Electrical Board of New York Explains Fires Resulting from Connections

FIRE COMMISSIONER OF STATE GIVES OPINION

James R. Young Comments on Conditions in Every Part of the Country.

Raleigh, April 21-1920. In a recent lecture on electrical bureau of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters gave this concrete summary of total losses in the New York district from electrical equipments, with figures showing the immense value of proper inspection that had not been approved by the board. Mr. Forsyth further stated that 99 per cent of electrical equipment in this territory had been approved, hence it followed that two thirds of the loss due to electrical devices came from the one percent that was not approved, and only one-third from the other ninety-nine per cent that were and are approved. An equally important conclusion was drawn from electrical iron losses. Of the 32 fires of this class, with a loss of $151,000 thirty one were irons unapproved, and only one from irons with approved installation.

The $7,000,000 3 1/2 inch Tire

A special $7,000,000 plant was built and a specialized organization was gathered together to make this tire exclusively.

Such specialization is typical of Firestone.

The plant capacity is 16,000 a day.

The results are all in favor of the car owner:
Quality at low cost; strength and scientific balance; car protection; long life; most miles per dollar.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

I have been to the City Clerk's office three different times to pay my taxes and Mr. Farmer said his books were not ready yet, my property was advertised for non-payment of taxes. There is something lacking somewhere. I don't care to be published this way when I have made efforts to pay what I justly owe. I called at the city clerk's office again this morning but no one was in.

Respectfully,

Unusual Number of Larceny Cases Continued Until the Next Term.

Several cases were disposed of in yesterday's session of criminal term of Pitt county superior court and many cases were continued until next session owing to inability on the part of court officials to reach the issues this term. Three or four of the issues heard throughout the day were long drawn out and required some little time in finally disposing of and necessitated deferment of other matters.

It is expected that the remainder of the work's activities will be featured consideration of several other important matters, although it is possible some tedious controversy will hinder work to no little extent. So far remarkable progress has been made and every effort is going to be made for a continuance of the good work until the term is concluded.

Judge Connor and officials have been alert to practically every issue so far given consideration and have displayed mighty fine sentiment in every way. This fact will have much to do with remaining cases on the calendar and assure prompt and rapid disposition wherever this may be possible.

NOTICE.

Having this day sold the business and good will of the Southern Storage Battery Company to J. Hicks Corey, all persons indebted to said business will please make settlement with the undersigned, and all creditors of said concern will present their accounts to the undersigned. This April 8th, 1920.

H. C. SUGG & T. T. COX,

Atlanta, Ga., April 21.—Every member of the Salvation Army, from the highest ranking officer to the youngest soldier in the ranks of the organization has at last found something which they do not have to worry about.

It's the salary income tax. According to internal revenue collectors not a member of the Salvation Army in the United States received enough salary last year to make an income tax return.

Commander Evangeline C. Booth, the highest ranking Salvationist in the United States, received less than $1,000 salary in 1919.

Thus is answered the question occasionally asked in some quarters: What percentage of the money given the Salvation Army for charitable purposes goes into high salaries for its officers.

The report of the officials in charge of income tax returns show that none of it goes into "high" salaries and that only a small percent of it goes into the extremely low salaries which they receive.

"If you wish to get rich don't join the Salvation Army," says Commander Booth. "Our workers are paid just enough to meet their actual living expenses and when they become old or disabled from any cause they do not have to worry because they have not laid by worldly fortunes. The Salvation Army attends to all their needs."

Commander Booth is now touring the southern states in behalf of the Salvation Army's second home service fund appeal, set for May 10 to 20, and will deliver addresses in several cities explaining the work of the Salvation Army and showing what it accomplishes with the funds entrusted to it by the public.

CHANGES IN RETAIL PRICES.

The average family expenditure for 22 articles of food increased from February 15 to March 15, in 27 cities, decreased in 23 cities, and remained the same in one city.

In Fall River, Indianapolis, Little Rock, Los Angeles, Memphis, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Paul, and Pittsburgh, the increase was less than one-half of 1 per cent. In Atlanta, Charleston, Columbus, Dallas, Detroit, Houston, Peoria, and St. Louis the increase was 1 per cent. In Butte, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Omaha, Portland, Oregon, Salt Lake City and Springfield, Illinois, the increase was 2 per cent, and in Chicago, Denver, and Kansas City, 3 per cent.

