COUNTY BOARD OF PUBLIC WELFARE IN SESSION YESTERDAY

Report of Work to Date Presented by Probation Officer Futrelle.

PROF. AUSTIN ELECTED CHAIRMAN—MEMBERS OF NEW BOARD ALSO PRESENT

Plan to Foster and Correlate Welfare Program Partially Arranged for During Session.

The County Board of Public Welfare held its regular meeting in the office of the Superintendent yesterday afternoon and plans for the work in the county discussed. This was the first meeting of the new board and quite a bit of routine work up for discussion. The members of the new board are Mrs. Lina Baker, Mr. J. W. Holmes, of Farmville, and Prof. H. E. Austin. Prof. Austin was elected as chairman and the first Monday in each month set as the regular time of meeting.

A report of the work to date submitted to the board showed that in school attendance 151 unexcused absences had been reported and 51 official visits made to either school or parents with regard to school attendance. The report showed that no serious violations of the law had occurred and that in most cases it was a case of constructive advice and agreement between parents and school officials. There are some children not in school in the county, but these children are either beyond the legal distance to attend or have not been reported as being out of school.

In Juvenile Court twenty-one cases have been handled, not all these coming before the judge, but have come to the attention of the probation officer and adjusted out of court. Children have been found guilty of truancy, vagrancy, shooting 22 rifle in town, shooting air rifle on street, and assault. Most of the homes of these children have been visited, parents consulted and advised, and the children paroled with parents, placed on probation, sent to school and one boy ordered to Stonewall Jackson Training School.

Twenty cases have been investigated dealing with dependent, delinquent or neglected children. Ten families furnished temporary necessities, $10.40 have been distributed, six pair shoes given, and four families given food and their children given clothes until work was found. This work has been done with the assistance of local charitable organizations.

A plan to better acquaint the people in the country with the State Welfare program was discussed and it was decided this could be done by means of community meetings where the salient features of the work could be presented. These meetings would be fostered either by school organizations or other organized agencies in the various communities.

A plan to better foster and correlate the welfare program in the immediate community has been partially arranged by means of the organized welfare agencies electing a Welfare Secretary. These secretaries will meet from time to time to discuss the pressing problems, particularly of child welfare, and act as an aid in cases of emergency as these arise from time to time. Those present yesterday representing the larger welfare agencies were Mrs. J. E. Nobles, the Woman's Club; Mrs. N. S. Fulford, the Patient Circle of King's Daughters; Mrs. W. H. Von Eberstein and Mrs. Lina Baker were present representing organized classes in the Episcopal and Memorial Baptist churches respectively. At the next meeting of the Welfare Secretaries it is hoped that every organized class and agency in the city will be represented.

BOOTLEGGERS AND STILL FALL INTO HANDS OF OFFICERS

Lewis Taft, Colored, Copper Still and Liquor Captured in Raid of Deputies.

Lewis Taft, colored man of Bell Arthur district, is in the county jail in this city today awaiting preliminary hearing to the manufacture of illicit whiskey, the charge growing out of the capture of a still and about a gallon and a half of whiskey at his home early this morning. The raid was made by deputies Corbett and Jackson, who immediately placed Taft under arrest and brought him back to Greenville together with the still and whiskey.

The raid was probably one of the most important made by county officers in several months, as apprehension of the distiller, it is believed, will have much to do with reducing the sale of illicit whiskey in that territory in the future. Taft made no effort to exonerate himself by vainly trying to get the officers to believe the still did not belong to him. In fact, he maintained stolid silence while his premises were being searched, and showed no disposition to discuss his plight.

Taft resides about one mile east of Bell Arthur. This still was located in the smokehouse in the rear of his home, and had been in operation practically all night. When the officers arrived early this morning they found the man at home. He made no objection to the search when the officers explained their business. Nothing to indicate his connection with the bootlegging traffic was discovered until the smokehouse was entered. The still, a large sixty gallon copper affair, was in plain view, and short investigation resulted in finding the whiskey.

The major part of the still's production last night had evidently been removed to some other section, or probably taken in charge by blind tigers, as continued search failed to bring results. Taft divulged nothing, and followed the officers quietly throughout the entire investigation. He will probably be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow, and remanded to jail to await county court action.

