Work Among Negroes, Foreigners and Other Projects.

While $20,000,000 of the $75,000,000 to be raised in cash and five-year pledges by the Southern Baptists between now and December 7th will go to foreign missions, $12,000,000 will be devoted to missions at home. It has been officially announced. Home missions is regarded by the Baptists as quite as essential as foreign missions, the larger sum being set aside for the latter cause by reason of the larger field to be covered—practically the entire world.

DR. B. D. Gray,
Of Atlanta, Ga., Secretary of Home
Missions for the Southern Baptist Convention.

"Twelve million dollars is a large
have been doing heretofore," Dr. B. D.
Gray, corresponding secretary of the Home Mission Board at Atlanta, declares, "but it is very reasonable in comparison with our ability and small in comparison with the needs of the Home Mission fields."

Setting forth the particular obligation which confronts America since the war has transferred the center of education from Europe to this country, Dr. Gray says: "This brings a new day of opportunity and responsibility to our people. Our schools and colleges must be strengthened and endowed. They must be made thoroughly christian in fact as well as in theory. In this way we are to counteract the vicious ideals of Germany and her allies in the world war. Our youth must be trained on proper lines as to religion and ethics. This can be done best in our denominational schools."

Some of the educational institutions fostered by the Home Mission Board are the forty mountain schools, serving 3,000,000 residents of the South living in mountainous territory where public high schools are lacking. Fully $10,000,000 could be used to advantage in strengthening the equipment and teaching force of these schools, it is estimated, so great is the need.

Another demand of the home field is the 4,000 church organizations in the South which need assistance in the erection of suitable houses of worship, while more pressing still is the problem created by the presence in the South of 10,000,000 negroes. Speaking of the negro problem, Dr. Gray says: "They are of more vital concern to us than any hundred million of people anywhere else in the world.
Socially, politically, economically and religiously they constitute our greatest task and we neglect them at our own peril as well as their infinite loss.
Racial relations are tense and the situation calls upon Southern Baptists for a worthy program in behalf of the religious uplift of our brothers in black. We must lead them in sane missionary and evangelistic work and likewise in the development of their religious life on sane and helpful lines.
We need a large company of the best,
wisest and strongest negro evangelists and teachers who shall help us to lift up their race and make them worthy and worth while as Christian citizens."

That work among the foreigners in the homeland offers the best and most economical opportunity for missionary labors among them anywhere, is the declaration of the Home Mission leaders. These foreigners are in the fields, mines and factories and are a vital part of our civilization. "This work among the foreigners not only gives them the christian religion, but makes them more contented and better American citizens, it is pointed out."

Great hopes for the future of the churches in the South are held out in the enlarged program of evangelism and enlistment which the Baptist 75 Million Campaign will make possible.
The Home Board hopes to win from 300,000 to 500,000 people in the South who are not christians during the period of the campaign.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 23, 1919.

If there were as much money in circulation all the year round in Pitt county as there is during tobacco season there would certainly be nothing more than a continuous round of prosperity from the beginning of a year to the final close. To make such possible it is going to be necessary that our business men direct just a little more attention towards increasing manufacturing enterprises in every section, and in this way, a much more prosperity will be in evidence. While the farmers are in the fields great factories could be producing and employing men, and the natural result would be that from year to year development would be gradual and uninterrupted. There was never a better time to give such a matter thorough consideration than at the present time, and it is to be hoped the business man of the county will exert every effort in an endeavor to bring about the establishment of more manufacturing industries. Greenville offers great opportunities to such enterprises, and it is an assured fact that the business center would be very glad to render assistance possible.

Everything, including practically every trade and grade, has seen to go out on an indefinite strike, and while no one would every expect members of the ministry or school teachers of contemplating such who can tell what may come about in the future. It is to be hoped, in all cases, that such an occurrence will be the last resort against starvation, for them and them alone could the gracious world forgive the church and school of such perilous departure from the high standards which they uphold. There are doubtless many preachers and teachers, too, who would seriously consider striking for higher wages, but when the situation is taking in its entirety there are only a very few serious-minded individuals who would even for a moment entertain such a thought. In fact, such is very detestable as well as a direct resurrection of the high professions.

