

COOLIDGE CHARGES DEMOCRATIC PARTY WITH INEFFICIENCY

Republican Candidate Declares Wilson "Subservient to Prussian Menace."

ADVOCATES BETTER FORM GOVERNMENT WITHOUT CONFUSION

Tells Frederick, Maryland, People of His View of Conditions at Present

Frederick, Md., Oct. 25. — Governor Coolidge in an address here tonight charged the Wilson administration with inefficiency and extravagance and with having humiliated the country by being "subservient under the Prussian menace" for almost three years.

"What our party wants, and what it proposes to have," said the republican vice-presidential candidate, "is efficiency in a government operated in a stricter accord with the spirit and letter of the constitution; not more laws but better enforcement of the laws and less government extravagance. We need an administration that shall reckon with the people's purse and the people's right to less taxation.

The hopeless confusion has existed and still exists in our executive department is an indictment of the business ability of the American people. The natural consequences are bureaucracy which governs not by the consent of the governed, but by the will of the beneficiaries; continuous encroachment upon the liberties of the people through the desire for more power where there should be a desire to be of more service; an appalling increase in the number of office holders without which bureaucracy cannot exist and a gross waste of public funds, always the method of satisfying personal ambition. To destroy bureaucracy there must be administrative action and process. The powers of congress do not permit it to execute. It can prescribe but it cannot enforce. It can limit, but it cannot guard against interpretations that nullify its decisions. Confusion can be reduced to order only through complete change of the spirit of the national administration. There are no half-way remedies. The conditions, the country, require the election of Warren G. Harding.

"It was and is humiliating to the people to realize that, for almost three years, our government was subservient under the Prussian menace. It was and is equally humiliating to them to know that, as a result of democratic refusal to listen to republican demands for preparedness, the United States entered and for months participated in the war behind the protection of the Allied army and navy. Our lack of clothes, shoes, rifles, guns, ammunition, gas, airplanes, ships, in fact of every comfort and every weapon that our boys needed for living and fighting, is notorious. Equally notorious is the confused circle in which Washington ran—the lack of organization, the absence of plan, the prodigal waste of the money of the people to cover past gross neglect. When the people, disgusted with the conduct of the war, at their first opportunity placed the conduct of the war, at their first opportunity placed the republican party in majority in congress its representatives immediately addressed themselves to reconstruction, for which the administration had neglected effectively to plan, though every other nation had done so, and congress had given specific authority and direction for such action.

SCHOOL SOCIETIES INITIATE MEMBERS FOR PRESENT YEAR

Initiation Ceremony Conducted by Training School Students Saturday.

The initiation of the new members into the literary societies of the Training school the Edgar Allan Poe and the Sidney Lanier, on Saturday evening, was the leading social event of the fall term thus far. The Poes entertained their new members by giving a moving picture show with the new moving picture machine which they had purchased to present to the school. Lorna Doone was the picture. The auditorium was decorated with red and white flowers, the Poe colors. A special musical program was given before the picture was shown, and between meetings the Laniers held their meeting around the campfire on the hill above Rock Springs. Committees of the old members went ahead and had all things ready while the new member under the chaperonage of members of the faculty and guided by old girls gathered on the campus and in single file marched through the woods to the spot part of the ceremony shriluharodin Crossing fences and a foot log was made a part of the ceremony. Gathered around the fire, they sang songs, told stories, toasted waffles and marshmallows, and ate the picnic supper served them.

The initiation ceremony in each society is secret but all the new girls seemed pleased with what they had to do. Until the invitations were received on Friday no new girl knew in to which society it would be her lot to fall. There were perhaps a few who wished themselves in the other societies, but after the initiation there seemed to be a complete satisfaction, each girl now knows she is in one she prefers. The enthusiasm, society spirit and loyalty, with which the girls are starting the new school year bespeaks a good year for the societies. They have done much for both the school and the community in the past, especially in the way of bringing noted speakers and musical entertainments to the school.