Deputy Sheriff Jackson has been waging veritable war against the bootlegging faction for the past several days. Saturday he succeeded in capturing a copper still near the Great Swamp church and anticipated arrest of the distiller during the week. No whiskey was taken in the raid, but the still showed signs of constant operation.

WOMEN ARRESTED FOR ALLEGED PART IN BOMB ACTIVITY

Charged With Leaving Handbag With Dynamite Bombs in Lisbon Newspaper Office

POLICE RAID BUILDING IN TIME TO FRUSTRATE PLANS FOR EXPLOSIONS

Royalist in Dispair Over Affair Which May Postpone Amnest to Prisoners in Country

Lisbon, Feb. 15.—Two women who left a handbag containing six dynamite bombs in the office of the royalist newspaper just before that office was raided by the police the other day have been arrested. Their apprehension tends to clear up a mystery connected with the case.

It is learned that the police raid was made because they had discovered the delivery of the bombs but the editor of the newspaper asserts that the women who brought the bombs to the office in his absence were absolutely unknown to him. He declared that the whole affair was a trap to compromise the faction of royalists represented by the Monarchia and denied that the (Continued on Page Four)

ROTARIANS PLAN BIRTHDAY PARTY DURING FEBRUARY

First Club Formed Only Sixteen Years Ago With Four Members—800 Clubs Going Now.

The members of the Greenville Rotary Club are looking forward with real live interest to an unusual event which will bring the men together on the evening of February 28th at their Rotary Home. The occasion is the celebration of the sixteenth anniversary of the beginning of Rotary, for it was on the 23rd of February, 1905, in Chicago, that the first meeting took place, which proved to be the beginning of a world-wide movement, which is destined to play a wonderful part in bringing together the men of all nations through the simple medium of acquaintanceship.

During the period of the existence of the Greenville Rotary Club, the people of this city have had many reasons to know that the club is composed of men who are willing to assume places of leadership and co-operation in the real constructive undertakings for the good of the community. But a great many who may regard the Rotary organization very highly, judging only from the nature of its activities, are not at all acquainted with the history of the organization as a world movement and they know little concerning the creed which appears to be just the kind of a bond to hold together a bunch of live wires such as have taken such an active interest in things here since the organization of the local club in 1919.

In order that everybody may know just what a Rotary club is, what its teachings are, why it has such a small restricted membership, why the wives of its members are such enthusiastic supporters of its activities, the club men have decided to devote one entire meeting to a discussion and consideration of the several phases of the club's organization, ideals, activities and growth. Not only will the local phases of the subject be discussed, but there will be given the story of the development of the organization from a group of only four men, in the original Chicago group, sixteen years ago, to a total of over eight hundred clubs today with a total membership of 65,000.

President Sam Underwood has appointed the following committee to arrange the details of the event: J. R. Kittrell.

SINN FEIN PARTY CHARGES CRUELTY IN PRISON CAMPS

Irish Bulletin Says Interment Camp in Dublin District Not Properly Cared For

PRISONERS NOT GIVEN SUFFICIENT FOOD AND

Every Batch of Prisoners Complain of Severe Treatment, Statement Declares

Dublin, Feb. 15.—Severe criticism of the treatment of prisoners confined at the Ballykinlar interment camp on Dundrum Bay, County Down, is published by the Irish Bulletin, a Sinn Fein publication. It is stated that Sir. Hamar Greenwood's statement in the House of Commons that the interned men would be more accorded treatment similar to that normally given prisoners of war is far from correct.

The prisoners are given wholly insufficient food and many of them go hungry, the paper declares. Even this food they are unable to make the most of, as they do all their own cooking and are allowed less than half the supply of coal necessary.

There is no hot water in the camp, no wash house and no drying room, the article continues, and it is therefore necessary for the prisoners to do their washing as best they can in cold water and dry their laundry wherever they can.

Many of the prisoners the statement goes on, are practically barefooted, saying that no arrangements have been made for supplying them with boots (Continued on Page Four)

RALEIGH RESIDENT CLAIMS RECORD OF LENGTHY SERVICE

Dr. A. B. Hawkins, 96, Oldest Living Bank Director in the United States

Raleigh, N. C. Feb. 15.—Dr. A. B. Hawkins, of this city who celebrated his 96th birthday on January 25, besides having been for years the oldest living graduate of the University of North Carolina, the first state university to be established in America, is also probably the oldest active bank director in the United States.

