WILSON ENDORSES PLATFORM ISSUES IN NOTE TO GLASS

Approves League Plank for Ratification Treaty in Virginia Platform. ALSO APPROVES PLANS FOR REVISING TAX LAW Declares Virginia Democrats Set Forth Attitude of Democratic Party.

Washington, May 28.—President Wilson's conception of the campaign issues of 1920 was elucidated today in a letter made public at the White House expressing the President's "full accord" with the sentiments contained in the platform recently adopted by the Virginia Democratic convention.

The League of Nations plank, which declared for ratifications of the Treaty of Versailles "without reservations which would impair its essential integrity" was particularly commended by the President. He also singled out for praise the platform's declarations on finance and reconstruction, which included a general proposal to revise tax laws and deplored agitation for "an indiscriminate bonus" for soldiers of the great war.

The letter was addressed to Senator Glass, of Virginia, who drafted the State's platform and its publication from the White House generally was regarded as forecasting what the President and his supporters would expect to be written into the party's National platform at San Francisco. The National platform was not mentioned directly by the President, though he wrote that the Virginia Democrats had set forth the attitude of the party on the League of Nations and other important issues.

The league plank occupies a large place in the Virginia platform, embracing a declaration for a "League of Nations" and praise for "the exceptional achievement at Paris involved in the adoption of a league and treaty so near akin to American ideals." The President is praised for "steadfastly standing for the covenant agreed to" and the Republican reservations and peace resolutions are condemned.

Some of the other features of the Virginia platform are:

A declaration for an efficient merchant marine, with sale to American citizens, for operation under the American flag of all merchant vessels acquired by the government during the war.

Condemnation of the Republican congress for "vain and extravagant investigations, costing two millions of dollars, revealing nothing beyond the incapacity of Republican politicians to cope with the gravest problems."

A declaration that neither labor nor capital should at any time "take action that will jeopardize the public welfare," and that strikes and lockouts should be supplanted by some method of amicable settlement.

Commendation of the administration for establishing the Federal reserve system, the farm loan system, "just tariff legislation," an income tax and a Department of Labor.

Criticism of congress for having failed to repeal "war legislation which hampers business."

In the evening 8:30 the sermon before the Young Women's Christian Association will be preached by Rev. R. A. Lapsley, Jr., pastor of the Presbyterian church of Tarboro.

After a short business meeting of the Legion the regular exercises will begin. The speaker for the day will be Colonel Rodman, of Washington, N. GOMPERS DEBATES STRIKE QUESTIONS WITH HENRY ALLEN

Labor Leader Meets Governor Allen Before Crowd at Carnegie Hall.

NEW COURT OF KANSAS BRINGS ISSUE TO CRISIS

Kansas Official Urges Protection of Industries in All Sections.

New York, May 29.—The relations of capital and labor; the right to strike and its legitimacy as regards the effect on the public; the Kansas Industrial court law and its significance to the future of the workingman, were intertwined in a remarkable debate tonight in Carnegie Hall between Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas.

Governor Allen's main contention was that government has the right to protect the public against strikes when its welfare is imperiled while Mr. Gompers held to the argument that no law can prevent a man from stopping work if by doing so he may benefit himself and family. Gompers labeled the Kansas Industrial court law the "Un-American slave law," and Governor Allen declared he had taken away from Gompers his divine right to order a man to quit work.

The oratory of the debaters was punctuated with frequent cheers and yells by adherents of each side and occasional questions shouted from the floor and the balconies.

In support of the right to strike Gompers declared that the coal miners strike took boys out of the mine, that the textile workers strike brought children out of the mills and put them in the school room while the strikes in the needles trades broke up the sweatshops when laws had failed to order a man to quit work. SEASON OF TERROR REPORTED IN MANY PARTS MANCHURIA

Japanese Said to be Carrying Things With High Hand in Many Sections.