FIVE BANDITS FORCE CASHIER TO GIVE UP $3,500 FROM VAULTS

Toledo, Oct. 25.—Five bandits forced the bank cashier at Alvordton to get out of bed, unlock the safe and turn over $350 in cash and Liberty Bonds. After aiding the banker's wife who had fainted the bandits escaped in an automobile.

FATE OF JAPANESE IN CALIFORNIA TO BE DECIDED EARLY

State to Pass on Initiative Measure as to Whether they Shall Own Land.

AIM TO PLACE ALIEN LAND OWNERS UNDER STATE GUARDIANSHIP

Measure to Conform Strictly to Letter of Treaty Between Countries.

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—The fate of Japanese farmers in California will be decided on Tuesday, November 2, when the electorate of this state passes on an initiative measure that would amend the present alien land law by withdrawing entirely the three-year agricultural land leasing privilege from aliens who are ineligible to American citizenship.

The measure aims also to place minor land-owning aliens under the guardianship of a public administrator. The actual ownership of farm lands by aliens ineligible to citizenship already is prohibited by the alien land law enacted by the state legislature in 1913.

The initiative measure, its proponents assert, will conform strictly to the letter of the treaty between Japan and the United States, in which Japanese residents were granted certain privileges. The opponents of the proposed new law declare that the issue raises the question of an interpretation of phraseology in the treaty, where it is provided that the Japanese resident in the United States "may own or hire and occupy houses, manufactories, warehouses, shops and premises and lease lands for residential and commercial purposes."

PREDICTS VICTORY FOR GOVERNOR COX ON SAFE MAJORITY

George White Declares Democrats Already Have 256 Electoral Votes.

New York, Oct. 24.—George White, chairman of the Democratic National committee, in a statement here today forecasting the result of the election, predicted that Cox and Roosevelt will have 256 electoral votes "as good as counted," the Republicans 104 and that the Democrats will win a majority of the remaining 111.

"I have been making a detailed investigation of conditions in the various states," the statement said. "For two days I have been receiving revised reports. It is now possible to give to the public a statement of our prospects in the election. I realize that the customary act of a national chairman at this stage of the fight is to claim everything in the hope that he can persuade wavering voters to line up with his side. Mr. Hays, my antagonist, has given me several public lessons in this obsolete practice lately by claiming everything except a part of the Southern states.

"Nevertheless, I am prepared to make a fair and honest statement of the situation. I shall reserve the names of the States we will carry because the public would not expect me to acquaint the Republican managers with our campaign plans. But I do say this:

"Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt will have 222 electoral votes east of the Missouri river and 34 west of the Missouri river, a total of 256 as good as counted. This is within ten of the number necessary to elect. The Republicans have 104 which I regard as good as counted for them. This leaves 111 votes in contest. In the decided swing now in progress toward the Democratic ticket, we will carry the majority the 11, a very comfortable victory indeed.

TO BOOST BETTER SYSTEM OF ROADS IN THIS TERRITORY

Movement for System of Hard Surfaced Roads in State to Begin in Section.

KIRKPATRICK TO BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT LOCAL MEETING

President of State Highways to Discuss Plans in Greenville Tonight.

Wilmington, N. C. Oct. 25.—The movement for a state system of hard-surfaced highways will be given new impetus this week in sections of Eastern Carolina by visits from Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick, Chairman, Citizen Highway Association and W. A. McGirt, President, North Carolina Good Roads Association.

Definite arrangements have been made for mass meetings in Eastern Carolina when citizens will gain first hand information regarding the movement and the ways and means of securing an adequate system of highways which will connect all sections of North Carolina.

No one will question the overwhelming demand for Good Roads, but this sentiment must be crystallized and so organized as to bring the most powerful pressure on the next legislature for relief from a condition that is costing the State millions of dollars annually.

