LIGHT REGISTRATION AT OPENING OF BOOK FOR LOCAL PRIMARY

Thirty Two Women and 137 Men Registered Since Opening of Books Last Friday Morning

Registration for the municipal primary to be conducted in this city May 2nd began Friday morning, and closing of books Sat. night showed that 160 persons had registered, of which 32 were women and 137 men. The books will remain open at Horne's Drug store until Wednesday evening, and in order to be able to give people an equal opportunity in every ward Registrar L. H. Bowling will go to the Greenville Drug Co., and other places to be announced at a later date.

Considerable interest is centered around the election this year owing to the two candidates for mayor who have already entered against Mayor Clark, but up to this time it is evident things have not warmed up owing to the slowness in registering. So far only J. C. Lanier and W. L. Hall are entered in the majority contest, and while there is every indication they will be the ones pitted against present incumbent, it is thought quite probable another may appear on the horizon in the course of a few days.

Not much spirit has been exhibited in honors for aldermen, but if candidates fail to appear it will be the first time in many years that this has occurred. Right much interest is generally exhibited in the race for aldermen in each ward, but some how the elimination of the old time caucus has produced a state of uncertainty regarding the election which time alone will overcome. It is generally conceded, however, that registration will be considerably larger than in years because of the woman vote, and as a consequence it is probable the victor for mayor will win out by a narrower margin than in many past years.

It is roughly estimated that the total registration this year will number in the neighborhood of eleven hundred, of which it is believed 375 will be women. This estimate cannot be considered authentic, however, as it is probable the woman vote will be much heavier than anticipated, especially since the suffrage spirit has been gaining vantage ground rapidly since the national election.

Registrar Bowling is going to do everything possible to co-operate with the public, and it is hoped everyone will watch the newspapers and keep informed when he will be in their ward, that is, of course, if they haven't already registered previous to that time. It is absolutely imperative that an entirely new registration be held in accordance with recent legislation passed by the General Assembly, and the person that fails to register will find himself unable to support his candidate and defend his home as he should, that's all there is to it.

FOUR DEEDS TRANSFER FILED SINCE SATURDAY

The following deeds of transfer have been filed in the office of the register of deeds for registration since reports of Saturday afternoon: Joseph Rives to Davie Lancaster, consideration $40; L. B. COUNTY INSURANCE COMPANY PRESENTS SPLENDID REPORTS

Officers and Supervisors Elected in Session of Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Co., Saturday

The annual meeting of the Pitt county branch of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association was held in the court house in this city Saturday morning with a majority of stock represented either by person or proxy. The meeting proved probably one of the best in a number of years, and the report of Secretary J. L. Little showed that all losses had been paid regardless of the extreme financial shortage which had been in evidence throughout the United States, and especially this section, for the past several months.

In election of officers the following were selected: G. T. Tyson, president; L. W. Tucker, vice-president and James L. Little, secretary and treasurer. Some little time was consumed in the selection of supervisors for the ensuing year, the following being appointed: Woody McLawhorn, Ayden township; S. V. Joyner Beaver Dam township; J. T. Hodges, of Belvoir township; A. B. Congleton, of Carolina township; Jonas Dildy, Fountain township; L. A. Arnold, Chicod township; Marcellus Smith, Falkland township; A. J. Moyer, Farmville; H. C. Smith, Greenville township; J. T. Moore, Pactolus township; Canady Moore, Swift Creek township; Josephus Cox, Winterville township.

Agents elected are: R. Williams, Greenville; J. A. Lang, Greenville; Jesse Cannon Ayden township; S. M. Jones, Bethel township; L. A. Joyner, Farmville township.

In the report of Secretary Little it was shown that cash and Liberty bonds in hand amount to $10,179.89 and that all losses have been paid. The record is not altogether as good as that last but it shows business has been conducted in a conservative way regardless of unsettled conditions in the financial field.

