RAILWAY CROSSING CLAIMS TWO MORE VICTIMS IN WRECK

William Daniels and Daughter Dead and Three Fatally Hurt in Crash.

N. S. TRAIN CRASHES THRU CAR NEAR WILSON

Automobile Smashed Beyond Recognition; Train Crew Describes Accident.

Wilson, July 26.—The grade crossing claimed two more victims at Stantonburg, ten miles east of Wilson, yesterday afternoon at 5:15, when a Norfolk Southern passenger train crashed into an automobile, killing William Daniels and his 10-year-old daughter, Sarah Daniels, and probably fatally injuring Mrs. W. W. Farmer, Stephen Daniels and his 10-year-old son.

The little girl who is dead was said to have been driving the automobile. The party, all of whom live near Elm City, was returning to their home from a visit to relatives in a neighboring community, hurrying to get home before an impending storm. Unheeding of the rushing passenger train, moving down a steep grade at a high rate of speed, the automobile drove on to the crossing and was crushed to bits under the locomotive.

The train was in charge of Capt. E. P. Furr and Engineer Clarence E. Hanbury of Raleigh. As quickly as air brakes can do it the train was brought to a standstill, the three injured and two dead loaded on and rushed to Wilson, the dead to an undertaking establishment and the living to a hospital, where it was said last night that they had a fighting chance for life.

Graves crossing, where the tragedy was enacted, is one mile east of Stantonburg. From the highway there is a clear view of the railroad track, it is said, although the engineer is hindered from seeing the road since he was riding on the right side of the cab, and the outside of the curve in the track. The wreck was blown before reaching the crossing. Captain Furr said last night. He was unable to understand why the car was not stopped. Engineer Hanbury did not see it until he was a few yards away.

The automobile was smashed to such small bits that it was impossible to determine its make, Captain Furr stated. The bodies of the two dead were horribly mangled. Mr. Daniel's head was severed from the body and was picked up several feet way from the wreck. The train was crowded with passengers, most of whom rushed out in alarm at the jerk of the air brakes. The train reached Raleigh at 8:45, an hour late.

SANDY HOOK BOAT RACE POSTPONED TODAY FOR 15 MINUTE INTERVALS

Sandy Hook, July 26.—The Shamrock crossed the starting line almost one minute ahead of the Resolute in the fifth race which decided the series. At 1:40 yachts were moving slowly with Shamrock still in the lead. The Resolute slipped in ahead at 1:50 o'clock and three minutes later was about ten seconds of the Shamrock. Sandy Hook, July 26.—The boat race was postponed at eleven-thirty o'clock today for fifteen minute intervals. Wind conditions were responsible for the action. Shortly before the start the wind was so light that it was not enough to drive sloops over the thirty mile course within the six hour time limit. The trying out sails of the Shamrock fell into the calm and signalled for tow. Signals were later set for start at 1:30 o'clock.

LEAGUE PRESIDENT IS AGAIN CRITICISED BY TARBORO PAPER

Tarboro Southerner Charges Con Lanier With Interference in Game Here.

ACTION AGAINST WEBB BEING USED RESENTED

Paper Declares Lanier had Nothing to do With South-paw Being Used.

(Tarboro Southerner.) We were taken greatly to task for questioning the legality of the election of Mr. Con Lanier as president of the Eastern Carolina Baseball Association and, in compliance with this request, we published his version of the matter, nothing at the time that we did not want any discussion on a subject that had been settled.

Yesterday however, at the game in Greenville, Mr. Con Lanier, still president of the league, arose in the grandstand and called upon the umpire to announce a protest for the Greenville team because Mark Webb was sent in as a pinch hitter for Tarboro. Neither the manager nor the president of the Greenville Baseball Club had made any movement to protest Webb from playing, but the President of the League, who at least should be impartial, took it upon himself to protest the game.

We want to know how any president who assumes the function of president or manager of a local club could sit impartially on a protest that he instigated.

At the meeting of the board of directors which met about ten days ago in Greenville it was expressly stated that those playing in the first series should be permitted to play the second series "without stipulation" as to being a home man or not.

Tarboro has not protested any players, but it is well known that other clubs are playing higher class men and in one instance the league has given permission for a player, who had been tried out in higher company, to play in this league. How, then can anyone protest against Mr. Mark Webb who has played throughout the season with Pinetops, without protesting States, "There's no good Indian but a dead Indian," applied precisely nowadays to the German public's attitude toward the officer class.

