COMMITTEE HOLDS STORMY SESSIONS OVER BIG PLANKS

Open Warfare Develops Over Prohibition and Other Important Planks.

BRYAN FORCES LOSE IN FIRST GREAT BATTLE

Sub-Committee Goes Into Session Behind Closed Doors for Real Work.

San Francisco, June 29.—Actual work on the Democratic platform was begun tonight by the sub-committee of nine after last minute suggestions from many sources had been heard at an all day public hearing marked by several stormy scenes.

The committee met behind closed doors. Just before it was called to order, Chairman Glass announced that nothing would be made public regarding sub-committee recommendations as to platform planks until the full committee had passed upon them. Special precaution to guard the sub-committee deliberations from interruptions were taken and it looked like an all-night session might be in prospect.

When the sub-committee met the most serious problems confronting the convention, including prohibition, the League of Nations and the Irish question, still were far from solution and it was apparent that some of these subjects, at least, would develop fights in the full committee and probably on the convention floor, regardless of what action the sub-committee might take.

With the sub-committee headed by Senator Glass of Virginia, and administration man, and holding a clear majority for many administration policies most of those holding views not in harmony with the White House decided not to ask for sub-committee consideration for their suggestions.

In the deliberations tonight the sub-committee had as a starter the Virginia platform written by Senator Wilson. It also had a mass of testimony collected at the day's public arguments, during which feeling on the prohibition and Irish question several times approached the boiling point.

At the conclusion of the hearings today the full platform committee adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, but members of the sub-committee generally predicted that despite the long night session they would be unable to report by that hour.

It was said that if a report was ready during the day the full committee might consider it at a night session tomorrow in the hope of having the platform ready for the convention itself Thursday.

A momentary defeat was administered the Bryan dry legions in the full platform committee when a preliminary battle for position on the speakers' list was decided in favor of the wets by a vote of 27 to 25. The general inclination, however, was to discount the significance of the vote, which was taken to decide which side should speak first.

In the skirmish both wets and dries argued that their opponents were trying to reopen the prohibition issue and therefore should present their case first. When the dries were forced to go ahead, Mr. Bryan took charge of the time allotted to that side, but divided all of it among other speakers representing the Anti-Saloon League, church associations and other prohibition organizations.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT AMUZU PARK TOMORROW

The Sunday school of Memorial Baptist church will have its annual picnic tomorrow, from 3:30 to 8 o'clock at Amuzu Park. The school and their guests will assemble at the church ready to leave for the park promptly at 3:30 o'clock. Friends who will furnish automobiles to carry the children are requested to send the cars to the church in ample time.

Mr. J. T. Ross, of Washington, was numbered among visitors here yesterday evening.

NOMINATING SPEECHES TO FEATURE SESSIONS OF CONVENTION TODAY

San Francisco, June 30.—Meeting more early than usual the National convention today swung into business of selecting a presidential nominee and entering upon a day of oratory and demonstration which marks the placing of candidates in formal nomination. All nominating speeches have been restricted to twenty minutes, second speeches five minutes and not more than three in number to each candidate. It is possible speeches will be made today clearing the way for presentation of platform tomorrow.

Secretary Colby during the night waged a fight in the platform of the sub-committee for light wine beer planks. He argued it as a political expedient and not necessarily as a personal view. The fact that Colby conferred with President Wilson before leaving Washington added significance to his stand. Some of the committee men are of the opinion that the Volstead act should be amended to make its enforcement less stringent. The discussion embraced a wide range of subjects, including the league of nations, but prohibition had the floor most of the time. The session adjourned after midnight without completing work to meet again at nine-thirty today.

No announcement was made by Chairman Glass.

The Boy Scouts will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the High School. Every Scout is urged to be present.

Mr. H. M. Jenkins, of Washington, spent Tuesday in Greenville, on business.

WAY OF OPPOSING JAPANESE WORKED OUT BY GOVERNOR

Chu Ying Kuang, Japanese Governor, Presents Plans for the Future.

Tsinan, Shantung Province, China, June 30.—While the Shantung problem remains unsolved and the Japanese occupation of areas Germany formerly controlled continues, a means to oppose the Japanese has been worked out along economic lines by Chu Ying-kuang, civil governor of the province.