In Birmingham, Boston, New Orleans, Portland, Maine and San Francisco, the decrease was less than one-half of 1 per cent. In Baltimore, Bridgeport, Buffalo, Jackson, Louisville, Manchester, Mobile, Philadelphia, Providence, Rochester, Scranton, and Seattle, the decrease was 1 per cent. In Newark, Richmond, and New York, the decrease was 2 per cent, and in Norfolk, Savannah, and Washington, 3 per cent.

During the year period, from March, 1919, to March, 1920, the greatest increase, or 20 per cent, was shown in Chicago and Springfield, Ill. The next largest increase, or 19 per cent, was in Detroit. During the year forty six out of fifty cities increased 10 per cent and over.

As compared with the average expenditures in the year 1913, the following cities showed an increase of 100 per cent and over: Atlanta, 100 per cent; Baltimore and Fall River, 101 per cent, each; Birmingham, Scranton and Washington, 102 per cent, each; Memphis, 103 per cent; Buffalo and Providence, 104 per cent, each; Cleveland and Kansas City, 105 per cent, each; Chicago, Omaha and Milwaukee, 107 per cent, each; Minneapolis and Richmond, 108 per cent, each; Charleston 109 per cent; and Detroit and St. Louis, 111 per cent, each.

According to reports received by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor from retail dealers in 51 cities, the average family expenditure for 22 articles of food did not change in the month from February 15 to March 15. The cost of these articles of food on March 15, therefore, remained only six-tenths of 1 per cent below the cost in January, 1920, which month marked the highest point reached since 1913. The figures for March, 1920, show an increase of 14 per cent as compared with March, 1919, and an increase of 106 per cent as compared with March, 1913. These comparisons are based on the average retail prices of the following articles, weighted according to the consumption of the average family: Sirloin steak, round steak, rib roast, chuck roast, plate beef, pork chops, bacon, ham, lard, hens, corn meal, eggs, butter, milk, bread, potatoes, sugar, cheese, cheese, rice, coffee and tea.

Since January, 1919, monthly retail prices of food have been secured for 43 food articles. During the month from February 15, 1920, 19 of the 43 articles increased in price as follows: Oranges, 16 per cent; potatoes, 13 per cent; pork chops and butter, 4 per cent, each; tea and raisins, 3 per cent, each; lamb, hens and rolled oats, 2 per cent, each; round steak, rib roast, ham, bread, cream of wheat, macaroni, rice, onions, and bananas, 1 per cent, each. Sirloin steak increased less than five-tenths of 1 per cent.

TRADE FORCES PROTEST.

Following evidences of an organized effort by alien interests to check the development of new American trade routes by forcing the immediate sale of our government owned Merchant Marine and at the same time securing the cancellation of certain export rates, Matthew Hale, in behalf of the South Atlantic States Association, has asked for an investigation of British propaganda in this country. He addressed a letter today to the eight senators, representing the states of South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia and Florida, calling their attention to the fact that Delos W. Cooke, Associate Director of British Cunard Lines, under Sir Ashley Sparks, heads the list of the Committee which will appeal to the Trunk Lines Association, and the Interstate Commerce Commission for the cancellation of export freight rates to South Atlantic ports, which compete for traffic in the Middlewest with Halifax, a British port.

Attention is also called to the agitation certain large shipping interests which formerly operated to a large extent under British flag, are conducting for the immediate sale and breaking up of our huge new Merchant Marine. This activity is said to be in direct accord with the policies desired by British shipping firms in their fear that some American railroad and shipping interests as well as commercial organizations have been induced by misrepresentation of facts, to cooperate with what is essentially, pro-British activity.

APRIL SESSION OF COURT CONCLUDED

convene in this city May 17th, and it is the purpose of the court to clear the calendar completely during the two weeks session to feature the term. No criminal session will be held following civil court, but it is believed, virtually every civil action will be terminated in order to open way for quick and effective work when criminal court convenes here for its next session.

R. E. Carrin, recently fined $25 in mayor's court for exceeding the city's speed limit and who later appealed to superior court, was found guilty of the charge and required to pay the fine imposed by mayor's court, together with costs, and also cost incurred in superior court action.

The court failed to return a true bill in the case against Frank Taylor, charged with reckless driving and the death of Bud Corey who was killed in an automobile accident in this city sometime ago, and consequently, Taylor was exonerated of all blame.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of James Brown, charged with vagrancy, following the examination of a number of witnesses testifying in favor of the defense.

The case against Herbert Hemby, charged with larceny, was remanded to the county court for final consideration.

