PAY UP AND TRADE WEEKS CAMPAIGN GETS OFF TO GOODSTART HERE TODAY DESPITE INCESSANT DOWNPOUR OF RAIN

Hundreds of Trade Receipts Given Out by Merchants Before Noon Hour Today

MUCH INTEREST IS CENTERED AROUND THE OVERLAND CAR

Many Other Valuable Prizes Will be Given Away When Campaign Comes to End

The Pay Up and Trade Weeks campaign got away to a good start here this morning despite an incessant downpour of rain and merchants at the noon hour reported the issuance of a considerable number of receipts given in exchange for each dollar spent in trade or paid on account.

Mrs. Alex V.ola, secretary of the Merchants association, was busy this morning distributing receipts among the various firms of the city, and long before the noon hour numbers had been distributed among the people in and around Greenville. Thousands of these little receipts are just off the press and it is believed practically every one will be distributed throughout the county by the 10th of November when the campaign comes to a close.

The public will be as much interested in the campaign this year as last when a Ford automobile and several valuable prizes were given away to those holding the luck numbers. An Overland automobile and other prizes will be given away this year and it is believed the contest will be as keen as in any recent years when hundreds were attracted to the city the last day.

It has been found that Pay Up and Trade Weeks prove a great stimulus to the trading public and many are inclined to pay up long standing accounts and receive in return as many chances to win the prize as dollars paid in to the merchants. No coupon can be given with a purchase of less than a dollar and no one has the right to expect the merchant to do otherwise.

Advertising matter concerning progress of the campaign will be issued from time to time and everyone will be kept informed of progress made. The automobile to be given away is at the present time on display in the business section of the city and those desiring to see it may do so by asking any of the merchants about it.

FRENCH SAY DAUGHERTY RULING VIOLATES THE FREEDOM OF THE SEAS

Paris, Oct. 10—French merchant marine officials today appealed to Premier Poincare to make protests to the United States against Daugherty's ruling. They charge that the ruling violates freedom of the seas and interferes with the French law allowing wine to be served sailors with their meals.

HALF MILLION REFUGEES DEPEND UPON AMERICANS FOR IMMEDIATE RELIEF

Washington, Oct. 10—More than a half million refugees of the Near East are dependent upon American people for aid, according to figures presented at the annual Red Cross convention. To meet the immediate needs of Athens it will be necessary to authorize the issuance of several thousand dollars.

MANY SHOT AND KILLED IN RIOTING AT DUBLIN LAST NIGHT AND TODAY

Dublin, Oct. 10—Many persons were shot, some killed and some wounded in rioting and ambush attacks today and last night in an attempt to liberate a hundred or more irregulars interned in the Mount Joy prison. Heavy firing occurred throughout the city all through the night and the most intense excitement prevailed. Officials refused to say how many convicts escaped.

DR. SHAMHART TO NAME COMMITTEES IN ARMY CAMPAIGN

Will Ask Pitt County People To Assist in Raising Funds for Salvation Army

ANNUAL APPEAL IS CONSIDERED URGENT BY ARMY FOLLOWERS

Officers Are Able to Plan Work With Funds in Hand and Not Troubled by Future

The drive system, more properly termed the annual appeal for funds, has not been adopted as generally believed, because it is an easy way of raising money, but because it has proven to be the most economical and efficient method.

The Salvation Army was financed formerly by passing the tambourine day in and day out, by local officers. The results was that over one half of the time of the officers, who are trained workers was consumed in asking for money. Then, too, various organizations, adopted uniforms similar to our own and solicited in the name of some "army." The general public believing it was giving to the Salvation Army annually gave thousands of dollars to "armies" whose only interest in the public was how much money they could get out of it. To stop this fraudulent collection of money, we instituted the one annual campaign. Other reasons which have led us to use this method are:

"First: It is good business, when our funds are gathered and placed in the treasury at a special time of the year, we can outline our work a year in advance, and thus be far more efficient and economical. Formerly our income was obtained from day to day. Now, we run on the budget system. This saves the people of this state thousands of dollars and enables us to reach thousands of people who were not reached before."

"Second: It makes it possible for Salvation Army workers to do relief work when needed—now Salvation Army officers are free to administer relief to the poor and comfort to the downhearted at all times. Formerly, over one-half of their time was expended in soliciting funds to support the work. It is foolish for us to train officers in the science of humanity and then have them spend half their time soliciting funds.

"Third: It is most economical, the new method requires less expense proportionately to the amount received. This has been proved by us time and time again.