Peking, May 29.—Reports reaching here indicate that the Japanese are carrying things with a high hand in Manchuria now that the other Allied troops are virtually out of the country. The Peking and Tientsin Times has received from its correspondents reports which it presents under the heading "Reign of Terror in Manchuria." It says that at Jnanpo, two Russian workmen who made some disparaging remarks about the Japanese Emperor in talking to Japanese soldiers in the Russian railway hospital were seized by Japanese soldiers and "summarily shot on the spot." At Harbin, the paper says, Japanese sentries stationed on a bridge threw one Russian off the bridge breaking his collar bone and stabbed another in the face with a bayonet when the Russians insisted upon crossing the bridge.

The Japanese are reported by the newspaper to have taken full possession of Hailar and arrested there 11 Russian workers and handed them over to the representative of General Semenov and the Times adds that by this time "no doubt they have been shot by Baron Unger Steinberg."

The Japanese are declared to have brought to Hailar and armed 500 Semenov troops who are reported to be actively assisting the Japanese and helping to terrorize the local population. The Times predicts that similar incidents are likely to increase as the Japanese hold of the Russian Far East becomes more intense and states that the Japanese garrison at Harbin is to be increased by 1,000 more men.

ORTHOPEDIC HOME PLANS BIG OPENING IN GASTONIA SOON

Dignitaries of Pythian and Masonic Lodges to Attend Laying Cornerstone

GOVERNOR BICKETT WILL BE MASTER CEREMONIES

Senator Harding, of Greenville, is a Trustee of New Institution.

Gastonia, May 29.—(Special).—Marked by impressive ceremony with the high dignitaries of the Masonic and Pythian fraternities in charge, and believed that the laying of the cornerstone of the North Carolina Orthopedic Hospital at Gastonia on Tuesday, June 8th, will prove a notable event in the State. Plans are practically complete. Governor Thomas W. Bickett will be in charge as master of ceremonies. The impressive ritualistic work of Masonary will mark the actual laying of the cornerstone.

As yet will North Carolina take her place as one of the few states making provision for proper orthopedic treatment, and at the same time education for the little crippled children of the state who are of sound mind. Provision is already made for all others who are unfortunate but for these thousands of little cripples, some of whom are in practically every county in this great state, there is no institution planned for the making of them into good self supporting citizens. The new hospital fills the need.

The hospital is being built on a beautiful site of 28 1/2 acres about three miles east of Gastonia on the New Hope road, an asphalt paved highway. From the lofty eminence spreads before the eye one of those wonderful panoramas of Piedmont Carolina, the hills and plains, being dotted with the (Continued on page six.)

UNUSUAL PROGRAM OUTLINED FOR CITY CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

Final Arrangements for Event Completed by Guarantors Yesterday.

The Chautauqua guarantors met yesterday evening at the chamber of commerce to complete arrangements for the sale of season tickets which will begin next Monday. The plan of sale which proved so successful last year will be followed again this year. The city has been divided into districts and a committee of guarantors will personally canvass the district assigned to it. Tickets will also be on sale at the drug stores and banks.

All agree that the Chautauqua offers to Greenville this year an unusually strong and well balanced program and that a week of real enjoyment is before us. The Chautauqua tent will be located at the rear of the postoffice, the same location as last year.

The Chautauqua management has arranged to have two hundred more chairs added to the Greenville equipment and will direct the crew to secure more seats if necessary so that those attending may be assured seats.

The 1920 Greenville Chautauqua promises to be the best yet. It will pay you to buy a season ticket if you can go to but four of the twelve programs. Be sure and get yours next week. The Chautauqua Courier, containing full announcements of the program will be left at your home this afternoon.

LADIES OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO SERVE REFRESHMENTS

The ladies of the Christian church will serve refreshments at the Amuzu Park Monday afternoon.

COUNTY OFFICIALS BRING IN ANOTHER MONKEY RUM STILL

Deputy Corbett Captures Still in Chicod Township Yesterday Evening.

OFFICERS MAKING GREAT EFFORT TO STOP TRAFFIC

Noticeable Reduction in Traffic Reported from Many Territories.

Deputy Sheriff Corbett yesterday evening captured a monkey rum still in Chicod township, near Cox's Mill, and while no whiskey was taken with the outfit, it is believed the capture will have a tendency of materially reducing the traffic in that section. The still was of the usual type employed in the manufacture of illicit whiskey throughout this section of the country and showed signs of recent operation at the location of its capture and also in other nearby places.