Will Brown and Elias Fager, appearing on a charge of larceny, were not given a hearing yesterday the case being continued until the next session of criminal court.

Following the examination of a number of witnesses appearing in the interest of the defense and indecision on part of the jury in determining the verdict, Judge Connor ordered a mistrial in the case against C. T. Bullock, charged with assault and intent to kill.

William Jennings Bryant, charged with receiving stolen property was found guilty, sentence not determined.

BEER MAKERS TO SOON BE SUBJECT TO PROSECUTIONS

Ohio, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming. Ohio has not adopted a complete enforcement code. Three codes having been passed by the legislature and held up by the popular referendum.

Eleven states which so far have not passed law enforcement codes are: Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Louisiana and Wisconsin. There of the 11 Rhode Island, New Jersey and Wisconsin, have adopted beer bills. The Wisconsin legislature, in enacting a two and one-half percent law provided that if the United States Supreme court sustains the Volstead Act, the statute shall not go into effect. Rhode Island will license places selling beverages containing not more than four percent of alcohol by weight on the ground that it is non-intoxicating. New Jersey in legalizing the manufacture, sale and transportation of three and one-half percent beer awaits the formal declaration of peace and the end war prohibition.

Maryland wet legislators proposed a three and one-half percent beer bill which was passed by the House but defeated in the Senate. A three and one-half percent bill is now pending in the Massachusetts and New York legislatures. Delaware is considering an amendment to the state prohibition code providing for the sale of liquor for "medicinal purposes" in harmony with the federal code. The drys oppose it on the ground that it nullifies much of the state enforcement law.

Let Me Take The Risk

There isn't a week goes by in this town that some car owner doesn't have his car or his tires stolen, his car burned up, smashed-up or a collision, or cause an accident to some pedestrian or fellow driver. If insured I settle all damages without trouble or expense to the owner. If not insured you dig deep down into your bank roll to pay the claim.

Why take such chances when a few dollars will shift the burden and the expense over to me? You may be out of luck tomorrow. Today is the time to shelter yourself with Auto Fire Insurance, Auto Theft Insurance, Collision, Property Damage or Liability Insurance. I write it all.

NEED FOR AND USES OF STANDARD MINIMUM BUDGET

Dr. Royal Meeker, United States Commissioner of Labor Statistics, in an address on the "Need for and uses a standard minimum quantity budget," delivered before the 47th annual meeting of the National Conference on Social Work, in New Orleans, April 21, stated that the term "minimum of subsistence wage" is vague and indefinite. Those who use this expression he said, have no conception of how little is actually required to maintain life. A rigorous minimum living wage would be far below the pauper level of existence. It is not worth while, according to Commissioner Meeker, to try to figure out with exactness the astonishingly small number and quantities of commodities and services indispensable for the maintenance of human life. The thing one can do with our are almost unlimited.

"A much more useful and at the same time a much easier budget to work out is a standard minimum of health and decency budget. Plain living and higher thinking were never more needed than now, but we must be careful that plain living does not become so plain that all capacity for thinking is absorbed by the problem of how to make one dollar buy the necessities that are sold in the market for two dollars."

Dr. Meeker suggested the desirability of modifying clothing standards and ventured to guess that it would be easily possible to clothe the whole human race ample for health and decency with the existing supplies of clothing materials at one tenth the present expense and labor cost and with a very appreciable addition to the sum total of beauty and happiness in the world."

Changes in the cost of living are calculated by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor by multiplying the prices of commodities by the quantities of these commodities consumed by the average of the families included in the Bureau's cost of living studies. This gives with approximate accuracy the changes in the cost of the average family's upkeep, including expenditures for food, clothing, housing, fuel, light, furniture, house furnishings, kitchen utensils and miscellaneous items, but does this average all embracing market basket, Commissioner Meeker asks, contains just enough, to much or to little of the necessities and comforts of life to maintain an average sized family in health and decency. To answer this all important question, he declares, a minimum quantity budget must be a greed upon which will allow all of the necessary commodities and services to enable the standard family to live healthfully and decently. This basic budget could readily be adapted to different occupations, climates and customs.

locality who is responsible for such destruction of property with the result that those who disapprove of such unlawful acts immediately ally themselves with the better element.

"I am glad that tick eradication is invariably associate with a desire for live stock improvement and good citizenship. In other states where ticks have been eradicated, better cattle have been introduced, which means more profitable farms and prosperous communities. It would make possible the liberal production of meat and dairy products so that North Carolina folks would not have to depend upon other states for considerable part of their food supply."

