BOSTON BANK GOES TO THE WALL WITH ENORMOUS LOSSES

Boston, Sept. 28.—The Fidelity Trust Company, with deposits totalling $18,000,000 was closed today by the state bank commissioner, making the sixth bank closed here since the get-rich scheme of Charles Ponzi exploded. Steady withdrawal of deposits and poor loans were responsible for the closing. Other banks have been forced to seek protection of the ninety day law for the withdrawal of savings.

The nights are glorious.

Odd fellows meet tonight.

Good sales on the tobacco market with prices somewhat improving.

WOULD HAVE GIVEN BRYAN HIS SUPPORT

Governor Cox Would Have Stood by "Commoner" If He Had Been Nominated

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 27.—Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, tonight gave out a statement that he would have supported William J. Bryan for the presidency had the former Secretary of State been nominated, and added that he was fostering progressive ideas gained under Mr. Bryan's leadership.

The statement of Governor Cox was in response to an inquiry from a local newspaperman regarding the position in the campaign of Mr. Bryan, who has withheld support from Governor Cox.

"I have known Mr. Bryan politically and personally for many years," said the governor's statement. "He has been an influence for good. I supported him three times for the presidency with my newspapers, my voice and my vote, and would have done so again this year had he been the candidate of the Democratic party instead of myself. As a matter of fact, as a young man, gained from Mr. Bryan's leadership many of the progressive ideas which I since have endeavored to propagate."

Disapproval of "matters" of the administration of Attorney General Palmer and Postmaster Burleson was expressed by Governor Cox in addressing a large audience at the auditorium, where a strenuous campaign was closed.

The Democratic candidate said that although he believed the two cabinet officers had performed their duties "wholeheartedly" and were conscientious men, he did not indorse matters in both their administrations. No specific affairs were stated by the governor.

Governor Cox replied to several questions published in a local newspaper, a repetition of recent experiences of the candidate with Western opposition press. In response to a question here as to whether he endorsed the Palmer and Burleson administration, the Governor replied:

MINOR IS AWARDED CROSS OF BRAVERY

Brother of Greenville Woman Recognized for Distinguished War Service.

Danville, Va., Sept. 19.—Col. S. W. Minor, who came here at the beginning of September from Durham, N. C., was yesterday given a distinguished service cross for gallant service to his country while in France. The medal arrived this morning consigned to Sergeant E. McDaniel, of the local recruiting station, and was duly delivered during the afternoon. Colonel Minor, who for 25 years was affiliated with the North Carolina National Guard, was elevated to the rank of colonel soon after America entered the lists and he commanded the 120th regiment, infantry, 30th division. Colonel Minor heard some weeks ago that the decoration had been authorized. It is for generally effective work as the leader of his organization. The citation runs:

"For exceptionally meritorious and conspicuous services as commander of the 120th infantry from the time of its organization and training to the completion and combat operations. In the Ypres-Lys and Somme offensive he displayed at all times initiative and sound judgment. During the attack of the Hindenburg line near Bellecour, France, September 29, 1918, and during subsequent advances he handled his regiment with distinction, capturing several towns, numerous cannon and many prisoners. He has rendered services of material worth to the American expeditionary forces."—News and Observer.

Col. Minor is well known in Greenville. He has visited here several times being the brother of Mrs. L. C. Skinner. His many friends are always glad to hear of any honor which is conferred upon him as he deserves them all for his gallant services in the recent world war.

