DARING AIRMAN THRILL THOUSANDS IN AIRPLANE FLIGHT IN CITY TODAY

"Human Spider" Defies Laws of Gravity In Intrepid Acts on Wings of Machine. SWINGS FROM WINGS BY TOES GOING AT RATE OF HUNDRED MILES AN HOUR

Flying at a low altitude over the business section of Greenville "Bill" Strother, better known as the "Human Spider," thrilled thousands of people here this afternoon in probably one of the most daring aeroplane flights ever witnessed in this section of the country.

Clinging steadfastly to his position upon the wings, Strother, however, failed to exhibit the slightest signs of fear for his own safety that for several minutes had pulsed thru the veins of his amazed spectators.

The attraction was staged in the interest of "Pay-Up and Trade Weeks" which opened in Greenville last Thursday. It was scheduled to take place Friday afternoon, but shortly after arriving from Washington the machine was damaged to such an extent that repairs could not be made until this morning when the first flight was pulled off.

And he showed them something, too. The machine swooped down at a low altitude in order to give everyone a good view of what was in progress. Bill started off with a few preliminaries on top of the wings, in which he assumed every dangerous position and posture possible, accomplishing a number of intrepid stunts appearing almost impossible.

Strother, who is a native of Stanburg and former resident of Greenville will continue to tour the country in the company of Lieutenant Treat. Next year they will be seen in aerial features provided by hundreds of fairs throughout the country.

Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, who made himself president of Germany for four days last March, is planning to visit the United States in the spring to lecture. Dr. Kapp is now living in Sweden.

GREENVILLE TRADE AND PAY UP WEEK DRAWS ATTENTION

Wholesale Firm in Another State Adopts Methods of Eastern Carolina Towns.

Greenville's "Pay-Up and Trade Weeks" campaign is attracting attention far beyond the borders of the county, and business men elsewhere are pointing to it as an example of enterprise.

"One of our representatives has just returned from a hurried trip through Eastern North Carolina and whether there is any truth in the report or not, he says there is strong indication that much money, which is being paid by the buyers of country produce, is being taken out of circulation entirely.

"All merchants participating in this scheme immediately mailed out statements of accounts giving their customers an opportunity of competing for the prizes and every dollar paid in, whether for cash purchases or on account, entitled the customer to a chance of winning one of the prizes.

"Anyone interested in the plan might obtain more detailed information from the Merchants' Association, Greenville, N. C.

SEES DISASTER IF CONDITIONS DO NOT IMPROVE IN FUTURE

Sir Charles Macra, of London, Says Means Must Be Devised for A Greater Co-operation.

REDUCTION IN COST OF PRODUCTION NECESSARY TO EFFECT IMPROVEMENT

United Kingdom in Critical Condition From High Prices and Result of The War.

London, Dec. 21.—Sir Charles Macra, former president of the International Cotton Federation and of the English Federation of Master Cotton Spinners Association, is of the opinion that the world is "faced with disaster unless means be devised throughout the world to bring about more wholehearted co-operation between employers and workers, with a view to reducing governmental and national extravagance and bringing down the cost of production by united effort."

At present, Sir Charles sees no prospect of a real reduction in the cost of living and he thinks that the United Kingdom is today in as critical a position as at the outbreak of the war, largely due, he says, to the curtailment of credit by banks, at the bidding of the government.

"People are encouraged to believe that a slump in prices is due immediately," said Sir Charles to the correspondent, "but an artificially-created slump would be nothing less than a disaster. Low prices are an illusion so long as the world lacks goods and the cost of production remains on the present scale.

CITY ROTARY CLUB ENJOYS A SPLENDID HOLIDAY PROGRAM

Regular Meeting Last Night Featured By Entertaining Program and Tempting Supper.

Christmas season was appropriately observed at the regular meeting of the Greenville Rotary club conducted in the basement of the Christian church last night, in which a splendid supper was served by ladies of the church, holiday songs and carols and finally concluded with the entrance of Santa Claus himself who presented each member with a stocking filled with tempting goodies such as only the fortunate Rotary follower has the opportunity of enjoying.

The holiday spirit was appropriately carried out by decorations of holly, bells and draperies, and particularly on the table which had received additional touches carrying out the spirit of the occasion by a Christmas tree, glistening under the light of many candles.

After the regular order of business had been disposed of supper was served, which was constantly interrupted by holiday songs and carols by members of the club. Mrs. S. B. Underwood, wife of the president, and Mrs. S. K. Phillips, specially invited guests, rendered vocal and instrumental selections of a pleasing nature.