The confederate remmon to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, October 7-10, promises to be one of the greatest occasions of its kind conducted in the south since the ending of the civil war. All kinds of celebrations have been given in honor of the men who wore the gray since the memorable days of '61 but none have transpired that will surpass the grandeur of the one prepared by the Georgians. Every feature recalling the old days of southern life will be instituted to make the event of genuine interest to the old soldiers, and you can bet there will be a great number present. The event is timely and well placed, and shows that the men who fought to sustain principles which they thought were right will live long in the memory of those who take up their burden after they pass away.

Equal agricultural representation by the farmers of the country at the meeting to be conducted next month under the direction of the president is being urged by prominent members of the national agricultural committee. It is pleasing to not that such demands are being made, for it goes to show that the planters of the country, too, are beginning to recognize the true greatness of the man who has directed the destinies of the nation so infallibly for the past several years. Great good should result from the meeting, and that President Wilson will tell the farmers something worth hearing is an assured certainty.

When the present strenuous efforts of the peace treaty opponents are recorded with the things of history the progenitors of the same opponents will read between the lines and wonder just how such opposition could have been advanced when there was no cause for such. Mr. Lodge and his accomplices truly will live long in the memory of their country, not by what they have done, of course, but what they have tried to do. With just a few more such fellows it is an assured fact that history would have contained a long account of the magnificent efforts against one of the greatest documents in the history of the world.

Unions leaders in the steel strikes express themselves as being very much surprised at the attitude of company members who yesterday morning stated that their mills were operating without difficulty and that all men out on the strike were foreigners. While naturally the statement may have sounded rather extraordinary to the men endeavoring to bring about such un-called for conditions, we suspect that the strike, after all, may not prove quite as serious as some expected. There is plenty of time yet for consideration, and with proper encouragement from the manufacturers matters may be smoothed over to no little extent.

When cotton growers of the south realize the necessity for close co-operation in the production of this necessity, it may be that organizations will be formed whereby prices may be fixed entirely by the planter. This movement is already on foot throughout many sections and the quicker the proposition is given attention the quicker the southern farm will realize fair prices for his product. It is to be hoped that the farmers of Pitt county do everything possible to endeavor to establish a more favorable situation for the future, for then, and then alone will the man behind the plow come into his own.

President Wilson, in telling the American people that America's vote will equalize that of Great Britain, has done much towards definitely settling the question in the minds of the thousands of people who before viewed the treaty with doubtful uncertainty. The fact that the British will not have greater latitude for exerting influences in world affairs than this nation is a source of much interest, and for that reason the entire issue is viewed entirely in a different light.

A slight slump in the commercial potato crop of the county has been predicted by the departure of agriculture. The news is by no means pleasing to that great number of individuals who have never been convinced of being well-filled with potatoes, and therefore, the announcement may be considered rather grave to onion lovers, too.

Boosting Greenville is becoming easy to the people who have learned of the great opportunities to be found in every occupation of the city. It's easy, very easy indeed, to boost under such circumstances, and this fact is no doubt accountable for the present rapid growth at this particular time.

SEVERAL DIVORCES
IN SESSION COURT
DURING YESTERDAY

sides the court granted Mrs. Pittman the sum of $500. The contention of the defendant and evidence on hand brought about several instances of unusual interest to people of the Fountain section who have known them for some time as it was claimed that the husband was abusive at times and addicted to the drink habit. Evidence was brought to bear upon other matters having similar significance to household tranquility, therefore, the court found the plaintiff deserving of her claims, until divorce becomes possible.

The divorce suit of Thomas William vs. Annie Williams, colored, was dismissed on account of withdrawal of all claims for divorce on the part of the husband. Reconciliation had taken place in the momentarily disrupted domestic relations, and a continuance for the future evidently was worthy of consideration, or at least, Williams was forcefully impressed with the fact, and found it advisable to give it another trial.

The other three divorce cases received direct disposition after argument and adequate evidence had been submitted to justify such action, and they were all rendered in favor of certain disagreeable relations existing between members of the colored race. There were several occurrences of more or less interest to all parties concerned transpiring during the actions, and for that reason each separate case had its regular number of interested spectators. The cases were: Rosa Dey vs. John Dey, colored, divorce absolute. Maggie Green vs. Thomas Green, colored, divorce absolute. John Wooten vs. Mena Wooten, divorce absolute. There are a number of interesting cases to come up for consideration during the remainder of the week, and it is expected that the calendar will be cleared completely at the expiration of the term.