PRaises SOLDIERS OF EUROPEAN WAR

Marshal Foch Commands Americans in Greetings to American Legion Meeting

Cleveland, O., Sept. 27.—Greetings from Marshal Foch of France were read to the American Legion convention here today. He sent this message:

"To the American Legion, in convention assembled, Cleveland, O.:

"Regretting my inability to find myself among the former combatants of the glorious American army, my heart is with them at the moment of the fighting they went through by the side of the allies for the common cause of right and liberty. I again render homage to the valor and to the tenacity which they unceasingly showed on the battlefields of France; in the days of misfortune and the days of success; the magnificent enthusiasm with which they answered our call; the great part they took in the sacrifices of war; the glorious remembrance on those who fell on our soil will remain a token of the profound gratitude and the indelible union of our two countries. I send my cordial greeting to Cleveland and the 'Steel City' and to the great state of Ohio, which has furnished to America so many illustrious statesmen and to France so many faithful friends. F. Foch, Marshal of France."

The convention prepared to adjourn at noon to witness the parade this afternoon of approximately twenty thousand former soldiers and ex-service women, the feature of the three days' convention.

One of the first important matters to be presented before the convention after the preliminaries was a report of the credentials committee.

The executive committee decided last night that representation in the convention should be on the basis of paid-up national dues August 28, last, which on that date totaled $18,680. National dues for more than 1,000,000 men have been received now, it was said.

INVITES HINDUS TO SETTLE IN COUNTRY

Ruler of Afghanistan for First Time in History Extends Such Cordiality.

New York, Sept. 28.—The Amir of Afghanistan, for the first time in history, according to Dr. N. S. Hardiker, of the India Information Bureau here, has invited Hindus to settle in his country, to accomplish which he has announced the following royal concessions said to indicate a movement for the unification of the peoples of Asia.

1. Non-interference in the observance of Hindu religious beliefs; 2. Freedom of Hindus to travel and settle in any part of the country; 3. Government protection of Hindu homes; 4. Hindu representation in the Afghan Assembly; 5. Unrestricted travel permitted Hindu women.

There are more than 230,000,000 Hindus and 70,000,000 Moslems in India and a Hindu, or exodus of many of the latter to Afghanistan, according to Dr. Hardiker, already is under way.

"The proposals of the Amir are aimed," he said, "at dispelling the notion that Afghanistan is partial to Islamism. The proclamation clearly shows that all freedom and protection will be extended to Hindu subjects, and that no interference will be exercised in the religious observances of the Hindus, however much these may differ from the beliefs of the Mohammedans and Afghans. The Amir undoubtedly is endeavoring to promote a better feeling between Afghanistan and India."

AMERICA PLANS TO EXTEND ITS TRADE

Banking Systems See advisability of Organization in Foreign Countries.

Constantinople, Sept. 28.—Americans are gradually preparing to avail themselves of trade opportunities which will present themselves as soon as conditions become more settled in Southern Russia and the Caucasus.

The Guaranty Trust Company, of New York, opens its Constantinople branch, the first American bank in the Levant, this month. The American Foreign Trade Corporation has sold its shipping department to an American organization called the Black Sea Corporation. E. G. Booth, Jr., formerly representative of the United States Shipping Board in Constantinople, is head of the new corporation, which has chartered several ships for the Black Sea trade and is designed primarily to assemble freight from the various ports of the Black Sea and make it available for larger American ships at Batum for Constantinople.

Admiral Mark Bristol, American high commissioner, is greatly interested in the development of American trade in this field which has been abandoned by Germany and Austria. Twelve American firms are already established thoroughly in Constantinople and ten others have agencies which promise to develop into permanent organizations. So far the American ships do not make regular schedules in the Near East, with the result that their business has been unsatisfactory in many cases.

In a recent report to the state department, Admiral Bristol submitted a suggestion of F. A. Timmerman, an American shipping agent in Constantinople, that a direct line between New Orleans and the Levant would doubtless be profitable. He would have such a line call in Cuba, Spain, Italy, Greece, Bulgaria, South Russia, Georgia and Turkey.

It is argued that the proposed line between New Orleans and Black Sea ports would afford a more direct line than now exists for the shipment of coffee and other South and Central American products to the Near East in combination with shoes, hardware, machinery, and various other manufactured products from the Mississippi Valley, which, Americans hope, will permanently replace German and Austrian goods in this market.

