REPUBLICANS OPEN CAMPAIGN AGAINST WILSON'S RECORD

Resolutions Adopted Calling for Itemized Account of Recent War Fund Payments.

DEMOCRAT SASSAIL PLAN AS EFFORT TO DEFAME ADMINISTRATION WORK

Republican Leaders Deny Effort to Discredit Activities of Chief Executive.

Washington, Feb. 15.—After heated debate the House late today adopted a resolution calling upon President Wilson for an itemized statement showing disbursements and allotments of the $150,000,000 war fund voted by Congress.

The resolution, which was adopted 211 to 79, was attacked by Democrats who charged that it was put forward at this time to defame and malign President Wilson in the closing days of his administration. Reference to expenditures by the American peace commission at Paris fanned the flames on the Democratic side, and turned the debate into strictly partisan channels.

Chairman Good, of the appropriations committee, who reported the resolution, introduced by Representative Gould, Republican, New York, declared that if any injustice had been done the President, the Democrats were responsible, by attempting to create the impression that "there was something crooked in the money spending," when the resolution itself did not intimate that there had been anything improper. Mr. Good declined to offer an amendment calling upon the various government departments for an accounting, which was the method adopted. Democrats stated, in asking for an accounting of the Spanish-American war funds in President McKinley's day.

After the chairman had made a preliminary statement as to what had been shown by partial reports of expenditures, Representative Byrns, Democrat, Tennessee, declared that while he had no objection to adoption of the resolution, he thought the information should be sought from departments to which the money had been allotted. The President, he said, had nothing to do with the actual spending, that more than four-fifths of the fund had been accounted for, and that it was merely an attempt to make it appear he was unwilling to present the record. The American people will never forget the great achievements of Woodrow Wilson, said Mr. Bryan, and his name will fill the brightest pages of history after his detractors are dead and forgotten.

GREAT BRITAIN IN MIDST OF DISPUTE OVER PHONE RATES

Business Interests and General Public Seriously Opposed to Proposed Increases

London, Feb. 16.—While New York and many other American cities are or have been scenes of hot argument over increases in street railway or subway fares, Great Britain has its bone of dispute in an increase of telephone rates.

The business interests and general public have suffered an attack of what some call "telephonitis" as a result of an announcement by the Postmaster General that he would increase the telephone charges on April 1 to present subscribers and immediately to new subscribers.

These increases are based upon a report of a Select Committee of the House of Commons, and call for an annual rental of eight pence, ten shillings, against the old charge of five pence. The present fee of three pence (six cents) at a public call box will remain for short distances, but longer distance will be proportionately increased. These charges have to be made to meet an estimated charge of $10,000,000 for this year, or an increase of 147 per cent over pre-war rates.

The volume of criticism which the first official statement called forth, has since grown considerably and not only have resolutions of protest been sent to the government from every Chamber of Commerce in the country but combined action is being taken by the various Chambers with a view to some alleviation from what is called the "iniquitous" imposition of higher charges for service which is admittedly inefficient.

RESERVATIONS MUST BE MADE BY FRIDAY 18TH

Some of the fellows seem to be under the impression that they cannot attend the banquet to be given Tuesday night, the 22nd, unless they take someone. Get this idea out of your head, as everyone is at liberty to go alone. The idea of bringing someone is just to make a larger crowd, and to have the ladies present. If it is your desire to come alone, that's your privilege, but make reservation for your plate by the 18th or you are liable to go hungry.

Some of the fellows in town seem to think we will take it for granted that they will be on hand for this good time meeting, but you want to get it in your noodle that only those that notify me will have a plate reserved. Every plate ordered will have to be paid for, and we cannot afford to order several extra plates, and have no use for them.

Those that have paid up their dues are entitled to a plate free, but this plate will not be reserved unless you notify me that you want it. For each additional plate there will be a charge of $1 each. Unless you kick in accordingly your partner will not have a plate. Boys, it's just business and we can't afford to take anything for granted. We are going to have one big time, and if you want to be counted in notify me at once. Do not wait until the last minute, as it will take time to prepare the feed we're going to give you, besides the program.

