

FLANAGAN FAVORS H. A. WHITE FOR NEXT MAYOR CITY

Owner of Flanagan Buggy Co., Declares Efficiency Must Be Watch Word In Selection of Next Official

BELIEVES MR. WHITE
BEST QUALIFIED MAN IN TOWN FOR OFFICE

Thinks Proposed Candidate Would Accept Nomination If Urged By His Many Friends In Greenville

(By E. G. Flanagan)
To the voters of Greenville:
In this day and time when Efficiency is the watch word of all progressive and sound business, and as we own a corporation, name, The City of Greenville, with a capital stock running into the millions, it behooves us as stockholders and voters in this corporation to give our best thought and consideration as to whom we shall elect as president, or mayor, of Greenville, in order that the watch word, Efficiency, shall be the motto of the incoming administration.

We all agree, Greenville is known far and wide as one of the states' most progressive towns. Our city fathers for the past ten years have acted wisely in lumbering our property by issuing bonds for the paving of our streets, building the Water and Light Plant, and other city improvements.

We, as citizens, have got to pay the interest on the bonds and reserve a sufficient amount each year as a sinking fund, to pay off these bonds when they come due, and in addition collect a sufficient amount of revenue to run our government and keep up the progressive spirit which is demanded by our citizenship.

We all agree, our taxes at the present time, with the high valuations and rate $1.04 are more or less a burden to most of us. There is only one way in which we can reduce our taxes and that is through the watch word, efficiency, in the administration of our government.

As a life long citizen of Greenville and one who has always in his feeble way had the best interest in this city and home at heart, I have been thinking for sometime who is the best qualified man in all particulars, among our citizenship, to nominate and elect the mayor of our beautiful city. I believe, after due consideration by the voters of Greenville, that a large majority of them will agree with me that H. A. White will make us a most efficient mayor. It is needless for me to tell a large percentage of our people who Herbert White is, but for the benefit of new comers, I might say he has been a resident of Greenville for the past 25 years. He came here in the year 1895 with small loans, and by applying the word efficiency and honest dealings to his own business, he has accumulated considerable property and is now one of our largest property owners. He has believed in Greenville and all his investments are here.

He has believed Greenville and her people are entitled to the best and has fostered every movement financially, and by personal work, that has meant for the betterment of our people.

If you will nominate and elect Herbert White as your mayor, you will have a man of wide experience, sound judgment, and good business ability. At this time when taxes are high and it is hard to make buckle and tongue meet, a business man is what we need for mayor, a man that will look after the details, put into effect proper accounting systems, in order to take care of the many leaks that are bound to occur in the management of any big corporation, and Greenville is nothing more or less than a big business.

I believe H. A. White is patriotic enough to accept, if he finds the people are behind him, and will give to his home and city his best talents and long experience as a business man. For the above reasons, I nominate H. A. White for mayor of the city of Greenville, at the coming primary.

MOTHER SEEKING SON SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD OVER SEA

Mrs. Lettie Michael of Bonsboro, Mo., Maintains Hope That Son May Yet be Living Somewhere

Bonsboro, Mo., Mar. 10.—Hope that springs eternal in human breasts sent its thrilling message to the mother heart of Mrs. Lettie V. Michael here when the mailman handed her an official photograph of the grave in France where her blue-eyed, giant, soldier son lay, sleeping with the heroes of the great war.

Across the card ran the legend, Alvin A. Michael, killed in action, Oct. 18, 1918, but her sons name was Austin G. Michael. And in that moment there was born to the brave hearted woman a hope time alone could kill, that she would see again the six-foot, curly headed youngster who marched so gallantly out to battle when his country called.

Perhaps you who read may help her vision to fulfillment. For there may be wandering some where in the country a lad whose mind the impact of a German bullet swept the ties of memory, yet who writes always to a mother he knows not how to address.

Mrs. Michael has carried her search far and here and there has found tales of Big Mike as his buddies knew him, which filled her with tearful pride. But also she found conflicting accounts in the official record of his death and burial and strange reports at hospitals she visited of a patient long treated and whose description tallied closely with that of her son, but who was known as Tom Hinnegan.

Big Tom too has vanished and until she has found him, Mrs. Michael will not discard the hope that he may be her son, his identity lost in the clash of the bullet that scared his head.

IRISH GOVERNMENT ALIENATES ESTATE OF LARGE FARMERS

Dublin Department of Agriculture Dividing Large Tracts of Land Among Small Planters

Dublin, Mar. 10.—The Dail Eireann Department of Agriculture is dealing with what is regarded as the most important work of the Irish Republican Government the alienation of land from the big estates of landlords and its distribution among small farmers, who have not enough land to earn a living.