Dr. Hawkins, who is one of the wealthiest men here, has been a member of the Board of Directors of one of the largest banks of Raleigh for more than thirty years, during which time he has missed but a few of its meetings, always taking an active interest in the direction of the policies of the institution. He is now in excellent physical condition, retaining all of his faculties. In addition to his bank duties he looks after large real estate and other holdings in this State and in Florida.

Born in Franklin county on January 25, 1825, Dr. Hawkins graduated from the University of North Carolina, in 1845 the same year that James K. Polk, an alumnus of this institution, was inaugurated President of the United States. He completed his studies at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa., receiving his M. D. Degree in 1847, thus making him one of the oldest alumnus of this college. He practiced medicine in North Carolina for a number of years after finishing college and then moved to Florida, but returned to this state about 40 years ago and has since made his home in Raleigh.

Dr. Hawkins wife, who died several years ago, was the daughter of General Bailey, a veteran of the war of 1812 and the Indian wars in Florida.

SEVERAL CASES IN OPENING SESSIONS OF COUNTY COURT

Court Delved Energetically Into Heavy Docket Yesterday With Pleasing Results.

The second week session of the criminal term of Pitt county court settled down to business in an interesting way yesterday morning, and consequently afternoon adjournment found several cases cleared from one of the most congested dockets in months. The court delved energetically into the great mass of documentary evidence at the outset, and although progress was slow and uncertain during the morning hours, a pleasing change became evident in the afternoon and numbers of matters were given attention, and the way opened for more concerted work the remainder of the week.

Leslie Anderson, colored man hailing from the Warren's Chapel district was found guilty of carrying concealed weapon and sentenced to six months uninterrupted service on the county roads. He pleaded not guilty when the case was taken up, but the State's evidence presented certain details showing that Anderson assaulted and slightly injured one Blanche Anderson, also colored, in a slight encounter some time ago. The jury returned a verdict of guilty after deliberating only a few moments and Leslie found himself with regular employment for the next six months.

Nick Saleeb, local Syrian, charged with allowing gambling in a pool room recently conducted in the city, was found not guilty. John Brady was found guilty of assault, judgement being suspended upon payment of costs. Mistrial was ordered in case against Ernest Vance and Clemmie Cox, charged with affray. The case will be taken up at the next jury term of court. Eddie Joyner pleaded guilty of assault and judgement was suspended upon payment of costs.

Helen Hart, colored damsel, who was sometime ago arrested in connection with the illicit whiskey traffic of this section was adjudged not guilty. The court found itself in sad plight in prosecuting this case, as the only source of evidence against the negress left the city when former policeman Creech succeeded in escaping from the county jail. He arrested the woman several months ago, but the law sometime later assumed dangerous proportions for himself, and when he quietly abandoned residence at the county jail all evidence left with him.

Sarah Sprull, also colored, was found guilty of assaulting Lillie Ward over some kind of domestic trouble. Judgement was reserved. Frank McCullum was released upon payment of costs after being found guilty of assault

ROAD CONSTRUCTION TO BE CONTINUED IN FARMVILLE DISTRICT

County to Undertake Completing Hard Surfaced Highway From Greenville to Farmville

CONTRACT TAKEN FROM HANDS OF BUILDER WHO COULDN'T CUT PRICES

Board of Commissioners Outline Building Program in Session Here Yesterday Morning

Construction work on the hard surfaced road from this city to Farmville will not be discontinued as one time thought, and will be rushed to completion as soon as possible. The decision was reached at a special session of the Board of Commissioners here yesterday morning in which road work was discussed from every angle, and urgent matters looking to a continuance of building operations considered.

The question has occupied considerable attention of the commissioners since the first of last December when continued high prices of operation caused much anxiety as to whether it would be advisable to continue the work. The contractor was consulted but failed to give any assurance of decreased cost of operation. Friction became evident almost immediately and in a short time the contract was removed from the contractor's hands, work being continued with only slight interruption by the county road commission.

