Thousands See Memorial Exercises At Capital Today!

LINCOLN MEMORIAL IS DEDICATED AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL TODAY FOLLOWING SPLENDID EXERCISES

Woodrow Wilson Pays Splendid Tribute to President During the Civil War.

PRESIDENT HARDING ALSO PAYS GLOWING TRIBUTE TO HEROES

Graves of Former Soldiers Decorated During Activities at the Capital

Washington, May 30.—Dedication and presentation to the Government of the massive and impressive Lincoln Memorial took place today on the Potomac Mall in a setting unrivaled for grandeur.

Carved marble, girded with titan pillars, severely massive, the mighty memorial stands on the Mall, its own shadow reflected in the picturesque lagoon stretching out before it, and itself nursing the shadow of the Washington Monument that towers above the Mall at the farther end of the lagoon.

President Harding, in a speech that rang with patriotic fervor, accepted the Memorial in the name of the Government of the United States. Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court William Howard Taft, former President, delivered the speech of presentation, his voice trembling as he tendered deep tribute to the Martyr Chief.

HELEN YORKE TO APPEAR AT LOCAL COLLEGE MONDAY

Noted Artist to Give Alumnae Recital at College Monday, June 5th

"Among all the artists we cannot recall one with the witching charm of Helen Yorke."

"Everything is beautiful when Helen Yorke sings it," said one listener when asked which song she liked best. The variety of her program shows the same remarkable versatility that characterized Freda Hempel. Nothing could be more strongly contrasted than the classic purity and reserve of Handel's "Care Selve" sang with perfect repose and sweet seriousness, and the Neapolitan songs, all animation and warmth and graceful rhythm of voice and body.

TELLS OF FAMINE AMONG PEOPLE OF EASTERN EUROPE

R. G. Fitzgerald Speaks Before People Interest of Near East Relief

R. G. Fitzgerald, superintendent of Pitt county schools, spoke to a mass meeting of Grimesland people last night in behalf of the campaign now being waged in interest of the Near East Relief. He told of the suffering among thousands of people in Europe and said it is the duty of America to measure up to expectation in this moment of distress.

Pitt county has been asked to raise $3,960 for the Near East and unless this is done the people who are to receive these funds will die of starvation before the month of July is over. This amount is small for the great and prosperous county like Pitt to give, and it can be raised without anyone being the loser.

The campaign is being waged earnestly in every section of the county at the present time under direction of Rev. T. E. Beaman, and numbers of prominent citizens are helping. The seriousness of the situation in the famine, disease stricken section is realized by everyone, and every effort will be made to raise the entire quota.

BALL CLUB NAME MEETS APPROVAL OF CITY SPORTS

"The Blue Sox" Ought to be Able to Win With the Name, Many Contend

"Blue Sox," the name selected by the Greenville base ball club seems to have met with favorable consideration throughout the city, and the majority of people believe it will be a lucky cognomen for the boys to play under. All kinds of new names have been suggested since the contest closed, but the team has its name now and the season will open next Monday, so names will be forgotten for the real old game.

Kinston, named their club the "High waymen," probably having an idea of pulling some rough stuff during the season. Washington decided on the Pamlicoos, Farmville the Farmers, New Bern the Bears and Tarboro the Tar Babies. Each team should be able to make a favorable start this season with such good names, and if they fail they have no one to blame but themselves.

Greenville last season started out with the Boll Weevil tacked on to them, and had such hard luck that the public demanded that the name be changed. The next name tried out was the Eagles, and it brought slightly better success. In fact, some believe that if we had started out with the name we would have won the first half also. Baseball is curious stuff; however, and it's not so much in the name as in the players as experience has proven.

The straw lid is budding forth; it blossoms out—then goes to seed.

FARMVILLE PLANS TO PUT GOOD CLUB IN LEAGUE FIGHT

Manager Bill Holden Says He Has Good Lineup Ready for Opening Game

BILL ELLIS WILL ALSO PLAY WITH "FARMERS" CLUB

Stanley Johnson and Others Will Do the Mound Work for the "Farmers"

Although little has been said concerning the prospects of the Farmville Baseball club which will be known as the "Farmers," practice started in real earnest last Thursday and today a well organized and formidable team is being whipped into shape. Fans of the little town have been working quietly, in fact so much so that the rest of the league doesn't know what they have, but Manager Bill Holden, of Wake Forest has promised them a fast set of players and that's why they have watched developments so quietly and contentedly.

