RUSSIANS DRAWING NEARER WARSAW IN DARING OFFENSIVE

Roar of Artillery from Russian Lines Heard Plainly at Polish Capitol.

HEAVY GUNS WILL BE PLACED IN ACTION IN NEXT SEVERAL HOURS

Bolsheviki Hosts Closing in Rapidly, and Plan to be in Capitol Soon

Warsaw, Aug. 15.—The roar of artillery was plainly heard at Warsaw today. The Russians brought up the artillery, but had not placed guns heavier enough to reach the Polish capitol. The Russians are now twenty-one miles Warsaw on northeastern front.

Warsaw, Aug. 14.—Russian forces attacking Warsaw have worked well toward the rear of the city's defenses and are attacking Plonsk, within a dozen miles of Vistula on the river northwest of Warsaw.

Paris, Aug. 13.—Closing in upon Warsaw from the north, east and south-east, the Bolsheviki hosts are now within 20 miles of the capital and little doubt is felt here that they will be in the city before the peace negotiations are concluded.

General Moller's army, holding positions along the Vistula, Narew and Bug rivers, in a country offering few natural advantages for defense, is being relentlessly pushed toward the capital by the Bolsheviki, who are speeding up their advance.

GOVERNOR COX OPENS FIRE ON REPUBLICAN PART IN W. VIRGINIA

Wapping, W. Va., Aug. 14.—Governor Cox, addressing the West Virginia Democratic convention opened fire upon the Republican opposition, charging the leadership with attempted trickery of the American people in opposing the League of Nations, and with conducting the campaign behind a smoke screen to secure partisan spoils. Cox asserted that a powerful combination of interests are now attempting to buy government control and charged that millions and millions are being raised in the campaign contributions. Although the advocacy of the League of Nations was the main theme in Governor Cox's address, he also attacked again the Republican senatorial oligarchy. The Democrats, he said, present a cause of constructive and progressive and economic service in peace and promise the definite savings of two millions of dollars annually in the government expenses.

OLYMPIC STADIUM FORMALLY OPENED IN ANTWERP TODAY

Thousands of People From Many Nations Present at Opening Ceremonies

THIRTY NATIONS ARE TO BE REPRESENTED IN ATHLETIC CONTESTS

Formal Ceremonies Open With Address From King Albert of Belgium

Antwerp, Aug. 14.—The Olympic Stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and fluttering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from 30 nations—who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

The spectators were as cosmopolitan as the mass of contestants and in the ranks of the athletes were citizens of all the countries whose flags, flying from official, diplomatic or consular boxes, made the scene a colorful hodgepodge like a warship decked out with all her pennants.

Two flags, the German and Austrian, which flew over the stadium in the Sixth Olympiad at Stockholm, were missing and these countries, barred from participating in the meet, as were all enemies of the entente powers in the war, had no representation either in the arena or in the diplomatic boxes. The Russian flag, also was missing. In their places, however, were the