Chu Ying-kuang, who has come to be regarded by foreigners of the Far East as one of China's greatest administrative figures, has launched the daring project of building within Shantung a great system of highways to be used by an automobile truck service in connecting all important centers. As a corollary, he plans to deepen and improve waterways so that these roads and streams will afford to Chinese of the province a transportation system that will place them on an equal footing with the Japanese who now control channels of communication.

Under the direction of T'and En-lland, a graduate of Purdue University who has been made director of the newly created Bureau of Roads and Waterways in Shantung, active surveying work in connection with the project has been started out of Tsinan and present plans contemplate the building of 1,000 miles of highways and the deepening of the Hsiao Ch'ing River. The purpose is to weave all important cities of the province into a unified transportation system.

Under existing conditions many of these cities, as for example the port of Chefoo, are hamstrung economically by the lack of adequate transportation facilities. The Chinese hopes the plan will break the backbone of Japan's economic domination in Shantung.

Governor Chu's proposed motor road system touches the sea at three points, Lung K'ou, Chefoo and Hai Yang and connects with the Tientsin and Pakow railroad at a point not yet determined. The whole road system is made up of seven trunk highways connected by 10 branch highways.

A scheme of financing to carry out the big project by which the funds to do the work will be supplied in part by merchants.

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS HAVE JOLLY TIME ON CAMPING TRIP

Experiences of Early Part of Trip Told in Interesting Manner.

SEVERAL DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED ON WAY

White Lake Reached, Camping Ground Cleared, Followed by Plunge.

The first detachment of the Greenville Boy Scouts left Greenville on Monday afternoon, June 14. In this detachment there were two trucks containing tents supplies and the like and eight of the Scouts. This detachment started out with horos blowing and youthful spirits blowing off. Out Dickinson avenue they journeyed, turned to the right at the end of the pavement and on out on the road to Farmville. One of the trucks was a solid tire affair, and as soon as it hit the sand on the county road, there was a great deal of spluttering and back-firing and the like and soon stopped dead. "All out!" was the command of the skipper and out came the Scouts. The oil war horse was started again, and with the aid of pushing by the Scouts, accompanied by another series of violent explosions, the old ship of state managed to reach Doc Perkins place where it gave up the ghost. The Scouts unloaded some more, got the old thing turned around, and headed it toward town. This seemed to put new life into the affair. Home she came; tearing down Dickinson avenue, with head up and tail over the dashboard, just exactly like an old mule, stubborn until her head is turned toward a wall.

SUN PREVENTS BIG RIOT RECENTLY IN MADRID TERRITORY

Serious Outbreak Narrowly Avoided by Appearance of Old Sol in Vicinity

Madrid, June 30.—The sun prevented what threatened to be a serious outbreak in Madrid during the recent bakers' strike. The first two days of the bread scare were dull and threatening and the hungry poor were so affected by the lowering skies and the lack of food that they paraded the streets in groups uttering shouts and menacing storekeepers who kept their establishments open.

On the third day the sun shone and although still hungry and compelled to wait indefinite hours for their loaves to be doled out, the people did so patiently and even cheerily.

All kinds of laws and police regulations were broken by the men, women and children forming the almost endless bread-lines, but the authorities took a lenient view of what occurred.

When an old man brought a camp bedstead, set it up on the sidewalk and stretched himself on it, a policeman arrested him and led him to the station house with his bed. The police captain first looked grave, then began to laugh when the offender explained he knew he might have to wait anything from twelve to twenty hours for his bread and had merely provided against that to his place in the line with his bed amid the applause of the crowd.

Another group hired a barrel organ whose owner played popular melodies while the people waited with growing appetites and hollow stomachs danced merrily. On the Calle de la Magdalena a cobbler arrived carrying a stool, his tools and a pair of shoes, which he was able to sole and heel before his turn came to obtain a loaf.

CREATION OF GOOD ROADS ASKED FOR BY COMMITTEEMEN

Automobile Association Endorses Townsend Bill for National Highway.

Charlotte, N. C., June 30.—(Special) Among the resolutions adopted by the American Automobile Association, at its recent annual session, was one emphatically endorsing the Townsend bill calling for the creation of a national highway system and a national highway commission, according to information received here by Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick, president of the Wilmington-Charlotte-Ashville highway association and one of the leaders of the movement favoring the issue of $50,000,000 in twenty-year serial bonds for construction of a state-wide permanently paved highway system in this state.