Since last April when there was a revival of the Land War which has occupied such a conspicuous place in Ireland's history, the Dail's so-called land judges have dealt with 228 cases involving about 50,000 Irish acres. An Irish acre is a third again a sarge as an American acre.

In 83 of these cases 20,875 acres were alienated that is, taken by decree from big estates and sold to small farmers who were able to prove that they did not possess sufficient land to provide a living for themselves and families. In 67 cases judgment was given against the claimant, the farmer, in favor of the register the land lord with a big estate.

More than 100 cases are pending most of them in Roscommon which is in a highly disturbed state. If the land judges are not permitted to deal with these cases, Sinn Fein fears another upheaval in the spring. Landlords to view the situation with great anxiety.

In Ireland for hundreds of years. It is the land question has been acute arose when the first Irishmen were driven in feudal times from their ancient clan of land. The great war in the last century cleared off the landlords and then the British government set up the congested District Board.

The costumes in the play Green Stockings, which will be given at the Training School on Friday evening, at 8:30 o'clock are furnished by one of the leading shops in Raleigh and the hats by one of the best millinery stores there. They are new and handsome hats and gowns. Some of them are the same as those that were used in Raleigh last Thursday night, but some of those were sold, but the same firm promise just as good for Greenville. The handsome gowns and hats add greatly to the effect of the play.

Music by a real orchestra, that plays regularly for the performances in Raleigh's Theatre, beautiful gowns and hats just from the shop, and a charming comedy well played, give three fold value for the price of admission, which is 75 and $1.

Tickets are now on sale at the Warren Drug Co.

Administration Fails To Discuss Late Note From French Circles

Reports From Many Districts Continue Obscure and Conflicting Concerning Activity

London Mar. 10.—Russian reports continue obscure and conflicting. Reuters Helmsford's dispatch late yesterday stated that Russian agencies claim that Petrograd's fate is still in the balance and denied reports of revolution troops occupying three quarters of the city. It says insurgents are in position in part of city under fire from the Bolsheviks. Messages from Abo, Finland, say the whole of Russia appears in complete state of ferment.

BETHEL FARMER SHOWS NEIGHBORS HE CAN GROW OTHER THAN TOBACCO

C. E. Melawhorn Coming to the Front In Developments of Home Orchard Through Spraying

(By W. B. Pace)

J. L. Gurganus of Bethel is demonstrating to his neighbors that he can grow more than just cotton and tobacco. He has two acres in permanent pasture, two acres in rye and bur clover, three acres in oats and vetch, one acre in alsike clover and one acre in a home orchard. He also found time to make more than fifty bushels of corn to the acre and has a four gallon cow grazing on four acres of abuzzie rye. He is a breeder of pure bred Hamshire hogs which are very fine and has a backyard chock full of laying hens.

Mr. G. T. Tyson shipped a car load of fat hogs to Richmond a few weeks ago. These hogs were grown by himself and sons and were fattened on sweet potatoes, spy beans, peanuts and corn and velvet beans. All these crops were hogged off and the hogs were sold at profit according to Mr. Tyson's statement.

Any one thinking of putting in a Home Orchard would do well to see one that C. E. Melawhorn put in two years ago. He keeps this orchard well pruned and sprayed and expects quite a bit of fruit this summer. He has all varieties and kinds.

O. L. Joyner has forty acres in crimson clover that is growing nicely. Any farmer that wants to try this important crop for the purpose of building up Humus Hungry soil should see it growing on some of the poorest soil on this place. Crimson clover should have a place in the rotation scheme of every farm.

Mr. Chas. O. H. Horne has the prettiest permanent pasture around Greenville. If you doubt that, you can make two blades of grass grow where one grew before you should visit this plot.

GARMENT TRADES OF BOSTON SAID TO BE DISRUPTED

Changes in Condition of Labor Brings About Accentuated Situation of Manufacturing Center

Manila, P. I., Mar. 10.—That American firms are on the alert for business in the Far East was demonstrated by the receipt of letters here from clothing manufacturers of the United States, offering to furnish trousers in any quantity of grade of material for the male population of the Philippine Islands.

These offers grew out of the publication in the United States of the provision of a bill introduced in the legislature early in December by Senator K. Santos, requiring the non Christian tribes of Northern Luzon and of the clothes. The bill was never reported on by committee and leaders of the senate say it probably will not be revived during the present session.

One large manufacturer of clothing in Chicago wrote to Santos:

The writer was interested to note the enclosed clipping from a Chicago newspaper. As one of the largest in this country, we are in a position to supply trousers in most any grade or character of material at prices that will prove attractive.

