MORRISON SAID TO BE LEADING FOR GOVERNOR

LATEST RETURNS FAIL TO CHANGE EARLY MAJORITY

Mecklenburg Man Appears to be Leading Race Over 5,000 Majority.

SCATTERING RETURNS GIVE SLIGHT INCREASE

Gardner Forces Still Confident of Victory, So It Is Stated.

The latest available returns regarding the state primary were received by The Reflector from the News and Observer last night at 11 o'clock. The report stated that out of seventy counties heard from Morrison maintained a majority of 4,900 votes over Gardner, and that scattering returns failed to produce any material change of the contestants. Judge Biggs, so the report stated, does not concede Gardner's defeat. He claims it has just happened that the News and Observer heard from more Morrison territory than Gardner territory and that his candidate still had a chance of winning out in the final count. Clarkson, Morrison's campaign manager still remained firm in his belief that his candidate would win out by 10,000 majority, the scattering report failing to dispel confidence evident throughout the campaign.

The report given by the News and Observer Sunday morning gives an accurate estimate of the way the candidates stand up to the present time although the vote, of course, is decidedly larger. The Observer's statement of Sunday follows:

Returns from 701 precincts out of 1,061 in the State compiled by the News and Observer at 1 o'clock Sunday morning give Cameron Morrison a lead of more than 5,000 votes over O. Max Gardner, his opponent for the Democratic nomination for Governor of North Carolina, and it is generally conceded that Mr. Morrison has won, although the Gardner forces were still hopeful that later returns would overcome his majority and return their candidate the winner.

Judge Walter P. Stacy of Wilmington has apparently won the nomination for associate justice of the Supreme Court over Judge B. F. Long of Statesville, leading him by more than 10,000 votes. Judge Stacy's vote was 30,108, and Long's 18,820. Baxter Durham was leading James P. Cook for State Auditor by 25,367 to 18,827, and was claiming the nomination by a decisive majority.

Heriot Clarkson, manager for Cameron Morrison, on the face of returns received up until midnight, last night declared that his candidate will lead by 10,000 votes.

Judge J. Crawford Biggs, manager for O. Max Gardner was not ready to concede the nomination of Mr. Morrison, stoutly maintaining that counties yet to be heard from will give Mr. Gardner the majority.

GOOD RACES WILL BE STAGED IN CITY DURING AFTERNOON

Several of Fastest Horses of Section to Appear on Fair Ground Track.

BIG CROWDS EXPECTED FROM MANY LOCALITIES

Horse Racing to be Followed Immediately by League Game of Baseball

The first registered horse races to be staged at the fair grounds since completion of the track will occur this afternoon when several of the fastest and best trained horses in this section of the state will be seen in action. The occasion has been planned for sometime by track promoters and it is expected that hundreds of people from various sections of the state will be in attendance. The races will be followed immediately by the final game of a double-header between Greenville and Washington base ball clubs, the first game occurring in Washington during the morning.

Work has been progressing rapidly in the erection of the large race track grandstand, and while it has not yet been brought to a state of completion the seats, however, have been gotten in place and every provision possible has been made for seating a portion of the large crowd. The judges' stand has been completed and is elevated so that every movement on the track may be easily observed.

The races this evening will consist of three classes, the contestants having to take three heats out of five before being declared winners. Purses will be $250 for each race, the money being divided 50-25-15-10. No entrance fees will be charged but five percent will be deducted from winners.

The following horses and drivers will participate in the races, 2.25 pace—"Beverly Axworth," driven by Venter; "All B," driven by Ford; "Woodrow," driven by Simon Moye; "March Ann," driven by Barnhill; "Dean," driven by Savage; "Dan Joyner," driven by Joyner; "Willie B," driven by Causey; "Marie Dewey," driven by Bud Anderson; "Cornstalk," driven by Jesse Wingate.

2.27 Trot—"Peter Elkin," Becker; "Geisboro," driven by Welch; "General Funston," driven by Staton; "Golden Heart," driven by Johnson; "Poe W," driven by Ford.