Rev. S. K. Phillips delighted the gathering with a talk dealing with Christmas cheer and good will, and several minutes later Santa Claus made his entrance with a bag chock full o' goodies. As a concluding feature St. Nick made an interesting talk that expressed his mission in a plain, convincing manner.

The next meeting of the Rotary club will be conducted in the new home which will be completed the latter part of this month. The meeting will be held January 3rd, and it is expected attendance will be much above the average.

PILGRIM DAYS TO BE CELEBRATED IN CITY OF PLYMOUTH

Landing of Pilgrims 300 Years Ago to Be Observed by Formal Exercises Tomorrow.

SENATOR LODGE WILL DELIVER ADDRESS ON HISTORICAL RELATION

Faculty of Art and Science of Harvard University to Participate in the Exercises.

Plymouth, Mass., Dec. 21.—The landing of the Pilgrims 300 years ago with all that the occasion connotes will be celebrated tomorrow with formal exercises on the ground and almost on the spot where they first trod. The fugitive band that crossed the Atlantic to find religious freedom and against adversity founded a nation in a wilderness will step again in story from the Mayflower's shallop to the shore, starve through the winter and plant seeds of permanency in the spring.

In prose and verse the epic of their venture and its accomplishment will be re-told by scholars. From United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as orator will come the historical relation of the Plymouth Plantation's establishment and its significance. Le Baron R. Briggs, who is dean of the faculty of arts and sciences of Harvard University, as the official poet, will span the years from 1620 to 1920 in verse. Governor Calvin Coolidge, the vice-president-elect will make an address appropriate to the occasion and singers will intone again "The breaking waves dashed high" and Mrs. Felicia Hemans' stirring hymn.

COUNTY FARMERS ACTIVE IN THE FIGHT TO CUT ACREAGE

Organization Work Proceeding Rapidly With Splendid Increase in Membership.

W. B. Pace, secretary of the county branch of the State Tobacco Growers' association, stated this morning that reports from various townships indicated unusual activity on the part of Pitt county planters in bringing the total membership of the county organization up to the highest possible figure. Membership campaigns are being pushed in an energetic way in virtually every township, and it is believed by the first of the year will witness the addition of several hundred interested growers.

Reports of township committees here last Saturday showed that only four hundred members had been secured up to that time, but secretary Pace says the organization is not content at this and plans to bring the figure up to five or six thousand as soon as possible. Prominent business and professional men are at the head of community campaigns, and it is the purpose of each of these to see if Pitt county cannot surpass all other counties in number of members.

Mr. Pace is of the opinion that the latter part of this month will feature the most intensive campaigning of the past several weeks, and it is being urged upon every tobacco grower to fully consider the facts of proposed activity and then join in the fight to reduce acreage and help bring prices back to normal. Co-operation, it has been reiterated repeatedly, must hold supreme sway in county affairs as well as in a national way and it is with this end in view that interested business men and prominent planters are directing their efforts. Another large crop of tobacco will demoralize the industry for several years to come, and unless every grower abides by regulations of the campaign his future crop is lost.

EXPLORER RICE TO MAKE EARLY TOUR OF EGYPT DISTRICT

Philadelphia Man to Conduct Search For Species of Goat Invaluable to Science.

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—Despite the terrors through which he passed while journeying through the wilds of South America, Dr. Alexander Hamilton Rice explorer, plans soon to leave for Egypt in an endeavor to locate a certain species of goat which is invaluable to medical research work.

He expressed this intention in an address on South America before the Geographical Society here.

Dr. Rice said his trip through South America took him up the Rio Negro, the largest tributary of the Amazon, through a natural canal more than 200 miles long connecting it with the Orinoco, into hitherto unexplored portions of Brazil. It was here that he came in actual contact with Guaharibos, a virtually unknown tribe of cannibal Indians, who for seventeen days pursued his party in an effort to cut off their return.

The attack occurred in a wild spot along the banks of the Orinoco, where Dr. Rice had made camp the night before. Two of his Indian guides had gone up the river in a canoe to test the depth of the water, when they saw something moving along the banks. Looking closer, they perceived the forms of Indians closing in on the camp, and hastily turning about, hurried back to warn the remainder of the party.

"A few moments after the guides' return," Dr. Rice said, "the entire bank was literally lined with wildly shrieking and gesticulating figures who brandished bows about seven feet high with arrows six feet long. Just opposite me I saw one huge creature, evidently the chief or leader, who was shouting and foaming at the mouth and making motions that apparently meant to express anticipation of a hearty meal that night. He was neither negro nor Indian and he had black hairs on his upper lip—a thing I have never seen on an Indian.

