PITTSBURG BANKS KICK ON REQUEST OF THE TREASURY

John Shelton Williams' Claims Deposits of Creditors Are Being Used Illegitimately.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The Pittsburg Clearing House Association was accused by Comptroller of the Currency Williams today of having forbidden its member banks to furnish data asked for in the national bank call issued yesterday by the comptroller.

Several items not heretofore given on the face of the reports were requested in current call, the comptroller explained. These items, he said, included a statement as to the amount of money which was being loaned on bond and stock collateral in New York city; a statement showing the aggregate amount of salaries paid to the executive officers of banks and the number of such officers; and the amount of salaries paid all other employees of the bank and the number of such employees.

"The obvious purpose of inclusion of the clauses apparently found objectionable in Pittsburg," Mr. Williams said, "was to develop whether money of depositors in national banks is being diverted from its proper function of supplying legitimate business and enterprises to earn fancy rates from the need of recklessness of speculators at a distance and whether disproportionate amounts of the earnings of banks are being expended in salaries to officials. It is difficult to understand why bankers who have used such money discreetly and with regard to the rights of their customers and shareholders, should object to making this information public."

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 25.—When informed tonight that Comptroller of the Currency Williams had accused the Pittsburg Clearing House Association of having forbidden member banks to furnish data in connection with yesterday's bank call, John R. Maccune, president of the association, said tonight that the information asked for by the comptroller was being given.

INTRODUCES LAW UPHOLDING FREE SPEECH IN U. S.

Senator Borah of Missouri Proposes Fine for Federal Interference in Free Speech

Washington, Feb. 26.—Sen. Borah, Representative of Idaho, today introduced a bill proposing fines, imprisonment and removal from office of any federal official found guilty of unlawfully trespassing on the rights of free speech, free press and assembly granted to the constitution.

In drafting the bill it is said Sen. Borah had the advice and assistance of lawyers, some of them formerly justices. The measure will be supported, it was announced by the national Popular Government League, the organization which recently attacked Attorney General Palmer for department of justice raids last year. State and municipal officers as well as federal officers would come within its terms.

Introducing the measure Senator Borah said:

The civil right of the private citizen have of late often been challenged and many times wholly denied. This condition has been increased for the last quarter of a century. More and more there has been disregard of the great guarantees of the Federal Constitution so far as the rights of the private citizen are concerned. The facts in support of this judgment are not hard and overwhelming. Men in authority, officers and their agents, have made rests without warrant, broken into private dwellings without authority, and practiced brutality toward citizens guilty of no offense. The private citizen under such conditions in practice seems to be greatly on the increase. Lawlessness in public office and in public places fattens by what it feeds upon.

I do not think we get any where however by merely criticizing particular individuals or by denouncing for a day a particular public officer. In fact, no particular officer is individually responsible. The situation deserves general consideration and permanent treatment. I have therefore introduced this bill, which is designed to protect the private citizen in his constitutional rights, particularly against the arbitrary and lawless acts of public officers. It seems to me that it fairly gets at the situation and would help greatly to remedy this growing evil. In any event it will serve as a measure around which possible a better measure may be constructed.

PLANS TO AROUSE GREAT INTEREST IN SINN FEIN PARTY

Professor O'Rahilly Presents Scheme For New Kind of Government Favoring Sinn Fein.

Cork, Feb. 26.—An original scheme of government for Ireland, proposed by Professor Alfred O'Rahilly, registrar of the University of Cork, is arousing great interest in Ireland. The correspondent has been informed that the plan has been endorsed by many prominent in the Sinn Fein movement. In which Professor O'Rahilly is a recognized leader.

Briefly, the scheme calls for an independent confederation and, according to Professor O'Rahilly, who discussed it at length in an interview with the correspondent, it provides the only solution of the northeast Ulster question.

Professor O'Rahilly is out opposed to the idea of partition. "Our proper attitude," he said, "should be to insist on more partition. Ireland should be divided not into two but into four regions. By tradition, history, fact and circumstance we ought to aim at decentralization and regionalism to uphold the sovereignty of the people."