2.17 Pace—"Toney Mack," driven by Johnson; "Autocrat," driven by Staton; "Brian Boy," driven by Becker; "Cornstalk," driven by Jess Wingate.

2.17 Trot—"Lyndon," driven by Becker; "Chiquita," driven by Johnson; "Don Aristocrat," driven by Causey; "Edith Watts," driven by Staton.

BUSINESS HOUSES WILL CLOSE 12 O'CLOCK MONDAY

All business houses of Greenville will close at 12 o'clock Monday to observe the fourth of July. Drug stores and refreshment parlors, however, will re-open immediately after the ball game to supply the crowds with refreshments. A petition has been signed by practically all business interests to observe the closing hours, and for that reason, it is expected that hundreds of town people and visitors will be present at the horse races and ball game to be staged at the fair grounds during the evening.

STRAUS TELLS OF HEALTH PROBLEMS FACING PALESTINE

Tells Zionist Conference Health Bureau is Doing Great Work Abroad.

London, July 5.—Nathan Straus, of New York told the International Zionist Conference here today that the Straus health bureau in Palestine had supplied a need that had been ignored for hundreds of years by a "criminally indifferent government" and that it had become a "stronghold in the life of the Holy Land". The bureau was established by Mr. Straus in 1912.

The only problem which took precedence over the health question was the feeding of the hungry for which he said he established a free soup kitchen in Jerusalem which up to now, had been feeding 700 to 1,000 persons daily. The health bureau, Mr. Straus, said, was established to improve health conditions generally and particularly to eradicate malaria and trachoma, the latter. It was intended to serve all inhabitants of Palestine irrespective of creed, race or color and, since the Jews number less than one-sixth of the total population, its work had accrued largely to the benefit of Non-Jews.

Mr. Straus reviewed the fight conducted against malaria by the Health bureau in and around Jerusalem in 1916 and 1917, which he said "nipped the cholera epidemic in the bud." Clinics were opened in five districts and injections of anti-malaria lymph were given to all comers, while school children were inoculated by nurses sent by the health bureau in to districts. In all 30,750 persons were given preventive injections against cholera. Typhus lymph was also prepared and administered.

More than 38,000 persons were examined to ascertain if they were affected with malaria and where the reaction was positive, quinine was given free of cost. The water in cisterns used for drinking purposes was examined and a museum of hygiene was established.

In combatting trachoma, Mr. Straus said, the health bureau treated 441,874 cases and an attempt was made to examine the eyes of the children who could be reached so as to identify that disease which was prevalent in Palestine. A hospital for eye diseases was opened and the campaign was extended into the towns and colonies outside of Jerusalem, nurses being sent to various places.

PARIS WITNESSING MANY CHANGES OF FRENCH CUSTOMS

Passing of Famous German Brings to Conclusion Eventful Career.

Paris, July 5.—Paris is witnessing the passing of one of the last reminders in France of the famous German champagne King, Baron Walter de Mumm. The handsome furniture of the wealthy wine merchant, which was sequestered early in the war in his apartment on the avenue du Bois Boulogne, is being sold for the benefit of the state.

The contents of the beautiful apartment included some fine tapestries and several specimens of 18th Century cabinet makers' work. The sale brought more than 500,000 francs. One piece of tapestry, valued by the government officers at 50 francs brought 8,000 francs. The sale attracted a large gathering of prominent Parisians because Hgr Mumm's apartment was known as one of the most lavishly furnished in the fashionable quarter of Paris.

An American girl, Mary de Mumm, now living with her grandfather, C. K. Scoville, a banker of Seneca, Kansas, is a daughter of Baron Walter de Mumm, who married Mr. Scoville's daughter. The de Mumm estate in France, estimated in some reports to amount to $20,000,000 was sequestered by the French government in the war as the Baron is a German subject although he had spent most of his life in France. The Baron went to Germany and when the war began the Baroness remained in France serving as a nurse.

In an effort to safeguard her share of the de Mumm estate in France, the Baroness de Mumm came to the United States in October, 1919, and through an act of Congress her American citizenship was restored to her. Returning to France she sought a divorce, but died there while this action was pending.

