

Scattering Reports Give Republicans Slight Lead
Pitt County and State Pile Up Splendid Democratic Majorities

Republicans Claim Decided Victory by Scattering Reports

NORTH AND WEST CLAIMED EARLY BY HARDING LEADERS

Scattering Reports from Many States Indicate Republican Victory. MORRISON ELECTED GOVERNOR OF STATE BY 100,000 MAJORITY Reports from Virtually All State Precincts Give Democratic Victory.

Scattering reports from various sections of the county until an early hour this morning failed to convey with any degree of definiteness the trend of vote for either the Democratic or Republican party, but Republican campaign managers in many districts claimed a decisive lead for Harding, particularly in the north and extreme western territories.

North Carolina's Rally.

North Carolina piled up probably one of the greatest democratic victories in a number of years. A report from Raleigh early this morning stated that the constitutional amendments had been carried by at least 100,000 majority, with the election of an entire democratic state ticket and all congressmen.

Senator Overman had completely snored under his opponent Holton. The woman suffrage vote proved decidedly heavy in Raleigh and many other precincts, and it was generally conceded that her entrance, helped the Democrats pile up one of the most notable victories in years.

Republicans Claim North.

Almost all reports received from northern and western states gave Harding a decided lead but those, while not official, were incomplete and could not be relied upon to give any accurate complexion of the of the entire nation's vote. The solid South and many middle west states were conceded to Cox, but reports from such sections were vague even at an early hour this morning, and consequently could not be relied upon to give the slightest idea of how the national vote will eventually come out.

BARRELS USED FOR BALLOT BOXES AT NEW JERSEY POLLS

Greatly Increased Suffrage Vote Congests Polls in Many Sections.

New York, Nov. 2.—The use of barrels for ballot boxes was one of the expedients adopted at some of the polling places in New Jersey today as a result of the greatly increased vote due to suffrage. It was indicated that owing to the large number of women registrants throughout the United States the same congestion prevailed elsewhere.

Voting is going on today in more than 100,000 election precincts in the 48 states, in three of which, North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia polls close at sunset.

The hours at which the polls will close in the various states is as follows:

Alabama, 6 P. M. cities (5 P. M. towns and country); Arizona 6 P. M., elsewhere; Idaho 7 P. M.; Illinois 5 P. M.; Indiana 6 P. M.; Iowa 8 P. M.; Kansas 7 P. M.; Kentucky 4 P. M.; Louisiana 7 P. M.; Maine 6 P. M.; Maryland 6 P. M., city of Baltimore (7 P. M. outside); Massachusetts, 8 P. M. limit, (optional to close earlier, Boston 4 P. M.); Michigan 5 P. M., rural (8 P. M. cities).

Delaware 6 P. M.; Florida 5:40 P. M. Georgia 6 P. M., (County seats) 3 P. M. elsewhere; Idaho 7 P. M.; Illinois 5 P. M.; Indiana 6 P. M.; Iowa 8 P. M.; Kansas 7 P. M.; Kentucky 4 P. M.; Louisiana 7 P. M.; Maine 6 P. M.; Maryland 6 P. M., city of Baltimore (7 P. M. outside); Massachusetts, 8 P. M. limit, (optional to close earlier, Boston 4 P. M.); Michigan 5 P. M., rural (8 P. M. cities).

Minnesota 9 P. M.; Mississippi 6 P. M.; Missouri 6 P. M.; Montana 6 P. M.; Nebraska 8 P. M.; Nevada 6 P. M.; New Hampshire 6 P. M.; New Jersey 7 P. M.; New Mexico 6 P. M. New York 6 P. M., North Dakota 9 P. M.; North Carolina sunset.

Ohio 5:30 P. M., Oklahoma 6 P. M., rural (7 P. M. cities); Oregon 8 P. M. Pennsylvania 7 P. M.; Rhode Island 7 P. M., cities (6 P. M., in towns); South Carolina 4 P. M., throughout the state (8 P. M., Charleston); South Dakota 5 P. M.; Tennessee 7 P. M., cities (4 P. M. country districts).

There has been a crowd around the polls today.

As the election is over, business will draw more attention.

While it was new to them the woman proved good voters today.

PRESS ENDEAVORS TO PACIFY VIENNA POLITICAL CENTER

Social Democratic Press Publishes Statement to Eliminate Discontent

LETTER PRINTED BY AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN PAPERS DURING WAR

Pathetic Letters From Soldiers Who Fought to Sustain National Rights.

Vienna, Nov. 2.—The Social Democratic press has published as election propaganda some of the letters printed at the instance of the Austro-Hungarian government during the war to pacify the discontent of the people.

"What you were recently told in this pious paper of the joys of the blessed did not by any means approach the truth. It is in reality far more beautiful. You people on earth can form no conception of the magnificence and splendor which surrounds the throne of the blessed Queen of Battles and of the delights which she holds in readiness for her soldier-children.

"You cherished the wish that I might return home and, having celebrated with you our victory, have continued to be your support as in bygone days. But I say to you what our Saviour said to his disciples before His ascension: 'It is well that I go from you.' In Heaven I can help you far more than on earth. And why should I celebrate victories there below among you? I have won the true victory for all eternity.

HOLLAND IS AGAIN FACED BY PROBLEM IN SAVING KAISER

Knotty Problem Presented in Extradition Demand from Belgians.

The Hague, Nov. 2.—Holland, which refused to surrender the former German Emperor to the Allies for trial, has another knotty problem in a demand from the Belgian government for the extradition of Professor de Vreeze, formerly librarian of Ghent university, a political refugee and now librarian Rotterdam.

Professor de Vreeze is one of the Flemish Belgians who during the German occupation of their country sought with German aid, to separate Flanders, the Dutch-speaking part of Belgium, from the French-speaking part. Many of them, when the armistice showed Germany beaten, fled to Holland. In their absence, they were convicted of treason and some of them are under sentence of death. Professor de Vreeze is accused as a leading "activist" in the Fleming separation movement. Considering this a political offense and therefore not extraditable, the Dutch government would not give him up.