"What many quite fair-minded English business men fear is the possibility of an all-powerful central parliament in Dublin. And to tell the truth Cork men are not really enthusiastic about a Dublin Westminster, nor are Connemara peasants likely to favor a central sovereign assembly controlling all the minutiae of Irish life."

"It's a mistake to think there is merely an Ulster problem. There are about 40 problems. We are a heterogeneous people and to remain true to ourselves we must have far more local liberty and regional autonomy than is allowed in the ideal of a central parliament or two assemblies in Belfast and Dublin."

BELIEVES URUGUAY TO GRANT WOMEN SUFFRAGE RIGHTS

President Brum Declares Country Is Forging to the Front Along Progressive Lines.

Montevideo, Uruguay, Feb. 25.—President Baltazar Brum believes that Uruguay is well in the forefront of advanced legislation in many respects and that it will soon take steps which will lead eventually to full suffrage for women.

The laws enacted by the Uruguay Congress for the protection of workingmen, he said, had made labor contented in this country. One of the laws now pending provides that labor cannot be employed in the country districts for less than $20 a month with board and lodging. In the city the minimum is set at approximately $45 a month.

"We also have a law," said Dr. Brum, "giving an obligatory day of rest each week and this has been made to include domestic servants. Our labor is satisfied. Ship all your agitators here; we are not afraid of them. They will not find congenial soil in which to work."

In regard to woman suffrage, he said the constitution of Uruguay provides for votes for women but that machinery for their balloting has not yet been provided by the act of Congress. He added that he believed that within two years women would be given the right to vote for municipal representatives and that would lead to complete suffrage for them.

Dr. Brum spoke with some pride of the educational facilities in Uruguay, saying it was now possible for a child to be educated from the time he begins to learn to read, through the national schools and universities until he receives his degree as a lawyer, without having to pay any kind of a fee.

MME. ZENAIDE RAGOZIN

Unheard of for more than two years and thought to have been a victim of the Bolshevik massacres, a letter has been received from Mme. Zenaide A. Ragozin, famous Russian author, by her New York publishers. In it she describes her two years' wanderings up and down Russia in an effort to seek refuge from the horrors of the Bolshevik regime. In the two years she did not once taste fish, eggs, butter or milk.

YOUNG MEN HOSTS AT BANQUET HERE FRIDAY EVENING

Young Men's Bible Class of Methodist Church Entertains Complimentary to Junior Philatheas

The Young Men's Class, composed of thirty-eight active members, of the Methodist Sunday School were hosts at a delightful banquet last evening complimentary to the Junior Philatheas Class, which is composed of twenty-three members. The Sunday School rooms were beautifully decorated and the two-course luncheon was served by Circle No. 4, of the Missionary Society. Mr. J. B. James, teacher of the class, acted as master of ceremonies, and many times had occasion to bring out some story of interest and helpfulness. Mr. J. D. Murphy, president of the class, delivered the address of welcome. His talk was splendid and the young ladies really felt that they were indeed welcome. His address was responded to by Miss Mary Perkins Norman, president of the Junior Philatheas class, in behalf of the class. Her remarks were most appropriate and expressed the real pleasure of the class in being extended the invitation to such an enjoyable reception.

Mr. Gordon Congleton made an interesting talk on the progress of the class and the wonderful work which it has accomplished in the past three months. His talk had as a keynote a challenge to the Junior Philatheas to see which class would add more members and make the most progress. The challenge was accepted by Miss Priscilla Austin. She convinced the young men of the fact that they were a class of active members and that they could and would measure up to expectations.

Mr. Robert Little made a short talk along the line of progress which the class has made. He was followed by Mr. W. E. Hooker in an address on "Sunday School Work." Mr. Hooker, who is the wide awake superintendent of the Christian Sunday School, and who knows what it takes to make a real Sunday School, congratulated the Methodists for the progress it is making and also gave many good points on Sunday School work.

Mrs. W. E. Hooker, teacher of the Junior Philatheas class and leader of the Bible class, gave an interesting account of the work which the Bible class is doing. Rev. Patten spoke on "The Need of a Larger S. S. Building." His talk was very opportune as the Sunday School enrollment has reached a total of five hundred and twenty-seven and needs more room. Mr. J. A. Arthur, editor of the Daily News, also made a few remarks.