INDUSTRIAL PLANTS OF ITALIAN SECTION RETURNED TO OWNERS

Turin, Italy, Sept. 28.—Industrial plants which have been occupied by workmen here were returned to the workman today. Before the avacuation men filled the trenches they had dug around plants, removed barbed wire entanglements and filled loopholes, dug in walls and cared away their arms and ammunition. Owners reported that big waste of materials during the occupation.

TO REVISE TRADES AREAS OF BALKANS

General Revision of Boundaries to Effect Both America and Europe.

Constantinople, Sept. 28.—Owing to the general revision of boundaries of nations in the Balkans and other parts of the Levant, it is expected that trade avenues between the Near East and western Europe and the Americans will be revised in a manner that will benefit the western nations that stand ready to meet the new conditions.

In the opinion of most experts familiar with the commercial conditions in the Levant there must inevitably be a greater proportion of shipping direct from points of production to Black Sea ports than has existed during the war. In other words manufacturers will get into direct touch with merchants in big distribution centers and eliminate the middlemen and the trans-shipment in Constantinople to a considerable extent. The limited and unsatisfactory docking facilities in Constantinople and the prices demanded of the lighterage truss and shipping agents dominated by various European governments are regarded as making this imperative.

Admiral Mark Bristol, the American High Commissioner, recently visited Bulgaria and is much impressed by the thrift and industry of the Bulgarians and the skilful way in which they have cultivated all their land in an effort to (Continued on page eight.)

DO NOT THINK NEW VOLCANO CREATED

Scientists Say New Mountain Did Not Result from Earthquake in Spezia

Rome, Sept. 28.—Scientists say they do not believe that a new volcano was created on Mount Pisanino, near Spezia, during the earthquakes which began Sept. 7 and continued until Sept. 9 causing the loss of 500 lives.

Tongues of flame and smoke or dust were seen to be emitted from what is popularly supposed to have been a new crater opened near the mountain top.

Frank A. Perrett, the American volcanologist for the Carnegie Institution, who occupies a station at Mt. Vesuvius to observe its operations, has expressed to The Associated Press the opinion that no new volcano has been formed but that the earthquakes caused displacements of subterranean strata causing a fissure in the earth's crust and that gas escaping therefrom was mistaken by onlookers as the opening of a new crater. The phenomenon, was not a new one. Mr. Perrett said the seismic instruments showed a towering of the earth level in the earthquake district previous to the tremors. This had been observed on other occasions when earthquakes occurred.

This view is held by Senator Caprellini, a leading geologist who has been interviewed by the Messagero and the supposed column of smoke above the mountain may have been caused by clouds of dust from falling earth. The tongues of flame, in Senator Caprellini's opinion, may possibly have been inflammable gas from underground wells of oil. He said, however, that volcanoes can appear independently of the structure of the earth's crust and that the greatest catastrophes have occurred from the appearance of volcanoes where nobody expected them.

For example, the geologist continued, Mount Etna rises out of post-Pliocene strata while the volcanoes of the Andes mountains in South America arise from granite rocks. Therefore the nature of the Apuan mountains did not exclude the possibility of a volcano appearing on Mount Pisanino.

VOTE OF LABOR TO DECIDE ELECTIONS

Gompers Working Hard for Election of Governor Cox During November.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The labor vote will decide the Presidency for the first time in history. That is reported to be the conviction at the headquarters of both the great parties. The situation is without precedent in a presidential campaign, for never before has labor entertained such a definite political class consciousness.

It was never so strongly aligned. There were never offered such convincing reason why it should vote as it is believed it will vote on November 2nd.

To be sure, labor is divided between Cox and Harding, but the division is believed to be very unequal and the Democrats are counting on their belief in this unequal division in their favor to pull them through. They say that neither straw votes nor betting odds, neither Republican confidence, nor the hue and cry that the country wants to change to a Republican administration are taking into account the way the labor vote will be cast.