The Baroness' sister, Mrs. Josephine Treadwell, of New York, brought her sister's body from Paris to Seneca in May last. As she was leaving Cherbourg, the agents of the French government seized jewels she was wearing, on the ground that they were property of her sister but on arriving in New York Mrs. Treadwell declared that the jewels were her own.

Baroness de Mumm had claimed that she had been given title to two-fifths

CONVENTION TO BEGIN ACTIVITY AGAIN TO-DAY

PRIMARY RETURNS GIVE OUTLAW GOOD LEAD FOR SENATE

Reports from All Thirteen Precincts Give Hardee Big Lead Over Smith.

GUBERNATORIAL FIGHT STUBBORNLY CONTESTED

Gardner Leads Morrison by Vote of 1,490 Against 1,457 in County.

N. W. Outlaw defeated S. J. Everett for the state senate and J. B. Hardee won over L. E. Smith for county commissioner in the second primary conducted in this county last Saturday, the entire thirteen precincts of the county giving Outlaw, 1544; Everett, 1298; Hardee, 1063; Smith, 653.

It is possible that the gubernatorial contest created more interest in county than in many years, for Morrison and Gardner forces campaigned untiringly throughout the entire week concluding Saturday with an intensive rally around the polls where every available voter was urged to vote the favorite ticket of the campaigners. Both factions contested every inch of ground stubbornly, and failed to concede definite lead for either opponent until the final precinct had been heard from showing that Gardner led by a majority of 33 votes. The vote for the state was: Morrison, 1457; Gardner, 1490; Durham, 1690; Cook, 919; Stacy, 1689; Long, 1190.

Good weather favored the primary to no little extent, as it enabled voters all over the county to reach the polls without much difficulty. The vote, however, was slightly smaller than in the first primary, Greenville and two or three other precincts showing a slight decrease in total number of votes cast. The majority of Page supporters rallied behind Morrison making his vote decidedly larger than in the first primary, his increase being 561. Gardner's increase was very slight, his vote registering only 98 more than the old record. The contest between Outlaw and Everett was not as closely contested as expected for early reports from smaller precincts indicated a neck to neck race. The report from Ayden, Chicod and Greenville, however, changed the situation materially showing that Outlaw had won by a good majority. An interesting race was expected between Hardee and Smith, but the former won out by an overwhelming majority, carrying practically every large precinct by a splendid majority.

The vote by precinct follows: Ayden township—Morrison, 77; Gardner, 329; Durham, 260; Cook, 107; Stacy, 305; Long, 67; Everett, 53; Outlaw, 272; Smith, 255; Hardee, 134. Beaver Dam township—Morrison, 18; Gardner, 64; Durham, 26; Cook, 53; Stacy, 50; Long, 29; Everett, 40; Outlaw, 47; Smith, 12; Hardee, 70.

Belvoir township—Morrison, 26; Gardner, 19; Durham, 14; Cook, 9; Stacy, 14; Long, 9; Everett, 20; Outlaw, 34; Smith, 7; Hardee, 34.

Bethel township—Morrison, 173; Gardner, 60; Durham, 135; Cook, 49; Stacy, 84; Long, 110; Everett, 127; Outlaw, 103; Smith, 16; Hardee, 187.

Calolla township—Morrison, 100; Gardner, 16; Durham, 89; Cook, 8; Stacy, 77; Long, 16; Everett, 100; Outlaw, 26; Smith, 64; Hardee, 43.

Chicod township—Morrison, 187; Gardner, 200; Durham, 234; Cook, 147; Stacy, 212; Long, 171; Everett, 147; Outlaw, 239; Smith, 115; Hardee, 270.

Falkland township—Morrison, 85; Gardner, 27; Durham, 101; Cook, 11; Stacy, 88; Long, 24; Everett, 43; Outlaw, 69; Smith, 2; Hardee, 110.

Fountain township—Morrison, 19; Gardner, 60; Durham, 14; Cook, 41.

DEMOCRATS PLAN TO END BALLOTING IN SESSION TODAY

It Is Believed Nomination Will Occur During Concluding Sessions.