If at any time your government wishes bids we ask to have the privilege of showing our samples.

A large clothing firm of Brooklyn, N. Y. wrote to Senator Santos in a similar vein.

AMERICAN FIRMS INVITE BUSINESS FROM NEAR EAST

Number of Large Clothing Manufacturers On Alert for Transaction in Districts of Europe

Boston, Mar. 10.—The garment trades of this city are disrupted by change in the conditions of labor employment. If statements by the manufacturers are carried out and their shops transferred predicted their will be little left of an industry which under normal conditions employs upward of 12,000 persons. Two makers of ready made mens clothing have already transferred their business to other cities.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America declare the situation in the mens garment shops to be a lookout; manufacturers call it a strike if followed the announcement on December 6 last of the manufacturers that no further agreements would be made by them with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers. Although normally 5,000 workers are employed in the shops effected the greater part of the machines were not running when the notice was issued and only a few have been started since.

The United Garment Workers, an American Federation of Labor organization has its 1,000 members and is not involved in the controversy, according to its leaders.

Local leaders represented on the Joint Board of Cloak and Skirt Makers, Union and affiliated with the International Ladies Garment Workers and the American Federation of Labor, declared a strike of their 2,000 members the latter part of January that they intended to sign contracts with individual workers and not with unions.

Since this strike was called union leaders say the owners of 42 shops have signed agreements with the union and about 500 workers have returned to their machines. Strike benefits are being paid to 1,500 strikers.

Early in February some 800 members of the Journeymen Tailors' Union walked on strike when the Custom Tailors Association of Boston announced that the workers would be paid on a piece basis instead of under the weekly wage system.

REQUEST HARDING TO STOP PROPOSED WAGE REDUCTIONS

President Face to Face With Big Industrial Problem Since Inauguration Several Days Ago

GOMPERS REQUESTED TO VISIT PRESIDENT AND CONSIDER ISSUES

Strike Warning Appears in Resolution Requesting Labor to Take Such Action As Advisable

Omaha, Neb. March 10.—President Harding was appealed to tonight by representatives of packing house employes with a request that he try to prevent a proposed reduction of wages and readjustment of working hours which have been announced by meat packers to become effective March 14. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was asked in another telegram to go to the White House as the direct representative of the meat cutters' union and urge immediate action on the request. He was also asked to call a meeting Monday in Chicago of all allied unions working for the packers to outline concerted action in event of a strike.

Delegates to the conference here called by the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher workmen of North America voted unanimously late today to appeal to the President in an effort to forestall abrogation of the wartime agreement between the packers and their employes. The action of the delegates who represent workers in every large packing center, affect 200,000 employes, union officials said.

The telegram to the president asked him to request to packers to hold in abeyance the wage and hour changes, announced as effective Monday, until the Secretary of Labor can investigate charges contained in the message. The conference also adopted a resolution requesting the President to use his good offices to compel the packers to comply with the agreement entered into by the government and unless the packers consent, that he exercise his power to place the packing house industry under government control and operation and publicly brand the present owners and managers of the industry as a menace to the government and society in general.

A strike warning appeared in the same resolution which instructed the union officers to take such action as will result in a unanimous and effective resistance to a return to the ten hour work day, wage reductions and other barbaric conditions that existed prior to 1917, unless President Harding sends assurance of action this resolution according to Dennis Lane, secretary-treasurer of the union mean authorization for a strike affecting all packing house employes of the United States and Canada.

DOLLAR AND WORK

Every dollar in the world represents work that some person somewhere, has done. When anyone wastes a dollar he wastes that person's work.

Germans have left London to return to Berlin. That is all right so long as they remain peaceful after reaching the capital.

Allied soldiers who remained in Germany after the war are satisfied that they have been ordered back to duty again. There are many things in Germany of interest but the most interesting at this time is bringing the Hun to realize that the indemnity must be paid.

The fact that the Lghigh Valley Coal Company did enough business to declare a dividend of 150 per cent shows why coal was so high the early part of the winter. Coal dealers claimed they were not making anything, but large dividends similar to this justifies belief of extortion somewhere.

Japanese business men have telegraphed President Harding to use his influence in the interest of disarmament. This seems to be a mighty good spirit, but Japan should remember that the rest of the world is ready to disarm and peace will come as soon as she gets ready.

President Obregon of Mexico, says his country is at peace for the first time in eleven years. Mexico ought to be in position to appreciate peace after incessant warfare for many years.