Now, at a time when relations between Holland and Belgium are strained because of commercial treaty complications and the renewed efforts of Belgian-Flemish activists toward the separatist movement, Belgium has demanded the extradition of DeVreeze, this time on grounds, which, if proved, Holland might consider, while it would not consider a political offense.

BOSTON ORGANIZES TO PROMOTE THRIFT AND SAVINGS HABIT

Organization Formed and Incorporated to Encourage Savings in State.

Boston, Nov. 2.—An organization to promote thrift and to protect savings has been incorporated here as an outgrowth of the war-time conservation campaigns and the recent Ponzi high finance fiasco. It will be known as the Association for the Promotion and Protection of Savings and will combine with the encouragement of safe investment on educational program to combat quick-rich schemes.

At the head of the association is Alfred L. Alken, former governor of the Federal Reserve Bank in this city. Those associated with him include leaders in the thrift, Liberty Loan and other campaigns of recent years. The association will co-operate with the work of the Savings Division of the Treasury Department, but its activities will be distinct from any government branch.

The educational department will be divided into school and home economic sections, the former covering education in thrift in colleges, public, private, parochial, normal and vocational schools and the latter working with women's organizations, fraternal bodies, the army and navy, the churches and professions.

The business department will be divided into industrial and commercial, agriculture and banking sections. The industrial and commercial section will work with labor unions, associated industries, the wholesale and retail trades Americanization committee and the Young Men's Christian Association industrial secretaries. The agricultural section will be concerned with the granges and farm bureaus and the banking section will have it work with the savings, national, trust company and co-operative banks, insurance and investment banking concerns, and trust companies.

TEN PRECINCTS GO PRACTICALLY SOLID FOR STATE TICKET

Four Precincts Not Heard from Conceded to Democratic Party.

COUNTY WOMEN PILE UP SPLENDID VOTES FOR ALL CANDIDATES Democratic Ticket With Few Exceptions Scratched by the Women.

The cause of the Democratic party was supported in a pleasing way by several hundreds voters throughout the county yesterday, and as a result reports received at The Reflector until an early hour this morning showed in an unmistakable way the sweeping victory which Democrats had gained over their Republican opponents during the day. Reports received from ten precincts out of fourteen of the county placed the democratic vote at 3750 and the Republicans at 682. It is generally conceded that the four precincts not reported, Gifton, Fictous, Swift Creek and Fountain would have given the Democrats a splendid victory in every sense of the word, swelling the total to not less than 3969.

The vote for the entire ten precincts is looked upon as rather small considering the active part which newly enfranchised women played in the day's activities, and it seems generally agreed that the situation would have taken on an entirely different aspect had voters in the isolated precincts rallied around the polls as at other voting places. Greenville gave the largest vote of the entire county, over 1169 Democrats casting the ballot against republicans 125. The women played an important part in this township, most of them voting the straight ticket, with very few exceptions. The entire woman vote was 456, 18 voting the republican ticket

Probably the greatest interest, outside the selection of a president, was in the two state tax amendment, one providing for amendments to the income tax, the other providing for a revision of poll tax. Opposition was bitter against the issue, particularly in Greenville township, where there were 870 votes cast in against 332 in favor. The poll tax amendment got through some better, but was defeated in a way that depicted the strong fight which had been made against it. The constitutional amendment vote from five precincts received gave a total of 810 for tax amendment against 1186 for. Only 922 votes were cast in favor of the income tax while 1243 were against it.