COUNTERFEITERS NOW OPERATING IN NEW YORK SECTION

Raised Currency Said to be in Circulation on Enormous Scale in Many Large Cities

New York, April 11.—Counterfeit currency raised government notes have been discovered in circulation in increasing numbers recently by banks and business houses throughout the country, according to information compiled and made public by the Manufacturers Trust Company.

Its statement called attention to the sections of the penal code which prescribes a penalty for even the profession of counterfeit money. It must be surrendered on demand to the secret service, those failing to do so are subject to both fines and imprisonment. The secret service redeems raised bills held by innocent persons.

From Revolutionary times until the civil war, counterfeiting was a crime often punished as a capital offense, the statement said. During the war between the states issues of currency were so large and varied that counterfeiting flourished, and the Secret Service was organized to stamp out the crime.

Fake Liberty bonds and government checks have been found by federal agents during recent months along with counterfeit dollar notes and stamps the statement said.

ONLY TWO OFFENDERS BEFORE MAYOR TODAY

FAMILY LAWS TO BE CONSIDERED IN SECTIONS NATION

Legislation to Make Husband and Wife Joint Guardian of Children Receives Great Interest

Cleveland, O., April 11.—Twentieth Century laws make wife and husband joint and equal guardians of their children, but there are a few states that have not adopted such laws as yet, according to Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, in addressing the National League of Women voters here today on the subject Wife and Husband as Guardians.

Twentieth Century laws make wife and husband joint and equal guardians of their children, with equal powers concerning their custody, nature, earnings and service, said Mrs. McCulloch. In case of the death or capacity of either parent, these powers develop upon the survivor. Indiana and Vermont took advance steps during the present session of the Legislature. In several other states similar measures are pending.

Twenty five states and the District of Columbia recognize the parents equality, viz:

California, Colorado, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, and Wyoming.

There are eighteen other states that have, to a less degree, recognized the wife's power by making her guardian of her child after the death of her husband. This takes away the husband's ancient right to select the child's guardian by deed or will.

COUNTY OFFICERS CAPTURE BIG STILL SUNDAY EVENING

Eighty Gallon Copper Still and Four Barrels of Beer Taken by Sheriff Dudley

The illicit whiskey traffic of this section of the state was given another effective blow Sunday morning when Sheriff Dudley and Deputy Sheriff Corbett succeeded in capturing an eighty gallon copper still in the Whichard's station district in Carolina township. The still was of the usual type employed in the manufacture of contraband whiskey in this section of the country, being constructed of copper with all auxiliaries. No operators were taken with the outfit, but the officers succeeded in locating two barrels of beer in close proximity to the still.

Sheriff Dudley stated this morning that county officials will keep a ceaseless warfare against the lawless element in this county, and that every effort will especially be made in detection of surreptitious whiskey forces. The capture of the still Sunday makes about the eighth or tenth that has been taken by officers during the present month, and it is expected many more will be captured before the month comes to a close.

Heretofore the sale of contraband whiskey has been conducted in an almost open and fearless way in many localities, but for the past two or three months operation of county officials have been so extensive that blockaders are becoming more conservative and surreptitious in their movements. Even this, however, hasn't prevented Sheriff Dudley and his men from establishing possibly one of the best records of any set of officials in the state. They have been diligent in every sense of the word, and the future promises to see many other stills find their way to the confiscated cells of the county jail in this city.

Mr. E. B. Brown, of Ayden, made a short business trip to Greenville Sunday afternoon.

COMMUNITY SING HELD AT ARTHUR SUNDAY EVENING

People Largely Attend Event Despite Threatening Weather; Good Singing in Evidence

A Community Sing at Arthur on Saturday evening was a most interesting and inspiring occasion. In spite of threatening weather the people of the community from babies to grandfathers and grandmothers came out just for the purpose of getting together and spending an evening singing and having a good time. They do something at Arthur every week, and the school has become the meeting place for all kinds of get together meetings. Mrs. Lucas, the principal of the school is doing a great work in getting that community together for work and play, realizing that if they come together for an entertainment they will get together on more serious propositions.