"Fourth: It makes accounting easier—the public knows the exact amount we receive and consequently when we publish a balance sheet as we do annually, it is self-evident that your money is being expended as promised.

The Rev. W. P. Shamhart, is campaign chairman for Greenville and Pitt county, at an early date he will announce the names of the executive committee who will help him in presenting this appeal to the people of Greenville and Pitt county.

AMERICAN INDUSTRY IS ON THE UP GRADE

Washington, Oct. 10—American industry and marketing is up the best production record since the period of depression two years ago. This was shown in a new business survey made by the commerce department. Increased output is general in all branches of industry the report stated. Factory employment is greater. Decline of prices for agricultural products is believed to be only temporary. An actual shortage of labor is evident in some lines of industry.

SUPREME COURT CLEARS DOCKET OF ALL MOTIONS

Rehearings Are Denied in Several Cases of Considerable Importance

NORTH CAROLINA RAIL TAX CASE IS SET FOR HEARING

Court Denied Application for Rehearing of Champion Fibre Company

Washington, Oct. 9.—Although no opinions were delivered by the Supreme court today, it cleared its docket of all motions for rehearing which had accumulated during the summer recess, and advanced for argument the Pennsylvania anthracite and the Minnesota iron tax, the New York Telephone and a number of other important cases, besides issuing orders in other cases.

By denying rehearings in the case decided during the closing days last term, the court made final its decisions in such important litigation as the Southern Pacific, the Colorado Coal, the Emergency Fleet Corporation, baseball and the Laramie River irrigation project cases.

The famous Coronado case resulted in the Supreme Court declaring that labor unions were suable, and were liable to prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust laws. In applying the evidence in the case, however, the supreme court, reversed the lower federal courts and held that the United Mine Workers of America, District Number 21, the labor leaders and others involved in the strike which resulted in the destruction of property were not liable for treble damages under the Sherman law because not actuated by an intent to restrain or monopolize interstate commerce.

After the decision of the court last June ordering the Southern Pacific Company to divest itself from ownership or control over the Central Pacific Railroad, a number of petitions were presented to congress from commercial and other organizations discussing the probable effect of the decision.

The government was particularly urgent for a rehearing in the Emergency Fleet Corporation cases—in which the court held that the corporation as a government agency was suable as any other corporation. The refusal of the court to reopen, the cases will result, the government asserted, in a flood of suits being instituted against the corporation.

POULTRY RAISERS TO HOLD MEETING IN CITY THURSDAY

Interesting Session is Planned at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms

The monthly meeting of the Pitt County Poultry Association, which was scheduled for last Thursday afternoon, was postponed until Thursday afternoon, October 12th. Then meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce Rooms at 3 o'clock.

Dr. J. Morrill, president of the association, desires the presence of every member or those who would like to become members.

Poultry is an industry that holds promise for the one who is willing to give the time and thought necessary. It can become very easily one of the money crops of Pitt county.

AMERICANS DO RELIEF WORK AT GREEK CAPITAL

Athens, Oct. 9.—A special American Relief commission at Athens, organized by Jefferson Caffery, the American charge, acting unofficially and personally, is distributing medicines and clothing to the refugees. This has been made possible by a donation of $70,000 from the American Red Cross.

FIRST WOMAN TO BE SENT TO THE SENATE

Mrs. W. H. Felton, for many years in politics in Georgia, where she is known as "The Grand Old Lady" has the distinction of being the first woman sent to the United States Senate, having been appointed by Governor Hardwick to fill the unexpired term of Thomas Watson. She will probably sit in the Senate only one day, her successor, to be elected in November, refraining from being sworn in until she has had that honor.

CIRCUS DESERTERS DRAW SENTENCES ON THE COUNTY ROADS

Several Other Road Sentences Feature Regular Session of County Court

While a comparatively heavy docket faced Judge Louis G. Cooper in yesterday's session of police court a few important issues were included among the number. The minor issues were concluded with slight fines or payment of cost and the docket was cleared rapidly despite the length of time required in hearing the more important cases.

John Davis and John Strickland, deserters of the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus charged with stealing a bicycle were sentenced to work on the county roads, Davis drawing six months and Strickland four. The men, it is said, stole the bicycle and were preparing to follow the show to Kinston when authorities nabbed them. They were given preliminary hearing before Mayor D. M. Clark and bound over to the higher court.

Heber Sutton, white man of Greenville charged with selling whiskey, received suspended judgment for a period of two years on payment of cost. He was required to show good behavior during the period of probation.

John Joyner, colored, arrested recently on a charge of larceny, was sentenced to four months service with the county road forces.

