MEANS OF RAISING BONUS STARTS BIG BATTLE IN SENATE

All-Day Debate in Lower House of Congress Occurs Over Question. RAISING BONUS MONEY FORMS PRINCIPAL ISSUE Indecision Prevails as to What Direction Funds Are to Come From.

Washington, April 27.—The fight over the method of raising almost two billion dollars for the soldier relief legislation precipitated an all-day debate in the House today during which the Republicans on one side and the combination of Democrats and Insurgent Republicans on the other explained their proposals.

Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, announced that seventy-five Republican "Insurgents" favored a retroactive "war profits" tax instead of a sales tax, proposed by Republican leaders. His statement, if borne out later, would indicate an upset of the Republican program for passing the bill Monday without permitting action on the "war profits" proposal.

Representative Garner, of Texas, the Democratic whip, predicted that the result of the Republican caucus next Friday night would be to "whip" the insurgents into line.

Mr. Johnson and Representative Rainey, Democrat, Illinois, introduced during the day the "war profit tax bill, which would place an 80 per cent levy on the increase of net income during the last four years over that of the pre-war period.

The plan was attacked by Representative Green, Iowa, and Longworth, of Ohio, Republicans, who declared it would "levy taxes on taxes," and that the excess earnings of individuals and corporations during the war period had already been taxed more than 50 per cent.

"To accept this plan means there will be no soldier legislation," declared Mr. Longworth, adding that it would "kill the soldiers' bill beyond resurrection."

Without giving the details, Mr. Longworth said the Republican plan for raising the money proposed a five fold scheme of taxation. Besides, the levy on sales, which he said "would not raise much," Mr. Longworth said a stock exchange transactions were to be taxed, while the existing levies on tobacco, incomes and real estate sales were to be increased.

He also announced that officers of the rank of captain or below in the army and of corresponding grades in the navy would receive the benefits of the relief legislation as well as the enlisted men.

Representative Frear, Republican, Wisconsin, advocated a third plan for raising money providing for increased income taxes during 1919-1920 and 19-21, a tax of stock dividends issued this year and a new tax on automobiles and theatre admissions and real estate sales.

Representative Clark, the Democratic leader, and Mr. Gardner demanded that opportunity be given to amend the bill. Mr. Clark recalled the "parliamentary revolution of 1910" and gave a "gentle warning" that the Republicans were "entering on the same kind of conduct that led to the upset of their machine."

Mr. Gardner said the Republicans were "playing politics" with the legislation and would not pass it until after the elections.

EXPERIMENTS IN BUYING TRIED IN CONNECTICUT Waterbury, Conn., April 27. Experiments in community buying are to be tried here through the assistance of public spirited citizens, and based almost entirely on the excellent record of a public market which was maintained for a six months' period last year.

TO DISCUSS FINAL ISSUES OF LEAGUE BALL IN THIS CITY

Meeting to be Held Tonight to Decide Whether Greenville Will Play. OTHER TOWNS ASKING AN EARLY ANSWER Money Has Been Raised and Other Cities Ready for Opening Season.

A meeting will be conducted in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in this city tonight at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of definitely deciding whether or not Greenville will actively participate in final agreement for organization of the Eastern North Carolina base ball association, as recently proposed at a meeting of representatives in this city, and promoters are today urging that every person interested in base ball be present at the meeting tonight in order that definite plans may be decided upon.

The meeting has been called by representatives recently appointed in this city to determine sentiment now in ascendency regarding the issue, for lately the matter has been dropped almost completely and towns comprising the league are urging that Greenville make its decision immediately so that other places clamoring for admission to the association may be given some definite statement. Sentiment in the local organization is completely at a standstill, according to promoters, and unless something is done between now and Friday, when all clubs will meet to settle contracts and forfeits, this city will be inevitably eliminated as a member.

HURT AGAIN MAKES STRONG APPEAL IN BAPTIST SERVICES

"The Greatest Detective I Ever Knew" Formed Subject Last Night.