The still's capture resulted from information reaching the officer at a recent date, and although this divulged the location of the still nothing was said of those connected with its operation, and it is not expected that any arrest will follow. The still was situated in the woods in a short distance from Cox's Mill and was so carefully concealed in a clearing of a dense growth of underbrush that much difficulty was experienced in reaching it.

Sheriff Dudley and deputies are making every effort possible to bring about the apprehension of distillers in this section of the country and while much good work has already been accomplished the traffic continues uninterrupted in some localities, although it is conducted in a surreptitious and stealthy manner. The officers have almost completely eliminated the manufacture of the section's favorite (Continued on page six.)

GERMANS FAIL TO STAMP CULTURE IN TURKISH SECTIONS

English Language Now Being Spoken Instead of the German lingo.

Constantinople, May 29.—The Germans have failed in their effort to stamp their culture upon the Turk and, instead, the English language is beginning to rank next to French in the commercial life of the Levant.

In the war period German language schools were opened throughout Constantinople in which German officers were required to teach and German papers were circulated by all possible means. But the results were almost nil. Most of the schools were free and failed to attract better classes, and French was too strongly entrenched as the language of trade and social intercourse to be displaced.

Since the armistice, Italians have been working industriously to popularize their language and literature. Italian officers are now teaching in schools as the Germans did. But their schools are well attended only in the poorer parts of the city.

Turkish is but little used in important commercial transactions in Constantinople as nearly all business men of whatever nationality speak French. The English who have been in business in Turkey for years generally transact their business in French.

Since the war, however, there has been a great influx of American traders who know only English and the steady stream of American ships coming to Constantinople with English speaking crews, as well as American Red Cross workers and American English relief workers of various sorts has created a greater demand for the English language.

CITY HIGH SCHOOL TO BEGIN CLOSING EXERCISES SUNDAY

Rev. S. K. Phillips Will Deliver Commencement Sermon Sunday Night.

WORK THIS YEAR HAS BEEN REAL EFFECTIVE

Graduating Class Consists on Majority of Young Women This Session.

Closing exercises of the Greenville high school will begin tomorrow evening at the school auditorium with the annual commencement sermon by Rev. S. K. Phillips, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city. The sermon will be preceded by the usual program of such occasions and will be followed by the chorus of DeKoven's "Recessional," sung by the high school glee club.

The beginning of the exercises undoubtedly marks the termination of one of the most eventful sessions in the history of city schools, for the year has witnessed gradual developments in various branches of educational work that will mean much to the future success of the institution. The work of the faculty this year has been exceptionally diligent and inspirational to those who have watched attentively constant changes for the betterment of school life, and this fact has brought about a greater desire for co-operation among parents of children attending the school. All branches of high school work have received more direct attention from the faculty and plans for bringing this work to the highest state of consummation probably has been accountable for the appreciation in evidence among young men and women graduating this year.

Superintendent Swanson has from time to time during the session brought members of the school board face to face with the serious problems confronting schools in practically every section of the country today, and his efforts have been featured by his achievement of determination that his scholars must have been gratifying indeed to those who have noted developments from time to time. The co-operative spirit of the faculty has been consistent and provocative of results throughout the year, and this fact too has meant much to final success attending the closing exercises.

The following young men and women will compose the graduating class this year:

Heleen Critcher, Ruby Evans, Margaret Fleming, Alice Montero Fulford, Mary Louise Harding, Ada James, Lillian Forbes Joyner, Mary Louise Langley, Almeta Mallison, Emma Elizabeth Mallison, Margaret Louise Moore, Martha Emily More, Nannie Argent Quinley, Josephine Blackwell Skinner, Patti Early Smith, Thelma Vesta Shambart, Susie Maria Turner, Maggie Whichard, McGregor Ernul Brown, James Thomas Corey, Dewey Brooks, Joseph Reid Gaskins, Charles Watkins Lewis, Joseph Edward Parkerson, William Sherrod Tyson, William H. White.