The music was furnished by the following: Miss Mary Bagley-Overton sang two solos; Mrs. Goode played several piano selections and Messrs. Edward Foley, Jack Foley, Phil Thomas and Bernice Gardner sang a quartette.

After singing "Good Night Ladies," the banquet ended and each guest departed declaring they never had a better time.

CHILE SUSPENDS TRADE RELATIONS IN UNITED STATES

Fall in the Rate of Chilean Exchange

Dollar Changes Conditions

Valparaiso, Feb. 26.—The fall in the rate of Chilean exchange on London from nearly 12 pence to nine pence per peso in the last few months and the abnormal rise of the American dollar until it has been quoted above seven pence, the highest in five years, had a depressing effect in financial and commercial circles throughout the country. The normal quotation of the dollar is about five pesos.

Chilean firms and importing agents with connections in the United States there owing to the premium on the dollar. Meanwhile quantities of American merchandise, variously estimated at $1,000,000 to $2,500,000 accumulated in the custom houses, the consignees having refused to accept the goods against the high rate on New York.

Commercial bodies here and in Santiago have been closely observing the general situation with the view to suggesting to the government measures to relieve what has been described as an "acute commercial crisis."

The financial condition of the country's money, which has a wide fluctuation are now occupying the attention of the new government which came into power December 23 last. President Alessandri is known to favor establishment of a central bank, under government control, to facilitate the conversion of paper money into gold.

The country's conversion fund now amounts to 114,110,000 Chilean gold pesos. It is estimated 150,000,000 gold pesos are required before the conversion law, passed by Congress several years ago, can be applied. Its application has just been postponed until December 31, 1921.

KINSTON REFUSES TO PLAY ANYTHING BUT PROFESSIONAL BALL

Representatives comprising four clubs of the Eastern Carolina baseball league met in New Bern last night to perfect plans for the season, but on account of Kinston's desire not to participate in anything but organized baseball, nothing of any definite nature was accomplished. It seemed generally understood at the outset that amateur baseball was desired by fans of the various cities, but Kinston thought otherwise, and failed to yield to persuasion to settle the matter definitely at the meeting last night. The delegates were ordered to return and consult with people of city to ascertain their desire and report at the next meeting to be conducted in Washington Thursday night. Greenville, Washington, and New Bern representatives declared organized baseball was not advisable this year, and after much discussion Kinston delegates said that they would return to their city and report on the matter as early as possible.

It is not believed that baseball is dead by any means if Kinston does not fall to come in as it is believed other towns are anxious to elect a circuit composed exclusively of college and non-professional players. This it is believed, will inject greater enthusiasm in the game and give each town a chance of pulling out to a much better advantage at the end of the season. Kinston's reply is awaited interestedly in every town, for it was hoped from the beginning that its people would support an amateur club, which certainly would afford as much diversion if not a greater kind of sport.

Mr. Harding insists that his cabinet is strictly Republican. It might not be safe to make the boast in the presence of Herbert Hoover, who seems to be a different type of Republican from Daugherty and the President-elect.

The meat packing industry is to have just enough interference from government authorities to prevent them from going astray in prices. The public, at least must see some results before believing the country is justified in paying high salaried men to do something when there is nothing to be done.

Private control of railways of this country has resulted in utter failure, according to reports presented to the public. This is not surprising, however, if one considers the way many companies have been paying out their money and not getting service. Government control proved decidedly unsatisfactory, but if private interests can't make any better showing it looks as if Uncle Sam has reasons for another venture.

Censorship of moving pictures has been creating much interest in this State since the Legislature had the matter in hand. It has become an adversary have staged a losing battle. Tom Dixon did his best for confining along old lines, but his arguments received only ordinary consideration, and his efforts as a consequence were in vain. The right kind of censorship will be all right probably, but it must be the right kind before the public thinks it is seeing what it ought to.

South Carolina believes in getting married and staying that way, and divorces in that state as a consequence are thin on the ground.

Its sister state, and believes in granting divorces whenever there is reason for such. That reasons are easy to present by any capable lawyer is evident from the number of cases in our courts and the great number receiving favorable consideration. The laws, however, are more conservative than in other states, but this should not keep the courts from discouraging divorces and trying to take more drastic action if possible. South Carolina probably is too severe, but it wouldn't do North Carolina any harm to lean toward its laws until conditions are improved.