Tom Simms was sentenced to six months on the county roads on a charge of larceny.

TURKS FIND ALLIES ARE UNITED AGAINST THEM

Mudania, Oct. 9—There was distinctly less confidence in the Kemal camp here today when it became thoroughly known that there is now complete unanimity among the Allies. The plans for dividing the Allies having failed, it was realized that Kemal Pasha had the world arrayed against him.

The Greek delegates also came in line with the three Allied powers Colonel Mazarakis informing General Harrington that Greece would "conform to whatever measures the Allied generals recommend." He also assured the commander-in-chief that in case of necessity, "the whole Greek army in Thrace will rally to the support of Great Britain."

MUDANIA CONFAB ENDS TO PERMIT TURKS TO CONFER

Nationalist Assembly at Angora Will Pass on Demands Before Work is Resumed

ALLIED DELEGATES RETURN TO CAPITAL CITY AGAIN TODAY

British Cabinet at London Still Awaiting Developments From the Conference

Mudania, Oct. 9.—Lamet Pasha will lay the Allied demands before the neutral zones, limitation of the time the conference stands adjourned.

Lieut. General Harrington and General Charpy and Mombelli have returned to Constantinople to await the reply of the Angora government.

The conference met at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the Allies presented their three demands—withdrawal of the Turkish troops from the neutral zones, limitation of the Turkish gendarmerie in Thrace and non-occupation of Thrace by the Turks until after signature of the peace treaty. There was long discussion on the question of evacuation and the various phases of the Thracian problem.

When it became evident that Lamet Pasha did not have the necessary power to decide definitely on these demands, the Allied representatives made preparations for their departure.

RED CROSS WILL HELP REFUGEES AROUND SMYRNA

All Funds in Organization's Hands Will Go to Suffering People

Washington, Oct. 9.—The American Red Cross, in annual convention here, took active steps tonight for the relief of refugees in the Near East. Acting upon authorization by the organization's executive committee given in the day, Chairman John Barton Payne dispatched cables to Athens and Paris directing the immediate use of funds for the purchase of supplies for the sufferers. Chairman Payne also announced that Dr. A. Rose Hill, vice-chairman and director of foreign operations, will sail Friday to take charge of the expanded relief efforts.

The executive committee, it was announced at the opening of the convention, had placed in the chairman's hands all the organization's funds and facilities, advising him to use them as he deemed advisable. That action brought an expression of gratitude from President Harding who further informed the convention in a message of greeting of his satisfaction at the willingness of the agency to co-operate in Near East relief, and again extend a helping hand across the seas. Approval of the committee's action also was given by the convention through adoption of resolutions.

In signally expanding the agency's foreign relief operations, Chairman Payne called the American Committee at Athens to draw on the relief fund to the extent of $100,000 immediately. The fund should be used, the cable directed, to purchase "urgent supplies" for the refugees in Greece. Instruction also was given that the committee obtain, if possible, a warehouse in Piraeus for the Red Cross.

To the Greek Red Cross at Athens Chairman Payne sent a message stating that a commission would be on hand there soon to aid in the relief work.

The American Red Cross in Paris was instructed by the Chairman to purchase $10,000 worth of canned milk and to hurry shipment of districts where most needed.

LOCAL ROTARIANS BID FAREWELL TO REV. S. K. PHILLIPS

Wives and Lady Friends of Members Also Entertained in Ladies' Night Program

SEVERAL MEMBERS PAY FINE TRIBUTE TO SKY PILOT SAM

Usual Supper and Number of Songs Feature During the Evening's Program

The Greenville club held its regular meeting last night as a farewell party to Rev. S. K. Phillips and wife who will leave this month for Fayetteville where they will make their future home. The occasion was also known as ladies' night and each member of the club had his wife or a lady friend as guests. The evening passed away pleasantly and many splendid tributes were paid to Mr. Phillips, retiring pastor of the Presbyterian church, who has been one of the club's staunchest members.

After minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved a solo was rendered by Mrs. W. L. Hall. This was followed by a song by Burney Warren and Judson Blount. P. A. Anthony and Charlie Porter presented the club with their old standby, "Bubbles," after which Mrs. J. E. Proctor entertained with a splendid solo.

S. K. Phillips and J. H. Rose appeared in the role of "Gallagher and Sheen" and produced much merriment with dialogue and song of local color.

President J. B. Winalow, who presided over the session, paid a splendid tribute to Sky Pilot Phillips, as he was known among the Rotarians, after which he called on others to say what he had left unsaid. The next speakers of the evening were Dr. C. J. Ellen and W. L. Hall paid a glowing tribute to the splendid work accomplished by Mr. Phillips in his work as pastor of the church and religious leader of the Rotary club.