REV. PHILLIPS RETURNED FROM CHARLOTTE

Rev. S. K. Phillips has returned from the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. It was held in the city of Charlotte, and was one of the most important and constructive assemblies which this denomination has ever convened. Many important subjects were up for consideration and the assembly in nearly every case disposed of them, sending very few down to the Presbyteries for further action. One of the most significant acts was the permanent establishment of the Training School for Lay Workers at Richmond, and the founding of a Chair of Religious Education in memory of the father of Rev. S. K. Phillips, in whose mind and heart this Training School was born. $50,000 was set aside to endow this Chair, and the local Pastor was elected a Trustee of the Institution.

Mary Pickford's Greatest Play

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"

This comedy-drama of American rural life is dear to every American in whom the spirit of childhood lives. Nearly everyone has read Kate Douglas Wiggin's charming story or seen the screen version starring Mary Pickford as Rebecca.

For this reason it will be welcome news that the coming Chautauqua will present this play in the usual "Chautauqua style." Special scenery will be carried and an effective handling of all parts is assured when it is known that this play will be given by "The Chautauqua Players." Playing leading parts will be seen your friends of last year, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Regan. Mr. Regan will be recalled as the "quilt so" deacon in "Polly of the Circus," and his wife as "Mandy" in the same play.

The entire cast has been chosen and rehearsed by Miss Elizabeth Oliver, instructor of Public Speaking at Swarthmore College, and herself an old friend of Chautauqua audiences when she was playing leading roles in "The Man from Home" and "The Fortune Hunter."

Keep the fifth night—"Rebecca" night—in view as one you can't afford to miss.

The Swarthmore Chautauqua are especially pleased to present this comedy-drama. This is the first year it has been available outside the big metropolitan theatres, where it enjoyed immense popularity. Incidentally they are paying the largest royalty for this play that they have ever paid.

REPORT CONDEMNS RECENT ACTIVITIES OF INVESTIGATORS

The Right of Free Speech Must be Carefully Guarded, Statement Says.

Washington, May 27.—Charges that the Department of Justice had committed "continual illegal acts" in connection with its recent campaign against radical activities are contained in a report by a special committee of lawyers made public here tonight by Judson King, executive secretary of the National Popular Government League. Mr. King said the committee had prepared its report under the auspices of the league and its conclusions and exhibits, contained in a pamphlet now being distributed by the league throughout the country.

Men who composed the committee were B. G. Brown, Memphis, Tenn., and Felix Frankfurter, Cambridge, Zachariah Chafee, Jr., Roscoe Pound, Mass., Ernest Freund, Chicago; Swinburne Hale, New York; F. F. Kane, Philadelphia; Alfred S. Niles, Baltimore; Jackson H. Ralston, Washington; D. D. Wallerstein, Philadelphia; Frank P. Walsh, New York, and Tyrell Williams, St. Louis.

"We make no argument in favor of any radical doctrine as such, whether Socialist, Communist or Anarchist," the report says. "No one of us belongs to any of these schools of thought."

"We are concerned solely with bringing to the attention of the American people the utterly illegal acts which have been committed by those charged with the highest duty of enforcing the laws—acts which have caused widespread suffering and unrest, have struck at the foundation of American free institutions and have brought the name of our country into disrepute."

The office of the Attorney General, "under guise of a campaign for suppression of radical activities," the report says, "acting by its local agents throughout the country and giving express instructions from Washington, has committed continual illegal acts. Wholesale arrests both of aliens and citizens have been made without warrant or any process of law; men and women have been jailed and held incommunicado without access of friends or counsel; homes have been entered without search warrants and property seized and removed; other property has been wantonly destroyed; workmen and working women suspected of radical views have been shamefully abused and maltreated. Agents of the Department of Justice have been introduced into radical organizations for the purpose of informing upon their members or inciting them to activities; these agents have been instructed from Washington to arrange matters upon certain dates for the express object of facilitating wholesale raids and arrests."

"In support of these illegal acts and to create sentiment in its favor the Department of Justice has also constituted itself a propaganda bureau and has sent to newspapers and magazines of the country quantities of material designed to excite public opinion against radicals, all at the expense of the government and outside the scope of the Attorney General's duties."