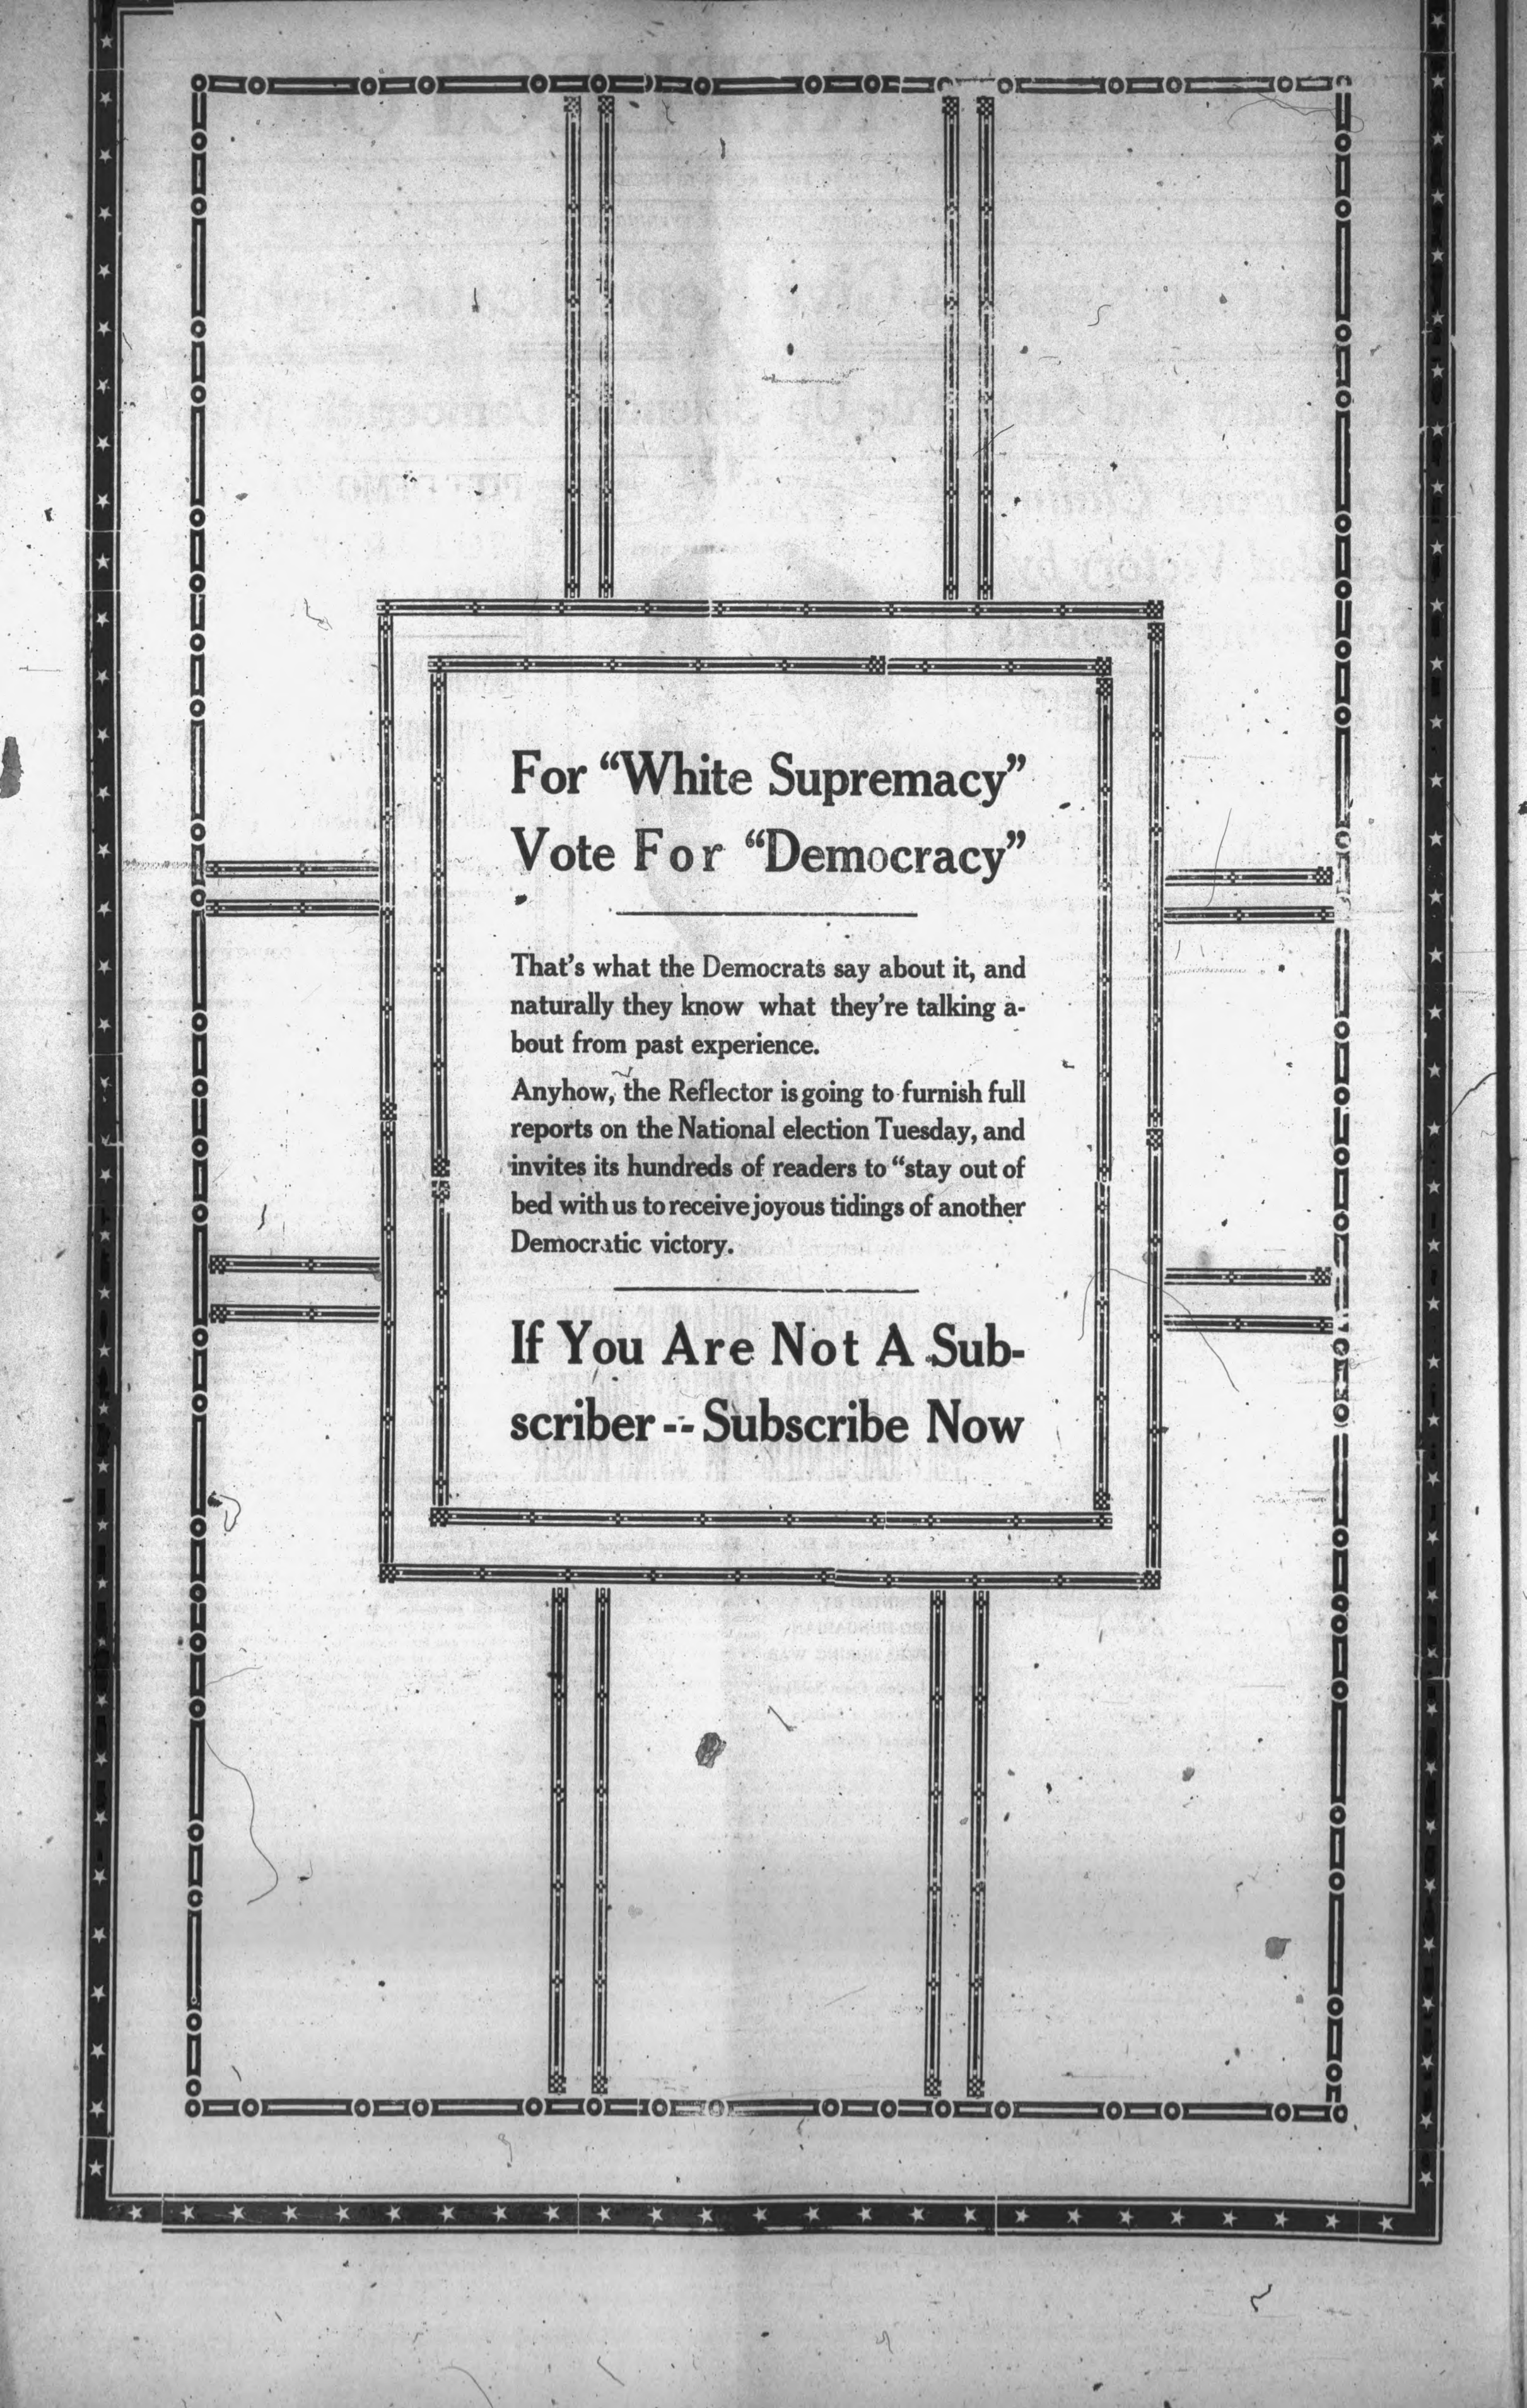

Ayden Township. Detailed reports from this township were not received before going to this morning, but the average vote for the democratic candidates was 540 and for republicans 135.

Beaver Dam Township. For president—Cox, dem. 131. Harding, rep. 10.

Morrison and entire state ticket received the same vote as the presidential candidates.

What Newspapers And Ministers Say About "Cyclone" Mack

I am convinced that Rev. Baxter McLendon has had a genuine religious experience. I know he preaches a pure gospel; I am positive that he has helped our community. I say this before the meeting is over. And as a man, I take pleasure in saying, "I am with you, Mack."

REV. A. A. McLEAN,
Presbyterian Pastor.

B. F. McLendon knows how to go after the shams, the cults, and the "isms" of the day, and does not hesitate to denounce them. When the whole Bible is preached as he preaches it, God will honor the message. Mack is a live wire; he is not marking time; he is on the job working hard. With such preaching the religious pendulum will swing back to the old days when men were struck dumb under the power of the Word and Spirit. God is wonderfully using him.

H. A. WHITTEN,
Methodist Pastor, Clover, S. C.

If anyone is skeptical as to the kind of preaching and work McLendon is doing, let him attend these meetings for a few days, and I am sure his doubts will vanish. His preaching is spiritual, orthodox, plain, and convincing. He makes no compromise with sin. At the same time his tender, sympathetic words to the sinner are very effective. He is one of the most earnest workers I have ever known. His ability to draw and hold large crowds is very remarkable.

REV. D. A. PHILLIPS,
(In Christian Advocate.)
P. M. Kingstree District.

It is of this remarkable man that I wish to say a few words: He is a remarkable man with a remarkable story and experience. He denounces sin in the sternest language that can be used. He does not in the least lower the Bible standard. I never saw a man who had such a passion for souls as he has. I want to commend him to my brethren of the Baptist denomination. He is worthy of our love and trust. If ever he comes to your town, give him your support; he will help you and he will help your town.

DR. W. E. THAYER,
Pastor First Baptist Church,
Sumter, S. C.