GERMAN OFFICERS SIGH FOR RETURN OF GOOD OLD DAYS

Forced Off Government Payroll, Officers Prefer Days of the Kaiser.

Berlin, July 26.—No one in Germany sighs more fervently for "the good old days" of the Kaiser than the former army officer. Forced off the government payroll by the reduction of the army, untrained for work other than soldiering, and so generally disliked by the population that he has difficulty in finding any kind of employment, the officer's lot in democratic Germany is a hard one. His prewar world, in which he strutted about as the privileged pet of his emperor, has been utterly destroyed. Many have been reduced to extreme financial straits. The middle-aged ex-officer gets a pension of 3,800 marks a year, but that is only about a fifth of the amount required to maintain a family. So urgent is their need that a movement has been set on foot to form an ex-officers' association for the purpose of inducing the government to provide them with land and subsidies. A former officer, dolefully discussing with the correspondent the plight of himself and his fellow

CONGRESS RECORD COSTS UNCLE SAM $537,640 FOR YEAR

Costs of Producing Congressional Record Similar to that of Last Year.

Washington, July 26.—The cost of publishing the Congressional Record, the government publication recording daily everything that is said and done in congress, as well as some things outside, was $537,640 last year, practically the same as for 1918, but about $80,000 less than the 1917 cost. These figures were given recently by Russell O. Beene, accountant at the government printing office, in answer to an inquiry of representative Magee, of New York, as to the possible saving that would result from the discontinuance of the record. Mr. Beene gave the cost for 1917 as $617,908.88 and for 1918 as $537,640.

Cornelius Ford, the public printer, was asked for an explanation of the high figure in 1917, but confessed his ignorance unless it happened that congress "did more talking" that year. Mr. Ford said that in 1917, congress was in session 250 days; in 1918, 307 days, and in 1919, 279 days. The printed pages in the Record for these years were 632,511,904 in 1917, 543,672,587 in 1918; and 455,130,450 in 1919. The cost of paper has increased greatly within the past three years, but the use of a lighter and less expensive quality has helped reduce the aggregate cost of the paper used. For 1919, the paper cost was $130,000 as compared with $162,000 in 1918 and $300,000 in 1917.

SAYS UNITED STATES SECRETARY ASSISTED THE POLISH PEOPLE

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 26.—Parley P. Christensen, Farmer-Labor candidate for President, tonight charged that through "secret relations" between the United States and Poland many million dollars' worth of war material had been delivered to the latter country. This material, he said, was for use against the Russian soviet government, and was paid for with long-term Polish notes bearing 5 per cent. interest. The statements were made by Mr. Christensen in a telegram to Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee, calling on him to "employ your powerful position to acquaint the country with the immensely grave possibilities to America of a continuation of the administration's Polish-Russian policy."

PAYROLES REVOKED WHEN MEN WOBBLE IN STRAIGHT PATH

Governor Sends Four Men Back to Prison to Serve Out Sentences.

GARLAND STANCILL OF PITT, AMONG NUMBER

Stancill Re-arrested Because of Opposition to Cattle Tick Eradication.

Raleigh, July 26.—Because they wobbled along the straight and narrow path outlined for them when Governor Bickett commuted their sentences and gave them their liberty, the Governor yesterday revoked the parole of four men and as soon as the sheriffs in their respective counties can get hold of them Garland Stancill, Pitt county; Thomas Green, Lincoln county, and Chevis and Clarence Bostie, Cleveland county, will be returned to the prison camps from which they were given their freedom and serve out their full sentences.

The somewhat unusual action was taken when the Governor learned that neither of the four men were living in accordance with the precepts laid down for them when he inclined a merciful ear to their petition for clemency some time since.

"There is no man more inclined to give a man a chance than I am," said the Governor discussing the revocation. "But when a man abuses the confidence I have placed in him by giving him his freedom, when he wobbles along the straight and narrow path, he must come back and serve out his time."

TWO COLORED MEN ENGAGE IN BATTLE AT CHURCH SUNDAY

Elmer Gorham Shot Through Hand by Charlie Boyd Near St. Peter's Church

Elmer Gorham, colored, was shot and painfully injured by Charles Boyd, also colored, in an encounter occurring at St. Peter's church, a short distance from this city, yesterday immediately following morning exercises at the church. Boyd was later arrested by Sheriff Dudley and released under $100 bond.