Labor, it is estimated, will this year cast 9,000,000 votes, 3,000,000 of them being women and the force of this vote lies in the fact that the great majority will not vote for the one or the other of the great parties, but for or against the attitude of those parties on questions of labor.

Two years ago Will Hays had sensed this situation. He perceived that the Republican party had more and more alienated the labor elements of the country, or rather that the Wilson administration had captured these elements by its friendliness to labor in both legislation and the administration of labor laws. Hays organized the Republican Labor Bureau at Chicago and put in charge of the bureau Harry L. Fidler, a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. No man has ever tackled a harder task than this man Fidler, for McAdoo had won over for the Wilson administration the host of railroad workers. Democrats say Fidler has done all that any man could do under the circumstances in winning labor over to the Republican party, but that he has not done it, they are sure, when the work of the national non-partisan campaign committee of the A. F. L., under the leadership of Samuel Gompers here in Washington, is examined.

The Gompers national non-partisan committee is openly working for Cox and as a campaign organization it is far better equipped and has ten times more money back of it than has the Democratic campaign committee in New York. It is waging its campaign almost entirely on the East-Cummins railroad law. Harding voted in the Senate for the passage of this legislation and the battle that the Gompers committee is waging is for the right to strike.

ECONOMIC SURVEY REPORTS PROGRESS IN ORE RESOURCES

Jealousy Over Intimacy Between Woman's Husband and Victim Cause tragedy

Chapel Hill, Sept. 25. — The North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey has just completed the field work in connection with the iron ores of the state. This work has extended over two field seasons and has been done by Professor W. S. Bayley, of the University of Illinois.

In this investigation special attention has been given to the limonite ores in Cherokee and Madison counties and to the magnetite ores in Ashe, Avery, Gaston, and Lincoln counties. A re-study has also been made of the mining methods and the ores in the Cranberry Mine, at Cranberry, in Mitchell county, where there is an extensive deposit of magnetite ore of very good quality. This mine has been worked for generations. The ore was first treated in primitive Catalan forges near by, then about 1880, when the mine came into the possession of the Cranberry Iron and Coal Company, in a small blast furnace, at Cranberry, N. C., and later at their larger furnace at Johnson City, Tennessee. These ores are similar to the Ashe county ores and this fall it is expected that a metallurgical engineer of the United States Bureau of Mines will be detailed to study more efficient methods of concentration of this ore.

PARIS DESIRES TO BECOME OLYMPIC CENTER OF EUROPE

Parsian Press Endeavors to Create Interest in Securing Future Contests

Paris, Sept. 27.—Will Paris become the Olympic city of the future? Will the Olympic games be held in Paris every four years instead of taking place in various cities of Europe and America? Such is the question that is being discussed by the Parisian press and the suggestion that is being advanced by the Union of Sporting Federations in France.

The question of the attribution of the 1924 Olympic games should have been settled in Antwerp but owing to the large number of cities claiming the honor, it was decided to delay the solution of the problem until the Lausanne Congress in June 1921.

A press campaign by all the Paris sporting papers, and in which staid political papers like the Echo de Paris and the Avenir have joined, is being waged to prove that the moving about of the Olympic games from city to city and from country to country every four years is all wrong. One city should be chosen to replace Athens they say what city is better qualified than Paris," asks the Avenir.

If the present system of allotting the Olympic games to cities and not to countries is maintained every capital of every state in the union of the United States has a right to have its Olympic games as well as Antwerp, the newspapers argue.

With the state's bank deposits increasing more than $35,000,000 during the past year there is no danger of putting North Carolina in the pauper class.

The price of Liberty bonds has recently made considerable advance. The astonishing thing is that this great government ever allowed this class of securities to sell below par. It was a reflection on the nation's credit.

The newspapers continue almost daily to chronicle the results of reckless automobile speeding and the death list is something appalling. Yet it will go on as long as speed cranks and automobile come together.

