GARDNER LEADING MORRISON IN LATE PRIMARY REPORTS

Official Returns from Half of State Fail to Change Run of Votes.

PAGE CONCEDES FIELD TO OTHER CONTESTANTS

Cooper Appears Slightly in the Lead of Harding for Lt.-Governor.

Raleigh, 2:15 P. M., June 8.—According to the state-wide primary Lieut. Governor O. Max Gardner was leading Cameron Morrison with about 3000 votes, as former Congressman Robert N. Page, apparently has been eliminated from the race, it was considered almost certain today that Gardner and Morrison would have to engage in the second primary to be held on July 3, to determine the winner for the Democratic nomination for governor. The News and Observer compilation, based on complete unofficial returns from 40 counties and virtually complete official reports from 46 give Gardner 42,216; Morrison, 31,165; Page, 27,187. The fourteen counties yet to be heard from usually vote a small vote and it was not expected that returns from them would materially change the situation. Intimations are that Associate Justice Hoke has received a majority of votes and will not have to go in the second primary. W. B. Cooper is apparently maintaining a substantial lead over F. C. Harding for Lieut. Governor. The last News and Observer figures from the Sixth district have Lyon a slight lead over Representative Godwin, but a second primary will probably will be necessary to decide the winner.

Returns from forty counties and virtually complete returns from forty-six others in Saturday's primary give Lieut. Governor O. Max Gardner a lead of 3,051 over Cameron Morrison for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Charles Ross, manager for N. Page, yesterday conceded the elimination of Mr. Page leaving the field to Gardner and Morrison. A total of 108,568 votes polled in 1,108 of the 1,564 precincts of the State give Gardner 42,216; Morrison, 31,165; and Page, 27,187. It is estimated that the entire State vote will run between 115,000 and 120,000.

The drift of official returns coming in yesterday indicated that Justice W. A. Hoke is renominated for the Supreme Court, but the early indications that Dr. N. Y. Gulley being his running mate on the Democratic ticket were upset, second position going to W. J. Adams, third to B. F. Long, and fourth to W. P. Stacy. The vote complete in 21 counties showed Hoke, 16,744; Adams, 10,410; Long, 10,212; Stacy, 9,146; Gulley, 6,648; Guion, 4,100; Rouse, 3,283.

The official returns showed W. B. Cooper with a good lead over F. C. Harding for the lieutenant governorship, the vote being 17,500 to 13,501 in twenty-one counties.

In the same twenty-one counties, B. R. Lacy, for State treasurer, had a vote of 20,695 against 8,320 for B. F. Renfrow, from twenty-one counties gave Durham, commissioner of Agriculture, had 16,416 against 7,106 for H. E. Thompson; M. L. Shipman, for Commissioner of Labor and Printing had 17,639 against 9,154 for D. P. Dellinger.

In the State Auditor's race, returns from twenty-one counties give Durham, 10,943; Cook, 6,524; McDonald, 4,849; Boyd, 4,270; and Woodley, 2,882.

Stacy W. Wade appears safely nominated his lead in twenty-one counties being 14,544, to 5,323 for McClenaghan and 6,787 for Anderson.

In the gubernatorial race Judge J. Crawford Biggs is claiming a lead in the primary of between three and four thousand votes when all the returns are in. At the same time Mr. Heriot (Continued on page four.)

NO CHANGES NOTED IN PRESENT STATE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Convention Line-up and None Are Expected Before Convention Opening.

GOVERNING AND MORNING CONFERENCES TO OCCUR

Managers Look to First Ballot to Settle Outlook for Presidency.

Chicago, June 7.—No changes have appeared today in the convention line-up and none are expected. Twenty hours before the convention assembled it is an absolutely unbossed affair and as the bewildered delegates mill around the hotel lobbies bewailing the absence of leadership, the men who were the real leaders in the years gone by, find a grim satisfaction in referring to the charges of bossism which were so freely hurled at them at former reconventions. They are asking delegates if it is not better to be led than lost.

Such overnight and early morning conferences as were held, were of the same conclusive nature as those which preceded them and only served to strengthen the program of letting the convention learn by its preliminary ballots that none of the candidates now having the most delegates has enough to nominate him.