Col. Kirkpatrick and Mr. McGirt will address citizens in mass meeting in Greenville, Monday night, Washington, Tuesday night, New Bern, Wednesday night and Elizabeth City Thursday night. Other points may be included.

Leaders behind the good roads' movement point to the enormous crop waste (Continued on page eight.)

RELAXING SEVERE RESTRICTIONS ON GERMAN EMPEROR

Dutch Government Allows Emperor William Greater Freedom of Country.

Doorn, Holland, Oct. 25.—The severe restrictions which the Dutch government imposed on the movements of the former German Emperor at the time of the Kapp revolution in Berlin, at the request of the allied powers, appear to be gradually relaxing.

William now moves about more freely perhaps than at any time since he came to Holland nearly two years ago. These movements are, of course, confined to the territorial limits set by a royal decree, including the villages of Doorn and Amerongen, but inside this territory the exile is now fulfilling his dream of living the life of a Dutch country gentleman.

He goes frequently to Amerongen, to visit Count Bentinck, his former host and to chat with the notary, Schroot, who is not only the former Emperor's business agent and attorney but also more or less of a personal friend.

William also calls on a number of families of the Dutch nobility who live around Doorn and Amerongen, principally those whose heads belong to the Knights of St. John, the order of which, as King of Prussia, the German Emperor was leader.

Dutch guards escort him on these trips but he goes whenever he likes. Doorn has lost all curiosity in the Hohenzollerns and only the occasional tourist halts to stare at William's automobile as it passes in the streets.

MAYOR OF CORK DIES IN LONDON PRISON ON 74TH DAY OF STRIKE

TERENCE MAC SWINEY

Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who, starving himself to death in a London prison, said: "I am confident my death will do more to smash the British empire than would my release."

ONLY BROTHER AND CHAPLAIN PRESENT AT TIME OF DEATH

History of Self-Starvation Most Moving Chapter in Irish Struggle.

GREAT BRITAIN DEEPLY MOVED BY ACTIVITY OF FAMOUS IRISH FIGURE

Terence MacSwiney Pleaded Long and in Vain for Rights of Ireland.

London, Oct. 25.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, died at the Brixton prison here today, after a hunger strike of seventy-three days. He was unconscious for several days, but did not revive before he died at an early hour this morning. Private chaplain and brother were the only visitors allowed at the death bed.

The story of the self-starvation of Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, probably will become one of the most moving chapters of the centuries long history of the Irish struggle. No other controversy has stirred Great Britain so deeply as this since the one that centered upon Cecil Rhodes, when the Jameson raid was talked by Paul Kruger and the raiders imprisoned.

The campaign in England for MacSwiney's release from prison has been apart from all political and party considerations and even the King was drawn into it. The movement in MacSwiney's behalf was mainly humanitarian and enlisted tender-hearted people of all factions but was urged by others with arguments of party strategy. "MacSwiney dead and canonized in the hearts of the Irish people with Wolf Tone and the Manchester Martyrs would be a more valuable asset to the Sinn Fein than MacSwiney alive and, even though a free pass to freedom for MacSwiney might weaken the government's hand, why help the separatist cause by giving it a martyr?" were the arguments put forward even by British unionists.

"Stand by the law and do not create a precedent which would make the will of a convicted rebel the decisive factor in determining whether he shall be punished," was the argument of the stand fast faction. A majority of the British papers including the London Times and the liberal press, the labor unionists, and many members of both parties in Parliament joined in the agitation for MacSwiney's release.

Two notable controversies, one constitutional and the other theological, have arisen from the case. The first was whether King George properly exercise his pardoning prerogative independently of or against the advice of his ministers. The second was whether the Catholic clergy, representing a church which holds suicide to be a crime, could consistently administer the sacraments to hunger strikers. The King's reply through the Secretary of State for war, to the petition of members of parliament was generally interpreted to mean that the King's personal leaning was toward granting a pardon. But, since Premier Lloyd George and the Foreign Minister, A. Bonar Law, were at the same time issuing arguments against clemency for the Lord Mayor, it was evident that any action in that direction by the King would be against the advice of his ministers.