(In Baptist Courier.)

It has been my privilege to hear in recent years many of the leading evangelists, and while some of them excelled in education and refined speech, I have never heard any man who in so short a time could bring about a spirit of public and personal righteousness to equal that of Evangelist McLendon, called "Cyclone Mack." The call to a life of prevailing prayer, tithing, and consecration are responded to by young and old. Men of red blood and backbone muster into service in his campaign. Mack is a wonderful man.

DR. M. F. FOREBELL,
Pastor of First Baptist Church,
Alderson, W. Va.

I consider it fortunate that I have been given the opportunity of being with Baxter McLendon in one of his meetings. This experience will, I believe, result in a life-long blessing to me in making me a more useful servant of God.

REV. J. S. GARNER,
Pastor Presbyterian Church,
Mullins, S. C.

I believe that B. F. McLendon is the most remarkable preacher on the American continent. A man sent from God to preach the Gospel and he is preaching it.

DR. R. F. BUMBAS,
Pastor First Methodist Church,
Laurinburg, N. C.

Many of our people who have been in Billy Sunday's campaigns claim that "Cyclone Mack" is Billy Sunday's equal as an evangelist. I have heard both and that is my humble opinion. In one particular he is superior to Sunday, and that is he is not nearly so mechanical in his preaching.

DR. S. R. NEEL,
Pastor First Methodist Church,
Alderson, W. Va.
(In the Baltimore Advocate.)

Baxter McLendon seems to be a miracle of Divine grace. He is a unique personage, dramatic in manner, unconventional in style, gifted in prayer, brilliant in imagination, fearless in his denunciation of sin of all kinds and degrees, and faithful in his presentation of Christ as the only panacea for it. He has a definite, clear-cut religious experience, and tells it to others with confidence and power.

DR. E. P. DAVIS,
Pastor, Greenville, S. C.
(In Presbyterian Standard.)

Tonight I am personally thankful to Baxter McLendon. He has opened wide my soul; he has helped to make me more useful to Christ. Tonight, after years of expectation, I wish to say that I have seen the evangelist meeting for which I have longed and of which I have dreamed. I have a personal word to say to you, Mr. McLendon. It may be that some cultured people do not like your rhetoric but I want to say right here that you have not offended my ears very much, though deplorable as the fact may be, you have used a lot of slang. Mr. McLendon gives the center of the idea so that you can hear it, Mack. He has thrilled me through and through. I thank God for a man who can look a man in the eye and never quail; a man who can preach the gospel of Christ without fear, and with an eye singled to the glory of God. I thank God for a man whom we can love and admire and emulate. During these last six weeks we have all suffered more or less from the stab of Baxter McLendon. There are few of us who cannot show a stab or a bruise. He has not only skinned us and bruised us, but he has atomized us. Mack is a leopard in human skin, an animal of the cat kind. He is a creature of bottled up intensity.

DR. B. D. HAHN,
Pastor Pendleton Street Baptist
Church, Greenville, S. C.

When I heard that Mr. McLendon was going to hold a meeting here, I asked a good sister who knew Bro. McLendon when he was conducting a revival in Anderson, if she thought he would suit this place, (Greenville) and she said, "Adjutant, he will suit you." She knew that I took my religion like mother took her tea—mighty strong. A gentleman asked me the other day how I accounted for his power in saving souls, and I replied, "Brother, he is saved and he knows it. Another thing he preaches Bible truth. He preaches a practical religion. I have seen many revivals, but this is the best revival I have ever seen.

Adj. Crook of Greenville, S. C.
(In the Greenville Piedmont.)

There is not one of the many young men who have gone out from Asbury College whose ministry is being more largely blessed than that of McLendon. He bids fair, with the blessings of the Lord, to become one of the most powerful evangelists in the land. We hope some day to see him in a great revival in Louisville. We are sure if some of the brethren bring him here, that he will attract nation-wide attention.

DR. H. C. MORRISON,
Pres. Asbury College,
Field Sec. Anti-Saloon League.

After I investigated Mack, you saw me fall with heart and soul into this campaign. I have no apologies to offer for taking part in this campaign, and I want to say here that I think if there is any apology to be made, it ought to be made by the man who has stood by with hands off (loud applause). When a man comes to my realm and preaches the gospel of Christ as this man preaches I unite my efforts with him at once to bring about the salvation of souls. If the Methodist church ever becomes tired of Baxter McLendon, I want to say that I know something like one hundred Associate Reformed Presbyterian pulpits that will welcome him with open arms. He has preached as we have never heard God's word preached before.

REV. MR. McAULEY,
Associate Reformed Pastor,
Greenville, S. C.

Bro. McLendon, when one first hears him, has a method of presenting the truth that is so completely his own that it rather startles one, but after seeing his intense earnestness and eagerness for souls, one becomes more and more intensely interested. The people fairly swarm to hear the gospel in its simple power. Last night there must have been 6000 men about the tabernacle. I believe any pastor who wants to see his town stirred for God will find Bro. McLendon the man who under God can do the work. Do not sidestep him but stand by him through thick and thin, and before the meeting is over you will have reason sufficient to praise God for his coming.

REV. T. G. HERBERT,
Pastor First Methodist Church,
Florence, S. C.

McLendon is uncouth and unsocial, taking up little time with anyone. He leaves the town without knowing a half dozen people in it, and yet, with these defects, he is a remarkable man, and no doubt, one of the greatest evangelists the Southland has ever produced. What this country needs is more God-called men like this man that will make sin look like sin.

REV. R. M. DuBOSE,
Pastor Methodist Church,
Kershaw, S. C.

I have been doing all I could for about a year to have McLendon come here, particularly on account of our college boys and girls. I am not disappointed.

DR. D. J. BRIM,
Prof. Clinton College.