SEVERAL CASES IN MONDAY'S SESSION OF COUNTY COURT

Three Colored Defendants Sentenced To Active Service on the County Road Forces.

JUDGMENT SUSPENDED IN CASE AGAINST TWO WHISKEY MANUFACTURERS

Colored Men Charged With Disturbing Public Worship Fined $20 and Costs Each.

Yesterday's session of Pitt county court proved in no way different from former sessions, practically the entire morning and afternoon sessions being consumed in the hearing of one whiskey manufacturing case and six other issues in which two defendants received road sentences, or to express in vernacular of the court room critic, "several months of public service in the county's interest."

Probably the most important issue considered during the morning session was that against Jesse Shackelford and Jim Simpkins, white men of this county, arrested several months ago on a charge of manufacturing liquor for sale. The defendants pleaded guilty at the outset, with prayer of judgment being continued from week to week, on payment of costs, good behavior and a demand to report to court every first Monday until otherwise ordered. Bond of $1,000 will be continued until final disposition of the case. Ten gallons of whiskey was in possession of the defendants at the time of capture. It was their first offense, and that fact probably counted largely in suspending judgment ordered after evidence had been carefully weighed by the presiding official.

John Jones and Herman Moore, colored, were given eight months on the county roads for larceny, extra 30-day sentence being added later for breaking the chain gang while serving a former term.

Arthur White, colored, also appearing on a charge of larceny, was given a term of six months on the county roads. Charlie Marston, assault with deadly weapon, $50 and costs. Jim Rogers, assault, $5 and costs. Frank Suggs and Dave Hines, colored, were fined $20 and costs for disturbing public worship.

LIGHTED CIGARETTE STUMP SETS FIRE TO AWNING

A lighted cigarette stump thrown out a front window of Carolina Club, early last night, set fire to the awning below and burned a large place in it before being put out. With several such previous occurrences recalled it looks like that by this time frequenters of the club would have learned not to throw lighted cigarettes out the windows.

Half the Student Body of 6,000 Granted Employment for Paying Way Through School.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 20.—Half the Harvard University student body of about 6,000 is working its way through college in whole or in part. A survey of student employment just completed at the Graduate School supplemented by figures from the Student Employment office shows that those obtaining regular and casual employment ranging from professional house-hunting to instruction in languages to an inmate of an insane hospital earned more than $77,000 toward the expenses of the academic year 1919-20.

Occupations in term time include that of waiters, chauffeurs, choremen, furnace tenders, hotel clerks, window cleaners, university guides, and players in jazz orchestras. Some students spend Christmas holidays chopping wood in the forests of Maine. One man is reported working nights, sleeping five hours out of the twenty-four and earning $50 a week.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

In a few short months high prices will be history.

Low cotton prices at least haven't scared the bears away.

Slowly declining food prices momentarily cause the hard time grumbler to forget his woes.

Lax action in higher courts is given as one reason for increase of crime throughout the country. Greenville unfortunately has had sufficient experience to vouch for this fact.

Let your Christmas package bear Red Cross Christmas Seals. They render you a good service, but humanity a greater one.

A Scotland Neck bank has doubled its capital stock. That sounds good and shows people in that town believe more in doing things than talking about them. Several other towns have much food for thought here and would profit by signs of thrift in their own community.

Don't forget this week will be the best time to get coupons for winning one of the prizes to be given during "Pay-Up and Trade Weeks" campaign. Thousands of them will be issued by local merchants from now until the last of the month and if you do not get your share there is no one to blame.

This period of hard times is the most prosperous the country has ever known. In fact, the man who talks about being broke all the time generally finds sufficient cash for pleasure he could do without. The person actually suffering squandered what he earned last year and has nothing to fall back on now. Who's to blame

Merchants have cut prices in a gratifying way for the past several weeks, and Christmas shoppers are reaping great benefits as a result. Trade has been all that could be expected for the consumer is taking advantage of bargains while wages are still good and to some extent will be able to weather the storm when reductions in salaries become more general.

Don't forget the starving children of Europe while doing your Christmas shopping. Remember $100 will save ten lives, and that in saving ten lives you will be laying up treasures where dollars have no purchasing power. The foreign relief commission is looking to American people for sufficient money to carry on their mission of mercy until next spring when the starving ones will be able to care for themselves. The country has never failed to respond to such a cause and it will not do so now.