Dr. John Jeter Hurt preached another powerful sermon last night in the Memorial Baptist church on the subject, "The greatest detective agent I ever knew." He took for his text, "Be sure your sins will find you out." He stated that detectives sometimes lose cases, but that the great detective, in heaven, never lost a case. Your sin will always find you out. His entire sermon was enjoyed and made Christians as well as sinners realize that their sins are not always covered up but will at some time be disclosed. The singing was enjoyed.

In his message at the early morning service Dr. Hurt took for his subject: "How a Man May Know He is a Christian."

You and I meet at the foot of the cross on equal basis. When Judge Hughes took the supreme bench he united with the local church by letter and was met at the front by a Chinese laundryman. Pastor stated "At foot of the Cross ground in level." Judge Hughes caught the great significance, turned to the Chinaman, extended his hand and said: "I give you greetings."

"Little Children love one another." "Give diligence to make your calling and election sure," and why? Because if your fellow man is uncertain, your opportunity to convict him of your conviction. God wants you to make sure that you are a Christian.

What is your attitude toward the Book? It is a gold mine and we are doing as those who had opportunity to buy a gold mine at $10 per acre didn't buy because they didn't know gold was there. Investigate! Your Bible means more than a gold mine, mark your promises therein, tried and proven.

What is your attitude toward other Christians? "We know we have passed the mark." (Continued on page four.)

SENATE ASKS FOR IMMEDIATE PROBE OF SUGAR SUPPLY

Senator Owens, of Oklahoma, Declares Situation Deserves Attention. COMPLAINTS FROM MANY DISTRICTS MADE KNOWN Senator Smoot Thinks Government Should Have Purchased Cuban Supply

Washington, April 27.—Demands that the government take immediate action to relieve the sugar shortage and prosecute profiteers were made today in the Senate.

Senator Owen, Democrat, Oklahoma, declared an Oklahoma wholesale merchant had written him that "outside speculators are deliberately buying up and hoarding sugar."

Senator Swanson, Democrat, Virginia, said the situation was "serious" and that either congress or some governmental department should take "some strenuous action and see that the situation is improved."

Senator Swanson said he had received large numbers of complaints from Virginia relative to the sugar shortage and he "understood that reformers had informed various dealers in Virginia that their sugar output had already been taken and that they were unable to supply dealers."

"If the shortage continues, he said, many persons this year would be unable to make advantage of the canning season. He said congress or the other governmental departments should act immediately and recommend that the Senate Finance committee investigate the situation." (Continued on page four.)

KATHRYN RIGGS TO SING HERE FOR THE TEACHERS SCHOOL

Popular Soprano to Assist Annetta Ribercora in Recital on May 3rd.

The Ball of the Century Club of Greenville considers itself fortunate in being able to announce the appearance of Kathryn Riggs, of Washington, D. C., who will assist Annetta Ribercora, soprano, at the concert to be given on May 3, at the Teachers Training School.

Miss Riggs has appeared in many concerts in Washington and Richmond where she has played for the best musical organizations. Although Kathryn Riggs is a young artist she is already known for her artistic playing and exquisite tone.

Greenville will enjoy the finest musical opportunity of the season on May 3, when Annetta Ribercora, the brilliant soprano and Kathryn Riggs the harpist, will appear together in a program of exceptional beauty and power.

SPLENDID SERVICES CONDUCTED IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Dr. W. P. Shamhart preached another splendid sermon in the Christian Church last evening to a large appreciative audience, on the subject, "Across the Tract." Mr. Tuttle sang a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross." Dr. Shamhart will take for his subject tonight "Some half way houses in life." This sermon will be based on an actual experience. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock Dr. Shamhart will preach on, "The holy spirit in the church, Miss Tuttle will sing a solo at this service.

These services are proving a great help, to the people, and every one is cordially invited to attend.

COMMERCIAL MEN OPPOSE BONUS FOR FORMER SOLDIERS

United States Chamber of Commerce Goes on Record Disfavoring Issue. FOREIGN CREDITS ALSO RECEIVE CONSIDERATION Advancing Commodity Prices to Offset European Purchasers, Advised.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 27.—The United States Chamber of Commerce would go on record as opposed to the granting of a bonus to soldiers who served in the world war by adopting of a resolution for action by the resolutions committee at the initial session of its eighth annual convention here today.