The so-called leaders are still explaining to inquirers that attention is now being concentrated on the platform, which they emphasize is very important. The best informed observers, however, see evidence that this is merely a screen to hide the fact that the so-called leaders are no longer leaders. The passing of the old line party whips becomes more and more evident, has brought up an entirely new crop of so-called leaders, many (Continued on page four.)

LODGE MAY BE BOSS IN FIRST SESSIONS OF G. O. P. CONVENTION

Chicago, June 8.—Unique in the annals of the party, the Republican national convention assembled today unbossed, unbridled and with no presidential candidate having enough votes in sight to assure nomination.

Hours before the convention opened at the Coliseum thousands were waiting hoping to get in. Only a fraction of those applying for seats were admitted despite the capacity for ten thousand. Key-note speech of Senator Lodge, in which he declared the country must drive President Wilson and "dynasty" from power and defeat the league of nations, was the principal feature of the day.

The Republican national convention was called to order at 11:30 soon after Chairman Hays appeared on the platform and was greeted with rounds of applause. After Hays rapped order, Bishop Woodcock, of Louisville, Ky., offered opening prayer. The national committee elected, North Carolina, John M. Morehead; South Carolina, Joseph W. Talbot.

The convention promises to be a record breaker in all prospects, and may cast more ballots than any Republican convention since Gardner was nominated in 1880 when 36 were cast before the party standard bearer was named. Overnight reports and rumors from camps of candidates and delegation quarters appear to shed no light on the situation. A triangular deadlock between Wood, Lowden and Johnson still appears certain on first trial of voting Wednesday with probably more than a score of favorite sons, dark horses or individual selections sharing more than half of the total vote.

The roll call, however, will give the first clear intimation of what the mass of uninstructed voters have been thinking. There is much talk of cutting convention preliminaries by making a temporary organization with Senator Lodge as chairman of permanent convention structure, but no definite step was taken before the first session.

COLORADO WOMAN SPEAKS AT GENEVA SUFFRAGE AFFAIR

Former State Senior Senator One of Speakers in Big Convention.

DECLARES WOMEN ARE PREPARED FOR FUTURE

Tells of Preparation of Women for Sharing Country's Legislation.

Geneva, Switzerland, June 8.—Helen Ring Robinson formerly state senator of Colorado, was one of the speakers today at the mass meeting held here by the Congress of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance and addressed exclusively by women members of former members of parliaments or other governing bodies.

It is a great pity that there have been relatively so few women legislators in my own country, she said. "In our various state legislatures some 60 different women have served. But they have been spread over a good deal of territory and time, which makes the spreading much too thin.

So far but one woman has been elected to our National Congress and during the entire term of office of Congresswoman Rankin, the press never ceased debating whether she was a flower or a vegetable. For myself I vote for the vegetable. What the world needs today is a big crop of vegetables and nature always looks out for the flowers anyway.

There are four callings for which women are plainly better fitted than men—acting, caring for children, nursing and legislating. I do not say women have surpassed men as legislators, but I do say they are inherently better fitted for legislating which should deal primarily with improvements in social relations.

AMERICAN WOMEN RELIEVED OF JOBS IN KOREAN SCHOOL

Japanese Officials Dismiss Methodist Missionaries as Principals.

CHARGED WITH FAILING TO STOP DEMONSTRATION

Pro - Korean Demonstrations Continued With Suppression in Schools.

Seoul, Korea, June 8.—The two American Methodist Missionaries, Henry Appenzeller and Miss B. A. Smith, who were dismissed by Japanese officials in Korea from their positions of principals of private schools, were accused of failing to comply with the requirements of the Japanese to prevent pro-Korean demonstrations by students refusal to punish students alleged to have disobeyed the government order.

Statements issued by representatives of the Japanese government and by Mr. Appenzeller indicate that both missionaries refused to investigate demonstrations of some of the students in their schools on the anniversary of the Korean independence movement or to punish students who participated in them. The position taken by both missionaries was that such action by them would involve a political element and that they had been warned from the American council general not to interfere in political matters in Korea. Mr. Appenzeller declares that he obeyed the government order to the extent of warning his students against demonstrations and had told them they would be punished if they disobeyed.

No statement has been obtained from Miss Smith, principal of the Paju girl's school. The government agents assert that she did not warn her students against demonstrations as directed by the government under the plea that the problem was political in nature and an educationalist (Continued on page two.)

