Many Other Handsome Prizes
Will Also be Given Away at End of the Campaign

DRIVE TO CONTINUE
ONE MONTH FROM DAY
OF GREAT OPENING

Coupon to be Given to Everyone Paying One Dollar in Purchase or on Account

"Pay Up and Trade Weeks" campaign will open in Greenville tomorrow morning and continue until three o'clock Friday, November 10th. This will be one of the greatest pay up and trade events in the history of Greenville. An Overland Touring car and other handsome gifts will be given away to those who hold the lucky numbers the last day of the campaign.

Coupons will be given in trade or on settlement of an account. For every dollar paid in to those taking part in the campaign a coupon will be given. Thousands of these little tickets have been printed and the next few days will see them distributed in every section of the country.

Greenville merchants are optimistic over the outcome of the trade event this year. The two previous ones have been of such great success that it is believed everyone will rally behind the movement in a liberal way. During last "Pay up and Trade Weeks" thousands of dollars passed from the hands of the public to the merchants, enabling them to settle up long standing accounts and to get right terms with manufacturers. It enabled them to ease over the period of depression in a way that benefited everyone and caused conditions to undergo a great improvement.

The campaign will start off with a rush tomorrow morning, and everyone trading to the amount of a dollar or paying back accounts should not fail to ask for coupons. Names of the merchants participating in the campaign are published in today's paper. Look them over and be sure to visit their stores while the greatest campaign in history is in progress.

UNIQUE SCHEME TO KEEP MINES GOING

(By International News.)

Adena, Ohio, Oct. 9.—The prize for unique methods of operating coal mines since the ending of the recent nationwide strike is claimed by the Adena section of the Eastern Ohio coal fields.

Mike Kusic, of Lansing, opened a mine during the strike. He had it ready to begin loading when settlement was effected. It is operated by electricity—as are practically all mines now the generator, owned by the Cadiz-Fairmont Coal Company, of which Kusic is head, is driven by a threshing machine engine, owned by another man.

The engine's owner has another traction engine in reserve which he can place in service by moving it alongside the mine on the hillside in two hours in the event of a breakdown of his novel generating combine.

The mine is situated between East Cadiz and Adena.

When they protested the clerk explained that the last prisoners had been released the week before and that the battie was cleaned up so that, if the visitors to the fair could not obtain rooms elsewhere, they might have a safe and comfortable sleeping place in jail.

ALLIES OPTIMISTIC OVER OUTCOME OF MUDANIA SESSION

All Present United Front and Are Confident Turks
Will Yield Soon

GREEKS DECIDE TO GIVE UP EASTERN
FRONT OF THRACE

Question of Number of Gen-darmes for Thrace Causes
Hitch in Conference

Mudania, Oct. 8.—The Allies presented a united front on their return to Mudania at 10 o'clock tonight, and the feeling of all three delegations was that Ismet Pasha would be forced to yield.

The delegations expressed optimism regarding the outcome, contending there was little doubt that the Turks would accept the Allied demands, leaving the question of the limitation of Turkish gendarmerie only as a possibility.

Again there has been a halt in the armistice negotiations at Mudania. Two of the three members of each of the Allied delegations returned to Constantinople this evening. General Harrington, Colonel Vitelli and Colonel Chatel remained at Mudania. An explanation of their return, one of the delegates.

We have returned to consult with the High Commissioners because the final Paris instructions have not yet reached Mudania. We shall return to Mudania tonight.

At today's conference the Turks refused to specify the number of gendarmes they desired to send to Thrace. The British delegation had instructions to insist on limitation of the number permitted.

In the course of the afternoon session General Harrington demanded of Ismet Pasha that the Turks withdraw their forces from the neutral zone near Ismid. Unless this was done, he declared, he might be obliged to make a demonstration on both flanks of the Turkish forces.

Immediate suspension of the ferry boats on the Bosphorus and the Sea of Marmora has been ordered by the British.

With reference to the non-arrival of instructions, it was stated that the British had received all their instructions from London, but the French and Italians were awaiting completion of certain necessary dispatches from their governments. The principal reason for tonight's conference with the High Commissioners was believed to be Ismet's refusal to limit the gendarmerie.

THIS CITY FORGES TO THE FRONT IN MILK CAMPAIGN

Considerable Progress Made by Interest in Women Within Last Few Weeks

It has long been the proud boast of Greenville that she always forges ahead in any piece of work that advances and promotes the welfare of the many.

Recently in a very quiet but steady manner a few mothers interested in the improvement of the mind and physical welfare of the children started a milk campaign at the Evans street school. Their plan is to furnish to every child in school at least one glass of milk, with bread and butter sandwich or crackers each day.