According to information made public today there will be twenty odd players in the "Farmers" camp by opening of the season and from this number it is hoped to pick a team that will be able to lick anything in the entire league. In fact, with such men as Bill Ellis, former second baseman of Greenville and Wake Forest, Stanley Johnson, formerly with New Bern, Tolson, Towe, Lusby, Gardin, Stamey, Gibson, Moulton, Cromwell, Whitaker and Person, the team should be capable of making a mighty good showing in the early part of the season.

Farmville will play Tarboro in the first game of the season, and expect to give their opponents quite a surprise. Ball players and fans have put their hearts behind the team and if they fail to start out winning, they will get a team that can.

Practically all clubs of the league are training for next Monday, the opening day, and fans are assured of seeing something well worth their time. Greenville and Washington, Kinston and New Bern and Tarboro and Farmville will test their first strength against one another, and the outcome will be watched with considerable interest.

Greatest interest, however, will be centered on Tarboro and Farmville, newly admitted clubs, and should they make a good showing the season will be far more exciting than last year when only four teams did the work.

ATLANTA BOY IS KILLED BY TRUCK

MEMORIAL DAY IS QUIETLY OBSERVED THROUGHOUT CITY

anks and Postoffice and Few Stores Close; No Celebrations of Any Kind

Memorial day was quietly observed in Greenville today by closing of the banks, the postoffice and several business houses. The majority of stores, remained open, and transacted usual business.

Memorial day has been set aside as a day for the entire nation to pay tribute to the men who gave their all that the world might be saved, and it is hoped the observance will be world wide as the people begin to realize the importance of recognizing the deeds of the world heroes.

The occasion is entirely different from Armistice day when the people paused to observe the cessation of firing on the battlefields of France. Memorial day is to honor the men who crossed the high seas to fight a battle in interest of Democracy.

The part which American soldiers played in winning the world war is known in every part of the world, and all Europe and part of Asia joins America in the observance of this great day. The valorous spirit which fortified the spirit of the American doughboy and caused him to fight a winning battle is being more carefully observed by all, and as years past the observance should become more pronounced.

It is hoped Greenville people will arrange a program in keeping with the occasion for next year, and not permit the boys who fought such a great fight to go without just honor.

TAFT SPEAKS AT MEMORIAL TODAY

(By International News.)
Washington, May 30.—Marking the restoration of brotherly love between the north and the south, the Lincoln monument was presented the American people this afternoon shortly after two o'clock by Chief Justice William Howard Taft, chairman of the commission in charge.

Taft said that here on the boundary between the two sections whose conflict made the passion triumph in his life it was peculiarly appropriate the monument should stand. Thousands of persons were present and saw President Harding receive the memorial.

SEVERAL PLAYERS IN BLUE SOX CAMP AT PRESENT TIME

Massey and Loach to Take Part in Game With Washington This Afternoon

THOMPSON AND SMITH TO ALSO PARTICIPATE IN GAME HERE TODAY

Number of Other Players Expected to Arrive in Time for Game Thursday

An interesting game of ball will be played at the fair grounds this afternoon Washington and Greenville leaguers, the proceeds to be devoted to the treatment of Edward Brown, young pitcher who had the misfortune to break his leg while sliding third base in a game at Washington last week.

The number of players continue to increase in the Greenville camp. Massey, first baseman, Loach and Thompson, pitchers and Smith outfielder, arrived yesterday and will take part in the game this afternoon against Washington. Loach is a pitcher of recognized ability, and was purchased from the Rocky Mount club of the Virginia league. Thompson is from Richmond and is also something out of the ordinary on the firing line.

Smith is known by many fans here, although he only played two or three games with Greenville last season. He suffered the misfortune of breaking his leg in the early part of the season and could not appear on the diamond again during the season. He is a great wielder of the willow and should be able to break up many a game this season.