SHERIFF CAPTURES TWO MEMBERS OF WHISKEY TRAFFIC

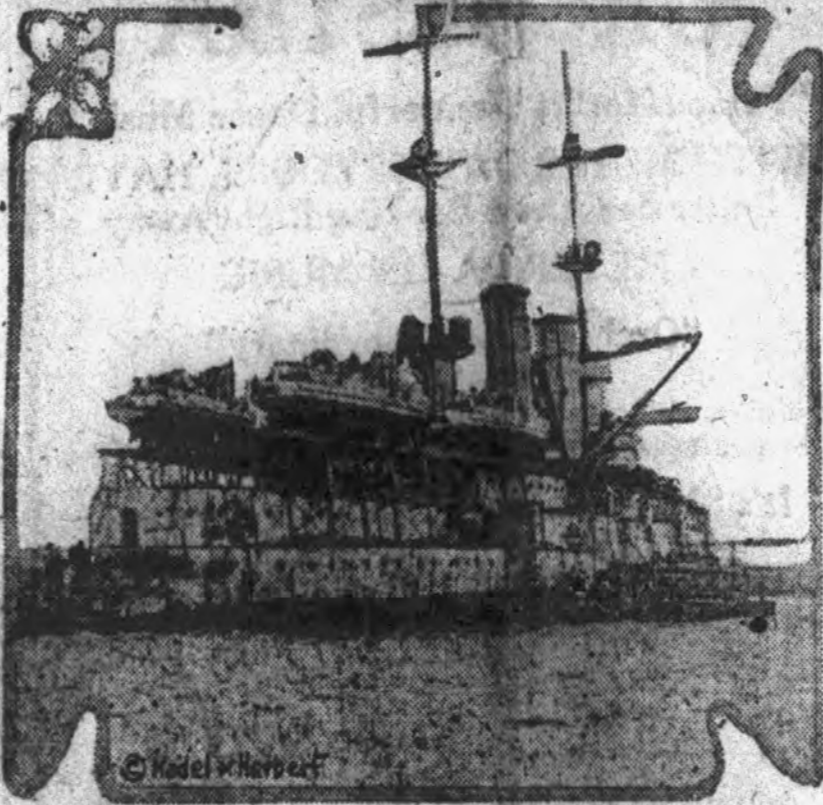

Sheriff Dudley and Deputies Also Capture, Still and Destroy Beer.

G. W. Eastwood, white, and Will Mercer, colored, were yesterday placed under arrest by Sheriff Dudley and deputies following a raid on an illicit whiskey still operated by the two men about three miles this side of Farmville. They were placed under $400 bond each for their appearance at a preliminary hearing in this city today, and probably will be bound over to the next term of superior court.

The still was not in operation at the time of the capture, but the officers succeeded in destroying several barrels of beer and molasses that had been brought to the place in readiness for distillation. The still was of the usual type employed in the manufacture of illicit whiskey sold by the traffic in this section of the country with a capacity of about sixty gallons.

The arrest followed immediately for the officers had secured definite information concerning the still and the operators, and lost little time in making the capture. It is expected that the law will deal severely with the men for the traffic has assumed such proportions throughout this section of the country that only the full force of the law will result in breaking up the demoralizing traffic.

New Type of War Craft Developed

The latest development in war craft is that of a mothership for mine layers that is also a battleship. It carries 12 small mine layers on specially constructed steel beds. Huge cranes which lift the mine layers bodily out of the water are on both sides of the vessel.

LIVING CONDITIONS GETTING DECIDELY BETTER IN VIENNA

Bountiful Crop Yields With American Flour Credits Bring Relief.

AMERICAN CREDITS TO BE EXHAUSTED SOON

Vienna, Aug. 14.—Bountiful crops of early fruit and vegetables and promise of an abundance of harder later yields from fields and orchard, with the big American flour credit still available for the ration of daily bread have given Austria a reprieve from the terrible hardships of last winter.

Fats are as scarce as ever, however, but in this gracious weather their need is not so keenly felt. Meat, too, is scanty and high, beyond reach of the masses. The American flour credit will be exhausted before the winter sets fairly in and no man in Austria knows from where or by what means it will be replaced.

Strikes and disturbances in the Teschen coal fields, the situation in Silesia, virtual suspension of the Hungarian supply, little as it was and, finally, Austria's inability to enforce even the meagre contractual supplies from Bohemia, have prevented the hoped for accumulation of a modest fuel reserve during the summer months. Public utilities of Vienna are reported to have but a week's reserve of coal for power and light and less than a month of gas coal at a minimum consumption. The last Austrian pig iron oven in operation has just drawn its fires for lack of coke.

Into this situation has been injected a curious business phase resulting from the increased value of the crown on foreign exchange. In the late winter and early spring the crown dropped as low as 350 to the dollar on private exchange. Encouraged by this a small export trade was nourished. Austrian factories, famous for certain forms of finished articles, began to resume operations on a limited scale, foreign buyers seeing a good business chance in the low crown value against standard monies.

DOES NOT APPROVE OF AMERICANIZATION OF CHINESE NATION

Premier of France Declares That France Deserves Honor of Changes.