The American Automobile association, after declaring in favor of adequate, effective and early improvement the opinion was expressed that at a construction and proper maintenance of all the nation's highways, the opinion was expressed that the surest and quickest and most satisfactory method of accomplishing this desired result was through the cooperation of the states as individual units. The association gave expression to the view that the division of the responsibility of construction and of the mileage should be made by counties, each assuming its part according to the importance and ability.

Col. Kirkpatrick, declared his views coincided with those of the association and that basis of construction, with the funds necessary for each county allotted work coming from the general highway fund, such as would be derived from a bond issue, would give each county its share of the advantage accruing from the paved roads.

BOOM FOR M'ADOO GAINING MOMENTUM AT THE CONVENTION

San Francisco, June 29.—The nomination of William Gibbs McAdoo for the presidency is assured unless Tammany leaders from New York and Tom Taggart's delegates from Indiana can control enough votes under the two-thirds rule to block it. The McAdoo movement gains momentum daily, and his friends now have his boom thoroughly organized, with a steering committee in action and holding meetings each night.

National Committeeman A. Wilton McLean, of North Carolina, is a member of the McAdoo steering committee as a representative from the Southeastern States. McAdoo talk is heard on every hand and the Cummings speech, with its clear-cut and straight-forward presentation of the Democratic record has encouraged it. The boom has been spontaneous and San Francisco papers play it up today as a feature of the convention developments. If only a majority instead of a two-thirds vote was required McAdoo would win out on the first ballot.

The convention had an "off day" today while the platform committee held hearings. Delegates and visitors enjoyed trips over San Francisco Bay today as guests of the city.

It has not yet been decided who will present the name of Senator Furnifold M. Simmons to the convention when the nominating speeches are taken up Wednesday. The Democratic party has practically settled the suffrage question and it is not being discussed here. Women are sitting in the convention and also on its committees and are taking a part in all the deliberations. Delegates from North Carolina have received concrete evidence that suffrage is inevitable for the nation as a whole and show no disposition to fight the issue.

SUB-COMMITTEE AGREES ON PROHIBITION PLANK

San Francisco, June 30.—According to administration chiefs the sub-committee on platform has practically agreed on the prohibition plank which is described as "slightly moist" and the league of nations plank agreed upon as "just as good as Woodrow Wilson wants it."

AMERICAN LEGION FIRST FOUNDED IN THE YEAR OF 1792

War Department Shows Records of Early Legion Terminating in 1792

Camp Pike, Arkansas, June 30.—The first "American Legion" was founded in 1792, and its existence, by that name, terminated in 1796. War department records show that when the regular army was reorganized in 1792, following the Revolutionary War, it was first officially designated the "Legion" and was divided into four "sub-legions," of which the 4th United States Infantry was a part.

The idea of designating the United States army as the legion originated with General Knox, secretary of war under George Washington. The army was patterned after the Roman legion, the military organization under which Julius Caesar and his successors conquered as much of the world as was then known.

The American "Legion" was commanded by General Anthony Wayne ("Mad Anthony") and was organized under his direction at Pittsburgh, Pa., in May, 1792. President Washington instructed General Wayne "do not spare powder and lead, so that the men be made marksmen." The Legion fought its only battle as a legion at Miami Rapids in the Kentucky-Ohio Indian country August 20, 1794, engaging a force of hostile Indians. In 1796, it had been decided that the Roman formation was not suitable for the Indian Indians, the Legion was disbanded and re-organized into four regiments of infantry.

SENATOR HARDING AND COOLIDGE IN OPENING SPEECHES

Republican Presidential Nominee Takes "Americanism" as His Theme.

GOV. COOLIDGE SPEAKS ABOUT "LAW AND ORDER"

Harding Takes Issue With the League of Nations in Opening Speech.

Washington, June 29.—Declaring the nation "requires no council of foreign powers to point the way of American duty," Senator Harding, Republican nominee for president, in his first campaign speech today, urged the preservation of Americanism as the first and highest endeavor of all citizens of the republic.

The candidate's first utterance of the campaign was heard by no audience today, being made for a phonographic record to be released on the Fourth of July and to be used throughout the campaign. A copy of the Senator's address was made public at his office and with it a speech made last week by Gov. Coolidge, of Massachusetts, the party's vice presidential nominee, for a similar purpose.

Senator Harding chose "Americanism" as his subject, while Gov. Coolidge spoke on "Law and Order."