Practically an entire team of league players will face the Pamlicoos this afternoon, and it is certain they will give them a merry chase for honors. The club has been in training since last Thursday, and as most of the players have been in training since March little trouble will be experienced in whipping the team in shape.

The game with Wendell Thursday is anticipated with much interest, as the local club will be in much better condition and fully capable of making a good showing. The opening of the season is awaited with pleasure and things will live up after the first ball is tossed next Monday.

INSURGENTS ATTACK TARIFF BILL AGAIN

Washington, May 30.—The old guard of the senate celebrated Memorial day by beginning a retreat before the Rush of insurgency against the high duties of the McCumber tariff bill in a test vote of the insurgents who won an overwhelming victory by forcing a number of thing on the free list against United States opposition. With the Republican split the two factions of tariff maker went into executive session to consider sweeping changes.

BLOUNT HARVEY TO ERECT BUILDING AT FOURTH AND EVANS

Contracts for Excavation to be Let Thursday, According to Announcement

According to an announcement made today the contract will be let Thursday for removal of dirt at the lot on the corner of Evans and Fourth street where the large building of the Blount Harvey Company is to be erected. The contract for the building itself was recently awarded to J. L. Cannon, local contractor, and construction work will begin within the next week or so, according to an announcement made this morning by Mr. Blount Harvey.

The building will cost approximately $50,000, will be two stories high, and one of the finest structures of its kind in eastern North Carolina. Construction of a new building to keep pace with their increasing business has been under consideration by the firm several months, and while they have been at work in the matter no definite announcement was made until contract for erection was recently let.

Every effort will be made to rush the building to completion, Mr. Blount stated this morning, and before the summer months are over considerable progress will be made in this direction. Excavation will be carried along rapidly and when this is completed everything will be in readiness for foundation work.

SEVENTH GRADE OF EVANS ST. SCHOOL MAKES FIRST GIFT

School Children Made First Donation to Near East Relief Drive Here

The Seventh Grade of the Evans Street school, Miss Alice Phelps, teacher, was the first to make a cash donation to the Near East Relief drive, according to an announcement made this morning by Rev. Thomas E. Beaman, county chairman of the campaign.

The campaign of the Near East Relief this week is not "just another drive" and is not looked upon as such by those who know of its work of saving the oldest Christian nation in the world from extinction and its people from the horrible death of starvation. This is the message sent to the good people of Greenville and Pitt county today by the Rev. Thomas E. Beaman, county chairman, who is in charge of raising the county's allotted quota of $3,960, the campaign for which started Sunday and will continue through next Sunday.

Before the campaign began the sum of $155 had been sent into the state office at Raleigh entirely unsolicited, which shows what a strong pull the plight of the Armenian children has on the heart-strings and purse strings of those who know of the Near East Relief and its work. This will not take care of quite three children.

Unless the entire quota is raised in this drive, Mr. Beaman, pointed out all children unprovided for must be turned out of the Near East Relief orphanages in the stricken Bible lands to starve after July first.

LOCAL TEACHERS GIVEN FAREWELL BY ROTARY CLUB

Reception Tendered City Teachers at Beautiful Rotary Home Last Night

SPLENDID PROGRAM RENDERED BY MANY MUSICIANS OF CLUB

Teachers Given Hearty Welcome by Speakers of the Club During Evening

Members of the Greenville Rotary club last night entertained teachers of city schools at a farewell reception, the occasion being one of the most enjoyable in many months. After the teachers arrived at the beautiful home on Rotary avenue they were entertained with a number of songs and merriment until supper was announced.

While the three courses of supper were being served short talks were made by members of the club, who assured the teachers they were glad to have them as guests of Rotary. The response was hearty and expressed a spirit that means much in the educational development of the city.

A quartette led by S. K. Phillips provided the first number of the musical program, after which a solo was rendered by Miss Florie Bell Morgan of the Greenville schools.

A mixed quartette scored a big hit, these selections proving above the average. Two violin solos were rendered by Miss Bass, after which Miss Morgan played selections on a guitar.

The program was one of the best presented by the club in many meetings, being unique in every sense of the word. It differed to no little extent from the general program, and showed the members had done everything possible to entertain the teachers.