Miss Muffy of the Training School had charge of the Community Sing, Miss Gorrell, a member of the Piano department of the Training School, took her violin along and rendered valuable assistance. There were two others, the Messrs. Joyner, in the community, who could make the fiddle ring and they added much to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss Muffy took with her thirteen young women from the Training School to lead the singing and to assist in any way they could, but it was not a concert and they were not allowed to monopolize the singing. The first song was America, sung as it should be sung, and all taking part in it, paying close attention to the words and making their meaning come out strongly in the singing.

ARIZONA BOY HAS BEST MENTALITY IN ENTIRE NATION

John Houston, 14, Bed-Ridden Delivers Oration Before Convention at Age of Three

Phoenix, Ariz., April 11.—John Houston, 14 years old, and bed-ridden, has been pronounced by high medical authorities as possessing the most remarkable mentality they have known in any child. At the age of three and seven months John delivered an address at the dedication exercises of the Coliseum in Dallas, Texas, reciting 51 verses of the war of 76. His oration was distinctly heard by the ten thousand persons in the audience. Aside from this, he has taken prominent parts in numerous public functions and gatherings, among these, national encampments of the Grand army of the Republic.

In the Grand army of the Republic John ranks as brigadier general, an honor bestowed by that organization. He also has a huge American flag presented to him by the Spanish-American war veterans.

In his mother's home he has installed a powerful wireless apparatus. He supervised all of this work. Some of its parts are of his own manufacture. A United States government license posted recognizes John as an amateur wireless telegrapher.

During his listening in periods young Houston has picked up messages or parts of the mfrom stations as far away as Nann, Germany and he daily hears Mexico City.

Only recently John's mother telephoned into the office of the Arizona Gazette inquiring if that paper had any report of a bad wreck near Pueblo, Col. A pulman had burned, she said, on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad with a heavy loss of life. The Associated Press leased wire on ya few minutes before had brought in the story almost as John had heard it through his set from a distance of approximately 1200 miles.

PHILATHEA UNION WILL HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION SOON

Regular Yearly Meeting of Organization to be Held in Henderson North Carolina

(By Henry Denn)

Henderson, April 11.—Plans are practically complete for the coming annual convention of the North Carolina Baraca-Philathea Union, which is to be held in this city four days, April 21-24. For more than two months a dozen committees have been at work on various plans of the arrangements for entertaining the convention, and all of these have virtually concluded the coming of the delegates for the big gathering.

The housing committee have secured homes for more than 500 visitors and this is expected to take care of those visitors who will be in the city overnight and during the whole convention. The visitors who are entertained in the homes will be charged for lodging and meals at the request of the officers of the state association, but only one dollar is to be charged for lodging and fifty cents for meals. This rate applies to every home in the city where delegates will be entertained.

While the program thus far has been completed, a tentative draft has been sent here by Mrs. Buckner, of Asheville, state secretary, who has worked out the program in conjunction with the local Henderson program committee. One of the real features of the convention will be an afternoon automobile ride from Henderson to Oxford, twelve miles west of here. Oxford has furnished some leaders for the Baraca Philathea movement in North Carolina, and the classes in the various churches are very active. They worked quickly to make demand upon Henderson, after the convention was voted last year to come to this city, for the opportunity to have the delegates one afternoon. All the visitors will be taken to Oxford on Friday afternoon, and while there will be served a luncheon, and will be taken for a tour of inspection to the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which is located at that place.

SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED SUNDAY IN BAPTIST CHURCH

Large Crowd Hears Dr. Vines in Three Sermons at Immanuel Baptist Church During Yesterday

The services at the Immanuel Baptist church yesterday were largely attended. Dr. Vines preached four times. At the Sunday school hour several professions were made and at the morning hour five joined the church, three of the number coming for baptism. The men's meeting Sunday in the afternoon was largely attended notwithstanding the rain. Instead of using the topic Royal Manhood, as advertised, Dr. Vines asked two questions. First, Why did you become a Christian? Second, What excuses do men advance for becoming Christians? The men responded in a generous way to these queries. Dr. Vines would discuss each answer separately. An invitation was extended to all present who would pledge themselves to lead a better life. The response was almost unanimous.