After a song composed in honor of Mr. Phillips, R. H. Wright, president of the Teachers College delivered the farewell address. His remarks were couched in splendid terms and showed the high esteem in which the ministers and his wife were held by the entire city. A splendid supper was served while the program was being rendered. The song in honor of Mr. Phillips follows: Tune: "My Country 'Tis of Thee"

Sky Pilot, 'tis to thee, Leader in Rotary— To thee we sing— For we have loved thee so, E'en though thou art so low, We hate to see thee go Out of our ring.

Preacher—indeed thou art, Preacher,—yet Man at Heart— Not lacking guile, Long we shall miss thy face, For none can take thy place, Or ask our dinner grace In such grand style.

Our parson thou hast been, Our faithful guide 'in sin— Going before, Now there'll be none to tell When we are doing well Or when we're close to hell; This we deplore.

Yet with thee, good old soul, As thou art going out, Our love goes too. Take it to Fayetteville; Use it the void to fill While your new friends distill A fresh "home" brew.

Plans of the Pitt county medical society to educate the public in public health questions should receive the hearty support of intelligent people in all parts of the county. The campaign is one of the most necessary that has ever been inaugurated, and if properly carried out should be of great benefit to those not acquainted with measures to prevent communicable diseases. The lectures of the series will be delivered by county physicians. Material of every lecture is prepared by the state board of health but must be passed on by the lecture committee of the county society before they are delivered. The physicians are intensely interested in the welfare of the public and the movement is launched to more fully protect the illiterate from diseases which they know little about. Pitt county people should greatly appreciate this effort to better conditions and it's their duty to assist the society in every way this should become possible.

President Harding has issued an urgent appeal in behalf of the Near East and if the people respond to his request for aid it is likely an enormous amount of money will be raised. The seriousness of the situation in the zone of war can well be imagined, after the Turks have laid waste millions of property, and unless America extends proper aid the winter will see thousands of human beings perish. America has given millions to Europe since the war ended, but we are prosperous enough to give that much more and not feel it. We are experiencing a period of prosperity that enables us to share with the unfortunates, and unless we do we are unfit to receive the blessings which have been ours while other nations suffered. The president has appealed, and certainly our people won't be slow in responding.

Moore county is evidently making great progress in its apple growing project if reports count for anything. That apple growing will be successful in a great county where peaches are grown by the millions cannot be doubted in the slightest sense of the word. Moore county has shown the world what can be done with peaches, and its crop the past few years has established a reputation any county would be delighted to claim.

"Pay Up and Trade Weeks" began in Greenville today and for the next month the trading public will have an opportunity of paying up their accounts and receiving in return receipts entitling them to a chance for one of the beautiful prizes to be given away one month from the date of the opening. Everyone should make an effort to settle up their accounts while the campaign is in progress. The affair was inaugurated to inspire everyone to get busy and to make an effort to pay up what they owe. A coupon will be given for every dollar in trade on accounts. These coupons will entitle the holder to a chance at the expensive Overland automobile and other premiums to be given away at the same time. The campaign was a great success last year. The public rallied behind the movement in a commendable way and the merchants were enabled to settle up many long standing accounts. If you owe anybody anything, why not get busy and pay up during pay up and trade weeks? There never was a better time, nor a time when the merchants would appreciate your effort more. Let's make the event greater than ever before to make arrangements to settle what debts you owe and in return receive a chance to win one of the prizes.