America, Mr. Harding said, does not mean to hold aloof, choose no isolation and shuns no duty, but, he continued, "we arrogate to ourselves the keeping of the American continent and every concept of our moral obligation." The presidential candidate added that "it is very practical to make sure our own house is in perfect order before we attempt the miracle of world peace."

In urging maintenance of the law and order, Gov. Coolidge defined the need of America as a "broader, firmer, deeper faith in people, a faith that men desire to do right, that the government is founded upon a righteousness which will endure."

"The first flaming torch of Americanism," said Senator Harding, "was lighted in framing the Federal constitution in 1787. The Pilgrims signed their simple and majestic covenant a full century and a half before, and set aflame their beacon of liberty on the coast of Massachusetts. Other pioneers of new world freedom were rearing their new standards of liberty from Jamestown and Plymouth for five generations before Lexington and Concord heralded a new era. It was all American in the result, yet all of it lacked the soul of nationality. In simple truth, there was no thought of nationality in the revolution for American independence. The Colonists were resisting a wrong, and freedom was their solace. Once it was achieved, nationality was the only agency suited to its preservation.

Americanism really began when, robed in nationality, the American republic began the biased trail of representative popular government.

VOTES AND PROSPECTIVE VOTERS!

Miss Pidgeon, national suffrage worker to speak here tonight. This evening at the High School auditorium at 8:30, Miss Pidgeon a prominent national worker in the suffrage cause and the state organizer for the Woman Suffrage League, will speak. Her subject is "Citizenship."

Attendance at this lecture is an opportunity that the women of Greenville may esteem a privilege that they cannot afford to miss. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1920

Lots of those senators at the convention who look upon woman suffrage with disfavor may have a different conception of the issue altogether after the convention is over, and the good wife completes her lecture on the necessity of ratification. It's a mighty great thing for the best of us, but for the married man, well it a mountain of necessity to him.

The prohibition question doesn't trouble Mr. Bryan half as much as the league of nations. But there is one thing sure, and that is he will get fully satisfied concerning both before the convention is over.

That McAdoo ghost at the convention is probably one of the most active in the country, for he has managed to place sentiment at the highest pitch, and that is more than some mighty good men could do. Mc is a winner it matters not in what form he may appear, and people will be more fully impressed with this fact after the convention.

Congressman Small will have a pleasant trip to the Orient along with certain members of the Republican party, but if he desires to have a "safe" trip, it might be advisable to avoid politics. This will be rather a difficult proposition, however, and one that will require some tact if successfully avoided. Small, however, is one of the most versatile and resourceful characters in the country, and for that reason we have no fear concerning his safety.

Think of a Turkish woman being shot just because she left her home without the customary veil. Recent reports from that region indicated that the country was being delivered from the bondage of illiteracy and superstition, but it looks now as if it were returning to a state of barbarism. Liberalism of Turkish women is earnestly desired by all christianized countries, and if such conditions as these just reported should continue, some other powerful nation should interfere, not intervene. Women, it matters not of what nationality, should be given every privilege accorded their sex, and if Turkey cannot see it in this light, then other nations should see to it that it does.

If immigrants to this county could be coaxed to the farm conditions would be changed materially. As it is now practically the majority of American farmers have the big city idea in their heads and are really leaving lucrative agricultural sections simply to venture out upon the troublesome tide of life in the city. The time must come for such to be discouraged, and the sooner it is done the better of American people will be. If immigrants can be gotten to the farm—send them there. This will be one of the most direct ways of preserving the country's prosperity until the crazed brain of the farmer is satisfied that the farm is one great field of happiness and prosperity compare with the city.

With a man like Cummings at the head of the convention it is only natural for people to expect the convention to culminate with great things for the party. He is a man built along the same type as the president, and the combination is such a fine one an improvement could hardly be asked for. Cummings, McAdoo and Wilson are men worthy of every honor the American public can bestow upon them for they think upon a high plane and act with every interest of better civilization at heart. With such men directing the convention, the old party is bound to get the very best there is. Time, however, will prove this to the satisfaction of practically every true-hearted American citizen.

Bryan has presented to the convention his plan for victory in the league of nations issue, but like Republican members of the senate, he is going to find the league a rather difficult proposition. The truth is, people like the league in its present form, for it covers fully every point essential to the nations involved. So why should Bryan worry. However, experience is a mighty fine teacher, and if people persist in being taught, naturally it is best and wise to let them learn the lesson in its every application to the public.