Alexander Kerensky, premier of the provisional government of Russia which was recently overturned by the Bolsheviks, seems to be in a mood for warfare, judging by reports received from that section the last day or so. Russian leaders are too divided for the prospect of stable government, and the country seems to be faced by continued social unrest for many months to come.

The Bellamy bill requiring physical examination before marriage may not be received so favorably by those who permit sentiment to prevail instead of common sense, but to those who have seen apparently happy homes wrecked because of infirmities before marriage it is one of the most timely pieces of legislation in years.

NEW YORK'S CONTRIBUTIONS

More than 25 percent, of all state contributions for financing the Federal Government during the war period came from the State of New York, according to the National Bank of Commerce in New York in the March issue of its magazine, Commerce Monthly.

The amount of war loans (excluding certificates of indebtedness) floated in New York the war period more than double the entire interest-bearing debt of the nation at the close of the Civil War, Commerce Monthly says, while the amount of internal revenue taxes collected in the state in the three most recent fiscal years was greater than collected in the entire country during the preceding seven years.

The bank publishes statistics to show that out of $12,938,862,000 collected in internal revenue taxes during the three fiscal years ending 1920 New York paid $3,183,843,000. In addition of the total allotments of $21,435,371,000 in Liberty bonds and notes during the five loans, $5,500,976,000 were allocated to New York. Her contributions, therefore, amounted to $744,819,000 in a national total of $34,374,233,000 for loans and taxes.

Eight states provided nearly three fourths of all internal revenue and two thirds of all loans issued. These states each of which contributed at least one billion dollars to public expenditure during the war period listed in the order of amounts furnished, are New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Massachusetts, California, New Jersey and Michigan.

The Legislature probably overlooked many things during its recent session, but succeeded in passing numbers of bills that will mean much to development of the state. The good roads bill was one of the most appropriate in considerable position there are very few who will acknowledge that it is not going to mean commercial and industrial progress in years to come. North Carolina is a great state with wonderful resources, but unless its resources are developed as they should be its true greatness will never be realized by those coming in from other sections of the country seeking homes.

If the German government accepts terms of reparations as imposed by the Allies its people will be ready to deprive it of authority. If it refuses to pay it faces the probability of enforcement by the sword. The situation is not altogether favorable by any means, but German people should remember what they cost the world by warfare and resign themselves to the inevitable prospect of proposed indemnities. They sowed seed of destruction and need not expect to reap commercial and industrial prosperity as a result. The price must be paid, and the Allies evidently have been delayed long enough to realize continued partying will not accomplish anything.

Dr. Walter Simons, who headed the German delegation to the reparations congress seems to be under the impression that the Allies are going to be ready to accept Germany's terms within a short time, but knowing the German way of doing business as they do, it is hardly probable the impression is going to be lasting. The truth is, the Allies have endured enough delay, and whatever action they may take in the future is perfectly justifiable considering the way Germany has acted. The situation is to be deplored, of course, but there is little doubt that the Germans will be taught a lesson which will not soon be forgotten.

Pitt county commissioners believe in hard surfaced roads, and are now on the verge of receiving bids for $500,000 worth of bonds for continuing construction work from Greenville to Farmville and the Lenoir county line. Good road opponents may say what they please against large appropriations necessary to carry on the work but they are among those who never find time to grumble about traveling improved highways. Pitt county will have a system to be proud of and it's hardly probable there will be any room for criticism, after the work is completed.

It is interesting to note that Pitt county received its apportionment for relief of starving people of China. The county's quota was slightly over $1000, which was collected quickly through the untiring efforts of Dr. James Turner. The work compares favorably with any other section of the state and Dr. Turner and Pitt county people are to be congratulated upon their splendid services.

Night riders are bringing many sections into disrepute by lawless action at this time, but in the course of a few months people will be sober minded enough to realize that this kind of effort to maintain order is not desirable by better classes of citizens. The night rider might have been helpful in the old days when a reign of terror pervaded the country, but now that the hand of the law extends to every nook and crook of the universe there is no need for anything but its enforcement. Taking the law out of the hands of sworn officers is not at all advisable and at times proves costly to those attempting to do so.