DOES NOT MEAN TO OFFEND THE ALLIES

Tokio, Aug. 14.—Former Premier Paul Painleve of France who stopped here on his way from America to China was quoted as saying as he disembarked at Tokio:

"The peace of the world has nothing to gain from an Americanized or an Anglicized China. Without in any way meaning to offend our friends or Allies, we feel that to the French belongs the moral obligation to encourage and develop the intellectual, scientific and technical relations which exist already between China and France.

"France must not fail, at this time, while China, seeking to modernize herself, is calling for intellectual guides and technical counsellors, to answer that call. Anything that fails to present French culture to China leaves the way open for German Kultur to our hurt."

M. Painleve said his mission to China which is his destination, had nothing to do with finance, but was purely educational, scientific and technical, with the idea of laying a foundation for a more thorough knowledge of the Far East. Above all it was his aim to guide toward France the Chinese who are seeking a higher education.

Manufacturers were able to get advances of credit to secure coal and needed raw materials. It was a good speculation for foreign values. Then the Minister of Finance, Dr. Reisch, dropped a hint one day during a de-

PONZI'S FINANCIAL SHIP HIGH AND DRY IN FEDERAL COURT

Washington, Aug. 14.—The financial ship piloted by Charles Ponzi was high and dry on the rocks today and federal and state officials made determined efforts to salvage cargo of million dollars entrusted to Ponzi by thousands of investors in his fifty percent in three months scheme. Ponzi ate breakfast in the Middlesex county jail a prisoner of the United States government, under $25,000 bail.

SINN FEIN FACTION BEGINS ORGANIZING COURT OF APPEALS

Clan in Ireland Plans Complete System of Tribunals for Disputes.

SINN FEIN LEADER EXPLAINS SITUATION IN THAT TERRITORY

Declares a Supreme Court Will Meet Demands of Country Much Better.

Dublin, Aug. 14.—Sinn Fein is organizing, under the name of the Irish Republican government, a supreme court of appeal which when set up will complete the system of tribunals so successful in handling minor disputes for the past months. The highest court of the British government in Ireland has virtually ceased to function because appeals have been withdrawn and many litigants decline to recognize that it has any authority whatever.

Arthur Griffith, the leader of Sinn Fein in Ireland, told The Associated Press, that it had not been decided whether to have three or five judges on the supreme bench nor had any of the judges been selected.

"Our lower courts have been successful in checking the wave of crime that was sweeping over Ireland a few months ago," said Mr. Griffith. "Whatever may be said about the Republican government by our enemies it must be admitted that petty crime has been on the wane all over the country since our courts began to function. Naturally many cases both criminal and civil have been appealed but we have no court higher than a district court to which we may take them. Appeal cases are piling up and the need of a supreme court is increasing every day." (Continued on Page 4)

UPSHAW TO SPEAK AT LOCAL CHURCH TOMORROW NIGHT

Distinguished Georgia Congressman to Appear at Christian Church

Greenville is to have the pleasure and profit of hearing one of the most eloquent speakers of America on tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at the Christian church. Congressman Will D. Upshaw, a cripple but a power in head and heart will deliver his famous lecture called "A Stainless Flag and a Sober World." Whether you agree with him or not, hear what he has to say and measure your convictions with him Sunday night. In a recent city he spoke before a vast audience and the advertising committee had this to say: "A Dollar Bill to the Man Who Goes to Sleep." No one had the slightest chance to take the money. He is "a halo of sunshine, a dynamo of energy, and an avalanche of natural eloquence." Be sure to hear him Sunday evening at eight o'clock at the Christian church. All the city churches will be closed to unite in this service.

Mrs. C. B. Whichard returned home this afternoon from Kingston. She was accompanied by Miss Maggie Whichard, who has been in the hospital in that city.