Tar Heels at the convention may agree with Governor Bickett on the suffrage issue, but that doesn't make it a fact that the Tennessee legislature is going to be the first to ratify the amendment. Tennessee, like North Carolina, may be depending on the other for ratification, and wait until the last minute to act. They might as well dive into the issue and get through with it, for it is plain that suffrage is inevitable, and if the amendment shouldn't be ratified at this time it will be later. So where is the advisability of further delay. The women feel that they are deserving of recognition, and in his much they are right. The end of the nation is naturally moving that way, and no state is reaping any direct benefit by putting off something which time naturally will bring about.

REAL PARTY LEADERS.

The great demonstration over a portrait of President Wilson at the opening of the Democratic convention Monday evening shows conclusively that he is still the party's dominant leader. In fact, the wild applause of the hundreds of delegates at the convention speaks in a language peculiarly satisfying to the administration, and more so to the president himself, who has been watching with interest every development since the convention became a matter of public discussion.

The American people are as firmly convinced of Mr. Wilson's interest in national affairs today as they were during the earlier part of his administration, and are ready to support this conviction to the limit of their resources. It is hardly probable that the president even contemplates re-nomination, but should he, it is quite probable the party would rally around him as it did before America's entrance into the world war. His ideas are still dominant issues with the American people because they have learned from experience that when he speaks his utterances are direct, unequivocal and based upon sound knowledge of national and international relations.

The country at this time calls for a constructive leader; a man fully capable of carrying to the highest state of consummation the things which Mr. Wilson has begun, and in the selection of Mr. McAdoo the convention will find that it has accomplished this single point in a way that would be surprising to the ordinary American thinker. The president has always impressed the people with his efficiency and ability of handling national affairs to their interest, and as Mr. McAdoo is a man of his type, carefully trained to think broad-mindedly along the same lines with the chief executive there is little reason to believe he would not be one of the most ideal characters the convention could possibly choose as the Democratic candidate for the presidency.

The change in American government cannot be conducted along radical lines, and for that reason it is imperative that a man be nominated who can carefully weigh public opinion in the balance and then form his own conclusions accordingly. The convention has such a man in the president and the retiring McAdoo, and within the next several hours the country will have the pleasure of knowing who will be the one to guide the country's destiny in the future. Both are men of influence and unlimited ability. So in the selection of either the convention cannot mistake the greatness of its mission to the people.

Cameron Morrison For Governor

Great Endorsement by the People of Richmond and Mecklenburg Counties—His Boyhood and Present Home.

We, the undersigned citizens of Mecklenburg county, where Cameron Morrison now lives, and Richmond county, his former home, urge his nomination for Governor of North Carolina in the Democratic primary. He is an able and fearless champion of constitutional government as interpreted by the Democratic party. For nearly thirty years he has served the party and the people of North Carolina with distinguished ability. His public utterances give proof of the soundness of his views on political and economic questions; and the boldness with which he speaks marks him for leadership of the sort so badly needed at the present time. We ask you to vote for Mr. Morrison's nomination on account of his party service, his sound statesmanship, his abilities as a debater and his wisdom as a political leader. Knowing him as we do, we believe he would make our State a great Governor, fair to capital, fair to labor; with his heart, soul and mind devoted to the happiness and prosperity of the whole people.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF NORTH CAROLINA:

I publish the above statement of leading citizens in all walks in life from Mecklenburg and Richmond counties showing the esteem in which Hon. Cameron Morrison, candidate for Governor is held by his home people. I have tried since I have been here to prevent any untruths from being circulated on any candidate. There went out from the city of Raleigh a mass of untruths about Hon. Cameron Morrison on Saturday, June 12, 1920, which have been circulated all over Eastern North Carolina and elsewhere. These untruths were all scattered at the same time, and I heard they were to be scattered, and immediately I received word from all over the East and elsewhere that they had been scattered. They were scattered far and wide for an unholy purpose. Besides these untruths that have been broadcast over the East another diabolical untruth has been scattered, which is that some of the supporters of Hon. Cameron Morrison had a cartoon of Mr. Gardner going to the polls between two negro women. I have investigated this matter thoroughly and denounce it as a base untruth. They have gone so far as to try to insinuate and state that Mr. Morrison has changed his personal views on woman suffrage. No man has ever fought this issue stronger than Mr. Morrison, and they are now trying to misrepresent his personal views on this subject by reason of the fact that he is a party Democrat and stands on the platform of his party.