COX WAS LEADING ON LAST BALLOT SATURDAY

Movement for McAdoo Fails to Gain Additional Power as Expected.

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 3.—After twenty-two fruitless ballots, the Democratic National convention just before midnight gave up hopes of selecting a presidential nominee within the first week of its session and adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Repeated attempts to adjourn were defeated throughout the early part of the night, but as midnight approached and it was about to become Sunday, the tradition that a Democratic national convention never works on Sunday, coupled with the fact that the convention was tired, worn and frazzled, had its effect and the final motion to adjourn was unopposed.

When the convention stopped Cox was leading with 430. McAdoo came next with 372 1-2. Palmer was down to 166 1-2.

The final ballots of the night were full of McAdoo movement, but it failed to make much headway. Georgia, his home state, pledged to Palmer, swung over with her 28 votes in a block for one ballot to see if it would start her native son toward victory, but it failed to do so and she swung back to the attorney general.

No "dark horse" appeared during the night's balloting to carry off the honors and the convention adjourned just as much in need of somebody to rally about as it was when it began the balloting.

It was in a deadlock with nobody in sight to break it. Sunday will be devoted to efforts to find somebody whom the convention can swing to.

The twenty-second ballot as officially announced, follows: McAdoo, 372 1-2; Cox, 430; Palmer, 166 1-2; Cummings, 6; Davis, 52; Owen, 35; Glass, 25; Clark, 2; Wilson, 2. The changes were that McAdoo lost 23; Palmer gained 22 1-2; Cox gained 4; Davis lost 2. Then there was another motion to adjourn until 10 o'clock Monday morning and it went through without opposition.

The first votes to be cast for Woodrow Wilson in the convention came tonight from Missouri, two of them. Contrary to expectations, they did not cause any particular demonstration in the convention.

When Chairman Robinson attempted to announce the results of the twentieth ballot he got as far as the name of McAdoo when the McAdoo crowd apparently all set with a demonstration and with the accompaniments all fixed, began to whoop it up again. The band in the gallery, which was silent when the Bryan people attempted a demonstration for their champion, blared and boomed without ceasing, helping the McAdoo demonstration as it had on previous days.

MONDAY, JULY 5, 1920.

Bryan seems to think Secretary Glass ruled the convention. Probably he refers to defeat of the prohibition question.

Now that the gubernatorial race is ended, the state has nothing to anticipate but the suffrage skirmish. And that's going to be of more than ordinary interest too.

McAdoo appears to have lost out at the convention judging by the way ballots are going. But the convention isn't over yet, and for that reason the nomination cannot be conceded to anyone until the final ballot has been passed.

Harding and Governor Coolidge may be planning a co-operative campaign but that's a mighty small word for two such great men. They plan to take the county by storm, that would be more appropriate for the confident spirit dominating the campaign.

Suffrage forces have turned their attention to North Carolina now that it is assured Tennessee will not take any definite action towards the amendment. However, Governor Roberts may be bluffing the Republicans for fun and later place the issue before the legislature.

President Wilson is gratified at the stand taken by the convention on the League of Nations and has wired his appreciation to Cummings. The president probably realizes more than any other one person what the league means to the world, and it appears now that the public is realizing it too. With this fact plainly in evidence there is little doubt that the issue will be a success in the future.

The Democratic platform embraces practically every important matter of the nation, and is so different from that which the Republicans put out sometime ago that it really appears several years ahead of time. It is a platform which the people may take pride in, and if it becomes a dominant factor in the country's activities in the future it is safe to say old America will go forward by leaps and bounds.

Mrs. Daniels says that woman at the suffrage conference in Switzerland were very much surprised that American woman had not received the ballot. And they probably had a right to be, for with thirty-six countries of world permitting women to vote America's position is altogether out of the ordinary. However, the enfranchisement of the woman voter appears to be near in the United States, and it is probable indeed that they will participate in the next election.

Fourth of July will be appropriately observed in this city today with activities that will keep people on the go throughout the whole day. The races and ball game in the afternoon and the ball game between the locals and Washington, at Washington, in the morning will keep something happening all the time. Then, there's Amuzu park with a splendid program for evening and night. In fact, there will be enough things happening to keep us all busy, and make the day one to be remembered.