The newspapers published many editorials and letters setting forth, one on hand, that King George should not be embarrassed by direct appeals to him and, on the other hand, that he should and had the right to exercise his nominal constitutional power of pardon. (Continued on page four.)

JEWISH QUESTIONS PLAINLY DISCUSSED IN RECENT DEBATE

Important Issues of Hungary Discussed Before Assembly by Bishop.

Budapest, Oct. 25.—A presentation of the Jewish question in Hungary that has attracted wide republication and comment was made by the Bishop of Stuhlweissenburg, Ottakar Prohaska, in the course of a debate in the National Assembly this week.

The Bishop introduced and spoke to a bill intended to restrict the number of Jewish students in the university, the clinics and the colleges of agriculture. It was meant, he said, to guarantee a living to the Hungarian middle classes and at the same time to afford a basis for a predetermined selection of students. This selection was to have patriotism for a basis. The measure was not a plot against the liberty of education.

"Since 1867," he continued, "Hungarian political economy and Hungarian trade have experienced a great expansion and for this we have to thank the Jews. By dint of their intelligence, their diligence and tenacity of life the Jews have pushed back, as it were, the new Hungarian generation.

"Anti-semitism as such does not exist in Hungary. Our anti-semitism is such as bids us look upon the Jew as an essential portion of the nation but to prevent him gaining a preponderance over us. We are not faced by the problem of anti-semitism but by that of racial self-defense. Our Christianity is being made to feel that it is being pushed back at every step. This process deserves the name of de-Christianization. Our attitude of defense must not be looked upon by the Jews as an act of hatred. Merely for the sake of liberalism we must not suffer that half of lawyers and the majority of medical men in the country be Jews. Not only the middle classes but also what may be called the genius of the race is advancing toward its extermination. Hungarian literature is saturated with the Jewish atmosphere. We must defend our national culture when we see it endangered.

CHILE DESIRES TO ESTABLISH PEACE IN OTHER NATIONS

Senator Yanez Tells of Effort to Settle Dispute With Peru and Bolivia. GOVERNMENT MAKING GREAT EFFORTS FOR REACHING AGREEMENT Nation's Leading Statesman Explains Conditions Now in Ascendency.

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 23.—Chile desires peace and tranquility on the South American continent, and has earnestly tried to obtain a friendly solution of her questions with Peru and Bolivia, Senator Eliodoro Yanez, one of the nation's leading statesmen, told The Associated Press correspondent today. The dispute between Chile and Peru over Tacna and Arica and Bolivia's aspirations for an outlet to the sea has been widely debated by the public and in the press here since the military revolt at La Paz, Bolivia, in July when a political party, said to be hostile to Chile, assumed power. Spreading of the controversy with Peru, Senator Yanez said:

"To push her policy of hostility and repeal of international good faith, Peru has entered into a great program of armaments and believes she can count on the support of the United States and the League of Nations.