It was one time thought operations might be discontinued indefinitely, but the commissioners went over every detail of the situation at the opening of the session yesterday, and decided that everything would be done to complete the road. Funds for construction work are derived from a bond issue of $50,000 nearly two years old and not from state and government aid secured through the bond issue several months ago. Decreased cost of material and labor the board declared, justifies continued operations. Fortunately for the county, the highway commission saw far enough ahead to purchase building equipments at the beginning of the good road program, and is today able to go ahead with the work without any delay caused by action taken in the contract. Road forces are working from Farmville toward Greenville at this time, and plan to reach the completed stretch sometime during this year.

The board also considered the appointment of a chairman of the highway commission to succeed G. W. B. Hadley who resigned several weeks ago on account of pressing personal business. The matter however was deferred until next session when it is expected it will be disposed of. The building program will continue under the supervision of Mr. Jarvis Harding, who has been looking out after construction work for the county since activities began.

The hard surface road program is progressing rapidly between this city and the Lenoir county line. Grading was started several weeks ago, and it is expected the spring and summer will see much of the road completed. This work is under state and government supervision, being conducted through funds derived from bond issue some time ago in which the government and state furnished dollar for dollar, increasing the amount to over one million dollars. The road will go through Winterville, Ayden and Grifton, connecting with the Lenoir county line a short distance from Grifton.

MAKING IT A GAME

Men back from over-seas comment with wry faces on the difference between the people here and in France in the matter of thrift. An ex-service man recently put his finger on the point. They enjoy it, he said. He hit it. If one is to undertake thrift he must do it affirmatively and with zest.

Allied nations have been busy for several weeks arranging reparation measures for Germany, but so far no one but the kaiser has received indemnity.

President Harding's inaugural address may be heard from Washington by wireless. It is a settled fact there won't be many people anxious to go out of their way to hear it.

Information from Washington says Congress is making headway slowly. If that were anything out of the ordinary it might cause surprise, but on the contrary, it is simply a matter of course.

Roads, ticks and censorship measures will occupy attention of the State Legislature the remainder of the week, according to reports emanating from the capital city. The combination is efficiently mixed up to give the members something of a diversion, anyhow.

News reports about Senator Harding's activities generally feature things he might have done. But after he gets up to the pie counter and begins dishing out the swag things will change to such extent that he may be credited with accomplishing something at least.

Gasoline declines have been so gradual that the man with a big car and short funds doesn't seem to feel the effect. The situation right at this particular time is uncertain, and will continue to be until folks get in a notion to buy.

Cotton exports of the United States increased 15 percent over those of last year, which goes to show that there is some demand after all. Cotton price may be down near the bottom, now but this will not continue long, at least not long enough to make conditions worse than they have been.

After so much agitation about high cafe and hotel prices Greenville people ought to be sufficiently impressed with the situation to help as far as possible in improving conditions. Cafes have maintained high prices as long as possible, but now that declining food-stuffs are in evidence everywhere it is hardly probable they will be able to do so much longer and receive usual patronage.

Medical authorities in Washington say there is little danger of typhus spreading in the United States, but this has not prevented New York officials from asking President Wilson for aid in battling with the problem there. It seems something defective has been discovered in our immigration methods, and the health commission of the great Metropolis is afraid the disease will be spread by aliens after release from immigrated stations. Subsequent examinations by city physicians have brought this fact out strong enough to excite suspicion and it is natural to expect such an appeal.

It is gratifying to note that adult illiteracy in North Carolina has undergone a decided decrease for the past four years. It is pleasing because the State is today making one of the greatest fights in history in advancing education, and may be readily identified with other sections which have already taken the lead. Moonlight schools did much to interest the illiterate grown person in educational work, and it is certain the inspiration will continue for years to come. There used to be thousands in every state who were not afforded advantages of education, but the situation has changed to such an extent today there is no reason for anybody going without a certain amount of schooling. Compulsory school laws are helping in the improvement, and consequently any ambitious child may secure a liberal education. The future is bright indeed, and bids fair to see conditions revolutionized in North Carolina particularly.