UNUSUAL INTEREST STILL PREVAILS IN COUNTY PRIMARIES

Second Primary Senate and Inevitable in Commissioners' Contest.

M. K. BLOUNT CONCEDES JUDGESHIP TO COOPER

Another Primary Also Probable Between Everett and Outlaw For Senate.

Incomplete returns from the state primary have given out such vague information regarding the contest for governor and lieutenant governor that interest in this section of the state is as tense today as ever, in fact, it is possible that supporters of the various candidates are as much if not more at a loss regarding the standing of the candidates as before the opening of the primary. As far as the county vote is concerned official reports were issued from this office yesterday morning, but this was satisfying as far as county vote is concerned, but failed to eliminate the tense interest regarding the state vote that has been in evidence for several days. Definite information has not been available in the state primary, and only incomplete and unconfirmed statements have been sent over the state since Saturday night. The situation today remains provokingly uncertain, and it is safe to say that nothing definite will be received in this section before tomorrow. However, incomplete reports will be coming into this office from time to time and every effort will be made to ascertain the true state of affairs as early as possible.

The county ticket is still precipitating much discussion among politicians in this city, as it is probable that a second primary will be inevitable in one or two instances. An unofficial count on the vote for county commissioners eliminated practically every member of the old board with the exception of two, M. V. Staton, of Bethel, and Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Grifton. J. W. Holmes and S. M. Crisp were nominated while the vote between L. E. Smith and J. B. Hardee was so close as to make a second primary inevitable, for Mr. Hardee has filed notice that he will not concede the vote to Smith. The vote was Hardee 1581; Smith 1590.

In the contest for judge of county court Cooper failed to receive a majority vote over Blount, and as a result it was expected that a second primary would be asked for. However, it is understood that Mr. Blount will concede the vote to Cooper and eliminate further controversy concerning the office. The vote was, Cooper 1507; Blount 1487; Mayo 201.

A second primary also seems probable for the state senate as S. J. Everett and N. W. Outlaw received the majority vote. Everett's vote was 1294; Outlaw 1078; Laughinghouse 761. This will conclude the contest for county offices, but much interest is still in evidence and it is expected that the coming primaries will be filled with great activity on the part of candidates involved.

CORRECTION OF ERROR IN BROWN HOUSE VOTE

In reporting the official returns of the county primary in its special edition issued Monday morning The Reflector made a typographical error in the vote of Julius Brown for the House. Our report of the vote from Bethel read 23 when it should have read 203. The mistake occurred from a transposition of the Bethel and Belvoir vote in making the correction. We make this correction with pleasure for we consider ourselves entirely responsible for the same vote being reprinted by other news sources of the county considering our count official.

M'LAWHORN GIVEN TERM ON ROAD BY COURT'S DECISION

Supreme Court Confirms Lower Decision in "King Bee" Sentence.

Joe McLawhorn, familiarly known as the "King Bee" of the whiskey traffic in the Winterville district, is in the county jail in this city today to begin a year and a half term on the county roads at hard labor as result of a verdict recently handed down by the supreme court in confirmation of the sentence from superior court of this county last year. McLawhorn was brought to the city yesterday evening by Sheriff Doolley who executed the court's order immediately upon its receipt.

McLawhorn was arrested by Sheriff the latter part of last year for active participation in the traffic of this county and so convincing was his guilt in preliminary hearing here that prosecuting attorneys styled him "King Bee" of blockaders in this territory, a title that he has been known by ever since. He appealed to supreme court for final consideration of his case immediately following the verdict handed down by superior court officials, but the higher court merely confirmed the lower court's decision, finding the charges deserving of the sentence.

It is expected that the court's action in this single case is going to have a decided influence in discouraging traffic in the county, for the apprehension of leaders has its effect in a general way through every section.

Mr. R. E. Wilkins, of Greensboro, was in the city several hours Monday.

Mr. A. T. Johnson, of Raleigh, spent the day in the city yesterday afternoon.

WOMEN BUY COATS TO BE SAFE AFTER THEIR MARRIAGES

Chicago Working Girls Say if They Don't Get 'em Now They Never Will.

Chicago, June 8.—You should hear the reasons many working girls give for buying fur coats, remarked a Chicago merchant to the great number of such purchases being made. "One of the commonest is, well, if I don't get it now before I get married, I never will afterwards.