I unhesitatingly say that Baxter McLendon is a most satisfactory evangelist as I have ever known, and he not only does a work that tells profoundly in the religious life of the community, but leaves the pastor and people decidedly more in love with each other. Yes, if you can do so, get him by all means.

W. E. WIGGINS,

(In Christian Advocate.)

I followed McLendon last summer on some of my tours, and found that wherever he had been there was a very marked difference in the town and community, and the people voted prohibition.

J. K. BREEDIN,

I wish to express to you my personal gratification at the work you have done in my own heart and home, and also among the college boys who are a large part of my burden. I feel thankful to God that you have been privileged to do this work in our midst, and I feel that the whole community will be a different one as a result of your campaign.

A. E. SPENCER,

Vice-Pres. Clinton Pres. College.

It takes men like you and Billy Sunday to reach the hearts of men and women. You have caused many a man to think, and this is the first thing to be done before men will stop their sins.

JAS. B. KENNEDY,
Prof. History & Economics,
Clinton Presbyterian College.

Baxter McLendon studies his Bible and knows it and knows how to use it. He is intense in all of his methods and work, and God has graciously blessed his work.

PETER STOKES,

President Elder, Florence District.
The very character of Baxter McLendon's preaching will always accomplish great things for Christ. He is fearless to the last degree, and uncompromising in the condemnation of all sin.

REV. S. O. CANTEY,
(In Mullins Enterprise.)

Bro. McLendon's recent meeting here worked wonders in all classes and conditions of people. Baxter McLendon's preaching was of the sort that stirred people to action, and hundreds of the people took a stand for Christ. They are now standing by the prayer meeting, the Sunday school, and all the services of the church.

REV. R. S. TRUESDALE,
Sumter, S. C.

(In the Christian Advocate.)

He is on the Billy Sunday order, but from what I have read of Billy Sunday's sermons, I must say that McLendon has more of the real gospel in his discourses than Billy Sunday.

REV. J. L. McLEES,
Pastor Presbyterian Church,
Orangesburg, S. C.

He is sound and orthodox and evangelical. I do not admire all his methods. Many things he does and many things he says are very objectionable, but he reaches the people.

DR. JOHN M. ROSE,

Pastor Presbyterian Church,
Laurinburg, N. C.

There was one remarkable feature in this meeting. Mr. McLendon announced that if persons in the audience would repeat verses of scripture he would tell them where they could find them in the Bible. The congregation for several minutes fired at him verses, and without hesitation he would give them the chapter and the verse, and some times a person would get his verse a little mixed and Mack would repeat it for him, and would always follow with where that particular verse could be found.

—Mullins Enterprise.

A Bishop in the Northern Methodist church heard McLendon recently and remarked, "I was under the impression that McLendon was an uneducated man. I consider him one of the great preachers of the country. His descriptive power is his strongest fort in preaching."

—News and Courier.

The great meeting that Mack held in Anderson is still in evidence every where. He was able to approach many whom the churches were unable to reach, and he did a great work. Mr. McLendon is a splendid preacher and a wonderful man. He is a man of strong personality and is absolutely sincere. He helped Anderson wonderfully.

J. H. GODFREY, Mayor,
Baxter McLendon is the greatest factor for good that I know of in the state.

THOS. G. McLEOD,
Ex-Lieut. Governor.

Mr. Thos. Tatum, of Bishopville, S. C., Lay Leader of the South Carolina conference, stood on the platform last night and said, "Since McLendon held his meeting in our town the men are standing for nobler and better things." He begged the people of Florence to fall in with McLendon, and then looking out over the vast through he said, "It looks from this great sight that you are doing it." He said things about McLendon's meetings was that he had to go to a town and work for at least two long weeks to break down mean, bitter prejudices. It is about two weeks before the people catch the vision and realize that the evangelist is doing for the town. Then when they do catch his vision, his time is nearly up. "My friends, if you have not gotten in behind this meeting I want to tell you that it means something to your town. You will see men whom you had never expected to see on the Lord's side battling for the Lord. That fact of itself is enough. And, let me tell you this: It lasts; it stands after McLendon leaves town. I can take you back to my home town now where McLendon conducted a revival last fall and point out man after man who cared nothing about religion when McLendon was there, who are today as strong Christians as they were the day McLendon left town."

—Florence Daily Times.

McLendon has the preaching gift to the superlative degree.

GEORGE KOESTER,
Editor Greenville Piedmont.

McLendon's preaching is interesting, because he always says something.

W. D. GRIST,
Editor The Yorkville Enquirer.

I have heard the great evangelist of America, and the greatest of these is Baxter F. McLendon.

REV. W. O. GOODE,
(Christian Advocate.)

B. F. McLendon is one of the truly great evangelists of America.

—Birmingham Christian Advocate.
Dr. Fred Bowers, pastor of the first Baptist church of Morganton said Sunday night that he came across the state to tell the people of New Bern what Mack's meetings had meant to Morganton, and that hundreds of people had come into the churches. He said that he had seen as many as three murderers in one service on their knees at the altar asking God for forgiveness, and that he had baptized three blockaders that had been in the business for over 25 years, and that Burk county jail was empty for the first time in its history.

He said that he was born in Nova Scotia, and that he had been pastor in some of the leading churches of New York state, before coming south four years ago, and that he had heard the leading evangelist of the nation, but in his opinion Baxter F. McLendon was the greatest evangelist in America.

—The New Bernian.

"Cyclone Mack" is the greatest gospel preacher, and the most remarkable man that I have ever known.

REV. E. R. WELCH,

It would be a calamity for the country to lose a man like Baxter F. McLendon that is doing the good in the world that he is.

GOV. THOS. W. BICKETT.

I knew that McLendon was a great preacher, but I had no idea that he was the marvelous man that he is until I heard him in one of his great evangelistic campaigns.

REV. C. M. PICKENS.