North Carolina has already raised its apportionment for the starving children of Europe, and it is hoped now to make a record as good if not better than any other State in the Union. This may be done if people put their shoulders to the wheel and continue to give freely as in the past. The cause is one of the greatest the nation has had an opportunity of giving to since the ending of the war, and ought to cause everyone to do their best. Three million five hundred thousand children are at the point of starvation, and unless the United States rallies to the call for assistance the situation will be one of the most horrible in history. Aid is imperative, and this makes its incumbent upon everyone to give until they feel they have done their best.

Ignace Paderewski, Polish pianist states that he will retire from his professional career immediately to become more actively engaged in the progress of his country. The announcement will be received with genuine regret in every part of the world, as he has been an interesting character to music lovers in several countries. The urgent necessity for constructive policies probably figured largely in his retirement, as for sometime he headed his country as its first premier. He visited many sections in the interest of Poland's liberation and rehabilitation, appearing at the peace conference with a plea that had good results. There are few who hold such an enviable reputation in the music loving world as Mr. Paderewski, and it is certain he will be missed.

Pitt county has the record in capture of blind tiger and illicit distilling plants. It is nothing out of the ordinary for county officers to bring in from two to three stills a day, and for Greenville police to nab from three to four blind tigers. The situation is serious enough to cause more determined action by the courts, and no improvement may be expected until this becomes evident. There are very few instances when a blockader is sentenced to a long road term or given a heavy fine. They usually leave the court room perfectly at liberty to pursue the same old traffic because no evidence could be brought against them. The courts, it seems, are rather lax in handling such cases, and not until they find time to get the evidence will conditions be bettered.

Approximate losses by fire in North Carolina for the month of January were considerably lower than any month prior to November. The statement is pleasing, and goes to show what is being done in fire prevention work in other parts of the State. Property losses for the past several years were much more than should have been but fortunately the public is beginning to realize the necessity of precautionary measures and plans to make the future better in every way. Every section of the country suffers an annual loss of several million dollars through inadequate protection. It is pleasing to note, however, that every effort is being made by insurance companies to reduce such losses, and the future ought to witness a general improvement.

Tobacco planters ought not to forget that reduction in acreage this year is absolutely necessary if better prices are to be expected in the future. The demand for tobacco right at this time is limited, and prices cannot possibly go higher than the infrequent advance reported on different markets. The world market is flooded. Nothing but the very best grades are being purchased, therefore, it is evident this year's crops should be carefully tended with a view to producing better tobacco. If this is done the situation may improve sooner than expected.

Recent prices for clothing and provisions show that readjustment is daily becoming an actuality. Reductions have been in evidence for some time, and it really looks as if the next few months will experience a complete adjustment of the price situation. Reports from many sections indicate that the public is buying sparingly and watching the market to determine the trend of changed conditions. This has done much toward bringing about an improvement and impressing the manufacturer that prices cannot stay up to the top notch always.

FAR EAST FLEETS ABOUT READY FOR FOREIGN SERVICE

Ships Contracted by United States Shipping Board Completed at Shanghai Station

Shanghai, Feb. 15.—Only two of the 34 steamers contracted for in the East by the United States Shipping Board now remain to be launched and to supervise this final work which is being carried out at Shanghai the Shipping board's Far Eastern headquarters have been transferred from Japan to Shanghai.

The shipping board's far Eastern staff which formerly numbered upwards of twenty men now is composed of M. A. Perry, representative of the shipping board, M. E. Merriman, secretary of the Far East organization, and S. J. Ware, an inspector.

Thirty of the ships built in the Far East, with an aggregate tonnage of 240,000 were turned out from 12 different Japanese shipyards and the last of these was delivered last August.

The other four contracted for in Shanghai are the largest steamers ever built in China. The four are sister ships each 10,500 tons and 420 feet in length. The first, the Mandarin was launched last June and the second, The Celestial was launched in August. It was planned to launch the third boat, the Oriental, late in January and the last, The Cathay, in April next. These boats are being built by the Kian Guan Dock and Engineering Company of Shanghai.

IMPORTED COTTON SEED FOR SALE

I purchased last spring 300 bushels Wanamaker Cleveland improved cotton seed from Mr. D. O. McGilhorn, clerk of the Superior court of Hertford county. These seed were grown under the supervision of Mr. E. W. Gorthu, government demonstration agent, and I bought them on his recommendation. I found it the best cotton I ever planted. The yield was more than 40 percent line and it matures from ten to fifteen days earlier than most cotton. Price of seed, single bushel, $1.50; twenty bushels or more, $1.25 a bushel. If you plant cotton, plant this kind and you will have the best.