SEVERAL SCHOOLS ENDORSE EFFORTS FOR BETTER ROADS

held at Raleigh the day the legislature convenes, will indeed be a mass-meeting representing every section of the state and presenting the wish of every section for a closely connected highway system for North Carolina. This statement indeed is now true of North Carolina; there exists an overwhelming sentiment in favor of good roads and immediate action by the state to provide the funds necessary to pay the construction costs, and that sentiment will stand before any est," concluded the good roads enthusiast.

WHY M'CORMICK ENDORSES PALMER

Gives to All Forward Looking Democrats a Stimulating Agency for Promoting Their Cause.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Hon. Vance C. McCormick, formerly chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who conducted the campaign of 1916, which resulted in the re-election of President Wilson, has formally endorsed the candidacy of A. Mitchell Palmer, Attorney General of the United States, for the Democratic nomination at the San Francisco convention.

President Wilson recognized Mr. McCormick's political sagacity when he selected him as his campaign manager, and the result fully vindicated his judgment. Mr. McCormick, who knows Attorney General Palmer perhaps better than any one else, is enthusiastic over the announcement of Mr. Palmer's candidacy.

In a statement issued following the filing of the Attorney General's name in the Georgia primaries Mr. McCormick says:

"Attorney General Palmer's formal consent to the filing of his candidacy for President in the primaries of Georgia is the welcome sign progressive Democrats in Pennsylvania and elsewhere have been awaiting with lively anticipation. Mr. Palmer's action directly presents to the people of the country his claims for consideration and gives to all forward looking Democrats the agency for promoting their cause.

"Mr. Palmer's political career has been one of liberalism, of progressive principles and actions. While Woodrow Wilson was fighting the hosts of privilege in Jersey as its governor Mitchell Palmer was waging battle with the same forces in Congress. As early as 1916 he had become a national figure through his congressional warfare against entrenched and defiant legislative power.

"Retrospection brings to him nothing new by way of advanced principles. Great movements, so near accomplished facts, measures of great human justice, prospered by his championship many years ago.

"In those early days he gave national distinction to the Democracy of Pennsylvania by his pioneer efforts to wrest control of the people's liberties from the special privileged few which abused them. This official conduct has been a source of pride and gratification not only to his fellow partisans in his home state of Pennsylvania, but to his fellow-citizens regardless of party.

Another Royal Suggestion

BISCUITS, BUNS and ROLLS

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

BISCUIT! What delicate this word suggests. So tender they fairly melt in the mouth, and of such glorious flavor that the appetite is never satisfied. These are the kind of biscuits anyone can make with Royal Baking Powder and these unusual recipes.

Biscuits

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk or hot milk and half water

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt, add shortening and rub in very lightly; add liquid slowly; roll or pat on floured board to about one inch in thickness (handle as little as possible); cut with biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Royal Cinnamon Buns

3/4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
4 tablespoons seeded raisins

Sift 2 tablespoons of measured sugar with flour, salt and baking powder; rub shortening in lightly; add beaten egg to water and add slowly. Roll out 1/4 inch thick on floured board; brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and raisins. Roll as for jelly roll; cut into 1/4 inch pieces; place with cut edges up on well-greased pan; sprinkle with a little sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven 20 to 25 minutes; remove from pan at once.

Parker House Rolls

4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 1/4 cups milk

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Add melted shortening to milk and add slowly to dry ingredients stirring until smooth. Knead lightly on floured board and roll out 1/4 inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter. Crease each circle with back of knife one side of center. Butter the small section and fold larger part well over the small. Place one inch apart in greased pan. Allow to stand 15 minutes in warm place. Brush each with melted butter and bake in moderate oven 15 to 20 minutes.

American Citizens Do Have Right of Alteration by Constitutional Means.

New York, April 20.—Vice-President Marshall was appointed by members of the Associated Press at their annual meeting today when he advocated freedom of speech and press as guaranteed by the Constitution, but favored "soaking it to the fellow who causes trouble in the American republic" by what he says.

He drew a distinction as to rights of free speech between those who were born in the country and others. Native-born, he said, had the right to advocate alteration of the government by constitutional means to socialism or a monarchy, but those who sought a haven in this country had no right to propose a change in the system of government.