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

We the undersigned commissioners announce our candidacy for re-election to the office of county commissioners, subject to the Democratic primary.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democratic voters of the Fifth Judicial District:

I have entered the Primary for the office of Judge in this District.

I have practiced law for the past 18 years, during which time I have assisted in the prosecution of the Federal docket for about 7 years. Since entering my name for the judgeship I have resigned the office of Assistant U. S. attorney.

Before beginning the practice of the law I had fourteen years experience in business, beginning life as bank book-keeper at the age of 16 years.

I shall not make a canvass of the district for the Judgeship. My conception of the duties and responsibilities of the high office of Judge is such that in my view a canvass, and the methods of the political campaign, usual and perfectly proper for other offices—purely political, tend to cheapen and lower its tone. I would rather lose the nomination and never hold the office than lower it a hair's breadth from the high plane of honor and dignity on which our fathers have played and kept it in North Carolina.

I shall appreciate the support of all democrats in the district; and if by their suffrages I should be elevated to the Superior Court bench, I assure them that its high traditions shall be upheld, and in the administration of the office justice shall be meted out to all men alike.

This April 28th, 1920.

PALMER APPROVES FEDERAL CONTROL FOR COMMODITIES

Committee of Lawyers Condemns Campaign of Department of Justice.

ILLEGAL MEASURES USED INSECURING EVIDENCE

Procedure in Many Instances Not in Accordance With Legislation.

Washington, May 27.—Flat opposition to government ownership or railroads, endorsement of federal control of manufacture and distribution of "necessary commodities" and elimination of excess taxes in favor of higher taxes on incomes from investments, characterized the reply of Attorney-General Palmer to the recent questionnaire submitted to Presidential candidates and others by the national board of farm organizations.

Dealing specifically with the question of the five great meat packers, Mr. Palmer said the recent federal court decree, entered after long negotiations between packers and government, was the longest step yet taken toward their control.

He explained the effect of the decree at length and added:

"I do not want to appear brutal in using the term, but this decree makes butchers of these five great packers, and nothing else. They are no longer a serious menace to the food table of America by control of substitutes for meat.

TIMBER INTERESTS OF STATE SHOWING GREATER ACTIVITY

Perpetuation of Forests Receiving Greater Attention Everywhere.

Raleigh, May 28.—At last some of the users of timber are taking an active and constructive interest in the perpetuation of the timber supply. For many years some owners of standing timber in various parts of the country have been trying to prevent forest fires which destroy such property as has a present market value, but young growth has to a large extent been neglected and reforestation has scarcely been thought of.

In North Carolina for example the reported damage to young growth alone last year was over half a million dollars, which the total damage from forest fires was given as one and a quarter million dollars. Yet there is no strong or concerted movement on the part either of the timber owners or users in this state to prevent this annual loss and thus help to secure a perpetuation of the timber supply. Attention has been drawn very forcibly to the alarming shortage of timber suitable for paper and pulp and especially for newsprint. Quite recently we have been assured, however, from some unknown and rather questionable source, that the whole problem of a future supply will be solved by the Alaskan forests, the effect being to discount any plans for the conservation of our own domestic supply.

The American Paper and Pulp Association, made up of the leading manufacturers of paper in the United States, is not however to be misled by this idea. It is of the opinion that the American people themselves must practice conservation and it has boldly and wisely taken the lead among American industries.

OPENS NEW FIELD STATIONS.

In furtherance of its policy to be of all possible assistance to growers and shippers of seasonable fruits and vegetables, the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture on June 1 will have six additional field stations in operation for the gathering and dissemination of marketing information on potatoes, tomatoes, cantaloupes, watermelons and peaches, during the shipping season.

These stations will be located at Brawley, Calif.; Crystal Springs, Miss.; Ocala, Fla.; Washington, N. C.; Charleston, S. C.; and Ft. Valley, Ga. Market information relative to f. o. b. prices and market conditions, quality conditions of the stock moving to market, and other necessary facts on marketing seasonable fruits and vegetables will be collected and distributed at these points. Growers, shippers and all others interested may secure this information upon application at these new field stations or at the permanent branch offices of the Bureau of Market.

VOTE FOR OVERMAN AND SMALL.