The sight of so many handsome furs coming to downtown office buildings has led to the report that girls are buying them on the installment plan. Not so in the main, according to inquiry among merchants.

The furs that working girls buy on installment, one house prominent in this class says, are mostly the cheaper grades, averaging in price around several hundred dollars.

Now and then, said the proprietor of this concern, a working girl making a good salary comes in to buy a $400 or $500 fur. Her first payment on a purchase of this size is required to be $150 $200 or perhaps more. She has then four or five months in which to meet the balance.

The run of the stores however ask cash in advance. True enough, many have their own installment plan, but this is quite different from the deferred payment system usually associated with real estate.

TO PROBABLY CALL OFF CLERK STRIKE WITHIN FEW DAYS

President Fitzgerald Goes to Atlanta to Call of Railway Strike.

Washington, June 7.—Strike of railway clerks of the Central of Georgia and neighboring southern railways will be called off today or tomorrow, the Department of Labor was advised today by E. H. Fitzgerald, grand president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

President Fitzgerald and Dr. C. P. Neill, of the Railway General Managers' Association, were appointed last week by the Railroad Labor Board to adjust the strike and President Fitzgerald is expected to arrive in Atlanta today to discuss the situation with J. W. Bridwell, acting as mediator for the bureau of conciliation of the Department of Labor.

In a report received today by the Department of Labor from Bridwell, the strike was characterized "unauthorized and illegal." Clerks of all the railroads excepting the Central of Georgia were reported returning to work. Vice President Downes, of the Central of Georgia, it was said, was refusing to reinstate drilling railway clerks on grounds that the strike was illegal and the positions of the strikers had been filled in numerous cases.

The department said that on the other hand Grand Vice President Nelson of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks, denied having authorized the strike. "The real issue at this writing," Bridwell stated, "is the reinstatement of the clerks of the Central of Georgia without discrimination and the establishment of working conditions."

LITTLE OPPOSITION NOTED IN INCREASE OF FREIGHT RATES

Shippers Pass Up Detailed Cross Examination at I. C. C. Hearing.

Washington, June 8.—Opposition to the general freight rate increases asked by the railroads of the country weakened perceptibly at the resumption of the hearings before the Interstate Commerce Commission today when W. F. Lamb, chairman of the shipper's committee, announced that shippers had decided to forego detailed cross-examination of the statistical introduced by the carriers.

Plans of the shippers originally called for an attack on the exhibits presented by the roads, by which the estimated aggregate book value of over twenty billion dollars was placed on the properties. This would form the basis for the six per cent return, which the carriers claim will necessitate an added income of more than one billion dollars annually.

C. E. Cotterill, of Atlanta, representing the Southern Traffic League, however, declared that it was his intention to question witnesses for the roads on all the phases of the evidence submitted. He conducted cross-examination today of M. P. Blauvelt, vice-president of the Illinois Central, on the earnings and operating expenses of the carriers.

We have heard much talk of machine politicians for the past several days, but no one can truly appreciate the operations of such machine men until they become a candidate for some office outside of its operations.

About the time that provisional government in Mexico gets in action we may expect to hear of another eruption in governmental affairs. The fact is Mexico is having a hard time to become normal, but probably if the United States senate could have its way for a while conditions might be somewhat different, certainly not more accentuated.

That Republican national convention in Chicago may not mean much to the most of us, but to members of the party it's one of the most direct ways of ascertaining the elephant's color. A re-seated future is predicted by some regardless of the elephant, but before the convention is over a number of the presidential aspirants may get a pretty good vision of a goat instead of the elephant.

The recent primary brought of the fact that practically all candidates for office on the state ticket were about equally divided, with exception of one or two instances, in fact, it looks now as if a second primary is going to be inevitable in ascertaining which of the candidates will receive nomination. Incomplete reports indicate that Gardner and Morrison will be in the second primary, and this will no doubt produce great activity among supporters of each. It will be hard to determine the winner for Gardner has a big following, and Morrison as state leader of the party, is backed by a determined set of supporters. It all depends on the way Page supporters turn in event the second primary becomes a reality, and for this reason the situation contains many complications beyond the comprehension of old political prophets.