THE MAN WHO QUILTS

Selected

The man who quits has a brain and hand
As good as the next; but he lacks
That would make him stick with courage stout
To whatever he tackles and fight it out.

He starts with a rush and solemn vow
That he'll soon be showing the others how;
Then something new strikes his roving eye,
and his task is left for the by and by.

It's up to each man what becomes of
He must find himself the grit and vim
That brings success; he can get the skill,
If he brings to the task a steadfast will.

No man is beaten till he gives in;
Hard luck can't stand for a cheerful grin:
The man who fails needs a better excuse
Than the quitter's whining, "What's the use".

For the man who quits lets his chance slip,
Just because he's to lazy to keep his grip.
The man who sticks goes ahead with a shout
While the man who quits joins the "down and out".

—The Uplift

Mrs. R. L. May and little daughter, Mary Rivers, have returned from a visit in Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. S. E. Gates and little daughter, Martha Jane left yesterday for a visit in Mount Airy.

Mr. Graves J. Smith, of Goldsboro, attended the Rotary meeting in this city last evening.

Mr. J. J. Galloway, of Grimesland, was in the city this morning on business.

Mr. Tull West and Marshall Tripp, of Ayden, attended criminal court in Greenville today.

Mrs. W. W. Moore and daughter, Mrs. Jos. E. Johnson, left this afternoon for a visit to Washington.

Mrs. W. T. Bryan, accompanied by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Proctor, of Grimesland, left Sunday for Jacksonville, Miami, Palm Beach and other points in Florida.

MRS. A. R. HOUSE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. A. R. House was hostess to Circle No. 2 of the Methodist Missionary Society yesterday afternoon at her home on Chestnut street. Upon arrival delicious fruit punch was served. Many business matters were discussed and plans made for the future work of the Circle. Nearly every member was present and each was very enthusiastic over the work to be accomplished by the Circle during this year. At the conclusion of business the hostess served a delicious salad course.

THE TAU

The students of the Greenville High School have announced that they are beginning work on The Tau for 1921. The Tau is a high school publication and if this year's edition proves as interesting as the ones issued in past years, a splendid edition is predicted. The work will be under the direction of Miss Corinna Mial, with Mr. Dink James as editor-in-chief and Mr. Will Whedbee, business manager. Besides giving facts concerning the school and the work accomplished The Tau is of interest as it carries many advertisements which are placed by the leading business men of the city. The public has always co-operated with the students in making up The Tau, and the young men who have it in charge are confident that they will meet with the same success this year.

IT WAS VALENTINE NIGHT

When a Valentine and a stick and a boy get together there is going to be a noise just like that heard in various parts of this town last night. As boys will be boys, the old folks can afford to put up with the rumpus once a year, especially if they recall how it was when they were kids.

A lovely Valentine Party was given last evening by the Junior Class of the Training School to the Senior Class. It was one of the most beautiful and brilliant social affairs ever given in the school. The dining hall was effectively decorated in festoons of red hearts suspended from the ceiling, potted plants and other attractive decorations.

There was a long receiving line, composed of officers of the class, Pres. and Mrs. Wright, Prof. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harding, Dr. and Mrs. Laughinghouse, Mr. and Mrs. Meadows, Mrs. Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Underwood, Mr. J. H. Rose, and others. Some of the members of the faculty assisted in the entertainment and serving.

Punch was served to the guests immediately after their arrival. The entertainment for the evening was varied enough to make the evening seem to fly. The first contest was one to see who was the best shot as cupid. The Senior Class was divided into two sides, each side choosing champions, and the side making the best hit in shooting at a heart was awarded the championship. Miss Helen Watson was proclaimed champion and given the bow and arrow as a prize. In a guessing contest, Miss _____ was the winner. These prizes were awarded by President Wright and Mr. F. C. Harding.