GRANTS AUTHORITY FOR INCREASES TO EXPRESS COMPANY

Interstate Commerce Commission Allows Twelve and Half Per Cent Raise

$35,000,000 WILL BE ADDED TO INCOMES OF COMPANIES ANNUALLY

Increase Does Not Take in Consideration Recent Wage Award of Board.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Authority to increase express rates 12 1/2 per cent was granted the American Railway Express Company today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The increase by unofficial estimates will add $35,000,000 to the annual income of the company. The commission's decision, however, does not take into consideration the recent award of the Railroad Labor Board of increased wages approximating $43,000,000 to express company employees, and it is expected application soon will be made by the company for an additional advance in rates to meet the wage scales.

Rates on milk and cream under the commission's decision are further increased to correspond with the advance of 30 per cent for the transportation of such commodities authorized by the railroads except where there are no competing railroads between the affected points. In the latter case an advance of 12 1/2 per cent is authorized.

In touching on the fact that the express company had been allowed only about half of the increase asked, which was 25.16 per cent, the commission expressed the opinion that full amount awarded should be retained by the express company itself and that none of it should be allowed to the railroad carriers. The commission suggested that the present express company contracts with the railroads under which 50.25 per cent of its gross earnings go to the roads for the carriers service, should be modified to accomplish this purpose.

Permission was granted the company to make the new rates effective upon one day's notice by filling blanket schedules with the commission, but the company is required to re-issue its tariffs within 90 days of the effective date in the regular manner.

Nothing in its decisions, the commission adds, is to be taken as forecasting the determination of the applications of the Adams, American, Southern and Wells-Fargo companies for a continuance of their consolidation into the American Railway Express Company or on the proposed new contract between the consolidated company and the railroads, which has been submitted to the commission for its approval.

PRESS PROMOTER OF AMERICANISM.

The power of the press for good, its opportunities not only for acting as a stabilizer of public opinion, but its many accomplishments along this line, continue to be recognized and emphasized by men prominent both in public and in private life. The great war, which awakened many well-meaning persons to a realization of things which probably they had known before, but only passively admitted, did wonders in arousing the people of the United States to an appreciation of the day to day efforts and accomplishments of the press in making it possible for the war to be fought and won gloriously.

Now that this awakening has come and the war is history, it is interesting to note the continued willingness of those whose words carry weight to give credit to the men who make the newspaper, the magazine, and the trade journal, the national necessities that they are.

Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, for example, known for always hitting right out from the shoulder, visualized this power of the public press in a talk before newspaper publishers of the country, when he said they could do more to stem the tide of unrest than all the laws congress could pass. The Vice President, at the same time, suggesting that the newspapers should "sound the clarion call for justice, good government and rest among the people," praised the firm stand for Americanism already taken by the editors of the country as a whole.

LESSONS OF THE WAR SERVICE.

One of the most encouraging features of the post war work of industrial organizations, all of which cooperated heartily in the furtherance of the war program, is that having to do with their constructive efforts along Americanization lines. The time, money and attention, which are being given by different ones of such organizations to departments set aside exclusively for the education of foreign born employes as to just how the government of the United States is organized, what its departments are, the privileges and the value of citizenship, represent large sums and much effort.

Employees are encouraged to arrange for the education of their children and, as a necessary part of the programs adopted, sanitation is taught, hygiene is given attention, and thrift encouraged. While there are many such departments over the country those established by the big rubber companies of Akron, Ohio, Goodyear, Goodrich, and Firestone, stand out as striking examples, and are well worth studying.

Fortunately, members of the two houses of congress are awake to the need for encouragement of such efforts as are being put forth by industrial organizations, community organizations, commercial clubs, individuals, etc. and during the coming congress measures looking to governmental furtherance of Americanization will be introduced and vigorously pushed. Business and the government got the habit of working together during the war, and the performances of both, as suggested above, since the armistice indicate that co-operation will not be wanting in the future.

Business is no longer suspicious of the government, nor is the government suspicious of business. Such a situation spells mutual benefit for the public as a whole.

NUMBER OF DEPOSITORS IN NATIONAL BANKS IN EACH STATE.