"Mack" is the only man that I have ever heard that can trim the sin business just to suit my notion.

DOES A COTTON CLASSER PAY?

A few weeks ago a farmer drove to the market in a Southern town with two bales of cotton. It looked like cotton that had been selling for 30 cents. He was first offered 30 cents, then bids were raised to 34 cents. The farmer declined to sell until his cotton was classed. The government classer pronounced it to be middling, the staple to be 1 3-16 inches, and its market price to be around 40 cents. The extra length entitled the owner to about $25 premium per bale. On Friday another bale of the same grade and staple sold for 35 3-4 cents. This bale was not classed. The owner preferred to save the 50 cents cost of classing. He saved the classing and lost on his bale $22.25.

These same "little tragedies" are happening in your town and mine almost every day. Let's organize, get a cotton grader, and stop them.—Progressive Farmer.

The above reminds us that while Greenville has a public cotton weigher the market has no grader to classify the cotton, and when brought to market it takes such class as the buyer places upon. By reason of this the farmer through an error in classification, may get less for some of his cotton than its real value. President H. A. White, of the Chamber of Commerce wrote the Bureau of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture, and was advised that the bureau will furnish any cotton producer free cotton grading service. A better step would be to have an official cotton grader stationed here to classify the cotton as it is brought to market. The difference in price on proper classification would more than pay the existence of having such grader.

Out of 456 votes cast by women in Greenville precinct only 18 were for the Republican ticket, two of these being by colored women.

The voting of the women indicates that same names which were on the ticket this time will not be there any more.

Yesterday gave us one election without even a scent of liquor.

The Reflector screen on which election bulletins were flashed last night caught the crowd, and hundreds stood in front of the office until a late hour watching the returns. Consistency and its Result

This trade-mark is branded in red on one side of the Still Better Willard—the only storage battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

More than twelve years ago Willard built his first automobile starting, lighting and ignition battery—several years before electric starting came into general use.

For more than twelve years the one object on which Willard effort has concentrated has been automobile batteries—batteries that would serve the car owner longer, more efficiently and more reliably.

This consistency, this concentration on one big problem, has resulted in Willard leadership in the automotive battery field, and is responsible for—among many and varied contributions to the industry—the perfection of Threaded Rubber Insulation, the greatest battery improvement in years.

There are today 152 passenger car and truck manufacturers using the Still Better Willard Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

Consistent devotion to one aim, the building of a better automotive battery, has resulted in the adoption of the Still Better Willard by the 152 manufacturers below.

Social And Personal

Mrs. W. T. Forrest left this morning for Asheville where she will spend the winter.

Mesdames G. B. King, of Washington, D. C., and L. I. Moore, of New Bern, are the guests of Mrs. R. Williams.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY JARVIS MEMORIAL CHURCH

The second meeting of the week of prayer will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Wilson, Wednesday, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Winslow will be the leader.

The third service will be on Friday, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bradley, on Dickinson avenue, at 3:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Walter Dail as leader. All members are urged to attend as this comes but once a year.

MISS ELIZABETH CARR ENTERTAINS

On Saturday afternoon little Miss Elizabeth Carr, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Carr, entertained a large number of her little friends at a Halloween party. Upon arrival the guests were welcomed by the hostess who was dressed to represent a ghost and invited into the library and parlor which was decorated with pumpkins, apples suspended from strings, ghosts, candles and other Halloween decorations. The guests were then given a piece of chewing gum, a peanut and tooth pick and told to make an animal. Miss Mary Sheppard Keel made a hippopotamus and was awarded the prize which was a beautiful pumpkin. After the contest the guests were invited into the dining room which was attractively decorated with pumpkins and lanterns. The table was especially beautiful with its center piece made up of a large pumpkin and other Halloween decorations. After admiring all the little Halloween suggestions, the guests were served apples, ginger snaps, candies and each was given a Halloween favor. Miss Carr proved an ideal hostess and her little friends declared they had never had a better time.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Alex Blow was hostess to her bridge club last evening. Mrs. D. E. Taylor making the top score was awarded an embroidered towel, while the consolation prize, a lip stick, fell to Mrs. N. S. Fulford. At the conclusion of the games delightful refreshments were served. Mesdames N. S. Fulford and W. H. Dail were guests of the club.

TWO LAND SALES SCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11

On Thursday Nov. 11th at 10:30 o'clock the Greenville-Pitt Land Company and the Atlantic Coast Realty Company will sell the J. D. Evans farm near Simpson. This farm is one of the most productive farms in this section of the county. It contains many acres, good houses and is located near good churches and schools. The soil is splendid for the growing of tobacco and cotton. At 1-P. M. on the same day these companies will sell at public auction to the highest bidder the Washington Mills farm, at Black Jack. This farm is a large productive farm and produces some of the best crops grown in that section of Pitt county. These sales will be conducted in the usual manner of these companies and they are confident of good results. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Republicans Claim Decided Victory by Scattering Reports

night that Cox was safe. The situation has developed into possibly one of the most complete national political occurrences in a number of years and even today Republicans cannot confidently assert that the victory is theirs.

Varied Reports.

Telegraph dispatches of every description were received by The Reflector during the entire night, but each only made the situation more difficult and failed completely to present developments by which the true trend of the vote might be ascertained. Several precincts from a number of states appeared to indicate certain victory for the Republican candidate, but as little Democratic territory had been heard from even the best informed politicians of the nation were unable to predict the final outcome. It is true the situation appeared decidedly discouraging with first reports even until the early morning hours, but Democrats absolutely failed to claim or dispute anything until campaign managers from southern states had their say as to the way things were going in their localities. The woman suffrage vote, telegraph dispatches declared, presented an unusual situation in a number of states, and had practically doubled the usual time required in which to effect an official count. It was so virtually in every community, and consequently the sun came out this morning to witness millions of Democrats everywhere waiting complete reports before resigning themselves to the inevitable.