THE GUBERNATORIAL FIGHT.

While complete returns have not been available in the second primary it is generally conceded that Cameron Morrison has won out over O. Max Gardner for the nomination for governor. Tabulations up to this time give the Charlotte man a substantial lead, and if predictions are correct, the remaining precincts to be heard from will increase his vote to no little extent.

The gubernatorial contest has probably been one of the hardest fought in this state in many years. Both candidates have battled persistently for nomination since the second primary was ordered, and supporters have rallied behind them faithfully for the past several days. The campaign has been featured by a distinct spirit of confidence on both sides, yet it is apparent that Mr. Morrison's claims of receiving a majority of the Page vote have been well founded and that his victory is based upon the faithful endeavors of his supporters.

Gardner supporters have maintained an air of confidence throughout the entire campaign; the fight has been waged from day to day with optimism and cheerfulness, with every force employed for the victory of their choice. They have, of course, deviated from one method of campaigning to another, yet the fight has been featured by determination to win which remains firm even to this moment. They have fought a good fight, and should they lose, as indications seem to predict, they may be comforted by the fact that everything was done in the interest of Mr. Gardner's candidacy.

It matters not who may win it is up to the people of the state to do their duty by the successful contestant, for he will be a chosen representative of the state and empowered by the majority to act in the capacity of its chief executive. There can be no argument against this. The welfare of the state is essentially the business of all, and no man who disregards its interests because his candidate met with defeat is not worth of being called a real old staunch-hearted Tar Heel. The future demands the best of everyone, and the best can only be accomplished by harmony with those endeavoring to perform the state's duties. The responsibility rests upon every man, and there is no room for political aspersion.

That two third vote necessary to nominate a candidate at the convention appears to be far in the rear. The truth is the convention seems to be in a state of indecision concerning the best of the three leading candidates, but McAdoo followers are still confident of his victory. A dark horse is predicted, but fast work by supporters of Mr. McAdoo today may eliminate the additional feature. The situation is tense in every way, but the recess yesterday will certainly bring out something decidedly definite in today's session.

IT'S PERFECTLY NATURAL.

People of Greenville and Pitt county look just as naturally to The Reflector for the news, as children look to the home porch when roosting time comes. On the night of the primary, June 5th, this paper kept open house until 3 o'clock Sunday morning, giving its visitors the news as fast as it could be received over the wires and telephoning it to others in various parts of the county, then had its Monday issue out early in the morning with practically complete results of the voting. Again Saturday night, July 3rd, the news of the second primary was given to its friends, and here is the paper again Monday morning telling how the voting went. But that is what this paper has been doing for its patrons for more than thirty eight years, and they learned long ago where to look for service. Being a home institution, founded by home folks and conducted by home folks who live at home and have the interest of the home town and county at heart. The Reflector always strives to give its home people the best that can be had. Hence it is not to be wondered at that this paper holds a place in their esteem which no other has ever reached.

DUCHESS OF OPORTO ARRIVED IN LISBON

Lisbon, July 5—The Duchess of Oporto, the American widow of the late Prince royal of Portugal, has arrived here, and in an interview with the president of the cabinet, thanked the government for permitting her husband's body now in Italy, to be brought to Portugal and placed among those of his ancestors.

The transfer of the body will take place probably next winter and for this purpose an Italian warship will be employed.

To the Associated Press correspondent the Duchess said, she intends offering a large marble bust of the Prince which she has had made especially in Italy to the government, requesting that it should be placed in the Ajuda Palace with other busts of the sovereigns of Portugal.

Since her arrival here hundreds of friends and servants of the late royal family have called continually at the hotel despite the fact that the Duchess has declared that her visit is made solely to the republican government.

The Duke of Oporto, only brother of the murdered King Carlos of Portugal, died in Naples, February last where he fled after the the revolution in Portugal, which made King Manuel an exile of England.

King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, cousin of the Duke gave him asylum and assigned to him a suite in the royal palace in Naples and an allowance of $10,000 a year.

