Company Formed for Converting Pond Property into Pleasure Resort.

LARGE DANCE PAVILLION WILL SOON BE ERECTED Pond Will be Stocked With Fish and Large Number of Steel Boats.

The above company consisting of W. P. Clarke, A. T. Tripp and Claude Tunstall has been formed to build a pavilion and bath houses at Forbes mill pond, near Greenville. They will install an electric plant to carry 125 electric lights and a water system with 2000 gallon tank for shower baths. The pavilion will be 36 by 60 feet, with a nicely finished floor for dancing. We understand that it is their intention to stock the pond with fish, mostly the goggle eye and speckled perch variety. They will also place a large number of steel boats on the pond, to be at the disposal of the fishermen and boating parties. The grounds will be cleared and tables erected to be used by picnic parties. They will build a 150 foot wharf out into the pond, equipped with electric lights and make a nice level sandy bottom free from snags and mud. The water will be kept in a sanitary condition to conform with the North Carolina laws. The roads leading to the pond, will be fixed up and kept in good condition, making an ideal loop. Just a nice drive out and back to the city. Connecting the two roads to be paved. It is their intention to deed free of charge, land for the erection of a country club, with bathing, fishing, hunting and boating privileges to the members. The Camp Fire Girls and the Boy Scouts will be granted camping privileges and other car sessions agreeable to them. Making an ideal location for a summer camp. It is going to cost some money to develop this resort and they are not asking the public for donations, but are offering for sale season tickets, as shown elsewhere in this paper tomorrow. They intend to develop the property any way, but the number of tickets sold will encourage them to greater efforts to please. They state that all purchasers of tickets who are not pleased at their showing June 1st, 1920, will be refunded the purchase price of tickets. Pitt county has long needed something for recreation. We wish the Clark-Tripp Amuzu Company much success in amusing you.

INVESTIGATIONS OF PAPER BUSINESS IS ASKED IN ENGLAND

Member of House of Commons Declares Business Should be Investigated.

London, April 8.—One member of the house of commons wants an investigation of the newspaper business in England. Captain William T. Shaw asked Premier Lloyd George in the House the other day, whether he would consider appointing a committee to inquire into the profits and business methods of the "great newspaper trusts in Great Britain." He wanted the committee especially to ascertain whether the prices for newspapers and advertisements were reasonable. Mr. Lloyd George replied that "the whole subject of trusts and their effects on prices is under careful consideration."

"THE MASCOT" TO BE PRESENTED BY STUDENTS OF SENIOR CLASS

"The Mascot" is a comic opera composed by Andran. The words were originally in French, but some years ago were translated into excellent English, therefore it has been popular because it is one of the few good light operas in English. It has a great many tuneful choruses in it that have been very popular. There are three big chorus groups, Peasants, courtiers and soldiers; two others with small groups, pages and Italian dances. There are places in the opera when all are blended together in full cast chorus.

GERMAN MUSIC AGAIN ACCEPTED IN ENGLAND

London, April 8.—German music is returning to England without arousing protest or hostility Strauss' work was heard here for the first time since 1914 when his "Don Juan" was placed last on the program in Queen's Hall recently with the idea that those who did not want to hear it need not remain. GENERAL DENKINE REPORTED FUGITIVE ON ENGLISH BOAT

Former Commander Bolshevik Forces Seeks Safety on Board Warship.

HIGH FEELING PREVAILS IN RUSSIAN DISTRICTS

Escape to Warship Succeeded Killing of General of General Romanovsky.

Constantinople, April 7.—General Denkine, former commander of anti-bolshevik forces in Southern Russia, arrived here Monday night and is a fugitive on board a British warship. Immediately after he landed he went to the Russian embassy with General Romanovsky, his former chief of staff, and it was while he was there that the latter was assassinated. General Denkine is believed to be in danger because of the high feeling that prevails among Russian officers here, and went on board the warship under a guard of British soldiers. General Romanovsky's murderer has not been apprehended and there is little chance that he will be caught as attaches at the Russian embassy say, so far as they can determine, nobody saw the tragedy.

Generals Denkine and Romanovsky were talking with Prince Gergarin and several other Russians in the sitting room at the embassy and the latter left to arrange for a motor car to bring his luggage from the steamer. A few minutes later revolver shots were heard and General Romanovsky was found in a dying condition in the billiard room. He was unable to speak when his friends reached him, having been shot through the heart and windpipe. Madam Denkine, who also was at the embassy at the time of the tragedy, left soon afterward with her husband under British protection. The incident created a great sensation here.

