

Begins Investigation Of Alleged Election Fraud In New York

District Attorney Swann Begins Probe Into the Finding of Twenty-six Democratic Ballots in City Sewers by Street Cleaners. Search Continues for Additional Votes in Underground Passages.

New York, Nov. 5.—District Attorney Swann today began a formal investigation into alleged fraud resulting from the finding of twenty-six ballots marked for the democratic ticket which were found at the mouth of a sewer by street cleaners. He has requested a search of underground passages for additional votes.

TO ASK ASSEMBLY FOR EXTENSION OF SCHOOL'S ACTIVITY

Trustees of Training School Outline Recommendations in Meeting Here.

The meeting of the Board of Trustees of East Carolina Teachers Training School yesterday was one of the most important ever held by this body. The plans outlined by them and the recommendations that are to be made to be presented to the next General Assembly of North Carolina are far-reaching and will mark an epoch not only in the history of the school but in the history of education in North Carolina.

RELATED REPORTS GIVE REPUBLICANS 400 ELECTORAL VOTE

New York, Nov. 5.—With Harding's electoral vote virtually fixed at four hundred out of possible 531 of electoral college and a new senate set for 59 Republicans and 37 Democrats, Republican leaders are today awaiting belated returns from eight contests still in doubt. The decided Republican House majority so far assures Republicans of 286 House members to 137 Democratic and four other designations giving Republicans greatest majority ever held in the House.

Tennessee Republican Tennessee is regarded definitely in the Republican electoral column with newspaper returns indicating that the Republicans have five of the state's ten congressional seats, two having already been Republican.

RELIEF WORK NOW IN FULL SWAY IN CHINESE PROVINCE

Famine Funds Being Distributed in Four Districts by Committees.

Peking, Nov. 5.—Relief work for the 20,000,000 estimated sufferers from famine in the four Chinese provinces where the crops failed this year has been undertaken energetically by both Chinese and foreign organizations.

The Chinese ministries of Finance, Agriculture, and Interior have appointed a commission to dispense $1,000,000 fund to be raised by means of a short term loan. From Shanghai comes news of another fund of $1,800,000 undertaken by seven provinces at the instigation of Tang Shao-yi, the chief Southern peace delegate.

Comprehensive reports submitted to the American Relief committee indicate that the early reports of distress have not been exaggerated. Dr. F. F. Tucker, writing from Aehchow, Shanghai, says: "Today an old man with a keen memory was describing conditions 42 years ago when a memorable famine occurred and he is quite sure that conditions are worse."

ONE OF "CYCLONE" MACK'S SALIENT GOSPEL SAYINGS

ARGENTINA BEGINS INVESTIGATION OF BIG GRAFT CHARGES

Former Government Charged With Unduly Disbursing Nation's Funds.

Buenos Aires, Nov. 5.—Argentina has been having a graft investigation as a result of which it has been found that 5,500,000 pesos have been unduly disbursed by former government officials who directed payments to contractors for building the capitol here.

The building, a magnificent structure of classic architecture, marble facings and broad sweeps of marble steps, not unlike the capitol at Washington, is jestingly called in the newspapers "El Palacio de Oro," Spanish for "The Palace of Gold."

Recently a committee of the National Accountancy Department completed an investigation of the expenditure of the monies paid for construction of the building and reported that 5,500,000 pesos had been "unduly" disbursed.

Buenos Aires newspapers told years ago of wagon loads of building material that went in the front door of the structure, soon after came out the back door and then disappeared. Charges were made that marble was paid for but concrete used for part of the construction, and other accusations of graft were aired. It was then that the newspapers began to call it "The Palace of Gold."

URGES ORGANIZING OF TOBACCO MEN IN THIS TERRITORY

Stephen Bragaw Advocates Immediate Organizing of State Growers.