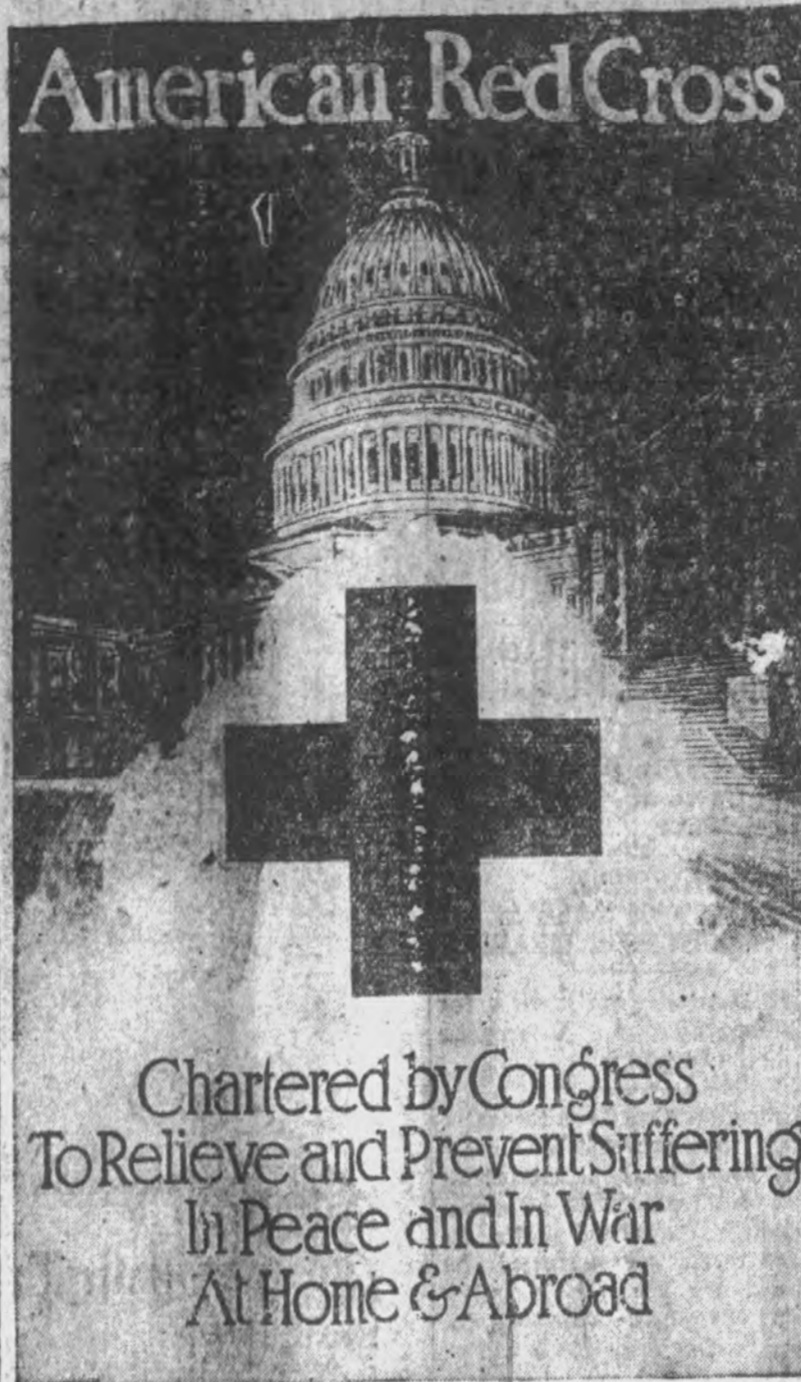

The Reflector today carries an article from the pen of Mrs. Stubbs, in which she presents the awful scope which speeding has reached on the hard surfaced roads. It is also shown that the public moral is alarmingly low, and is sufficiently convincing to make the hearts of parents quake with fear. It is a known fact that virtue among the American younger set has taken an awful tumble, but the serious extent has not been fully realized by the people. It is about time for parents to look into the activities of their children. It's about time for them to determine what they do at night when they go out riding with young men, many of whom have only lived among them a short time. It's mighty fine to have confidence in the youngsters, but when this confidence is being betrayed without parents' knowledge it's about time for somebody to wake up and get busy. Speeding on the hard surfaced roads is bad enough but using the roads as a means of corrupting morals and conducting questionable parties is something that should be looked into at once before it goes any further.

Action of Attorney General Daugherty in ruling that vessels, whether government or otherwise, may enter the three mile limit with whiskey aboard has created considerable comment on all sides, and some have considered it so seriously that they refrain from speculation on the outcome. It is believed that trade with foreign countries will be greatly reduced, and that it may be diverted to other ports where no such ruling is in force. If prohibition is to be enforced in this country it is certainly advisable to prevent ships from bringing the whiskey within reach of those desiring it. There is little reason to believe it will injure trade to any extent. Whiskey doesn't cause people to purchase necessities, and if foreign countries are in need of our goods they will send their ships for it whether they are permitted to bring whiskey or not. Such an argument is out of reason and is merely presented in an effort to prevent complete enforcement of prohibition laws.

The report that former President Wilson is watching developments in political circles will produce much uneasiness among members of the Republican party. Woodrow Wilson is more capable of handling the opposition than any other man who had the reigns of government in hand. If he were able to resume his position in the ranks of the Democratic party there is reason to believe he would be able to regain the following that brought out his election long years ago. Democrats and Republicans too recognize the ability of this great prematurely aged man, and if he should show the slightest signs of re-entering the fray he would receive support that would be the undoing of the Republican party. We are glad to hear he is watching changing conditions. It is an assurance that old Democracy still has a champion it may well be proud of, it matters not what may happen.