ORGANIZED UNIONS ARE PROPOSED FOR JAPANESE CENTER

Bill Before Government Requesting Recognition of Working Classes.

Tokio, April 8.—Government approval of the organization of labor unions would be given for the first time in Japan under a new bill drawn up by the department of commerce for submission to the present session of the Diet. The government proposes, however, to regulate, restrict and to a certain extent, otherwise control the operation of the unions which might be organized under the proposed law. One of the regulations which has aroused criticism provides that when a union or any craft or trade adopts a resolution that runs counter to law or is considered to be detrimental to public interest or fails to perform what is required of it by the administrative authorities, these authorities may cancel the resolution or resolve the union. Unions of various trades would be permitted to form a federation of unions only provided its rules and regulations were submitted and approved by "the proper authorities."

Heretofore, Japanese workmen have mostly been organized in guilds, although an Associated Labor Union was in existence in Tokio nearly a year ago. Supporters of the proposed law say the government must take the place of the old guild masters and advise and restrain the workmen until they shall have gained experience in the operations of their unions.

GERMAN PROTESTS ENTERED AGAINST RHINE OCCUPATION

Declares that French Troops Violate Peace Pact With Troops on Rhine.

DEFENDS SENDING TROOPS IN THE RHUR DISTRICTS

Strong Opposition Entered Against Soldiers Occupying Number Cities.

Berlin, April 7.—The German charge d'affaires in Paris was instructed today to hand to the French government a note protesting against the French occupation of Frankfurt and other territory on the right bank of the Rhine. The note, after referring to the contents of the French note of April 5, notifying Germany that the occupation had been ordered, asserts that the occupation of the towns mentioned in the French communication occurred before the note was presented to the German government: "We must in the name of justice, reason and humanity," the German note continues, "make the sharpest protest against the action of the French army. It cannot possibly have been the intention of the treaty of Versailles to prevent Germany from restoring order as quickly as possible in the part of its territory most seriously disturbed by bands of robbers."

The movement in the Ruhr region, it had not been quickly opposed, would have serious and remote political and economic consequences. The German government would have acted in excusable if it had waited longer in the optimistic hope that the insurgent movement in the Ruhr district would end without military intervention, and events so far have shown that it was right. "Everywhere" that the troops arrived the movement quickly collapsed, and he fears expressed by the allies that the very entry of the troops would make the disturbances worse and lead to the destruction of most important industrial works has up to the present not proved justified.

SWANSON TALKS TO YOUNG WOMEN OF TRAINING SCHOOL

Supt. of City Schools Delivers Second Talk at the Training School.

Supt. H. G. Swanson on yesterday morning made the second of his talks to the Training School students on "The Qualifications for a Teacher," from the superintendent's point of view. "Scholastic attainments are absolutely necessary for who teacher," was his theme. A superintendent in looking for a teacher looks first of all at the record made in school; there can be no camouflage about this. The teacher who does not know her subject matter cannot get by with it. There may be apparent exceptions when one seems to get through without it, but sooner or later it is found that the teacher who does not have knowledge of facts and ability to acquire facts cannot be successful.

He impressed upon the students that the time to make this record is when they are in school. The record in the office is indelible and unchangeable. Continued study and habits of industry are necessary after one gets to teaching, but the foundation for these is laid while they are still in the classroom. He made it clear that he did not expect teachers to know all facts, but he did expect them to have that great mass of common knowledge that are the everyday tools, and he expected them to know how to study. These practical talks are greatly appreciated by the students.

SEVERAL HUNDRED RAILWAYMEN IDLE IN CHICAGO STRIKE

Unauthorized Strike of Railway Workmen Increases in Seriousness.

VIRTUALLY 50,000 MEN HAVE JOINED STRIKERS

Many Men in Chicago Packing Houses Are Now Out of Employment.

Chicago, April 7.—An unauthorized strike of railroad employes, which started a week ago in the Chicago switching district by the discharge of a yard conductor, tonight had spread until it had affected twenty-five railroads, and in Chicago had thrown more than 50,000 men out of work, either directly or indirectly. More than 10,000 union railway men in Chicago and several hundred at Buffalo and at Champaign, Ill., were on strike. Many hundreds of men in Chicago packing houses were thrown out of work for lack of live-stock. Two "outlaw organizations, banned by the established brotherhoods as 'rump' unions, had sprung up to challenge the right of the labor heads to lead their men. In the face of this opposition from within the brotherhoods of engineers, railway trainmen, firemen and engineers and the Switchmen's Union of North America pledged their support to railroad officers in breaking the walk-out, and to shut and union railroad men throughout the country have been urged to report to Chicago to serve as strike-breakers.