The organization of the tobacco growers of North Carolina into one compact association, with no side issues, and with no other object than the legitimate one of preventing a sale of this product at a sacrifice not required by the law of supply and demand is proceeding steadily and along such sound and sane lines as gives positive assurance of results. Indeed these results are already being observed in better prices on the markets of the state, to which, in some measure it is believed this movement is contributing.

Maryland is already organized, Virginia has organized. Committees on co-operation among state organizations have been appointed and are preparing to function. South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky and other tobacco sections will all be included. The North Carolina Executive Committee, composed of Hon. J. Y. Joyner, Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, Dr. Clarence Poe, Mr. E. G. Moss, Mr. Fred L. Carr, Mr. J. C. Groome and Mr. W. B. Daniels, are giving attention to the necessary details of perfecting the association and its working plans.

Movements have commenced for co-operation by Bankers, Fertilizer furnishers and others, and the association is receiving the unqualified and loyal support of the farmers of the entire tobacco territory.

There is but one menace to the complete carrying out of the plans contemplated. That menace consists of the obstacle which has heretofore blocked organization by farmers, with consequent loss to farmers—to wit: division in the ranks, not division due to disagreements among the farmers themselves, but division due to the desire of somebody to profit at the expense of the farmer.

We need only one tobacco growers association in North Carolina, but the need for that is so great that its defeat now would be but little less than a crime against the grower. The men who are behind the North Carolina Tobacco Growers Association are acting without compensation or the hope of other reward than indirectly may come from better conditions to themselves and their fellow farmers and the consciousness of having helped their fellows.

IMPORTANT ISSUES TO BE CONSIDERED IN LEAGUE SESSION

Economic Blockade to be Taken Up by First Assembly in Genoa this Month.

QUESTION OF GREAT INTEREST TO PEOPLE IN UNITED STATES

International Blockade Commission to Direct Action After the Meeting.

New York, Nov. 5.—One of the important questions to be considered by the assembly of the League of Nations at its first meeting, beginning November 15, at Genoa, will be the preparations required to enable the League to use, if necessity arises, the weapon of international economic and financial blockade contemplated in Article XVI of the Covenant.

A memorandum by Sir Eric Drummond, the Secretary-General, now being distributed to the members of the League, and received here by the League to Enforce Peace shows that this question will come before the assembly. On the recommendation of the League Council in the form of a proposal to appoint a body to be known as the International Blockade Commission, the Secretary-General suggests that this commission consist of representatives nominated by the countries entitled to permanent membership in the Council, with the addition of representatives of four other members of the League selected by the Assembly, for the purpose of studying the problem and settling the general plan of action, the organization of the more permanent machinery required and the principles on which it should work.

This question is of peculiar interest to the United States, because one of the first problems such a commission would consider promises to be the method of rendering a blockade effective against states which are not members of the League. In a report adopted by the Council of the League at the San Sebastian meeting in August, M. Tittoni, the Italian representative, stated: "It should be clear that the states members of the League of Nations who declare the blockade have the right to render it effective against all states including those who are members of the League, but they have not the right to force the states who do not form part of the League to declare the blockade themselves."

BRYAN WOULD HAVE THE PRESIDENT RESIGN WITHOUT ANY DELAY

Chicago, Nov. 4.—William Jennings Bryan, in Chicago today, gave out a statement suggesting that "President Wilson should resign at once."

"Now that the American people have decisively declared against the League of Nations as written by the President," said Mr. Bryan, "it would seem desirable to carry out the verdict immediately. This can be easily done."

"The President should resign at once and turn over his office to Mr. Marshall on the condition that on the convening of congress in December, he himself should resign."

"The law then would make Mr. Harding President, and with the Republican support in congress, he could at once put into operation the plan for the United States to enter into an association of nations for peace."

"As world peace is a thing nearest the President's heart, he can hardly refuse to hasten the coming of peace by so small a sacrifice—if it could be called a sacrifice—to escape from a three months' combat with a hostile congress, supported as it is, by the recent vote."