No need of party managers being so worried over the seeming apathy of the voting populace. They are reading the newspapers and doing some thinking on their own account, and will be on hand when election day comes.

It is really amusing to see how the Republicans fall down in their eager efforts to investigate this or that item of "expense" connected with the Democratic administration. It is all done in the hope of beclouding their own efforts to raise a large campaign slush fund.

Now and then the public reads of a bank being robbed by rascals, and the news may for the time being cause a bit of uneasiness in the minds of bank depositors. But such uneasiness is all unnecessary. Every first class bank in this day is amply protected by burglar insurance, and if a robbery occurs neither the bank nor the depositors lose a penny. You can go right on depositing your money in good banks and go to sleep at night with every assurance that it is safe. In every bank in Greenville, for example, you will see the notice that the bank is protected by burglar insurance.

OUR BEST ASSET.

It sounds good that the Home Building and Loan Association has matured another series of shares in three hundred and thirty three weeks, and has $52,000 ready to distribute to the holders of these shares. And when you stop to think that this is just a repetition, though in varying sums, of what the association does every six months, an idea can be had of its great value to the community. No wonder people flock to take shares when every semi-annual series opens. Watch for the next one on the first Saturday in November and see how it is.

The objection to women voting as women rather than as American citizens is well set forth in the following Leslie's Weekly:

The ratification of the suffrage amendment will not subject the Constitution to any new strain. While it creates a vast army of new voters, it merely adds to the millions of women who have had the vote for years.

There will be at first a tendency to keep alive the sex consciousness of women, and they will be asked to vote as women rather than as citizens.

This is natural. Women have had to fight for citizenship as women. Now that the fight is won, it will take some time to shut off the power and shift the emphasis from womanhood to citizenship.

There will be a few who cannot get the new point of view. From these we shall hear that the fight is only just begun; that women, having achieved political equality with men, must now go on to economic equality and from that to every other known condition of equality. This being the program it follows that women must enter politics as women and use their political power in the interest of women.

It is doubtful if this proposal will show much vitality. Women have achieved political equality with men not because of their sex but because they are human beings.

Citizenship is not a sex problem. It is a moral problem first, and after that a problem for the reason and judgment. If, then, the enfranchisement of women is to mean anything to the nation it will be because these new voters will bring a fresh point of view and a new moral force to the handling of public affairs.

PROCRASTINATION.

Around the corner I have a friend,
In this great city that has no end;
Yet days go by and weeks rush on,
And before I know it a year is gone,
And I never see my old friend's face;
He knows I like him just as well
As in the days when I rang his bell
And he rang mine. We were younger then;

And now we are busy, tired men—
Tired with playing a foolish game;
Tired with trying to make a name.
"Tomorrow," I say, "I will call on Jim,
Just to show that I'm thinking of him"
But tomorrow comes—and tomorrow goes;
And the distance between us grows and grows.

Around the corner! yet miles away.
"Here's a telegram, sir."
"Jim died today!"
And that's what we get—and deserve in the end—
Around the corner, a vanished friend.
—Charles Hanson Towne.

TOO MUCH STREET BEGGING.

As it is rather difficult to distinguish between the worthy and unworthy class of street beggars, an edict has been issued by Mayor Eldridge, of Raleigh, that no one will be permitted to beg on the streets of the city or to sell pencils or other wares as a sideline to begging. This is a step in the right direction to abate a nuisance and we would be glad if every town put up such a barrier to street begging. Every town is more or less annoyed in this respect. During the Pitt County Fair last week there were dozens of beggars in the fair grounds and on the streets who had followed along with the carnival to impose upon the crowds. True some of the beggars had only one leg or one arm, but that loss did not deprive them of the ability to do sufficient labor to take care of themselves as many cripples throughout the land are doing. Of course begging is easier than working, and as long as a sympathetic people allow themselves to be imposed on the begging will continue unless the law stops it.