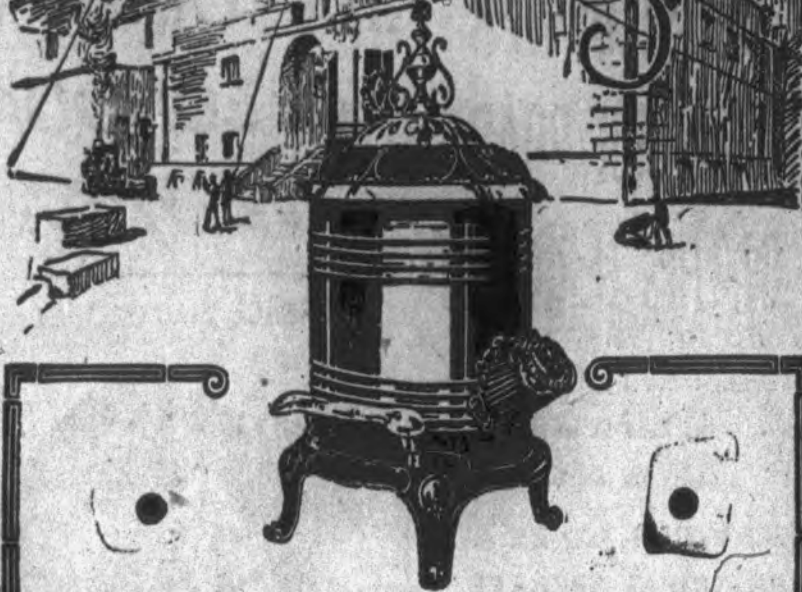

"Chile on several occasions has tried to reach an agreement for holding the plebiscite and, with the exception of the unratified agreement of 1912, Peru always has resisted an understanding, proposing clauses or expressing exigencies unacceptable or depressive to Chile."

Referring to the Bolivian question, Senator Yanez said:

"The relations between Chile and Bolivia are regulated by the treaty of 1904 under which the latter ceded definitely to Chile the province of Antofagasta, lost by Bolivia in the Pacific war. Until recent, cordial relations had been maintained between the two countries. In July, a military revolution broke out in La Paz; President Gutierrez Guerra was deposed and banished and a Junta de Gobierno was organized. This new order raised a slogan the non-recognition of the treaty of 1904 and the reclamation of the territories which by this pact were annexed 40 years ago and a great Chilean population is in them.

COTTON SALES.

Less than 120 days ago cotton was selling for 40 cents, today only 20 cents is offered. The South will produce 12 million bales, which, if sold at 40 cents, will bring two billion four hundred million dollars; if sold at 20 cents will bring one billion two hundred million.
A loss of one billion two hundred million in four months will bankrupt our section. Our lands and all other property will depreciate in value; our bankers, merchants, clerks, laborers (organized or unorganized), traveling salesmen, hotels, doctors, factories, schools, churches, towns, cities, and railroads will suffer, and above all our farm population will become disgusted at thousands will leave the farm never to return.

This department sent out questionnaires on the cost of producing this cotton crop, and the average cost was above 34 cents per pound based on a yield of 375 pound of seed per acre.
Into this cost was figured rent of land, preparation of land, fertilization, planting, harring off, chopping, weeding, gulling weevils, cultivation, picking, hauling to gin and market, ginning, blacksmithing, etc. Forty-four per cent of the total cost was for human labor.
Thus the balance, or 66 per cent, was an actual outlay of money out of the farmers' pockets or bank accounts.
Fifty-six per cent of 34 cents is 19 cents, about the present selling price, which leaves nothing to the millions who produced it. So the speculators, bear gamblers, and peanut politicians are asking us to feed and clothe ourselves and work eight months for nothing. A run has been made on our property. When a run is started on a bank the bank can appeal to State Banking Department, which will take over the bank and give it time to make arrangements to meet the emergency.

What would the bankers, merchants, manufacturer, speculators, railroads, newspapers, and all other lines of business do if their assets had been cut in half by speculators or manipulators in four months' time? They would break or close up shop. Likewise the farmer must close up shop or break. We do not want to break; so the only thing to do is to close up shop.
Do not sell a bale for sixty days. The mills only have a sixty days' supply of cotton on hand, and if we hold till that is gone there will be the wildest scramble for cotton the world has ever seen.

If it is in the farmers' hands, the farmer will get his price, if it is in the speculators' hands the speculator will fix the price. The mills are strutting down because the farmer who sells is helping the bear gambler ruin the market; the mills will not buy on a declining market, but will buy on a rising market.

The night riders may think they are helping the cause, but they are injuring it. Cease destroying and let the farmers gin their cotton, so they can borrow money on it.

Farmers, keep faith with those you owe. Turn over the receipts, or if you do not put in warehouse turn over the cotton to the man you owe, if he wants it. In turn, I beseech the business people to keep faith with the farmer and extend his notes or lend him money if he has the cotton. There is no better collateral than cotton.