Democrats Rally In Pleasing Way

BIG GROWTH IN OUR TRADE WITH THE ORIENT.

No feature of our export trade which is likely to exceed $8,000,000,000 in the calendar year 1920 as against $2 1/2 billion dollars in the year before the war is more striking than that of the growth in our sales to the Orient. To Asia and Oceania the total exports of 1913 were $208,000,000 and in 1920 will considerably exceed $1,000,000,000. To South America the total for 1920 will exceed $500,000,000 against $147,000,000 in 1913; to Africa $140,000,000 against $29,000,000 in 1913; to North America, other than the United States, about $1,800,000,000 against $61,000,000 in 1913, and to Europe over $4,000,000,000 as against $1,500,000,000 in 1913.

Exports to the Orient are thus, says a statement by The National City Bank of New York, more than five times those of the year preceding the war. This is not surprising when we consider that manufacturers form the chief imports of the Orient, except in the case of Japan which buys large quantities of cotton, chiefly from the United States, and as the Orient found difficulty in obtaining its manufacturers from the European countries from which it had formerly drawn largely, it turned to the United States, and of the more than $1,000,000,000 worth of exports to Asia and Oceania in the calendar year 1920 over $800,000,000 are manufactures.

To every country of the Orient, including both Asia and Oceania in this term, our exports show enormous gains. To China in the eight months of 1920 for which detailed figures are available the total is $96,000,000 against $18,000,000 in the same months of 1913; to Japan in the eight months of 1920 $329,000,000 against $37,000,000 in the same months of 1913, to British India $66,000,000 in the eight months of 1920 against less than $7,000,000 in the same months of 1913; to the Dutch East Indies $35,000,000 against less than 2 1/2 million dollars in the corresponding months of 1913; to Hongkong $18,000,000 against $7,000,000 in the corresponding months of 1913; to Australia and New Zealand $100,000,000 against $30,000,000 in the same months of 1913. Even to the area formerly designated as "Turkey in Asia," the total for the eight months of 1920 is $8,000,000 against less than $1,000,000 in 1913.

On the import side we have fully reciprocated this friendly attitude, on the part of our oriental friends, for our total imports from the Orient in the calendar year 1920 will approximate $1,000,000,000 as against $316,000,000 in 1913.

Twelfth Annual Conference to be Conducted at Harrisburg, Pa.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—State governors will consider housing problems and ways to promote ownership of homes in their 12th annual conference at Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 1 to 3. Other subjects coming before the governors this year, as announced here by Miles C. Riley, secretary of the conference, are:

Decentralization of governmental functions and activities, in relation to the developing tendency toward centralization in the national government. The Kansas industrial relations court. Sources of income and the disbursements of state governments.

The general agricultural situation. Reports will be presented to the governors, from the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and the National Organization of State Railroad Commissioners.

"The coming conference promises to be one of the most largely attended and important gatherings of governors of our states that has ever been held," according to Secretary Riley. "Not only will most of the present"

EVERY PRICE IN THE SPOTLESS CO'S CATALOG HAS BEEN CUT

SEE NOTE AT BOTTOM OF PAGE

Every article shown in Catalog No. 21, just mailed, will be sold until December 1st, 1920, at prices reduced all the way from

2 to 50%

These reduced prices will be subject to advance on December 1st, if market conditions demand. Send in your orders and get the benefit of these cuts.

The 2 per cent items cover such things as nails, barb wire, metal roofings, etc., goods always sold on a very close margin. Harness has an average reduction of 10 per cent. Furniture from 5 to 15 per cent. Clothing from 5 to 25 per cent. Other lines carry similar price cuts.

These reductions are made off the published catalog price to meet the general demand for a lowering of costs in all manufactured articles. Prices have come down in the things grown and produced on the farm, so we feel that the things the farmer buys should also come down.

These lower prices are voluntary. Most of our goods are made of iron and steel on which there have been few declines. We have but a few things made of silk, cotton or wool, in which lines the market has shown the greatest breaks.

Many of our reductions are therefore taken from our profits. Very few concessions have been made by the manufacturers for future purchases.

Market quotations on our goods and our present low catalog prices, do not justify any such reductions as we are making, but we feel that this is a time when co-operation and teamwork will do the most to raise the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar. And so we are taking our loss along with their's in order that out of the present situation may come a better prosperity for all.

Write for Price Reduction Sheet or senrebates will be made on every article or d in your orders at the catalog price anddered.

What the Manufacturers Say About the Prices of

MAJESTIC RANGES

To the right is printed a letter just received from the makers of the
GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE
The price and the range is right.

Buy Your
MAJESTIC RANGE NOW

While you need it. We will refund to you the difference should the price be lowered between now and March 1, 1921. Fair, Isn't It?

WHY MAJESTIC RANGE PRICES CANNOT BE LOWERED

There are two kinds of prices—honest prices and inflated prices. Sound reasoning will convince anyone that honest prices on ranges cannot be lowered until material and labor is lowered.

Only prices that are inflated (too high) can be lowered today, and leave an honest profit for the manufacturer.

Majestic Range prices are honest prices, they have always been based on actual costs of material and labor, plus an honest living profit.

To lower the price of Majestic Ranges today, would be the same as saying our prices WERE inflated, because, material that goes into our range, and labor, is not one cent less than it was when we made our last price—in fact, material is higher right now.

Iron, Steel and Copper, of world-wide demand now, show no indications of a decline.

Skilled workmen who make Majestic Ranges, have never been paid inflated wages, but have always been given honest wages based on costs of honest living. Remember this—the lowering of inflated prices and inflated wages should never be confused with honest prices and honest wages.

Majestic Ranges may seem high—and on the surface they are higher than many other ranges, but, in the long, economical service they give,

THEY ARE THE LOWEST PRICED RANGE ON THE MARKET TODAY.