Greenville's population is growing.

NEW RULE IN MEXICO.

General Alvaro Obregon, regarded as a "strong man" and as a friend of the United States, was elected president of Mexico on Sunday. His victory at the polls was expected, for it is his faction, to which de la Huerta belongs, that now controls the southern republic. The rival candidates were Dominguez, representing, it is said, the conservative element, and Miranda, whose sanity is suspected.

Whether these men were victims of a new machinery of dictatorship cannot of course be proved conclusively until detailed accounts of the election are available. But precedents in Mexican politics are ominous.

It is unfair to Central and South American character to regard it as hopelessly incapable of political reform. Civil war has reigned in Mexico since 1913. There have been heartening evidence lately that disturbance had about reached the point of exhaustion.

That the administration of Obregon, no matter under what auspices installed, will succeed in preserving order and restoring progress to Mexico is the genuine wish of all North American friends of the neighbor republic.

Wake county has a traffic officer on the public roads and he arrests every automobile driver who exceeds the speed limit provided by the state law. Yesterday's News and Observer had a list of more than eighty persons who had been indicted for speeding on Saturday and Sunday, at that rate the officer will pay his salary many times over besides bringing a large sum in fines to the county treasury. If every county will follow the example of Wake speeding on the country roads will be considerably checked if not stopped altogether.

CHARLES RAY HERO OF DETECTIVE FILM

Star Solves a Deep Mystery in "A Village Sleuth."

A detective story, with an amusing comedy twist, is unfolded in "A Village Sleuth," a new picture starring Charles Ray, which will come to White's Theater for Thursday matinee and night. Not that it hasn't all the elements of a regular Sherlock Holmes yarn. For there's a mystery, a "murder," and a robbery, with a pretty girl the central figure in all three.

Charles Ray plays the role of the young homespun detective, who unravels the mixup and not only clears the girl, but wins her for his own. Lots of humor of the unique Ray type helps to make the picture one of the most entertaining of the recent Thomas H. Ince productions.

Agnes Christiane Johnston is the author of "A Village Sleuth" and Jerome Storm directed. It's a Paramount picture.

CONDITION OF TERENCE MACSWEENEY UNCHANGED

Lord Mayor of Cork Still Conscious; Is Miracle to Archbishop Mannix.

London, Sept. 27.—The condition of Terence MacSweeney, lord mayor of Cork, was unchanged tonight, according to the bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League at 10 o'clock.

"He is very much exhausted," says the bulletin, "but still conscious."

Archbishop Mannix of Australia, who recently was refused permission by the British government to visit Ireland, called on the lord mayor today. When the prelate emerged from the prison, accompanied by Mrs. MacSweeney, he was besieged by newspaper men, who requested an expression of opinion concerning Mr. MacSweeney.

The archbishop, unbenet from his recent factum mood long enough to say to the newspaper men:

"I find him a veritable miracle. To me it is a miracle."

Further than this the archbishop would say nothing.

(LADDER COMMERCIAL DIRECTOR.)
Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 28. — The University of North Carolina has opened its 126th session with the largest number of students in its history. The first four days of registration showed a total of 1,273 students, which is larger than ever before at this time. Last year the total for the entire winter session was 1,406, but university officials say that this number will be surpassed before the year is out.

Of those at Chapel Hill now 411 are freshmen and 632 are in the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, making a total of 1,043 in the academic department. The professional schools registered as follows: law, 76; pharmacy, 61; medicine, 58; and the graduate school has 35 students. The dormitories and the town of Chapel Hill are crowded to their utmost capacity. Many rooms have four students each and it has been necessary to throw open class rooms at night so that men could use them for study.

At the formal opening exercises the new men were welcomed by President Chase and by Dean Francis Bradshaw, the new dean of students. The annual celebration of "College Night," a welcome to the new men at which representative college leaders explained various student activities, was held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. with talks by President Chase, Prof. Frank Graham, and by W. H. Bobblitt, W. R. Berryhill, and Bailey Alpert on studies, the honor system, and athletics, respectively.