CYCLONE MACK IN POWERFUL SERMON HERE LAST NIGHT

Evangelist Delivers Powerful Indictment Against the Pharisee.

DRAWN COMPARISONS WITH CONDITIONS IN ASCENDENCY LOCALLY

Pharisee Religion Would Make Present Christians Look Like Copper Cent.

Mack on the weakness of Pharisees, last night said:

The Pharisees had weaknesses, and one of them they delighted in swallowing camels. In Matthew, the 23:24 Jesus said: "Ye blind guides which strain at a gnat and swallow a camel." Oh, that bunch would suffocate, stifle, smother, and strangle over a gnat, but they could take a camel, (Here Mack made a funnel out of his hands and imitated the Pharisee gulping him down), and the last thing you would see would be his hind heels going down.

They Didn't Like Shouting.

They wanted the devil to have a monopoly on enthusiasm. On one occasion Jesus was riding into Jerusalem on a mule and the common people were going before Him shouting, Hosanna to the Son of David! They were casting their coats before Him to walk upon, and tore palm branches from the trees, and cast them at His feet, and took flowers and paved His way, and there was great excitement and wonderful enthusiasm, and the Pharisees ran over to Jesus and said, "Master, rebuke thy disciples." This excitement gratifies our sensitive, sedate, refined, supercilious, aristocratic, very conservative, and prudish, things done in decency and order, and Jesus said if these people would cut out their shouting the very stones would immediately cry out.

If you had caught him at a base ball game or political meeting he would have shouted his collar down and his tongue out, but when it comes to religion he believed in being as stiff as a poker, and as cold as a dog's nose. "Oh clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph. Cry out and shout, thou inhabitants of Zion: for great is the holy one of Israel in the midst of thee." These are the sentiments of David and Isaiah. Now, I don't mind you shouting, but I want you to live just as high as you shout. It is a sad thing to see a fellow as crooked as a cork screw, and so low down he has to feel up to touch the bottom shouting.

Here is another camel. They want the preacher to close at nine o'clock, but they can go to a theater, lecture, show or dance, and stay up until 11 o'clock. Why do they go to church, and snap a watch in the face of the preacher, and sigh, groan, gasp and yawn? because their heart is not in it? I have never heard a sermon since the Lord saved me that I didn't get interested in. If the preacher was doing a lot of talking, and not saying anything I would sit there with my mouth open and ears burning, and get excited expecting him to say something.

Suppose some young Buck Wart in this town would call on his sweetheart about eight o'clock, and about eight forty-five he would begin to stretch, sigh, yawn and gasp, and pull out his watch and say, "This is mighty monotonous and tiresome," do you know what would happen to him? I will tell you. He would leave there on high gear with everything wide open, and you couldn't see him for the dust, as he went over the hill. We have the biggest thing there is, and the reason you get tired is because your heart is not in it.

Now, I want to ask you church members, Where are you ahead of the Pharisee? You say, "I work for my church," so did the Pharisee. You say, "I pray," so did the Pharisee say long prayers. You say, "I pay my preacher, so did the Pharisee pay one-tenth of all he made. You say, "I fast," so did the Pharisee fast twice every week. You say, "I keep the commandments," so did the Pharisee. He

SCHOOL WEEK.

"School Week" will be observed throughout the nation the week of December 5-11, as the commissioner of education is designating the first full week in December as "School Week," and is requesting the governors and the chief school officers of the several States and Territories to take such action as may be necessary to cause the people to use this week in such way as will most effectively disseminate among the people accurate information in regard to the conditions and needs of the schools, enhance appreciation of the value of education, and create such conditions as will result in better opportunities for education, and larger appropriations for schools of all kinds and grades.

The Commissioner of Education suggests that during this week the public press should give more attention, and a larger amount of space to educational topics than usual, and that on Sunday, December 5, ministers should use one or more of their church services for emphasizing the importance of education.