The following statement shows by States, on May 4, 1920, the number of deposit accounts in proportion to population in all National Banks. Wyoming stood first with 394 depositors per 1,000 of population. Montana was next with 349 per 1,000 of population. The twelve States whose National Banks reported the next largest number of deposit accounts in proportion to population were in the order named: Idaho, 293; Pennsylvania, 289; Colorado, 280; Oregon, 275; Minnesota, 271; Iowa, 262; Virginia, 250; Vermont, 255; California, 248; South Dakota, 244; Maine, 239; Texas, 230; per 1,000 of population.

For the entire United States there were 190 deposit accounts for each 1,000 of the population, or approximately one National bank account for every 5.12 of the population.

The number of demand deposit accounts in National Banks in the entire country was 12,315,000; the number of time deposit accounts was 8,065,000, making a total of both time and demand deposit accounts May 4, 1920, for the entire country of 20,380,000, as compared with 7,700,000 deposit accounts in National Banks on June 30, 1910.

The percentage of demand deposits accounts to the total number of deposit accounts was 60.43 per cent; time deposits, 39.57 per cent. The percentage of the total number of time or savings accounts to the total number of all deposit accounts varies greatly in different sections. In Pennsylvania 48.00 per cent of the accounts were time deposits; in New Jersey 46.48 per cent; in New York state 44.44 per cent. The only States where a majority of all deposit accounts were carried on time were Maine, where the percentage of time deposit accounts was 63.83 per cent; Vermont, 56.99 per cent; Massachusetts, 50.00 per cent; Michigan, 72.85 per cent; Wisconsin, 70.25 per cent; Minnesota, 56.28 per cent.

In the following States the larger portion of the deposit accounts was carried on demand. In Texas, 88.55 per cent of all deposits were on demand; Missouri, 85.43 per cent; Oklahoma, 82.43 per cent; Louisiana, 82.58 per cent; Alabama, 71.84 per cent; Mississippi, 64.04 per cent; Georgia, 64.91 per cent; Kansas, 79.80 per cent; Colorado, 68.04 per cent and California, 73.68 per cent.

The banks in portions of New England and in the northern central portion of the country had the larger number of deposit accounts on time. In the south, southwest and far west, demand deposit accounts largely predominated.

REPUBLIC IS "SOMETHING TO EAT."

Native born Americans whose daily life affords them few if any opportunities for familiarizing themselves with the processes of the courts in which applicants for citizenship present themselves for examination are naturally unaware of the kind of material which often presents itself as a candidate for American citizenship. Foreign-born Americans, likewise, those who successfully undergo the naturalization tests and then see no more of the courts in which applicants are examined, doubtless have no knowledge of the raw material often presenting itself before the courts.

A case in point, however, developing in one of the courts in New York City, recently, throws an interesting light on the subject. An Italian, appearing before Supreme Court Justice Leonard A. Geigerich, blandly replied, when asked by the court for a definition of a republic, that it was "something to eat."

Justice Geigerich made short shrift of this applicant for citizenship, but not before he had sounded the man out a little further. Following the applicant's definition of a republic as "something to eat," the Justice inquired "what kind of spices he would use with it?"

The reply was, "I don't know." The court, instructing the man to stand aside, remarked that he hardly thought the candidate would do as a citizen of this great republic.

SPORTS

SCOTLAND NECK TO PLAY POST-SERIES WITH GREENVILLE

Hypheas Unconditionally Declare Greenville Winner of the Last Half.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES BEGIN HERE TUESDAY

Final Arrangements Completed at Conference in Scotland Neck Last Night.

All doubt has been removed regarding the winners of the last half of the series of the Eastern Carolina league for it has been definitely decided that Greenville and Scotland Neck will begin the championship series in this city next Tuesday afternoon, the schedule providing for one game to be played in each town until all seven games have been played, or until one of the clubs asserts its right to claim the championship by winning the greatest number of games.