Last night Dr. Vines used as his theme the great subject of Repentance, using the Prodigal Son as the basis for his thoughts. According to many who have followed the sermons of this great preacher the effort last night was the best of the series. Tonight Dr. Vines preaches on the Unpardonable Sin. The public is invited to hear the message.

Messrs. D. S. Harper and J. F. Moore of Snow Hill, were in the city several hours Sunday.

MARKETING DRIVE TO BEGIN HERE IN EARNEST APRIL 18

R. W. Green, of State Extension Department, Here Today Outlining Plans for Campaign

R. W. Green, of Raleigh, editor of the division of publications of the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service was in Greenville this morning consulting with W. B. Pace, farm demonstration agent, in an effort to definitely outline plans for continuing the co-operative marketing campaign in this county. The campaign has been in progress for several days, but owing to lack of help from the department the committee has been unable to accomplish anything definite, with the exception of fully enlightening people as to the exact purpose of the proposed marketing association which is to be both state and nation wide.

Mr. Green was gratified with what had already been accomplished by Mr. Pace and his followers, and said there is no reason in the world why the campaign should not be made a great success. That it is the only definite way of establishing better conditions is unquestionable, he declared, and it should be the duty of every business man, banker and farmer to do his part in making the association one of the most powerful factors in American industry. Other countries and states have realized this much, and it is certain North Carolina with its large cotton and tobacco crops should be similarly affected.

The following itinerary of the campaign was worked out by the committee this morning: Arthur School House, Monday, April 18, 8 p. m.; Falkland-Fountain and Company Store, Tuesday, April 19, 8 p. m.; Fountain Town Hall, Wednesday, April 20, 8 p. m.; Bethel Town Hall, Thursday, April 21, 8 p. m.; Belvoir township, Crinner Branch school house, Friday, April 22, 8 p. m.; Pollard's School House, Friday, April 22, 8 p. m.; Flaxford School House, Friday, April 22, 8 p. m.; Clariss School House, Carolina Township: Stokes School House, Monday, April 25, 8 p. m.; Barnhill School House, Monday, April 25, 8 p. m.; Piney Grove School House Monday, April 25, 8 p. m.; Pactolus township: Pactolus School House, Tuesday, April 26, 8 p. m.; Mason's School House, Chicod Township. Grimesland School, Wednesday April 27, 8 p. m.; Simpson School, Wednesday, April 27, 8 p. m.; Black Jack, Wednesday, April 27, 8 p. m.; Shelmerdine School, April 27, 8 p. m.; Hollywood School House, Wednesday, April 27.

While many of the above places have already been visited, it is the purpose of the campaign committee to go this time prepared to sign up every planter possible. Contracts have already been printed and are to be offered to the farmer under what ever conditions are most suitable. The drive will be decisive, and it is hoped 50 percent of planters will be secured in order to make the association possible. This percent is necessary to the entire state and Pitt county ought to lead them all because of advantages its people have heretofore had.

OXFORD SINGING CLASS IN TO BE IN WINTERTVILLE ON TUESDAY EVENING

The Singing Class of the Oxford Orphanage will give a concert in Winterville in the Missionary Baptist church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This class appeared in the High school here Saturday evening and rendered one of the best programs ever rendered by the class. The people of Winterville and surrounding community certainly have something in store for them, and should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear these little children and at the same time help a worthy cause.

Messrs. R. Markman and C. C. Goaden, of Kinston were numbered among business visitors here today.

Monday Afternoon, April 11th

It is reported that a lively real estate boom has hit Chapel Hill. Other sections would like to report the same thing, but unfortunately aren't able to do so because of stringent financial conditions.