The resolution declares that "not only half a million negroes in the South, who probably would receive $500 or $800 each, would immediately quit work until the money was spent, but predicted that these would be generally "an orgy of spending" that labor would be disorganized and production decreased.

The chamber also received a report of its national committee on European finance, in which it was asserted that while American bankers and business men are friendly toward aiding in the rehabilitation of Europe by private investment, no such action can be looked for until peace has been formally concluded and the United States government adopted a definite policy for sanction and co-operation.

Revision of the excess profits and income taxes "so that large investors can afford to put their funds in other than tax free securities" is urged in the report, the point being made that only by the freeing of large capital (Continued on page four.)

TURNER DELIVERS SPLENDID SERMON TO CITY BAPTISTS

Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church Tells of True Theory of Atonement

"The True Theory of Atonement," and "The Greatest Day We Shall Ever Witness," were the subjects preached on by Dr. Turner at the two services in the Immanuel Baptist church, yesterday. He treated his subjects well; the congregation was pleased with his forceful manner of presentation. Much interest continues to be manifested in these services. There have been a number of conversions, and, up to date, fifteen have joined the church since the revival services began.

Tonight at the close of the preaching service, the ordinance of baptism will be administered.

Dr. Turner will leave for Raleigh tomorrow as it is necessary for him to continue his work at Wake Forest until the close of the present school term. He will return to Greenville in June to take up the pastoral duties of the Immanuel Baptist church.

The services tonight will close the revival services in this church. The church and many other souls have been greatly blessed in this series of meetings.

MR. H. B. CHARLES KILLED BY LIVE WIRE TUESDAY

Mr. H. B. Charles, superintendent of the water and light plant, in Washington, N. C., was instantly killed yesterday afternoon by a live wire while climbing a pole. Mr. Charles, aged about 40 years, was a splendid electrician and made an efficient superintendent. His sudden death will be a great shock to his many friends throughout this section of the state.

PRESIDENT CHASE INAUGURATED HEAD UNIVERSITY TODAY

Representatives and Society of Many Colleges Attend Splendid Exercises. GOV. BICKETT INDUCTS PRESIDENT INTO OFFICE Secretary Daniels to Preside Over Final Exercises at College Tonight.

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 28.—In the presence of representatives of more than a hundred colleges and societies, including thirty three college presidents, and before thousands of alumni and visitors, Dr. Harry Woodburn Chase was today inaugurated President of the University of North Carolina.

Repeating the oath of office after Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the Supreme Court, President Chase was formally inducted into office by Governor Thomas W. Bickett, who delivered to the new president the seal and charter of the oldest state university in the United States.

On the platform with the new president A. Lawrence Lowell, of Harvard, President John Grier Hibben of Princeton and Dr. Charles R. Mann of the War Department who in three addresses on different aspects of "The Higher Education and Its Present Task," preceding the inaugural address of President Chase, outlined the educational needs of the present.

Surrounding the new president as he was formally inaugurated were also Secretary Daniels, a trustee for many years of the University, and three former presidents, Dr. E. T. Alderman, Dr. George T. Winston and Dr. Francis P. Venable.

CABLE METHOD TO BE REVOLUTIONIZED FOR THIS COUNTRY

Telegraph and Telephone Communication Also to Undergo Great Change.

Washington, April 27.—Telephone, telegraph and cable communication methods may be revolutionized as a result of experiments conducted by the army signal corps and described today before the National Academy of Scientists by Major-General Squier, chief of the corps.

Explaining how the army had obtained well nigh perfect results both in telegraphing and telephoning over wires laid in the water and on and under the ground, General Squier declared that the expensive heavy insulated land and submarine cables now in use would be replaced by single bare wires over which a number of telephone or telegraph messages would be sent at the same time.

General Squier told the scientists that both telegraph and telephone communication were established recently between Fort Washington, Maryland, and Fort Hunt, Virginia, distant three-quarters of a mile, on opposite sides of the Potomac river, by the use of a bare phosphor bronze wire laid in the river to connect the two stations.