This decision was reached at a conference of representatives of the Greenville and Scotland Neck clubs, which was conducted in Scotland Neck last night in which the winners of the first half of the series publicly acknowledged Greenville the rightful winner of the last half, and declared that this fact justified participation in the championship series. Managers of the Scotland Neck club unconditionally recognized Greenville as a fair and deserving winner of the last half, and in doing so definitely declined to consider anything tending to deprive Greenville of the honors which she won by fast, clean playing throughout the season.

A meeting of league directors will be conducted in Scotland Neck tonight to complete unfinished business of the season, and as practically all clubs will be represented it is expected that it will be of more than ordinary interest. Williamston's action in refusing to play Greenville, it is expected, will be taken up, but since Greenville has won the series and the winners of the first half have acknowledged their victory nothing can be said or done that will in any way detract from present decisions.

A message from the manager of the Williamston club last night declined the invitation of Mayor Clark to complete the final games of the last half of the series in this city, stating that Williamston would abide by instructions received from the president of the league, providing that games not be resumed in this city on account of Greenville's failure to employ the services of official umpires. The message completed negotiations as far as Greenville is concerned, for no umpire has ever been threatened with violence when in this city, and the one referred to by the president sat in the grandstand during Thursday's game, saw the exhibition through and then returned with the Williamston club without being molested in any way.

The statement made by the Williamston manager that the umpire was threatened with personal violence in this city in without the slightest foundation and is greeted with incredulity in practically every city throughout the league. In fact, every game played on the local diamond had been featured by consideration for every party interested, and Williamston's effort to bring Greenville in dispute through such claims have met with decided revulsion everywhere. Manager Fowden's reply to Mayor Clark's invitation to come on and complete the season, follows:

Williamston, N. C., August 13, 1920.

D. M. Clark, Mayor, Greenville, N. C.

Your kind telegram to hand, please accept Williamston's thanks but since both the official umpires have been threatened with bodily injury should they appear on the grounds, impossible to get either umpire to go there. Williamston has no umpires and are forced to use official umpire. Am sorry the president of the league is out of town,

SPECIAL MEETING OF BASEBALL FANS TO BE HELD HERE

Next Season Baseball to be Planned in Meeting Next Monday Night.

For the purpose of deciding whether or not we want base ball next summer, and to talk about the winning team we put out this summer, every base ball fan in town is urged to be present at a meeting to be held in the Carolina Club reception room Monday night August 16th, at 8 o'clock.

We have had good base ball this summer, and we want still better next summer. Without the support of the fans and citizens of the town we cannot have it, so show your appreciation of the hard work of our team, and be on hand Monday night.

Arrangements for the World's series between Greenville and Scotland Neck has been made, and the first game will be played in Greenville Tuesday Aug. 17th. Both these towns have exceptionally good teams and it is going to be a hard fight for the pennant. Your support, by being present at the meeting Monday night, will give the team encouragement, and help them win the pennant. Be on hand at 8:30 sharp.

SCOTLAND NECK HYPHEAS DEFEAT WASHINGTON

Scotland Neck, Aug. 13.—The Scotland Neck-Hobgood aggregation defeated Washington here this afternoon by the score of 7 to 0. The game was decidedly fast and interesting, but the visitors failed to hit at opportune moments.

Boston, Aug. 13.—All New England awaited with keenest interest today further developments in connection with the crash of Charles Ponzi's dream castle of finance to the building of which 40,000 investors are alleged to have contributed from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 and federal and state officials, continued with renewed vigor their investigations with a view to disclosing every ramification of the affair.

The financial district of the city was especially concerned lest the investigation under way disclose operations that would involve institutions other than the Hanover Trust Company, which was Ponzi's largest depository.

The Hanover has been closed by State Bank commissioner Allen, who announced that its capital was seriously impaired and probably wiped out.

Other elements of the situation today were:

however, I am forced to go by ruling which was not to return to Greenville to play ball. On his return tonight will deliver to him your telegram and will be governed accordingly.

LESLIE FOWDEN, Manager.