Both men, it is stated were intoxicated at the time of the shooting and began a dispute only a slight provocation. The argument resulted in blows, but Boyd was not contented with fist fighting and employed his pistol with better results. Only one shot was fired, but the bullet passed through Gorham's hand in such a way that it brought about immediate incapacitation possibly preventing further damage.

EDITOR GIVEN SHORT SENTENCE ON CHARGE FOR COURT CONTEMPT

New Haven, Conn., July 24.—Arthur J. Sloane, managing editor of the New Haven Journal-Courier, today was sentenced to jail for ten days and execution of the sentence suspended, by Judge Charles J. Martin, of Orange, for alleged contempt of court.

Comment on four days of last week in reports of trials of liquor raid cases at Savin Rock, a shore resort, was deemed by Judge Martin to reflect upon the court. Mr. Sloane in hearing last two days this week, dealt there was contempt, assuming full responsibility for news matter in the editions and testifying that the object of the comment was to point out the unreliability of testimony of witnesses.

SAYS MORE SEATS MUST BE CREATED IN U. S. CONGRESS

Increased Population Will Necessitate Increasing Membership Soon.

SIXTY-SIX NEW SEATS NECESSARY FOR DEMAND

Siegel Says Ten States Will Lose Representation if Increase Isn't Granted

Washington, July 26.—Unless the membership of the House is increased from 435 to at least 500 to meet the increased population shown by the 1920 census, 10 states will lose one or more representatives, according to Representative Siegel, of New York, chairman of the Census committee which will frame the new Apportionment Bill. These states are:

Indiana, Iowa, and Missouri, which will lose two congressmen each; and Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Nebraska, Vermont and Virginia, which will lose one congressman each. Mr. Siegel explains that if the house membership is retained at its present figure, it will be necessary to increase the population basis in each congressional district beyond the 211,000 or major portion thereof now fixed. If this is done, he says, the 10 states named will lose one or more of the present districts because their populations have not increased in proportion to those of other states.

On the basis of the estimated population of 106,000,000 for the whole country in 1920, an increase of approximately 14,000,000 in 10 years, Mr. Siegel says 65 or 66 new seats in the house must be created if the 10 states are to retain their present numerical representation.

BATTLESHIP IOWA WILL BE USED FOR TARGETT PRACTICE

Famous Battleship Being Rigged up for Unusual Target Experiment.

Washington, July 26.—The once famous battleship Iowa, which played no small part in the destruction of Cervera's fleet at Santiago is being prepared at the Philadelphia navy yard for what naval officers say will be one of the most unique target experiments ever attempted.

Proceeding unannounced, but under her own steam and controlled by radio, probably from seaplanes, the old sea-fighter will become the object of the big guns of the Atlantic fleet superdreadnoughts in Chesapeake Bay late this summer. This will be the first time that American warships have used a moving craft for a target except in actual war.

Two of the Iowa's coal burning boilers are being converted to burn oil so the ship may continue under way with no one aboard once her fires have been started burning and her engines placed in motion.

It is expected that the unique practice will give the gunpointers of the Atlantic fleet an opportunity to test their ability under conditions as nearly like those to be expected in battle as can be obtained. Smoke screens will be thrown around the Iowa during the runs and the course will be changed at will through the radio control system, necessitating a change in range on all the firing ships, exactly as would occur in action.

The Iowa has already been stripped of some of its guns and much valuable metal and the practice will be continued until the old vessel, a mass of twisted metal, sinks beneath the waves to join the old Texas, which, as the San Marcos, was used for as a stationary target years ago.

SAYS BICKETT TOO LATE TO PREVENT PROBE OF PRISONS

Head of Washington Person Society Claims Probe is Virtually Completed

SAYS LEGISLATURE MAY BE ASKED INTERFERE

Mrs. Duckett Will Make Her Report in Few Days, Duckett Declares.

Washington, July 26.—"Governor Bickett is two weeks late in putting a ban on our investigators," Earl E. Dudding, head of the Prisoners Relief Society said here today in announcing that prison conditions in North Carolina will likely be brought to the attention of regular session of the Legislature in January.

Mrs. Rex B. Duckett, who has been acting as chief clerk of the Society, has already completed her investigation in the State, including a visit to the central prison at Raleigh, and will make her report here within the next few days. When it is made, Dudding says, it will be laid before the executive committee of the Society and that body, he believes, will appeal to the General Assembly if conditions have been found as recited in an "epidemic" of letters received here.