Allied representatives have expressed optimism over the outcome of the Mudania conference and believe warfare will soon be brought to an end. It is hoped their optimism may not be premature, as Europe has suffered enough from ruthless Turks and deserve a period of peace if ever a country did. While the Turks put up a bold front, they were not as much in favor of fighting as some thought they were. No set of people deliberately defy larger and more powerful nations, and it matters not how determined Turkey may have been at first she has had time to give the matter calm consideration before proceeding further. The Allies have played a prominent part in the peace negotiations and Greece owes its present state of security to the untiring vigil of Britain and other interested nations.

Striking New Red Cross Poster

Riveting the attention of the beholder on the fact that the American Red Cross is chartered by Congress as an official volunteer relief organization the dome of the Capitol at Washington, upon which is superimposed a large Red Cross, is the central figure of a new poster for the Annual Red Cross Roll Call. The poster, which has been pronounced one of the most striking of innumerable representations of the famous dome, is the work of Franklin Booth, a New York artist of wide renown. It will be displayed throughout the country during the Roll Call period, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, when the Red Cross membership for 1923 will be enrolled.

Junior Red Cross Praised for Work Influencing Peace

The advancing standard of the Junior American Red Cross made two outstanding gains during the last year—one in the field of domestic activity, which is rapidly linking up the schools with the Junior program, the other a gain of a dozen countries in Europe pledged to organize Juniors on the lines of the American organization. For this accomplishment the American Juniors earned the hearty endorsement of the League of Red Cross Societies for its "creation of an international spirit of human solidarity among young people with a view to preparation of a new civilization for peace."

The forthcoming annual report of the American Red Cross for the year ended June 30, 1922, will show 24,528 schools enrolled, with a total of 4,483,845 pupils wearing the "I Serve" button of the American Junior Red Cross—the badge of unselfish service earned by each individual member through personal sacrifice.

In international school correspondence 736 classes and schools engaged in friendly communication with 623 schools in European countries, 90 schools in United States territories, 13 in South Africa and 10 in a miscellaneous list of foreign countries. The work in foreign fields in establishing playgrounds, school libraries, sewing and manual training classes, homes for war orphans, school reconstruction in devastated areas, encouraging community gardens and many other activities was financed through the National Children's Fund raised by the Juniors at a cost of $338,237.40. During the year $36,922.79 was contributed toward the fund, in which on July 1 there was a balance of $201,361.58.

"No More Ruined Shirtwaists for Me," said Mrs. Southlee

"I've discovered a most wonderful water softener"

A group of young housewives were discussing washing materials. One said that her clothes had been fairly eaten to ribbons by patent washing fluids and chemicals.

"No more of that in my home," said Mrs. Southlee. "I've discovered a most wonderful water softener that does not harm the fabric. My maid says it makes the washing easier than anything she has ever used. She just dissolves a 1/2 teaspoonful of Red Seal Lye in each bucket of water. This softens the water, and makes the clothes snowy white. She uses less soap too."

"That's quite true," chimed in another. "I've always used Red Seal Lye as a water softener, but that's only one of its many uses. Red Seal Lye makes an excellent soap. I tell my cook to save all the waste grease. One can of Red Seal, when mixed with grease and water, makes enough soap to last several months for all laundry and scrubbing purposes. It's really quite fun to make. The directions are in the case."

There are many household uses and recipes for Red Seal Lye described in the Red Seal Booklet, which will be mailed you free. Send for it today.

Ask your dealer for the old reliable granulated Red Seal Lye. Get the genuine. Take no other.

PLAIN TRUTH AS SEEN BY A PLAIN COUNTRY WOMAN

We country people are a plain lot and too plain as many may think and say. We may also be perfect old fogies as our town friends call us, but we do not enjoy the kind of life that many of our town friends call joy and fun.

the woman that had taken his life. She didn't stop to see if she had really killed the dog, or to drag him out of the way of others that might run over him. She didn't stop to see if any one was looking, or if the owner of the dog would appear.

were fathers and mothers, different from any they had ever seen before, and then in the day light when every body was looking, we all saw sights that startled us beyond explanation.

to, his money to look after, his own personal affairs, and mother has her clubs and her friends to entertain and her household duties to perform.

Some of the speeders that pass these country homes and joy ride day and night, laugh, sing, and whoop, keeping the farmers awake at night that are responsible for their existence.