Let me again urge every ex-service man to either join the Legion or make reservations for this meeting. If you will not join attend the meeting and see what you are missing—then you cannot keep out. Let me hear from you at once.

CHINESE PARENTS IN FAMINE SECTION FORCE DTS TO SUICIDE

Numbers Kill Themselves Rather Than Watch Their Children Actually Starve to Death

MULTITUDES FLEEING FROM DISTRICTS WHERE SITUATION IS ACUTE

Members of Methodist Board of Missions Tells of Conditions Prevailing in Nation

New York, Feb. 16.—Fathers and mothers in some of the famine stricken districts of China are committing suicide rather than watch their children starve to death, says report received at the headquarters of the Methodist Board of Foreign Missions here from Dr. Ralph A. Ward, one of its missionaries in China.

Multitudes flee from the foodless districts only to die of exposure and hunger in distant cities where rice laws are insufficient, wrote Dr. Ward. Able-bodied men, old women and children scramble over each other in the streets in the rush for copper flung by a passerby. Children are often crushed at stations of food distribution.

Dr. Ward repeats the assertion previously that 1,000 persons are dying daily in the famine stricken district and adds: More people face starvation in China this winter than perished on the battle fields of the great war.

MY GOLDEN GIRL TO PLAY IN CITY ONE NIGHT ONLY

Musical Comedy Scheduled for Engagement at White's Theatre Friday Night

Both the producers of Victor Herbert's "My Golden Girl" and manager Sam White of White's Theatre where My Golden Girl is to fill one night's engagement on Friday night Feb 18th pay their respects to the theatregoers of this city by booking this latest New York success to play here. Distinction is written all over this unusual enterprise, from the smallest piece of their advance advertising matter, down to the minutest detail, special excellence is displayed that is bound to evoke applause.

In Victor Herbert's "My Golden Girl" the public will find a wholesome and gratifying relief from the flood of morbid, problematical, and gloomy dramas or pictures that have been overwhelming and stunning the lovers of sane enjoyment, and by the same token those who would have their entertainment cleansed of vulgarity, those who want fresh clean and inspiring fun, will find in Frederic Arnold Kummer's story of Libretto, a rollicking, natural happy-go-lucky plot that keeps them in roars of laughter, by reaching the high and right standard of musical entertainment presented with extreme care in the same new and fresh condition in which it was first launched against the New York public last season and received the unanimous praise of the critics in other words, all the magnificent scenery and beautiful costumes are brand new, and augmented orchestra of unusual and specially selected instruments round out a rendition of the music compatible with Victor Herbert's pre-eminence so that the popularity of many of the 15 or 18 musical numbers is easily accounted for; to begin with the pretty girls of the chorus must not only dance well, but sing well, while of course the principal ladies and gentlemen could not even be principals without first satisfying the rigid exaction of Victor Herbert as to vocal requirements.

NATIONAL SESSION OF WOMAN'S PARTY BEGINS ACTIVITIES

Convention Begins Session in Washington Today to Discuss Legislation Relating to Women

SWEDISH WOMAN PLANS TO PRESENT MARRIAGE LAW ON EQUAL RIGHTS

Representatives of Political Party to Be Heard by Convention During Tomorrow

Washington, Feb. 16.—The National Convention of the Woman's party called to adopt a program for obtaining national and state legislation relating to women got down to work today, receiving reports from various committees. These were considered at the opening of the session and are to be followed tonight by addresses of representatives of the women's organization in foreign countries.

Mrs. Velma Swanson, of Sweden, is to describe the operations of Sweden's new marriage law, providing for equal rights of married women with their husbands in the control of their children, and Madame Riviere will describe the efforts of French women to obtain suffrage. Other speakers will be Princess Anne Argepian of Roumania and Madame de Veyra, of the Philippines. Mrs. Balastridge Colby, wife of the secretary of State, will welcome the foreign delegates.