It is further suggested that during the week chambers of commerce, boards of trade, women's clubs, labor unions, farmers' unions, patriotic and civic societies, Rotary Clubs and Kiwanis Clubs, and other important organizations and associations should devote one meeting to a discussion of the needs of education in their states and communities, holding special meetings if necessary, and that motion picture houses should put on their screens during "School Week" facts and figures in regard to the importance of education, and the condition and needs of the schools.

Universities, colleges, and normal schools will be requested to devote the convocation hours of the week to a discussion of education in general, and of their own particular needs, and it is further suggested that all elementary and high school teachers should devote one period each day of "School Week" to this subject telling the children about education in their local communities, and in State and Nation, how the schools are supported and how much money is spent for them, their economic, social and civic value, and that during this week themes of essays and composition in elementary and high schools relate to education.

Friday afternoon and evening of "School Week" has been designated as the date on which community meetings in the interest of education should be held at all school houses, both in city and country, for the purpose of discussing the needs of the schools of the several communities, the means of meeting these needs, and of remedying conditions.

State departments on education have been invited to provide information through the public press and otherwise in regard to the conditions and needs of the schools in the several States, and city and county superintendents have been invited to take similar action and it is further suggested that city and county superintendents of schools hold meetings on Friday or Saturday of the week preceding "School Week" for the purpose of discussing these problems among themselves and making definite plans for the proper observance of the week in school and for Friday afternoon and evening meetings.

At least we can be glad that Thanksgiving day is coming.

There are as many explanations as to how it happened as there are people.

People may forget many things, but the women will be apt to remember the first day they voted.

It is indeed refreshing to look at North Carolina's figures in the midst of the election returns.

Some of the papers are saying this is the worst defeat the Democratic party has ever had. Not so. It is not as bad as in the campaign when Judge Parker was the candidate for president.

The Republicans having carried the presidency, the senate and congress, they will have the whole responsibility for what is done in the next four years.

There is no reason that business should have any let up because the nation has gone Republican. The sun will go right on rising and setting every day as usual, and business should push right along.

Now that the election is over, people should warm up to the McLendon campaign. Really they should be more interested in the meeting "Mack" is holding than in politics. Administrations and conditions frequently change, but when people leave this for the next world they will stay just where they land.

You are saving up something when you invest in the Home Building and Loan Association and that is what many local people will do when the new series next Saturday.

AMERICAN MUSEUM WILL SEARCH FOR HISTORY IN CHINA

Expedition in February Will be Conducted Principally for Missing Links.

ABORIGINAL TRIBES TO FEATURE LARGELY IN THE EXPEDITION

New York, Nov. 4.—The expedition sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History which will set forth for China next February will search not only for fossils of the ape-man, regarded by biologists as the "missing link" in the chain of evolution, but will study the aboriginal tribes now said to be fast disappearing in China.

"We know as little about some of the living natives as about the fossil history of the country," says Roy Chapman Andrews who will lead the expedition. "Long before the Chinese arrived, China was inhabited by aboriginal tribes, which were pushed south and west just as the Indians were driven across the American continent.

Remnants of nearly 30 of these tribes, such as the Lolo, Mosos, Lisos and others, are rapidly disappearing, and the expedition expects to study them before they become extinct.

Describing these aborigines with whom he has hunted, Mr. Andrews having tall and slender bodies, long faces, patrician noses and other characteristics of Caucasian blood.

Mr. Andrews says that scientific men are now agreed in the belief that the oldest prehistoric remains of man, and of many beasts, lie somewhere within the great Central Asiatic Plateau, where few white men have ever penetrated.

One of the reasons why little is known of China's fossils and those of interior Asia is that material of this sort is carefully concealed by the Chinese, who term the relics "dragon's bones" and use them for medicinal purposes, said Mr. Andrews.