Statistics show that many children at this critical growing age are pitifully undernourished. This condition is not confined only to the poorer classes who are unable to buy sufficient nourishing food but it applies as well to the children of the very best families where often the children in their haste to get off to school do not take time to eat the food already well-prepared and placed before them. They go into the school room morning a sick headache. With mind dull and manner unsweetened.

With these facts in view these forward-looking women are asking that those who are able come with their nickles and buy their glass of milk and thus build up their health and efficiency, and to those whom they find unable to buy they expect to furnish them without charge.

In order to provide free milk for those whom investigation proves unable to buy, they are appealing to the fair-minded, children-loving public to help. Today there will be placed in each drug store, in the Cafeteria and other public places a milk bottle into which these women, who are so courageously helping humanity upward are asking that you "drop your loose change."

BUSINESS SHOWS GREAT STRENGTH IN UNITED STATES

Yielding of Turkish Crisis to Negotiation Reflected in Sentiment Today

INDUSTRY STILL SHOWS RECOVERY
IN ALL SECTIONS

Car Loadings for the Past Week
Show General Increase on All Roads

New York, Oct. 8.—With the Turkish crisis apparently yielding to the processes of negotiation, business sentiment showed a distinct recovery during the past week. A harp rally in security price was a factor, but a greater disposition existed to look at the favorable aspects of the domestic situation.

Practically all the available signs point to a further improvement in the volume of industrial production. Car loadings for the week ending September 23 total 923,000 cars, a new high record for the year. The new figures are incidentally, almost exactly 100,000 greater than that of the corresponding week a year ago.

Bituminous coal production continued to hold close to the 10,000,000 tons a week level. The amount being mined seems to be reasonably adequate for the present rate of industrial activity, since the steel industry reports that coal shortage is no longer a limiting factor and since the price of soft coal has shown a tendency to recede.

In the steel trade, the loss in blast furnace capacity occasioned by the August fuel shortage has been made good. Pig iron prices, as well as those of coal, are easier.

The grain trade is meeting with some difficulty in moving its products both from the farms and to the seaboard. Cargoes of grain are reported to be accumulating at eastern lake ports. Prices for grain continue, however, to hold all the better levels attained during the recent "war scare."

Cotton prices also have advanced well, partly in response to the recent bullish government crop report and partly because of trade buying, which seems to have been delayed pending a clearing up of the Turkish crisis.

It is clear that the anticipated car shortage has arrived. It may be stated that industry at present is going ahead about as rapidly as the country's transportation facilities will permit.

WELL KNOWN MAN PASSES AWAY AFTER EXTENDED ILLNESS

A. A. Forbes Will be Buried at Family Burying Ground
At Three O'clock Today

Mr. A. A. Forbes, aged 81, well known citizen of Pitt county, died at his home four miles from Greenville yesterday morning. Mr. Forbes had been in ill health several years but was not confined to bed until about ten days ago when he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home this afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. V. P. Scoville, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church. Interment will follow in the family burying ground. Final rites being conducted by Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. and A. M., of which the deceased was one of the oldest members.

Mr. Forbes was one of the most prominent citizens of Pitt county, having spent his entire life here. He was a member of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, which he attended regularly when able to do so. His entire life was spent on his farm near Greenville where he used every influence for the agricultural development of his section. He was a talented musician and won considerable recognition in his younger days.

He was one of the staunchest members of the Masonic lodge, and also one of the pioneers who blazed the way for the great influence which the fraternity now enjoys in this part of the state.

The deceased is survived by three sons, Messrs. Alf, Gus and Ernest Forbes and four daughters, Mrs. J. S. Barr, of Winston, Mrs. Frank Weaver, of Kinston, Mrs. O. L. Joyner and Mrs. L. M. Savage of Greenville.

REV. L. W. SMITH CONDUCTS SERVICE AT LOCAL COLLEGE

Pastor of Memorial Baptist Church Delivered Splendid
Talk to Young Women

Rev. Leland W. Smith conducted Y. W. C. A. services at the Teachers College Sunday, and delivered a most interesting talk to the young women.

Mr. Smith used as his text a part of the eighth verse taken from the sixth chapter of Isaiah which is, "Here am I; send me." He developed this by talking about the preparation of our hearts for Christian service. Preparation in spiritual things holds true as well as in any occupation. He stated that preparation of heart before undertaking to do Christian work was one of the great needs of today.

The story of Isaiah's preparation was divided into these topics. First, he got a vision of God. Mr. Smith gave this as one of the reasons why so many people today have doubts and fears. Next, Isaiah saw God in his purity and holiness. Many people today have lost sense of sin and are not fit to service him because they do not see him, and last, he saw God's power as judge of all the earth.

Following this Mr. Smith told how we could get a new vision of God. First we can get a vision of God through His word as he reveals himself to us through his word. Next, we can get a vision through worship if we open our hearts to Him, and last we can get a vision through His works. The greatest miracle of today is the changing of man's soul.