Representatives of all political parties will be heard by the convention tomorrow on the legislation which they propose in the interest of women. On tomorrow's program also are speakers from various women's organizations, who will tell what those organizations are doing. The speakers will include Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, Miss Julia Lathrop, Chief of the Federal Children's Bureau; Mrs. Florence Kelley, Secretary of the National Consumer's League; Miss Lida Hafford, Washington Director of the Federation of Women's Clubs; Miss Ethel Smith, Legislative Secretary of the Woman's Trade Union League and Mrs. Ellis Yost Legislative Chairman of the National W. C. T. U.

LYNCH, KENTUCKY FORGES TO FRONT AS MINING CENTER

Little City Declared One of the Most Progressive and Thriving in Country

Lynch, Ky., Feb. 16.—This city is less than four years old and has a population of approximately 1,000 persons, concrete streets and roads, a department store that compares favorably with those of much larger cities, a $300,000 hotel, a $1,000,000 bank, the largest coal frippie in the world, an 85 bed hospital and a church of every denomination represented in Eastern Kentucky. In the opinion of R. B. Clayton, secretary of the Harlan County Coal Operator's Association it will be the model mining camp of the country within two more years.

Sitting at the head of the valley of the Poor Fork of the Cumberland river, forty miles above the point where it joins the Clover Fork at Harlan to form the main stream, the town is the base of what is said will be the largest coal operation in the Cumberland land mountains when it is completed.

A $300,000 hotel has been erected on the highest accessible point in the valley. It is equipped throughout with all modern conveniences.

Concrete, roads and streets are being built rapidly as possible, the roads leading to the various points where the veins of coal in the mountain are expected to be opened.

ROAD SENTENCES FEATURE LARGELY IN COUNTY COURT

Washington Edwards Sentenced to a Year on Roads for Selling Whiskey—Appealed.

Washington Edwards, colored storekeeper of this city, was found guilty of selling whiskey by a jury in yesterday's session of criminal term of county court and sentenced to one year on the county road by Judge L. G. Cooper almost immediately after the verdict had been rendered. Attorneys for the defense filed notice of an appeal to the superior court shortly after the sentence was passed, and it is hardly probable the case will be taken up again until the next term of criminal superior court the latter part of April.

The case consumed the entire morning session and reverted into probably one of the hottest contested whiskey cases in several months. The court, however, managed to reach three other cases immediately after noon adjournment, and to a great extent made up for time lost during the morning. Judge Cooper today inclined to favor road sentences exclusively throughout entire proceedings, and carried terror into the camp of the enemy, and in only two cases reserved judgment.

Sarah Sprull, colored woman, found guilty of assault with deadly weapon in the opening session of the court Monday, was sentenced to four months' service on the county roads, but appealed to superior court. Evidence seemed entirely against Sarah at the outset of the hearing but Judge Cooper reserved sentence for further consideration. Walter Little, charged with damage to property belonging to F. Teel, was found guilty, judgment being reserved. Neil Williams, sometime ago indicted for carrying a concealed weapon was found guilty and sentenced to six months on the county roads.

The case against Washington Edwards resulted from a raid on his store and premises by city police the latter part of last December. One quart of whiskey and some wine was found in the store, while further search revealed the presence of eight gallons of wine hidden away in the back yards of the defendant's house. The case was continued from mayor's court to the higher source of jurisdiction but failed to be reached until yesterday. Evidence produced by the State proved decidedly more convincing than otherwise, although the case was presented in an able manner, and it is expected it will be more determinedly contested in superior court.

HOUSE QUITS WORK WITHOUT ACTION ON ROAD AMENDMENT

Five Amendments Left Pending Further Consideration When Board Decides to Adjourn

ACTION TO BE RESUMED IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING OPENING THIS MORNING

Partly Lines Completely Smashed in Lengthy Fight Featuring the Bill all Way Through

Raleigh, Feb. 16.—Combining their strength with uncertain supporters of the road bill, the opposition road measure won out when Representative Doughton was about to force a test vote last night over three hours of debate, and by a vote of 63 to 58, the House adjourned without action.