Reward. Do you know this man? Height: 6 ft. 1 inch Face: Thin Weight: 145 lbs. Features: Prominent. Description: When last seen was on his way to hospital. Used to weigh 185, had ruddy complexion, good appetite and enthusiasm for work. Six months ago began to have irregular bowel movements. Took pills. Lost weight—still irregular. Took salts—violent results. Had medical examination; doctor diagnosed case as self-poisoning, due to clogged, decaying food waste in large intestine; said pills and purges had weakened the intestinal muscles so they would not function. Man protested violently that he was not sick. Doctor replied that he had been sick since first bowel irregularity. Prescribed complete rest and the Nujol treatment. Said if he had cultivated regular habits with Nujol he would have had no trouble. Reward: For restoration of this man to regularity. Nature offers reward of health, and return to normal weight and happiness. If you are the man apply at the nearest drugstore for a bottle of Nujol For Constipation. Nujol works on an entirely new principle. Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system. Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it! Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles, containing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church held a very enthusiastic meeting Monday afternoon in the ladies' parlor. The usual order of procedure was reversed and the business taken up first.

The reports were all heard with interest especially the treasurer's and the agent for the Voice; Mrs. Austin reporting five additional subscribers making a total to date of forty nine. After reading communications from Conference officers and acting thereon Mrs. Person announced the Council meeting to be held in Richmond Va., April 13 - 20 inclusive. This always brings a thrill to every Methodist woman and unusually so to us this year, meeting so close to Greenville. It is expected that many will take advantage of this splendid opportunity and attend the Council sessions.

Mrs. Patten was present and addressed the meeting, pointing out another avenue whereby we may serve. The society pledged cooperation.

After this Mrs. Lather Herring took charge of the devotional and gave a very lucid interpretation of Isaiah 11:17. The subject for the afternoon being "Tenantry in the Rural Community". Mrs. Ellington read of Living Conditions and Educational Opportunities. Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse told of Religious Opportunities and Some Facts in Conclusion.

Altogether it was one of the most interesting of the year.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Memorial Baptist church will meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hodges, on Fourth Street.

BANK EXAMINER IS BACK FROM PINK HILL

Raleigh, N. C.—Mr. Herbert Newbold Assistant State Bank Examiner, returned yesterday from Pink Hill after closing up the Bank of Pink Hill with the announcement that it will require an audit of the book to determine the status of the institution.

The cashier of the bank, George S. Willard, prominent citizen of that section of the state and a well to do business man with many interests, disappeared when the examiner called a meeting of the directors of the bank.

The general belief of the directors, Mr. Newbold stated yesterday, was that Mr. Willard would return. He remained there several days waiting for him. Thus far, the cashier has not been heard from.

Mr. Allen Whitaker has been appointed receiver for the bank. In the meantime, a temporary receiver is closing stores in a number of points in Eastern North Carolina in which Willard is interested.

CHINA FAMINE BOWLS

The State committee for China Famine Relief has just received a shipment of what are known as China Famine Bowls. These little bowls are made of paper, shaped like an oatmeal bowl, and each contains a sample of the only food fifteen million starving women and children and men in five cold northern provinces of China have to eat.

On one side of the bowl is printed the ingredients of the meal and the recipe for its preparation. In a unique way it thus tells a sad story and makes a pitiful plea. One of these bowls has been received by the Reflector and any one who desires to see it may do so.

FARMERS ACTIVE IN DEVELOPMENT OF THEIR CROPS

His grass and clover is now about four to five inches high and his dairy herd is daily converting this into milk. Dr. Horne is well pleased with his pasture. Start this year right by bedding nothing but sound seed, that have been treated, in a new seed bed. Then don't plant them where potatoes have been grown for several years. Thirteen to twenty million dollars worth of sweet potatoes rot in U. S. every year.

Bear in mind that those peaches should be sprayed at least twice after the blossoms fall, preferably three times. This is to keep black-rot and worms out of your fruit. You will be well paid for the cost and trouble.

FELT MY TROUBLES GOING DAY BY DAY

Virginian Has Gastritis, Was Constipated Billions and Had Rheumatism in His Joints. Claims great relief From Dreco.

I have found great relief in the two bottles of Dreco I have taken it has really done me a world of good, said Mr. J. M. Kinsey who lives at 1025 Noble Ave. Danville, Va. It seemed everything I ate turned to gas and bloated me up. I often had a sharp pain over my kidneys and I was so bilious my head felt unsteady on my shoulders, the food came up in my throat hot and sour.

After taking two bottles of Dreco, I noticed a remarkable change, day by day I could notice my troubles fading away. Dreco regulated my bowels producing easy natural actions, strengthened my kidneys, stopped the backache and worked my liver good so that I never have dizzy spells any more.

My nerves became steady so that my sleep was sound and refreshing I can safely advise any one who is suffering from troubles similar to take Dreco for it will surely help them.

My wife has also been greatly benefited by Dreco and it is much stronger now than she has been for a long time.

Dreco is specially introduced by Warren Drug Company in Greenville and sold by all druggists.