A week from today, on June 5th, the people of every precinct in North Carolina are called to their respective voting places to express by their ballots their choice for nominees for the various offices to be voted for in the November election. While it is every man's privilege to aspire to hold office if he wants to, there are some seeking support in the coming primary, who from every reasonable viewpoint it would be folly to vote for.

About as sorry a day's work as North Carolina could do would be to supplant United States Senator Lee S. Overman with any man who seeks his place. Senator Overman has made a record in the senate that is attained by few men. He has been one of President Wilson's most ardent supporters through his trying administration, and during his time in the senate has been the originator of numerous valuable measures for the benefit of the nation. By all means Senator Overman should be kept in his place, and the people should vote for him next Saturday.

And it would be no less a stupendous blunder on the part of the voters of the first congressional district if they should take Hon. John H. Small out of congress. John Small has represented this district for twenty years, and it goes without saying that the people have never had a more faithful representative in congress. He has prestige and influence that have been reached through years of close study and application to matters pertaining to the interests of the people of his district and of the entire nation. Time and again has it been said of him that he is "a congressman strictly on his job," and he is in position to render valuable service. Others have a right to want his place, but just because they say Mr. Small has had the place long enough and ought to be put out, is no reason whatever why the people should take that view of it. Mr. Small is too valuable a congressman to put out, and should have the support of every voter in the primary.

TO PROVIDE FOR AUSTRIA.

That the Austrian government is putting forth great efforts to save the youngest is shown in a report on the activities of the Children's Bureau of Lower Austria just received by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor. In 1919, 30,000 children in the seven provinces comprising Lower Austria were under the protection of the Bureau. It had 81 public guardians for children worn out of wedlock, 70 women welfare workers, 45 assistant welfare workers, and 2,500 volunteers caring for orphans. It supported 120 infant welfare centers under medical supervision in 1919, and is organizing 33 new ones.

The work of the Austrian Children's Bureau is not confined to infants. It has under supervision all children born out of wedlock within the last 4 years, and is planning to extend permanent supervision over all children in need of it, and to provide health centers for older children as well as for babies. The Bureau works in close co-operation with private agencies, and even assists in the formation of new private organizations for child welfare work.

In Vienna the Children's Bureau is especially well organized. It consists of 6 divisions, concerned with legal work, care of mothers and children, welfare work with school children, vocational guidance, physical training, and assistance in kind. The division of care of mothers and children is conducted by a physician and a staff trained in welfare work. It supervises all welfare stations in the city, has charge of the up-bringing of children in institutions, and is responsible for providing homes for children in need of immediate care.

This comprehensive work in Austria is a phase of the world-wide movement to extend public protection to maternity and childhood. Governmental responsibility is being aroused, nation by nation, to the necessity of providing instruction in hygiene and adequate medical and nursing care for all mothers and babies if a healthy generation is to be assured.

HONOR OF THE NATION WOULD RECEIVE STRAIN

Washington, May 27. — President Wilson vetoed the peace resolution today and informed congress he could not become a party to the peace program framed by Republican leaders of the Senate and House, because he considered it would put "an ineffaceable stain on the Nation's honor."

To establish technical peace by such a method, the President said in his veto message, would be to effect "a complete surrender of the rights of the United States, so far as Germany is concerned," and to relinquish all the high purposes which led the Nation into war and which were embodied in the rejected treaty of Versailles.

The President's act apparently brought to another and final deadlock the efforts of the present administration and congress to agree on a peace settlement. Republican leaders conceded they had no chance to pass the resolution over the Executive's veto, though an attempt will be made in the House tomorrow, and on both sides it was predicted that the issues of the treaty controversy would have to be fought out in the political campaign, with Democrats and Republicans blaming each other for the failure to consummate a state of peace.

In his message the President did not indicate whether he might again submit the treaty to the Senate for ratification, but he said the resolution raised again the question of whether the United States cared to draw apart from the rest of the world or to join with other nations in attaining the ends to which the treaty was framed.

The veto had been expected by the Republican leaders and they made plans to close the incident promptly by a record veto on re-passage of the resolution. The message went first to the House, where its reading was greeted with cheers by Democrats and derision by Republicans. Without discussion it was agreed to take a veto at noon tomorrow.