Similar communication was established between two stations at the signal corps laboratory at Camp Alfred Vail, N. J. by using bare copper wire buried about eight inches in the earth and connecting the two stations, about three quarters of a mile apart.

As ocean telegraphy in its present form has reached a limit and submarine telephony is practically impossible, General Squier said, the hope for improvement lies in the adoption of bare wires laid in the water, using high frequency currents, and in the study of the necessary changes.

M'KEAN DECLARES SIMS STATEMENTS ARE FULLY ABSURD

Charge That Delay of Navy Prolonged Hostilities Declared Unreasonable. NAVAL OFFICER UNABLE TO UNDERSTAND REASONS Says He Could Understand Charge If Made by Patient of Insane Asylum

Washington, April 27.—Sharp criticism of Rear Admiral Sims' voice today before the Senate Naval investigating committee by Rear Admiral J. S. McKean, former assistant chief of naval operations, resulted in a tilt between Chairman Hale and Senator Trammel, Democrat, Florida, when Admiral McKean was reprimanded by Senator Hale for indulging in "personalities."

The officer declared he was only following a precedent set by Admiral Sims in his testimony, while Senator Trammel remarked that the chairman's objection to personalities had not run against Admiral Sims' "snappy comments."

Admiral McKean, whose appearance followed completion of cross examination of Captain W. V. Pratt, who had been on the stand several days, insisted that he was not seeking to defend Secretary Daniels or to "damn Sims" in what he said.

Admiral Sims' charge that delays on the part of the Navy Department early in the war prolonged hostilities four months and cost 500,000 additional lives were "monstrous," Admiral McKean said, adding that if it had been made by a patient in the "government insane asylum" it could be understood, but that coming from "a rear admiral on the active list, the head of the naval war college, it was an insult to every officer and man in the navy, or who served in the navy during the war."

"It has been or will be entirely disapproved," he declared.

The charge that the department had no plans for war, also was unfounded, the officer said. He added that one plan in particular had been in existence four years before the war and was corrected up to the time the United States joined the allies and constantly changed as the situation altered during the war. The plan was not perfect he said, because of new elements injected into the war by the German submarine campaign.

Captain Pratt, in answer to Senator Trammel, who sought to show that Admiral Sims' letter to Secretary Daniels entitled "Some Naval Lessons of the World War" was in reality a sweeping criticism of Secretary Daniels and naval officers generally, said he had no reason to doubt Admiral Sims' declaration it was not intended as a personal criticism. He could not avoid the impression, however, he added that Sims was criticizing the chief of naval operations, whether he intended to or not.

"I cannot say what was in Sims' mind," Captain Pratt said. "He is some times impulsive and was exceedingly so when he said the navy was responsible for the great losses on the war."

Secretary Daniels was not Admiral Sims' target, the officer declared, adding he knew of no specific instance where Mr. Daniels interfered with Sims.

FIGURES SHOW FARMERS ARE BUYING TRUCKS

Reserve forces that can be concentrated when the time is "just right" have always been a necessity on the farm, but the farmer's difficulties in this connection are augmented today by high labor costs, and this fact is proving a powerful argument for the motor truck on the farm, according to advocates of motor transport.

They point to a preliminary survey of the ownership and use of motor trucks by farmers, undertaken by the Bureau of Crop Estimates, Department of Agriculture, which shows that 50,000 farmers in the United States own motor trucks which they

WEDNESDAY, APR. 28, 1920

American gamblers employed in Mexico City have gone on a strike, according to late reports from that district. It's a pity the boys can't get far enough from home to forget the strike fever.

If the senate doesn't hurry and investigate the newsprint shortage the papers of the country won't be able to tell the people about the investigation of strikes and other disturbances. That would be bad certainly, for who wants anything to happen and then not be able to get full particulars about it.

Illegal organization of coal companies, as recently presented by the supreme court, is nothing out of the ordinary although it is surprising that apprehension was effected so easily. Probably when the court gets through with the cases prices of fuel will decline, and in that event, there will be just cause for surprise.