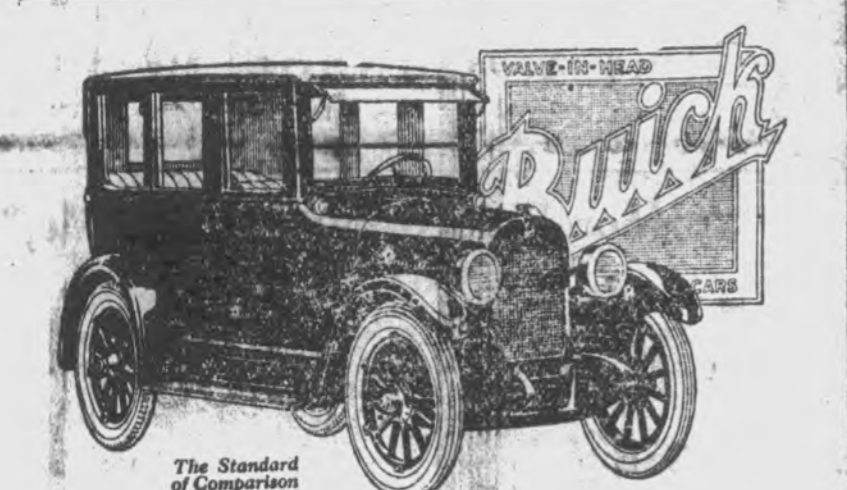

If anything has been done, results do not show it, for they still speed in their own wild way. After reading the article in the paper, I had the same ideas and opinions I have at present, but not until a large touring car driven by a woman at the rate of from forty-five to fifty miles an hour coming from towards Winterville and going to Greenville Monday afternoon, September 25th, between four and five p. m., run over and instantly killed my nice Collie dog, not until then did I feel so perfectly savage and angry towards the speeders.

People that are walking stand very little chance at all of getting where they start. About the only place they can walk in safety is on the other side of the ditch that is on each side of the road and then they are not always safe for sometimes you can see where a machine has been plunged in the ditch as if the driver was chasing pigs, or rainbows. I do not mean to say that women alone are speeders and not all of them are, some drive very carefully.

Then when you learn that a young girl much younger than yourself is in the car, that is in the ditch or mud, and she's dead drunk. You might feel sore again.

Our boys and girls are not the only ones going wrong for our married men and our married women are going it fast. Men are suing for divorces, and women are leaving their children and husbands.

These riders and peace breakers are going to their destination some day. A few go every day and it may be your time next. Some day after a big joy ride that night and a swell time, you are going to open your eyes and instead of seeing the beautiful morning sun that usually comes in the window, you are going to find yourself face to face with the devil and to your great surprise you are to learn you have driven your last automobile and will spend eternity in hell.

CONSIDER PLANS U. N. C. HOSPITAL

Physicians of State Gather Here Tuesday To Talk Over Location

(Sunday's News and Observer)
One hundred physicians representing the entire medical profession of North Carolina will meet at the Yarroworth Hotel Tuesday morning to consider what recommendations, if any, should be made about the location of the proposed four-year medical school for the University of North Carolina, and the hospital attached to the school.

The conference promises action. Charlotte, Greensboro and Durham are making active bids for the institution against the prevailing sentiment among the alumni of the University for locating the hospital on the campus at Chapel Hill. Every color of sentiment will likely be represented at the meeting.

Charlotte has been campaigning for the hospital ever since the trustees practically decided upon its erection last June. Through its newspapers, civic organizations and the like the city has worked day and night on the proposal. Its most recent effort is a handsome printed book setting forth the city's claims.

Erection of the medical school and of approximately one million dollars hospital will require an expenditure. Trustees and officers of the institution have not yet definitely determined whether to ask the 1923 General Assembly for an appropriation for its immediate construction and equipment. Split over the location will probably mean that the hospital will not be built immediately.