E. G. Moss, secretary of the North Carolina Tobacco Growers association says one-third reduction of tobacco acreage will not be sufficient for the present planting season and urges farmers to cut at least fifty per cent. Planters who have been contemplating only slight decrease should take note of the statement, as Mr. Moss is well acquainted with conditions of the country and argues with authority. The crop must be curtailed. There is no way out of it, and the man who thinks he will be able to plant the usual crop because his neighbors are going to cut is going to be fooled in a more effective way than seeing low prices. The industry is faced with ruin unless reduction becomes general. There is absolutely no demand for common grades of tobacco at this time and even the best qualities are bringing low prices, comparatively small to those of last year. The time for action is at hand and there must be no slackers in this one supreme effort to rescue the industry from one of the most serious situations in history.

day night. This is the first time the town has ever had club conducted along such business-like lines, and there is no reason why it should not be a paying proposition, and at the same time afford hundreds of people pleasure during the hot summer months. It seems probable right at this time that there will not be but four towns in the league, but they are sufficiently large to make the game interesting in every way and cause the season to be the best in years. Committees will canvass this week soliciting subscriptions for stock, and business men who appreciate what baseball does for the town should not be slow in doing their part in making the sport possible. Other towns have already issued funds, and Greenville should not fall after going this far.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF LAND

U. D. C. Meets With Mrs. Hassell The George B. Singletary Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held a delightful meeting with Mrs. J. L. Hassell on Thursday afternoon, February 24th. Eighteen members were present and the chapter gladly welcomed four new members. After the business was disposed of Mrs. R. R. Cotten read a splendid paper on the life of our distinguished Pitt county general, Bryan Grimes, after which the chapter adjourned to meet in March with Mrs. Bert Moye. The hostess served a delicious salad course.

ROTARY CLUB READY FOR LIVELY AFFAIR

Club Members Will Gather Monday at Rotary Home to Celebrate Birthday Anniversary.

BY J. B. KITTRELL

When the Rotary Club of Greenville gathers together Monday night at their recently completed Rotary Home to celebrate the Sixteenth Anniversary of the beginning of the great Rotary spirit, it will not be a noisy hilarious event but rather a serious demonstration that there has come into the world a new expression of the Golden Rule and that they have a part in it. The following program has been arranged:

The Progress of Rotary—W. H. Dall, Jr. A Visit to International Headquarters—D. M. Clark. What Is the Rotary Club—W. L. Best In addition to the above prepared addresses other interesting facts will be revealed at this meeting, facts which are new even to members of our club, specially those who have united with who have the... with develop... of the most recent months, which deal especially with the acceptance of Rotary principles by the people of other lands, will prove of great interest. But the program goes much further than this, and the result will be a session of keenest worth to the Rotarians themselves and of educational value to the people who, through newspapers and otherwise, will gain a new insight into Rotary ideals and activities.

SOMETHING NEW FOR GREENVILLE

An Organization That Should Be Thoroughly Investigated and Watched By All the Young Ladies

BY J. B. KITTRELL

The people of Greenville will no doubt be interested to know that there are a bunch of boys in town that at least deserve credit for taking a chance. It seems that about thirty young men, all single, decided they would throw a bomb into the high prices charged for table board by the boarding houses in town and they got together and organized what is known as the "Princeton Club." They evidently began to realize that their chances were slim for an "all time" housekeeper and cook, and as a last resort to offer an inducement to the fair sex this club was organized. Girls, you had better watch them closely, as they are certainly getting some experience that will be helpful to any housekeeper. These boys have rented the Princeton hotel dining room, hired them a cook, appointed a chef or a mess sergeant, are preparing their own menus and are serving three square meals a day. They have appointed a steering committee that looks after the operation of their club and things are run on a business-like basis. They have a system whereby the menus are made for several days in advance, their provisions bought wholesale, and these provisions are issued for each meal to avoid any leakage. They say they are getting the best board in town for about $25 per month, and hope to cut this down after they have had a little more experience. Boys, it would be a good idea to invite the ladies down occasionally so they might see that you are worthy of a tryout.