The general prediction on the Republican side was that the resolution would fall short by only a few votes of the two-thirds necessary to re-pass it. In the Senate, however, it was conceded that the prospect was altogether hopeless, the Democrats standing almost solidly with the President.

For the most part, Senate and House leaders refrained from comment on the President's action. The general tenor of the talk on the Republican side, however, was that the Executive and not congress now must bear the responsibility if the Nation continued technically at war, while among the Democrats, it was reiterated that the Nation still would hold the Republican Senate to account for its failure.

Belgian Veterans Band On Tour

Composer of "Birth of a Nation" Music is Director

Martial music by veteran soldiers! One's blood fairly tingles in anticipation. Some way the martial spirit in music thrills and sways an audience as little else does.

Martial music by a Belgian Veterans' Band! One thinks of heroic Belgium blocking Germany's road to the sudden victory she had planned; of Belgium holding vast armies at bay while the allies could leap to arms; of Belgium ravaged, burned, devastated, suffering as few nations have suffered; of the soul of Belgium too honorable to yield, willing to endure martyrdom rather than compromise with militarism and oppression. And in the martial music of this band there is that unconquerable, uncompromising soul of Belgium surging in heroic devotion, crashing in sublime protest, sobbing in heartbreaking pathos, and at last singing its psalm of triumph.

Emile Michaux, the talented director, is, like most of his men, a veteran of the Royal Belgian Army, of one of whose bands he was a member. He has more than sixty meritorious musical compositions to his credit, a few of which will be played at Chautauqua. American audiences will be interested in the fact that he composed the distinctive and remarkably effective musical accompaniment for the famous "Birth of a Nation" movie film.

Directed by this musical genius, the Belgian Veterans' Band will render not only the greatest musical offering of the week, but also the most elaborate musical treat ever presented to Chautauqua patrons. The program will not be devoted entirely, nor perhaps principally to martial music, but will include selections of all kinds ranging from the popular to the classic. There will be numerous special features, including a cornet solo by M. Michaux, horn duets, quartets, and sextets, beside the great airs sung by Miss Florence Withrow, the American soprano whom M. Michaux has selected and coached especially for this tour.

The Third Day is Band Day—Belgian Veterans' Band Day. Don't forget it.

The exact nature of the program is usually not made public beforehand, but there are always some things that cannot be kept secret. This year one special feature will be the dresses of the young ladies. They are to wear lovely light colored organdie dresses and hats which they have made themselves in the sewing department. Every girl in the class has also made her graduation dress.

Tuesday is Alumnae Day. The business meeting will be at 10 o'clock. In the evening at 8 o'clock the Alumnae dinner will be given in the dining hall of the school.

The final exercises will be on Wednesday morning. At 10 o'clock the annual address will be delivered by Dr. H. W. Chase, president of the University of North Carolina.

GOMPERS DEBATES STRIKE QUESTIONS WITH HENRY ALLEN

do so. Governor Allen's industrial commandment was "You shall not conspire to shut down the industry necessary to the welfare of the people."

"When the general public says we have had enough of this he said, 'it's over.'"

"Who controls the divine right to quit work?" Allen asked. He was answered with cheers and boos.

The debate called for no decision, the committees in charge having purposely divided the house equally between supporters of each speaker.

Mr. Gompers, in championing labor's privilege to strike, electrified his partisans when he said with much emotion that the working man who would not try to benefit his condition was "a poltroon to himself and society."

Governor Allen scored a point with his friends with the assertion if there is to be a government of justice, there can't be any part greater than the whole.

He alluded to the attitude of the American Federation of Labor in the approaching election towards unfriendly officeholders as a "movement to unloose the congress of the United States."

The Kansas court does not prosecute labor, Governor Allen said, but it protects labor against capital, capital against labor and the public against either or both.

A feature of the debate was Allen's efforts to get Gompers to answer this question:

"When a dispute between capital and labor brings on a strike affecting the production or distribution of the necessities of life, thus threatening the public peace and impairing the public health, has the public any rights in such a controversy or is it a private war between capital and labor?"