I desire to state further that I have known the Hon. Cameron Morrison for thirty years. I desire to make a statement that is personal and I ask the indulgence of the public in doing this: My father was a brave Confederate soldier, was in Hoke's Division and was with Johnson's army when it surrendered at Greensboro, and commanded the Sharpshooters in the defense of Fort Sumter in 1863. He served through the entire war, and was wounded several times, and I had six uncles of my name in the war. I was on the Democratic executive committee of the State from 1890 to 1901 and in the White Supremacy Legislature and voted and helped to save the East from negro domination, and know the great work Hon. Cameron Morrison did in redeeming the State. I have never scratched a Democratic ticket in my life, and have always voted and stood by the Democratic party, as my father did before me.

Before I volunteered to help my friend, Hon. Cameron Morrison, I knew his life work, record and character and knew it was without reproach. Knowing his heroic life and his unselfish conduct in behalf of friends and even of foes, I was obsessed with the belief that he deserved this nomination and ought to be elected Governor of this great State.

I have been here nearly three months, working 17 hours a day, Sunday excepted, in his behalf and will be here until sunset July 3. The West, as between Mr. Gardner and Mr. Morrison, has said in unmistakable language by their vote that they want Mr. Morrison for Governor of North Carolina. I call upon the East to ratify what the West has done, as it is the western turn for governorship, and vote for Mr. Morrison. I have tried to be conservative in my statements to the public. It was said by the opposition the night before the primary and numerous times before that they would win over Mr. Page and Mr. Morrison both in the first primary. It was scattered over the State that they had won by ten thousand majority, then the word came three thousand, then the county was made by that honest careful Election Board composed of both Democrats and Republicans, the chairman of which is Col. Wilson G. Lamb, a man of unimpeachable character, and showed that Mr. Morrison lead Mr. Gardner by 87 votes.

Mr. Gardner has requested a second primary. I shall continue this fight on a high plane. I appeal to the supporters of Mr. Morrison to denounce the untruths, do it with forbearance and judgment.

I think the general public will bear me out in saying that the predictions that I have heretofore made have been correct, and I desire to state now that 75 per cent at least of Hon. Robt. N. Page's supporters in North Carolina will vote for Mr. Morrison.

People of North Carolina want to campaign on a high plane, worthy of a great State. I appeal to the supporters of Mr. Morrison and Mr. Page, as there can be no victory for Mr. Morrison without the Page support, and it will be a joint victory of Page and Morrison supporters to actively get into this fight and work until sunset July 3, and I make a prediction, as I did before, that Mr. Morrison would lead in the first primary—that he will be the next Governor of North Carolina.

I call upon his followers over the State to quit their business and get into this fight, and be at the polls July 3, and see that this great Statesman and high-minded North Carolinian is elected Governor of this great Commonwealth.

Devoted to Women's Needs

Ideas to Lighten Household Work

Woman needs no longer to be prematurely aged by coarse, hard work. Every day new ideas and inventions have helped to lighten her work until she is relieved of most of the old-time drudgery.

The new, easy Clean Easy method of washing has taken all of the misery out of "blue Monday." Now, the wise woman buys a bar of Clean Easy Naphtholene Soap. Soaks her clothes over night. Cuts up 1/2 bar of Clean Easy in a 4 1/2-gallon tub of water. Waits for it to dissolve and boils her clothes for ten minutes; rinses, blazes and dries. Presto, in a few minutes an average week's washing is done—with no mean work and for only a few cents.

This marvelous wash soap has done more for women than anything since the sewing machine. It sounds like a wonderful dream to think of getting your washing done without scrubbing and rubbing and all sorts of mean work. But it's a live fact.

In these times of high prices you will find Clean Easy washing a wonderful revelation. All heavy clothes can be easily and cheaply cleaned. Light fabrics will last longer, for Clean Easy does not harm the cloth.

Let Clean Easy do your work—and you'll find it always well done! Ask your grocer. Follow the directions on inside of wrapper. Notice how different Clean Easy looks from other soaps.

HERO OF GRIFFITH PICTURE BASED ON HISTORICAL BANDIT

Epilots of Famous California Robin Hood Are Pleasing Feature of "Scarlet Days."

David Wark Griffith has harked back to the actual history of California in the memorable days of 1840 to secure his hero for his new Paramount-Artcraft picture, "Scarlet Days," which is coming to the White's Theatre Thursday.