Persons who read the facts on unfounded rumors presented in yesterday's edition by the Chamber of Commerce have much food for thought. The facts covered conditions in a convincing way and showed conclusively that the panic scare is without foundation; that Pitt county is in good condition financially, and that there are still hundreds able to meet their obligations who have not done so up to the present time. Conditions are not near so bad as the hard time advocates would have us believe, and if people would pay up and put their money in circulation the future would be all anyone would have it. Times are not so hard, after all.

Reported unemployment of several thousand American people no doubt brings the American statesman to the point that he realizes how well industry could be carried on in this country without letting down the bars of immigration any further. The labor problem has been quite serious in this country ever since the war, and today it is becoming more serious than ever simply because thousands of foreign workmen are filling jobs that could be filled more efficiently by the American. Reduction in wages, it was thought, would result in dissatisfaction, but yet it has not. The American realizes that prices for clothing and food are declining. He is willing to meet conditions as they come to keep the wheels of industry turning, but there are few who will readily understand why immigration is permitted when thousands of citizens of their own country are thrown out of employment. Europe needs production, but will never be able to get it until its citizens in some way are prevented from leaving for other countries in more prosperous condition. America should protect her own working class, and so far as possible discourage immigration until conditions justify such.

People who go around the country preaching hard times and probable demoralization of financial institutions are direct menaces to every community and should be treated as such. Day after day panicky tales have gone their round and each time they found people in receptive moods, many of whom fell in line to help promote discontent and financial unrest. Thousands of people today are selling their crops, or collecting their wages without paying bills or depositing their money in local banking institutions. As a result this money is not any good. With such conditions in evidence, folks still talk of panics and weak banks. There is as much money as ever, the truth of the matter is the average working man and producer is permitting his money to be idle when it should be at work keeping circulation normal. It is imperative that people get a common sense view of the situation, and when this is done, debts will be settled, banks will receive normal deposits and there will be no more talk of panic and hard times.

THE SAFE SOUTH SIDE

Let the wintry winds come roaring around,
But the mountain of old still holds 'em back;
And I feel safe here on the old camp ground,
For it doesn't lie close to the hurricane's track.

Let the black clouds frown in the bleak north-west,
But my tent is pitched secure from harm;
For the mountain of old still raises a crest
To break off snows and keep me warm.

And the mountain of old forever shall stand,
And I'll camp here on the safe south side;
If devouring floods come over the land,
I'll climb to the top till the waters subside.

WILKINSON-RICKS

A quiet but pretty marriage took place in the Episcopal church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Besie Ricks became the bride of Mr. Bruce Wilkinson, of Washington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Bascom. The marriage was a surprise one, and only witnessed by two or three friends.

Miss Ricks is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ricks, of this city. She is one of Greenville's prettiest and most attractive young ladies. She has always made her home here and numbers her friends by the score.

Mr. Wilkinson is from Washington, N. C. He is a prominent young business man and is well known throughout this section of the state.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for Wilson from which point they will go for a bridal tour of northern cities.

The bride's going away suit was of brown duvetine with accessories to match.

Postmaster Whichard says the mailing of Christmas parcels took on large proportions yesterday and today. Even more are expected tomorrow and next day.

FRANK BROWN, OLLIE ALLEN ARRESTED FOR STEALING

Frank Brown and Ollie Allen, two boys of this city, were arrested last night for stealing and as a result were placed in the guard house.

The boys were hired by Mr. Young to sweep the floor of his store. After the floor had been swept, one of the clerks found that in some way he had lost fifty dollars.

A search was begun and as the Brown boy had been found stealing a sweater Saturday night, the employees of the store kept a close watch on him. Mr. O. F. Clark, who is helping Mr. Young conduct his sale in store No. 2, was in the store at the time and he immediately called officer Whichard in.

After searching the store and failing to locate the money, the search was then carried to the back lot where thirty dollars of the money was found.

The boys were then carried to the guard house with the twenty still missing. After being threatened with all kinds of punishment they still denied taking the money. Officer Whichard left for some purpose but Mr. Clark remained close by. The boys thinking they were alone began talking and in the conversation Mr. Clark heard the Allen boy state that he had the money in his pocket. Mr. Clark then made him own taking the money and forced him to tell where the twenty dollars was. In some way he had managed to drop it out of his pocket on the street and after a diligent search was made the money was located. The boys are between 12 and 14 years of age.

"The Reflector is a sure enough newspaper," is the remark an observant lady reader made about this paper.