RED ORMOND TO PILOT TRINITY CLUB NEXT YEAR

Greenville Second Baseman Elected Captain at Meeting of Students

"Red" Ormond, second baseman of the Trinity College baseball club, who was secured from New Bern by Greenville in exchange for the two Morris Boys, has been elected pilot of the Trinity club next season, according to information made public following elections at the college last week.

This information will be received with considerable interest here, as much interest has been centered around Ormond since he was turned over by the New Bern club. His record with the bat with Trinity won such recognition that he was not only found eligible for the captaincy, but was offered $500 to sign a contract with the St. Louis club of the National league.

Ormond is considered one of the most popular students at Trinity and his record the past two seasons has won the admiration of everyone.

That he will play a big part in Greenville's victories this season is not to be doubted in the slightest sense of the word. He is a great force with the bat and in the field, and his work on the second corner will be watched with interest.

DANCE TO BE HELD AT THE AMUZU PARK

Kinston has named her ball club the "Highwaymen." Hope they won't pull any rough stuff while in Greenville.

High levels in cotton prices are to be received with pleasure everywhere, as farmers have suffered to no little extent in past months as result of low prices. The situation has been anything but pleasant to the grower and the present strength of the market is nothing more than deserved.

The lumber industry is making considerable progress at the present time, and indications apparently point to a revival in the near future. This is one of the best pieces of news the public has had in sometime and no one appreciates it more than those who have watched the disruption of industry in the past. Conditions are changing in every branch of industry now, and it is perfectly natural that lumber should be affected.

It is said the fertilizer men of the nation are afraid of Henry Ford. No one doubts that, in fact the general run of people believe the Detroit manufacturer is capable of doing so much more than other members of the industry that they naturally are afraid. Mr. Ford is capable of doing great things at the Alabama plant and it is hoped the government will give his offer favorable consideration.

Comptroller Crissinger said that foreign debts to the United States prevent the nation from recovering from effects of the world war. That he is right goes without saying. Conditions might have been improved long ago if money conditions had been more favorable. But since the turning is difficult it is the duty of every business man to get busy and make every lick count.

Attorney General Daugherty expects to take charge of the war fraud case himself, hoping probably that he may succeed in covering up old trails. His is an important office and the charges are of such a nature that public confidence will be long in being restored. It's a pity a man can't go straight in life, and especially when he happens to be representing millions of people who repose in him their utmost confidence.

NOT SO BAD, AFTER ALL.

While traveling men report poor business in practically every line the general run of people seem to have money for everything necessary to their welfare and comfort.

The country isn't in such bad shape as some would have us believe. People are just coming to themselves and realizing the necessity of buying exactly what they need and saving the rest.

The wild and frantic buying that featured the days after the war is a thing of the past now, and hereafter the traveling man need not expect things to be as lively as they once were.

MEMORIAL DAY AGAIN.

Today has been set aside as Memorial day and people throughout the world will pause in their activities and pay tribute to the men who sacrificed their all that the principles of a great civilization might be saved.
The occasion is a great one and every American should join in and do his part in recognizing the spirit that caused thousands of our boys to give their lives for what they thought was right.

While the day will be celebrated with appropriate exercises in practically all other towns of the nation, Greenville has made very little preparation if any for observing the day.
Just why this should be cannot be said, unless they think the celebration in November is sufficient. While we have always endeavored to do honor to the boys on this occasion we should also join the rest of the world in celebrating Memorial day.
If others can observe both, then it is our duty to do so also.

It is hoped all organizations of the city and county will come together and outline an elaborate program for next year, and honor the boys of the world war even as the veterans of the Confederacy. It isn't asking too much to have two celebrations. One commemorating the signing of the armistice, the other to pay tribute to the various spirit of the men who paid the supreme sacrifice and those who came back to live with us and help recover from the great conflict.

All banks of the city saw fit to close, as did the postoffice, and if these institutions find it advisable to do so, then it is apparent all others should follow their example. The occasions, Armistice day and Memorial day, are separate and distinct albeit the spirit is the same. We observe both and unless we observe both we are not doing the right thing by the boys who crossed the high seas and conquered the greatest enemy of humanity.