The special feature of the evening that attracted most attention was a performance of sleight of hand tricks performed by Mr. A. F. Bowen, Bursar of State A. and E. College, who has an enviable reputation as an amateur magician. He made money disappear and reappear, water take the place of rice in bowls and did many other things that amazed and mystified his audience. Perhaps the most popular trick was the clairvoyant trick of the writing on the slate.

Six couples from the Senior Class danced the minuett. There was singing and informal dancing between the splendid features of the evening.

The refreshments were served in a unique and exceedingly attractive manner. The guests were lined up in couples facing each other, and the Juniors marched down the center of the line each one bearing a plate of cream with a tiny red candle in a red heart candlestick. The light had been turned low, leaving the candles for the light. They made a soft, rose glow and the picture of the girls, their evening dresses in light shades, made a lovely picture in the glow of the candles.

Miss Leah Cooke is president of the class; Miss Carrie Lee Bell is vice-president; Lucy Andrews, secretary; Louise McCain, treasurer; Marie Lowry, critic, and Marjorie Walte, door keeper. These and the various committees who worked with them deserve great credit for their success in giving one of the most attractive Junior Senior receptions ever given in the school. There are a hundred and thirty-six members of the Junior Class, and eighty-six in the Senior Class.

ROTARIANS HOLD INTERESTING MEETING LAST EVENING

The Rotarians met in their regular semi-monthly meeting last evening with a large number of members present. After the regular routine of business was over it was announced that the gym equipment had been shipped and would arrive in a few days. The gymnasium will be up-to-date in every respect and be used by the boy and girl scouts. Mr. Graves J. Smith, president of the Goldsboro Rotary Club, was present and made a short talk in which he congratulated the Greenville Rotarians for the work which they have accomplished. At the conclusion of the meeting Rotarian S. T. White invited those present to accompany him to the movies. The invitation was accepted and the party entered the theater singing Rotary songs and having a big time in general.

METHODIST MISSIONARY HOLDS GOOD MEETING

Circle No. 1, of the Methodist Missionary Society held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Judson Blount on Ninth street Monday afternoon. Mrs. Milton White, chairman, presided. The meeting was opened with Scripture reading and prayer. Reports of the various activities of the members were given showing this Circle to be a live wire for service. Eighty-four visits and 36 trays were reported for two months. One prayer meeting is held each month with someone who is shut in.

This Circle will be responsible for the first lesson of the Mission Study Class to be held March 28th, subject, "China."

Tea and sandwiches were served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Fred Forbes, March 14th.

SINN FEIN PARTY CHARGES

CRUELTY IN PRISON CAMPS

(Continued from Page One) or even repair those they have. It is charged that while the prisoners are permitted to receive parcels almost invariably part of the contents is pilfered by the English troops in the camp. The prisoners suffer intensely from cold and underfooting, it is stated.

Every batch of prisoners who have arrived at camp during the last month, the article goes on, have complained of their treatment in route. One batch of 26 men left a certain camp near Dublin on Sunday evening and did not arrive in Ballykinlar until Tuesday evening. During this time they received practically no food, the military guard having forgotten the prisoner's rations.

WOMEN ARRESTED ALLEGED

PART IN BOMB ACTIVITY

(Continued from Page One) party was preparing for any armed conspiracy at this moment, as such an act, he said, would only delay the suicide of the present regime.

The police have discovered that one of the women who carried the bombs to the office if the Monarchia did so at the request of her husband, a man, who died last week while still a prisoner. Just before his death his wife said, he told her to take a handbag and give it to one of the editors, Lieutenant Luiz Chaves. She declares that she obeyed her husband's request without any knowledge of the bag's contents.

The police followed her to the newspaper office, found the bombs, closed and sealed the office and made several arrests.

Lieutenant Chaves could not be found.

The hundreds of royalists who are loyal to the former King Manuel and who have been in prison for more than two years since the last royalist rising are in despair over this affair, which they believe will postpone indefinitely the amnesty to political prisoners which they have long been promised. For several nights following the raid on the Monarchia sanguinary conflicts took place in some of the principal Lisbon cafes between bands of armed defenders of the Portuguese republic and people suspected of being members of the International heltsa, whicott of the Intergralista faction of royalists. This faction does not recognize former King Manuel as its head but support Dom Nuno Duarte, a boy of 12 years.