McDowell county commissioners plan to take over road building in that territory. That is a mighty progressive attitude and shows to what extent county officials may become interested.
Pitt county commissioners recently did likewise and it is probably better results are going to be realized.

It is hard to tell which people are going to be more strongly for schools or roads. Both are absolutely necessary in development to the state, and one cannot be neglected for the other.
About the only thing to be done is to vote bonds for both and let the next generation help pay for advantages prepared for it. North Carolina is doing its part by both problems and it is hardly probable any other Southern state is going to get far in the lead.

Chairman Cummings of the State Committee of Interstate Commerce has prepared for introduction at the next session of congress a resolution for exhaustive investigations of railway system of the country. This action no doubt will bring out many surprising things for public consideration, as Cummings has been rather active in railway controversies and might also introduce a resolution for an investigation of the bill which he sometime ago got through.

Bankers of Catawba county are going to finance road building in that section, so it is understood. This is one of the most progressive steps reported in the road building campaign which is being conducted in that state and shows to what extent people may become interested in their own personal welfare. That good roads directly benefit everyone is unquestionable. This has been proven beyond contradiction and deserves attention of the public as a whole.

Good roads are being discussed in every section of the United States at this time, and of course much interest is centered around the subject. Pitt county fortunately has ample appropriations for connecting its most important highways, and it is certain commerce will derive great benefit from it. The county for a long time has been handicapped because of an inadequate road system, but with the prospect of improvement much business ought to be attracted from other regions. Good roads are an essential to every community, and money spent for this purpose is not spent in vain.

The co-operative marketing campaign continues to receive more than ordinary interest in every part of the country and indications at the present time point to a successful outcome of the drive. Pitt county farmers have been favorably impressed by the proposition, and believe it is the only direct way of doing away with present deplorable price conditions. The proposition is, in fact, exactly what the farmers have been needing for years and bids fair of doing away with conditions which have been the most depressing in history of the county. The organization will virtually control both cotton and tobacco crops, therefore, it is plain better prices ought to result.

BETTER SCHOOLS NEEDED

Elizabeth City has certainly sounded the key note to progress in voting $400,000 in municipal bonds for improvement of its school system. This is the third or fourth city in North Carolina that has voted similar amounts for school improvements, therefore, it is very evident indeed that Greenville cannot afford to let opposition defeat the election for $200,000 for improvement of schools in this district to be conducted in June.

Education is absolutely essential to continued progress and industry, and people cannot afford to neglect it.
Greenville schools have been overcrowded for the past several months.
Students from other districts clamor for admission every session and cannot be admitted because of congested schoolrooms both in primary and high schools. The need is felt for an elementary school in order to relieve the pressure of advanced grades, and it is very necessary that such institutions be erected as soon as possible in order to meet changing conditions.

About $50,000 of the bond issue will be applied towards the payment of a floating indebtedness of $35,000 which was incurred in improvement of negro schools and erection of the high school building, the remainder to be expended in expansion of the general school system and erection of the elementary school building. It seems numbers of persons have been misinformed concerning the issue in that the aldermen were petitioned for a loan of $50,000 at the same time the election of the bond issue was granted. The first amount was merely asked for to meet an emergency and will be deducted from the bond issue of $200,000. There is no necessity for both amounts, as it is estimated the bond issue will fully meet demands in every way.

It is unquestionably certain there will be considerable opposition against the issuance of bonds at this time owing to the existing money shortage.
But when it is remembered other cities have gone ahead and decided the matter favorably it is very evident Greenville people cannot permit defeat. No one can dispute the need of increased educational facilities even though they should be slightly oppressed by taxation. It's a matter in which problems of the coming generation are fraught and deserves the earnest consideration of every intelligent man and women with great vision for the future of their children and neighbor's children.