After many investigations in the high price situation in this country there is little cause to believe that profiteering continues. Still we'll feel much better when prices come down another notch or two and will readily believe that labored attempts of exasperation on the part of the merchants are really true.

Champ Clark has announced his willingness to accept the Democratic nomination for the presidency although he declares not a finger will be lifted to get the nomination. It's astonishing how timid some politicians become all at once, particularly when they have the support of a majority of the women, but we guess under such conditions one can be confident of victory and still pretend to be disinterested.

Each government represented at the recent session of the supreme council in Italy appears to be satisfied with final outcome of the conference, and particularly the disposition of questions pertaining to Germany and Armenia. Of the latter country, however, nothing definite was brought about with the exception of requesting the United States to become its mandatory power. The matter is under consideration of this government now, so when a decision is rendered, it can safely be said that the council's meeting has been a decided success.

The senate has seen fit to double the house Rivers and Harbors appropriation, and as it now stands $24,000,000 will go in this direction. It is hardly probable the action will meet with approval in many parts of the country, for the first appropriation was inadequate to carry on the work, and the last, although involving an enormous amount of money, is comparatively small when considering the amount of work to be done. Congressman Small has diligently advocated an increase in expenditures, and now that it has been granted, it is safe to say people will voice their gratefulness for his splendid endeavors in their behalf.

THE PAPER SHORTAGE.

It is pleasing to note that congress has decided to conduct a senatorial investigation of the newsprint situation in this country, for right at this time publishers in virtually every vicinity are having a hard time to make ends meet, and particularly that end where paper is concerned. Prices have been advancing with appalling regularity for the past several months, shortages in supplies have occurred, and to make conditions more serious, no one, not even the manufacturer and supply houses, appear to know the reason for the unprecedented state of affairs. In many districts papers have been forced to reduce their circulations, reject advertising, go to enormous expenses to get a small shipment of paper, and still fail to get the slightest consolation of any early relief. Newsprint we used to buy for three cents a pound is selling at the rate of 13 to 17 cents per pound with every indication of going higher. Is it any wonder that an investigation should be asked for and is it not advisable that many unnecessary sources of consumption should be curtailed in order to give the newspapers ample supply so that every intelligent community can still have the privilege of keeping well informed along lines of public interest. Something must be done, and if the senate is not able to do it, then, hundreds of small papers will be forced to suspend publication until extravagant use of paper is sufficiently discouraged to justify continued publication.

House rent profiteering is probably one of the most detestable features connected with abnormal conditions throughout the country, and sorry to say, Greenville is beginning to experience the practice to no little extent. Until lately rents have been moderately within proper bounds of the average working man, but avarice on the part of many residence owners and rental agencies has caused the situation to become slightly accentuated and deserving of denunciation from every source interested in community welfare and realizing what a difficult time the average man is having in combating the high cost of living. Legitimate profits are to be admired in every branch of business but when they are given an impetus upwards simply through an irresistible desire of extortion they should be contended on every hand. It is to be regretted that such conditions should arise, but it is hoped by proper discouragement a change will be noticeable in the near future.

People are getting anxious to have some news pertaining to the organization of the proposed ball club in this city, so it is hoped that promoters will get to work and furnish all information possible along this line. It is understood in many centers that the season will open sometime in July, but facts have been so indefinite that everyone is at a complete loss regarding true issues of the organization. Good games for the hot summer months will do much toward breaking usual monotony of the year, and it is hoped the boys will get down to business and perfect organization plans.

Senator Lodge's opinions concerning President Wilson appear to have little weight with political leaders in foreign countries, and this must make the loquacious gentleman of peace treaty fame feel mighty badly. In fact, settlement of the Adriatic situation, as the president advised, is sufficient evidence of the high esteem in which he is regarded and should be unusual food for thought for Mr. Lodge when he begins to think clearly and soberly concerning matters of international importance.