The opening of Chautauqua season in Greenville this afternoon marks the beginning of a week filled with pleasure and profit for those who are fortunate enough to appreciate the high standard of the Chautauqua principle and the helpful programs provided to uplift community ideals in all sections of the country. The Chautauqua program for the entire week has several features that will appeal almost to any person, in fact, the management has done everything possible to meet the requirements of the public in a way that will be directly elevating to social life and a source of inspiration to those who are seeking better classes of entertainment and diversion. Greenville people will do well to patronize the attraction for it is promoted by prominent persons of the city who realize the high standard of the spirit behind the movement, and guarantee to bear the expense of the Chautauqua while here. There is much good to be derived from such entertainments, and it is to be hoped the guarantors will be gratified by a large attendance during the entire week for this will show that their efforts have been amply rewarded.

The Reflector has always made it a point to try to give to its many readers throughout the county the very best service possible. This fact was made evident Saturday night, Sunday and Monday in furnishing returns from both state and county primaries, in which much interest was intense and in which our reports were received as soon as available from our splendid news sources. If any event of any importance happens in the county we always endeavor to give it just attention and present it to our readers as accurately and comprehensively possible. We generally present such occurrences to the public while it's news and of interest, and in doing so we feel that we are giving the people exactly what they want and when they want it. We deal with facts and endeavor to make every article authentic, unbiased and without prejudice, for we realize that the public desires to be treated with due respect for general opinion and not for any single person or faction. In doing this it is safe to say that the paper is a dependable source of service, fully capable of handling public sentiment sincerely and with the purpose of giving everyone a square deal deserving of such.

COTTON WORST ON RECORD.

The North Carolina cotton crop is recognized as being in a precarious condition, but our farmers will be surprised to learn that other states have much the same conditions.

"The worst conditions recorded in the 50 years history of the cotton crop were reported from every state" says Frank Parker, of the state's Crop Reporting Service, who is just back from Washington, D. C., as a member of the official Crop Reporting Board. "The June second cotton report averaged 62.4 per cent of a full crop (normal) and the next lowest condition was 69.5 for June 1917. Last year the outlook reported was 75.6 per cent of a crop at this date. The season throughout the cotton belt is from two to four weeks late.

"The North Carolina conditions that caused 70 per cent of a crop and a great worry to farmers are the excessive rains that packed the soil, and subsequent shortage of rainfall caused the rapid drying out of the hard packed surface. Frost during the middle of May and continued cool to cold weather produced stunted and sickly plants. Much replanting was done, some sections reporting from 20 to 35 per cent replanted. Poor preparation of the soil was bad for a good start of the young plants.

"The subnormal temperature and four inch shortage of rainfall, as only one inch fell in May, caused the continuance of the late season. The nights have been lacking. There has been a general cry of the "Worst conditions ever." Very little chopping was done at this late date, much seed failed to germinate, and not enough left to replant with. Labor shortage will prevent recovery of these effects even with favorable conditions hereafter. Still the fine rain of the fourth and fifth of June will greatly relieve the situation.

"The last year's 1,490,000 acres picked will be lowered this year as may also be the 266 pounds of lint made per acre. The 1919 crop was itself quite short.

"The fertilizers used under cotton were mostly of the 8, 3, 3 analysis and reports showed an average of 527 pounds per acre used at a cost of $14.39. The amount and grade of fertilizers increased from western to eastern counties. The Piedmont averaged 400 pounds costing $9.80 while the northern coastal counties averaged 525 pounds at a cost of $13.20. The central coastal counties showed 611 pounds at $17.09 and the southern coastal 660 pounds at $19.60. The top dresser fertilizers will be added later.

Beautiful Wedding Solemnized in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

Yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Miss Elizabeth Emily Higgs became the bride of Mr. Hammer Williams Winstead. The church was beautifully decorated with lilies, hydrangea, ferns and burning tapers. Mrs. S. T. White presided at the organ, playing Lohengrin as the processional, Mendelssohn as the recessional and, "I love you truly," during the ceremony. Prior to the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. DeLanc Carlton Salisbury, sister of the groom, sweetly sang "Values," and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." The bridal party entered in following order, first the ushers, Messrs. George King, Washington, D. C., Wm. Moore, of China, William Gupton, of Rocky Mount, Robert Winstead, of Maryland, Mrs. DeLanc Carlton, of Salisbury, Miss Lizzie Winstead, of Rocky Mount, Mrs. W. J. Rasbery, Mr. and Mrs. John Bynum and Mrs. Smith, of Farmville and Messrs. Whitaker of Kinston.