The American Cotton Association advises me that the bankers and merchants throughout Alabama are helping in the holding movement except in a few cases where they are absolutely not able to do so.

The world is naked and needs more than we have grown, but can not pay for it all at once. The cotton farmer is not a profiteer. He has never received more than 45 cents for his cotton; and you can weigh shirts, handkerchiefs, bed sheets, and dress goods and they will find that he pays from three to ten dollars a pound for his cotton when he buys it back.

APPEALS FOR DEVELOPMENT OF FOREIGN TRADE.

In addressing the Seventh Annual Meeting of the National Foreign Trade Council, James A. Farrell, President of the United States Steel Corporation and Chairman of the Council, urged the necessity for developing foreign markets if the present productive capacity of this country is to be maintained.

"The foreign trade of the United States, in common with domestic business, is suffering from the general contraction of credit," he declared. "American exporters in many cases have been unable to finance an extension of their existing trade. In other cases they have been unable to grant to foreign customers the credit necessary to insure continued foreign purchases.
Furthermore, the situation has been aggravated by the low purchasing power of many European nations, and by the frequent disturbances in transportation facilities throughout the world.

"Under these conditions some of our manufacturers have been forced to diminish or discontinue their activities in foreign fields. But it is inconceivable that such a lessening of our foreign trade interests should be suffered to continue longer than is absolutely necessary, or should be allowed to deter American manufacturers from making foreign trade a permanent and integral part of their business policy.

"In every business there is a part of the production, roughly estimated at the last 20 per cent, which cannot remain unsold if the first 80 per cent of the sales are to prove profitable. Remove this last 20 per cent and the whole operation will cease to show a profit. So it is with the present productive capacity of the United States; a certain volume of foreign sales must be maintained or the industry of the country will suffer throughout.

Telephone companies are still trying to make talking higher by an increase in rates. The waiting patrons undergo in trying to talk is extra tax enough.

The prices tobacco is bringing now should cause a return of that satisfied feeling. The crop of 1919 is the only one that has sold for more than pre-cotton on hand, and if we hold till that

EDUCATORS TO MEET.

Local educators are interested in the announcement by the National Educational Association that a committee of seven state superintendents will meet in Washington November 12 and 13 to formulate plans for placing thrift in the school curriculum. The committee is composed of people who are studying the subject from the school point of view. They will meet in Washington in conference with the Savings Division of the Treasury Department.

At this conference comprehensive plans for the full and proper development of the teaching of thrift in the schools of the nation will be formulated. Until these plans are more fully worked out, the general policies that were used in the teaching of thrift last year will prevail this year. The purpose of the thrift program in the schools includes much more than the sale of Thrift and Savings Stamps, it is said, although investment in these securities is urged in order to develop habits of saving for future needs rather than of spending now for luxuries.

The "citizenship value" of thrift, it is argued, emphasizes the importance of giving it a permanent place in the curriculum of the schools where its principles can be taught more effectively than anywhere else. The movement as a whole is designed to render the service of teaching children the value of money, of talents and of commodities, their proper use and expenditure, and how through small savings one's possessions may be increased to the development of individual and public good.

The Weekly Nation, which is one of the most advanced liberal organs and not generally rated as a supporter of monarchy, argued that this was an occasion for the King to vindicate his constitutional right and protect the country against the growing autocracy of the cabinet.

There were many other arguments to the same effect, one historical writer, combatting the theory that the King always had been a cipher in such matters, exhumed a new story in the annals of British monarchy, telling how George IV described by Thackeray as the weakest and least admirable character in the line of British Kings, used to pace the council chamber with tears pleading for the pardon of criminals and sometimes carry his point, although once when he wrote to the Viceroir of Ireland granting pardon to a murderer he was compelled by his cabinet to capel his edict.