One result expected is the education of Americans in a knowledge of the immense continent across the Pacific. Whether success or failure meets the attempt to find the "missing link," hundreds of thousands of specimens of Asiatic animal and plant life are to be collected and brought to America. These it is planned to place in the proposed $1,000,000 Hall of Asiatic Life in this city.

THE HOME ORCHARD.

There should be a Home Orchard on every farm in Pitt county. If there is anyone who should have an abundant and constant supply of fruit it is the farmer; and yet an orchard is the exception and not the rule on Pitt county farms. Many farmers think that fruit growing is a special kind of business that takes too much special knowledge, too much time and skill, to make it profitable on the average farm.

There are farmers who make a specialty of fruit growing, but we are not advocating that for Pitt county. What we want is about one acre set to a variety of good trees on every farm that will give the farmer and his family plenty of fruit throughout the year and have a surplus to sell on the local market.

Failure to use the spray pump is the cause of the majority of orchard failures in this country. To many farmers that when the tree is planted his work is finished, and he leaves the tree to scramble for itself, against weeds, insects, plant diseases, impoverished soil and whatever may happen to befall it. Then he says his land is not suited for fruit, because his orchard failed. A good fruit grower once said, "an orchard never fails, it is the man and not his orchard." A little observation will prove this to be the case. The main thing in having a good orchard is spraying and pruning at the proper time. The spray mixtures to be used and the time of spraying have been so simplified that any farmer can get all the information he needs on this subject. Bulletins and spraying calendars may be had on application from your county agent. He can also direct you in buying a spray pump and spraying material, which is not expensive.

Trees should be set in the fall rather than in the spring. Any farmer interested in putting in a Home Orchard this fall should get in touch with the county agent as soon as possible. Special prices are offered him on trees enough to set either one half acre, or one acre. The county agent will also be glad to help any farmer to select a place for his orchard, help him to buy the right kind of trees, cheaper than he can get them, help him to set the trees and then help him to keep the orchard properly pruned and sprayed. Put in a home orchard this fall.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—Unlike any other post office in the United States, the management of the one in Columbus is supervised by employees. A system of management by the employers, similar to that adopted by some of the country's larger industries, has been in operation since February. Postmaster Samuel Kinnear says the system has succeeded and is proving a success.

The innovation was adopted to bring about a higher standard of efficiency to the public and better working conditions for employees.

Grievances or suggestions made by employees are reported to committees, of whom there are about 40. Following their investigation of the complaint or proposal, their recommendation is reported to the Post Office Council composed of all committeemen. The council debates the subject and either approves or rejects the recommendation.

The postmaster has the power to veto all recommendations of the council but it is said, that anything approved by the council is likely to receive his approval, as he is heartily in favor of the system.

Nothing of a radical nature has yet brought about a number of beneficial changes in the operation of the post office proposed to the council.

SAYS EVASION OF INCOME TAX BECOME SERIOUS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 4.—Frank C. Carter, state auditor, says that evasion of the personal income tax law by the formation of corporations costs Oklahoma hundreds of thousands of dollars a year. At the next session of the legislature, Mr. Carter states, efforts will be made to amend the tax law to make corporations pay taxes upon their earnings.

"When a man's business begins to thrive so that he has to pay a big sum for income tax to the state, he takes in his wife and one of his employees and forms a corporation," Mr. Carter declares. "The next year the corporation does not declare a dividend and there is no record to show what is the personal income of the stockholders. The stockholders could be prosecuted for embezzlement if he should be detected using the undivided profits for his personal needs, but it is hard to discover him. The next year..."

was a sticker for keeping the commandments. You say, "I have come out from the world," so was the Pharisee separated from the world. You say, "I live right outwardly," so was the outward correctness of the Pharisee's life perfect. You say, "I have been baptized, and take communion." We have proved in the sermon that these things are not analogous to the New Birth.