Memorial day should be appropriately observed in Greenville as this is a day in which everyone is more or less interested. While preparations are not of an extensive nature in Greenville it is certain the majority of people will pay tribute to the bravery of the world war hero and in this way show him that his record has not been forgotten. Every town should plan some special celebration of the occasion, and it is hoped another year will not pass without better observance here.

Mr. Valve-In-Head

When Buick engineers designed the present line of Buick cars, the spring suspension received long and careful consideration. Buick engineers decided that the springs in automobiles should serve but one purpose—to make the car ride easier—although they could have saved considerable money by using the springs as a medium through which the power was conveyed to the rear axle.

The evident drawbacks to this method of drive were enough to justify Buick, always jealous of Buick reputation, in adopting a type of spring that would serve but one purpose, but do that one thing in the best possible way. The torsion rods keep the rear axle in line and the springs are used only to smooth out the rough roads.
Therefore, Buick spring suspension is the most successful and satisfactory of any on the market today.

Where Does the Farmer Come In?

After carefully studying for over a year the cooperative marketing plan, I fail to see where the farmer can be benefitted by the untried and over estimated tobacco pooling proposition. First he is supposed to meekly consent to give over all of his crops and rights of his honest toil for five years. To whom are you intrusting your only means of support? Are they people who have earned their support by the sweat of their brow or are they the kid glove fellows who have been supported by fees and your taxes? Reflect and I will accept your answer. Do you think that they are satisfied with what they have received of you and now intend forming an imaginary plan by which, with their kindness, will make it easy for you to repay yourself? Are they striving so hard for the farmers' interest? Examine your wisdom and see where you and your family come in. Remember we have had a war and people are looking for jobs. The world could no more control the aftermath of that great war than a fly could hold back a tornado. The Government warns you to watch your step and hold your hat for there are lots of fakers. For generations it has been said that eighty per cent of the people jumped for allusions, spent and wasted fortunes, while all tanks and tubes were only twenty per cent hoops and yet they held the water. So with the progress of the world, only a small per cent is endowed with care and wisdom to stand their ground and see the masses of God's creation is furnished bread and raiment. But I am proud to know that a large majority of the best thinking people in this county are not going to deliver their past and future earnings into the hands of any one, and depend on being fed by the worm as the young bird receives his food. About fifteen years ago North Carolina held seventeenth place as an agricultural state and I think it was forty fourth in education. In 1919 we took fourth place in agriculture, then in 1920 we experienced a calamity and we jumped a cog and caught seventh place, but the following year we took up the slack and bravely again held our position as fourth which we propose not to surrender.
No wonder we have aroused jealousy in California and caused them to send a lawyer even through the rich western states where it is nicer to use corn for fuel than to smut their hands with coal and all for a purpose, what—to retard us in our progress. In education we have for the past few years made greater strides and progress than any other state. Who paid more debts and exceeded all other states in paying to the War Finance Corporation last year? North Carolina holds the record. What system of marketing caused this achievement? Why should we worry, keep away your poison dope and we will again soon be a satisfied and happy people. I have from a boy tried various vocations, clerk, merchant, farmer, warehouseman, horse trader, saw milling, both city and county commissioner, and today own and am interested in over nine hundred acres of land that is in cultivation.
Something over one hundred and fifty of it is in tobacco and I have always been pleased with our method of selling tobacco, for I could plainly see that it is sold on it's merits—and today I don't own an interest in any warehouse. In my day I have seen several organizations that were boosted up to help the farmer, but in every case they were failures. Some officers in charge made money, and the farmer paid the bill.
Who can force prices beyond supply and demand?
How can expenses be reduced in marketing if we have to pay such high prices as to capture the men of influence and ability? Also are we going to pay the big prices for the warehouses in towns that have failed to stand the test as tobacco markets? It is better to be safe than sorry. I will be the governor of my household and I will not leave it to any one to take charge of my affairs. I shall not sign.