MARKET TO CLOSE FOR SHORT PERIOD
DURING THE WEEK

market could be relieved of congestion. It is, of course, true that, even with the greatest warehouse facilities of any other town in the section, the Greenville market has experienced slight congestion since early stages of the season, and while there have been many times in which the floors have been cleared and blocks relieved, the great inrush of the bright leaf has congested some of the drying plants to such proportions that even those opposed to the slightest kind of suspension in activities in the sales, have conceded the movement to be absolutely imperative at this time.

Every effort is being made by the stemmeries and drying plants to keep pace with the rapid sales of the leaf on this market, and although the city has possibly a greatest number of such plants than any other town in this section of the country, high prices and general reputation of the market has brought planters here who heretofore had been going to other centers. Other counties are represented in the sales every day, and the fact that the farmers have gone away pleased is certainly an assured fact that the market leads.

It is assured that the market will not be closed longer than Wednesday and Thursday for it has been ascertained that the congested condition of the drying plants can be relieved considerably in the course of forty-eight hours. The action has been urged for the past several days, tobaccoists hoping against hope that the plants would be able to catch up before their work before such action would necessarily be occasioned. The short suspension of activities may give prices a greater impetus upwards when the market re-opens, for it has always been found that the slightest delay of any kind has meant money in the hands of the farmer.

Greater spirit will be noticeable in the sales following the two day's close, for with floors clean and factories in prime condition the market will be probably better prepared to handle the bright leaf than any other time since the opening several weeks ago.

London, Sept. 23.—The international agents who are watching the Bolshevik leaders believe they have now so isolated them from the world that they are no longer efficient in the spread of their dangerous propaganda.

Direct communication between the Bolshevik and their agents abroad is being rendered increasingly difficult. Four months have elapsed since the last direct communication from the Bolshevik leaders in Russia reaches their fellows here.

A Swede brought $30,000 here recently for Bolshevik purposes. Five minutes after he delivered the money to an agent in London he was in custody. A Scotland Yard man was close to him during the whole of his journey to England.

Patriotic Opening of John Robinson's Circus Is a Real American Demonstration.

Awe inspiring sights seems to be the order of the day, since Uncle Sammy took a hand in the war that has been devastating Europe for the past four years, but there are few, if any, more inspiring sights that the lineup after the grand entree of The John Robinson Circus which will show at Wilson September 30th and Washington October 2nd.

As usual, the grand entree brings before the audience an array of entertainers. After circling the "big top" the entire assemblage lines up and to the patriotic strains of the National Anthem, they present a sight that is not often witnessed in army reviews. As a member of President Wilson's official family at Washington stated, after witnessing the performance in pageant

Cincinnati, "that demonstration seems to supply you a thousand reasons—irrefutable reasons—why you should be proud you are an American," and his words seem to express just the feeling all others experience.

The John Robinson circus is the only big show on the road this season making a special American demonstration at the beginning of every performance, and making it in a real, whole-hearted manner. "Old Glory" is always in profuse evidence about the John Robinson show.

The big, free, mile long street parade is scheduled to leave the grounds promptly at ten thirty in the morning of show day. Five bands, three calliopes, hundreds of mounted people, numerous glittering dens and cages of wild animals, beautiful tableaux and floats and a herd of twenty-five elephants are shown in this wonderful Warning that intervention by the United States is imminent, Gen. Salvador Alvarado, one of the leaders in the Carranza movement throughout its course, has addressed an open letter to Carranza himself and Generals Obregon and Gonzalez, in which he arraigns conditions in Mexico in most scathing fashion.

General March says tank warfare will be improved—that it has come to stay, and will in some measure replace cavalry and supplement the artillery.

The treaty of peace with Germany, ordered reported out by the foreign relations committee, includes four reservations and about forty amendments.

The conference called by President Wilson to discuss relations between labor and industry will meet in Washington October 6, and will be composed of five persons selected by the chamber of commerce of the United States, five by the national industrial board, fifteen by the American Federation of Labor, three by farming organizations and three by investment bankers and fifteen representatives of the public.

The prohibition enforcement bill has been passed by the senate without a record vote virtually in the form reported from committee. The measure has been sent to conference for discussion of amendments inserted in the house bill by the senate.