Dudding declared that neither the Society, nor himself, has any quarrel with Governor Bickett. He declares that the Society is attacking a system and not the individual, and that it is armed to make a fight if the Governor rather than undertake to have brutal treatment of convicts abolished in chain gangs over the State.

The Governor's statement to the Associated Press last night carried under a double-column head by one of the Washington papers and featured by the metropolitan press, is, in Dudding's opinion, "a case of the Governor over speaking himself."

"It is too late now to say that conditions shall not be investigated and as far as the Governor's reference to outsiders is concerned I need only remind him that our interest in the State is being looked after by a North Carolinian. The Governor will be dealing with his own people if Mrs. Duckett wants to see him, and I suppose she will, although his attitude may cause her to change her plans."

"I thought the Governor was a better Lawyer, if not a better sport," Dudding added, "than to call me an ex-convict agitator. At the same time, I am sure that if I could talk the matter over with the Governor he wouldn't be one half as mad as he appears to be, unless his anger takes a different form."

NORLINA MAN CUTS THROAT ON ACCOUNT OF UNREQUIRED LOVE

Richmond, Va., July 24.—L. T. Poncey, 55 years old, who cut his throat at Norlina a month or so ago and was recently discharged from Rex Hospital at Raleigh, where he underwent treatment for the wound, was arrested here today as a fugitive from Norlina at the instance of Deputy Sheriff E. M. Green, of Warrenton, who brought with him a warrant charging Poncey of obtaining $1,900 from his business partner at Norlina.

Poncey was indignant over his arrest and indicated that he would fight requisition. He insisted that it was only a civil matter and that he could not be held criminally. Sheriff Green did not bring requisition papers with him, feeling sure that he would have

MONDAY, JULY 26, 1920.

The prohibition party has nominated an Ohio man for the presidency. It looks like the state is going to be the father of presidents now.

Bolshevik leaders assert that capitalists in Russia are nearing a collapse. Who ever thought the country had any capitalists.

That man in Richmond who killed himself because of unrequited love must not have considered that death removes the possibility of further love affairs.

Harding may have chilled independent voters of the country, as some like to claim, but if we go a little deeper, it looks as if he has chilled the whole country.

That New York trunk-mystery is similar to several other sensational discoveries made in that region. The metropolis is a mighty nice place in which to live, but it is also a mighty good place to disappear and never know where you will wind up.

Marion Butler appears to like the idea of dealing in unrealities. He says North Carolina needs the Republican party and the Republican party needs the State. He is probably right about the party needing the state's support, but as to the state needing the party that is a question involving considerable doubt.

If cats mean anything to a man's success in life, then it is quite probable Sir Thomas Lipton is going to get everything coming to him. Friends elated over his good showing in the America boat races have presented him with thirteen expensive felines, so if there is anything lucky about cats, Sir Thomas certainly has a direct advantage over the rest of the world.

North Carolina has a lower death rate and higher birth rate than any other state in the Union, according to recent statistics, but it still lags behind in the educational line. Illiteracy, however, is giving way to education almost daily in many sections, and it is possible that the old state will be claiming an enviable record along this line before long.

Administration opponents are now charging that the United States has secretly assisted Poland. That much is good for Poland, and goes to show that this country is not going to stand by and see a nation suffer for the lack of necessities of life. If such charges are all that can be found against the government, well, Uncle Sam has got a mighty firm foothold, on the world beyond, that's all there is about it.

"Undesirables" are having a mighty hard time living in comfort in America just at this time, for immigration authorities are watching every class of alien closely, and provide passports back home as soon as treachery is discovered. This kind of action will have much to do with keeping the country a fit place in which to live, for it brings the foreigner face to face with the fact that America is desirous of fair, square dealings, and is going to have title at all costs.

INCREASED MATERIAL IMPORTED

There can no longer be any doubt of the increasing demands of the United States for foreign materials for use in manufacturing. We are a little uncertain, says a statement by The National City Bank of New York, when we saw that our imports of crude material for use in manufacturing had been $1,977,000,000 in the 11 months ending with May, 1910, as against only $1,115,000,000 in the same months of the preceding year, as to whether this big increase in value was due to higher prices or really meant larger quantities. But now the figures are at hand, and show tremendous increases in quantities imported of nearly all the crude articles required in our manufacturing industries.