The Vice-President was the chief speaker at the luncheon of the members in connection with the annual meeting, at which the retiring five directors were re-elected by acclamation and nominating committees were chosen and advisory boards and auditing en.

After deprecating the great amount of publicity given to crime and suggesting that newspapers pour oil on the troubled waters of unrest by speaking of the fine things in American life, Mr. Marshall told the meeting what he thought would be real news, namely "a clarion call from every newspaper in America for men to stand for justice, for freedom, for right, for the maintenance of the old Constitution and the old principles upon which the republic was founded."

"There are a great many people," he continued, "who think we are going back to where we were before August 1, 1914. We are not going back there, gentlemen, I would to God it were possible to go back to 1914, but we live in the year of grace 1920, and we are not going back. And you know and I know, whether we close our eyes to it or not, that ten million men did not agonize and suffer and die upon the far flung lines of Flanders and France that the world might be what the world was."

"The problem for the Associated Press is a sto whether it is to act as a mere machine or whether with the opportunities and the privileges the Associated Press has, it will assume the responsibilities for bringing peace and quietude, and good order at least to America if not the world."

PALMER'S FITNESS FOR PRESIDENCY

No Candidate for America's Highest Office Ever Had a Finer Set of Moral and Political Ideals.

(William T. Ellis in Leslie's Weekly.) Various men have more or less hesitatingly shied their hats into the Presidential ring; A. Mitchell Palmer, hatless and coatless, is in the ring himself. A hoary American story narrates the visit of a horseman to a stock-farm, where he was shown veterans of the paddock with famous records and coats of infinite promise. At length the visitor exclaimed, "I've seen plenty of 'has-beens' and a lot of 'may-bes,' but I would like most of all to see an 'is-er.'"

Palmer is a personality in the present tense. He is first in the public eye because he is at the moment first in the service of the government. That is what I mean by saying that he is in the ring himself. As America's champion knight errant against the four dragons—the "Reds," the food profiteers, the industrial malefactors and the prohibition violators—the Attorney General is at the moment the busiest man in the public behalf to be found in America. He is our prize "is-er."

No candidate for America's highest office ever had a finer set of political and moral ideals, consistently held and practiced, than this young Friend with the story book rise by self-help from the lot of a country lad to a position of national eminence; nevertheless, it is as a doer rather than as a dreamer and a talker that Palmer is known. He has the characteristic American quality of ability to "make good" at his present post, whatever that may be.

As a congressman his efficiency made him the key man on the Ways and Means Committee. The same trait had put him at the head of the cleansed political organization of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania—after one Belleau Wood of a fight. President Wilson, who distributes offices after an inscrutable fashion of his own, having in 1912 offered this Quaker the incongruous post of Secretary of War in his Cabinet, thus showing his estimate of Palmer's first class qualifications, later, when America had entered the war, named him to the nondescript and apparently trivial post of alien property custodian.

Chairman Cummings Declares Republican Party Has Lost Its Prestige.

Chicago, Ill., April 20.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, today was selected to act as temporary chairman of the party's national convention at San Francisco next June. The selection was made by the executive committee of the Democratic national committee. Colonel John I. Martin, of St. Louis, for the past 25 years sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic national committee, was chosen sergeant-at-arms of the convention.

The convention late was formed at a luncheon at the Iroquois Club, where the Democratic chieftains later listened with particular interest to a speech in which Chairman Cummings sounded what they said probably would be the main point of his "keynote address."

The Republican party has lost its moral character, he declared, in launching a vigorous attack on the action of the majority in congress in defeating the peace treaty and league of nations and particularly the methods by which control of the foreign relations was held by the Republicans.

"The whole fight on the League of Nations dates back to a corrupt election in Michigan," he said, "and a convicted criminal is the thing upon which Republican supremacy rests."

He was convinced that the people of the United States wanted the League of Nations. The Republican congress had debated the peace treaty for eight months and had failed "to pass one constructive piece of legislation."

Turning to the war, he declared that "not chance but brains," won it, and for this leadership he maintained the Democratic party was entitled to credit. "It matters not what they may say of President Wilson," he added. "His fame is immortal and future generations will render tributes of praise and obligation to this great Democrat."

Relation of Democratic women to the party and their part in the direction of its affairs would be decided by the San Francisco convention, the National executive committee decided today.

Meeting with members of the women's advisory board, the committee appointed Mr. Cummings chairman of a sub-committee to draft the program under which the enfranchised women will work. Their findings will be presented to the convention for adoption.