In the years when stage coaches were the only means of travel on the Pacific Coast and the quickest and straightest shot was usually the best man, a bandit by the name of Jacquin Murietta used to roam the highways. He was a sort of American Robin Hood, for he would rob the rich and give alms to the poor, always treated women chivalrously and, though a terror to every sheriff in California, was a slave to his little Mexican sweetheart. He was a Mexican of good family who hated the Gringos and literally went on the warpath against them. He finally ended his life in a wild flight from a posse by riding a broncho bareback over a precipice.

Mr. Griffith has woven this romantic character into a thrilling motion picture. The role is taken by Richard Barthelmess, and the rest of the cast is of the same high order. It is a picture historically correct and gripping in the extreme.

MRS. R. L. SMITH DIES

HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Mrs. R. L. Smith, wife of Mr. R. L. Smith, prominent business man of this city, passed away at her home on Evans street this afternoon at 2:05 o'clock following a protracted illness dating back for several months. Funeral services will be conducted from the home tomorrow evening at six o'clock by Rev. W. P. Shambart, pastor of the Church of Christ, interment to take place in Cherry Hill cemetery.

The deceased is survived by, besides her husband, a son, Mr. W. H. Smith, of this city; two daughters, Mrs. C. R. Townsend, of Farmville and Mrs. L. G. Cooper of this city. She is also survived by four brothers, Messrs. W. J. Turnage of Greenville, Marjons Turnage, of Carson City, Nevada, Clarence Turnage, of Fallon, Nevada, and Andrew Turnage, of Oakland, Calif.

Mrs. Smith was a native of Greene county, and a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred and Mary Jane Turnage. She was married to Mr. Smith in February 25, 1886. Shortly after that time she and Mr. Smith moved to Farmville where they resided for a few years, later moving to Greenville where they have been for the past twenty years.

The deceased has been a devoted member of the Christian church for the past several years, and has served the church faithfully and untiringly. She was prominently connected with societies of the institutions and was instrumental in the rapid growth and development of church work in its early stages, although ill health during the past several months prevented active service.

The load was transferred to a pneumatic tire truck and soon the two trucks were on their way rejoicing.
This detachment reached a point ten miles this side of Goldsboro, and there camped for the night. Dick Williams, Joe Moye and Wyatt Brown and Zeno Brown cooked supper consisting of fried ham, toast and coffee. The electricians of the crowd, Edward Moore and Rodger Smith, in the meantime tried to make the lights work on the cars. By diligent work they were able to get lights on one of the cars, but could do nothing with the other one. Blankets were spread on the ground by the side of the road under a big oak. People passing by in cars at late hours of the night, seeing the white robed figure lying by the side of the road, thought they were in a graveyard, and when one of the figures seemed to move a little they stepped on their accelerators and came near busting the darn thing. Just about the time all were almost asleep, someone in a nearby farmhouse starting playing "The Star Spangled Banner" on a player-piano. Everyone had to stand up, of course. The fellow played three verses and repeated the chorus two times. Wyatt Brown tried to sleep, but there was a playful kitchen hanging around, and it just kept on trying to cur u pin his ear.

At two-thirty the kitchen police started fire, and by three-thirty all had eaten breakfast. The camp was cleaned up thoroughly, and as soon as the dawn had come the detachment was on its way again. Sleeping Goldsboro was passed through about five, and the few people up at that time wandered where those Gypsies were headed for. On down the fifty mile State Highway from Goldsboro to Clinton went the trucks. That road is a beauty. After Clinton came Gariand, and then ten miles further on "ite Lake. That body of water looked good to the hot, tired and dusty wanderers. But no swimming yet! The detachment went to work cleared up the camp site, and made ready for the coming of others. After a few hours of hard work, there was a delightful plunge in the lake followed by supper. Then the walk for the other detachment. About 11:30 the girls' truck with Phillips driving came first, the girls pushing wherever necessary. The other trucks with the exception of one stayed at a place about two miles from up in an exceptionally fine manner the camp that night, and a few of the Scouts in them to guard them. The other Scouts came on to camp. All were given supper, and then put to bed. The girls had their beds all appeared in his first game yesterday, ready, and the boys unrolled their packs and slept in the yard or on the porch or in the trucks. Finally about one o'clock all was quiet along the lake, and thus ended the first episode of the camping trip.