Take India rubber, for example; the total quantity imported in the fiscal year ending with June, 1920, was slightly more than 625 million pounds as compared with 402 million pounds in the fiscal year 1919, and 300 million in 1918. Hides and skins, of which the prices in 1920 are phenomenally high, show also enormous gains over last year, and in fact over any earlier year, the grand total for the fiscal year ending with June, 1920, being nearly 800 million pounds against 448 million in the fiscal year 1919, 433 million in 1918, 700 million pounds in the fiscal year 1917, and 744 million in 1916, the former high record year. Goatskins, of which the import price has doubled in the last year, show a total for the fiscal year 1920 of approximately 130 million pounds against 80 million pounds in 1919, and 106 million in the high record year, 1917, when the price per pound was less than half of that today. Cotton, imported into this great cotton producing country of the world, amounts in the fiscal year 1920 to over 340 million pounds against 104 million pounds in 1919, and 233 million pounds in the former high record year 1916.

Of raw silk, in which the prices have been far higher than ever before—double in fact those of one year earlier—the quantity imported in the fiscal year 1920 was 46 million pounds against 34,321,000 pounds one year ago, and 34,846,000 in 1918, the former high record year in quantity of silk brought in, while the price which we paid for our 1920 imports of unmanufactured silk was approximately $459,000,000 as against $218,000,000 in 1919, the former high record year.

Governor Bickett was perfectly right in not permitting "Outlander" prison reform investigators to pry into the way prison things are being conducted in this state, for North Carolina is fully capable of conducting its own reforms without any advice or assistance from other sources, and certainly knows more about its own conditions than any others could divine from year of study and inspection. Every state preserves an inalienable right of handling its own affairs, and it is convincingly evident that state prisoners will get better attention without interference than they would otherwise.

Suffrage leaders are not satisfied with Harding's reply on the suffrage question, in fact, his remarks have been so evasive that they mean absolutely nothing. It is the same kind of treatment which every important question has received from the Republicans, for they have nothing to say but want to say something to make people believe there is really something important left in the balance. The public is getting mighty tired of such action and would be gratified to have something really definite and decidedly believable.

The Democrats may change the place for notification of Governor Cox of his nomination if they like, for that will have nothing to do with the way people are going to vote. Governor Cox is daily revealing himself as a leader for the people, and the public has found in his way of doing things something entirely new and interesting. There is little doubt about his nomination because he represents the Democratic platform in a straightforward way, and that is just what the people want. In fact, they couldn't ask for anything better if they would.

Forbes Mill Pond Water O. K.

From the beginning insidious and malicious reports have been circulated by some one against the Amuzu Pond. Now the report is that the water in Forbes mill pond has been condemned. We wish to state that the report is false. The water has been examined and approved as by both North Carolina and Pitt county health officers. Also by several local physicians. The water does contain a slick substance, called algae or algine, which is sap exuding from the many bushes and trees in the pond. This sap is absolutely harmless, and our shower baths enable you to get rid of it and renew youthful vigor at the same time. It is our intention to have the water tested often and if necessary the pond will be chlorinated. We trust this will be sufficient to confound all malicious reports.

M'CORMICK-CRITCHER.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at her home on Dickinson avenue, Miss Eria Critcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Critcher, became the bride of Mr. E. B. McCormick. As the marriage was a surprise one, only a few friends and the bride's family witnessed the ceremony. The bride entered with the groom. She wore a going away suit of blue tricotine with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Walter Patten. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left for an extended tour of northern cities. After their return they will be at home in Washington.

Mrs. McCormick is one of Greenville's most popular and attractive young ladies. For the past few years she has held a responsible position in the offices of the A. C. L. and Norfolk Southern railroads, in this city. She is a general favorite with everyone, and number her friends by the score.

Mr. McCormick although a native of St. Paul, has been in this section of the state for a number of years, and is well known. He is a young man of sterling character and a successful business man.

FIRE ALARM SATURDAY NIGHT

FROM PITT LUMBER COMPANY

There were two fire alarms Saturday night, both calling the department to the plant of the Pitt Lumber Company. The first was between seven and eight o'clock when fire was found in the fuel bin adjoining the boiler room. This was quickly put out, or supposed to be, without damage of consequence. Between ten and eleven o'clock the department was called to the plant again; fire having re-appeared and this time it was put out sure enough.