If tobacco prices hold their own the approaching season Pitt county planters won't do much worrying about the high cost of living, although like other folks, they would be glad to see prices of necessities take a tumble downward. High prices for bright leaf are of great consolation, but they would be more gratifying if labor conditions were better and other things decidedly more normal. The coming season, however, promises to be all that could be desired and there is little doubt that prices will continue to hold their own regardless of radical changes of the world market.

SCOTT-JACKSON.

Popular Couple Weds in Episcopal Church.

St. Paul's Episcopal church was the scene of a beautiful wedding this morning when Miss Annie Nelson Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Jackson, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Paul Scott, of Kinston. The church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, ferns and tapers. Mrs. S. T. White president at the organ, and while friends were gathering, rendered a musical program. Prior to the entrance of the bridal party Miss Gaynelle Heath, of Kinston, sweetly sang "I love you Truly." To the strains of Mendelssohn the bridal party entered in the following order: First, the ushers, Messrs. Henry Clay Edwards and Ferrall Jackson. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Sallie Jackson. She wore a dress of brown taffeta with large brown maline hat and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. N. W. Jackson, who gave her in marriage. She wore a going-away suit of blue tricotine with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lillies. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Albert Scott. Rev. C. H. Bascom the bride's pastor performed the ceremony using the impressive ring ceremony. Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for a nextended bridal tour of northern cities and after their return will be at home in Kinston.

Miss Jackson is one of Greenville's attractive and talented young ladies. She has made her home here since her childhood and possesses a number of friends.

Mr. Scott is a young man of sterling character. He is a native of Kinston and numbers his friends by the score. During the world war he served his country as a member of the U. S. Navy. They were the recipients of a large number of handsome and useful presents.

The out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott and children, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott, Misses Annie Lee Scott, Ruth Simmons, Irene Fort, Lorey Jane Skinner, Elizabeth Skinner, Temple Sutton and Gaynelle Heath, of Kinston, Misses Pattie and Sarah Nixon, of Edenton, Mrs. C. S. Dixon, of Raleigh, N. C., and Mrs. Annie Nelson, of Vanceboro.

MRS. M. L. TURNAGE ENTERTAINS

Complimentary to the Scott-Jackson Bridal Party.

Last evening at her home on Eighth street, Mrs. M. L. Turnage entertained complimentary to the Scott-Jackson bridal party and the out of town guests. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers. The parlor carried out the color scheme of rose, the library, yellow and white and the dining room green and white. Upon the arrival the guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Turnage, and served punch by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bryan. After a few minutes of conversation an interesting contest, "advice to the bride and groom from the experienced and inexperienced," was engaged in. After each paper was finished they were bound together and presented to the bride and groom. The wedding cake was arranged in the dining room, and much merriment was caused by the cutting of it. Mr. David Turnage cut the ring, the thimble fell to Miss Nina Harris and Miss Annie Lee Scott, of Kinston cut the dime. The dining room was especially beautiful with its decorations of green and white, cut flowers and shaded lights. A large ring decorated with flowers and ribbons, was suspended from the chandelier. While the guests were in this room an Before departing Mrs. Turnage presented the bride and groom with a miniature bride and groom.

It was one of most delightful parties of the season, and enjoyed by all present.

GET YOUR TRASH TOGETHER

The various organizations of Greenville put forth an effort to have the city Clean Up Week two weeks ago. Due to the rain and wind it was absolutely impossible to accomplish anything. A greater Clean Up Campaign is going to be waged from May the third to the eighth. At this time Capt. Fuchs of the United States Health Service will begin to wage his campaign against the malaria mosquito. The citizens must do their part in helping to rid the community of this dreadful pest. This is just one reason why we want to clean up the city. Our civic pride prompts us to have a desire that our town may be one of the most beautiful and healthful places in North Carolina. If trash and rubbish of all kinds is allowed to collect on the premises a condition exists which will breed disease and hurt the reputation of Greenville. Cleanliness may not be an absolute preventative of disease, but we know with certainty that dirt invites disease. Get your trash together and be ready to have it hauled away next week. Don't wait for your neighbor.

ural address, greetings were extended to the new president and to the University of North Carolina by President Alderman of the University of Virginia, representing all state universities, by President William L. Poteat of Wake Forest College, representing the college of North Carolina; by Superintendent of Public Instruction E. C. Brooks, representing the public school system of the state, and by W. N. Everett of the alumni. Dr. Archibald Henderson, of the faculty, and Emmerson White, of the student body.