Admiral Rodman's flagship, the New Mexico, on which three enlisted men were killed and forty others injured in a fire sailed from San Francisco to Victoria, B. C. The damage to the ship was placed at six thousand dollars.

Discussing for the first time during his speaking tour proposed reservations to the league of nations, President Wilson replied in an address at Omaha, Neb., arguments advanced by those in favor of reservations. Those who wanted a reservation to Article X, the president said, simply didn't want to come in now, but wanted to be "late joiners."

President Wilson in his Omaha speech said that "we didn't ask Germany's consent about the meaning of any one of the terms when we were in Paris; we told them what they wanted and said 'Sign here.' Does any patriotic American want that method changed?"

If reservations are put in the peace treaty, President Wilson says all that the senate had written in would have to go back for the consent of Germany. The only way the Shantung provision can be bettered, states the president, is for the United States to go to war with Japan, England and France.

Gen. John J. Pershing, after two years in command of the greatest army America has ever sent to battle, has returned to the United States. As he stepped ashore from the huge liner Leviathan at New York he was handed a commission as a full general of the United States army, a rank previously held by only three Americans—Grant, Sheridan and Sherman.

The Association Opposed to National Prohibition announces that it will go into politics at the November election. It will devote its attention to working for the election of anti-prohibitionists as governors and members of state legislatures, explaining in a statement that "legislatures may be called upon to consider enforcement of the measures and governors to sign or veto them."

After a day's rest in Des Moines, President Wilson proceeded for a week of speech-making in the interest of the peace treaty. His schedule for the six days will take him through every state that borders Canada west of the lakes and will end at the Pacific coast, where he will review the Pacific fleet.

E. W. Neal, Republican, was elected mayor of Knoxville over John H. McMillen, Democrat, by an approximate majority of five hundred, in a total of thirteen thousand votes cast. Women voted for the first time.

With a representation of 500 delegates from the cotton states, the American Cotton Association launched its big campaign; and the most important thing done was an agreement to fix a minimum price for cotton. It is the consensus of opinion that 40c a pound will be the minimum the farmers will be advised to accept for their cotton.

Secretary Lansing, speaking before the American Bar Association in Boston, said he was opposed to internationalism, but favored nationalism, and expressed his conviction that "democratic nationalism" as sanctioned by the peace conference would survive as the basis of society.

(Continued from page three.) that he place himself in the ranks for nomination, nothing definite was given out concerning the issue until the early part of the present week when Mr. Harding, after due consideration, decided to cast his lot in the interest of the great state which he has served in various capacities with marked efficiency for several past years.

A native Pamlico countian, beloved for the characteristics which have placed him upon a high plane in the estimation of hundreds of people in this section of the state, Senator Harding is undoubtedly one of the most able and efficient men that Pitt county could possibly offer for the high state office. In fact, his past experiences as a statesman, educator, law student and industrious citizen, have given him a clear insight into the things so essential in assisting to mould and develop a higher standard for the people whom he has served. This fact, and this fact alone, certainly will count greatly to his advantage when time comes to tally votes, and if there are any other candidates for the same office who can possibly surpass him in attention to duty and devotion to people, the time is yet to come for them to make their announcement in the race of big men of the state.

Senator Harding has represented Pitt county in the state senate for three successive terms, one term acting in the capacity of president pro-tem. He has served most efficiently on important committees, being at the last session chairman of the senate committee on education. In both the city and county his work has elicited praise and commendation from all sources as the masses have realized a certain spirit of understanding of conditions which has been plainly in evidence throughout the entirety of his citizenship in this city and community. There is very little doubt entertained that the distinguished Pitt county representative will not receive a majority vote when the time comes in deciding the issue, and as to the attitude of the majority in this section of the state, is safe to say he will play a winning game.

DRIVE FOR COTTON ASSOCIATION WILL BEGIN IN OCTOBER

(Continued from page one.) North Carolina. This same campaign is being put on in every cotton producing state. The result will be that the cotton farmers through their organization can say just what shall be the price for their staple. In North Carolina, the drive for membership will come along during the latter part of October. In the meantime, those interested in securing a fair price for cotton should begin thinking of the matter and making plans for the drive in the respective counties. Several of the leading bankers and farmers have already sent in their checks for $100 for charter membership, and these funds will be used to further the campaign for better organization over the entire State.