Now up to this point, the Pharisee's religion will make you people look like a plug copper cent beside a thousand dollar Liberty Bond, and yet with all their morality, and churchianity, and religiousness, and commendable qualities, and good traits, and many virtues Jesus said unto His disciples, "Unless your righteousness exceed that of the Pharisee, ye shall in no case enter the Kingdom of Heaven." You want me to give a reason for my hope the Pharisee cannot give. Thank God, I have something that exceeds their righteousness. On the twenty-second night of last October eleven years ago, at about eleven o'clock at night in the town of Bennettsville, S. C., God wonderfully and powerfully, and tremendously saved my soul from an awful life of sin. I was born again, born from above, regenerated by the blood that was shed on the lone, gray, hill of Calvary, changed from nature to grace. Old ideas, choices, purposes, affections passed away and new ideas, choices, purposes, and affections came into my life and I was a new creation, so much so that I almost wanted some one to introduce me to myself. I will never forget that night when I walked out from that old tent with Rena on my arm, and the stars came out on dress parade, and laughed and said, "Mack, we are glad," and I felt like I was walking on a sea of glass mingled with fire. To show you what a cold blooded, hard hearted devil I was, never had my little 18-months-old boy in my arms but once in my life, and as we walked into our home I reached down into the cradle and picked up little Sol and said, "God bless my black-eyed boy," and pressed him to my bosom, and kissed his face, and bathed in his tears, and I realized God was in the world, and that I had been made a new man by His mighty power.

My friends, what I mean by the new birth is a radical transformation of our inmost nature. It is not a mere outward change, but a birth, a new birth. It is a new creation. The old things are passed away; behold they are become new. The new birth is a radical transformation in the deepest depths of our being, the impartation of a new nature, a new intellectual nature, a new emotional nature, a new volitional nature. It is an impartation of God's own nature to us. We become partakers of the divine nature. We are born into this world with a corrupt nature in every part of our mental and moral being. Our minds are blind to the truth of God. Paul says in (I Cor. 2:14), "The natural man receiveth not the things of the spirit of God for they are foolishness unto Him; and He can not know them, because they are spiritually discerned; our feelings are corrupt, we love the things that God hates, and hate the things that God loves; our will is perverse, our will is set upon pleasing ourselves instead of upon pleasing God." In the new birth we get a new mind, a mind that is open to the truth of God that thinks the thoughts of God after Him; we get new affections, we now love the things that God loves and hate the things that God hates. We get a new will (a resurrected will)—a will that is in harmony with the will of God, a will that is set upon pleasing God, and not set upon pleasing self. My friends, if you have not experienced what I am talking about here, the Pharisee is so far ahead of you that you can't see him for the dust as he goes over the hill. We have let up and let down, and put on the soft pedal, corralled, and lassoed people and brought them into the Church without a change of heart until we have not only just about lost the doctrine of the new birth, but the experience also, and that is the reason that vital godliness is at such a low ebb today. If we preachers don't stand on the wall as watchman, and lift up our voices and cry aloud, and call the church back to the new birth, you may read "Ichabod" on your door post "thy glory is departed" and turn your churches into mutual congratulation societies, social endeavors, or third rate amusement bureaus.

tenance, for one hundred years and yet came out with a bigger bank balance than she had ever had. She spent $100,000,000 for war to help fight Germany, he believes that she should spend for construction as much as one tenth of what she spent for destruction, and that would be about seventeen millions. The time has come to make a war in North Carolina against ignorance. The Board of Trustees yesterday began this war. It may be that the people of the State and the members of the General Assembly have not yet caught the vision, therefore, he urged the young women to go out as missionaries and preach the gospel of better teachers for children and better opportunities for teachers.

He paid a high tribute to the Board of Trustees, saying that no school had a better board; this board sees the best for the children of the state and wants the best for this school. President Wright says that he is not one of those presidents who is opposed to building other schools; he believes in doing whatever will give a better chance to the children of the State. "We can help others and they can help us."