Secretary Daniels will be toastmaster at a dinner tonight to the visiting delegates, at which further greetings to President Chase will be extended by Senator George H. Hoses, of New Hampshire, representing Dartmouth College, which President Chase formerly attended; Chancellor S. B. McCormick of Pittsburgh University; President Charles W. Dabney of the University of Arizona; President E. O. Lovett of Rice Institute; President H. L. Smith of Washington and Lee; President H. N. Snyder of Wofford College; President Emile McVea of Sweet Briar; Annie S. Young of Mount Holyoke; George Herber Locke of the University of Toronto; Dr. Charles H. Herty of the American Chemical Society; Dr. S. P. Capen of the American Council of Education; and R. D. More than a thousand persons, including all the visiting educational leaders, marched in the academic procession across the campus to Memorial Hall, where the inaugural exercises were held. Included in the procession were the students, faculty, alumni, and trustees of the University, the county and trustees of the University, the county and city school superintendents of the state, members of the legislature, justices of the state Supreme Court, delegates from colleges, universities, and societies and visiting college and university presidents.

President Chase, who is 7 years old;

has been connected with the University of North Carolina since 1910, as professor of psychology, acting dean of the college of liberal arts, and chairman of the faculty. He was elected President by the trustees in June, 1919 succeeding Edward Kidder Graham, who died of influenza in October, 1918. He was born in New England, received his A. B. degree from Dartmouth College in 1904, an A. M. in 1908 and a Ph. D. degree from Clark University in 1910. He had made many research studies in the psychology of children and in educational psychology, and the social welfare agencies of the University and of the state.

can any appreciable progress toward meeting Europe's needs be made.
Discussing the need for a fixed governmental policy of sanction and operation, the report said, there was no thought of suggesting that the government alter its policy of not increasing the $10,000,000,000 it already has advanced to European countries.

"Without in any way entering into the political aspects of the treaty of peace or the league of nations, the report says, "it is necessary in a discussion of the conditions influencing American investment in Europe to point out that the continued existence of a state of war has not tended to improve that confidence in conditions overseas which must always be the basis for forming credit judgments.

"A most immediate and important problem for this country," the report continues, "is how to extend further credit to foreign nations without bringing about added inflation at home. It is generally conceded that further inflation of our national credit structure must be checked if commodity prices are to decline or even to remain stationary. Advancing commodity prices would more than offset any gain to European purchasers through better exchange rates.

"What is really needed is that any foreign credits to be granted hereafter be based upon additions to our own capital as distinguished from additions to our own credit structure.

one of the clubs participating throughout the season.

Washington, Tarboro and Pinetops are ready for immediate settlement of question relating to final organization of the league, and Mr. D. J. Whichard, treasurer and secretary of the temporary organization here, is in receipt of letters from each place urging immediate and definite decision as to the city's intentions. The meeting tonight will disclose whether Greenville people are desirous of league ball this season, and it is absolutely necessary that business men attend the gathering and do everything possible to revive interest in final plans for organization.

It is absolutely imperative that immediate decision be rendered for forfeits must be placed, salary limits for players decided upon, in fact, there are many matters requiring attention before the season can open. This fact has caused other members of the league to expedite activities, and it is now up to Greenville baseball enthusiasts to decide tonight whether or not the town will be represented in the Eastern Carolina association. Every interested person should attend and encourage the league in every way possible.

the situation with a view of recommending "some way to get rid of this difficulty."

Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, declared the United States government should have purchased the present Cuban sugar crop. Owing to the high prices now being received on the island, he declared, a wave of extravagance prevails as high as 19 3-4 cents a pound being paid for raw Cuban sugar.

He advised senators to report cases of alleged profiteering to the attorney general, whom he said would bring prosecutions.