TAX BURDENS AND STRIKES

In the threatening strike of coal miners, transport workmen and railway men, England today faces one of the most serious situations in many years or at least since ending of the war with Germany. The country has been in an unsettled state during the course of reconstruction, but at least had fair prospects of recovering from effects of the war much sooner than one would suppose. As it is now, however, the strike will delay the natural adjustment of economic conditions for many months, and next winter will witness a coal shortage more acute and serious than has yet been experienced in any other country. That is, of course if the present strike becomes an actuality and the government is unable to deal with the situation as it desires.
It is certainly a pity the world cannot become more peaceful after such a long and bloody struggle against German supremacy. It is long past the time for readjustment, and unless some definite action occurs practically every nation is going to find itself demoralized beyond recovery for years.
The United States has suffered little in comparison to foreign nations, but it has borne the brunt of financial burdens of the war and stands chances of collecting outstanding accounts.

France claims she cannot pay until Germany pays the indemnity, other countries are situated literally the same way, so it is perfectly natural to expect England is going to be in as bad position as any if threatened strikes go into effect. The situation is anything but pleasing in every sense of the word, and unless the strikers awake to the importance of continued industry nothing but eventual disaster is to be anticipated.

Now therefore, these are to command and require you forthwith to surrender yourself to the nearest officer, you being hereunder declared an outlaw by virtue of section 4540 of the Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina, and authority as hereby granted the Sheriff of Pitt county, or any other officer authorized, empowered and required to arrest you the said W. H. Harrington, Jr., and to take and use such power as necessary for going in search hand effectually apprehending you a fugitive from justice, and if you the said W. H.

Harrington, Jr., do not immediately surrender, any citizen of the state may capture, arrest and bring you to justice and in case of flight or resistance after being called on and warned to surrender, may slay you without accusation or impeachment of any crime.

Witness our hands this the 6th day of April, 1921.

LITTLE GIRL DUN DOWN AND HURT BY CAR TODAY

The eight year old daughter of Mr. Sli Jenkins was run down and painfully injured this morning at the intersection of Fifth and Evans Street by a Stephens automobile driven by a colored man by the name of Dennis Williams, of Grimesland. Fortunately Williams stopped his car in time to prevent the child's death, but not before the left leg had been painfully bruised, although no bones were dislocated.

There were two or three eye witnesses to the accident, but none saw the child when the car really struck her. It is generally presumed, however that Williams failed to see the child after starting his car following the usual stop at Five Points. It has not been ascertained who was in fault, but facts will be brought out at a preliminary hearing to be conducted by Mayor Clark Wednesday morning.

The driver expressed great uneasiness when the crowd began to congregate around him, and emphatically declared that he wouldn't have run over the child for nothing in the world. It is expected the accident is one of the usual occurring from the lack of traffic management by the police, as the crossing is very dangerous and deserves to be carefully trafficked every hour regardless of the law requiring every car to stop.

MRS. J. B. CRAWFORD DIES FOLLOWING SEVERE STROKE OF APOPLEXY

Mrs. J. B. Crawford, of Beaver Dam township passed away at the Smith and Skinner hospital in this city Saturday afternoon following a stroke of apoplexy. Mrs. Crawford was stricken while shopping in Munford's store, and died within an hour after being removed to the hospital for treatment.

The deceased was 48 years of age, the wife of J. B. Crawford, prosperous planter of the Beaver Dam territory. She is survived by besides her husband, two brothers, Messrs Bill and Dave Sutton of Pitt county.

Mrs. Crawford was active in the development of social and religious life of her community for many years connected with campaigns for the moral improvement of the county.

Funeral services were conducted at the family burying grounds yesterday afternoon.

NORFOLK SOUTHERN TRAIN TO BACK INTO CITY

(By H. L. Smith) Secretary Chamber of Commerce The Chamber of Commerce wishes to announce that arrangements have been made with the Norfolk Southern railroad to have Trains 17 and 18-1 and 2 back in Greenville instead of heading in asat present.

This improvement will be welcomed by the entire traveling public, especially by the women of our little city, who so frequently have to encounter baggage trucks, express wagons and other hinderances in either boarding or leaving the trains.