Five amendments to the measure, ranging from the Darden proposal to submit the whole matter of further road building in the State to a vote of the people on the Second Tuesday in June, to minor changes in the phraseology were pending before the House and Representative Doughton, sure of his position was fighting against the opposition for an adjournment.

The battle which broke over the long bearded road bill carrying a fifty million dollar bond issue will be continued this morning at 11 o'clock, and the indications are that the General Assembly has set itself to the bitterest fight that has been waged in many sessions. Unlooked for opposition sprang up last night, but the proponents of the measure were confident that the situation would be well in hand when the House convenes this morning.

ESCAPED CONVICT FALLS INTO HANDS OF POLICE

Tom Gibbs, colored man who escaped from the county road forces at Ballard's Bridge yesterday morning, was captured by Chief of Police Jones in this city last night. The convict had hibernated to that district of the city better known in negro vernacular as the "hammer" but, unfortunately, failed to penetrate deeply into the mysterious depths of the criminal's abode. He made a desperate effort to reach a place of safety, but was prevented by quick work of the officer.

SEVERAL CASES BEFORE MAYOR CLARK IN POLICE COURT DURING MORNING

The following cases were disposed of by Mayor Clark in police court this morning:

- John Allen Page, crossing 5 Points costs.
- John Allen Page, crossing Five Points without stopping; paid costs.
- Ben Brown, driving horse and wagon in reckless and careless manner; paid costs.
- John Fleming, sweeping trash on sidewalk and leaving it; $2 and costs.
- Graham Flanagan, speeding; $10 and costs.
- Arthur Teel, reckless driving of horse and wagon; $2 and costs.
- Noah Hardee, too much liquor; bound over to county court. Hardee was arrested Sunday night by Policeman Brewer following a raid on his home on First street in which about a gallon of whiskey was found. A crowd of negroes had gathered at the defendant's home and were enjoying themselves to the utmost when the policeman made his appearance. The liquor had been placed in the center of the room on the floor and was the first thing visible when Policeman Brewer entered the door.

If the average young man would save ten per cent. of his earnings every year, putting his savings into substantial investments like Liberty Bonds, at current market prices, for instance, his yearly interest when he becomes fifty years of age would be a third as much as his annual salary. Many are following the plan and are headed for success.

Reconstruction will be the keynote of President-elect Harding's inaugural address. It may be in address all right but never immaterialization.

Practically every paper in this part of the country carries daily criticisms against high prices charged by hotels and cafes. The situation has become so accentuated it looks like prices are going to either come down or such places are going to lose the greatest part of their patronage. There is plenty room for condemnation, and if the warfare continues for any length of time it is easy to believe the proprietors are going to yield.

It is gratifying that Pitt county is going to continue construction work on hard surfaced roads, and the commissioners are to be commended for the action recently taken in making this possible. When Greenville, Farmville, Ayden, Grifton and Winterville, are connected by hard surfaced roads traveling will be more frequent and business conducted upon a more extensive scale. Improved roads bring prosperity to every community able to build them, and there are very few at this time that are not. Pitt county fortunately accepted the government's offer of assistance by voting a bond issue to match the offer several months ago. Today the road to Ayden and through Grifton is being built from funds derived from this source, showing the vision of county people when the opportunity was theirs. Every community that accepted the government's offer is today in position to build roads, and it is such sections which are to prosper in the future.

The rat menace is becoming more serious in every part of the country than most people seem to realize, and unless something is done to bring an improvement thousands of dollars will be lost that could be saved if some effective remedy to combat the rats' onslaughts was discovered. Many suggestions have been advanced to catch the night prowler, but so far his ravages continue with only occasional setbacks reported. The ordinary house cat is the greatest terror in the world for the thieving rodent, and if more homes and business enterprises had cats around during the night brother rat would suffer terribly. As it is puss is being neglected and abandoned simply because he happens to eat a bird occasionally when rats aren't available. Considering the annual loss wrought by the rat, it seems that several million birds might be allowed cats for their splendid service in killing the rat. Observation has brought out the fact that cats seldom eat birds unless the supply of rats around the house is exhausted. This being the case it looks it might better for people to care for the cat, and to some extent do away with the great loss occurring annually in every community.