SPORTS

GREENVILLE WINS FROM PINETOPS IN CONTEST TUESDAY

Pinetops Compelled to Use Three Pitchers to Curb Batting Spirit; Score 6 to 3.

That old streak of hard luck which has been ruthlessly trailing the Greenville base ball club for the past several days lost track of the boys yesterday evening on the way to Pinetops, and consequently yesterday's game was an entirely different exhibition from the day before, for the locals pounded the sphere determinedly and persistently throughout the entire game, the final score being 6 to 3 in favor of Greenville. Both clubs played in splendid form during the entire game, but the visitors were apparently impelled by an irresistible desire to hit the ball at every opportunity, and they did just that, too, Pinetops' three pitchers being landed for twelve safe bingles before the game terminated.

Mark Webb, the big southpaw, who has been pitching such effective ball throughout the season, started off the game for the home club, but the visitors landed his offerings so unmercifully that he was relieved in the sixth inning by Crisp, who didn't fare any better in the slightest sense of the word. Walton replaced Smith in the seventh frame, and although he probably pitched more effectively than his predecessors, the Greenville club found him easy for it was one of those days when the boys were in a knocking notion, and when they get that way it takes a mighty energetic and resourceful mound artist to prove his superiority. The final count showed that Greenville had landed for twelve safe bingles, which, of course, included several doubles and one triple.

Sheppard pitched a splendid game for Greenville, in fact, he held the Pinetops aggregation to seven well scattered hits, and pitched in his usual good form in critical stages of the game. His curves and speed probably never worked to greater advantage than against the opposing sluggers, for they found him almost invincible at critical stages and fanned the air in a vain endeavor to hit when hits would have resulted in runs. "Shep" always tightens up when the home circuit becomes seriously threatened, and if this doesn't have the desired effect he shoots the ball across the plate so fast that it passes the batter fairly whizzing and sizzling. The batter swears to that effect anyway, so it's mighty near the truth.
The entire Greenville club showed up in an exceptionally fine manner yesterday, according to the number of enthusiastic fans who attended the game. In fact, it seems that "Mug" Massey, who played his position in a fast and interesting way, and did some effective work with the willow. Stringfield at short played his usual game, accepting several chances and making them all good, while Ellis at second showed up in usual good form. Wrenn caught the game in old time form, pegging second like a veteran and doing his usual

TARBORO DEFEATS STRONG HYPHENATED CREW TUESDAY

Tarboro, June 29.—Tarboro defeated the Scotland Neck-Hobgood aggregation here this evening in a fairly fast and interesting game by the score of 4 to 2. The contest was featured by several splendid plays by both clubs, but the inability of the hyphenated crew to hit opportunely was probably more responsible for the loss of the game than any other single feature. Tarboro succeeded in hitting at favorable moments, particularly when hits meant runs, and consequently piled up runs which the hypheens were unable to excel throughout the remainder of the game. The exhibition was decidedly one of the best that has been staged here this season, as the locals played to advantage and made every opportunity count. The game gives Tarboro one more step beyond her opponents near the top in club standing, and no doubt will be instrumental in placing renewed spirit in the game from now on.

WASHINGTON LOSES OUT TO WILLIAMSTON CREW

Washington, June 29.—The strong Williamston aggregation defeated Washington here this afternoon by the score of 6 to 1, in a fast and interesting game featured by fine team work and fast playing on the part of the visitors. Both clubs played in pretty good form, but Washington's six errors proved costly and assisted in the loss of the game to no little extent. Brown, for the visitors, showed up in mighty fine form, holding the locals to three well scattered hits. The visitors did most of their scoring in the third and fourth innings, not by hitting hard, but by taking advantage of the inopportune moments of the locals. St. George and Wilson did the mound work for the locals, both pitching in good form, but appearing wild at times.

In the outfield, Captain Duncan, Barnes and Rodden held full sway, never failing to pull down a single fly nor failing the fans at the bat. The entire club played real ball, and while three errors were credited to the club for the entire game those were not costly for the boys made up for them at the bat.
Pinetops played fast and effectively, but its pitchers were unable to curb the batting spirit of the Greenville Greenville club who played to win, and did just that in old time form.

As Regularly as the Cock Crows

Good health is a tonic that brightens your mornings. It throws a halo of happiness about your day. It brings you to your task with a sense of perfect fitness.

And the secret of good health is regular elimination. If you have a tendency to costiveness, Nujol will help you back to habitual movements.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger".