The championship games between Scotland Neck and Greenville will draw large attendance from many sections of the state, for they have played fast and interesting ball throughout the season and are rightfully deserving of the honors of participating in the championship games. Greenville's fight for victory has been an up-hill affair, as unfair opposition has been encountered in a number of cases, but every time the club emerged victorious because its players played a fast, clean game and refrained from stooping to the fifth and mire to which some have resorted in preventing the club from winning out. The record has been a clean one, and when the two champions begin their clash for the pennant here Tuesday it may be said that they won the honors of becoming champions of the league by fair, square dealings throughout the entire season.

DANCE WAS DISGRACE TO WILLIAMSTON

The Williamston Enterprise has the following to say of a dance that was given there by the young people last Tuesday night:

This paper usually likes to follow the lines of democracy in matters of social as well as political and religious freedom and for that reason has had little to say on the subject of dancing and though we know that even the most decent, refined and quiet dance is dangerous we will not draw the line of such dances.

But we must mention the dance at the Brick Warehouse Tuesday night, the reports run about as follows and answering how was the dance one man said, "It was Hell." Another remarked, "I would not want my sister to be there." Another, "No place for any women." "I am too old to indulge in as rough a dance as that was" and still another said "The most disgraceful affair ever pulled off in Williamston." All of the above remarks were made by leading citizens of our town and most of them made fuller explanations, the language of which the printing press refuses to record.

Many of those in attendance and who regard dancing properly conducted as only a harmless pastime soon became disgusted and left at an early hour and it is reported that things gradually waxed warmer until practically everything known to the dancing world both respectable and disreputable was done. Of course as is always the case some people behaved well, there were lots of sober people there and it is said that some of the visitors acted much worse than any of our people. It is charged that there were many young men there who were drunk among them, a few of our town boys, but the most ridiculous dancing by women was by visitors. From the information had the authorities of the town should have had several couples arrested and brought before the bar of justice. As a matter of unsolicited advice we would like to suggest that young girls and boys be kept from the dens of degradation and highways of destruction.

The young may say that they are only dancing the same steps that are admitted by the people of other places and there isn't any harm in them but keep your girls away from young men who get "lit up" and gladly do all kinds of stunts under the guise of dancing. Young women leave off the Camel Walk and some other forms of dancing that any decent man will cause to make remarks about you. It has been done.—Williamston Enterprise.

EDITOR'S NOTE.

Greenville should be proud of the fact that we have the Amuzu Park where our young girls and boys can go to dance and be properly chaperoned. Since the opening of the Amuzu Park there have been several dances given there and they have all been conducted in a splendid manner and far above criticism. Mr. C. D. Tunstall, manager of the park, has given every attention possible to the park and he is to be congratulated upon the way in which every feature connected with it has been conducted.

SINN FEIN FACTION BEGINS ORGANIZING COURT OF APPEARS

The plan for forestalling British judges and courts is very simple but quite effective. When court is called, men summoned for jury service fail to appear. Fines up to $500 have been imposed on absentees. If the officers arrest them and imprison them they go on hunger strike and subsequently are released, hence, British authorities have ceased to use imprisonment as a weapon and their courts are rapidly ceasing to function. All officers of the Sinn Fein parish and district courts, are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice of the Irish Republic.

athletes and flags of nations newborn of the war, Poland and Czechoslovakia, the latter replacing Bohemia, whose athletes, though then listed separately, had to march just behind the Austrians at Stockholm. The Jugo-Slavs today replaced the Serbians of 1912. The formal ceremonies of opening the stadium included addresses by the King of the Belgians, who officially presented the stadium to Baron Pierre de Coubertin, president of the International Olympic committee, and by a number of other officials of the Belgian or Antwerp city government and Belgian Olympic committees. There was also tremendously impressive singing by a Belgian choral society.

The cheering was continuous as the athletes, filing in from the open space just back of the stadium where they had formed, nation by nation, swung into the arena headed by the members of the International Olympic committee. They marched in alphabetical order, though the Belgians, alphabetically first in the list, took last place, courteously, as hosts. The athletes of the various British dominions yielded their alphabetical precedence to march just behind the participants from the omelette country, Great Britain. This brought Brazil first in line behind the official committee.