SINGLE MEN AND MARRIED

MEN TO PLAY AGAIN FRIDAY

The married men who have stood the test of war, as a result of matrimony, for many years, today issued another challenge to the single men to cross bats again next Friday. The single men carried away the honors last week, but the married men say that they can't do it any more or at least if they do, they will have to put up a hard fight. The single men, knowing that they can put it over again, accepted the challenge, so on next Friday they will play another interesting game on the local diamond for the benefit of the base ball club.

ROTARIANS ANNOUNCE THEIR

LINE UP FOR THURSDAY

They took and listen! Next Thursday afternoon at the baseball park the Rotarians will cross bats with the Chamber of Commerce for the benefit of the local base ball club. This promises to be a wonderful game and different from any other game ever played in this city. The following is the line up for the Rotarians:

Willie Best, official score keeper; Sammy Phillips, water boy; Bobby Crow, pigtail. Burney Warren, chief catcher; Johnie Kittrell, 1st base coach; Claudy Tunstall, 3rd base coach.

The Chamber of Commerce will have to get busy if they beat this line up for these are some ball players. Several of them have won honors on league games and are known far and wide for their ability to handle the ball and bat with efficiency.

GREENVILLE WINS TWO OUT OF THREE FROM HEFTY CLUB

Locals Win Saturday Afternoon's Game From Pinetops by the Score of 7 to 2.

Greenville made it two out of three against Pinetops by taking Saturday afternoon's contest by the score of 7 to 2. The game was in many ways similar to others played with the same club, for at times playing was fast and interesting and at others inconsistent and ragged. Pinetops played in its customary fast and interesting way, but failed completely to hit when hits would have resulted in runs. This fact was evident throughout the entire game, particularly until the seventh and eighth innings, when the only scoring of the game occurred. All nine hits were kept well scattered, and failed, to yield anything at all in the shape of a run until successful bunting in the seventh resulted in three runs with an additional runner being sent across the rubber in the eighth frame.

Greenville, it is thought, played considerably faster than the day before, in fact, the club only had one error charged against it for the game. That, however, occurred at a moment when it really meant for something in the shape of runs, and helped Pinetops considerably in placing the four runners around the home circuit. Fielding was fast and airtight with exception of this one instance, and it easily believable that a complete shut out could have been staged against Pinetops had it not been for the fact that someone advised "Smokey" Smith to be a little considerate for the feelings of others and yield a little something like a timely hit. He did it, although in a stinging, concerned way, showing conclusively that he didn't like the idea, but couldn't refuse a request from friends.

Denning's home run for Greenville was probably the outstanding feature of the game. There were no men on bases at time of the fortunate bludge, but it was so encouraging that every man on the team did his best to do better, but which of course, was clean out of the question. McElroy did his best to curb the batting spirit of the visitors, but without result for they hit so opportunely and with such vigor that preventing runners reaching the home plate was an impossibility.

"Smokey" Smith pitched his usual good game for Greenville. To tell the truth, he pitched so effectively that it looked discouraging for Pinetops until the seventh inning when the first runners of the game were sent across the rubber. The victory featured as Smith's fourth straight, and gave Greenville a firmer hold on the last half of the series.

The Scotland Neck champions begin a series of three games in Greenville this afternoon, and some of the fastest playing of the entire season is expected. The hyphens won the first half of the series, and as Greenville is leading the race for the last half it is quite probable that each club will battle for supremacy in a way that will prove particularly interesting and pleasing to those who have watched the games closely since the league's opening. Greenville is working determinedly for honors of the last half, and if she captures two out of the three games with the champions the chance will be much better in many ways.

WASHINGTON MAKES IT THREE

Williamston, July 24.—Washington made it three straight from Williamston by taking this afternoon's contest by the score of 5 to 0. The game was fast and interesting in every frame, but the inability of the locals to hit opportunely prevented runners crossing the rubber several times. The visitors appeared possibly in better form than the two former games, and by bunting hits combined with winning.

TARBORO CLUB DEFEATS SCOTLAND NECK HYPHENS

Tarboro, July 24.—Tarboro defeated the Scotland Neck hyphens here this afternoon by the score of 12 to 4. The game was featured by heavy batting of the locals from the first inning until the final frame. The visitors played hard and creditably but were completely outclassed at the bat, being unable to hit when hits would have resulted in runs.