MRS. J. A. WILLIAMS DIES IN WASHINGTON CITY
Mrs. Ella Greene received a telegram this morning announcing the death of her brother Mr. J. A. Williams, of Washington City. The telegram gave no particulars of his death but it is expected that he died suddenly. Mr. Williams, who was in his sixtieth year was a native of this county but for the past twenty-two years has held a position with the government, being stationed at the White House. He had a number of friends in this city and county who will learn with sorrow of his death. He is survived by his wife and several children also two sisters, Mesdames Ella Greene and Eva W. Satchwell of this city. The interment will take place in Washington.

STATE COLLEGE BAND TO BE HERE SATURDAY
The State College Band has about thirty members in it. Those who were so fortunate as to hear it last year know how they can play, and will not miss an opportunity of hearing them again this year. It is seldom that the town has an opportunity to hear a good band and everybody loves a brass band.

The time is Saturday evening, the place the Training School, the time 8 o'clock, the price is $1 for adults, 50c for children.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to many friends for their acts of kindness during the recent illness and death of our beloved daughter, Lilla Ruth. Such acts did much in helping us bear the sorrow in the loss of our loved one.

SANS SOUCI BOOK CLUB

HOLDS ENJOYABLE MEETING

The Sans Souci Book Club had a most enjoyable meeting with Mrs. J. B. James on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Will Hooker, president, presided. It was voted to donate the Club books for this year to the library. After a brief business session the hostess presented the program for the afternoon, her subject being "Mendelssohn, the Love Poet."

Mrs. Bruce Sugg gave a beautiful account of his life, especially interesting as he had such lovely surroundings and all of his family were so interesting and counted for so much in his life. His music being full of melody and harmony, several of his compositions were given. Mrs. Percy Forbes and Miss Jessie Moye sang "I Would That My Love," then Miss Moye sang a solo.

Mrs. Fred Forbes read a short anecdote of the composer. The two selections "Consolation" and "Spring Song," by Mrs. James, brought out forcibly the contrast in his compositions.

For the second part of the program Mrs. Goode took up the old songs we all love, giving the life of the composer, when and how the poem was written and illustrating "Suwanee River" and "Old Oaken Bucket" on the piano.

For last she read that lovely old poem "Home, Sweet Home." At the close of the program the hostess served a delicious ice course.

Mrs. James had as guests, besides Club members, Mesdames Judson and Marvin Blount, Andrew Moore, Percy Forbes, Mrs. Goode, Miss Moye and Mrs. Islar, of Charlotte, N. C.

BRIDGE CLUB

On Monday afternoon at her home on Evans street, Mrs. S. L. Bridges was hostess to her bridge club. Tables for the games were arranged in the living room and many progressions were enjoyed, at the conclusion of which a sweet course was served. Mrs. D. E. Taylor and Mrs. A. E. Hobgood were guests of the club.

MISS MARION WILSON CELEBRATES THIRD BIRTHDAY

On Monday afternoon at the home of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson, on Evans street, little Marion Wilson delightfully entertained a large number of her little friends in honor of her third birthday. Upon arrival the guests were given a cordial welcome by the hostess and invited out on the lawn where many games were enjoyed. After these were over they were invited into the dining room which was beautifully decorated with the scheme of pink. The table was very attractive with its birthday cake and three pink candles. Small pink kewpies and pink hearts were placed around the cake and other birthday suggestions were arranged on the table. An ice course, carrying out the color scheme of pink, was served.

After leaving the dining room several more games were enjoyed during which time candles were served.

Little Miss Wilson proved an ideal hostess and was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents.

MRS. S. T. WHITE HOSTESS TO GIRLCE 3, METHODIST SOCIETY

Circle No. 3 of the Methodist Missionary Society held a delightful meeting with Mrs. S. T. White on Monday afternoon, February 14th. Mrs. K. W. Cobb, chairman, presided. There were twenty enthusiastic members present and many plans for the year's work were discussed.

The hostess served delicious refreshments.