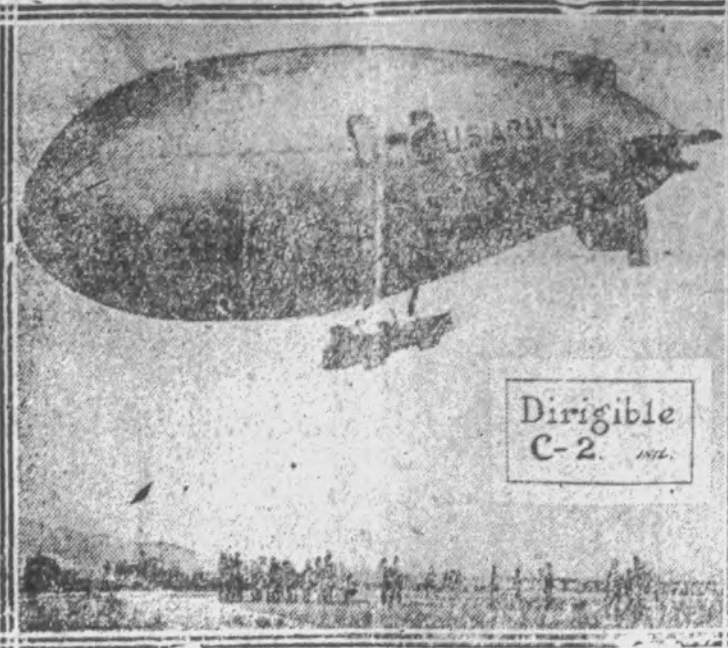

Charlotte, Greensboro and Durham are basing their contentions for the hospital on the fact that the University is removed from the main thoroughfares and inaccessible to any large number of patients. It is claimed that the clinical material, that is patients upon whom experiments and observation may be available, is not sufficient at Chapel Hill to justify its location there.

More rapid means of transportation, and the fact that the University is now but 20 minutes drive from the railroad station at Durham and easily accessible from all parts of the state over improved highways are advanced in favor of the location at Chapel Hill, and the further fact that the administrative officers are already at the University.

Whatever the action taken Tuesday and whatever the action of the special committee named last June to work out plans for the school and hospital, final judgment will be rendered by the trustees, and then probably not until June of next year. The matter will come up before the semi-annual meeting in December, but action is not looked for by that time.

Dr. Laughinghouse, having been appointed by the trustees of the University of North Carolina and the Medical Society of North Carolina, as one of the committee of physicians of the state to consider the advisability of enlarging the Medical Department of the University as well as the advisability of locating said Medical Department either at Chapel Hill, Durham, Raleigh, Greensboro or Charlotte, left on the three o'clock train this morning for Raleigh. He will return tonight.

LOWELL FARMER SAYS IT HELPED FRIENDS TOO

The experience of J. B. Bigger, a well known farmer, living at Lowell, N. C. R. F. D. No. 1, furnishes another very striking illustration of the value of Tanlac to persons suffering from a run-down condition. While in Gastonia the other day, Mr. Bigger made the following statement: "When I started taking Tanlac I had been laid up with typhoid and malaria fever, which left me in mighty bad shape. My stomach was so out of gear that nothing agreed with me. My nerves were all unstrung and I was so run down that I simply wasn't worth a nickel so far as work was concerned. I was troubled with gas on my stomach and had such bad dizzy spells that I could hardly stand up. "I took six bottles of Tanlac in all, but I commenced to feel like a new man before the second bottle was gone. My stomach misery, dizziness and nervousness has left me entirely. I sleep like a log at night and feel as strong and well as I ever did. I've put a number of my friends onto Tanlac and it has helped them just like it did me. I don't believe it has an equal in the world." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

JAPANESE PROTEST HAWAIIAN SCHOOLS

Honolulu, Oct.—There is no protest on the part of the Chinese community here against the proposed changes in foreign language schools rearranging their gauge of study to conform more with American standards and ideals. The attitude of the Chinese is in marked contrast to that of the Japanese language schools in recommendations, suggested by a committee of Americans and Japanese. The Japanese press has accused American members of the joint committee of using coercion which forced the Japanese to submit to their recommendations. In a letter to MacLaughlin on the foreign language school situation, Governor Wallace R. Farrington makes the following declaration: "This is an American territory, and the solution of our problems must always be reached along American lines. There can be no divided allegiance so far as American citizens are concerned in their relation to the American public school, maintained for the instruction of our American children and for the development of the best American ideals in morals and Government. "It should be clearly understood that there can be no division of allegiance among the children who are expected to assume the responsibilities as well as the privileges of American citizenship."

ONE CAN WISELY LISTEN TO A WOMAN OF 60 WHO IS STILL STATELY AND BEAUTIFUL

A stately bearing in a woman beyond middle life makes one turn in admiration! That proudly held head—that stateliness are due you know, to an unslacking pride in her appearance.

Just because she is along in years is no reason in her mind for letting her figure become settled and dowdy.

Instead she is more concerned over the choice and fitting of her corsets than ever.

So she can be proud of herself and we can be proud of her! Many elderly women choose a Modart because they derive so much comfort from them.