"Five dollars a day is the minimum which will support a man and his family," the strikers said in a statement. Demands made to General Managers' Association were: CALL MEETING OF THE U. D. C. There will be a call meeting of the George B. Singletary Chapter of the U. D. C., at the home of Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Friday, April 9th at 8 p. m. RESOLUTIONS FOR DECLARING PEACE PRESENTED TODAY

Four Tar Heel Democrat Congressmen to Participate in the Fight. POU WILL OPEN FIRST ATTACK OF THE DAY Congressman Kitchin Will be in Charge of the Democratic Forces.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—The lines are tightly drawn in the house anticipating the opening guns on the peace resolutions to be called up tomorrow shortly after the house convenes. At least four members of the North Carolina delegation will participate in the debate, and first and last, other entries from the Tar Heel battle, group may speak. Representative Edward W. POU, as senior minority member of the Rules Committee, will attack the special order brought in by the House Rules Committee to limit debate on the rule to two hours, and on the peace resolution to seven hours. The rule will also make it impossible for amendments to be offered to the resolution, and the only motion likely to be in order will be to recommit the resolution to the Foreign Relations Committee. Representative POU is expected to point out that seven hours is not sufficient time to debate an unprecedented resolution involving an issue which the senate has been unable to settle in nearly a year. The Republican whip is expected to hold his interests in line all the motion to adopt the rule. A strict Democratic party vote is anticipated in opposition. During the debate on the rule and the peace resolution proper Representative Claude Kitchin will command the "forces in the field" as the active Democratic leader. Former Speaker Champ Clark bears the relation of a chief of staff to the attack. Mr. Kitchin will consume a part of the debate in attacking the Republican mode of bringing a doubtful status of peace between the United States and Germany. Major Charles M. Stedman, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, will participate in the debate and attack the peace resolution as a minority member of the committee which reported the substitute for the covenant of the League of Nations. The fourth Tar Heel to engage in the struggle will be Representative Weaver, who will likewise oppose the resolution. Champ Clark has requested the Asheville congressman to engage in the combat actively, and his role may be likened to the sharp-shooter. With a minimum of nine hours a day on the rule and the resolution a vote is not anticipated before Friday, when the entire Tar Heel delegation will have formed for the roll call. The continuation of the debate on Friday permits the North Carolina congressman who are attending the Democratic State convention at Raleigh today to vote against the resolution.

BARNEGAT LIGHTHOUSE TO BE TOOK DOWN

Philadelphia, April 8.—Barnegat Light, one of the oldest lighthouses on the Atlantic coast, which has afforded a great deal of material for fiction writers, is to be torn down, because its foundation is being undermined by the sea. Miss Annie Turner, of the Evans street school, will make a 3 minutes talk tomorrow night between plays. This talk on civics, at the White's theatre is the second of these talks, as Miss Polly Fulford made one on Tuesday night of this week. These talks are the children's own work and are splendid. They are little girls, in the grammar grades, but their speeches are exceptionally good for children of their age. Subscribe to The Daily Reflector.

THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1920.

William Hohenzollern may have fooled Germany, but the Dutch are not quite such an easy mark.

Russian women can support their husbands if they want to, but ask American women about it.

The state-wide suffrage fight is on in the capitol city today. Watch the women exert certain prerogatives which heretofore have not been granted them in this country.

Greenville's ball club is assuming more definite shape every day, and persons who have not yet contributed to the team should do so at once in order to avoid any delay in organization.

Immediate peace in this county may come through resolutions from Republican members of the senate, but it must pass the remaining members before the issue becomes permanent.

Clean up week in Greenville is being well observed in many parts of the city, but yet there are numbers of people who have failed to clean off their premises as requested. There are only 2 more days of the campaign and it is to be hoped every home will have done its part before Saturday evening comes to a close.

The hospital committee continues to report splendid subscriptions from farmers of Greenville township, which is pleasing indeed when comparing what the planters already have done towards making the memorial hospital a surety for the future. It is hoped the contributions will continue without interruption until the issue is complete, and then, and then alone, will the men who fought for greater democracy be recognized for what they did in the interest of humanity.

It is indicated that trading between the United States and Russia will be resumed shortly regardless of the latter nation's political standing, and that interference from factional sources is not anticipated. The two countries have been apart in international intercourse since the ending of the war with Germany, but now that trading will be resumed with this country determined to carry out its intentions, it is only a matter of course to expect success will crown its efforts.