The home was very attractively arranged for the occasion. Victrola music and dancing was enjoyed through out the evening. A very interesting contest was enjoyed. Miss Canelle Robinson won the prize, a dainty Crepe de Chine handkerchief. Delicious cream and cake was served by Misses Lila Smith and Bertha Ray Joyner.

The hour of parting came too soon and each guest declared Mrs. Joyner a charming hostess.

Mr. Winstead is the son of Mrs. M. O. Winstead of Rocky Mount. He is one of the state's most popular young men, and has for the past few years been connected with the tobacco interest in China. He possesses a sterling character and also a host of friends. They were the recipients of a large number of beautiful and handsome presents.

The out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bullock, of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Ben

Like the one last hair on a bald man's head, there is just one straw hat in this great big stylish stock that you will look best in.

It's your size and your style, until some good looking twin brother of yours walks in and carries it off.

And then you will have to sit in the gallery and play second fiddle while he leads the grand march.

We're having a wonderful straw hat business but we don't want you to miss "that one wonderful hat."

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY

I beg to express my hearty appreciation for the loyal support given me in the Primary on last Saturday, which re-nominated me your candidate in the coming election.

I have in the past put forth my best efforts under all circumstances to perform my full duty in my office and shall continue to do so as long as I occupy it. I am thankful for the support given me as a candidate and as an officer of the county.

I am very thankful to my supporters and have nothing but kind feeling for my opponents.

E. R. DUDLEY

Mr. T. G. Vickers, of Ayden, spent a short time here yesterday evening.

Mr. W. G. Pruitt, of Raleigh, is in Greenville today, on business.

MORRISON IN LATE PRIMARY REPORTS

Clarkson is claiming that on returns he has in hand Morrison has a clear lead.

In a statement last night, Mr. Charles Ross conceded the elimination of Mr. Page and declared that the unselfish manner in which Mr. Page's vote was given does much to soften the disappointment of defeat.

The statement follows:

"While the returns from the primary are yet incomplete they are sufficiently full to convince me that Mr. Page has been eliminated from the contest.

"Mr. Page's vote is sufficiently large to be very flattering and the class of citizenship from which this support came and the unselfish manner which it was given does much to soften the disappointment of defeat.

"We have made our appeal to the best thought of the State, and while we have not achieved success, we tried to so conduct our campaign as to do more; that is, to deserve success.

"We quit the field hoping that we have contributed some part to keep the campaign on a high plane, and have done nothing of which we are ashamed.

"I desire to thank the newspapers of the State for the uniform fairness with which they have treated me, and of Mr. Clarkson and Judge Biggs, man to acknowledge the unfailing courtesy of the opposing candidates."

of whom do not know one another and that is one of the things which explains the lack of cohesive action in getting down to definite conclusions.

No campaign manager has been able to strengthen his lines enough to go in with confidence for a real test vote. Each one of them is awaiting for the first ballot to demonstrate how good are the assurances he has received from the uninstructed delegates.

All the managers look for the first ballot to settle the outlook considerably for the big three—Johnson, Lowden and Wood. They feel that the candidate who gets the highest number will have a potential advantage and the candidate who stands at the bottom of the list will be decidedly on the defensive. The candidate who can make a gain on the second ballot, the managers feel, will provide his manager with very valuable ammunition in rounding up things for the third.

With prospects of a deadlock thus becoming better today, favorite sons and dark horse possibilities increased their activities and further tangled the knotty reins of control for which party leaders are wrestling.

a quarrel between Hungary and Serbia over the shipment of hogs. All the great wars in history have been caused by quarrels over the shipment of hogs in some guise or other. All of the legislation back of these wars has been built on hogs and the belief that the measure of a nation's greatness is the production of wealth hogs.

"Now another estimate of value is shaping itself out of a world's agony, the ideal that women have always held that the measure of a nation's greatness is the production of health and happiness. Here is the especial task of the legislator woman. Here is the solemn duty of the women assembled in Geneva at what may justly be called an Internationale of good will to put this new vision across the flux of the whole world's thinking by every possible expedient to embody it into law, to weld it into constitutions, to interpret it into every international movement.