A beautiful violin selection was rendered by Miss Gorrell, one of the music teachers.

AYDEN RED CROSS DISCUSSES PLANS FOR FUTURE WORK

Committees Outlined Definite
Plans at Session Last Friday Afternoon

SWEEPING JUBILEE WILL BE STAGED IN CITY AT EARLY DATE

Splendid Programs Planned for the Holiday Season;
Other Things Planned

The Executive Committee of the Ayden Red Cross Branch had a splendid meeting Friday afternoon in the First National Bank Directors room at three o'clock. Each committee had their separate program outlined, Mrs. Lloyd Turnage, Mrs. John Andrews, Mrs. K. A. Pittman.

W. M. McKinney reported the work outlined and planned by the civic committee. The refuse dumps now used by Ayden citizens had to be abandoned and the committee with Dr. W. M. McKinney as chairman will make arrangements with the town board to have another dump arranged for. After which they will stage the sweeping jubilee which will be the means of cleaning the entire town. The anti-rat campaign will very probably be waged at the same time. The committee is going to write the Atlantic Coast Line to see if they will not assist in beautifying plots around station. The committee also hopes to make more money this winter to add towards the station fund which they expect to place as a memorial at the corner of Lee and Third streets.

The community chairman, Rev. K. A. Pittman, chairman reported that they were going to start on their Christmas Cantata very soon. That definite plans for their Ayden-Pitt County Community Sing would be completed at their next meeting.

Mrs. Helen Turnage, chairman, Mrs. Nita Brooks and Mrs. C. H. Moore gave a splendid report of the Junior program as outlined. The Junior membership drive will begin Oct. 16th and they expect a large enrollment from their two schools this year. The Graded School is to have first aid kits in every room. These are to be made and furnished by the children. On Halloween all the Juniors are going to have a big party in the warehouse, and plans are being formulated for the little Juniors to give Thanksgiving first aid baskets to any poor in Ayden. While the High School Juniors will take a bus to the county home.

Mrs. Nita Brooks reported that Mr. Sawyer, Supt. of schools was very anxious to have first aid taught in High School and the instruction will be given by Prof. Long and the demonstrations taught by Dr. G. G. Dixon. Dr. Dixon also stated that he would be glad to keep a large first aid kit for the High School supplied.

Plans are also being outlined for community Christmas tree under supervision of the Juniors. Dr. Dixon asked that the Red Cross should give all publicity possible to the first public health lecture to be held under the auspices of the Pitt County Medical Society in High School auditorium Tuesday evening. Mrs. John Andrews has charge of the publicity committee and will do every thing possible to see that every one knows of the first lecture.

Meeting adjourned to meet again the first Friday in November.

THE PROPOSED CURB MARKET.

The proposal of the Kiwanis club to establish a curb market in Greenville should meet with hearty approval and co-operation on every side, as it is something the town has needed for many a year.

Other cities have given it an experiment and found it a very satisfactory way of distributing farm products to the housewives and there is every reason to believe Greenville will find it the same way. By the hearty co-operation of all organizations the market could be established and operated to the entire satisfaction of all parties concerned, but it is very necessary that everyone co-operate.

Kinston, Gastonia and Durham have found this plan of distribution far more satisfactory than the usual way, and its citizens are unanimous in declaring it a success. If these progressive cities find it so advantageous it is certain Greenville would find it the same way.

The Kiwanis club has seen the need of providing the housewife with a more direct way of purchasing her needs and when the market is established its members will receive the thanks of the entire community.

British and French are reported to have reached an agreement in the Near East issue, and from all indications the situation will show considerable improvement in the near future. The public will be delighted to hear that peace has been restored. The situation has been so serious that practically every branch of industry has been affected. It seems strange that it should have the slightest effect on American industry, but it is so and for that reason we will be glad when the issue is concluded. No one knows what to expect of the foreign countries. If they continue to reciprocate will be impaired so seriously that all foreign nations will find it impossible to meet obligations. Right here is where America is concerned. If they should be able to carry on regular trade and pay for what they buy we will be in position to observe them. On the other hand, if finances are not what they should be demand for our products will fall off at an alarming rate. The British and French were very foolish to permit anything of the kind to interrupt relations existing between them. They have lost considerably more than anyone has any idea of and if things don't improve they will lose still more.

The town law prohibiting children from swinging to automobiles while riding bicycles or on skates should be more rigidly enforced. Unless something is done to restrict the practice the toll of life will be very great in the future. We have watched numbers of boys hang on to speeding automobiles while they coasted along in the rear or on the side of the car. Suppose the car should come to a sudden halt. What would happen? The bicycle rider or the skater would lose his balance and either be thrown forcibly to pavement thrown away from the car or under the wheels to his death or serious injury. Something must be done to remedy this situation. It is too serious to continue and if something isn't done the practice will increase. The children fail to realize the danger involved. Child like they only see the ride without exertion on their part, and do not consider the probability of an accident which might result in serious injury or death. If parents decline to warn their children of the danger, then it is the duty of officials to more fully enforce such legislation and we hope this will be soon.