The Duchess of Oporto was formerly Mrs. Phillip Van Valkenburg, wife of the son of a New York banker whom she divorced in 1914. She was married to the Duke in 1917. Her first husband was Lee Agnew, of Chicago, from whom she was divorced in 1906. In about a year she married William Hay Chapman, 76 years old. He died about a year later leaving to her his estate valued at $200,000.

GREENVILLE WINS TWO GAMES FROM PINETOPS' OUTFIT

Locals Take Second Game from Hefty Club in 11 Inning Game, Score 5 to 4

Greenville continued its winning streak Saturday evening at Pinetops by defeating the Pinetops club in an eleven inning contest by the score of 5 to 4. The game was stubbornly fought from the first until the ninth frame when Pinetops succeeded in tying the score by sending two runners across the rubber. The teams were forced to battle determinedly for two innings before the tie could be broken, Greenville succeeding in accomplishing the feat by fast playing, and opportunistic work with the willow.

Sheppard, for Greenville pitched another splendid game, and although the Pinetops aggregation hit harder than usual, they were unable to bunch hits effectively, for at critical stages of the game Sheppard tightened up noticeably and yielded nothing in the shape of a hit. He was relieved in the tenth inning by Barnes. Southard, for Pinetops, also pitched splendidly, but the visitors were able to bunch hits when hits meant runs to them and consequently won out even though the struggle was long and fatiguing.

While Greenville played advantageously at many stages of the game there were moments when the boys appeared rather listless, and failed to give Sheppard necessary support. Seven errors were credited to the entire club, and while all of those were not made at inauspicious moments, they proved costly, however, and assisted Pinetops in sending the four runners down the home circuit. Pinetops fielded in pretty good form, having only three errors marked against it, which, combined with a desire to split even with Greenville caused the many interesting plays.

By winning Saturday's game Greenville caused many interesting plays in the standing of clubs. Both clubs played in each game, Greenville displaying its ability mostly at the bat, Pinetops in the field.

The Secret of Beauty

Why Some Women Look Old and Others Look Young

The old-fashioned way of doing housework makes women old before their time. Especially bending over a miserable tub and scrubbing clothes all day. Red, unsightly hands, backaches and rheumatism are sure to come from the old-time wash tub.

And it isn't necessary. You can do your washing quicker, easier and more economically in the same Clean Easy way. Soak your clothes overnight, shave 1/2 bar of Clean Easy Naphtholene Wash Soap into 4 1/2 gallons of water. Let the soap dissolve. Boil the clothes in this for 10 minutes, stirring with a stick. Rinse, blue and dry.

The washing is done—for only a few cents! Every garment is sterilized, clean and purified. There is no easier or simpler way to wash clothes.

Clean Easy does not hurt the fabric. You don't have to rub to get the dirt out. This wonderful wash soap goes right after all unclean particles and dissolves them without assistance.

Clean Easy also cleans the coarsest clothes—overalls, shirts, etc., without rubbing. It takes out grease spots. Follow directions on the inside of the wrapper.

Clean Easy may be used in hot or cold, hard or soft water. It is always on the job and always does the best job. No home should ever be without it. "ALL O. K. FOR THE BLOOD"

Is What a Citizen of Georgia Says of ZIRON, the New Iron Tonic.

Iron is needed by the blood to keep men and women strong and healthy. Iron is needed by the nerves to keep them toned up. Ziron, the new iron tonic, will put iron into your blood and should help renew your lagged nerve forces in the way it has done it for many others.

Read what Mr. J. R. Bell, Rt. 2, Oconee, Ga., says about the effects of Ziron: "I think Ziron is all O. K. for the blood. That was what I have been taking it for—my blood. I liked Ziron so well that I went back to the store and got two more bottles of it."

Ziron is a combination of a pure medicinal inorganic iron salt, mentioned in the U. S. Pharmacopeia, with the hypophosphites of lime and soda, and other valuable tonic ingredients, endorsed and recommended by the best medical authorities and mentioned in the medical text books.

All druggists sell Ziron on a money-back guarantee. Look for the formula on the label. Get a bottle today, and give it a fair trial.