This change, which will be so generally welcomed, was made possible through the initiative of Dr. C. J. Ellen president of the Chamber of Commerce and the courtesy of Mr. Lake, General Manager of the Norfolk Southern Ry.

TWO FORD CARS STOLEN

On Sunday night two Ford cars were stolen from persons attending service in the Methodist church. One car belonged to D. B. Lanier and was left standing on the corner of Washington and Fifth Streets, the other belonged to an unknown party and was left standing directly in front of the church. The thieves certainly covered their tracks as no trace of either car had been found at noon today.

Prominent Farmer Near Staunton Says You can find Dreco in nearly every Home. All Have Confidence in it. Dreco Now Sells For the Old Price

Many homes now rely upon Dreco as the first aid in slight attacks of indigestion, dyspepsia and upset stomach and in some sections there's hardly a Medicine Closet without a bottle of this great remedy. Not only do they take Dreco in slight attacks but when real sickness comes they take a full treatment. Mr. A. T. Fitzgerald a prominent farmer on route No. 2 Staunton, Va., says.

You can hardly find anybody out this way but who keeps a bottle of Dreco in the house at all times. They have found out what a fine remedy it is for stomach disorder, acute indigestion as in the stomach, constipation, biliousness and as a general tonic, I have taken several bottles of Dreco myself and it was highly satisfactory. It ceased by stomach, regulated my bowels and cleared the bile from my liver. Dreco did me lots of good and you'll always find some in my house.

Dreco is being specially introduced in Greenville by Warren Drug Company, and sold by all druggists.

$50,000 TO BE USED BY SCHOOLS MEET PRESENT OBLIGATIONS

At the Board of Aldermen meeting on Thursday night there was a loan of $50,000 made to the Greenville graded schools. The impression has gone abroad somehow that this money was asked for in addition to the $200,000 bond issue to be voted on in June. Such is not the case. This town note of $50,000 was asked for by the schools in order that it might be able to meet its most pressing obligations at the present times. Certain individuals, and the banks are carrying school notes, and have been carrying them for years and years in some cases. And that there is a financial stringency on, it was first felt by the school board that of some of those notes could be met, it would help the community much, by putting that money in circulation, and at the same time relieve the banks of the burdens. Yesterday's paper carried the account of the fact that the floating indebtedness of the schools was about $70,000. Now then, this $50,000 loaned by the town is being used to pay off part of the floating indebtedness right now, leaving only $20,000 floating debt. Then if the bond issue is passed in June this town note of $50,000 will be required as well as the remainder of the floating debt leaving $130,000 to be used for the expansion of the school in the erection of new buildings, and equipping and repairing the present buildings. As was stated yesterday, $35,000 of this floating debt was incurred in the purchase of the Vines House, it being bought at a time when the very existence of the school system was threatened because the teachers could not find places to live. Greenville was the very first place of any note in the state to take this step, and the wisdom of the act has been amply justified by the results. Other towns are now doing what she did first. The remainder of the floating debt was incurred in the equipping and repairing of buildings, and the purchase of lands. Also school children whose parents live outside of the district will have their tuition met either from the parents themselves, or by an appropriation from the state department.

Music's Perfect Mirror

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

The New Edison is like the perfect mirror that reflects form and feature, true to every line and subtlety of coloring. It gives you an exact RE-CREATION of the singing or playing of the living artist or artists.

Mr. Edison spent 7 years of his time and 3 millions of his dollars to develop the perfect realism of the New Edison. He has proved this perfect realism by comparing the New Edison with living artists 5,000 times before more than 5 million people. The New Edison is positively the only phonograph which can sustain this test.

We have, for you, a proof on offset paper of the famous Franklin Booth Etching of Mr. Edison, as he looks today. Size 12 x 19 inches. Bears no advertising matter; suitable for framing. Just fill out the ballot,—and bring or mail it to us.