PRESENTS POEM FOUND

OF LATE ED. HARRIS

The Reflector this morning received a clipping from Mrs. Ed. Harris, which she found in the safe of her late husband. The paper upon which the poem is printed is worn and faded and indicates that it must have been used frequently during the life of the beloved owner.

The poem is of an inspiring nature and that the character who read it so often endeavored to live by it is very evident in recalling his deeds among his fellowmen. The poem is reproduced below:

In the current number of an English parish magazine are some beautiful verses, by a celebrated American poet, which well express the sentiments of the true Christian approaching his end:

When on my day of life the night is falling
And, in the winds from unsunn'd spaces blown,
I hear far voices out of darkness calling
My feet to paths unknown,

Thou Who hast made my home of life so pleasant,
Leave not its tenant when its walls decay;
O Love Divine, O Helper ever present
Be Thou my strength and stay!

I have but Thee, my Father! let Thy Spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold;
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.

Suffice it if—my good and ill unreckoned,
And both forgiv'n through The abounding grace
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place:

Some humble door among Thy many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where sin and striving,
Where flows for ever thro' heaven's green expansions
The river of Thy peace.

There, from the music round about me stealing,
I fain would learn the new and holy song,
And find at last beneath Thy trees of healing,
The life for which I long. Amen.

LEAGUE OF CITIES IS ORGANIZED IN FLORIDA

Tampa, Fla., May 30.—Great benefit to all of the cities of Florida, it is believed, will result from the organization here of the League of Municipalities, which was accomplished at a banquet held at El Pasaje Hotel following an all day open session at the City Hall and a launch ride, during which the 100 delegates present viewed the new municipal terminal improvements. Nineteen cities entered the organization as charter members but it is thought that all Florida cities will eventually be included in the organization. A constitution and by-laws were adopted.

The purpose of the League is mutual assistance among city officials in solving various municipal and civic questions which may arise from time to time. The idea of the organization originated with City Manager Hall, of Tampa, who formerly was city manager of Jackson, Mich.

CONCORD MAN IS SHOT TO DEATH BY FORMER FRIEND

May Spry Dies as Result of Injuries Received at Hands of States Gamble

Greensboro, May 29.—Max Spry, of Concord, was killed shortly before 6 o'clock this morning, a few feet in the rear of the Southern station, here by States Gamble, a former friend, of uncertain residence, lately of Fayetteville, here for the past three days. Gamble used a nine-shot automatic pistol, emptying four bullets into Spry's body, who died a few minutes after he was shot while being carried in an ambulance to a hospital.

Spry was registered at the Huffine Hotel. Immediately after the shooting Spry's wife rushed from the hotel, next to which the shooting was done, and threw herself upon her husband's prostrate body, convulsed by her sobbing, the blood welling from the dying man's wounds covering her clothes. She is prostrated tonight.

Gamble says he shot Spry because he thought Spry was going to do him harm. He said, after his arrest, that Spry had threatened to "get him." Spry had reproached him he stated, for "turning him up" having to serve a chain gang sentence. Gamble denied that he had "turned up" Spry. The two men had been quarrelling in the barber shop of the Huffine Hotel and were ordered out of the shop. According to Gamble, Spry was waiting for him outside and reached under his coat, he thought, for a pistol.

Dear Sir:

I would suggest that you go over your territory and appoint some negro preachers and school teachers to help you get the negroes to sign these contracts. I believe if you will get the influential ones and get them interested, they will do you lots of good among the colored people.

In contracting with them agree to pay them a dollar for each contract they get signed. I am sure by doing this you will find that it will increase your contracts among the negroes more than anything you can do.

This has been tried out in several instances and has proven very successful.

Yours very truly,

A. V. BOBBITT

The above is an exact copy of letter sent out by Mr. A. V. Bobbitt, who is Warehouse Supervisor for Eastern North Carolina, an official of the Co-Operative Tobacco Association. We do not believe that the tobacco farmers, either white or colored, will endorse such methods, involving even the sacred pulpit, in order to get the farmers to sign the five year pool. BOLL WEEVIL IS IN TERRITORY AGAIN

Farmers in Fayetteville Section Report Prevalence of the Cotton Pest

New Bern, May 30.—While the boll weevil hasn't given Craven county planters any trouble up to the present time, his arrival may be expected at any moment. Reports received from other sections of the state indicate that the pest is rapidly finding his way across the South Carolina border and may reach this section any time.