One of the chief reasons put forward by MacSweeney's advocates, although advocated from anti-Sinn Fein quarters, was that the offenses of which MacSweeney was convicted were so comparatively light they did not justify his suffering even though voluntarily. Premier Lloyd George's reply was that MacSweeney undoubtedly was a high officer of the "Irish Republican army" which decreed and executed murders of officials and police in Ireland. The Republican army, unlike the Sinn Fein, is purely a secret organization. The identity of its officers and personnel is kept from the public and there is doubt even whether the Sinn Fein controls it or officially knows its workings.

The theological argument over the course of Bishop Colahan and Mac-Sweeney's chaplain, the Rev. Father Dominic, in, as critics say, encouraging him to commit suicide, was largely biblical. The Rev. Father Bernard Vaughn, was the only priest who publically criticized them. A lecture which he was to deliver in Glasgow, a center of labor unionism, had to be cancelled on account of the unpopularity his words brought upon him.

The human aspect of the Lord Mayor's hunger strike was the one that chiefly interested British people and compelled the sympathy of even his hardest political enemies. Mrs. Mac-Sweeney and his brothers and sisters were treated everywhere with respect and on their side and nothing but good to say of the jailers and police with whom they had to deal.

Any way out of MacSweeney's imprisonment except his death would have been welcomed by the whole public but his family were as firm as MacSweeney in refusing to listen to any end except release or death. There can be no doubt the Irish republicans believed MacSweeney had given their cause the most valuable service in his power and that, like John Brown "he will trouble you more than ever when you have nailed his coffin down."

CURRY-SALEEBY

On yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Namon Saleeby, on Washington street, Miss Janet Saleeby and Mr. Louis Curry were united in marriage by Father Zaptoun, of New Bern, assisted by Father Gallagher, of New Bern and Father Bellamah, of Niagara Falls. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, in keeping with the custom of the old country. Mrs. Nick Saleeby, sister of the bride was dame of honor, and Mr. A. K. Hatem was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John Saleeby. She wore a wedding gown of white satin, with veil arranged in cap shape and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Prior to the wedding an entertainment was given at the home of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was given by the parents of the groom on Chestnut street, at which time the oriental dance was participated in.

TRAINING SCHOOL GIRLS CONDUCT Y. W. C. A. EXERCISES

A group of girls conducted the Y. W. C. A. services Sunday at the Training School. The 11st Psalm was read by the President of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Mary Daniel, "Cheerfulness, the main topic, was clearly shown in three readings. 1. "Cheerfulness" on the campus. 2. "Cheerfulness in the school room." 3. "Cheerfulness in the dormitories and dining room."

The girls were impressed by the idea that the art of being happy and making others happy, is cheerfulness.

EXPLOSION OCCURRED FRIDAY NIGHT

Washington, Oct. 23.—At attempt by enemies to blow up the home of G. A. Mish, near Pactolus last Friday night, resulted in the wrecking of one of the buildings and created considerable excitement in the neighborhood for a time.

Mish is a foreigner—presumably French. He operates a barbershop at Pactolus and has been a resident there for some time. After he retired last Friday night and had been asleep for some time, he was blown out of bed by the force of the explosion which tore out one side of the building.

Neighbors came to the scene and after a search had been made of the premises a number of additional sticks of dynamite were found underneath the building. Some of these had been planted directly underneath the room where Mish was sleeping, but these failed to go off.

Mish stated this morning that he thought he knew who the dynamiters were. Pitt county officials are endeavoring to run down the men.—Washington Daily News.

Sheriff Dudley on yesterday arrested T. L. Moore, of Pactolus, in connection with the above explosion. He is now under a $2000.00, pending trial which will take place this afternoon.