England's war tax continues to force great numbers of her nobility to sell much of their estates, so reports state, and while of course it was not stated how many persons were forced to resort to such measures, it is expected that conditions are similar to those in this county only far more serious owing to that country's enormous war expenditures. America has suffered comparatively little as far as human life is concerned, but providing for other nations in distress and its own debt of war has drained heavily upon its finances, although the surface of its resources have only been merely scratched. However, taxation has become a matter of more than serious thought this year, and should they increase, it is possible this great era of prosperity since the war will be converted into an extreme period of abnormality indeed, compared with present conditions.

It is certainly gratifying to note that school committeemen in various parts of the county are favorably impressed with the idea of consolidating schools, for if there is one thing that is going to have a direct effect upon educational advancement in the future it must assuredly come about through increased advantages and conveniences embraced in the consolidated plan of teaching. The board of education, so it seems, has tentatively adopted plans for consolidation of three small schools in the Pactolus district, and will cooperate with citizens in the erection of a large school building sufficiently adequate to take care of school work for the three vicinities involved. Large automobile trucks will be furnished for transporting children from their homes to the school where practically every advantage will be enjoyed which otherwise would have been impossible in a one or two teacher school. It is needless to say that Pitt county is fortunate in having its committeemen to so quickly realize the great future in consolidation of schools, for it is evident in several parts of the county, and no doubt will be one of the most dominant factors in placing education in to virtually every home, town, city and rural district of the county.

With the opening of the state Democratic convention in Raleigh today it is only natural to expect that some most interesting news may be circulated over the state within the next several hours. The convention this year undoubtedly will be one the largest attended and most interesting in many years, because several great issues at hand and the number of candidates in ring for different offices. Among the most prominent occurrences of the session will be the suffrage fight, in which North Carolina women will make their plea for ratification of suffrage amendment to the national constitution. Assuredly this issue will demand attention in every part of the state, particularly since only one more state is necessary to make the amendment possible, and because North Carolina is among the five states which suffrage supporters are depending upon for completing the fight. Three candidates for gubernatorial honors will be in the convention, and considering the present incumbent, and naturally there will be an incessant flow of oratory throughout the entire session. It has been many a day since the state has witnessed since an important convention, and for that reason both parties will be intensely interested with concluding features.

Any Man Can Be A Capitalist

Some philosophers go to great lengths explaining why money is not the only thing to work for in life.

And their contention is a good one.

It is true that some wealthy men are miserable, but no man need be unhappy for having money. A man with money is an influence in his community. He can live well and die happy.

Poverty and misery go hand in hand. Choose your own fate—be a capitalist or a pauper.

Why there's a "snap" to the action of a
CHALMERS

PERHAPS you've noticed the sluggishness, the "heaviness" of the action in so many cars of today.

Ride in this new Chalmers and you will observe the difference.

There is an underlying reason for the "snap" in a Chalmers. It's due to the manner in which it gets results out of "gas."

As you know, "gas" has deteriorated, gone down and down in grade.

Feeding the "gas" you get today into the average engine is giving it a "food" that it can't digest. Engines have got to be redesigned.

Chalmers engineers were first to act. They found the answer in Hot Spot and Ram's-horn. The raw, heavy "gas" (which has just as much power in it as the so-called better grade of "gas" that once was purchasable) strikes Hot Spot, is heated, "broken up" into very fine particles, and forms a "cloud."

Then Ram's-horn, which is one of the greatest improvements ever made in engines, hurries the "cloud" before it can condense, to the cylinders.

The results are astonishing. You get an action from "gas" you believed no longer possible.

A year later you will find that these troubles which afflict so many cars today on account of the low grade "gas" situation are not to be found in the Chalmers—troubles like burned bearings, frequently fouled spark plugs, scored cylinders, repair bills that come from excessive and endless vibration. You, too, will join that growing circle which declares that Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

MR. OSBORN SANDLIN RETURNS WITH HIS BRIDE

Mr. Osborn Sandlin, of this city, returned from a trip to Fitzgerald, Ga., last evening bringing him his bride. Mr. Sandlin, has for the past three months been in the employ of Quinn-Miller & Co. Prior to the acceptance of this position he was connected with a furniture firm, in Georgia, at which time he met his wife. They were married January 8th, and up until his return, he had kept his marriage a secret, so his arrival, accompanied by Mrs. Sandlin, caused a great deal of surprise. Mrs. Sandlin, nee Miss Nannie Bowles, was one of Georgia's most attractive women, and Greenville is glad to welcome her. They will make their home with Mrs. Berry Bostic, Mr. Sandlin's sister, on Dickinson avenue.