The Fayetteville district seems to have been among the first to discover the presence of the pest. A report received from there this week says considerable damage is expected this summer and that farmers are doing everything possible to decrease the ravage as much as possible. The Fayetteville report said in part:

"The boll weevil menace is developing early in the season, judging from the fact it has already appeared. Today members of the agricultural department were shown at least a dozen of the little pests taken by former Recorder H. L. Cook from a cotton farm in the lower part of Robeson county, near the South Carolina line."

Vote For Solomon M. Jones For Sheriff

To the Democratic Voters of Pitt County

We, the undersigned citizens of Bethel Township, do hereby present to the voters of Pitt County, S. M. Jones for Sheriff. True to the principles of our Democratic Party, we believe that this campaign for Sheriff should be based solely upon two issues. The character and ability of the candidate. Mr. Jones who was born of a long line of the purest Democrats embodies the very highest type of manhood—absolutely clean, straightforward and fearless in the performance of his duties. We have known him practically all his life and we can testify that his record is without blemish. In the State county, and the community he has always been a leader in every movement for good. Alert, energetic, conscientious in all things, he has made an excellent record. He was Representative of Pitt County for two years, County Commissioner for four years, and Mayor of Bethel for five years. The record shows for itself.

We are confident that nowhere in Pitt County could be found a candidate of stronger character a man of more marked ability. Pitt County Democracy must elect men of the Jones type for the important offices.

BANDIT HOLDS UP MEN IN BANK AND MAKES CASH HAUL

Robber Takes $1,500 From Bank of Summerfield and Makes His Escape

Greensboro, May 29.—The Bank of Summerfield, 12 miles from this city, was robbed this morning by a lone bandit, who held up the cashier, Howard Simpson, and a director, A. B. Hoskins, who happened to be in the bank at the time...

The man, so far unidentified, got between $1,500 and $1,800. He has not yet been captured. He walked into the bank shortly before 11 o'clock and when the cashier asked him what he wanted he came through a side door and shoved his pistol in the faces of the two men...

The whole village started in pursuit and the Guilford county sheriff, D. B. Stafford, and several deputies were called. By the time they got there farmers were pouring in from the countryside and the country was thoroughly searched, and all the roads watched...

That he was able to get away without a car puzzled the sleuths. The bank carries burglarly insurance and will not lose by reason of the theft.

The robbery was similar to that of a week ago when a young white man, Grady Ferguson, entered the bank of Randleman and holding up two bank employees took $500 in cash and disappeared. Ferguson is still at large and it is stated that the description of the Summerfield bank robber fits that of the Randleman robber.

Looks the Part

Ralph Bingham, to appear soon at the Chautauque, not only is funny, but he LOOKS the part. He describes himself as "looking like a bureau with the middle drawer pulled out."

He is one of those rare creatures who can laugh at his own jokes as heartily as the audience without detracting in the least from the desire of the audience to join in the uproar. Their keen enjoyment of the entire program is evident every minute, and the program is clean and wholesome throughout.

In addition to being a humorist of the first order, Bingham is an artist of no small ability on the piano and violin, both of which he plays with great expression and uses as allies to his powers of getting a laugh from the audience. In short, it seems that everything he sees has a humorous turn to it, and is possessed of possibilities to get at least a snicker. Then, when he interprets it in his particularly comical way, it becomes almost side-splitting.

His program is divided into several classes of humor which he enumerates as accumulative humor, which includes the pianologue and the monologue, character sketches and dialect humor.

In the first mentioned the name fitted the type, for he starts with practically nothing and rolls up a veritable snowball of jokes and puns that make laughter more frequent as he progresses.

Before the close of the program he makes a short, serious discourse to the audience on Americanism that is surprising in its eloquence after such spasms of laughter. He asks that everybody talk and think disarmament and peace and that we join the campaign to stamp out bolshevism and radicalism. He then calls his auditors out of their trance and gives them a clever dialect story for a parting shot and leaves the stage in a burst of applause.