Sixty members of the football squad who have been practicing continually for three weeks under the direction of Head Coach Myron E. Fuller, former Yale player, and Assistant Coach Clay E. Hite, of last year's West Virginia team, are getting ready for their first game with Wake Forest at Chapel Hill, October 2. One week later the team will go to New Haven to play Yale. Ten veterans from last year, including Captain Harrell, are on the squad and students who have been crowding into the stands to watch practice think prospects are bright for a winning team.

With opening of the new year thirteen new professors have been added to the faculty, and Professor Leavitt, Lasley, and McKie have returned from leaves of absence. Four men, Professors Dey, Cobb, Walker, and Forester are on leave of absence this year. A new school of public welfare for the training of school workers under the direction of Dean Howard W. Odum, formerly of Emory University, has been opened.

 ization for the legion, said more than two million men have joined the legion. He explained that disparity between that figure and the number of national dues received represent delinquents and unacknowledged payments of national dues.

How the case of the ex-service men and particularly the disabled has been championed in Washington during the past ten months was shown by the report of ohn Thomas Taylor, chairman of the national legislative committee.

In all 474 different bills were presented to the 66th congress that vitally affected the veterans. The legislative committee's duty was to see that action was taken on them.

 "I served in congress with both of these gentlemen. I know them to be high-minded, conscientious men and believe that their administrations were wholeheartedly performed. Yet there are matters in both of their administrations which I do not endorse. Neither do I endorse the policy of Frank Hitchcock as postmaster general. Mr. Hitchcock, you will remember, is the gentleman who ran the road roller over Roosevelt in the convention of 1912 and organized the Southern delegates in 1920 for General Wood.

"Neither do I endorse the administration of Philander C. Knox as attorney general. Mr. Knox, while an able jurist, is one of the foremost reactionaries in the United States and his decisions were colored by his partisanship. This is merely a matter of difference in personal opinions and pertains to things that belong to past administrations."

throw off the bad effects of the war. He believes that Varna and Bourgas are destined to become much more important because of the intelligence and industry of the Bulgarians.

Odessa, in the opinion of many students of Black Sea commerce, will again be as important relatively as it was before the war. If Bessarabia remains in the hands of Rumania it is expected here that a tariff wall will go up which will prevent Odessa from controlling the trade of that rich area as it did in the past.

The business of Sevastopol, Theodosia and other Crimean ports in comparatively small. Novorossisk, the grain-shipping center for the rich farming districts owned by the Cosacks, has equipment for shipping petroleum in tanks; and is an export center for zinc ore, potash, oil cakes and many other products.

Poti and Batum, the two Georgian ports, afford an entrance to Persia and the entire Trans-Caspian area and are looked upon as centers which will eventually assume great importance because of their unlimited petroleum supply piped in from Bakp. These two ports supply a population of about 8,000,000. Before the war Poti was exporting between 500,000 and 600,000 tons of manganese annually from the inexhaustible deposits near Kutais. Most of this went to Germany, although the United States and England took small quantities. In 1913 the United States received 120,796 tons of this Georgian manganese. These ports also ship much circassian walnut and licorice root. The ore, coal and oil ports are the centers to which American shipping will more naturally turn for return cargoes.

Our Monday's sale of 123784 pounds sold about like it has sold for past week. The tobacco with character has two or more buying it and sells fairly well but the common, thin and mixed tobacco is much neglected.

We have a house full today, being near half of that is in town. Should all except one house not finish today we will still get first sale Wednesday as we have the first 1st sale.

We advise going slow, sell some of your good tobacco if you are bound to sell. Lots of the low grades do not sell for enough to pay for marketing.

Drive to Gormans and we will get you the top of the market.

A nice sale made at Gentry & Gorman's today, showing that good tobacco sells well.