GIANTS WIN SUNDAY'S GAME AND THEREBY THE WORLD'S SERIES
The New York Giants won the baseball crown of the world by taking yesterday's game from the Yankees by the score of 5 to 3. Art Nehf pitched the final game for the Giants and Bullet Joe Bush performed for the Yankees. The Yankees gained the lead three times during the game but with a vicious rush the Giants always went them one better. There were five games played during the series the Giants winning four and tying one. The Yankees failed to annex a single victory, going down in the most inglorious defeat in baseball history.

TOM BERRY SPENDS SHORT WHILE IN CITY
Tom Berry, one of the best known race horse men in the United States, was in Greenville a short time today en route to Kinston where he will take part in races at the Kinston fair. Mr. Berry attended the Pitt county fair last year and will be here again this year. He was in Rocky Mount last week where he succeeded in lowering the state half mile track record with Betina, horse owned by a Goldsboro man. Mr. Berry generally drives horses owned by W. H. Dail of Greenville, and has established an enviable record on a number of tracks.

S. COPLON & SONS BEGIN ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN IN THE REFLECTOR TODAY
S. Coplon & Sons, of New Bern, are staunch believers in advertising and recently contracted for considerable space in The Reflector. Their first advertisement appears on the back page of this paper today, and explains what this great enterprise intends to do for the shopping public in the future.
Coplon's is the largest department store in Eastern North Carolina. They have established an enviable reputation through splendid service rendered the public, and the advertising campaign beginning today will be of interest to hundreds of patrons throughout the state.
The firm has been in operation 27 years at New Bern and this fact alone is sufficient to justify anyone in doing business with them on the largest scale.
The advertisements will follow from day to day and those who read them may be assured of many splendid bargain offers.

A Big Day in Rotary.

The Fourth Inter-City meet of the Rotary clubs of Eastern Carolina will be held in Greenville, N. C., Tuesday, Oct. 24th, 1922. The following thirteen clubs with an approximate membership of 600 will be represented here on that day, viz: Elizabeth City, Washington Wilmington, New Bern, Goldsboro, Fayetteville, Greenville, Farmville, Kinston, Wilson, Raleigh, Durham and Henderson.

Every effort is being made by local Rotarians to have the largest representation and the most successful meet of its kind ever staged. Personal invitation are being sent to every member of Rotary in Eastern Carolina. The program promises to be worthy of the occasion.

RUNAWAY MULES TEAR DOWN SANITARY FOUNTAIN TODAY

The sanitary drinking fountain at the corner of Third and Evans street was torn from its foundation shortly before the noon hour today by two runaway mules hitched to a wagon. The mules made a sharp turn into Evans street from Third, dashed towards the sidewalk and struck the fountain just in time to save the windows of The Reflector office and Horne Drug Company. The fountain checked their speed to such extent the animals were brought to a sudden halt squarely in front of a telephone pole which they would also have collided with had they not stopped when they did.

HORSES ARE CAUGHT IN QUICKSAND! SAVED!

The script called for horses to flounder in dangerous quicksand—and the quicksands were most unexpectedly there!
There's a chase scene in "North of the Rio Grande," Jack Holt and Bebe Daniels Paramount picture which will be shown at White's Theatre next Tuesday where Mr. Holt escapes across a stream when the men following him are supposed to be caught by the treacherous sands.
And the creek picked proved to have a quicksand bottom. The cowpunchers found they really had to get down and work in order to get out of the stuff. Therefore it's not a feigned, but a real life struggle the camera has caught.
"North of the Rio Grande" was directed by Rollin Sturgeon.

A $22,000 WRAP IS WORN BY SEENAOWEN IN "BACK PAY"

A Chinchilla wrap that cost $22,000 issued in "Back Pay" a Paramount picture, created by Cosmopolitan Production that will be presented at the White's theatre Thursday. The wrap is worn by Seena Owen, who has the leading role in the picture, having been made especially for the production by a New York furrier.

Frank Borzage, who directed "Back Pay", was much concerned over the safety of the garment and had it locked up in a safety deposit vault each night after work was completed for the day.

Playing opposite Miss Owen are Matt Moore, J. Barney Sherry, Ethel Duray and Charles Craig. "Back Pay" tells the story of a country girl who tires of life in a small town and goes to New York where she forsakes the straight and narrow path. Eventually, after a long draught at the cup of pleasure, she finds true repose and contentment in the simple things.

Wishing you had done a thing isn't as good as being glad you did it. If you have your brakes and steering gear adjusted you are looking trouble straight in the eye and telling it to get out of the road. The best way for an automobilist to save money is to spend a little of it in this shop.