PROMOTION DAY OBSERVED BY EMMANUEL BAPTIST

Promotion Day was observed in the Immanuel Baptist Sunday school yesterday. An interesting program was rendered by the little folks, consisting of songs and recitations. Prof. Meadows, the superintendent, presented about forty diplomas to the scholars. Much of the credit for the splendid exercises is due Misses Jamie Bryan, Mary Thomas and Mrs. J. B. Turner. A high mark was reached in attendance at the service yesterday. Two hundred and fifty-five were present. This is one more than the record set two Sundays before. The school has pledged itself to three hundred during the year.

A short time ago a B. Y. P. U. was organized among the young folks of the church and Sunday school. Last night was the third meeting. A splendid program was rendered. The group captained by Miss Collins of the Training School presented the program. The union will meet every Sunday night at 6:45 during the McLendon meeting. Adjournment will be in plenty time for the service in the tent.

FOUR NATIONS ARE TO BE ENTERED IN BIG BALLOON RACE

United States Has Entrants, Italy and France, One Each.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 23. — Four nations will be represented by the seven balloons entered in the Gordon-Bennett International Trophy race starting tomorrow from this city. The United States has three entrants, Italy two and France and Belgium one each.

It will be the ninth competition for the trophy, and the first since 1913 when the war precluded international aero contests. The trophy, hung up in 1906 by James Gordon Bennett, came into possession of America that year and has been won three times since by United States pilots. Germany captured the cup twice, while France and Switzerland each were victors once. The race is held from the country winning the previous contest.

Ralph H. Upson, who won the cup in 1913 when he outdistanced all his rivals by crossing the English Channel and landing near the Yorkshire coast in the race from Paris, will compete for it again this month with the balloon "Goodyear 11." Two other Americans, Lieutenant Richard E. Thompson in an army bag and H. E. Honeywell in "Kansas City II"—also are entered. These three led all the rest in the elimination races last month. There will be four other balloons. Captain Hirschauer is to represent France, with Lieutenant Ernest Demyter in the "Belgica" from Belgium. Italian Valle with "Audens" and Major Hugs

(Continued from page one.) It is pointed out by persons opposed to amending the present law that the leasing of land for "commercial purposes" contemplated the privilege of leasing agricultural lands. The voters of the state have had the legal verbiage of the measure clarified by arguments for and against it respectively by V. S. McClatchy, publisher of the Sacramento, Cal., Bee, and by John P. Irish, and extensive land owner of Stockton, Cal.

In behalf of the measure, Mr. McClatchy, says in part:

"Through the measure, California seeks, as is her inherent right, to preserve her lands for Americans, precisely as Japan preserves her lands for the Japanese. Its primary purpose is to prohibit Orientals who cannot become American citizens from controlling our rich agricultural lands. z z

"Our present treaty of commerce and navigation with Japan deliberately omits, from the privileges granted the Japanese in this country, either ownership or lease of agricultural lands. Japan has always prohibited ownership, or lease, or use of agricultural lands in Japan by Americans or other foreigners.

"Orientals, and more particularly Japanese, have commenced to secure control of agricultural lands in California, there was enacted in 1913 the Alien Land Law, which prohibited ownership or lease beyond three years of agricultural lands by aliens ineligible to citizenship.

TO BOOST BETTER SYSTEM OF ROADS IN THIS TERRITORY

(Continued from page one.) in North Carolina and the severe handicaps that farmers are now forced to labor under by reason of bad roads and are calling on the merchants and bankers of the state to lend their support to the movement to "life North Carolina out of the Mud." Good Roads bring prosperity, because they place the farmers in touch with competitive markets and practically eliminate crop wastage.

For example: the States that have improved highways are making splendid progress in development along all lines for good roads invariably mean the development of idle acres, better farms, better homes, improved health conditions, the expansion of the educational facilities and a general awakening.

Citizens of North Carolina are too rich and too sensible to continue paying an excessive mud-tax when a system of good roads cost less than the present mud-tax and it is expected that the great interest now prevalent in this movement will be reflected by the attendance of hundreds of citizens at the mass meetings to be held in Greenville and elsewhere in the interest of Good Roads this week.
